§ 503.280 Determination of compensation; appeals. (a) Any appeal for determination of compensation filed pursuant to § 503.279 of this order shall be in writing, shall be filed, within 10 days after expiration of the lease, with the district manager of the district in which transportation under the lease began, and shall state the reasons why the compensation paid or received is claimed to be inequitable. The carrier filing the appeal shall serve a copy thereof forthwith upon the other carrier by registered mail, at the latter's address shown in the lease. Upon receipt of the appeal the district manager shall forward the appeal, and all papers in his possession relating thereto, to the regional director of the region in which such district is located. Within a time limited by the regional director, the carriers may submit any written evidence, briefs, or arguments deemed relevant to the appeal. The regional director shall render a decision in writing, determining the amount of compensation payable, as the facts may warrant, and shall serve a copy of his decision upon the carriers by registered mail at their addresses shown in the lease.

(b) Within 10 days after the mailing of a copy of the regional director's decision, either carrier may file with the regional director a written appeal to the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C., which shall state the reasons why the decision should be changed. Upon receipt of the appeal, the regional director shall forward the appeal, and all papers in his possession relating to the matter to be reviewed, to the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, who will affirm, increase or reduce the amount of compensation determined by the regional director, as the facts appearing in the record may warrant, and will notify the carriers thereof.

§ 503.281 Applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable only in the continental United States.

§ 503.282 Definitions. As used in this order, the term: (a) "Truck" means either (1) a straight truck, (2) a combination truck-tractor and semitrailer, (3) a full trailer, (4) or any combination thereof, (5) or any other rubber-tired vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power when used in the transportation of property, other than a vehicle engaged primarily in the transportation of persons.

(b) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative, and includes any department or agency of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or any other political governmental or legal entity.

(c) "Common carrier" means any person which holds itself out to engage in the transportation of property for the general public in over-the-road service by truck for compensation, regardless of the designation of such person under any federal or state statute.

(d) "Contract carrier" means any person other than a common carrier which engages in the transportation of property by truck in over-the-road service for compensation, regardless of the designation of such person under any federal or state statute.

(e) "Private carrier" means any person, other than a common carrier or a contract carrier, which engages in the transportation of property by truck in over-the-road service, regardless of the designation of such person under any federal or state statute.

(f) "Carrier," unless otherwise indicated by the context, includes common carriers, contract carriers and private carriers.

(g) "Over-the-road service" means all operations of a truck except (1) those within an area which includes any municipality or urban community and a zone extending 25 air miles from the boundaries thereof; (2) those within and between contiguous municipalities or urban communities; and (3) those not more than 25 miles in length.

(h) "Capacity load" has the meaning specified for that term in § 501.4 (g) of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended, and in § 501.65 (h) of General Order ODT 17, as amended.

(i) "District" and "region" mean, respectively, a district and region of the Division of Motor Transport of the Office of Defense Transportation as described in Administrative Order ODT 6 (8 F.R. 13194).

(j) "District Office" shall include any branch thereof.

(k) "District Manager" means the manager of a district.

(l) "Regional Director" means a director of a region.

(m) "Continental United States" means the 48 states and the District of Columbia.

§ 503.283 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Administrative Order ODT 10," and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C.

This order shall become effective on March 27, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and recording requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of March 1944.

C. D. YOUNG,
Deputy Director,
Office of Defense Transportation.

APPENDIX 1

1. This trip lease is executed in compliance with orders of the Office of Defense Transportation pertaining to the leasing of empty trucks.

2. The lessor, _____ (name)

represents that in the course of normal operation lessor intends to operate the truck described below from _____ (city and state) to _____ (city and state) on _____ (date) as a _____ (common, contract, or private) carrier, and that, except for this lease, the truck described below would move empty from _____ (city and state) to _____ (city and state)

3. The lessee, _____ (name)

represents that lessee is a _____ (common, contract, or private) carrier.

4. The term of this lease shall be the duration of one single trip from _____ (city and state) to _____ (city and state) via highway _____

5. The following is a description of the truck covered by this lease:

(a) Truck or tractor No. _____ Make _____ Model _____ Year _____ Type of body _____ Serial No. _____ License No. _____

(b) Semi-trailer No. _____ Make _____ Model _____ Year _____ Type of body _____ Serial No. _____ License No. _____

(c) Full trailer No. _____ Make _____ Model _____ Year _____ Type of body _____ Serial No. _____ License No. _____

6. During the term of this lease the leased truck shall be operated only by the driver named _____. Such driver, and any helper furnished by the lessor, shall remain on lessor's payroll.

7. Unless otherwise agreed herein, the leased truck shall not be operated for the purpose of making more than one collection and one delivery of freight transported in line-haul operation of the truck.

8. The compensation to be paid to the lessor by the lessee for the leasing of the truck and for the services of the driver named in paragraph 6 shall be paid upon termination of this lease, unless otherwise agreed herein, and shall be computed as follows:

(a) [Here insert details of compensation, including time of payment, if and as agreed upon between the carriers, or, if not agreed upon, specify the method or means to be used in computing or determining compensation.]

(b) If no agreed amount, or means or method of computing or determining the amount, of compensation is specified in subparagraph (a) next preceding, the compensation under this lease shall be computed in accordance with the schedule of compensation prescribed by the Office of Defense Transportation and in effect in the district of the Division of Motor Transport in which transportation under this lease begins, or shall be as finally determined by the Office of Defense Transportation upon application by either carrier, in accordance with Administrative Order ODT 10.

(c) In computing compensation for excess time, if any, during which the leased truck is held at destination for unloading, the hours between _____ o'clock ... M. on _____ (date) and _____ o'clock ... M. on _____ (date) shall not be included.

9. This lease is executed in triplicate.

10. The lessor and lessee hereby agree to all of the terms, conditions, and representations set forth in this lease, including those appearing on the reverse side hereof.

ADDITIONAL TERMS, CONDITIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS

(To be reproduced on reverse side of lease)

A. The lessee, upon completion of the loading of the vehicle, shall furnish lessor with documentary evidence of the weight or volume of the freight loaded thereon.

B. The lessee shall assume direction and control of the leased vehicle and full responsibility to the public, shippers, and consignees, for its operation. The lessee shall also display prominently on both sides of the leased vehicle (on tractor only, where tractor-trailer is involved) the name of the lessee preceded by the words "Operated by," and the number of any operating certificate or permit held by the lessee.

C. The lessee shall pay only such tolls, ferry charges, state fees, and fines as are directly attributable to the transportation of lessee's freight in the leased vehicle.

D. The lessee, if a private carrier, represents that the leased vehicle is to be utilized for the transportation of property only to a point to which, or in an area within which, the lessee ordinarily operates motor trucks, and that, except for such utilization, the lessee would have used his own truck for the transportation to be performed hereunder in the leased vehicle.

E. The lessor, during the term of this lease, shall be responsible for the maintenance, service, and repair of the leased vehicle, and shall provide motor fuel, oil, tires, and other equipment necessary to operate the vehicle.

F. The lessor, during the term of this lease, shall be responsible for the deduction and payment of all payroll deductions, tax withholdings, taxes, assessments, premiums, and other payments, due by reason of the payment of wages or other earnings to the driver or any helper utilized in the operation of the leased vehicle without transfer to the lessee's payroll.

G. The lessor's copy of this lease shall be carried in the leased vehicle throughout the period of utilization, one copy shall be retained by the lessee, and one copy shall be mailed by the lessee, postage prepaid, within 24 hours after its execution, to the district office in the district of the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, in which transportation under the lease is to begin.

H. Other terms, conditions, and representations, not inconsistent with the foregoing:

SCHEDULES AND RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING COMPENSATION FOR TRIP LEASES OF TRUCKS

Rule 1. General application. Schedules 1 to 9, inclusive, are to be used in determining the compensation for the use of a truck leased under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of § 503.278 of Administrative Order ODT 10, when and if the lessor and lessee are unable to agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid the lessor by the lessee for the use of the truck.

Rule 2. Territorial application. Schedule 1 applies to the use of a truck leased under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of § 503.278 of Administrative Order ODT 10, when the use of such truck begins at any point within Region 1 of the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, as described in Appendix 1 to Administrative Order ODT 6.

Schedules 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 apply in like manner to the use of a truck leased under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of §503.278 of Administrative Order ODT 10, when the use of such truck begins at any point within Regions 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9, respectively, of the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, as described in Appendix 1 to Administrative Order ODT 6, subject to the following exceptions:

(a) When the use of such leased truck begins at any point within Region 7 and terminates, under the provisions of the trip lease, at a point located in Region 8, Schedule 8 shall apply, and when such termination point is located in Region 9, Schedule 9 shall apply;

(b) When the use of such leased truck begins at a point within the Denver, Colorado; Pueblo, Colorado; Billings, Montana; Casper, Wyoming; or Cheyenne, Wyoming, districts of Region 8 of the Division of Motor Transport, as described in Appendix 8 to Administrative Order ODT 6, and terminates, under the provisions of the trip lease, at a point located in Region 8, Schedule 8 shall apply, and when such termination point is located in Region 6, Schedule 6 shall apply.

Rule 3. Monetary application of schedules. Schedules 1 to 9, inclusive, specify compensation per mile for indicated weights and distances.

Rule 4. Loading and unloading time. Schedules 1 to 9, inclusive, include compensation for a period not to exceed two hours for waiting and loading at point of origin, and not to exceed two hours for waiting and unloading at point of destination.

Rule 5. Excess time. All time in excess of two hours at either origin or destination point, whether consumed in waiting, loading or unloading, shall be considered as excess time. The lessor shall receive compensation from the lessee for such excess time at the hourly rate prevailing for the driver in line-haul operation.

If the lessee specifies a time and point for loading, and if, at the specified time, lessor's truck is at the designated point and ready to load, excess time shall start two hours after the time specified; if, at the specified time, lessor's truck is not at the designated point and ready to load, excess time shall start two hours after lessor's truck arrives at the designated point and is ready to load. If the lessee does not specify a time, then the excess time shall start two hours after the lessor's truck arrives at the designated point and is ready for loading.

Excess time at point of destination shall start two hours after the time the leased truck arrives at the point of destination, unless otherwise specified in the lease.

Rule 6. Excess mileage. When a leased truck is operated for the purpose of effecting collection or delivery of freight transported or to be transported in the leased truck in line-haul operation, the lessor shall be compensated for any excess mileage so operated at the same compensation per mile applicable to the distance the leased truck travels in line-haul operation.

Rule 7. Method of determining weight. Weight shall be determined in nearest tons, a fraction of one-half or greater shall be treated as one ton; a fraction of less than one-half shall be disregarded. Volume shipments shall be converted to tons. For the purpose of that conversion, a cubic foot of space occupied by the freight shall be deemed to equal 20 pounds of freight by weight.

Rule 8. Method of determining distance. The distance to be used in computing the compensation under Rule 10 for line-haul operation shall be the distance shown in the current edition of the Rand-McNally Atlas of the United States, Canada and Mexico between the points, and via the routes, specified in the lease.

Rule 9. Definitions. As used in this Appendix 2 the term:

(a) "Ton" means two thousand pounds.

(b) "Line-haul operation" means the use of a truck while leased under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of § 503.278 of Administrative Order ODT 10, and operated between the points and via the routes specified in the lease.

(c) "Volume shipment" means freight weighing less than 20 pounds per cubic foot of space occupied.

Rule 10. Method of determining line-haul compensation.

First: Determine the applicable weight in accordance with Rule 7.

Example: The freight to be transported weighs nine thousand pounds. By Rule 7, nine thousand pounds will be regarded as 5 tons.

Second: Determine the applicable distance in accordance with Rule 8.

Example: The leased truck is operated by the lessee from point A to point B. The map distance between those points, via the routes specified in the lease, is 140 miles. The distance actually traveled in line-haul operation is 143 miles. The line-haul distance for which compensation is payable is 140 miles.

Third: If the distance found by applying Rule 8 appears in the "Line Haul Miles Traveled" column of the Schedule, the compensation is determined by multiplying the distance by the compensation per mile specified in the applicable "Ton Load" column of the Schedule.

Example: The line-haul distance found under Rule 8 is 140 miles. The weight found under Rule 7 is 5 tons. The compensation payable under Schedule 1 for the line-haul operation is 140×$0.151, or $21.14.

Fourth: If the distance found by applying Rule 8 does not appear in the "Line Haul Miles Traveled" column of the Schedule, the compensation is determined by multiplying the distance found by the compensation per mile specified in the applicable "Ton Load" column for the next lower distance appearing in the "Line Haul Miles Traveled" column: Provided, That the compensation payable shall in no event exceed the compensation payable for the same weight at the next higher distance appearing in the "Line Haul Miles Traveled" column.

Example: The line-haul distance found under Rule 8 is 146 miles. The weight found under Rule 7 is 5 tons. The compensation payable under Schedule 1 for the line-haul operation is 146×$0.151, or $22.05.

Using the same weight, but increasing the map distance to 152 miles, the computed compensation for 152 line-haul miles at $0.151 would be $22.95. Because that sum exceeds the compensation payable for 160 line-haul miles which is the next higher distance shown in Schedule 1 (160×$0.139, or $22.24) the compensation payable under Schedule 1 for 152 line-haul miles is $22.24.

Fifth: If the distance found by applying Rule 8 is less than 50 miles, the compensation is determined by multiplying the distance found by the compensation per mile specified in the applicable "Ton Load" column for a line haul of 50 miles.

Example: The line-haul distance found under Rule 8 is 40 miles. The weight found under Rule 7 is 5 tons. The compensation payable under Schedule 1 for line-haul operation is 40×$0.286, or $11.44.

Sixth: If, under Schedule 1, the distance found by applying Rule 8 is more than four hundred miles, the compensation is determined by multiplying the distance found by the compensation per mile specified in the applicable "Ton Load" column for a line-haul of four hundred miles.

Example: The line-haul distance found under Rule 8 is 439 miles. The weight found under Rule 7 is 5 tons. The compensation payable under Schedule 1 for line-haul operation is 439 x $.063 or $36.44.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE FOR NAVAL PERSONNEL

LOCAL SUPERVISION AND COORDINATION

Paragraph 4 of the instructions relative to the establishment of legal assistance offices in the naval service appearing in the July 14, 1943 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (8 F.R. 9631) is amended to read as follows:

4. Local supervision and coordination. The district legal officer of each naval district shall, under the direction of the Commandant, exercise general supervision and coordination of all legal assistance offices within the district at activities under the general jurisdiction of the Commandant. Close liaison will also be maintained between the district legal officer and all legal assistance offices at other activities located within the district, for the purpose of coordinating all legal assistance offices. COLORADO-BIG THOMPSON PROJECT, COLO.

PARTIAL REVOCATION OF FIRST FORM WITHDRAWAL

JANUARY 10, 1944.

The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

SIR: From recent investigations in connection with the Colorado-Big Thompson project, the withdrawal of the hereinafter described land, withdrawn in the first form prescribed by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), by departmental order of September 14, 1937, no longer appears necessary to the interests of the project.

It is therefore recommended that so much of said order as withdrew the lands hereinafter listed be revoked, Provided, That such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said order or affect any other order withdrawing or reserving the lands hereinafter listed.

COLORADO-BIG THOMPSON PROJECT
SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, COLORADO

T. 2 S., R. 79 W.,
Sec. 17, NE¼SW¼.

Respectfully,

H. W. BASHORE,
Commissioner.

I concur: February 24, 1944.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The foregoing recommendation regarding the Colorado-Big Thompson project is hereby approved, and it is so ordered. The jurisdiction over and use of such lands by the Bureau of Reclamation shall cease upon the date of the signing of this order.

This order, however, shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 o'clock a. m. of the sixty-third day from the date on which it is signed, whereupon the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection as may be authorized by the public-land laws in accordance with the provisions of 43 CFR 295.8 (Circ. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254) and 43 CFR part 296, to the extent that these regulations are applicable.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby authorized and directed to cause the records of his office and of the local land office to be noted accordingly.

MICHAEL W. STRAUS,
First Assistant Secretary.

SALT RIVER PROJECT, ARIZ.

PARTIAL REVOCATION OF FIRST AND SECOND FORM WITHDRAWALS

FEBRUARY 10, 1944.

The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

SIR: From recent investigations in connection with the Salt River project, the withdrawal of the hereinafter described lands, withdrawn in the first and second forms prescribed by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), by departmental orders of July 2 and August 26, 1902, December 4, 1908, August 21, 1909, November 7, 1918, October 7, 1920 and November 16, 1921, no longer appears necessary to the interests of the project.

It is therefore recommended that so much of said orders as withdrew the lands hereinafter listed be revoked: Provided, That such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said orders or affect any other orders withdrawing or reserving the lands hereinafter listed.

Mississippi Valley Stock Yards Co.

ORDERS OF INQUIRY AND SUSPENSION, AND NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of Carroll P. Poland, doing business as the Mississippi Valley Stock Yards Company, respondent.

The order of inquiry, order of suspension, and notice of hearing, dated June 8, 1943, issued for the purpose of investigating the reasonableness of the respondent's rates and charges and of any rules, regulations, and practices affecting such rates and charges, and to determine whether any stockyard service is rendered without making a lawful charge therefor, is herewith amended by adding the following allegation:

The respondent at divers times has failed to keep such accounts, records, and memoranda as fully and correctly disclose all transactions involved in his business including, but not limited to, the following: (1) Failure to set up purchases of feed in the feed account for 1942 and 1943; (2) Failure to retain bills covering water consumption for the period from January 1, 1938 to June 30, 1943; (3) Entering in the repairs and maintenance account items having no relation to such account for the period from 1938 to 1943; (4) Over-stating salaries and wages by failing to credit properly the account for wages paid through the Stock Yard's pay roll for affiliated organizations; (5) Failure to issue vouchers representing petty cash expenditures for part of 1940 and 1942 and the full year 1941; (6) Failure to maintain insurance accounts properly in 1942 and 1943; (7) Failure to set up in the accounts receivable account items reflecting sales of feed to Art Schroeder in 1939; (8) Understating liability with respect to notes payable.

Notice to the respondent is herewith given that a hearing concerning the allegations made in the order of inquiry and this amendment shall be held before an examiner at a time and place of which the respondent will have at least ten days' notice. At such hearing the respondent and all other iterested persons will have the right and opportunity to present such evidence with respect to the matters and things alleged as may be relevant and material.

A copy of this order shall be served upon the respondent by registered mail.

This order shall be published in the Federal Register.

Division of Public Contracts.

EVAPORATED AND POWDERED SKIMMED MILK

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS

In the matter of an exception from the provisions of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act of contracts for evaporated milk and powdered skimmed milk.

Whereas upon request of the Secretary of War an exception was granted by me on November 4, 1942, pursuant to the powers vested in me by section 6 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35), permitting the award of contracts for evaporated milk and powdered skimmed milk during the period from this date to December 31, 1943, without the inclusion in such contracts of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the act; and

Whereas the Acting Secretary of War on February 22, 1944, has requested an extension of this exception to December 31, 1944, and has made written findings that the inclusion in proposals issued or contracts let on or before this date of the representations and stipulations required by section 1 of the act will seriously impair the conduct of Government business; and

Whereas objections have been filed to the grant of the requested extension; and

Whereas it appears that justice and the public interest will be served by granting such exception on a temporary basis pending a full hearing and final determination of the action to be taken on the request of the Acting Secretary of War,

Now, therefore, I do hereby extend the exception of November 4, 1942, permitting the award of contracts for evaporated milk and powdered skimmed milk to May 31, 1944, without the inclusion in such contracts of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the act, unless otherwise ordered.

Dated: March 10, 1944.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[S. O. 103, Special Permit 5]

SHIPMENT OF CANADIAN MALTING BARLEY FROM MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by paragraph (b) of the first ordering paragraph (§ 95.4, 8 F.R. 572) of Service Order No. 103 of January 12, 1943, permission is granted for any common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act:

To disregard the provisions of Service Order No. 103 insofar as it applies to the acceptance and movement by railroad of 25,500 bushels of Canadian malting barley shipped by the Checkerboard Elevator Company from Minneapolis, Minnesota, to destination in Mexico, provided shipper will advise car numbers and dates of shipment of each car.

The waybills shall show reference to this special permit.

A copy of this special permit has been served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this permit shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of March 1944.

OFFICE OF ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN.

[Vesting Order 53, as Amended, Amdt.]

HARA AND CO.

Whereas, by Vesting Order No. 53, dated July 22, 1942, as amended, the undersigned vested, "All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States, owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, the branch office of Hara and Company, New York, New York;"

Now, therefore, under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and the authority vested by the President in the undersigned, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, has found and determined that the property so vested included the complete and unqualified title to the property hereinafter described in subparagraphs 4 and 5 hereof.

To the extent, if any, that any part of the property listed in subparagraphs 4 and 5 and the complete and unqualified title therein and thereto was not vested in the Alien Property Custodian on July 22, 1942, by Vesting Order No. 53, the undersigned, under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, and after investigation:

Finding:

1. That Hara and Company, whose principal place of business is in Yokohama, Japan is a partnership organized under the laws of Japan, composed of Ryosabura Hara, Tasaburo Hara, Takeo Saigo, Kenichiro Saigo and Sue Hara, and as a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. That Ryosabura Hara, Tasaburo Hara, Takeo Saigo, Kenichiro Saigo and Sue Hara, whose last known addresses are Yokohama, Japan, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

3. That Hara and Company has an established agency or branch office at New York, New York, which is engaged in the conduct of business within the United States and is a business enterprise within the United States;

4. That the 336 bales and 12 books of silk referred to in subparagraph 5 hereof were owned by Hara and Company at the time of their requisitioning by the War Production Board on February 10, 1942, pursuant to Requisition WPB No. 2B-WPB-47-55/41;

5. That the property described as follows: The claim of Hara and Company for fair and just compensation arising out of the requisitioning by the War Production Board of 336 bales and 12 books of silk, is property within the United States owned by nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan); and

Determining:

6. That the branch office of Hara and Company New York, New York, is owned and controlled by Hara and Company of Yokohama, Japan, and is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

7. That to the extent that any of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

and having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian all property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States, owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to Hara and Company and its branch office at New York, New York, including particularly but not limited to the property described in subparagraph 5 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States, and hereby undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of the branch office of Hara and Company, New York, New York to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the Alien Property Custodian.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

This amendment is supplemental to and in no way diminishes, restricts or limits the force and effect of said Vesting Order No. 53; and nothing herein contained shall diminish, restrict or limit any rights, titles or interests vested in the undersigned, as the Alien Property Custodian, pursuant to said Vesting Order No. 53.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 8, 1944.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

[Vesting Order 1017, Amdt.]

LOUISE AND ELIZA BREDENWISCHER

Whereas pursuant to Vesting Order Number 1017 of March 4, 1943, the undersigned purported to vest all right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of "Louise Bredenwischer" and "Eliza Bredenwischer" in and to the Estate of Henry H. Schmidt, deceased; and

Whereas through clerical error the names "Louise Bredenwischer" and "Eliza Bredenwischer" appear in such Vesting Order as "Louise Bradenwischer" and "Eliza Brendenwischer";

Now, therefore, Vesting Order Number 1017 is hereby amended by substituting the name "Louise Bredenwischer" for "Louise Bradenwischer" and "Eliza Bredenwischer" for "Eliza Brendenwischer" in such vesting order.

All other provisions of said Vesting Order Number 1017 and all action taken on behalf of the undersigned in reliance thereon, pursuant thereto and under the authority thereof are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 7, 1944.

[Supplemental Vesting Order 3185]

AMERICAN VOITH CONTACT CO., INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Having found in Vesting Order Number 114, dated August 25, 1942, that American Voith Contact Company, Inc. is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. Finding that of the outstanding stock of American Voith Contact Company, Inc., a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the State of New York and a business enterprise within the United States, consisting of 2,000 shares of common having a par value of $100 a share, two shares (0.1%) are registered in the name of Otto J. Goeppinger and are beneficially owned by Hermann Voith and are evidence of an interest in said business enterprise;

3. Finding that the following persons have claims against American Voith Contact Company, Inc. in the amounts appearing opposite each name, which claims aggregated $16,000 as of August, 1939 and are represented on the books and records of said company as loans payable to Christian F. Benz, under style of C. F. Benz, No. 1 Account, subject, however, to any accruals or deductions subsequent thereto, and represents interests in said business enterprise:

Name and Amount
Hermann Voith	$5,000.00
Hanns Voith	5,000.00
Walther Voith	6,000.00
Total	16,000.00

4. Finding that Hermann Voith, Hanns Voith and Walther Voith, whose last known addresses are Heidenheim, Germany, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And determining:

5. That to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian two shares of the common capital stock of American Voith Contact Company, Inc., registered in the name of Otto Goeppinger, and the claims against American Voith Contact Company, Inc., represented on its books and records as C. F. Benz, No. 1 Account, hereinbefore more fully described, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on February 23, 1944.

Total	6,924.60;

4. Finding that the nationals listed in subparagraphs 2 and 3 have an additional claim against Arushee Company, which claim as of July 17, 1942, amounted to $423.21, subject, however, to any accruals or deductions subsequent thereto and represents an interest in said business enterprise;

and determining:

5. That to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on February 23, 1944.

CARL SPIESMACHER

In re: Estate of Carl Spiesmacher, deceased; File D–28–3742; E.T. sec. 6309.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Treasurer of the City of New York, as Depositary, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, Kings County, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Max Spiesmacher, Germany.
Johann Spiesmacher, Germany.
Sophie Spiesmacher, Germany.
Laura Kleinhans nee Spiesmacher, Germany.
Maria Biederman nee Spiesmacher, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Max Spiesmacher, Johann Spiesmacher, Sophie Spiesmacher, Laura Kleinhans nee Spiesmacher and Maria Biederman nee Spiesmacher, and each of them, in and to the Estate of Carl Spiesmacher, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

MARY S. L. THORMANN

In re: Trust created under the last will and testament of Mary S. L. Thormann, deceased; File D–28–6575; E. T. sec. 4515.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by City Bank Farmers Trust Company, 161 Montague Street, Brooklyn, New York, Trustee, and George A. Thormann, % E. I. Cullen, 40 Wall Street, New York, New York, Cotrustee, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, Kings County, State of New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Elisabeth Thormann, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Elizabeth Thermann in and to a trust created under the Last Will and Testament of Mary S. L. Thormann, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by George H. Tegtmeyer, Sr., Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court of Hudson County, New Jersey;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Wilma (Vilma) Von Valesco, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Wilma (Vilma) Von Valesco, in and to the Estate of Joe or Joseph Von Valesco, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev.–181]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN POINTS IN NEW JERSEY, NEW YORK AND PENNSYLVANIA

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carrier's possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effecuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the Supplementary Order number which appears in the caption on page 1 hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective March 15, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 182]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN INDIANAPOLIS AND PERU, IND.

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6639, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective March 17, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of March 1944.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[MPR 478, Rev. Order 25]

SYNTHETIC RUBBER COATED FABRICS

CALCULATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Revised Order No. 25 under Maximum Price Regulation 478. Coated and combined fabrics.

Order No. 25 under Maximum Price Regulation 478 is revised and amended to read as follows:

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, and section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation 478, it is ordered:

(a) Applicability of this order. Notwithstanding any other provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 478, this order is applicable to sales by a manufacturer of any fabric or service covered by this regulation which differs from a fabric or service for which he has already established a maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 478, because of the substitution of Buna-N type synthetic rubber for Neoprene GR-M or GN synthetic rubber.

(b) Maximum prices. The manufacturer's maximum price for any fabric or service covered by this order, shall be calculated by adding to the maximum price of the fabric or service made with Neoprene GR-M or GN an amount not exceeding the increase in materials cost resulting from the substitution of a Buna-N type synthetic rubber for Neoprene GR-M or GN.

(c) Computation of increase in materials cost. The increase in materials cost referred to in paragraph (b) shall be calculated per unit of sale, as follows: The manufacturer shall multiply the quantity in pounds of the Buna-N type used and required to produce the fabric or supply the service, by the per pound price of that Buna-N type in effect to him on February 1, 1944. The result is the cost of that Buna-N type material. The manufacturer shall then multiply the quantity in pounds of Neoprene GR-M or GN required to produce the same fabric or supply the same service, by the per pound price of Neoprene GR-M or GN in effect to him on February 1, 1944. The result is the cost of the Neoprene material. The difference is the increase in materials cost resulting from the substitution of Buna-N type for Neoprene GR-M or GN referred to in paragraph (b).

(d) All provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 478 not inconsistent with this order shall apply to sales covered by this order.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective March 14, 1944.

Issued this 13th day of March 1944.

PAINTING SERVICES IN LOWELL, MASS., AREA

Order No. G-3 under Maximum Price Regulation 251. Residential painting services in Lowell, Mass., Area.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region I of the Office of Price Administration by § 1397.68 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 251, It is ordered:

(a) Any seller making sales of residential painting services which are subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 may increase his maximum price under the regulation for such sales by an amount not in excess of the difference between his labor cost computed on the basis of hourly rates in effect on July 1, 1942, and labor cost computed on the basis of the hourly rate of $1.125 established for residential and commercial painters by the National War Labor Board in WLB Case No. 1-6315, when the following conditions have been met:

(1) The seller performs the work, described above, within the Lowell, Massachusetts, area;

(2) The seller employs members of the union granted a wage djustment in WLB Case No. 1-6315; and

(3) The seller actually pays the hourly rate specified above.

(b) Any person determining maximum prices subject to this order shall submit such reports as the Office of Price Administration from time to time may require.

(c) This Order No. G-3 may be revoked or amended at any time.

(d) This Order No. G-3 shall become effective March 6, 1944.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 70-869, 70-872]

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO. AND GLENN C. HYDE

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING HEARINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 10th day of March, A. D. 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on March 8, 1944, Glenn C. Hyde, as an individual, filed an application with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly sections 9 (a) (2) and 10 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the office of this Commission for a complete statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Glenn C. Hyde proposes to purchase from Southwestern Public Service Company, a registered holding company, all the outstanding securities of Gulf Public Service Company, an electric and gas utility company and a subsidiary company of Southwestern Public Service Company, for a base consideration of $4,660,000 cash, subject to adjustments for net current assets and certain tax adjustments. Said securities consist of $2,800,000 principal amount of 5% Unsecured Notes, due October 1, 1966, and 3,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $100 per share.

Glenn C. Hyde is an affiliate of Louisiana Public Utilities Co., Inc., a public utility company, being the president and a director thereof and owning 13½% of its outstanding voting securities.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission; and

It further appearing to the Commission that on March 1, 1944 the said Southwestern Public Service Company filed a declaration with this Commission, under section 12 (d) of the act and Rule U-44 of the rules and regulations thereunder, proposing to sell to the said Glenn C. Hyde all the outstanding securities of the said Gulf Public Service Company, consisting of the securities hereinabove described, for a base consideration of $4,660,000 cash, subject to adjustments for net current assets and certain tax adjustments; and

It further appearing to the Commission that under date of March 4, 1944, the Commission gave notice of the filing of said declaration of said Southwestern Public Service Company, and ordered that a hearing be held thereon on March 16, 1944 at 10 o'clock a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and

It further appearing to the Commission that the proceedings upon the said application of said Glenn C. Hyde and the said declarations of said Southwestern Public Service Company involve common questions of law and fact; that evidence offered in respect to each of said matters will have a bearing on the other matter; and that substantial savings in time, effort and expense will result if the hearings on these matters are consolidated so that they may be heard as one matter, and so that the evidence adduced in each matter may stand as evidence in the other for all purposes;

It is ordered, That the proceedings upon the said application of Glenn C. Hyde and the said declaration of Southwestern Public Service Company be and they are hereby consolidated for the purpose of hearing and that the said consolidated hearing be held on March 16, 1944 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On the day hereinabove indicated for such consolidated hearing, the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Henry C. Lank, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That at said hearing without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application and said declaration, particular attention shall be directed to the issues specified in the notice of filing and order for hearing under date of March 4, 1944 in regard to the declaration of Southwestern Public Service Company, and to the following additional matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed consideration to be paid by the purchaser, Glenn C. Hyde, and to be received by Southwestern Public Service Company for the aforesaid Gulf Public Service Company securities is fair and reasonable.

2. Whether or not the acquisition of the said Gulf Public Service Company securities by the purchaser will serve the public interest by tending toward the economical and efficient development of an integrated public utility system, and whether such acquisition will tend toward interlocking relations or concentration of control of public utility companies of a kind or to an extent detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

3. Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers.

4. Generally, whether the proposed transactions meet the standards of the appropriate provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the General Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing a copy of this order to Glenn C. Hyde, to Southwestern Public Service Company, to the Public Service Commission of New Mexico, and to the Public Service Commission of Louisiana; and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any other person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings, or proposing to intervene herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before March 16, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

INDIANA GAS UTILITIES CO. AND ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC CO.

APPLICATION-DECLARATION GRANTED

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia 3, Pa., on the 9th day of March, 1944.

Acquisition of securities by registered holding company or subsidiary. Elimination of inactive subsidiary through acquisition of subsidiary's assets by registered holding company. Application-declaration filed pursuant to sections 9 (a), 10, 12 (b), 12 (c), and 12 (f) of Holding Company Act by registered holding company and subsidiary which has sold its properties, concerning acquisition of remaining assets, subject to existing liabilities, of subsidiary, in consideration for surrender for cancellation of all outstanding securities of subsidiary, granted and permitted to become effective, the Commission observing no basis for adverse findings.

Appearances: William T. Martin, for applicants-declarants. David I. Bursten, for the Public Utilities Division of the Commission.

Associated Electric Company (hereafter referred to as Aelec), a registered holding company, and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Indiana Gas Utilities Company (hereafter referred to as Utilities), have filed an application-declaration concerning the acquisition by Aelec of all the assets of Utilities, subject to its existing liabilities, upon the surrender by Aelec, for cancellation, of all the outstanding shares of capital stock of, and claims against, Utilities. Among the assets to be delivered by Utilities are 940 shares of common capital stock, of the par value of $1 per share, of Atlantic Utility Service Corporation (hereafter referred to as Auscorp), which formerly rendered accounting, financial, and engineering services to various companies in the Associated Gas and Electric Corporation system.

After appropriate notice, a public hearing was held. No member of the public has objected to the proposal. Upon a consideration of the record, the Commission makes the following findings:

Utilities, an Indiana corporation, was formerly engaged in the distribution of manufactured gas in and around the cities of Terre Haute, Richmond, Brazil, and Clinton, in the State of Indiana. During March and April, 1941, Utilities sold all its properties for a net consideration of approximately $1,685,000. Those sales were approved by this Commission, as to the Richmond Division on January 13, 1941 (8 S. E. C. 469), and as to the Terre Haute Division on March 18, 1941 (8 S. E. C. 829). A supplemental order approving and confirming the consummation of the sale of the Terre Haute Division was also issued by us on November 16, 1943 (Holding Company Act Release No. 4693). At present, the corporation is inactive.

Of the proceeds of the sales of Utilities' properties, $855,750 was used on July 1, 1941, to call and retire the company's entire outstanding bonded indebtedness (of the principal amount of $815,000), at the call price of 102½. The sum of $802,575 was then passed up to Aelec in partial payment of open account indebtedness.

The balance sheet of Utilities, as at September 30, 1943, was as follows:

Assets and other debits
Investments:
Atlantic Utility Service Corporation—at cost	$12,455.00
Other	1.00
Cash	31,040.01
Total assets and other debits	43,496.01
Liabilities and other credits
Capital stock—Authorized and issued, 40,000 shares common stock, no par value	$1,668,658.50
Indebtedness to parent—Associated Electric Company	1,191,353.13
Reserve for proportionate share of Federal income taxes asserted against Atlantic Utility Service Corporation	3,724.43
Earned surplus (deficit)	(2,820,240.05)
Total liabilities and other credits	43,496.01

In addition to the liabilities shown on its books, Utilities has certain contingent liabilities, minor in character, all of which are to be assumed by Aelec if not satisfied prior to the merger.

Aelec proposes to record the above assets on its books at the same amounts as carried on the books of Utilities. The reserve for the contingent liability in connection with the federal income tax claim asserted by the Treasury Department against Auscorp and predecessor companies is also to be taken over by Aelec.

As at September 30, 1943, Aelec carried its investment in Utilities as follows:

Common stock	$1.00
Open Account	39,770.58
Total	39,771.58

Sections 9 (a) and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act are applicable to the acquisition by Aelec of the Auscorp stock. These shares are to be transferred to Aelec at their carrying value, which represents their cost to Utilities. At some future time, problems in connection with the distribution of Auscorp's assets may present themselves; we are not now required to pass upon the participation of Aelec in the liquidation of Auscorp by virtue of its present holdings or by virtue of its acquisition of the Auscorp stock of Utilities. At this time we observe no basis for adverse findings under sections 10 (b) or 10 (c) (1).

Sections 12 (b), 12 (c) and 12 (f) of the Act, together with the appropriate rules promulgated thereunder, are also applicable to other phases of the proposed transactions. Accordingly, we have examined the conditions of the proposal in the light of the standards and requirements of those sections and rules, and we observe no basis for adverse findings.

It is ordered, That, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the aforesaid application-declaration be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—War Food Administration (Sugar Regulations)

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

FARMING PRACTICES FOR 1944 SUGARCANE CROP IN MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA

Determination of farming practices to be carried out in connection with the production of the 1944 crop of sugarcane in the mainland cane sugar area.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (e) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, issued April 19, 1943 the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.231 Farming practices in connection with the production of the 1944 crop of sugarcane in the mainland cane sugar area—(a) Conservation requirements. The requirements of section 301 (e) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, shall be deemed to have been fulfilled with respect to any sugarcane farm in the mainland cane sugar area if there is carried out in 1944, on land on the farm which is adapted to the production of sugarcane for sugar, an acreage of approved conservation practices equal to not less than 15 per cent of the acreage of sugarcane for sugar growing on the farm for harvest in 1944.

(b) Approved practices. (1) Each acre of the following shall be counted as one acre of conservation practices:

(i) Seeding winter legumes in the fall of 1944.

(ii) Turning under a satisfactory growth of summer legumes grown alone.

(iii) Turning under in 1944 a satisfactory growth of winter legumes seeded in the fall of 1943.

(2) Each two acres of the following shall be counted as one acre of conservation practices:

(i) Turning under a good stand and good growth of summer legumes (excluding peanuts, lespedeza, and summer legumes used as truck crops) interplanted or grown in combination with row crops, such as corn: Provided, The summer legumes occupy at least one-third of the land.

(3) Each of the following practices in the amounts specified shall be counted as one acre of conservation practices:

(i) Application of 48 pounds of available phosphoric acid (P_2O_5) to, or in connection with, a full seeding of winter legumes.

(ii) Application of 500 pounds of basic slag (rock phosphate or Colloidal Phosphate in Florida) to, or in connection with, a full seeding of winter legumes.

(iii) Removing 25 cubic yards of earth in the construction, enlargement, or cleaning out of lateral ditches and lead canals. (Applicable in Louisiana only.)

(4) Each one and one-half acres of land the top soil of which is combustible (determined as such by the State AAA Committee) and from which no crop classified as soil-depleting in ACP-1941, 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin, as amended, is harvested in 1944 and on which adequate facilities (ditches, pumps, and necessary equipment) have been maintained (whether constructed in 1944 or earlier) for flooding the land during the 1944 fire hazard season as a protection against the destruction of such top soil by fire and on which there are carried out the practices specified in paragraphs B, C, D, and E of Amendment 3 to Southern Region Bulletin 101, issued June 11, 1937, for protecting the soil against fire, assuring adequate drainage and preventing soil oxidaton and subsidence, shall be counted as one acre of conservation practices: Provided, however, That there shall be carried out on such land on the farm such other practices as are recommended for the farm by the County AAA Committee, and approved by the State AAA Committee, for protecting the soil against fire, assuring adequate drainage, preventing soil oxidation and subsidence, and otherwise preserving and improving the fertility of the soil and preventing soil erosion, such practices to be consistent with reasonable standards of the farming community in which the land is located. (Applicable in Florida only.)

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter VII—National Housing Agency

[NHA Reg. 60-2C]

PART 702—PRIVATE WAR HOUSING

OCCUPANCY AND DISPOSITION

Supersedes NHA General Order No. 60-2B (9 F.R. 245).

The National Housing Agency is responsible for the proper occupancy of housing programmed for war workers and for the adoption of regulations assuring that war housing will be held available for eligible war workers for the duration of the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939 (4 F.R. 3851). The purpose of this regulation is to set forth the private housing to which occupancy standards apply, the persons who are eligible war workers for such housing, the length of time such housing must be held for their use, the conditions under which such housing may be transferred or sold, and the conditions under which occupancy standards applicable to such housing may be modified or removed.

Sec.
702.1 Private war housing to which occupancy standards apply.
702.2 Persons who are eligible war workers.
702.3 Length of time private war housing must be reserved for occupancy by eligible war workers.
702.4 Disposition of private war housing.

AUTHORITY: §§ 702.1 to 702.4, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

§ 702.1 Private war housing to which occupancy standards apply. (a) Private war housing to which occupancy standards apply are the following:

(1) All new housing, and the additional housing accommodations created by remodeling or rehabilitation, which received or receives priority assistance or authority to begin construction as follows:

(i) Applications for priority assistance was submitted prior to February 10, 1943, on Form PD-105 and received or receives priority assistance through Preference Rating Order No. P-55, or

(ii) Application for priority assistance or authority to begin construction is submitted on or after February 10, 1943, on Form PD-105 (Revised 2-10-43) if section B thereof is executed;

(2) All new housing, and the additional housing accommodations created by remodeling or rehabilitation, which received or receives either priority assistance or authority to begin construction, as a result of submitting an application for such assistance or authority on Form PD-200, if such application was accompanied by the form Applicant's Supplemental Certification and if such housing was not to be occupied by the owner;

(3) The additional housing accommodations created by remodeling or rehabilitation financed under Class 1 (b) of Title I of the National Housing Act;

(4) Housing financed under Class 3 of Title I of the National Housing Act for which an application was or is submitted to the local office of the Federal Housing Administration:

(i) Prior to February 10, 1943, and such application was accompanied by, or supplemented with, a War Housing Statement Form, or

(ii) On or after February 10, 1943, and the applicant also executes section B of Form PD-105 (revised 2-10-43) in connection with such housing;

(5) Housing financed with a mortgage loan insured by the Federal Housing Administration under section 603 of title VI of the National Housing Act for which an application was submitted to the local office of the Federal Housing Administration:

(i) Prior to February 10, 1943, and such application was accompanied by, or supplemented with, FHA Form 2004 (e), or

(ii) On or after February 10, 1943;

(6) Housing financed with a mortgage loan insured by the Federal Housing Administration under section 608 of title VI of the National Housing Act; and

(7) The additional housing accommodations created by remodeling or rehabilitation in projects designated as "defense housing", by either the Division of Defense Housing Coordination or the National Housing Agency, in order to exempt such housing from Federal Reserve Board Regulation W.

(b) For the purposes of this regulation, private war housing is "begun" on the date of submitting to the Federal Housing Administration a properly executed application for priority assistance or authority to begin construction in connection with such housing; or, if remodeling or rehabilitation of any private war housing did not receive priority assistance or authority to begin construction, such housing was "begun" either on the date a properly executed application was filed under title I, Class 1 (b), of the National Housing Act in connection with such housing, or on the date a properly executed application for exemption from Federal Reserve Board Regulation W was submitted to a registrant in connection with such housing.

(c) For the purposes of this regulation, the date of "completion" of any private war housing shall be the date upon which such housing is offered for initial rental or sale, or the date upon which such housing is first ready for immediate occupancy, whichever is later.

(d) The phase "held for rental" includes only an ordinary landlord-tenant relationship or such a tenancy coupled with an option to purchase containing the following provisions:

(1) The tenant shall not be obligated to purchase and the option shall run only in behalf of the tenant;

(2) No payment shall be required in any one month in addition to the listed monthly payment while a tenant, which monthly payment shall not exceed the fair rental for the dwelling unit under an ordinary landlord-tenant relationship not coupled with an option to purchase;

(3) The monthly payment while a tenant shall not be in excess of rental for comparable accommodations;

(4) The total purchase price shall be a fair market price, or $6,000, whichever is lower;

(5) The option may not be exercised prior to the expiration of two months' occupancy;

(6) The option shall continue in effect for at least 30 months unless sooner exercised; and

(7) The occupancy and disposition provisions shall continue to apply to such housing after the option is exercised, or terminated, for the duration of the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939.

§ 702.2 Persons who are eligible war workers. (a) For private war housing begun on or after February 10, 1943, an eligible war worker shall be only a person who qualifies under the provisions of NHA General Order No. 60-1B.

(b) For private war housing begun prior to February 10, 1943, an eligible war worker shall be only a person who qualifies under the provision of the application (and other instruments related thereto) for priority assistance or authority to begin construction, FHA insurance, or exemption for Federal Reserve Board Regulation W submitted in connection with such housing; or, at the option of the owner of such housing, a person who qualifies under the provisions of NHA General Order No. 60-1B. Private war housing for which applications for priority assistance were filed with the Federal Housing Administration before February 10, 1943, but for which quotas did not become available until on or after that date, shall not be approved after July 15, 1943, except subject to the rules applicable to private war housing so "begun" on or after February 10, 1943.

(c) The Joint Army-Navy-NHA Directive of July 16, 1942, is incorporated by reference in NHA General Order No. 60-1B, which defines indispensable inmigrant civilian war workers, who are eligible for private war housing begun on or after February 10, 1943. For private war housing begun prior to February 10, 1943, eligible war workers as defined in the standard application for such housing include "members of the armed forces". Hence members of the armed forces, including convalescents as well as those on active duty, are eligible for such housing, as well as for reference (by War Housing Centers or other appropriate placement agency) to existing private structures programmed for war workers.

(d) The establishment of criteria of eligibility for occupancy of private war housing projects is not intended to exclude from such projects any persons currently occupying any Federally-owned or leased war housing projects under the jurisdiction or control of the National Housing Agency, or any FPHA-aided public war housing units reserved for various types of war workers as to occupancy or re-occupancy. Any persons, regardless of their occupation or their status as in-migrants, occupying the foregoing types of public war housing space are eligible for occupancy of any type of private war housing. Occupancy by such persons is subject to the same requirements as to rental, sale, disposition, transfer, etc., as occupancy by other eligibles, for the types of private war housing involved.

§ 702.3 Length of time private war housing must be reserved for occupancy by eligible war workers. (a) Private war housing begun on or after February 10, 1943, shall be made available for initial occupancy, and for re-occupancy, only by eligible war workers: Provided, however, That at any time subsequent to 60 days after completion of such housing, the owner of such housing may petition the National Housing Agency to permit initial occupancy, or re-occupancy, as the case may be, by a person other than an eligible war worker, in accordance with NHA General Order No. 60-3C.

(b) Private war housing begun prior to February 10, 1943, shall be made available for initial occupancy, and for re-occupancy, by eligible war workers for at least the period of time after completion specified in the application (and other instruments related thereto) for priority assistance or authority to begin construction, FHA insurance, or exemption from Federal Reserve Board Regulation W submitted in connection with such housing. Whenever any such application (or other instruments related thereto) provided for an exclusive preference to eligible war workers for a specified time, such exclusive preference shall be so given for at least such specified time; and whenever any such application (or other instruments related thereto) provided for merely a general preference to eligible war workers, at least such general preference shall be so given for at least such specified time.

§ 702.4 Disposition of private war housing. (a) Private war housing begun on or after February 10, 1943, shall be held for rental only to eligible war workers for the duration of the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, and, except for involuntary transfers, shall be disposed of only as follows:

(1) (i) An occupant, after two months' occupancy, may purchase the private war housing unit occupied by him subject to NHA General Order No. 60–3C.

(ii) Without conforming to (i) which precludes selling except at the option of the eligible war worker exercised after at least two months' rental occupancy, a dwelling unit in a private war housing project may be held for sale or sold to an eligible war worker as provided in NHA General Order No. 60–3C; Provided, That any sale so made shall take place not later than 15 days after the Federal Housing Administration makes its final Priority Compliance Inspection Report ("Completion Report") with respect to the unit (after which time the unit if not sold shall be held for rental as indicated in (i)): And provided further, That no owner shall sell more than one-third of the units in all projects (begun on or after February 10, 1943) which he has placed under actual construction in any war housing area except such sales as are made in conformity with the requirement of holding for rental as indicated in (i): And provided further, That any sale made pursuant to (ii) shall be within a price range for the general types of units intended to be sold which is acceptable to the National Housing Agency. The proposed price range shall be submitted to the Federal Housing Administration in advance of sale by letter or other appropriate method, and in the case of all PD–105 applications filed on or after August 1, 1943, shall be submitted with the application.

(2) A person who will not himself occupy such housing may purchase or otherwise acquire such housing at any time, in accordance with NHA General Order No. 60–3C, provided the occupancy and disposition limitations applicable to such housing prior to such purchase or acquisition shall continue to be applicable to such housing after such purchase or acquisition.

(3) An eligible war worker under NHA General Order No. 60–1B may himself build, own and occupy a private war housing unit suitable to his needs, without complying with the rental requirements, as provided in and subject to the provisions of § 702.11 (a) of NHA General Order No. 60–3C. Or,

(4) At any time subsequent to 60 days after completion of any such housing, the owner of such housing may petition the National Housing Agency, in accordance with NHA General Order No. 60–3C, to permit such housing to be disposed of otherwise than as provided above in this § 702.4 (a).

(b) Private war housing begun prior to February 10, 1943, shall be rented, sold, or transferred only in accordance with the provisions of the application (or other instruments related thereto) for priority assistance, authority to begin construction, or exemption from Federal Reserve Board Regulation W submitted in connection with such housing, except that whenever any such application for priority assistance or authority to begin construction provided that such housing could be disposed of, with the prior approval of the War Production Board, otherwise than as stated in such application, a prior approval by the National Housing Agency (instead of by the War Production Board) shall be required in order to dispose of such housing otherwise than as stated in such application. NHA General Order No. 60–3C sets forth the provisions regarding the disposition of such housing.

This regulation shall become effective January 27, 1944.

PART 703—PUBLIC WAR HOUSING

OCCUPANCY

Supersedes NHA General Order No. 60–5B (9 F.R. 249).

Sec.
703.1 General policy.
703.2 Exclusive reservation.
703.3 Limited reservation.
703.4 Modification of occupancy provisions.
703.5 Suspended housing.
703.6 Stand-by housing.
703.7 Terminated housing.

AUTHORITY: §§ 703.1 to 703.7, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

§ 703.1 General policy. (a) The purpose of this regulation is to set forth the public war housing to which occupancy standards apply, the persons who are eligible war workers for such housing, the length of time such housing must be held for their use, and the conditions under which such housing may be made available for other purposes.

§ 703.2 Exclusive reservation. (a) On or after February 10, 1943, initial occupancy and re-occupancy of every dwelling accommodation in all Federally-owned or leased public war housing projects under the jurisdiction or control of NHA, or any of its constituent units,[1] shall be reserved exclusively for eligible war workers, as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1B, except (a) with respect to 4 Lanham Act mutual ownership projects under the jurisdiction of FPHA (which are substantially completed and occupied), resident as well as in-migrant civilian war workers may be admitted to occupancy, and (b) with respect to off reservation or off post projects programmed for military or naval personnel prior to July 16, 1942 (the date of the joint directive of the War Department, Navy Department and National Housing Agency), eligible military or naval personnel, as certified by the local commandant,[2] may be admitted to occupancy: Provided, That preference (without a specified reservation period) has first been given to indispensable in-migrant civilian war workers.

(b) On or after February 10, 1943, initial occupancy or re-occupancy of every dwelling accommodation in all FPHA-aided public war projects[3] for which applications for priority assistance are submitted to WPB after February 10, 1943 shall be reserved exclusively for such eligible war workers, as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1B, as are eligible for occupancy thereof under applicable state or Federal laws.[4]

(c) On or after February 10, 1943, re-occupancy of every dwelling accommodation in such Federally owned public non-war housing projects[5] under the jurisdiction of FPHA, as the National Housing Administrator determines are suitable to provide war housing, shall be reserved exclusively for eligible war workers as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1B.[6]

§ 703.3 Limited reservation. (a) Reasonable preference for occupancy by war workers (as required by the conditions under which priority assistance was granted[7]) shall be observed with respect to all FPHA-aided public war housing projects for which applications for priority assistance were submitted to WPB prior to February 10, 1943.[8] The local housing authorities that own and manage these projects shall be requested to conform, to the extent practicable, their management programs by reserving initial occupancy or re-occupancy in these projects to such eligible war workers (as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1B) as are eligible under applicable state or Federal laws in the same manner as is required with respect to the projects described in § 703.2 (b) above.

§ 703.4 Modification of occupancy provisions. (a) Each National Housing Agency regional representative is hereby authorized on his own initiative (or on the basis of recommendations which the NHA constituent unit having control of the public war housing involved may initiate) to relax the exclusive reservation requirements for any public war housing, where such action is deemed appropriate in the interests of the war housing program. When so acting, the regional representative may act without reference to whether the housing has been completed or to how long it has been held available after completion. The regional representative shall give prompt notification of any such relaxation to the NHA constituent unit having control of the public war housing involved, in order that such unit may put the proposed relaxation into effect or discuss it further with the regional representative.

(b) The NHA constituent unit having control of any public war housing may relax the exclusive reservation requirement applicable to such housing, where such action is deemed appropriate in the interests of the war housing program: Provided, That the NHA constituent unit shall advise the National Housing Agency regional representative not less than 10 days prior to taking such action in order that the regional representative may have adequate opportunity if he so desires to require a further holding period for the housing involved. Such relaxations may be made without reference to whether the housing has been completed or to how long it has been held available after completion.

(c) Relaxation of the exclusive reservation requirements applicable to public war housing shall rest primarily upon the need to make prompt and effective use of public war housing units even when not needed for the precise types of war workers eligible under existing occupancy rules, because of inexact forecasting in earlier programming or because of changes in contract and employment schedules after the programs were written. After the exclusive reservation requirements have been relaxed, the NHA constituent unit having control of the public war housing involved shall permit such housing to be occupied in the following order of preference: (1) Eligible war workers under the existing rules; (2) eligible in-migrant military personnel, viz, enlisted men in the naval or military services of the United States or officers of the Army or Marine Corps not above the rank of Captain, and officers of the Navy and Coast Guard, not above the grade of Lieutenant, Senior Grade, assigned to duty at military or naval reservations, posts or bases, or to duty at defense industries; (3) other civilian war workers, (as defined in NHA General Order No. 60–1B) or eligible military personnel; or (4) (in the event there is no present or anticipated demand for occupancy by such other civilian war workers or military personnel) others eligible for occupancy as determined and prescribed by the NHA constituent unit having control of the public housing involved.

(d) When relaxation of exclusive reservation requirements is contemplated for an entire locality or for a very substantial volume of public war housing, as distinguished from individual cases or relatively small volumes of housing, the regional representative shall feel free if he deems it necessary to consult with the Office of the Administrator prior to taking action. What constitutes a "very substantial volume" of public war housing varies with local conditions, but a volume amounting to more than 25 percent of the total number of public war housing units in the locality would certainly be so considered. Whether the relaxation be individual, small or substantial, the regional representative shall notify the Office of the Administrator of action taken as promptly as feasible, in order that such office may keep abreast of current developments.

§ 703.5 Suspended housing. (a) Each National Housing Agency regional representative is hereby authorized to recommend suspension of any Federally owned public war housing projects or parts thereof, in accord with the detailed conditions and procedures set forth in NHA Operating Instructions No. 11–18. Pending decision as to whether suspended projects or parts thereof shall be made active, limited, stand-by, or terminated, no additional commitments shall be made for the furtherance of development, but existing commitments shall be carried forward and work shall continue where contracts have been awarded and proceed orders issued.

§ 703.6 Stand-by housing. (a) Each National Housing Agency regional representative is hereby authorized to recommend revision of the locality program so as to hold for stand-by purposes any Federally-owned public war housing projects or parts thereof, which shall result in the closing and holding of such projects or parts thereof (or the temporary cessation of development, and holding thereof, if not completed) for anticipated occupancy at some later date by in-migrant war workers. The circumstances under which such stand-by action may be taken, and the procedures in connection therewith, are set forth in detail in NHA Operating Instructions No. 11–18.

(b) The NHA constituent unit having control of any Federally-owned public war housing held for stand-by purposes shall have full responsibility and authority for taking as promptly as possible all necessary action resulting from the revised program, unless the Administrator directs that specific action be taken.

(c) Whenever changed circumstances or additional facts justify, the regional representatives may recommend restoration to active status, either with or without occupancy restrictions, or may recommend termination.

§ 703.7 Terminated housing. (a) Federally owned public war housing projects or parts thereof (except permanent, unmovable projects which are substantially completed) which are no longer needed for residential purposes in the locality during the war or during the period of orderly demobilization may be programmed as terminated, with consequent provisions for the removal, transfer to other Federal agencies, sale or lease of such housing, all in accord with the relevant statutory provisions. The policies and procedures relating to such termination and disposition during the war are treated in NHA Regulation No. 60–11.

This regulation shall become effective January 27, 1944.

JOHN B. BLANDFORD, Jr.,
Administrator.

PART 703—PUBLIC WAR HOUSING

TERMINATION DURING THE WAR OF OTHER THAN PERMANENT, UNMOVABLE HOUSING

Sec.
703.11 General policy.
703.12 Termination of public war housing.
703.13 Treatment of terminated housing.

AUTHORITY: §§ 703.11 to 703.13, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529.

§ 703.11 General policy. (a) The purpose of this regulation is (1) to enable the termination during the war of public war housing projects or parts thereof, other than permanent, unmovable housing, in instances where such housing seems clearly to be no longer needed for residential purposes in the locality during the war or during the period of orderly demobilization of the war effort, and (2) to state general policies in conformity with which the constituent units shall act during the war in order to assure that any terminated projects shall be used to the best advantage in connection with the war effort or its orderly

---

[1] All public war housing projects undertaken pursuant to (a) the Lanham Act (Public No. 849, 76th Congress) as amended (including conversion projects undertaken under the supervision of NHA Homes Use Service), (b) Public Acts Nos. 9, 73, 353, 77th Congress, and (c) Public Act No. 781, 76th Congress; all projects of Defense Homes Corporation; and all Federally-owned projects undertaken pursuant to Public Act No. 671, 76th Congress.

[2] In such projects, tenants are selected by the local commandant.

[3] Federally-aided local authority-owned Public Act No. 671 projects and priority assisted Public Act No. 412 projects.

[4] Tenant selection, in projects included in this section 2.02 which are located in States that have not enacted appropriate defense or war housing legislation, is subject to low income limitations of applicable state housing legislation; and with respect to those projects which are not converted to Public Act No. 671, tenant selection is subject also to the low income limitations of the United States Housing Act and of applicable state housing legislation.

[5] FPHA-operated PWA Housing Division projects, local authority-leased PWA Housing Division projects, and non-farm housing projects transferred to FPHA from FSA pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 (g) of Executive Order 9070 (7 F.R. 1529).

[6] On all projects described in this section 2.03 where there are outstanding lease or sale agreements, compliance with the provisions of this order is subject to appropriate modification of such outstanding lease or sale agreements to conform them to the provisions of this order. On all PWA Housing Division projects, compliance with the provisions of this order is subject to the obtaining of appropriate Presidential findings and conversion to Public Act No. 671.

[7] The conditions under which priority assistance for these projects were granted defined reasonable preference as meaning that each dwelling unit shall be reserved for occupancy by in-migrant or resident war workers for 30 days after the entire project is available for occupancy or 90 days from starting to take tenant applications, whichever period is longer.

[8] Includes Federally-aided local authority-owned Public Act No. 671 projects and priority assisted Public Act No. 412 projects, but excludes normal low rent housing projects under Public Act No. 412 which merely obtained civilian priority assistance without a requirement of reasonable preference for war workers.

demobilization, or (where such use is not feasible) dispose of in the public interest and the best financial interest of the Government.

(b) This regulation applies to public war housing under the jurisdiction of the NHA and developed under the provisions of Public Laws 849 and 781 (76th Congress) and Public Laws 9, 73, and 353 (77th Congress). This regulation does not provide for the termination during the war of permanent, unmovable public war housing which has been substantially completed, since such housing has been programmed only in places where there was strong indication of long-term housing need and its disposition in accord with the Lanham Act will be primarily a postwar problem. Policies and procedures with respect to the termination of such housing will subsequently be issued. Incomplete permanent housing, of which there is relatively little, may be terminated under this regulation.

(c) The policies and procedures set forth in this regulation are in accord with the letter and intent of the relevant provisions of the Lanham Act. Section 313 of the Lanham Act, relating to temporary public war housing reads as follows:

> The Administrator shall, as promptly as may be practicable and in the public interest, remove all housing under his jurisdiction which is of a temporary character, as determined by him, and constructed under the provisions of this Act, Public Law 781, Seventy-sixth Congress, and Public Laws 9, 73, and 353, Seventy-seventh Congress. Such removal shall, in any event, be accomplished not later than two years after the President declares that the emergency declared by him on September 8, 1939, has ceased to exist, with the exception only of such housing as the Administrator, after consultation with local communities finds is still needed in the interest of the orderly demobilization of the war effort: Provided, That all such exceptions shall be reexamined annually by the Administrator and that all such exceptions and reexaminations shall be reported to the Congress.

Section 4 of the Lanham Act, relating to public war housing other than temporary, reads in part as follows:

> It is hereby declared to be the policy . . . that such housing may be sold and disposed of as expeditiously as possible: Provided, That in disposing of said housing consideration shall be given to its full market value and said housing or any part thereof shall not, unless specifically authorized by Congress, be conveyed to any public or private agency organized for slum clearance or to provide subsidized housing for persons of low income.

§ 703.12 Termination of public war housing. (a) Each National Housing Agency regional representative is hereby authorized to recommend termination of any Federally-owned public war housing projects or parts thereof, which this regulation affects. The conditions under which housing may be terminated, and the procedures to be followed, are set forth in detail in NHA Operating Instructions No. 11-18. Termination of such housing shall constitute an authorization to the FPHA to take all necessary action toward removal, transfer to other uses, or disposition.

(b) In view of the finality of action which terminates public war housing, extreme care should be exercised by the regional representatives in order that projects or parts thereof shall be recommended for termination only when (1) the best available information has shown that there is no anticipated in-migrant war worker need which would justify reprogramming the housing involved for stand-by purposes in accordance with NHA Regulation No. 60-5C; and (2) it is clear from rental experience and the best available information that the housing involved is not needed in its present location to meet residential needs which would be served by relaxation of the occupancy requirements in accordance with NHA Regulation No. 60-5C; and (3) that through a combination of (1) and (2) it is clear that the housing involved is no longer needed for residence purposes in the locality during the war or during the period of orderly demobilization.

§ 703.13 Treatment of terminated housing. (a) When a project assigned to FPHA is programmed in whole or in part as "terminated" the FPHA (unless the Commissioner thereof in any specific case be otherwise directed by the Administrator) shall have full authority and responsibility for taking, as promptly as possible, all necessary action resulting from the termination and shall act within the limits of the following policies:

(1) Trailers and portable units should be moved to fill public war housing programs for such units in other localities or to carry out other assignments of the Administrator. Pending such moving they may be kept on their present site. Because of their utility in the public war housing program, they should not be transferred, or sold or leased for any other use; except that sales may be made of trailers in such a state of disrepair that their further use is impracticable;

(2) Structures which it is practicable to move should, when possible, be used in carrying out public war housing programs in other localities;

(3) Structures which it is practicable to move but which are not used as above should be sold, if possible, for use in meeting private priority quotas under the war housing program in other localities, except that residential structures of a temporary character may not be sold for such use;

(4) Any structures not used in any of the ways described above should, in the public interest, be transferred to another Federal agency or sold or leased to a public or quasi-public agency when needed for non-residential or institutional uses connected with the war or its orderly demobilization, except that residential structures of a temporary character may not be permanently transferred or sold for such use on their present sites. If such non-residential need is by the Federal Government on the present site, it may take precedence over (2) and (3) above when this will be in the public interest and best serve the war effort or its orderly demobilization;

(5) Any structures not used in any of the ways described above may be reserved by the FPHA for future non-residential or institutional use on the present site by any Federal agency which represents that the structures may be needed by it in connection with the war or its orderly demobilization;

(6) Any structures not used, or reserved for use, in any of the ways described above, may, for any appropriate non-residential or institutional use on the present project site, be transferred to another Federal agency or sold or leased to private individuals or corporations or to public or quasi-public agencies, whichever is in the best financial interest of the Government, except that residential structures of a temporary character may not be transferred permanently to another Federal agency or sold for such use (except for transfers to the Army or Navy pursuant to section 4 of the Lanham Act).

(7) Any structures or materials not used in any of the ways described above should be treated as follows:

(i) Any residential structures of a temporary character which it is not practicable to move should be demolished as promptly as possible and these and other materials re-used in whatever manner will best promote the war effort and be in the public interest. Demolition for re-use of materials in the public war housing program may take precedence over non-residential uses under (5) and (6) when this will be in the public interest and best serve the war effort;

(ii) Any structures which it is practicable to move should be regarded as a reserve for possible future use elsewhere in the public war housing program, and may be kept standing on their present sites when this is the most feasible method of handling them pending their removal for use elsewhere;

(8) Any materials which cannot be advantageously re-used in the public war housing program shall be transferred to other Federal agencies or sold to others in a manner which will be to the best financial interest of the Government and in the best public interest, with preference being given to transfers or sales for use of the materials in connection with the war or its orderly demobilization.

(9) Any land which is no longer needed and is owned should be transferred to another Federal agency or sold in accordance with the policy stated in (10) below, and any leases or temporary uses of land should be terminated;

(10) All sales of properties referred to above should be undertaken as promptly as may be advantageous under the circumstances from the viewpoint of the public interest and the best financial interest of the Government. In the sale of such property, consideration should be given to its full market value.

This regulation shall become effective January 27, 1944.

JOHN B. BLANDFORD, Jr.,
Administrator.

Chapter VI—Solid Fuels Administration for War

PART 602—GENERAL ORDERS AND DIRECTIVES

[Reg. 16, Amdt. 1]

DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT

Some persons have misconstrued § 602.283 of Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 16 (9 F.R. 2491-2492) to mean that they would be relieved from contractual liability by virtue of the provisions of that section. That section is of very limited applicability and it concerns primarily situations in which persons have agreed to enter into contracts on a date subsequent to March 10, 1944, for the delivery or receipt of by-product coal. In order that there may be no further misunderstanding, the regulation is clarified and revised herein. Accordingly, pursuant to the powers conferred by Executive Order No. 9332, Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 16 is hereby amended as follows:

Section 602.283 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 602.283 Damages for breach of contract. No person shall be held liable under an agreement or contract for damages which result directly from compliance with § 602.281 (a) and (b) of this regulation. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve any person from liability for any other damages or penalties in accordance with the provisions of any contract for by-product coal entered into before or after the effective date of this regulation.

This amendment shall be effective as of March 2, 1944.

(E.O. 9332, 8 F.R. 5355; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a) 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176)

Issued this 13th day of March 1944.

C. J. POTTER,
Deputy Solid Fuels Administrator for War.

[MPR 466,* Amdt. 2]

ASBESTOS-CEMENT BUILDING MATERIALS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 466 is amended in the following respects:

1. Footnote 14 to paragraph (a) of section 8.3 is amended to read as follows:

> [14] Not required of Carey, Ruberoid, or "K & M".

2. Paragraph (a) of section 8.3 is amended to insert the footnote reference number "15" immediately following Millington, New Jersey, and a footnote to such paragraph is added to read as follows:

> [15] Keasbey and Mattison is required to equalize freight to this point only for asbestos-cement siding.

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1944.

WIRE, CABLE AND CABLE ACCESSORIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1349.1 (c) of Revised Price Schedule 82 is amended to read as follows:

(c) (1) On and after January 29, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract or other commitment, no person shall sell or supply, and no person shall buy or receive any operation or service performed in connection with the rolling of bars into rods or drawing wire therefrom at a price in excess of the net price which the supplier had in effect for similar operation on October 15, 1941, or on the latest date prior thereto on which such operation or service was performed.

(2) On and after March 18, 1944, regardless of the terms of any contract or other commitment, no person shall sell or supply, and no person shall buy or receive any operation or service performed in connection with the fabrication of wire, cable or cable accessories, whether or not any of the components thereof are supplied by the person performing the operation or service, at a net price which is in excess of the net price which the supplier had in effect for a similar operation or service on October 15, 1941, or on the latest date within six months prior thereto on which such operation or service was performed. Where no similar operation or service was performed on October 15, 1941 or within six months prior thereto, the maximum price therefor shall be determined under the provisions of § 1349.19 (Appendix C) so far as they may be applied.

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1944.

SECTION 1. Sales of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after the effective date of this regulation regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 320, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged or paid.

SEC. 2. Products covered by the regulation. This regulation, under the term "Eastern and Central Wooden Agricultural Containers", covers wooden agricultural containers made entirely of wood or a combination of wood and solid fiber or corrugated board, which are manufactured in any of the following states:

Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.

The term "agricultural container" means any assembled or unassembled box, crate, tray, lug, cup, hamper, basket, carrier, or similar container customarily used for picking, handling, storing or shipping fresh fruits and vegetables. This regulation also covers riser sticks and any constituent wooden part (partial shook) of the containers covered herein, if it is ready to be assembled into the container.

Expressly excluded from the provisions of this regulation are coopered products, veneer and plywood drums, and used containers.

SEC. 4. Additions to basic maximum prices—(a) Less than minimum truckload shipments. In truck shipments of less than minimum truckload amounts as shown in the price tables, including all types and sizes of containers in the particular shipment, the following additions may be made to the basic maximum f. o. b. factory prices:

(1) If the total sale or shipment to one location involves 25 percent or less of a minimum truckload amount, 10% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price may be added.

(2) If the total sale or shipment to one location involves more than 25 percent of a minimum truckload amount but less than a minimum truckload amount, 5% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price may be added.

(b) Overtime operations. Any manufacturer whose operations during any one week exceed 40 hours may reflect the increased cost of such operations on deliveries during the succeeding week by adding to the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price the following amounts:

(1) 2% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price for the first full 4 hour period of overtime operations.

(2) 1% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price for each full 2 hour period of overtime operations in excess of 44 hours per week.

Any manufacturer who makes additions for overtime operations must file reports as required in paragraph (b) of section 13.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices; sales by dealers. The maximum prices which a dealer may charge for Eastern and Central agricultural containers shall be the sum of the following:

(a) The basic maximum f. o. b. factory price;

(b) The seller's average percentage mark-up over the f. o. b. factory price on sales of these items during 1941;

(c) Any overtime addition actually paid by the seller to the manufacturer.

For the purpose of this regulation a dealer is a person, other than the producing factory, who buys, takes title to, and resells agricultural containers for delivery directly from the producing factory to the consumer.

SEC. 6. Maximum prices; warehouse sales. The maximum prices for warehouse sales of Eastern and Central agricultural containers shall be the sum of the following:

(a) The basic maximum f. o. b. factory price;

(b) The average inbound freight on the particular size and type of container. Average inbound freight is to be figured at least once every two weeks on the basis of the weighted quantity of containers received from the different factories.

(c) The seller's average percentage mark-up over his delivered cost on each particular class of sales of these items during 1941. Classes of sales are:

(1) Minimum truckload;

(2) 25 percent or less of minimum truckload;

(3) More than 25 percent but less than a minimum truckload.

(d) Any overtime addition actually paid by the seller to the manufacturer.

For the purpose of this regulation a warehouse sale is a sale in which shipment to the purchaser is made from the stock of a warehouse located and operated independently of the producing factory. A shipment is considered made from the stock of a warehouse only if the containers were actually in the warehouse at the time of sale. A factory may make warehouse sales of containers manufactured by other producers provided the containers are clearly marked with the name and address of the producing factory.

SEC. 7. Containers covered by the regulation but not specifically priced. A manufacturer desiring to price a container not specifically priced in the tables must write to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., giving a complete description of the item to be priced, all available production costs data, his requested selling price, and any facts in support of the requested price. Approval of a price will be by letter or telegram, and any price not disapproved within 20 days from receipt of the application shall be considered approved until amended or revoked by this office. After filing application for a price and pending action by the Office of Price Administration a seller may use his requested price, subject to adjustment to the price approved by this office.

Any seller for whom a special price has been approved prior to the issuance of this regulation must obtain a new approval under this section.

Once a maximum price for a container has been approved or established by the Office of Price Administration under this section, the manufacturer must inform each warehouse operator, dealer or broker who sells the container which he manufactures of the price so established.

SEC. 8. Additions for delivery—(a) Common or contract carrier. If delivery is by common or contract carrier the seller may add to his maximum prices the actual charges paid or incurred by him in making delivery to the purchaser, or a charge based on the actual freight rate from the seller's shipping point to the purchaser.

(b) Private truck. If delivery is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the seller may add to his maximum prices his actual cost of delivery; if actual cost cannot be determined, an amount not in excess of 80 percent of the common carrier truck charge for a similar shipment may be added. In no case may the addition exceed the latter amount.

SEC. 9. What the invoice must contain. All invoices must show the quantity of the sale, a sufficiently complete description of the containers or parts or any extras which affect the maximum price to show whether or not the price is proper. The invoice must also show any addition for delivery or overtime operations and whether the sale is a dealer or warehouse sale; except in the case of warehouse sales the addition for overtime operations need not be shown.

SEC. 10. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 11. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery, but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant the authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 12. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6 [2] for adjustments on certain government contracts and sub-contracts.

(b) Production under War Production Board order. Any person who is subject to a War Production Board order to produce any specific container or containers may file an application for adjustment of his maximum prices of the containers if compliance with such order causes or threatens to cause him to sustain a loss. Such applications must be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 [3] and must include the following data:

(1) Over-all profit and loss statements for the years 1940, 1941, and the most recent nine months' accounting period preceding the effective date of the applicable War Production Board order.

(2) Detailed unit production costs of the container or containers involved in the order for the previous and current selling seasons, disclosing separately the major categories of cost in accordance with the system of cost accounting normally used; if current unit costs for the specific container or containers are not available, the unit costs for the previous selling season, and the unit costs of the most similar container for the previous and current selling seasons.

(3) The requested selling price.

(4) The total number of each specific container which must be produced under the War Production Board order and the number produced during the previous selling season.

When such application has been filed, the producer may sell and deliver at the requested prices. He may not, however, collect any amount in excess of the present ceiling prices. The difference between the present ceiling prices and the prices requested in the application may be placed in escrow pending action by the Office of Price Administration.

No adjustments will be granted on applications filed more than 30 days after the effective date of the applicable War Production Board order.

SEC. 13. Records and reports.—(a) Records. All persons making sales covered by this regulation must keep records which will show a complete description of the containers sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of sale, the price, and any additions or extras affecting the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought at least $200 worth of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers. They must be kept for two years for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Any records which the Office of Price Administration later requires must also be kept.

(b) Reports. On or before the 10th day of each month any manufacturer who makes additions for overtime operations as provided in paragraph (b) of section 4 must file a report with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., showing the number of hours of overtime operations, the number of packages produced and sold and the overtime additions for each week of the preceding month.

SEC. 14. Licenses. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[1] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more maximum price regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 15. Registration. Persons desiring to sell as dealers or warehousemen, any of the products covered by this regulation must register with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 30 days from the issuance of this regulation or within 5 days after becoming subject to the regulation. The registration shall be accomplished by filing with the Office of Price Administration a statement showing the types of packages handled by the applicant, his method of doing business, and, in the case of persons making warehouse sales, a description of their warehouse space. Every person owning, operating or maintaining more than one place of business shall file a separate registration statement for each place of business. In case a new, additional or different place of business is later established or acquired by dealer or warehouseman such dealer or warehouseman shall within 5 days after establishing or acquiring it, file registration statement with respect to such new, additional or different place of business.

The Office of Price Administration will issue to each dealer or warehouseman, registering in accordance with this section a registration certificate which shall be posted at all times in a conspicuous place in the registrant's place of business.

SEC. 16. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 17. Relation to other regulations.—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] Any sale or delivery covered by this Maximum Price Regulation is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[3] The maximum prices for export sales of products covered by this regulation are governed by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

This regulation shall become effective March 18, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 13th day of March 1944.

Administrator.

PART 1394—RATIONING FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 11,[1] Amdt. 1 to Supp. 1]

FUEL OIL

A new subparagraph (8) is added to § 1394.9208 (a) as follows:

(8) In Zones A–1, A–3, B–1, B–3, C–1 and C–3 the value of one unit represented by coupons numbered "5" on Class 4 coupon sheets, and the value of five units represented by coupons numbered "5" on Class 5 coupon sheets, and the value of twenty-five units represented by coupons numbered "5" on Class 6 coupon sheets are hereby fixed at ten (10) gallons, fifty (50) gallons, and two hundred fifty (250) gallons of fuel oil, respectively.

This amendment shall become effective on March 17, 1944.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 3]

SUGAR

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1407.86a (a) is amended by deleting the word "county" wherever it appears therein and inserting in place thereof the word "area" and by deleting the word "counties" and substituting the word "areas".

2. Section 1407.86a (b) is amended by deleting the word "county" whenever it appears therein and inserting in place thereof the word "area".

3. Section 1407.86a (c) (3) is amended by deleting the word "county" and inserting in place thereof the words "listed area".

4. Section 1407.86a (g) is added to read as follows:

(g) An industrial user may use an increase provided by this section only in products to be delivered by him within the listed area for which he received the increase. As a further condition of using the increase, he must, in addition to his delivery of these products, continue to deliver within such area during the allotment period for which the increase is granted, at least the same proportion of his products, in sugar content (counting only sugar used by him), as he delivered within such area during 1941. An industrial user who receives an increase under this section for more than one listed area shall make the deliveries required by this paragraph in each such area.

5. Section 1407.244 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1407.244 Schedule D: Areas which have had a substantial increase in population and the percentage for each such area.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

LINSEED REPLACEMENT OIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 4.12 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) No extra charge may be made for containers. A reasonable deposit may be required to insure the return of drums and containers of 5 gallons or more.

On sales at retail a deposit of $0.25 may be required to insure the return of containers under 5 gallons but not under one gallon owned by the retailer, but only when the retailer fills such containers on his own premises.

The permitted deposit on drums and containers must be refunded to the buyer upon their return in good condition within a reasonable time. Transportation costs with respect to the return of such empty drums and containers to the seller shall in all cases be borne by the seller.

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1944.

USED AIRPLANES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 6.34 (b) (1) (v) is added to read as follows:

(v) (a) Except as limited by (b) below, in the case of an airplane which is more than six years old and which has had extensive reconditioning to the air frame structure within the three year period immediately preceding the date of sale, the depreciated cost of such reconditioning may be added. The amount for depreciation that must be deducted from this cost of reconditioning shall be determined by multiplying 10% of the cost of reconditioning by the number of years since the air frame structure was reconditioned. In measuring that period of time, the number of years is to be calculated to the nearest quarter of a year and the reconditioning shall be deemed to have been done at least one year before the date of sale.

(b) The amount that may be added under this subdivision (v) plus the depreciated base price (determined under subdivisions (i) and (ii) above) shall not exceed 52% of the base price (determined under subdivision (i) above).

2. Section 6.34 (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Sales between affiliated corporations. This paragraph is applicable to the sale of any used airplane covered by this section which (1) is sold by one corporation to another corporation, both of which are members of an affiliated group as defined in section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (2) is acquired by the purchasing corporation for use and not for resale in the same or in an altered form. The maximum price for the sale of any used airplane covered by this section shall be the selling corporation's book value of the airplane, less depreciation computed at the rate and in the manner used by the selling corporation in the preparation of its Federal income tax return.

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1944.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 17,[1] Amdt. 56]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.8 (a) is amended by adding the following: "Distributors who do not have a ration bank account are not required to surrender ration currency to their suppliers in the manner prescribed in General Ration Order 7."

2. Section 2.9 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Manner of deposit. All ration currency shall be deposited in the manner prescribed in General Ration Order 7.

3. Section 2.15 (a) is amended by adding the following:

In the case of an application for currency to replace shoes which have been exported, there shall be attached to the application, a shipper's export declaration certified by the Collector of Customs, or if the shoes were mailed, a certificate of mailing certified by a postal employee, covering the shoes which were exported.

4. Section 3.5 (a) (2) is amended by deleting the words "Office of Economic Warfare" and substituting the words "Foreign Economic Administration."

5. Section 3.6 (b) (11) is revoked.

6. The definition of "distributing establishment" in section 3.13 is amended to read as follows:

[1] 8 F.R. 13834, 16005, 16996; 9 F.R. 92, 573, 764, 2238.

"Distributing establishment" means a business, other than a manufacturing establishment or public warehouse, conducted at a certain location from which rationed shoes are sold or at which rationed shoes are stored or the business of any person accepting a transfer or making a transfer of shoes in connection with the exporting of shoes for commercial purposes. Where a person does not sell or store shoes at any fixed location, his operations as a whole are regarded as a single establishment. (This may be true, for example, in the case of some exporters or auctioneers.) In such cases, his principal place of business, or, if he has no place of business, then, his home, is considered as the location of the establishment.

7. The definition of "Transfer" in section 3.13 is amended by adding the following: "Shoes are also transferred to a commercial exporter at the time they are shipped or sent by the supplier on the exporter's order."

This amendment shall become effective March 18, 1944.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RO 16,[2] Amdt. 119]

FATS AND OILS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 7.13 (a) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) An industrial user may get a provisional allowance to enable him to acquire rationed fats or oils to manufacture injectable mercury or bismuth compounds, soluble in fixed oil, intended for the treatment of syphilis, and conforming to the requirements of the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

2. Section 7.13 (b) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) An industrial user's application for a provisional allowance for rationed fats or oils, for use in manufacturing antisyphilis preparations must contain the following information:

(i) The product made by him for which the provisional allowance is requested, and a statement that the product he manufactures conforms to the requirements of the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act;

(ii) The number of pounds of the product which he expects to make during the period for which application is made;

(iii) The average number of pounds of each type of rationed fats or oils (stated separately for each type) he used during 1941 or 1942, or from January 1 to March 28, 1943, inclusive (whichever period he chooses), for each 100 pounds of the product;

(iv) A report of his use of his last provisional allowance showing the number of pounds of rationed fats or oils (stated separately for each type), and the number of pounds of the product made;

(v) The number, if any, of unused points remaining from his last provisional allowance (or supplemental allotment, if any) for rationed fats or oils for that product.

If he makes more than one product for which he is entitled to receive a provisional allowance, he may include them all in a single application. However, he must give all the required information separately for each of the products.

3. Section 7.13 (c) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) The amount of the provisional allowance for rationed fats or oils for use in manufacturing antisyphilis preparations shall be computed in the following way:

(i) The number of pounds of the product which the applicant expects to make during the quarter is multiplied by the number of pounds of each type of rationed fats or oils which he used for each 100 pounds of that product during the period chosen by him under paragraph (b) (3) (iii);

(ii) The result, in each case, is multiplied by the factor fixed (in the supplement to this order) for provisional allowances for rationed fats or oils for antisyphilis preparations;

(iii) The resulting figures are multiplied by the point value established on the Official Table of Trade Point Values for the rationed fats or oils used by the applicant;

(iv) These figures are added together and the result is his provisional allowance for the period.

The board shall issue to him a certificate for the amount of his provisional allowance less the point value of any unused balance of his last provisional allowance, or supplemental allotment, for rationed fats or oils to make that product.

4. Section 7.13 (f) is added to read as follows:

(f) Amendment of registration when products are added to those for which industrial user may receive provisional allowance. Any industrial user who, after January 5, 1944, becomes entitled to receive a provisional allowance must amend his registration, on OPA Form R–1200, by April 5, 1944, or within 20 days after he becomes entitled to receive the provisional allowance, whichever is later. He must reduce his base-period use of foods covered by this order, shown on Schedule II of OPA Form R–1200, by the amount used by him during the base period to make the product or use for which he is entitled to receive the provisional allowance. He must also amend Schedule I of OPA Form R–1200 to show the products or uses made by him for which he is entitled to receive the provisional allowance. In addition, he must, at the same time, report to his board the unused portion of that part of his current allotment which was based on his use of foods covered by this order to make that product or use. That amount shall be deducted from the certificate issued to him for his first provisional allowance for that product or use. If that amount exceeds his first provisional allowance, the excess shall be deducted from subsequent provisional allowance certificates issued to him for that product or use, and no provisional allowance certificate shall be issued to him for that product or use until that amount has been deducted in this way.

5. Section 17.7 (b) (37) is added to read as follows:

(37) Persons who transfer foods point-free to insurers or for salvage, must report such transfers. (Section 11.10)

6. Section 17.7 (b) (38) is added to read as follows:

(38) Provisional allowance users must report the amount of foods used, the amount of product made, and other information. (Section 7.13 (e), (f))

This amendment shall become effective March 16, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[MPR 509, Order 1]

PACKED CITRUS PRODUCTS OF THE 1944 AND LATER PACKS

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and in accordance with section 2.1 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 509, It is ordered:

(a) For grapefruit juice packed during the respective periods set forth in paragraph (b) below, processors shall reduce the named maximum prices for government sales as listed in section 2.1 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 509 by the amounts set forth below respectively for each period of pack, state or area and container size. The resulting figures shall be the processors' maximum prices for grapefruit juice packed during the respective periods for sales to government procurement agencies. For the purpose of applying the monthly area grapefruit juice cost reduction the states of Florida and Texas shall be treated as two separate areas.

Example: The maximum price for government sales of grapefruit juice named in section 2.1 (a) of MPR 509 for No. 2 size cans of natural, fancy grade grapefruit juice is $1.36 for Florida and Texas. The monthly area grapefruit juice cost reduction for October and November 1943, for grapefruit juice packed from grapefruit produced in Texas is $.105 for the same container size. The processor, therefore, subtracts $.105 from $1.36 ($1.36 minus $.105 equals $1.255) and the resulting figure is his maximum price for sales of grapefruit juice packed during the months of October and November 1943, for sales to government procurement agencies.

(b) Reduction per dozen containers:

State or area	Style of pack	Grade	Period of pack	Reduced maximum prices named in section 2.1 (a) for Government sales per dozen containers by amounts set forth below
				No. 8 Can	No. 9 Cyl. Can	No. 10 Can

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-863]

SOUTHWESTERN DEVELOPMENT CO. AND WEST TEXAS GAS CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 10th day of March 1944.

Notice is hereby given that a joint declaration or application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Southwestern Development Company (Southwestern) a registered holding company, and one of its subsidiaries, West Texas Gas Company (West Texas).

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 18, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, said declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said joint declaration or application, which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below.

(a) Southwestern proposes to modify, pursuant to a letter agreement, dated February 15, 1944, with Guaranty Trust Company of New York, the maturities, instalment payments and interest rates of four secured promissory notes, aggregating $2,511,493.12 representing the unpaid principal balance of such notes previously issued to and presently held by Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as is indicated below:

EXISTING MATURITY AND INTEREST RATES

Date of issue	Present maturity date	Principal amount	Interest rates (percent)
1/2/44	July 1, 1946	$[illegible]	[illegible]
1/2/40	July 1, 1946	[illegible]	[illegible]
	July 1, 1947	[illegible]	[illegible]
10/28/40	July 1, 1947	[illegible]	[illegible]
12/30/40	July 1, 1947	[illegible]	[illegible]

PROPOSED MODIFIED MATURITY AND INTEREST RATES

Date of issue	Modified maturity date	Principal amount	Interest rates (percent)
1/2/44	July 1, 1945	$46,625.35	2½
1/2/40	July 1, 1945	364,378.65	2½
	July 1, 1946	188,992.20
	July 1, 1946	85,617.80	2½
10/28/40	July 1, 1947	823,000.00	2½
12/30/40	July 1, 1948	155,323.70	2½
	July 1, 1946	842,999.42	2½

The proposed changes are to be effectuated by stamping or endorsing the four existing notes with a legend referring to the modifications as set forth in the aforesaid letter agreement.

(b) West Texas proposes to issue as of February 18, 1944, its unsecured instalment promissory note for $1,650,000 to Guaranty Trust Company of New York with maturities, interest rates, and instalments as follows:

PROPOSED INSTALLMENT NOTE

Date of installment	Amount of installment	Interest rates (percent)
Jan. 2, 1945	$330,000	2½
Jan. 2, 1946	330,000	2½
Jan. 2, 1947	330,000	2½
Jan. 2, 1948	330,000	2½
Jan. 2, 1949	330,000	2½
	1,650,000

This note is being issued for the purpose of modifying the instalment payments and interest rates of the unpaid balance ($1,650,000) of a secured note previously issued to and presently held by Guaranty Trust Company of New York in the principal amount of $3,150,000, retiring this presently outstanding secured note and effectuating the release and cancellation of $1,650,000 of mortgage bonds and a $2,000,000 mortgage promissory note presently pledged as collateral security therefor.

ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC CO. AND PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia 3, Pa., on the 13th day of March 1944.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Associated Electric Company, a registered holding company, and by its subsidiary, Pennsylvania Electric Company. All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration, which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Associated Electric Company proposes to sell all its interest in its wholly-owned subsidiary, Penelec Water Company, to Pennsylvania Electric Company. This interest consists of 5 shares of the $100 par value common stock of Penelec Water Company and an open account receivable, as at December 31, 1943, of $355,000 bearing interest at the rate of 6% per annum, when, as, and if earned in any calendar year. In consideration of the above, Pennsylvania Electric Company proposes to issue and sell such number of shares of its $20 par value common stock to Associated Electric Company as will equal the net book value of the investment of Associated Electric Company in Penelec Water Company shown by the latter's books as of the date of settlement. (As of December 31, 1943, the number of shares to be so issued would have been 17,482.)

The applicants-declarants consider sections 6 (a), 6 (b), 9 (a) (1), and 12 (f) of the act and Rule U-43 of the general rules and regulations as being applicable to the proposed transactions. Applicants-declarants state the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has approved the issuance by Pennsylvania Electric Company of its common stock, and has also approved the acquisition by Pennsylvania Electric Company of the common stock and open account indebtedness of Penelec Water Company.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the said joint application-declaration and that said joint application-declaration should not be granted or become effective, except pursuant to further order of the Commission, and that at said hearing there will be considered, among other things, the various matters herein set forth.

It is hereby ordered, That a hearing be held upon said matter on March 24, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such application may be granted, and declaration become effective. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file with the Secretary of this Commission, on or before March 22, 1944, his request or an application therefor as provided in Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice;

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said joint application-declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed issue and sale of common stock by Pennsylvania Electric Company is solely for the purpose of financing its business, and whether it is appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose any terms and conditions in connection therewith.

2. Whether the considerations to be paid and received in connection with the proposed transactions, including all fees, commissions and other remuneration, are reasonable.

3. Whether the acquisition by Pennsylvania Electric Company of the securities of Penelec Water Company is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

4. The propriety of the proposed accounting treatment of the several transactions on the books of the respective applicants and declarants.

5. What terms and conditions, if any, are necessary or appropriate in the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers to insure compliance with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or any rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

6. Generally, whether the proposed transactions comply with the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and are not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

CAPITAL TRANSIT COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 13th day of March 1944.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission by Capital Transit Company, a nonutility subsidiary of The Washington Railway and Electric Company and The North American Company, both registered holding companies, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations of this Commission promulgated thereunder. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Capital Transit Company contemplates the issuance and sale of approximately $16,000,000 principal amount of twenty-year 4% First Mortgage Bonds, the proceeds of which would be applied to the refunding of all or a part of its existing funded debt. The Company states that the exact nature and extent of the proposed refunding program has not yet been determined, and may depend to some extent upon whether the Company is required to sell the new bonds through competitive bidding. The Company requests that it be granted an exemption, pursuant to Rule U-50 (a) (5) (B), from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 (b) and (c) in respect of the negotiation and sale of the new bonds.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest that a hearing be held with respect to said matter and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of the said act and the rules promulgated thereunder be held on March 29, 1944 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such application shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above named applicant and to all interested parties, said notice to be given to said applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard at said hearing or proposing to intervene therein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before March 25, 1944, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the said application otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether compliance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 with respect to the issuance and sale of the proposed securities is not appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers as a condition to the exemption of such issuance or sale from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the act or to aid the Commission (in carrying out the provisions of section 6 (b) of the act) to determine such terms and conditions as it may be appropriate to impose in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers in exempting such issuance or sale from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the act;

(2) Whether, in the event an exemption should be granted, it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in connection therewith in the public interest or in the interest of investors or consumers and if so, what those terms and conditions should be.

By the Commission.

SMALLER WAR PLANTS CORPORATION.

THOMAS M. MARSHALL CO. & ASSOCIATES

RECOMMENDATION OF FORMATION OF WAR PRODUCTION ASSOCIATION

Thomas M. Marshall Co. & Associates, Gloucester City, New Jersey, is a War Production Association comprising seven companies, having structural steel, sheet metal, welding, assembling, general machine shop, and complete woodworking facilities, as listed in Appendix I. The purpose of this Association is to combine the facilities and skills of the member companies for the manufacture of articles, equipment, supplies, and materials for war and essential civilian requirements, and more particularly for the manufacture, assembly, and installation of wooden items with metal components and sheet metal fabrications. The activities of the Association will relate solely to war and essential civilian work and will terminate within six months after the end of the war.

In my opinion, the formation and operation of the Thomas M. Marshall Co. & Associates is appropriate to the fulfillment of the purposes of Public Law 603—77th Congress, approved June 11, 1942 (56 Stat. 351) and Executive Order No. 6891 of September 4, 1941. I have therefore approved the Plan of Organization, Procedure, and Objectives of the Thomas M. Marshall Co. & Associates, and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under Section 12 of Public Law 603—77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said Plan is requisite to the prosecution of the war (See Certificate 199, infra).

G. & S. CONTRACTING ASSOCIATION

RECOMMENDATION OF FORMATION OF WAR PRODUCTION ASSOCIATION

G. & S. Contracting Association, Bridgeport, Connecticut, is a War Production Association comprising 14 companies, having light and medium machine shop facilities for precision work, as listed in Appendix I. The purpose of this Association is to combine the facilities and skills of the member companies for the manufacture of articles, equipment, supplies, and materials for war and essential civilian requirements, and more particularly for the design and production of jigs, tools, and fixtures; and for the quantity production of such items as light and medium bombs, gear reduction units, aircraft gun mounts, and other Ordnance items. The activities of the Association will relate solely to war and essential civilian work and will terminate within six months after the end of the war.

In my opinion the formation and operation of the G. & S. Contracting Association is appropriate to the fulfillment of the purposes of Public Law 603—77th Congress, approved June 11, 1942 (56 Stat. 351) and Executive Order No. 6891 of September 4, 1941. I have therefore approved the Plan of Organization, Procedure, and Objectives of the G. & S. Contracting Association, and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12 of Public Law 603—77th Congress (56th Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said Plan is requisite to the prosecution of the war (See Certificate 198, infra).

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

CERTAIN AREAS IN ILLINOIS

MINIMUM WARTIME WORKWEEK

Designation of certain areas in the State of Illinois as subject to Executive Order No. 9301.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Regional Manpower Director of Region VI by § 903.2 of War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3, "Minimum Wartime Workweek of 48 Hours", and having found that such action will aid in alleviating labor shortages which are impeding the war effort, I hereby designate the following areas as subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9301:

Boone County and the townships of Burritt, Cherry Valley, Durand, Harlem, Harrison, Owen, Pecatonica, Rockford, Seward, and Winnebago in Winnebago County.

I. The effective date of this designation is April 15, 1944.

II. Not later than the effective date, each employer in the designated areas shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work.

Date of issuance: March 6, 1944.

aforesaid act of September 25, 1941, do declare and proclaim:

That with respect to (1) works subject to copyright under the laws of the United States of America, including works eligible to ad interim copyright, which were first produced or published outside of the United States of America on or after September 3, 1939, by British nationals of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of the British territories to which the aforesaid Order in Council applies, or by citizens of Palestine (excluding Trans-Jordan); and (2) works of the same authors or copyright proprietors which were entitled to renewal of copyright under the laws of the United States of America on or after September 3, 1939, there existed and continues to exist such disruption or suspension of facilities essential to compliance with the conditions and formalities prescribed with respect to such works by the copyright laws of the United States of America as to bring such works within the terms of the aforesaid act of September 25, 1941; and that accordingly the time within which compliance with such conditions and formalities may take place is hereby extended with respect to such works until the day on which the President of the United States of America shall, in accordance with that act, terminate or suspend the present declaration and proclamation.

It shall be understood that the term of copyright in any case is not and cannot be altered or affected by this proclamation, and that, as provided by the aforesaid act of September 25, 1941, no liability shall attach under the Copyright Act for lawful uses made or acts done prior to the effective date of this proclamation in connection with the above-described works, or in respect to the continuance for one year subsequent to such date of any business undertaking or enterprise lawfully undertaken prior to such date involving expenditure or contractual obligation in connection with the exploitation, production, reproduction, circulation, or performance of any such work.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

[SEAL]

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—War Food Administration (Farm Security)

Subchapter A—Administration

[Administrator's Memorandum 37]

PART 300—GENERAL

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

§ 300.11 Delegation of authority to Frank Hancock, as Administrator of the Farm Security Administration, to approve sales of real and personal property and to carry out the expeditious liquidation of projects. By virtue of the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 7027, dated April 30, 1935, as amended by Executive Order No. 7200, dated September 26, 1935, Executive Order No. 7028, dated April 30, 1935, Executive Order No. 7041, dated May 15, 1935, Executive Order No. 7530, dated December 31, 1936, as amended by Executive Order No. 7557, dated February 19, 1937, Executive Order No. 9322, dated March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, dated April 19, 1943, and by R.S. 161 (5 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 22), Frank Hancock, as Administrator of the Farm Security Administration, is authorized to sell and dispose of, in accordance with the applicable provisions of law, all real and personal property under the jurisdiction of the Farm Security Administration, and is further authorized and directed to do all things necessary in accordance with the applicable provisions of law, to carry out the expeditious liquidation of all resettlement projects, rural rehabilitation projects for resettlement purposes, cooperative land-leasing and land-purchasing associations and all other cooperative farming enterprises now under the jurisdiction of the Farm Security Administration, including the real and personal property comprising such enterprises, which come within the Congressional mandate to liquidate.

The authority hereby delegated includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) The approval of sales and conveyances of real property or interests therein held by the United States of America and under the jurisdiction of the Farm Security Administration, including real property held in trust for any State rural rehabilitation corporation, and to execute, on behalf of the United States of America, all deeds or other instruments necessary in connection therewith: Provided, however, That in selling such property, the Administrator shall be guided by the following principles:

(1) Wherever practicable, sales of economic farm units shall be made to persons eligible under Title I of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act at prices based on the earning capacity of the farms. The purchase price for each such farm shall be payable over a period not in excess of 40 years, and the unpaid portion of the purchase price shall bear interest at the rate of three per cent per annum.

(2) Sales of subsistence units shall be for the reasonable fair value thereof. The purchase price shall be payable over a period not in excess of 40 years and the balance of the purchase price shall bear interest at the rate of three per cent per annum, payable annually.

(3) All the interests in oil, gas, and other mineral rights which are vested in or owned by the United States, either legally or equitably, at the time of the sale of lands in accordance with this authorization, shall be reserved when the properties to be conveyed are situated in areas where such mineral rights have substantial market value or where, based on the opinion of qualified geologists, such rights are prospectively of substantial market value. At least 75% of all of the oil, gas and other mineral rights vested in or owned by the United States either legally or equitably at the time of conveyance will be reserved when such lands are situated within areas where such rights have no known market value or the market value thereof is nominal and where, based on the opinion of qualified geologists, such rights are not prospectively of substantial market value. Where mineral rights are to be transferred, including instances where the lands to be conveyed are held at the time of conveyance under purchase contracts reserving to the United States all minerals, the market value of the mineral rights to be conveyed will be taken into consideration in establishing the purchase price of such lands.

(b) The transfer, by sale or grant in accordance with the applicable provisions of law, of the school and other community facilities including, but not limited to, water systems, irrigation systems, sewage disposal systems and other public utilities serving such projects, to eligible purchasers authorized by law to acquire, operate and maintain such facilities. All dedications pursuant to section 4 of the Bankhead-Black Act (40 U.S.C. 434) must be approved by me.

(c) The application in accordance with the applicable provisions of law, in those instances where property of the Government has been improved by land-leasing associations, of the reasonable fair value of such improvements against the outstanding obligations of such associations owing to the United States.

(d) In connection with the sale and disposition of such property or interests therein: (1) To exercise for and on behalf of the United States of America, all rights, privileges and powers of the United States of America under the terms of any agreement or instrument heretofore or hereafter entered into in connection with the sale of such lands or property, or taken as security for the purchase price in connection with such sales; (2) to execute and perform all notices, consents and other acts to be given or done by the United States of America under the aforesaid agreements or security instruments; (3) to do and perform all things necessary for servicing, renewing and collecting the outstanding indebtedness in favor of the United States of America and to accept, record, release and satisfy instruments of security of all kinds, and (4) upon default in any payment or obligation, to enforce payment by realizing upon the security.

In the absence of the Administrator of the Farm Security Administration, or his inability to carry out the powers and functions hereby delegated, the authority conferred by this delegation may be exercised by the Acting Administrator of the Farm Security Administration.

This authority shall supersede the Secretary's memorandum dated March 15, 1943 (8 F.R. 3221), designated "Authorization of Administrator to approve sales of real property and execute deeds," and shall supersede Administration Order 246 (Rev. 1), dated July 20, 1939 (4 F.R. 3389), designated "Authority to approve the sale of State Rural Rehabilitation Corporation surplus real property."

All other delegations of authority not in conflict herewith shall remain unchanged and in full force and effect. In his discretion, the Administrator may delegate such of the powers as are hereby conferred upon him.

Issued this 13th day of March 1944.

MARVIN JONES,
War Food Administrator.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[FDO 95]

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

MILK SUGAR

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of milk sugar for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1401.170 Restrictions relative to milk sugar.—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent hereof:

(1) The term "milk sugar" means any milk product containing 80 percent or more of lactose monohydrate, dry weight basis.

(2) The term "refined milk sugar" means U. S. P. grade lactose (U. S. P. XII (1942) page 253).

(3) The term "technical milk sugar" means technical milk sugar, as defined by the Office of Price Administration. Whenever a new definition of "technical milk sugar" is issued by the Office of Price Administration, the term "technical milk sugar," as used herein, shall mean technical milk sugar as defined in said new definition.

(4) The term "crude milk sugar" means all milk sugar other than refined milk sugar and technical milk sugar.

(5) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(6) The term "inventory" means all quantities of milk sugar, including refined, technical, and crude milk sugar, owned by or in the possession or control of any person.

(7) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, War Food Administration.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall deliver, accept delivery of, use, produce, refine, or otherwise process milk sugar except in accordance with an authorization issued by the Director. Any such authorization shall be issued by the Director only if he determines that such authorization, including the conditions, if any, set forth therein by the Director, is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

(2) Any person desiring to deliver, accept delivery of, use, produce, refine, or otherwise process milk sugar may submit an application to the Director for authorization pursuant to the provisions of this order. An authorization, as aforesaid, shall, so far as reasonably feasible, be issued by the Director prior to the beginning of the calendar month during which the applicant is to deliver, accept delivery of, use, produce, refine, or otherwise process the milk sugar.

(3) Each producer, refiner, or commercial user of milk sugar shall, as soon as reasonably possible after the issuance of this order, notify his regular customers of the requirements of this order; however, the failure to receive such notice from a producer, refiner, or commercial user, as aforesaid, shall not excuse any person from complying with the provisions of this order.

(c) Exemptions. (1) The provisions of (b) hereof shall not apply to deliveries of refined milk sugar in retail packages for household or pharmaceutical use if the purchaser is (i) a person who is purchasing the refined milk sugar in a retail package, for household use, from a retail store; (ii) the operator of one or more retail stores; or (iii) a distributor of refined milk sugar for resale by retail stores.

(2) The provisions of (b) hereof shall not apply to purchases by or sales to hospitals or institutions that use refined milk sugar under doctors' orders or prescriptions.

(d) Records and reports. (1) Each producer of crude milk sugar, technical milk sugar, or refined milk sugar shall complete Form FD 95–1, and shall mail such completed form on or before the 5th day of each calendar month in accordance with (j) hereof.

(2) Each person who desires an authorization pursuant to (b) hereof may file with the Director an application therefor on Form FD 95–2 and mail such completed form on or before the 10th day of each calendar month in accordance with (j) hereof. Any person requesting an authorization to accept delivery of milk sugar for increasing his inventory shall indicate, in the aforesaid application, "inventory" as a product end-use. Any person desiring to use crude milk sugar or technical milk sugar for further refining shall indicate, in the aforesaid application, "refining" as a product end-use.

(3) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such additional information from, and require such additional reports and records by, any person as may be necessary or appropriate, in the discretion of the Director, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(4) Each person subject to this order shall, for at least two years (or for such period of time as the Director may designate), maintain an accurate record of his transactions in technical milk sugar, crude milk sugar, and refined milk sugar.

(5) The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent record-keeping and reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts, or payments made. This order shall not, however, be construed as reducing the amount of milk sugar which any person is required to offer or deliver pursuant to contracts heretofore or hereafter entered into with any governmental agency.

(f) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records, and other writing, premises or stocks of milk sugar of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of this order.

(g) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship on him may file a petition for relief with the administrator of this order. Such petition shall be addressed to Order Administrator, Food Distribution Order No. 95, Dairy and Poultry Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C. Petition for such relief shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Order Administrator may take any action with reference to such petition which is consistent with the authority delegated to him by the Director. If the petitioner is dissatisfied with the action taken by the Order Administrator on the petition, he shall, by requesting the Order Administrator therefor, obtain a review of such action by the Director. The Director may, after said review, take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final. The provisions of this paragraph (g) shall not be construed to deprive the Director of authority to consider originally any petition for relief from hardship submitted in accordance herewith. The Director may consider any such petition and take such action with reference thereto that he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(h) Violations. The War Food Administrator may, by suspension order, prohibit any person who violates any provision of this order from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using milk sugar, or any other material subject to priority or allocation control by the War Food Administrator, and may recommend that any such person be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using materials subject to the priority or allocation control of other governmental agencies. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(i) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate to any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture any or all of the authority vested in him by this order.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Order Administrator, FDO 95, Dairy and Poultry Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: FD 95.

(k) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its Territories and Possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(l) Effective date. This order shall be effective on April 1, 1944, at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9392, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423; E.O. 9392, 8 F.R. 14783)

Issued this 13th day of March 1944.

ASHLEY SELLERS,
Assistant War Food Administrator.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 4974]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

BEN KALISH

§ 3.6 (c) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Composition of goods: § 3.6 (n) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Nature—Product: § 3.96 (a) Using misleading name—Goods—Composition: § 3.96 (a) Using misleading name—Goods—Nature. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of furs and fur garments, (1) using the word "Caracul" or any simulation thereof, either alone or in conjunction with any other word or words, to designate or describe furs or fur garments made from kidskin or from the peltries of any animals other than lambs or sheep of the Karakul breed; (2) designating or describing the peltries of which furs or fur garments are made in any way other than by the use of the correct name of the peltries as the last word of the description; subject to the provision that where a fur or fur garment is made of peltries which have been dyed, the correct name of the peltries shall be immediately preceded, in letters of at least equal conspicuousness, by the word "dyed"; and that in the case of peltries which have been dyed to simulate other peltries, the word "dyed" may be compounded with the name of the peltries simulated, as, for example, "Seal-Dyed Rabbit" or "Beaver-Dyed Rabbit"; and (3) misrepresenting in any manner or by any means the peltries of which furs or fur garments are made; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Ben Kalish, Docket 4974, March 2, 1944]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2d day of March, A. D. 1944.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Ben Kalish, an individual, and his representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of furs and fur garments in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the word "Caracul" or any simulation thereof, either alone or in conjunction with any other word or words, to designate or describe furs or fur garments made from kidskin or from the peltries of any animals other than lambs or sheep of the Karakul breed.

2. Designating or describing the peltries of which furs or fur garments are made in any way other than by the use of the correct name of the peltries as the last word of the description; and where a fur or fur garment is made of peltries which have been dyed, the correct name of the peltries shall be immediately preceded, in letters of at least equal conspicuousness, by the word "dyed"; and in the case of peltries which have been dyed to simulate other peltries, the word "dyed" may be compounded with the name of the peltries simulated, as, for example, "seal-dyed rabbit" or "beaver-dyed rabbit."

3. Misrepresenting in any manner or by any means the peltries of which furs or fur garments are made.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter A—Income and Excess-Profits Taxes

[T. D. 5340]

CONSOLIDATED INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAX RETURNS

Effective for taxable years for which the return is due to be filed on or after the date of the approval of this Treasury decision, Regulations 104 [Part 23, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.] and Regulations 110 [Part 33, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Sup.] are amended as follows:

PART 23—CONSOLIDATED RETURNS OF AFFILIATED RAILROAD CORPORATIONS AND PAN AMERICAN TRADE CORPORATIONS

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 23.31 (d) (1), as amended by Treasury Decision 5244, approved March 13, 1943, is further amended by striking from subdivision (iv) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subdivision (v) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "and"; and by inserting therein the following new subdivision:

(vi) In the computation of the net income of a corporation for the taxable year in which it became the common parent corporation of the affiliated group filing a consolidated return, the aggregate deductions of such corporation for such year otherwise allowable in excess of the gross income of such corporation for such year shall be excluded to the extent that such excess is attributable to that portion of such year preceding the date upon which such corporation became the common parent corporation of the group. Any amount excluded under this subdivision shall, to the extent that it constitutes a net operating loss within the provisions of section 122 or a net capital loss within the provisions of section 117, be considered as a net operating loss or a net capital loss, as the case may be, separately sustained by such corporation and subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) (iii) (c) and (d) or paragraph (b) (2) (ix) (b) of this section.

PART 33—CONSOLIDATED RETURNS OF AFFILIATED CORPORATIONS PRESCRIBED UNDER SECTION 730 (B) OF THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX ACT OF 1940

PAR. 2. Section 33.31 (c), as amended by Treasury Decision 5327, approved January 14, 1944, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking from subaragraph (1) (iv) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (1) (v) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "and"; and by inserting in subparagraph (1) the following new subdivision:

(vi) In the computation of the net income of a corporation for the taxable year in which it became the common parent corporation of the affiliated group filing a consolidated return, the aggregate deductions of such corporation for such year otherwise allowable in excess of the gross income of such corporation for such year shall be excluded to the extent that such excess is attributable to that portion of such year preceding the date upon which such corporation became the common parent corporation of the group. Any amount excluded under this subdivision shall, to the extent that it constitutes a net operating loss within the provisions of section 122 or a net capital loss within the provisions of section 117, be considered as a net operating loss or a net capital loss, as the case may be, separately sustained by such corporation and subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) (iii) (c) and (d) or paragraph (b) (2) (ix) (b) of this section.

(B) By inserting therein the following new subparagraph:

(14) In the case of an affiliated group formed at any time subsequent to March 14, 1941, or having among its members one or more subsidiaries which became members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941, the consolidated excess profits credit for the taxable year shall be determined subject to the following qualifications:

(i) The portion of the consolidated excess profits credit otherwise allowable with respect to the common parent corporation shall not exceed:

(a) The portion of the consolidated excess profits net income for the taxable year attributable to such common parent corporation, in the case of a group formed subsequent to March 14, 1941, or

(b) In the case of a group formed prior to March 15, 1941, but having among its members in the taxable year one or more subsidiaries which became members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941, the aggregate of the portion of the consolidated excess profits net income for the taxable year attributable to the common parent corporation and to the several subsidiary corporations which were members of the group on March 14, 1941, reduced by that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit attributable to such subsidiaries;

(ii) The portion of the consolidated excess profits credit otherwise allowable with respect to a subsidiary corporation which became a member of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941, shall not exceed:

(a) The portion of the consolidated excess profits net income for the taxable year attributable to such subsidiary corporation in the case in which such subsidiary corporation was not on March 14, 1941, a member of an affiliated group within the meaning of section 141, or

(b) If such subsidiary corporation was a member of an affiliated group on March 14, 1941, an amount which, together with that portion of the consolidated excess profits credit computed subject to the provisions of these regulations and attributable to other members of the group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such subsidiary corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, does not exceed the aggregate of the portion of the consolidated excess profits net income for the taxable year attributable to such subsidiary corporation and to such other members of the group;

(iii) The portion of the consolidated excess profits credit otherwise allowable for the taxable year which is disallowed pursuant to the provisions of (i) and (ii) shall be considered as an unused excess profits credit in respect of those members of the group by reference to which the amount of the credit disallowed under (i) and (ii) was determined, originating, for the purpose of the unused excess profits credit carry-back provisions, in a taxable year subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which their income was included in a consolidated return, and, for the purpose of the unused excess profits credit carry-over provisions, in a taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which their income was included in a consolidated return;

(iv) The provisions of subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall not apply with respect to the common parent corporation of an affiliated group formed subsequent to March 14, 1941, or to the common parent corporation of a group in existence on March 14, 1941, acquiring new members subsequent to March 14, 1941, or with respect to subsidiaries becoming members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941:

(a) If the group consists solely of the common parent corporation and one or more subsidiaries created, directly or indirectly, by the common parent corporation or by other members of the group;

(b) If, immediately after the corporation involved became a member of the group, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock then outstanding and at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock then outstanding is owned, directly or indirectly, by substantially the same interests by which such stock was owned on March 14, 1941;

(c) If the affiliated group involved was formed, or the new subsidiary became a member of the group, as an incident to an involuntary conversion or to a transfer made pursuant to an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Communications Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or a similar regulatory body of State or Federal Governent; or

(d) To the extent to which, upon consideration of the facts or circumstances presented by the particular case, the Commissioner determines that a consolidated excess profits credit computed with respect to the affiliated group but without regard to those subdivisions will not serve to distort the excess profits tax liability of the group or of any of its members.

CONSOLIDATED INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAX RETURNS

Effective for taxable years for which the return is due to be filed on or after the date of the approval of this Treasury decision, Regulations 104 (Part 23, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Supp.) and Regulations 110 (Part 33, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Supp.) are amended as follows:

PART 23—CONSOLIDATED RETURNS OF AFFILIATED RAILROAD CORPORATIONS AND PAN AMERICAN TRADE CORPORATIONS

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 23.31 (d), as amended, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking from subparagraph (1) (v) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (1) (vi) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "and"; and by inserting in subparagraph (1) the following new subdivision:

(vii) In the case of a corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, allowable deductions shall be determined subject to the qualifications prescribed in subparagraph (11) of this paragraph.

(B) By striking from subparagraph (2) (iii) (b) the word "and"; by striking the semicolon at the end of subparagraph (2) (iii) (c) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "and"; and by inserting in subparagraph (2) (iii) the following new inferior subdivision:

(d) In the case of a corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, capital losses to the extent disallowed pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (11) of this paragraph;

(C) By striking from subparagraph (2) (vii) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (2) (viii) and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and the word "and"; and by inserting in subparagraph (2) the following new subdivision:

(ix) In the case of a corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j) shall be determined subject to the qualifications prescribed in subparagraph (11) of this paragraph.

(D) By inserting therein the following new subparagraphs:

(10) In no case shall there be included in the computation of the consolidated net capital gain for the taxable year as a consolidated net capital loss carry-over under (b) (2) (ix) (b) of this section (relating to net capital losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) an amount exceeding in the aggregate the net capital gains of such corporation (determined without regard to any net capital loss carry-over) included in the computation of the consolidated net capital gain for the taxable year.

(11) In the case of an affiliated group formed at any time subsequent to March 14, 1941, or having among its members in the taxable year one or more subsidiaries which became members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941, the consolidated net income for the taxable year, and for prior and subsequent taxable years to the extent affected by carrybacks and carry-overs from the taxable year, shall be determined subject to the following qualifications:

(i) There shall be excluded in the case of the common parent corporation and in the case of any subsidiaries which were members of the group on March 14, 1941, those deductions from gross income otherwise allowable with respect to:

(a) Sales or exchanges of capital assets,

(b) Involuntary conversions and sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

(c) Securities subject to the provisions of section 23 (g) (4) or sections 23 (k) (5), or

(d) Debts subject to the provisions of section 23 (k) (1), to the extent that such deductions otherwise allowable exceed in the aggregate:

(1) In the case of capital losses, the excess of the aggregate capital gains over the aggregate capital losses of such corporations for the taxable year, or

(2) In the case of ordinary losses, the aggregate of the ordinary net income of such corporations for the taxable year, increased in an amount equal to any excess of aggregate capital gains over aggregate capital losses of such corporations,

such capital gains and losses and such ordinary net income being determined pursuant to the provisions of these regulations but without regard to the provisions (d) (1) (iv) and (d) (2) (iii) (b) of this section and without regard to the losses in question;

(ii) There shall be excluded in the case of a subsidiary corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, those deductions from gross income otherwise allowable with respect to:

(a) Sales or exchanges of capital assets,

(b) Involuntary conversions and sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

(c) Securities subject to the provisions of section 23 (g) (4) or section 23 (k) (5), or

(d) Debts subject to the provisions of section 23 (k) (1), to the extent that such deductions otherwise allowable are attributable to events preceding the date upon which such corporation became a member of the group, and

(1) Being capital losses, exceed:

(i) The capital gains reduced by all other capital losses of such corporation for the taxable year, in the case in which such corporation was not, on March 14, 1941, a member of an affiliated group within the meaning of section 141, or

(ii) In case such corporation was a member of an affiliated group on March 14, 1941, an amount which, together with like losses computed subject to the provisions of these regulations in the case of other members of the group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, is equal to the aggregate capital gains reduced by the aggregate of all other capital losses of such corporation and of such other members of the group, or

(2) Being ordinary losses, exceed:

(i) The ordinary net income of such corporation for the taxable year increased in an amount equal to any excess of capital gains over capital losses for the taxable year, in the case in which such corporation was not, on March 14, 1941, a member of an affiliated group within the meaning of section 141, or

(ii) In case such corporation was a member of an affiliated group on March 14, 1941, an amount which, together with like losses computed subject to the provisions of these regulations in the case of other members of the group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, is equal to the ordinary net income of such corporation for the taxable year increased by the aggregate of the ordinary net income and decreased by the aggregate of the ordinary net losses of other members of the affiliated group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, and increased further in an amount equal to any excess of aggregate capital gains over aggregate capital losses of such corporations,

such capital gains and losses, and ordinary net income and net losses, as the case may be, being determined pursuant to the provisions of these regulations but without regard to the provisions of paragraphs (d) (1) (iv) and (d) (2) (iii) (b) of this section and without regard to the losses in question;

(iii) The portion of any loss otherwise allowable as a deduction for the taxable year which is disallowed pursuant to the provisions of (i) and (ii) shall, to the extent that it constitutes a net capital loss within the provisions of section 117 or a net operating loss within the provisions of section 122, be considered as a net capital loss or a net operating loss, as the case may be, in respect of those members of the group by reference to which the amount of the deduction disallowed under (i) and (ii) was determined, originating, for the purpose of the carry-back provisions, in a taxable year subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which their income was included in a consolidated return, and, for the purpose of the carry-over provisions, in a taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which their income was included in a consolidated return;

(iv) The provisions of subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall not apply with respect to the common parent corporation of an affiliated group formed subsequent to March 14, 1941, or to the common parent corporation of a group in existence on March 14, 1941, acquiring new members subsequent to March 14, 1941, or with respect to subsidiaries becoming members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941:

(a) If the group consists solely of the common parent corporation and one or more subsidiaries created, directly or indirectly, by the common parent corporation or by other members of the group;

(b) If, immediately after the corporation involved became a member of the group, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock then outstanding and at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock then outstanding is owned, directly or indirectly, by substantially the same interests by which such stock was owned on March 14, 1941;

(c) If the affiliated group involved was formed, or the new subsidiary became a member of the group, as an incident to an involuntary conversion or to a transfer made pursuant to an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Communications Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or a similar regulatory body of State or Federal Government; or

(d) To the extent to which, upon consideration of the facts or circumstances presented by the particular case, the Commissioner determines that a consolidated net income computed with respect to the affiliated group but without regard to those subdivisions will not serve to distort the income tax liability of the group or of any of its members.

PART 33—CONSOLIDATED RETURNS OF AFFILIATED CORPORATIONS PRESCRIBED UNDER SECTION 730 (b) OF THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX ACT OF 1940

PAR. 2. Section 33.31 (c), as amended, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking from subparagraph (1) (v) the word "and"; by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (1) (vi) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the word "and"; and by inserting in subparagraph (1) the following new subdivision:

(vii) In the case of a corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, allowable deductions shall be determined subject to the qualifications prescribed in subparagraph (16) of this paragraph.

(B) By changing subparagraph (2) (ii) to read as follows:

(ii) In the computation of capital gains and losses, short-term capital gains and losses, and long-term capital gains and losses, as defined in section 117 (a), the gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j), and the additional capital loss deductions authorized by section 204 (c) (5),

(a) There shall be eliminated all gains or losses arising in intercompany transactions; and

(b) In the case of a corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, capital gains and losses and gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from sales or exchange of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j) shall be determined subject to the qualifications prescribed in subparagraph (16) of this paragraph;

(C) By inserting therein the following new subparagraphs:

(15) In no case shall there be included in the computation of the consolidated net capital gain for the taxable year as a consolidated net capital loss carry-over under (b) (9) (ii) of this section (relating to net capital losses sustained by a corporation in years prior to the first taxable year in respect of which its income is included in the consolidated return) an amount exceeding in the aggregate the net capital gains of such corporation (determined without regard to any net capital loss carry-over) included in the computation of the consolidated net capital gain for the taxable year.

(16) In the case of an affiliated group formed at any time subsequent to March 14, 1941, or having among its members in the taxable year one or more subsidiaries which became members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941, the consolidated net income for the taxable year, and for prior and subsequent taxable years to the extent affected by carrybacks and carry-overs from the taxable year, shall be determined subject to the following qualifications:

(i) There shall be excluded in the case of the common parent corporation and in the case of any subsidiaries which were members of the group on March 14, 1941, those deductions from gross income otherwise allowable with respect to:

(a) Sales or exchanges of capital assets,

(b) Involuntary conversions and sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

(c) Securities subject to the provisions of section 23 (g) (4) or section 23 (k) (5), or

(d) Debts subject to the provisions of section 23 (k) (1), to the extent that such deductions otherwise allowable exceed in the aggregate:

(1) In the case of capital losses, the excess of the aggregate capital gains over the aggregate capital losses of such corporations for the taxable year, or

such capital gains and losses and such ordinary net income being determined pursuant to the provisions of these regulations but without regard to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) (iv) of this section and without regard to the losses in question;

(ii) There shall be excluded in the case of a subsidiary corporation which became a member of the affiliated group subsequent to March 14, 1941, those deductions from gross income otherwise allowable with respect to:

(a) Sales or exchanges of capital assets,

(b) Involuntary conversions and sales or exchanges of property subject to the provisions of section 117 (j),

(c) Securities subject to the provisions of section 23 (g) (4) or section 23 (k) (5), or

(d) Debts subject to the provisions of section 23 (k) (1), to the extent that such deductions otherwise allowable are attributable to events preceding the date upon which such corporation became a member of the group, and

(1) Being capital losses, exceed:

(i) The capital gains reduced by all other capital losses of such corporation for the taxable year, in the case in which such corporation was not, on March 14, 1941, a member of an affiliated group within the meaning of section 141, or

(ii) In case such corporation was a member of an affiliated group on March 14, 1941, an amount which, together with like losses computed subject to the provisions of these regulations in the case of other members of the group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, is equal to the aggregate capital gains reduced by the aggregate of all other capital losses of such corporation and of such other members of the group, or

(2) Being ordinary losses, exceed:

(i) The ordinary net income of such corporation for the taxable year increased in an amont equal to any excess of capital gains over capital losses for the taxable year, in the case in which such corporation was not, on March 14, 1941, a member of an affiliated group within the meaning of section 141, or

(ii) In case such corporation was a member of an affiliated group on March 14, 1941, an amount which, together with like losses computed subject to the provisions of these regulations in the case of other members of the group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, is equal to the ordinary net income of such corporation for the taxable year increased by the aggregate of the ordinary net income and decreased by the aggregate of the ordinary net losses of other members of the affiliated group during the taxable year which were affiliated with such corporation on March 14, 1941, within the meaning of section 141, and increased further in an amount equal to any excess of aggregate capital gains over aggregate capital losses of such corporations,

such capital gains and losses, and ordinary net income and net losses, as the case may be, being determined pursuant to the provisions of these regulations but without regard to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) (iv) of this section and without regard to the losses in question;

(iii) The portion of any loss otherwise allowable as a deduction of the taxable year which is disallowed pursuant to the provisions of (i) and (ii) shall, to the extent that it constitutes a net capital loss within the provisions of section 117 or a net operating loss within the provisions of section 122, be considered as a net capital loss or a net operating loss, as the case may be, in respect of those members of the group by reference to which the amount of the deduction disallowed under (i) and (ii) was determined, originating, for the purpose of the carry-back provisions, in a taxable year subsequent to the last taxable year in respect of which their income was included in a consolidated return, and, for the purpose of the carry-over provisions, in a taxable year prior to the first taxable year in respect of which their income was included in a consolidated return;

(iv) The provisions of subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall not apply with respect to the common parent corporation of an affiliated group formed subsequent to March 14, 1941, or to the common parent corporation of a group in existence on March 14, 1941, acquiring new members subsequent to March 14, 1941, or with respect to subsidiaries becoming members of the group subsequent to March 14, 1941.

(a) If the group consists solely of the common parent corporation and one or more subsidiaries created, directly or indirectly, by the common parent corporation or by other members of the group;

(b) If, immediately after the corporation involved became a member of the group, common parent corporation or subsidiary, as the case may be, stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock then outstanding and at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock then outstanding is owned, directly or indirectly, by substantially the same interests by which such stock was owned on March 14, 1941;

(c) If the affiliated group involved was formed, or the new subsidiary became a member of the group, as an incident to an involuntary conversion or to a transfer made pursuant to an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Communications Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or a similar regulatory body of State or Federal Government; or

(d) To the extent to which, upon consideration of the facts or circumstances presented by the particular case, the Commissioner determines that a consolidated net income computed with respect to the affiliated group but without regard to those subdivisions will not serve to distort the excess profits tax liability of the group or of any of its members.

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

EMPLOYERS' PENSION TRUST

In order to conform Regulations 111 [Part 29, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1943 Sup.] to section 3 of Public Law 201 (78th Congress), approved December 17, 1943, relating to extension of time for satisfying requirements of section 165 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6), of the Internal Revenue Code, with respect to trusts forming part of an employers' stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.23 (p)–1 the following:

PUBLIC LAW 201 (78th Congress, 1st Session), approved December 17, 1943.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

* * * * *

SEC. 3. (a) Section 162 (d) (1) (B) of the Revenue Act of 1942 is amended to read as follows:

(B) Such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of section 165 (a), (3), (4), and (5) and (6) for the period beginning with the beginning of the first taxable year following December 31, 1942, and ending December 31, 1944, if the provisions thereof satisfy such requirements by December 31, 1944, and if by that time such provisions are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than January 1, 1944.

(b) Section 162 (d) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1942 is amended to read as follows:

(2) In the case of a stock bonus, pension, profit sharing or annuity plan put into effect after September 1, 1942, such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of section 165 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6) for the period beginning with the date such plan is put into effect and ending December 31, 1944, if the provisions thereof satisfy such requirements by December 31, 1944, and if by that time such provisions are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than the effective date of such plan or January 1, 1944, whichever is the later.

PAR. 2. Section 29.23 (p)–9 is amended by changing the parenthetical matter immediately after the fifth sentence to read as follows:

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.165–1 the following:

PUBLIC LAW 201 (78th Congress, 1st Session), approved December 17, 1943.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

* * * * *

SEC. 3. (a) Section 162 (d) (1) (B) of the Revenue Act of 1942 is amended to read as follows:

(B) Such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of section 165 (a), (3), (4), and (5) and (6) for the period beginning with the beginning of the first taxable year following December 31, 1942, and ending December 31, 1944, if the provisions thereof satisfy such requirements by December 31, 1944, and if by that time such provisions are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than January 1, 1944.

(b) Section 162 (d) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1942 is amended to read as follows:

(2) In the case of a stock bonus, pension, profit sharing or annuity plan put into effect after September 1, 1942, such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of section 165 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6) for the period beginning with the date such plan is put into effect and ending December 31, 1944, if the provisions thereof satisfy such requirements by December 31, 1944, and if by that time such provisions are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than the effective date of such plan or January 1, 1944, whichever is the later.

PAR. 4. Section 29.165–5 is amended by changing the second and third paragraphs to read as follows:

In the case of a plan in effect on or before September 1, 1942, the plan will be considered as satisfying the requirements of section 165 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6) for the period beginning with the beginning of the first taxable year following December 31, 1942, and ending December 31, 1944, if the provisions of the plan satisfy such requirements by December 31, 1944, and if by that time such provisions are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than January 1, 1944. Thus, if an employer having such a plan in effect makes a return on the basis of the calendar year, he will have until December 31, 1944, to amend his plan so as to make it satisfy the requirements of section 165 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6) for the calendar years 1943 and 1944: Provided, That by December 31, 1944, the provisions of such plan so amended are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than January 1, 1944. Also, if he is on a fiscal year basis he will have until December 31, 1944, to amend his plan with respect to a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, provided such plan so amended is made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than January 1, 1944.

In the case of plans not in effect on or before September 1, 1942, section 165 is applicable to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941. However, if such a plan satisfies the requirements of section 165 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6) by December 31, 1944, and if by that time the provisions of such plan are made effective for all purposes as of a date not later than the effective date of such plan or January 1, 1944, whichever is the later, such plan shall be considered as satisfying such requirements for the period beginning with the date such plan is put into effect and ending December 31, 1944.

(Sec. 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U.S.C. 62) and sec. 3 of Pub. Law 201 (78th Cong.), approved December 17, 1943)

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[T. D. 5346]

PART 302—TAX ON PISTOLS AND REVOLVERS

EXEMPT SALES

In order to conform Regulations 47 [Part 302, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations], relating to the excise taxes on sales by the manufacturer of pistols and revolvers under the Internal Revenue Code, to section 307 (a) (2) and (b) (2) and (6) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), enacted February 25, 1944, such regulations, but only as prescribed and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885, approved February 11, 1939 [Chapter I, Note, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1939 Supp., p. 1599], are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding article 1 (§ 302.1), there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.) (a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * *

(2) Section 2700 (b) (1) (relating to exemptions from tax on pistols and revolvers) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Sales for use of states, etc. Pistols and revolvers sold for the use of any State, Territory of the United States, or political subdvision thereof, or the District of Columbia, shall be exempt from the tax imposed by subsection (a).

* * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. * * * the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

* * * * *

(2) The amendments of sections 2700 (b) (1), * * * of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be applicable to sales made on or after the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war. Such amendments shall not apply to deny an exemption otherwise applicable with respect to any article sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of the amendments, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

* * * * *

(6) For the purposes of this subsection the term "date of the termination of hostilities in the present war" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of such termination, or the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of such termination, whichever is the earlier.

* * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 302.9 (Article 9) is amended to read as follows:

§ 302.9 Exempt sales. Under the provisions of section 2700 (b) (1) prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1943, no tax attaches to pistols and revolvers sold by the manufacturer for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia. Any manufacturer claiming exemption from the tax must maintain records and be prepared to produce such evidence as will clearly establish the right to exemption.

By virtue of the amendment by section 307 (a) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1943 of section 2700 (b) (1), and the application of section 307 (b) (2) to such amendment, the exemption with respect to sales of pistols and revolvers by the manufacturer for the use of the United States, or possession of the United States is inapplicable on and after the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war, unless the sale is made pursuant to a contract entered into prior to such date, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

To be exempt from the tax the articles must be sold for the use of a Government or governmental agency. Pistols and revolvers sold to government officers in their private capacity or for their private use are not exempt from the tax.

(Sec. 307 (a) (2) and (b) (2) and (6) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.), and sec. 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., 467; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 3791))

PART 314—TAXES ON GASOLINE, LUBRICATING OIL, AND MATCHES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In order to conform Regulations 44 [Part 314, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1939 Supp.], relating to taxes on gasoline, lubricating oil, and matches under the Internal Revenue Code, to section 307 (a) (5) and (6) and (b) (1) and (3) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding § 314.24, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.) (a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * *

(5) Section 3442 (3) (relating to tax-free sales under Chapter 29) is amended to read as follows:

(3) for the exclusive use of any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia.

* * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. Despite the provisions of section 301, the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

(1) The amendments of sections * * * 3442 (3) * * * of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to sales made on or after the first day of the first month which begins three months or more after the date of the enactment of this Act. Such amendments shall not apply to deny an exemption otherwise applicable with respect to any articles sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of the amendments, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

* * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 314.24 is amended as follows:

(A) The first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

Under section 3442 (3) prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1943, no tax attaches to articles sold by the manufacturer direct to the United States, any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia, for its exclusive use, provided the exempt character of the sale is established as required by these regulations. By virtue of the amendment of section 3442 (3), sales of articles by the manufacturer to the United States on or after June 1, 1944, are not exempt from tax, unless the sale is made pursuant to a contract entered into prior to such date, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

(B) The last sentence of the second paragraph is amended to read as follows:

However, where any dealer resells a tax-paid article to any of the Governmental units named above, for its exclusive use, the manufacturer who paid the tax to the United States on his sale of the article may in certain cases secure a refund or credit as provided in § 314.64.

PAR 3. Immediately preceding § 314.64, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.) (a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * * *

(6) Section 3443 (a) (3) (A) (i) (relating to credits and refunds of excise taxes imposed by Chapter 29) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Resold for the exclusive use of any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia;

* * * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. Despite the provisions of section 301, the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

* * * * * *

(3) The amendment of section 3443 (a) (3) (A) (i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to deny the allowance of a credit or refund, otherwise allowable, with respect to the sale of any article by any person to the United States (A) prior to the date on which sales of such article to the United States become taxable, or (B) pursuant to a contract entered into prior to such date, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

* * * * * *

PAR. 4. Section 314.64 is amended by inserting immediately preceding the last paragraph a new paragraph as follows:

No credit or refund is allowable for tax paid with respect to the sale of any article on or after June 1, 1944, to the United States, except in those cases where tax has been paid on sales made pursuant to a contract entered into prior to June 1, 1944, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

(Sec. 307 (a) (5) and (6) and (b) (1) and (3) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.), and sections 3450 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., 419, 467; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 3450, 3791))

PART 323—SPECIAL TAXES WITH RESPECT TO COIN-OPERATED AMUSEMENTS AND GAMBLING DEVICES, BOWLING ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES AND POOL TABLES

BOWLING ALLEYS, BILLIARD AND POOL TABLES

In order to conform Regulations 59 (1941 edition) [Part 323, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Sup.], to sections 302 and 305 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding § 323.10, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.) (a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

* * * * * *

SEC. 1655. DEFINITION. For the purposes of this chapter the term "date of the termination of hostilities in the present war" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of such termination, or the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of such termination, whichever is the earlier.

PAR. 2. Immediately preceding § 323.30, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.) (a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES. In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following tables, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rate set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
*	*	*	*
3268	Billiard and pool tables; and Bowling alleys.	$10 per year per table; $10 per year per alley.	$20 per year per table; $20 per year per alley.
*	*	*	*

(b) Effective date or period of certain increases. * * *

(2) Billiard and pool tables and bowling alleys. The increase made by subsection (a) of this section in the tax imposed by section 3268 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be effective with respect to the period beginning July 1, 1944, and continuing through June 30 next following the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war (as defined in Chapter 9A of the Internal Revenue Code).

* * * * * *

SEC. 305. EXEMPTION OF BILLIARD AND POOL TABLES IN HOSPITALS FROM TAX. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.) (a) In general. Section 3268 (a) (relating to the tax on bowling alleys and billiard and pool tables) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following: "No tax shall be imposed under this section with respect to a billiard table or pool table in a hospital if no charge is made for the use of such table."

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by this section shall be effective beginning July 1, 1944.

PAR. 3. Section 323.31 is amended by striking out "of $10 per year" in the first sentence, and by adding the following new sentence at the end thereof:

No tax is incurred with respect to a billiard or pool table in a hospital if no charge is made for the use of such table.

PAR. 4. Section 323.32 is amended by striking out the first sentence of the first paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

For the period October 1, 1941 through June 30, 1944, the rate of tax is $10 per year for each bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table operated by the taxpayer. For the period July 1, 1944 through June 30 next following the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war, the rate of tax is $20 per year for each bowling alley, billard table, or pool table.

Subchapter D—Social Security and Carriers Taxes

[T. D. 5345]

PART 402—EMPLOYEES' TAX AND EMPLOYERS' TAX UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT

EMPLOYMENT TAXES

In order to conform Regulations 106 [Part 402, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, Cum. Supp.], relating to the employees' tax and the employers' tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (subchapter A, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code), to section 3 of the Joint Resolution approved December 22, 1943 (Public Law 211, 78th Congress), and to section 901 of the Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding section 402.301, relating to measure of employees' tax, the following is inserted:

SECTION 3 (a) OF THE JOINT RESOLUTION APPROVED DECEMBER 22, 1943 (PUBLIC LAW 211, 78TH CONGRESS)

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1400 of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1400) are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, and the first two calendar months of the calendar year 1944, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages received during the last ten calendar months of the calendar year 1944 and during the calendar year 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

SECTION 901 (a) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1943

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1400 of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1400) are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, and 1944, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages received during the calendar year 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

PAR. 2. Section 402.302, as amended by Treasury Decision 5185, approved November 27, 1942, relating to rates and computation of employees' tax, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 402.302 Rates and computation of employees' tax. The rates of employees' tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, and 1944	1
For the calendar year 1945	2
For the calendar years 1946, 1947, and 1948	2½
For the calendar year 1949 and subsequent calendar years	3

The employees' tax is computed by applying to the wages received by the employee the rate in effect at the time such wages are received.

Example. During 1944 A is an employee of B and is engaged in the performance of services which constitute employment (see § 402.203). In the following year, 1945, A receives from B $1,000 as remuneration for services performed by A in the preceding year. The tax is payable at the 2 percent rate in effect for the calendar year 1945 (the year in which the wages are received), and not at the 1 percent rate which is in effect for the calendar year 1944 (the year in which the services were performed).

PAR. 3. Immediately preceding § 402.401, relating to measure of employers' tax, the following is inserted:

SECTION 3 (b) OF THE JOINT RESOLUTION APPROVED DECEMBER 22, 1943 (PUBLIC LAW 211, 78TH CONGRESS)

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1410 of such Act [Federal Insurance Contributions Act] (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1410) are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, and the first two calendar months of the calendar year 1944, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages paid during the last ten calendar months of the calendar year 1944 and during the calendar year 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

SECTION 901 (b) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1943

Clauses (1) and (2) of section 1410 of such Act [Federal Insurance Contributions Act] (Internal Revenue Code, sec. 1410) are amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, and 1944, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

(2) With respect to wages paid during the calendar year 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

PAR. 4. Section 402.402, as amended by Treasury Decision 5185, relating to rates and computation of employers' tax, is further amended to read as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, and 1944	1
For the calendar year 1945	2
For the calendar years 1946, 1947, and 1948	2½
For the calendar year 1949 and subsequent calendar years	3

The employers' tax is computed by applying to the wages paid by the employer the rate in effect at the time such wages are paid.

PAR. 5. The last paragraph of § 402.705, as amended by Treasury Decision 5185, relating to special refunds of employees' tax on wages over $3,000, is amended by striking out "1943" and "1944" wherever they now appear therein, and by inserting in lieu thereof "1944" and "1945", respectively.

(Sec. 1429 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 178; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1429), sec. 3 of the Joint Resolution approved December 22, 1943 (Pub. Law 211, 78th Cong.), and sec. 901 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.))

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9126, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-485]

THE VERKAMP CORPORATION

The Verkamp Corporation has its main office in Cincinnati, Ohio, and is engaged principally in the sale of liquefied petroleum gas, and in connection therewith the installation of liquefied petroleum gas equipment. During the months of July and September of 1942, and January and August of 1943, The Verkamp Corporation executed orders bearing improper ratings and false certifications for and thereafter received delivery of substantial quantities of liquefied petroleum gas equipment without authority of the War Production Board and in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and Priorities Regulation No. 3. At the time of these violations, the responsible officers of The Verkamp Corporation were aware of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and Priorities Regulation No. 3. The violations in July and September, 1942, were deliberate and wilful, and the violations in January and August, 1943, were the result of gross negligence.

These violations have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.485 Suspension Order No. S-485. (a) Delivery of liquefied petroleum gas equipment, as defined in Limitation Order L-86, to The Verkamp Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, and no person, firm or corporation shall deliver liquefied petroleum gas equipment to The Verkamp Corporation, its successors and assigns, nor shall such equipment be acquired by it or them, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. However, this paragraph shall not affect the exceptions permitted by Limitation Order L-86, subparagraphs (1) through (4) of paragraph (d).

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The Verkamp Corporation, its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on March 14, 1944, and shall expire on June 14, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of March 1944.

PART 1076—PLUMBING AND HEATING SIMPLIFICATION

[Limitation Order L-42, Schedule IV, as Amended Mar. 15, 1944]

CAST IRON SOIL PIPE AND FITTINGS

§ 1076.5 Schedule IV to Limitation Order L-42—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this schedule "producer" means any person who manufactures, processes, fabricates or assembles cast iron soil pipe and fittings.

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order L-42 the following simplified practices are hereby established for cast iron soil pipe and fittings:

(1) Cast iron soil pipe shall be produced only in the following weights with a variation not exceeding 5 per cent (over or under) on individual lengths:

VICTORY WEIGHT

Size (inches)	Per single hub length	Per double hub length
	Pounds	Pounds
3	30	31
4	40	42
5	53	57
6	63	68
8	100	105
10	145	150
12	190	200
15	255	270

EXTRA HEAVY WEIGHT

Size (inches)	Per single hub length	Per double hub length
	Pounds	Pounds
2	25	26
3	45	47
4	60	63
5	75	78
6	95	100
8	150	157
10	214	225
15	375	395

(2) Cast iron soil pipe fittings shall be produced only in weights heretofore known commercially as "standard", and "medium", and "extra heavy", but brass pipe plugs and brass trap screws shall be discontinued on cleanouts, ferrules, traps, test tees and other soil pipe fittings.

(c) [Deleted Mar. 15, 1944]

PART 1109—MICA SPLITTINGS

[Conservation Order M-101-a]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of No. 5 or larger bookform muscovite mica splittings for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1109.2 Conservation Order M-101-a—(a) Definitions. (1) "Built-up mica insulation" means a product containing various combinations of mica splittings and binder, but having no backing or reenforcing material attached to or combined with it.

(2) "Composite mica insulation" means a product containing various combinations of mica splittings with such material as: fish paper, fibrous glass, fabrica, acetate sheets, paper, etc., held together in laminated form by a binder.

(b) Restrictions on use of mica splittings. No person shall use No. 5 or larger bookform muscovite mica splittings except in the manufacture of composite or built-up mica insulations where the mica content is an average thickness of not more than .003" including the binder. The average (also known as "nominal") thickness is based upon ten individual measurements per square yard.

(c) Reports. All consumers of mica splittings (both phlogopite and muscovite) in the manufacture of built-up or composite mica insulation shall, on or before the 15th day of each month, file Form WPB-3297 with the Mica-Graphite Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., and such other reports as the War Production Board may from time to time direct. The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all other communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Mica-Graphite Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-101-a.

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS[1]

[General Limitation Order L-212, as Amended Mar. 15, 1944]

INCANDESCENT LIGHTING FIXTURES

Section 3284.51[1] General Limitation Order L-212 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3284.51 General Limitation Order L-212—(a) Purposes of the order. This order places certain limitations on the manufacture and assembly of incandescent lighting fixtures and parts. It also restricts the sale and delivery of new fixtures and parts.

(b) Exceptions. The restrictions and limitations contained in this order do not apply to the manufacture and assembly or the sale and delivery of copper wire, sockets, switches, or accessories (such as threaded fittings, supporting straps, mounting straps, screws, locknuts, running thread nipples, or hickeys) used in attaching incandescent lighting fixtures to an electrical outlet.

Restrictions on Manufacture and Assembly

(c) Residential incandescent lighting fixtures. No person may manufacture or assemble a residential incandescent lighting fixture containing more than 12 ounces of metal, exclusive of the chain or stem of a suspended type fixture for which not more than 8 additional ounces of metal may be used. These weight limits are maximum and no overweight tolerances are permitted. In calculating the weight of the metals allowed, the weight of the items listed in paragraph (b) shall not be included.

(d) Utility incandescent lighting fixtures. Except upon specific authorization in writing by the War Production Board (application may be made by letter as indicated in paragraph (j)), no person may put into process in the manufacture of a utility incandescent lighting fixture any:

(1) Metal sheet of a gauge heavier than 22 U. S. Standard except for an outlet box cover;

(2) Metal for a louver, shield, baffle, reflector or surface mounted metal box except for:

(i) Illuminated exit signs;

(ii) Hospital bedside examining lights;

(iii) Silver and copper for plating glass reflectors; or

(iv) Stage lighting equipment;

(3) Metal for recessed lighting equipment such as a cove, troffer, coffer, or built-in types.

(e) Restrictions in other orders. In addition to the restrictions set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d), all provisions appearing in other orders of the War Production Board (such as Orders M-1-i (Aluminum), M-9-c (Copper), M-11-b (Zinc) and M-126 (Iron and Steel)) which restrict the use of materials in incandescent lighting fixtures and parts must also be complied with.

Restrictions on Sale and Delivery of Incandescent Lighting Fixtures

(f) Preference ratings. (1) No person may sell or deliver any new industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture or part except to fill an order or contract bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher, or bearing any preference rating which was assigned prior to March 15, 1944.

(2) No person may sell or deliver any new incandescent lighting fixture to fill an order bearing a blanket MRO rating lower than AA-2. The term "blanket MRO rating" is defined in Priorities Regulation 3.

(g) Exceptions to paragraph (f). There are five exceptions to the rules stated in paragraph (f). No preference rating is necessary for:

(1) The delivery of a fixture or part to an established testing laboratory for testing purposes only;

(2) The delivery of a fixture or part to a potential customer for demonstration but not for stock;

(3) The sale and delivery of a part to be used solely for maintenance or repair of an existing fixture;

(4) The sale and delivery of a fixture or part to a manuacturer or wholesaler on a special sale under Priorities Regulation 13; or

(5) The delivery of a fixture or part from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

Definitions

(h) Meaning of terms used in this order. (1) The term "incandescent lighting fixture" means any equipment designed or constructed for the purpose of illumination which employs or is used in connection with (a) an incandescent electric light source, or (b) a mercury vapor tube, lamp or bulb rated 250 or 400 watts. The term "incandescent lighting fixture" does not include:

(i) Lamps or bulbs covered by Order L-28;

(ii) Fluorescent lighting fixtures, as defined in Order L-78;

(iii) Any portable or attachable lamp or fixture designed to be plugged into an electric outlet, other than "portable" or "attachable" industrial incandescent lighting fixtures as defined in this order;

(iv) Aircraft lighting equipment, as defined in Order L-327;

(v) Aviation ground lighting equipment covered by Order L-235;

(vi) Blackout and dimout lighting fixtures, as defined in Order L-168;

(vii) Floodlights, searchlights, traffic signals, street or highway luminaries, or automotive lights;

(viii) Flashlights or any portable battery-operated lighting device covered by Order L-71;

(ix) Lighting fixtures specifically designed for use:

(a) On shipboard;

(b) In connection with aerial or marine navigation;

(c) As dental or surgical operating room fixtures; or

(d) In hospital psychiatric wards;

(x) Photographic lighting equipment and accessories covered by Order L-267.

(2) A "new" incandescent lighting fixture or part is one which has never been used by an ultimate consumer.

(3) An "industrial incandescent lighting fixture" is one which is designed and constructed to provide general or localized illumination for an area of manufacturing, processing, storage or transportation, including such areas as a machine shop, warehouse, power plant, yard, platform, dock, pier, or arsenal.

(4) A "portable industrial incandescent lighting fixture" is one which is designed for use in the operation of some piece of factory equipment (such as an industrial machine or tool) or in the assembly, inspection or servicing of a product, but which is not permanently attached to the equipment or the product. Such fixtures are designed to be plugged into an electric outlet and are usually equipped with either a handle, a hook, or a base fitted with free rolling casters.

(5) An "attachable industrial incandescent lighting fixture" is one which is designed to be used with some piece of factory equipment (such as an industrial machine, tool, or assembly bench) and is so constructed that it may be permanently affixed by screws to the equipment or to an adjoining wall. Such fixtures are designed to be plugged into an electric outlet. Lighting fixtures for business machines are excluded.

(6) A "residential incandescent lighting fixture" is one which is designed and constructed to provide illumination in a human habitation.

(7) A "utility incandescent lighting fixture" is any incandescent lighting fixture other than an industrial or residential type. The term includes theater and stage lighting fixtures and equipment, recessed lighting fixtures, illuminated exit signs of the type commonly installed in public buildings under the fire laws and bearing no advertising matter, and office, hospital and store lighting fixtures.

(8) "Put into process" means the act by which a person first changes the form of material from that form in which it was received by him.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order may be filed either on Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–500) or by letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and fully stating the grounds for the appeal. Such appeals shall be filed with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(j) Authorizations. Requests for specific authorization under paragraph (d) may be made by letter in duplicate stating fully the grounds for requesting the authorization. The letter should state the name and address of the project where the lighting fixtures will be used, the contract number assigned to the project, the preference rating, the name and address of the customer, and a full description of the fixtures.[2] The letter should be addressed to the War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Administrator, L–212.

(k) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

PART 3292—AUTOMOTIVE VEHICLES, PARTS AND EQUIPMENT[3]

[Conservation Order M–216–b, as Amended Mar. 13, 1944][4]

CONSERVATION OF NEW AUTOMOTIVE VEHICLES SUBJECT TO RATIONING BY FEDERAL AGENCIES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States having created a shortage in the supply of new passenger automobiles and commercial motor vehicles for defense, for private account and for export, the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3292.106[3] Conservation Order M–216–b—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Reserve vehicle" means any of the following described vehicles which have not been sold and delivered to a consumer under the rationing procedures of the War Production Board or the Office of Price Administration, and which are in the possession of or under the control of producers, distributors, dealers, sales agencies, finance agencies or other persons, throughout the continental United States, the territories, and insular possessions of the United States:

(i) Reserve new passenger automobiles. Any 1942 model passenger automobile, built upon a standard or lengthened passenger car chassis, having a seating capacity of not more than ten (10) persons, including taxis, but not including ambulances, hearses and station wagons.

(ii) Reserve new commercial motor vehicle. Any new commercial motor vehicle, including any light, medium or heavy motor truck, truck tractor or trailer, or the chassis therefor, (or any chassis on which a bus body is to be mounted), and which was manufactured subsequently to July 31, 1941; was designed to be propelled or drawn by mechanical power for use on or off the highways for transportation of property, or persons; was manufactured otherwise than under specifications of the United States Army or Navy; including vehicles of the following types: trucks, truck chassis, truck tractors, off-the-highway motor vehicles, full trailers, semi-trailers, dollies, attachment third axles, ambulances, hearses, bus chassis, station wagons, carry-all suburbans, sedan deliveries, utility sedans, coupes fitted with pickup boxes, and cab pickups, but not including taxicabs and integral type buses.

(2) "Standard equipment" means equipment stated to be standard equipment by the manufacturer as of October 15, 1941.

(3) "Producer" means any person who manufactures or has in the past manufactured any reserve vehicles, including body builders, and who now or hereafter has any such reserve vehicles in his possession or under his control.

(4) "Distributor" means any person other than the manufacturer regularly engaged in the business of selling reserve vehicles to dealers.

(5) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of offering reserve vehicles for sale at retail to the public.

(6) "Sales agency" means any distributor or dealer and includes any agency or branch of a producer which sells reserve vehicles.

(7) "Finance agency" means any person regularly engaged in the business of financing or making loans on the security of reserve vehicles, to producers, distributors, dealers or sales agencies, and who now or hereafter has any lien or claim against any such reserve vehicle as security for a loan or other financing arrangement.

(8) "Consumer" means a person who accepts delivery of a reserve vehicle to be put into operation.

(9) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(c) Restrictions on rebuilding reserve new passenger automobiles and removing of equipment. (1) No person shall convert any reserve new passenger automobile to any other model or type of conveyance except pursuant to the terms of section 2.10 of Ration Order No. 2B or any subsequent similar order of the Office of Price Administration.

(2) No person shall remove from any reserve new passenger automobile any standard equipment, or shall remove any other part or accessory the removal of which will impair the operating efficiency of such vehicle, except pursuant to the terms of section 2.10 of Ration Order No. 2B or any subsequent similar order of the Office of Price Administration.

(d) Removal of equipment from reserve new commercial motor vehicles prohibited except upon authorization from the War Production Board. (1) Except upon specific authorization from the War Production Board: (i) No person shall remove from any reserve new commercial motor vehicle any standard equipment, or remove or exchange any other part or accessory, the removal or exchange of which will impair the operating efficiency, (pulling ability, carrying ability, or safety) of the vehicle. (ii) After April 15, 1944, no person shall remove equipment from, add equipment to, lengthen or shorten the chassis of a reserve new commercial motor vehicle, of a gross vehicle weight rating of 9,000 pounds or over, but of less than 16,000 pounds (medium truck or truck tractor) for the purpose of converting it into a bus; or make any such changes in a bus chassis to convert it into a truck.

(2) Authorization to remove or exchange equipment. Requests for authorization under this Paragraph (d) may be made by submitting a letter in triplicate to the Automotive Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., stating the make, model, gross vehicle weight, serial number and engine number of each vehicle for which the authorization is requested and describing in detail the alterations for which the request is made and the reasons for them. Such authorizations will only be issued when the type of vehicle required as shown on an outstanding Certificate of Transfer (Form WPB 717) or Government Exemption Permit (Form WPB 718) cannot be obtained from inventory, or production, for a specific delivery date.

(e) Exceptions as to removal of batteries and tires. The provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) above shall not be taken to prohibit the removal from any reserve vehicle of:

(1) An electric storage battery: Provided, however, That when the vehicle from which the battery has been removed is delivered to a consumer, the same battery or a new battery of at least equal quality and capacity and in first class condition shall be installed by the person making delivery of the vehicle

(i) Any battery so removed need not be considered as part of the battery inventory of the sales agency as the same is defined in Limitation Order L–180, as amended.

(2) Rubber tires, casings or tubes: Provided, however, That the removal is made for storage or in exchange for rubber tires, casings or tubes upon authorization pursuant to Ration Order 1A or any subsequent similar order of the Office of Price Administration. When the vehicle from which tires, casings and tubes have been removed is delivered to a consumer tires, casings and tubes shall be replaced on the vehicle by the person making delivery unless such person has been authorized pursuant to Ration Order 1A or any subsequent similar order of the Office of Price Administration to mount other tires, casings and tubes on such vehicle.

(f) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

(h) Appeals. An appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate with the Field Office of the War Production Board nearest the appellant's place of business, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds for appeal.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Automotive Division, Washington 25, D. C. Reference: Order M–216–b.

Issued this 13th day of March 1944.

[4] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 to M–216–b as Amended March 6, 1943, as it appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 14, 1944, page 2786, and which reflects the order in its completed form as of March 13, 1944.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M–300, Schedule 7]

BENZALDEHYDE

§ 3293.1007 Schedule 7 to General Allocation Order M–300—(a) Definition. "Benzaldehyde" means benzaldehyde in crude or refined form.

(b) General provisions. Benzaldehyde is subject to the provisions of General Allocation Order M–300 as an Appendix A material. The initial allocation date is April 1, 1944. The allocation period is the calendar month, and the small order exemption is 50 lbs. per month.

(c) Suppliers' applications on Form WPB–2946. Each supplier seeking authorization to deliver shall file application on Form WPB–2946 (formerly PD–601). The filing date is the 20th of the month before the proposed delivery month. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M–300–7. The unit of measure is pounds. Specify grade as "Technical", "NF", "FFC". An aggregate quantity may be requested, without specifying individual customers' names, for delivery on small orders of 50 lbs. or less per customer per month. Fill in Table II.

(d) Customers' applications for authorization on Form WPB–2945. Each person seeking authorization to use or to accept delivery shall file application on Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600). Filing date is the 15th of the month preceding the requested allocation month. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–7, one copy (reverse side blank) to the supplier and retain one copy. File separate sets of forms for each different supplier. The unit of measure is the pound. In column 3 specify each primary product, or specify "Resale", "Export" or "Inventory", if the benzaldehyde is to be resold, exported or held in inventory as such. Fill in the other columns of Table I and fill in Tables II, III and IV as indicated.

In Table V specify "Frozen Inventory on first of ------" (name first day of requested allocation month), in the heading of Column 23, and in the column enter the estimated quantity of benzaldehyde which at the beginning of the requested allocation month will be in inventory subject to further authorization before it can be used. Leave Columns 24 and 25 blank.

(e) Approval of reporting requirements. Forms WPB–2945 and 2946 and the instructions in this schedule and in Appendix A of Order M–300 for applications for benzaldehyde have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. All reports and communications concerning this schedule shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–7.

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

Subchapter C—Director, Office of War Utilities

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 4501—COMMUNICATIONS

[Utilities Order U–3 as Amended Mar. 15, 1944]

PREFERENCE RATING ORDER (MRO) FOR TELEPHONE INDUSTRY

§ 4501.6 Utilities Order U–3—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Operator" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, receiver, or any form of enterprise whatsoever, whether incorporated or not, the United States, the District of Columbia, any state or territory of the United States, any political, corporate, administrative, or other division or agency thereof, to the extent engaged in rendering telephone communication service to the public (and such telegraph and teletypewriter service as may also be conducted by him) within, to, or from the United States, its territories, or possessions. Public law enforcement agencies and public fire protection agencies are excluded from this definition for the purposes of this order.

"Operator" also includes any persons operating a rural cooperative or mutually-owned telephone system. It further includes persons owning either a telephone or a telephone system which is connected to a telephone system rendering service to the public, so long as they do not generally use an MRO order other than Order U–3. Those who generally use another MRO order for their business operations, as for example railroads using Order P–142 or a manufacturer using CMP Reg. 5 are excluded from this definition.

"Operator" also includes any persons to the extent engaged in the operation of a private telephone communications system, provided that a specific direction from the War Production Board entitles such persons to use the preference rating and allotment number authorized by this order. Application for such a specific direction should be made by letter to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: U–3.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) Without regard to accounting practices:

(i) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a facility in sound working condition.

(ii) "Repair" means the restoration of a facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like.

(iii) Neither maintenance nor repair shall include the improvement of any plant, facility or equipment, by replacing material which is still usable, with material of a better kind, quality or design.

(4) "Operating supplies" means any material essential to the operator's business and used for purposes other than maintenance and repair. "Operating supplies" purchased with the rating or allotment number authorized by this order can not be used in any single case in an amount exceeding the dollar limits of paragraph (c).

(5) Without regard to accounting practices, "operator's inventory" means the aggregate of material currently owned by an operator and not incorporated into plant or in the process of being consumed, exclusive of:

(i) Material listed for sale on Form WPB–2567 (UF–6), and filed with the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities. Records of withdrawals from and additions to material listed for sale shall be maintained and preserved for a period of not less than two years under the authority of paragraph (i) and shall be reported to the Communications Division upon the request of the War Production Board.

(ii) Material for use on a project approved by the War Production Board.

(iii) [Revoked Oct. 30, 1943]

(iv) Material set aside to restore plant damaged by enemy action or sabotage provided the operator has received War Production Board approval on Form WPB–2774 or other appropriate form. Withdrawals must be reported to the War Production Board.

(v) Lead covered cable or bare line wire maintained by an operator for the repair of major breakdowns due to storms, floods, etc., reported as prescribed on Form WPB–1127 (UF–5), unless disapproved by the War Production Board.

(vi) Poles, crossarms, insulators and non-metallic conduit, furniture and fixtures; office machinery; printing, stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; and coal and petroleum products.

(b) Rating and CMP allotment number. (1) An operator is authorized to use the allotment number U–9 and preference rating of AA–1 for deliveries of material for maintenance, repair and operating supplies.

(2) An operator may apply and a supplier may extend the rating or allotment number in the manner provided in Priorities Regulation 3 and CMP Regulation 3, by placing on his delivery order substantially the certification set forth below in paragraph (b) (3).

(3) Utilities maintenance, repair and operating supplies certification.

Allotment number U–9, preference rating AA–1. The undersigned operator certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders, and under all provisions of Utilities Orders U–2, U–3, and U–6, to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered and to use any preference rating or allotment number which the undersigned has placed on this order.

(c) Restrictions on use of material. (1) Material obtained under this order may be used by an operator only within the limitations of Orders U–2 and U–6.

(2) Material obtained under this order may be used for operating supplies only in the following cases:

(i) An amount costing not more than fifty dollars may be used on any project specifically approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–2774 or any alternative form.

(ii) [Revoked Jan. 20, 1944]

(iii) It may be used for telegraph and teletypewriter facilities in any single case in which the total material cost does not exceed $2,500.

(iv) An amount costing not more than $2,500 may be used for other purposes in any single case in which the total cost of all material used does not exceed $5,000.

(v) It may be used on any construction project approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–2774 or any alternative form. However, material so used may only be replaced in inventory by use of the preference rating or allotment number authorized on the WPB–2774 or alternative form.

(3) An operator, who does not furnish telephone service to the public, whose "operator's inventory" at the end of 1942 or whose use of material during 1942 did not exceed $10,000 may not, in any single case, use material obtained under this order costing more than $500 for operating supplies.

(4) No operator shall subdivide a single order job, or project to qualify it under the dollar limitations of this paragraph.

(5) Material obtained under this order may be used for maintenance and repair without regard to dollar limitations on the use of material for operating supplies.

(6) The dollar limits of this paragraph (c) shall not prevent the use of material on hand to meet temporary traffic or emergency requirements, but where the dollar limits are exceeded the material must be returned to inventory or to its original location in plant within thirty days, unless application has been made to the War Production Board for authority to continue the use of material.

(7) No material may be used for building construction except as permitted by Order L–41. However, an operator may effect maintenance and repair of buildings which are essential to the conduct of the operator's business.

(8) A. P. B. X. switchboard obtained under this order may be installed initially only for Schedule A service as set forth in Order U–2, or for essential public pay station service.

(d) Authority to begin construction. For any addition or expansion of telephone, telegraph or teletypewriter facilities involving a total material cost which exceeds the dollar limitations of paragraph (c) (2) or (c) (3) above, or which involves a total cost in material in excess of $5,000, an operator must obtain authority to begin construction and necessary priority assistance on Form WPB–2774.

(e) Restrictions on inventory. (1) No operator shall accept deliveries of material unless after the delivery his operator's inventory will not exceed a practical working minimum. A practical working minimum shall in no case be greater than 27½% of the dollar value of material used during the calendar year 1940 for all purposes exclusive of the items in paragraph (a) (5) (vi) and materials which were used for building construction. The items in (a) (5) (vi) may be accepted by an operator even if his operator's inventory exceeds 27½% of his 1940 usage of material.

(2) No operator shall accept delivery of a size, type, gauge and length of cable, wire or strand, if the operator's inventory of that size, type, gauge and length is in excess of requirements for the next sixty days. However, if an operator needs some wire, cable or strand, this provision does not forbid purchase of the minimum standard reel-length, even though the operator does not expect to use the whole reel in the next sixty days.

(3) No operator shall replace in inventory by use of the preference rating or allotment number of Order U–3 any material withdrawn pursuant to paragraph (g) (4) of Order U–2.

(f) Restrictions on purchases. (1) No operator shall use the allotment number or preference rating assigned by this order to obtain material during any calendar quarter in an aggregate dollar amount exceeding one-fourth of his aggregate dollar usage in 1942 for maintenance, repair and operating supplies.

(2) But, so long as the 1942 base as set forth in paragraph (f) (1) is not exceeded during a calendar year, an operator may in any quarter obtain the dollar quantity used in the corresponding quarter of 1942.

(g) Exemptions. (1) Any operator whose operator's inventory did not exceed $10,000 at the end of 1942 is exempt from the inventory restriction of paragraph (e) (1).

(2) Any operator whose use of material during the year 1942 did not exceed $10,000 shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (f) (1) above.

(h) Sales of material. Material which is listed for sale under (a) (5) (i) or is reserved for emergencies under (a) (5) (iv) and (a) (5) (v), must when sold between operators be sold without a preference rating or allotment number. However, the material in (a) (5) (iv) and (a) (5) (v) so sold must be used for the purposes for which it was originally reserved.

(i) Records and reports. Each operator acquiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies pursuant to this regulation shall keep and preserve, for a period of not less than two years, accurate and complete records of all such supplies so acquired which shall, upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. In addition, each operator affected by this order shall file such reports with the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities, as may from time to time be required by the War Production Board.

(j) Applicability of regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected by it, except as expressly provided, are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) None of the provisions of CMP Regulations No. 5 or 5A shall apply to operators as defined in paragraph (a) (1) of this order, and no such operator shall obtain any material under the provisions of these regulations.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Communications. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: Communications Division, Office of War Utilities, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Ref.: U–3.

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 395 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 32 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 32. Maximum prices for cattle sold in the Virgin Islands of the United States—(a) Definitions. When used in this section 32 the term:

(1) "Cattle" means all members of the domesticated bovine species.

(2) "Young cattle" means those cattle commonly accepted by the trade as young.

(3) "Old cattle" means those cattle commonly accepted by the trade as old.

(b) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for cattle sold in the Virgin Islands of the United States for slaughter shall be the applicable price given in Table XVIII below.

TABLE XVIII—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CATTLE SOLD FOR SLAUGHTER

Description	Unit	Deliveries in the municipality of St. Croix	Deliveries in the municipality of St. Thomas and St. John
Young cattle	One pound	$0.085	$0.10
Old cattle	One pound	.08	.095

NOTE: Weights shall be established in accordance with the custom of the trade.

(c) Evasion. The maximum prices established in paragraph (b) of this section shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any change in the customary methods of weighing, or of delivery of cattle, or by any offer, solicitation, agreement, bid, or by way of any dividend, commission, service, transportation, or other charges or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement, or other trade understanding, or by changing the customary methods or standards of grading or selection of such cattle, or in any other way. Any cooperative association engaged in the purchase of cattle from persons not members of the association may not grant "dividends", gratuities or other compensation to such non-members in order to achieve a higher than maximum price if the total payments thereby exceed the applicable prices established in Table XVIII; nor may non-members accept payment in such amount.

2. Section 33 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 33. Maximum prices for locally produced beef and veal not inspected by the Federal (U. S.) Government. (a) Maximum prices for locally produced beef and veal not inspected by the Federal (U. S.) Government during the production process and sold in the Virgin Islands of the United States shall be the applicable prices set forth below:

PART 1312—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

[MPR 348,[1] Amdt. 40]

LOGS AND BOLTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 348 is amended by the addition of Appendix D, Table 3, as follows:

TABLE 3—MINNESOTA

Area. Minnesota: Counties of Aitkin, Becker, Beltrami, Benton, Carlton, Cass, Chisago, Clearwater, Cook, Crow Wing, Hubbard, Isanti, Itasca, Kanabec, Kittson, Koochiching, Lake, Lake of the Woods, Marshall, Morrison, Mille Lacs, Mahnomen, Otter Tail, Pine, Polk, Pennington, Red Lake, Roseau, St. Louis, Todd, Wadena.

Species. White Pine (Pinus strobus), Norway Pine (Pinus resinosa), Jack Pine (Pinus Banksiana), Balsam Fir (Abies balsamea), Northern White Cedar (Thuja occidentalis), White Spruce (Picea glauca), Black Spruce (Picea mariana), Tamarack (Larix laricina), Hard Maple (Acer saccharum), Soft Maple (Acer rubrum and Acer saccharinum), Yellow Birch (Betula lutea), White Birch (Betula populifolia), Red Oak (Quercus borealis), White Oak (Quercus alba) and the commercial species of the genera Basswood (Tilia), Elm (Ulmus), Ash (Fraxinus), and (Populus) including Balm of Gilead, Cottonwood, Aspen and Popple.

Grading and scaling rules. A. Box bolts shall be measured by the double cord, a compact rick or stack of wood eight and one-third feet by eight feet by four feet being considered a double cord. Box bolts must be straight and cut from sound, live timber; to be 100" long with a minimum diameter of 6" at the small end inside bark and limbs to be closely trimmed. 6" bolts must be perfectly straight and sound. Bolts 7" and up will admit sweep and crook not to exceed ½ diameter at small end. Rot and excessive sweep or crook shall be deducted on a cordage basis. Box bolts may be purchased as all diameters above 6" in which case the producer must include all of the larger diameter bolts which are cut from the stand, or on the basis of diameter classes, namely box bolts from 6" through 8" in diameter, and box bolts 9" and over in diameter.

B. Sawlogs shall be scaled with the Scribner Decimal C log rule.

The diameter shall be measured at the small end of the log, inside the bark, at the average diameter.

Fractions of an inch ½ and below shall be counted as of the next lower figure; fractions of an inch greater than ½ may be raised to the next higher figure.

Logs shall be cut into standard even lengths with the minimum length of 8 feet. All logs must be cut at least 3" over length to allow for trim. Those logs not cut at least 3" over length shall be reduced in scale to the next lower standard length.

All unsound and unusable wood must be deducted from the scale when measuring the log. The defects for which full deduction shall be made include hollows or large holes, rot, dote, windshake, large or excessive worm holes, damage in felling by drawn splinters, and crooks. The extent of rot or other defects is to be determined by the scaler, but the manner or method of deduction shall be no less rigid or exacting than those prescribed in the National Forest Scaling Handbook, Revised May, 1940.[2]

[2] For sale by the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., 60¢.

Sawlogs shall be sold on a Woods Run Grade. This grade shall consist of logs 8" and up in diameter as produced from the forest that are better than culls. Logs may be purchased on a log scale basis below 8" but a proper adjustment in price shall be made as required by the following tables.

C. Veneer short logs are to be cut in 50" and 100" lengths for Aspen and Basswood, and 45" and 90" lengths for White Birch. The minimum diameter is 8". A single cord means an amount of timber, which when properly stacked, contains 120 cubic feet for 45" and 90" bolts and 133 cubic feet for 50" and 100" bolts; logs must be sound, green timber, free from decay, seams or numerous knots. Bolts must be at least 75% surface clear in one continuous lineal section.

D. Short bolts shall be measured by the single cord of 128 cubic feet. They shall be cut to a minimum diameter of 12 inches. All bolts are to be sound, straight grained free of knots, catfaces, and large worm holes, except that two small knots 1" or less in diameter will be permitted if in strict alignment; and are to be cut to lengths specified by the buyer.

Maximum prices—A. Box bolts; per double cord (266 cubic ft.).

White Birch	----------	$18.00

D. Short bolts; per cord of 128 cubic feet.

Species:
White and Red Oak ---------- $11.00

General provisions. All prices are f. o. b. railroad cars at a rail siding, or delivered to the mill by truck.

If delivery is taken at any place other than f. o. b. cars at rail siding or at the mill, the buyer must deduct from the ceiling price either:

(a) The cost of bringing the logs or bolts to the rail siding and loading on cars if delivery to the mill is by rail car; or

(b) The cost of trucking logs or bolts to the mill if delivery to mill is by truck.

Dealer's and trader's commission—Definitions. "Dealer" means any person who sells to consumers cordwood (pulpwood, veneer short logs, excelsior bolts, box bolts and insulation short logs) not cut or prepared by such person, but purchased by such persons in the condition in which it is to be delivered to the consumer and who sold and delivered not less than 8,000 cords of cordwood to consumers in the 1942-1943 operating season, or who shall sell and deliver not less than 8,000 cords of cordwood to consumers in any subsequent operating season. "Operating season" means the period between the first day of May in one year and the last of April in the next succeeding year. "Trader" means any person who has not or cannot qualify as a dealer, but who purchases and sells wood not cut or prepared by such person, and who purchases wood in the same condition in which the wood is to be delivered to a consumer, and includes a dealer when the dealer sells to a person other than a consumer.

Commission. (a) If a consumer of cordwood buys box bolts or veneer short logs through a dealer as defined above, such consumer may pay such dealer, in addition to the maximum price set forth above, a commission not to exceed $1.00 per cord of 133 cubic feet. If any person buys box bolts or veneer short logs through a trader, as defined above, such person may pay such trader, in addition to the maximum price provided, a commission not to exceed 50 cents per cord of 133 cubic feet: Provided, That in no case shall the aggregate amount of commissions, on any cord of box bolts or veneer short logs exceed $1.00 per cord of 133 cubic feet.

(b) In no event shall a person receive a dealer's or trader's commission, or the proceeds of any such commission on box bolts or veneer short logs cut by him or by his own operations. In no event shall a person receive a dealer's or trader's commission on the cut of another person pursuant to any contract, agreement, or understanding of any sort whatsoever between the two, whereby each is to sell, and charge a commission on the wood cut by the other. In no event shall the dealer's or trader's commission be split or divided with any other person, except that a dealer may pay a trader a trader's commission out of the dealer's commission. In addition to the price paid by the consumer a dealer may receive a dealer's commission only from a consumer and only if the dealer fulfills all of the following requirements (i) through (vii) inclusive pertinent to him with respect to the transaction.

In addition to the price paid by his vendee, a trader may receive a trader's commission only if the trader fulfills all of the following requirements pertinent to him (which means all the requirements pertinent to traders, and accordingly does not include (ii) with respect to the transactions):

(i) Copies are kept of all contracts or settlement sheets in which a dealer's or trader's commission is charged;

(ii) The sale is made by the dealer to the consumer;

(iii) The box bolts or veneer short logs sold by the dealer to the consumer or sold by the trader to his vendee have been completely prepared for delivery by a person other than the dealer or trader;

(iv) The dealer or trader guarantees the merchantable quality of the box bolts or veneer short logs and that they are free from all liens and incumbrances;

(v) The dealer's or trader's commission in such transactions is shown as a separate item on the settlement sheet. This settlement sheet must contain a statement that the dealer or trader has had no part in the preparation of the box bolts or veneer short logs, and that the charges are not in excess of Maximum Price Regulation No. 348.

(vii) All pertinent provisions in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 348 are strictly complied with.

(c) Any person not meeting the requirements set forth in the definition of a dealer given above, but who intends to do so, may make application for such status to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., which Branch may grant the application either absolutely or conditionally, or deny it, by letter or telegram.

This amendment shall become effective March 21, 1944.

HIDE GLUE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Price Schedule No. 76 is amended in the following respects:

1. Subparagraph (3) of paragraph (g) of § 1335.709 is amended to read as follows:

(3) Sales of hide glue adhesives. Where a producer or jobber has increased his price on a sale of hide glue to a manufacturer of hide glue adhesives under paragraph (g) (1) or (g) (2) above of this section, the buyer may increase his maximum price on sales by him of adhesives made from said hide glue by an amount equal to the actual increase under paragraph (g) (1) or (g) (2) in his buying price of such hide glue.

2. The following new subparagraph (4) is added to paragraph (g) of § 1335.709.

(4) Notification. Every seller who increases his maximum price on a hide glue or hide glue adhesive under the provisions of this paragraph (g) shall, with or prior to the first delivery at the increased price, furnish his purchaser with a written notice, or state on the invoice or bill to the purchaser, that the glue is produced from imported raw material, or contains glue so produced, and that the seller has fully complied with the regulation.

This amendment shall become effective March 21, 1944.

WIRE, CABLE AND CABLE ACCESSORIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1349.20 Appendix D, paragraph (c) of Revised Price Schedule 82 is amended by adding the following:

In any case and on and after March 31, 1944, the maximum prices for wire, cable and cable accessories priced under this paragraph shall be not more than 120% of the manufacturer's net prices to wholesalers in the same quantities. In the case of any line of wire, cable and cable accessories where the manufacturer's prices vary with the quantities when sold to users but do not vary with quantities when sold to wholesalers, the maximum price shall be either (a) the price determined according to the preceding sentence, or (b) the manufacturer's price to users in the same quantities, whichever is higher.

This amendment shall become effective March 21, 1944.

[MPR 389,[1] Incl. Amdt.[2] 1-12]

CEILING PRICES FOR CERTAIN SAUSAGE ITEMS AT WHOLESALE

Section 12 (c) (1) (iii) is amended by Amendment 12, effective March 20, 1944, so that Maximum Price Regulation No. 389 shall read as follows:

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 389 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[3]

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this maximum price regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable, and comply with the requirements of section 3 and the other requirements of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders No. 9250 and 9328, and will effectuate the purposes of said Act and Executive orders.

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

§ 1364.14 Maximum prices for certain sausage items. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders No. 9250 and 9328, Maximum Price Regulation No. 389 (Ceiling Prices for Certain Sausage Items at Wholesale) which is annexed hereto, and made a part hereof is hereby issued.

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF REGULATION

SECTION 1. What this regulation does—(a) In general. This regulation fixes dollar-and-cents ceiling prices on certain sausage and sausage products. On and after June 1, 1943, the date this regulation takes effect, no person may sell or deliver, except at retail, and except to a canner for the manufacture of canned sausage for a war procurement agency, and no person in the course of trade or business except such a canner may buy or receive sausage or sausage products at prices higher than the prices permitted by this regulation. But lower prices may be charged or paid.

(b) Sausage products not covered by this regulation. The provisions of this regulation do not apply to the following sausage products:

(1) The customary types of dry and semi-dry sausage other than those included in the kinds of sausage defined in section 13 of this regulation; cooked or smoked thuringer; cooked or smoked cervelet; cooked salami; scrapple; sulze or souse; pork roll made from skeletal pork only, which has a yield not in excess of 95 percent and a fat content not in excess of 20 percent; ham roll made from boneless ham only, which has a yield not in excess of 95 percent and a fat content not in excess of 20 percent; lunch roll made from skeletal pork only, which has a yield not in excess of 100 percent and a fat content not in excess of 20 percent; pork pudding containing less than 30 percent livers; head cheese; blood sausage; blood and tongue sausage; tongue roll; tongue loaf; tongue salad; fresh thuringer containing pork, beef or veal; fresh bockwurst containing pork, beef or veal; fresh Italian sausage made of skeletal pork, with no more than 30 percent fat; smoked brattwurst; chili-con-carne; roast beef loaf; corned beef loaf; jellied corned beef; goose liver style sausage containing tongues, sweetbreads and pistachio nuts; and imitation or mock chicken loaf.

(2) Canned sausage; sausage and sausage products subject to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148[5] or Maximum Price Regulation No. 156[6] or Maximum Price Regulation No. 286[7] when sold to a war procurement agency.

[Section 1 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 6958, effective 5-24-43; Am. 2, 8 F.R. 6945, effective 5-22-43; Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43; and Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16507, effective 12-14-43]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 42 (8 F.R. 4968) provides that no price regulation of the Office of Price Administration shall apply to sales or deliveries of any commodity or service made to Government agencies pursuant to secret contracts or subcontracts.]

SEC. 2. How maximum prices are fixed—(a) General instructions. (1) The ceiling price for any sale is found by looking at paragraph (a) of section 12, which lists the base price per hundredweight in dollars for each type of sausage. To this price should be added, first, the amount specified in paragraph (b) of that section for the zone in which the point of delivery is located and, then, whatever other additions are made permissible by paragraph (c) of that section. The base price, plus the zone differential, plus the permitted additions is the ceiling price. An exception to the above rule for determining the ceiling price applying only to intermediate distributors of kosher sausage, all beef sausage and Type 1 special pork sausage is stated in the following paragraph.

(2) The ceiling price for a sale of kosher sausage, all beef sausage or Type 1 special pork sausage by an intermediate distributor shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph with the following exception: If the addition for transportation charges provided for in section 12 (c) (4) is added to the base price, the zone differential specified in section 12 (b) for the zone in which the sausage was manufactured shall be added to the base price in place of the zone differential specified in section 12 (b) for the zone in which the point of delivery is located.

(b) Determining the zone in which the point of delivery is located—(1) Point of delivery. The point of delivery is the point at which the product is delivered to the buyer. If local delivery is made, the seller may at his option, treat the point at which local delivery begins as the point of delivery.

(i) Local delivery means delivery by any vehicle, other than a rail carrier, made by the seller from the seller's place of business to the buyer's store door.

(ii) If the seller does not treat the point at which local delivery begins as the point of delivery, the point at which the product is delivered to the buyer is the point where actual physical possession is taken by the buyer or where the product, consigned to the buyer:

(a) Is received by a rail carrier for shipment at the railroad carload rate; or

(b) Is received by a common or contract carrier, other than a railroad or an express company; or

(c) Is received by an express company for shipment by express to a purveyor of meals; or

(d) In the case of kosher sausage, all beef sausage, and special pork sausage type 1, only, is received by a common or contract carrier.

Provided, That the charges of such carrier in all four instances are paid directly to such carrier by the buyer.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43. Subparagraph (1) (i) amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2239, effective 2-25-44]

SEC. 3. Relation to other laws and regulations—(a) Relation to other regulations. (1) The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation,[8] and Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169[9] with respect to sales other than at retail of all kosher sausage and of all other sausage except that which is expressly excluded from this regulation by section 1.

(2) The maximum price at which a person may export sausage shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[9] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 8185; and Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43. Am. 3 became effective (1) as to sales or deliveries by other than sausage manufacturers, who do not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and who are not controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities, wholesalers, hotel supply houses and peddler truck sellers, on June 21, 1943; and (2) as to sales or deliveries by all other sausage manufacturers and by wholesalers, hotel supply houses and peddler truck sellers on June 26, 1943. (As amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 8677)]

(b) Relation to other laws and to rules and regulations of other governmental agencies. The provisions of this regulation do not relieve any person from compliance with all rules, regulations and laws of any state, county or municipality or other federal agency.

SEC. 4. Types of sausage and descriptive labelling requirements—(a) What sausage may be sold. After this regulation takes effect, no sausage, other than those kinds of sausage the sale of which is excluded from this regulation by section 1, may be manufactured for sale, offered for sale, or sold, or bought in the course of trade or business, unless such sausage meets the requirements for one of the kinds and types of sausage for which prices are established by this regulation.

(b) Descriptive labelling requirements—(1) All sausage must be labelled. No sausage or sausage product subject to this regulation may be manufactured for sale, held for sale, offered for sale, or sold, or bought in the course of trade or business, unless it bears a descriptive label in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Where the label must be placed. A label satisfying the requirements of this section shall appear on each one and one-half pounds of frankfurters and pork or breakfast sausage stuffed in sheep or hog casings, and once on each piece of other sausage or sausage product stuffed in casings or packed in wrappers, including but not limited to pork or breakfast sausage (other than that stuffed in sheep or hog casings), bologna, loaves, all beef sausage, kosher sausage, New England, Berliner or Berlin, liver sausage and Polish sausage. The label may be a band or tag securely affixed to the sausage or sausage product or printed or stamped upon the outside of the casing or wrapper. A similar label also shall be stamped or printed upon the outside of the carton or other immediate container in which the sausage is placed.

(3) What must appear on the label. Each label shall contain prominently and in easily legible form: (i) The name of the kind of sausage or sausage product as used in this regulation and, in addition if the seller desires, a trade name, provided it does not include the name of some other kind of sausage or sausage product priced under this regulation.

(ii) The word "ingredients" followed by a list of the ingredients when the product is fabricated from two or more ingredients, not counting curing materials, condiments, spices, and water. If there is only one ingredient, not counting curing materials, condiments, spices, and water, and if the name of the kind of sausage includes the name of the ingredient, the ingredient need not be separately stated. The list of ingredients shall state the common or usual names of the ingredients in the order of their predominance by weight, except that curing materials, spices, condiments, and water need not be shown, unless required by some other federal, state, or local regulation. The name of the ingredient shall be a specific name, not a general name, such as, but not limited to, "pork", "beef", "pork head meat", "beef cheek meat", "hearts", "livers", "tripe", "cereal", "dried skimmed milk", etc. The word "pork", "beef", "veal", "mutton", "goat" shall be used in connection with all skeletal meat ingredients. If more than 3½% of extender is used the label shall so state.

(iii) Whatever of the following letters or words are appropriate to show the kind of casing used: H. C. for hog casing; S. C. for sheep casing; B. C. for beef casing; A. C. for artificial casing; except that no such designation is required for an artificial casing on which is printed the casing manufacturer's name or trademark; skinless, where artificial casings have been removed by the manufacturer. Where the same price applies to the sausage or sausage product in each kind of natural casing, the letters N. C., indicating natural casing, may be used. The label need not contain a designation of the kind of casing used where the same price applies to the sausage or sausage product no matter what kind of casing, carton or wrapper is used.

(4) Temporary non-use of labels on certain sausage items. (i) A seller may apply to a nearby District Office of the Office of Price Administration for authorization to sell specific sausage items other than the sausage items defined in section 13 (f), (g) or (h) of this regulation, without having to label such sausage items. The application shall be a sworn statement setting forth the efforts made by the seller to obtain labels and the reasons why such labels were not obtained prior to November 1, 1943. The seller shall attach to the sworn statement copies of all correspondence with label suppliers regarding his efforts to secure labels. The District Director may, in writing, authorize a seller whose application shows that he has made diligent and reasonable efforts to secure labels and was unable to secure the same prior to November 1, 1943, to sell specific sausage items without having to label the same until the receipt of labels for these items. In no event shall an authorization under this paragraph extend beyond December 31, 1943.

(ii) Prior to February 21, 1944, the seller shall not be required to use labels satisfying the requirements of this section on the sausage or sausage products defined in section 13 (f), (g) or (h) of this regulation.

(5) Description on invoice. The name and type of sausage and the kind of casing, cup, carton or wrapper in which the sausage is sold, must be shown on the seller's invoice, except that the kind of casing, cup, carton or wrapper need not be shown where the same price applies to the sausage no matter what kind of casing, cup, carton or wrapper is used. Also the kind and size of container must be shown on the invoice if the price of the sausage includes an addition for the container pursuant to section 12 (c) (2). Kosher sausage and all beef sausage shall be designated as such on the invoice in addition to other information required by this paragraph.

[Sec. 4 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 6958, effective 5-24-43; Am. 3, 8 F.R. 8185; Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43; Am. 9, 8 F.R. 15192, effective 11-8-43; and Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16597, effective 12-14-43, except that sec. 4 (b) (4) (i) shall become effective as of 11-1-43. For effective dates of Am. 3, see note following sec. 3 (a).]

SEC. 5. Where this regulation applies. The provisions of this regulation shall apply to the forty-eight states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

ARTICLE II—RECORD KEEPING AND ENFORCEMENT

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) After this regulation takes effect every person making a sale, other than at retail, and every person making a purchase in the course of trade or business of sausage subject to this regulation shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, a complete record of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price charged and the price received, a description of the product including the kind, the type, the kind of casing, or other wrapping employed, and the quantity sold. Kosher sausage shall be shown separately.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 6948, effective 5-22-43, and Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43]

(b) Such person shall, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to, or in place of the records, required in paragraph (a) of this section, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

SEC. 7. Indirect price increases. No person shall evade any of the provisions of this regulation by any scheme or device and no person shall indirectly charge or receive for sausage subject to this regulation a price higher than the maximum prices permitted by this regulation. No person shall as a condition of selling any such sausage require a purchaser to buy any other meat or any other product. However, a payment by a buyer to a seller for icing services performed by the seller after June 1, 1943, and before delivery of sausage to a railroad whose charges are paid directly to such railroad by the buyer, if the charge for such icing services is no higher than the costs actually incurred by the seller in performing such services and no higher than the charge which could lawfully have been made by the railroad if such services had been performed by the railroad, shall not be construed as an evasion.

[Sec. 7 amended by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 10907, effective 8-3-43; and Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894; 8 F.R. 1312, 3703) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

[NOTE: Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (8 F.R. 12404) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to procurement agencies of the United States.]

SEC. 8. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,* licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[Sec. 8 as amended by Supplementary Order 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43]

SEC. 9. Enforcement. (a) On and after June 1, 1943, any person violating any provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

[Sec. 9, as amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 6948, effective 5-22-43]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 8176) provides that war procurement agencies and governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 10. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 9087, 9665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, with the exception of those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

SEC. 11. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

[Sec. 11 as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 6958, effective 5-24-43]

ARTICLE IV—ZONES, PRICES AND DEFINITIONS

SEC. 12. Maximum prices—(a) Table of base prices. All prices are on a dollar per hundredweight basis and include packaging or boxing costs, except where such costs are specifically provided for in paragraph (c) (3). Type 1 pork sausage is in one pound cartons only.

"Finished weight" means the weight of the product when shipped or when ready for shipment.

"Goat" means that part of the striated muscle, with or without attached overlying fat, which is part of the dressed carcass, head off, of goats in good health at the time of slaughter. It does not include the fat which has been detached from the striated muscle.

"Head meat" means the lean meat, exclusive of cheek meat, trimmed from the heads of cattle, calves, sheep, and hogs.

"Kosher sausage" means sausage which is made from skeletal meat, and detached beef fat derived from animals slaughtered, approved and stamped as kosher under rabbinical supervision and which is marked as kosher and sold under rabbinical supervision to a person who maintains a selling establishment, at or through which he regularly and generally sells kosher meat as such, or to a person who is a purveyor of kosher meats.

"Major ingredient" means an ingredient which predominates in weight over any single minor ingredient.

"Meat, skeletal" means that part of the striated muscle, with or without attached overlying fat, which is part of the dressed carcass of cattle, swine, sheep, and calves, in good health at the time of slaughter, including head and cheek meat from cattle or swine.

"Meat by-products" means dressed edible parts other than skeletal meat derived from cattle, calves, sheep or swine in good health at the time of slaughter. It includes by-products from goats where expressly so provided.

"Mutton" means that part of the striated muscle, with or without attached overlying fat, which is part of the dressed carcass, head off, of lambs or sheep in good health at the time of slaughter. It does not include the fat which has been detached from the striated muscle.

"Pork" means that part of the striated muscle, with or without attached overlying fat, which is part of the dressed carcass, head off, of swine in good health at the time of slaughter. It includes skinned jowls but does not include clear plates, fat backs, or any other fat which has been detached from the striated muscle.

"Pork fat" means the detached fat from the carcass of pork, including clear plates and fat backs.

"Sausage" means chopped, ground, or comminuted skeletal meat, or meat by-products, or any combination thereof, seasoned with spices and/or condiments, and to which salt, sugar, sodium nitrate, sodium nitrite, and extender may or may not be added.

"Smoked" means a sausage which has been subjected to the smoke of burning wood, sawdust or similar substance in such manner as to impart a smoked flavor.

"Veal" means that part of the striated muscle, with or without attached overlying fat, which is part of the dressed carcass, head off, of veal or calves in good health at the time of slaughter. It does not include the fat which has been detached from the striated muscle.

"Yield" means the finished weight divided by the original weight of the meat, meat by-products and extender used and expressed as a percentage.

(c) Bologna and frankfurters. "Bologna" means a sausage stuffed in beef casings, including bungs, bladders, rounds, weasands, middles, and sewed middles, or any artificial casings of a similar size, which has been smoked and cooked. It does not include Lebanon bologna.

"Frankfurters" means a sausage stuffed in sheep casings, hog casings, or in artificial casings of a similar size, which has been smoked and cooked. It includes all products commonly known as wieners, red hots, and other similar names. If artificial casings are used they must be either removed before sale or have printed on them the words, "Before Heating or Eating Remove Artificial Casings," repeated so as to appear at least once on each link or piece.

"Type 1 frankfurters or bologna" means sausage which has as major ingredients, other than spices, condiments, and water, any two or more of the following: Beef, pork, veal, pork cheek meat, pork head meat, mutton; which may have pork fat as a minor ingredient; which has a fat content not in excess of 35%; which contains no more than 10% added moisture or water; and which contains no extender.

"Type 2 frankfurters or bologna" means sausage that is the same as type 1 except that it may contain extender not exceeding 3½% of the finished weight.

"Type 3 frankfurters or bologna" means sausage (i) which contains one or more of the following as major ingredients: Beef, pork, veal, pork cheek meat, pork head meat, beef cheek meat, beef head meat, mutton and goat meat, and not more than one other meat, or meat by-product, as a minor ingredient; or which contains two or more of the listed items as major ingredients and not more than three other meats or meat by-products as minor ingredients; or which contains three or more of the listed items as major ingredients and not more than five other meats or meat by-products as minor ingredients, (ii) which has a fat content not in excess of 35 percent, (iii) which may contain extender not exceeding 3½ percent, and (iv) which contains no more than 10 percent of added moisture or water. Meat by-products from goats may be used as minor ingredients, but in no case may the quantity of any minor ingredient used be greater than the quantity of any one of the required major ingredients.

"Type 4 frankfurters or bologna" means sausage containing any proportions of meat and meat by-products, including that derived from goats, and which may contain extender not exceeding 15% of the finished weight.

"All beef frankfurters, bologna, and knackwurst" means smoked sausage containing no meat other than beef and beef fat; and containing no meat by-products; which has a fat content not in excess of 25% which contains no more than 10% added moisture or water; which contains no extender; and which has been made under federal inspection;

"All beef salami" means smoked sausage stuffed in artificial casings containing no meat other than beef and beef fat; and containing no meat by-products; which has the texture, form and flavor customary for salami made in accordance with good commercial practice; which has a fat content not in excess of 15%; which has a final yield not in excess of 85%; which contains no extender; and which has been made under federal inspection.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 6958, effective 5-24-43; Am. 3, 8 F.R. 8185; Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43; Am. 8, 8 F.R. 13340, effective 10-5-43; and Am. 9, 8 F.R. 15192, effective 11-6-43]

(d) "Pork or breakfast sausage" means sausage sold in bulk, or stuffed in sheep, hog or artificial casings, or packed in a sealed, printed heavy cardboard waxed cup, sealed printed cardboard carton, or sealed printed wrapper made from cellophane, parchment or other moisture resistant paper, with such cup, carton or wrapper having the sausage manufacturer's brand name or trade-mark printed thereon. Such sausage includes all sausage of the kinds commonly known as pure pork sausage, breakfast sausage or country sausage. If artificial casings other than cloth bags are used on smoked pork or smoked breakfast sausage, they must either be removed before sale or have printed on them the words, "Before Heating or Eating, Remove Artificial Casing", repeated so as to appear at least once on each link or piece. Fresh pork or breakfast sausage shall be considered bulk sausage if it is enclosed in an unprinted cup, carton or wrapper, or if more than one pound of such sausage is enclosed in an artificial casing, printed cup, carton or wrapper.

"Type 1 special pork sausage" means sausage made from pork which contains at least 45% of boneless hams, shoulders and loins, stuffed into sheep or lamb casings, or sold as bulk sausage meat; which is packed in one-pound cartons, on which shall be a printed statement that the sausage contains at least 45% of boneless hams, shoulders and loins; which contains no extender; to which water or ice not exceeding 3% may be added to facilitate chopping; and which has been made under federal inspection.

"Type 2 fresh pork sausage" means sausage made from pork which has a fat content not in excess of 50 percent, which contains no extender and which has yield not in excess of 100 percent.

"Type 3 fresh breakfast sausage" means a sausage which is made from skeletal meat of swine as a major ingredient and no more than two other meats and meat by-products as minor ingredients, except that detached beef fat may not be used, which has a fat content not in excess of 30 percent, which has a yield not in excess of 100 percent and which may contain no more than 3½ percent of extender. The quantity of each minor ingredient shall be less than the quantity of the major ingredient.

"Type 4 fresh breakfast sausage" means sausage made from any proportions of fresh meat and meat by-products, including that derived from goats, and which may contain extender not in excess of 15% of the finished weight. Water or ice may be added.

"Type 2 smoked pork sausage" means sausage made from pork, cured before or during processing, stuffed in hog casings or artificial casings, with a fat content not in excess of 45%, and with a final yield not in excess of 88%. It shall not contain extender.

"Type 3 smoked sausage" means sausage made from the same meat and meat by-product ingredients as permitted in Type 3 fresh breakfast sausage, but cured before or during processing, stuffed in hog casings, beef rounds or artificial casings. It shall have a fat content not in excess of 45%, and a yield not in excess of 90%, and it may contain extender not exceeding 3½% of the finished weight.

"Type 4 smoked sausage" means sausage made from any proportions of meat and meat by-products, including that derived from goats, cured before or during processing, and stuffed in hog casings, beef rounds or artificial casings. It may contain extender not exceeding 15% of the finished weight. Water or ice may be added.

[Paragraph (d) amended by Am. 1, effective 5-24-43; Am. 3; Am. 7, effective 8-27-43, Am. 9, effective 11-6-43; and Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2239, effective 2-25-44]

(e) "Kosher frankfurters, bologna and knackwurst" means kosher sausage which has been smoked and cooked in the smokehouse; which is stuffed in casings; which has a fat content not in excess of 25%; which contains no more than 10% added moisture or water; and which contains no extender.

"Kosher salami" means kosher sausage which has been smoked and cooked in the smoke-house; which has the texture, form and flavor customary for salami made in accordance with good commercial practice, stuffed in artificial casings; which has a fat content not in excess of 15%; which has a final yield not in excess of 85%; and which contains no extender.

[Paragraph (e) added by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11956, effective 8-27-43]

(f) Loaf. "Loaf" means a product made of chopped, ground or comminuted meat or meat by-products or any combination thereof; seasoned; prepared in loaf form; with condiments added if desired; cooked; which has sufficient stability to withstand handling; and which is stuffed in artificial casings or packed in sealed printed cardboard cartons, or sealed printed wrappers made from cellophane, parchment or other moisture resistant paper, with such cartons or wrappers having the loaf manufacturer's brand name or trademark printed thereon. The use of caul fat as a covering does not make caul fat an ingredient within the meaning of this regulation.

"Type 1 loaf" means a loaf which is made of pork; which has a fat content not in excess of 10 percent; which has a yield not in excess of 100 percent; and which contains no extender.

"Type 2 loaf" means a loaf which has at least 80 percent pork as the major ingredient and any combination of one or more of beef, veal, pork cheek meat, pork head meat and mutton as minor ingredients; which has a fat content not in excess of 15 percent; which contains no more than 5 percent of added moisture or water; and which contains no more than 15 percent of extender.

"Type 3 loaf" means a loaf which is made of any combination of pork, beef, veal, pork cheek meat, pork head meat; and mutton; which has a fat content not in excess of 30 percent; which contains no more than 20 percent of added moisture or water; and which contains no more than 15 percent of extender.

"Type 4 loaf" means a loaf which is made of any combination of meat and meat by-products, including those derived from goats; which contains no more than 15 percent of extender; and

Appendix A—Maximum list prices for thermosetting plastic laminates.

SECTION 1. Prohibition against sales above maximum prices. (a) On or after March 21, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(1) No manufacturer shall sell or deliver thermosetting plastic laminates at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation.

(2) No person shall buy or receive, in the course of trade or business, thermosetting plastic laminates at prices higher than the maximum prices established by the regulation.

(3) No person shall ask, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(b) The buyer shall be deemed to have complied with this section if, prior to payment, he obtains from the seller a written statement that to the best of the seller's knowledge the price does not exceed the maximum price established by this regulation and that the seller has fully complied with this regulation, and if the buyer has no reason to doubt the truth of the statement.

SEC. 2. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 3. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

SEC. 4. Relationship of this to other maximum price regulations—(a) Maximum Price Regulation No. 406.[1] The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 406 with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, except as otherwise specifically provided in this regulation.

(b) General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation (including Order No. 229 under § 1499.3 (b) issued thereunder) with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, except as otherwise specifically provided in this regulation.

(c) Sales to United States agencies (Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 applicable). The exceptions to the General Maximum Price Regulation set forth in Article IV of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1, for certain sales and deliveries to the United States or any of its agencies and to certain foreign governments and their agencies, shall also constitute exceptions to this regulation insofar as the commodities and transactions there excepted would otherwise have been subject to this regulation.

(d) Imports (Maximum Import Price Regulation[3] applicable). The provisions of this regulation shall not apply and the Maximum Import Price Regulation shall apply to the purchases, sales or deliveries of thermosetting plastic laminates, if they originate outside of and are imported into the continental United States. Sales, purchases and deliveries of such imported commodities are governed by the provisions of the Maximum Import Price Regulation.

(e) Exports (Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[4] applicable). The maximum prices at which a person may export thermosetting plastic laminates shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

SEC. 5. Geographical applicability. This regulation applies in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 6. Maximum prices—(a) In general. The maximum prices for thermosetting plastic laminates sold or delivered by a manufacturer after March 20, 1944, shall be the prices established in Appendix A of this regulation plus or minus the discounts, premiums, or other items provided for in the discount lists, and subject to the practices as to payment of transportation costs, provisions for containers, trade practices and terms of sale in effect on January 1, 1941, for that manufacturer.

(b) Reports. Each manufacturer of thermosetting plastic laminates subject to the provisions of this regulation shall file with the Chemicals and Drugs Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement showing all discounts, premiums, or other items provided for in the discount lists, practices as to payment of transportation costs, provisions for containers, trade practices and terms of sale applicable on January 1, 1941, to the list prices of thermosetting plastic laminates offered for sale by said manufacturer. The statement required by this section shall be filed on or before April 21, 1944, and may be in the form of published statements if such published statements are complete.

(c) Incomplete discount lists. If such provisions for computing net prices to purchasers were incomplete on January 1, 1941, the manufacturer shall establish complete provisions. Before such provisions may be used in computing a price, and before any sale or delivery at such a price, the provisions must be submitted to and approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration. No newly established provisions will be approved that are not representative of the general practice in the industry on January 1, 1941.

SEC. 7. Maximum prices for "new" thermosetting plastic laminates—(a) Definition. A "new" thermosetting plastic laminate is one made up of a combination of materials not used by the manufacturer for making a thermosetting plastic laminate offered for sale prior to March 21, 1944.

(b) Maximum prices. The maximum price for "new" thermosetting plastic laminates shall be determined pursuant to the price-determining method in use in the manufacturer's plant on January 1, 1941, or, if he had no such method on that date, that which he proposes to use, and must be in line with the maximum prices established by this regulation.

(c) Reports. Before any manufacturer may offer, sell, or deliver any "new" thermosetting plastic laminate, he shall submit to the Chemicals and Drugs Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a written statement containing a detailed description of the method used or proposed to determine prices for such products. The statement shall include a complete list of established and proposed prices, discounts, premiums, practices as to payment of transportation costs, provisions for containers, trade practices, and other items affecting the net price paid by the purchaser for the new laminates.

After mailing the statement, the manufacturer may make deliveries at prices not in excess of those reported. If, at the expiration of 20 days from the date of mailing the report, the manufacturer has not received from the Office of Price Administration a written disapproval of the reported proposed maximum prices, such prices shall be considered as authorized. If not approved, the Office of Price Administration may require refunds to be made.

The Price Administrator may by letter or otherwise adjust any such reported prices which he finds are not in conformity with the regulation or which he determines to be excessively high or not in line with the prices established by the regulation but, unless a written disapproval has been mailed to the manufacturer within said twenty-day period, not until after giving the manufacturer notice and a reasonable opportunity to present additional evidence. justed price shall not be retroactive unless written disapproval has been mailed to the manufacturer within said twenty-day period. No retroactive adjustment shall be made as to deliveries made between the end of said twenty-day period and the date the disapproval is received by the manufacturer.

SEC. 8. Exclusion of "experimental" thermosetting plastic laminates—(a) Definition. An "experimental" thermosetting plastic laminate is one made up of a combination of materials not used by the manufacturer for making a thermosetting plastic laminate offered for sale prior to March 21, 1944, and which has been made for test or experimental purposes. Such a laminate shall cease to be "experimental" as soon as the producer thereof has sold in excess of 1,000 pounds of laminates made from that combination of materials, in any one month.

(b) Exclusion from maximum price regulation. An "experimental" thermosetting plastic laminate shall not be subject to this or any other regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration in effect on March 21, 1944.

SEC. 9. Records and reports—(a) Records. Every person making sales or purchases of thermosetting plastic laminates in lots of 50 pounds or more for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, after March 20, 1944, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, accurate records of each such sale or purchase, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer and the seller, the price contracted for or received, and the quantity of each type and grade of thermosetting plastic laminates purchased or sold. This requirement may be met by preservation of invoices containing the listed information for the required period of time.

In addition, manufacturers shall keep records for the same period of time showing the computation pursuant to which maximum prices were established under this regulation.

(b) Additional reports and records. The persons subject to paragraph (a) shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration, and keep such other records in addition to, or in place of, the records required by that paragraph as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

SEC. 10. Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to thermosetting plastic laminates, alone or in connection with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement, or other trade understanding, or by transactions with or through the agency of subsidiaries or affiliates, or otherwise.

SEC. 11. Licensing and enforcement—(a) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[5] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(b) Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 12. Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the manufacture or production of thermosetting plastic laminates, and includes any person affiliated with, subject to the control of, acting as agent for, or selling on the behalf of such manufacturer.

(2) "Thermosetting plastic laminates" means the sheets, rods and tubes with the specifications set forth in the Appendix of this regulation and which are made by impregnating paper, fabric or a like material with a thermosetting phenolic, cresylic, urea or melamine type resin and subjecting to heat with or without pressure.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to other terms and used herein.

SEC. 13. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[6]

APPENDIX A—MAXIMUM LIST PRICES FOR THERMOSETTING PLASTIC LAMINATES

PART 1448—EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

[Restaurant MPR 5-8,[1] Amdt. 4]

FOOD AND DRINK SOLD FOR IMMEDIATE CONSUMPTION IN MISSOURI

The statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment No. 4 to Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5-8 has been issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5-8 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 19 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 19. Adjustments. (a) The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum prices for any eating establishment under the following circumstances:

(1) The establishment is operating under such hardship as to cause a substantial threat to the continuance of its operations.

(2) It is determined with reasonable certainty that such discontinuance will result in serious inconvenience to consumers in that they will either be deprived of all restaurant service or will have to turn to other establishments that present substantial difficulties as to distance, hours of service, selection of meals or food items offered, capacity, or transportation; and

(3) By reason of such discontinuance, the same meals or food items will cost the customers of the eating establishment as much as or more than the proposed adjusted prices.

(b) If you are the proprietor of an eating establishment which satisfies the requirements specified above, you may apply for an adjustment of your maximum prices by submitting to the St. Louis District Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement in duplicate setting forth:

(1) Your name and address.

(2) A description of your eating establishment including: type of service rendered (such as cafeteria, table service, etc.), classes of meals offered (such as breakfast, lunch and dinner), number of persons served per day during the most recent thirty-day period,[2] and such other information that may be useful in classifying your establishment.

(3) The reasons why your customers will be seriously inconvenienced if you discontinue operations.

(4) The names and addresses of the three nearest eating places of the same type as yours.

(5) A list showing your present maximum prices and your requested, adjusted prices.

(6) A profit and loss statement for your restaurant business for the most recent three-month accounting period, and a copy of your last income tax return if one was filed separately for your restaurant business.

(7) Any other information requested by the St. Louis District Office.

Applications for adjustment under this section will be acted upon by the St. Louis District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

This amendment shall become effective January 31, 1944.

[Order 14]

REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES IN NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY AREAS

AUTHORIZATION TO ISSUE DIRECTIONS

It is necessary to provide for certain emergency shipments of coal to consumers performing work for the United States Navy in Regions Nos. 1 and 3 (as described in Appendix A of Solid Fuels Administration for War Revised Regulation No. 2). Because of their particular knowledge of conditions and needs in this respect in their regions, it is desirable that the regional representatives for these regions be empowered to issue certain directions. Accordingly, in order to effectuate the purposes of Executive Order No. 9382 and by virtue of the authority conferred by that order, the following order is issued:

Authorization to certain regional representatives to issue directions. Walter J. Dockerill, regional representative for Region No. 1, and Daniel F. Gallagher, regional representative for Region No. 3, are hereby authorized to issue, in their own names, to retail coal dealers within their respective regions such directions pursuant to Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 1 (8 F.R. 5832) as are necessary and proper to secure emergency shipments of bituminous coal, in less than carload lots, to industrial consumers in their respective regions engaged in performing work for the United States Navy upon certification of the need for such coal by the Inspector of Naval Material, Fuel and Power Unit, New York Ordnance District Office. This authorization is to continue until further notice.

This order shall become effective immediately.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[Order 20 Under § 1499.19a of GMPR]

CORN SYRUP UNMIXED AND CRUDE CORN SUGAR

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Petitions have been filed requesting increases in the prices which the General Maximum Price Regulation establishes for "bulk" corn syrup unmixed and "bulk" crude corn sugar having a dextrose content of 80 percent or less. It is the contention of the petitioners that increases in the price of the corn ingredient have made the manufacture of these products unprofitable to such an extent that their continued manufacture and distribution are threatened.

It is the opinion of the Administrator that these petitions require further consideration; that authority to use adjustable pricing for sales of these products, pending final action on the requests for increases in the maximum prices, is necessary to retain their production and distribution; and that the granting of such authorization will not interfere with purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328. Therefore, in accordance with § 1499.19a of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered, That:

(a) Pending final action of the Office of Price Administration respecting requests for increasing the prices of "bulk" corn syrup unmixed and "bulk" crude corn sugar having a dextrose content of 80 percent or less, sellers subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation may sell and deliver such products at prices to be adjustable to those resulting from final action of the Office of Price Administration. Denial of the requests now pending before this Office, or issuance of a regulation or amendment increasing the maximum prices of those products constitutes final action for purposes of this order. Prior to such final action, no price shall be paid in excess of the price prevailing on the date of delivery.

(b) As used in this order, the term:

(1) "Corn syrup unmixed" means corn syrup unmixed in all its commercial forms in bulk.

(2) "Crude corn sugar" means crude corn sugar in all its commercial forms in bulk commercially known as 70 and 80 sugars with maximum moisture content of 17½% and 12%, respectively, not including refined corn sugar.

(3) "Bulk" or "in bulk" means in tank cars, tank wagons, barrels, half-barrels, steel drums, in bags, in bulk in cars, or in other containers of more than ten pounds net weight.

(c) This order shall be automatically revoked upon the effective date of a price regulation or amendment issued by the Office of Price Administration increasing maximum prices for bulk sales of the commodities to which this order applies. It may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This amendment shall become effective March 14, 1944.

Issued this 14th day of March 1944.

Administrator.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[Order 20 Under § 1499.19a of GMPR]

CORN SYRUP UNMIXED AND CRUDE CORN SUGAR

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Petitions have been filed requesting increases in the prices which the General Maximum Price Regulation establishes for "bulk" corn syrup unmixed and "bulk" crude corn sugar having a dextrose content of 80 percent or less. It is the contention of the petitioners that increases in the price of the corn ingredient have made the manufacture of these products unprofitable to such an extent that their continued manufacture and distribution are threatened.

It is the opinion of the Administrator that these petitions require further consideration; that authority to use adjustable pricing for sales of these products, pending final action on the requests for increases in the maximum prices, is necessary to retain their production and distribution; and that the granting of such authorization will not interfere with purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328. Therefore, in accordance with § 1499.19a of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered, That:

(a) Pending final action of the Office of Price Administration respecting requests for increasing the prices of "bulk" corn syrup unmixed and "bulk" crude corn sugar having a dextrose content of 80 percent or less, sellers subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation may sell and deliver such products at prices to be adjustable to those resulting from final action of the Office of Price Administration. Denial of the requests now pending before this Office, or issuance of a regulation or amendment increasing the maximum prices of those products constitutes final action for purposes of this order. Prior to such final action, no price shall be paid in excess of the price prevailing on the date of delivery.

(b) As used in this order, the term:

(1) "Corn syrup unmixed" means corn syrup unmixed in all its commercial forms in bulk.

MILK IN FALL RIVER, MASS., MARKETING AREA

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and to a proposed amendment to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, marketing area.

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1-900.17; 7 F.R. 3350; 8 F.R. 2815), Food Distribution Administration, War Food Administration, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Director, Office of Distribution, with respect to a marketing agreement and to an amendment to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1331, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proceeding was initiated by the Food Distribution Administration (now Office of Distribution) as a result of a petition by the Fall River Milk Producers Association for a public hearing to receive evidence on a proposal to amend the order in several respects. The hearing notice also included a proposed increase in the Class I price made by the New England Milk Producers Association, two amendments suggested by the handler, H. P. Hood and Sons, and several amendments suggested by the Dairy and Poultry Branch, Office of Distribution. It was concluded from a consideration of the various proposals that a hearing should be held and a hearing was held at Westport, Massachusetts, on September 27 following issuance of notice on September 18, 1943.

The issues developed at the hearing concerned: (1) an increase in Class I price; (2) selective classification to limit the amount of milk from other markets that may be shipped into Fall River and classified as Class I; (3) proration of shrinkage among various sources of milk; (4) differentials to reflect cost of receiving milk at and transporting milk from country plants; (5) an increase in skim value of the Class II price; (6) revision of the assessment for cost of administration to broaden the basis of such assessment; (7) a ceiling for the butterfat differential; and (8) adoption of minor changes of an administrative nature.

With respect to these issues it is concluded that the following changes should be made:

1. Milk received at city plants from producers should be allocated to Class I up to but not in excess of 95 percent of the milk from producers in cases where the handler had sufficient milk from other sources to absorb additional Class II milk. It has been permissible under this order for a handler to import milk from plants subject to the Boston order and exclude all of such milk from the pool computations at Class I whether it was all needed to meet the handler's Class I requirements or not. Certain handlers have imported much more milk than they needed for Class I uses at a time when the usual sources of supply for this market were insufficient to meet total Class I needs. The recommended change will relieve the market of this burden and will give local producers a priority on Class I milk only up to 95 percent of such milk in recognition of the natural requirements of the fluid milk market for a small reserve supply to take care of day to day fluctuations in demand. It is considered that the burden of carrying a minimum reserve at the Class II price should be borne by producers who are the principal participants in the Class I market.

2. The order should be revised to prorate the actual plant shrinkage allowed as Class II among the various sources of milk received from producers. Some handlers have milk in their plants from three types of producers. In addition to regular Fall River producers they have producers listed for other markets (§ 947.6 (c) and (d)) which are allowed to be exempt from the net pool computations. The order has not been sufficiently clear with respect to accounting for shrinkage to indicate that the milk of various types of producers should bear the allowable Class II shrinkage on a pro rata basis, with the result that in some instances handlers have been able to successfully allocate Class II shrinkage to the Fall River pool which is definitely associated with the handling of milk of producers maintained for other markets.

3. The order should provide differentials to reflect the cost of receiving milk at and transporting milk from country plants. This order has never provided differentials of this type, with the result that handlers are unable to develop supplies beyond the limits within which it is practical to truck milk directly from farms to city processing plants, except to obtain milk from plants subject to the Boston order under which handling and transportation differentials are allowed. Up to 18 months ago this situation did not seem to offer a problem, as the volume of direct trucked milk was ample to meet demands for Class I milk. Since that time nearby sources of supply have declined slightly and demand for Class I milk has increased substantially, with the result that milk is now shipped to the market from beyond the practical trucking distance during almost every month of the year. Handlers contend that in such a situation lack of transportation and handling differentials prevents some potential sources of supply from being able to compete in this market at a time when such additional milk is needed. It is further contended that the regulations are unduly restrictive when their effect is to force the channeling of supplemental milk through handlers who are regulated by the Boston order. These contentions seem reasonable and offer sufficient basis for providing differentials which will enable milk from other areas of supply to compete on even terms with nearby milk in this market.

4. The skim value in the Class II price formula should be increased by the elimination of price quotations for casein from the computation. Such quotations are now a part of the formula during April, May, and June only. The result will be to base the formula on skim milk powder prices throughout the year.

For several years the Class II price in this market has been kept closely related to Class II values in the Boston market. The latter market handles a large proportion of all Class II milk in the New England States, and has demonstrated an ability to manufacture the Class II skim milk into such concentrated products as cottage cheese, skim milk powder, casein, and condensed skim milk, and return values to producers based on prices reported in the New York market for casein and skim milk powder. Although the small markets secondary to Boston, such as Fall River, seem to have never had a sufficient volume of Class II skim milk to warrant the relatively large investment of powder-making equipment, other outlets for fluid skim milk are present in or nearby city milk markets in the form of ice-cream and cheese plants, candy manufacturers, bakeries, and other food-processing establishments, and such uses successfully compete with the skim milk powder market for supplies of fluid skim milk.

With respect to casein, however, there is no evidence of it over having been made or of prospects for making it in this market. Casein prices are now low relative to skim milk powder prices. Therefore, removal of casein prices from the formula will eliminate an unnecessary depression of the Class II price during April, May, and June.

5. The assessment for cost of administration should be broadened to apply to all milk handled in plants subject to the order, with a discount allowed on any of such milk also assessed under the Boston order to prevent any duplication of assessments. The order now applies the assessment of 5¢ per hundredweight (or such lesser amount as the market administrator may determine to be sufficient) to milk of producers included in net pool computations and milk of producers under contract for other markets which may be temporarily transferred to Fall River.

This arrangement excludes 30–46 percent of the milk handled in the plants subject to the order. This is due to the fact that the order allows handlers who sell milk in several markets adjacent to Fall River from the same plant from which they supply the Fall River market to maintain separate lists of producers for the adjacent markets, and have such milk excluded from both the net pool computations and the assessment. Experience has shown that for handlers who operate in several markets and have milk of various sources, part of which is exempt from pooling, the task of verifying the limited amount of milk to be included in the pool from such plant is as great as would be the case if all the milk were pooled. Inasmuch as the exemption features are options which handlers exercise for their own convenience rather than a mandatory feature of the order, it appears inequitable to exclude the non-pool milk from the assessment. If the options were not exercised much of the non-pool milk would automatically be assessed.

6. A few minor changes considered at the hearing on which no substantial issue developed are recommended. They include a revision of the definition of "handler" to discontinue the practice of allowing a person distributing his own milk to be considered a producer-handler while receiving milk directly from producers' farms for the account of a cooperative association; addition of a provision for an "emergency milk committee" of handlers, of which the market administrator may be a member and act as chairman, to facilitate the procurement of emergency supplies of milk and disposition of milk in excess of Class II requirements through a single agency when needed; deletion of an obsolete feature of the Class I price; and deletion of provisions (§ 947.9 (h) and (i)) requiring handlers to make payments to the equalization fund on milk from other markets which is sold to Fall River handlers. The need for these payments is eliminated by the amendment providing for selective classification.

The following conclusions are with respect to issues, concerning which no changes are proposed:

1. No increase is proposed for the Class I price as changes in production costs are now reflected, within the framework of the "hold the line" program announced in March, 1943, by the Director of Economic Stabilization, by the dairy feed payment program. Revision of Class I prices named in the order must await resolution by appropriate authorities of the method to be used to reflect returns to producers which will be adequate to encourage them to maintain the desired level of milk production during 1944.

2. A ceiling on the butterfat differential would be inconsistent with the principle upon which it is based, in this order, which is the competitive value of butterfat in cream on the open market. Under this system, the differential has at times been relatively low, and at other times, as at present, relatively high. Both extremes are necessary to reflect full value to producers in the long run. Adoption of the requested ceiling of 5 cents per point at butterfat would therefore be incomplete without adoption of a floor also. This would result in a complete change in the basis of the differential, and no such complete change was requested.

Other changes considered at the hearing consisted of the proposal to provide for control of farm-to-plant trucking of milk, revision of the cream conversion factor in the Class II price formula from 33.48 to 33.0; and an optional reporting feature which would automatically allow a handler 2 percent of his milk in Class II without an audit of utilization being made. Insufficient evidence on which to recommend a change with respect to these points was received.

The following operating provisions of a proposed order amending the order, as amended, are recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out. A proposed marketing agreement is not included in this report because the proposed amendments applicable to it would be the same as those set forth below with respect to the amendment to the order, as amended. (In the provisions below, points numbered 4, 5, 7, 11, and 12 relate to handling and transportation allowances; points numbered 2, 9, and 10 relate to selective classification; point No. 3 and the first part of point No. 10 relate to shrinkage; and points numbered 8 and 13 relate to the administration assessment.)

Proposed amendment to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, marketing area.

Provisions

1. In the last sentence of § 947.1 (a) (7) add after the clause "which it causes to be delivered to the plant of a handler," the words "but not a producer-handler,."

2. In § 947.3 (b) (2) change the period to a semicolon and add a second proviso as follows:

Provided further, That of any milk received from the type of handler described in § 947.6 (e), not less than the quantity of such milk allocated pursuant to § 947.7 (b) (3) (iii) shall be Class II milk.

3. In § 947.3 (d) revise subparagraphs (2) and (3) to read as follows:

(2) The difference between the amount determined pursuant to (1) of this paragraph and the total quantity of Class II milk allocated to source (3) milk pursuant to § 947.7 (b) (3) shall be such Class I milk.

(3) The total quantity of Class II milk referred to in (2) of this paragraph shall be such Class II milk.

4. Add a proviso to § 947.4 (a) as follows:

Provided, That for milk delivered to a handler from producers' farms at a receiving plant located more than 100 miles from the City Hall in Fall River, there shall be deducted the sum of 13 cents plus an amount per hundredweight equal to the lowest rail tariff, for the transportation, in carlots, of milk in 40-quart cans, as published in the New England Joint Tariff M4 (including revisions and supplements thereof), for the distance from the railroad shipping point for such receiving plant to the handler's railroad delivery point for the marketing area.

5. Revise § 947.4 (b) to read as follows:

(b) (1) Except as provided in (2) of this paragraph, each handler shall pay producers or associations of producers for their milk in the manner set forth in § 947.9, not less than that price per hundredweight, for milk containing 3.7 percent butterfat, calculated for each delivery period by the market administrator, as follows: divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, or the last such price reported for a delivery period if no such price is reported for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, multiply the result by 3.7 and subtract 15 cents: Provided, That any plus amount for skim value shall be added which results from the following computation: compute the average for all the dry skim milk powder quotations for carlots for "human food products (roller process) in barrels" and for "animal feed products (hot roller) in bags" (using mid-point of any range as one quotation), published during such delivery period, by United States Department of Agriculture, for New York City, subtract 4.0 cents and multiply by 7.5.

(2) For milk delivered to a handler from producers' farms at a receiving plant located more than 100 miles from the City Hall in Fall River, the price shall be the amount computed pusuant to (1) of this paragraph minus 14 cents.

6. Delete § 947.4 (d) (1) and renumber subparagraph (2) of the same paragraph to subparagraph (1).

7. Add a new paragraph to § 947.4 as follows:

(e) Computation of transportation allowances. For the purpose of this section, the milk which was disposed of during each delivery period by each handler as Class I milk from a receiving plant located within 100 miles of the City Hall in Fall River shall be presumed to have been, first, that milk which was received directly from producers' farms at such plant, and then that milk which was shipped from the nearest receiving plant located more than 100 miles from the City Hall in Fall River.

8. In § 947.6 delete from paragraph (d) the words "except that such handler shall make payments as specified in § 947.9 (i)" and change the comma to a period; in pargaraph (e) delete the words "§ 947.9 (h), and § 947.11"; and in § 947.6 (g) (1) and (2) delete the word "and" preceding the word "§ 947.5" and add directly following it the words "and § 947.11".

9. Renumber paragraphs (a) and (b), of § 947.7, and all references thereto, to (b) and (c), respectively, and add a new paragraph (a) as follows:

(a) Itemization of milk by sources. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall determine for each handler, for purposes of reference in making the computations in (b) and (c) of this section, the quantity of milk received from the following sources:

(1) Producers and/or associations of producers on each of any lists maintained pursuant to § 947.6 (c).

(2) Producers pursuant to § 947.6 (d):

(i) With respect to the Greater Boston market; and

(ii) With respect to markets outside of the marketing area, other than Greater Boston.

(3) Producers, except milk listed in (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

(4) Handlers of the type described in § 947.6 (e).

(5) Other handlers, except milk listed in (4) of this paragraph.

(6) Plants, pursuant to § 947.6 (d):

(i) With respect to the Greater Boston market; and

(ii) With respect to markets outside of the marketing area, other than Greater Boston.

10. Revise § 947.7 (b) (3) to read as follows:

(3) For the purpose of this section, milk as referred to by sources described and listed in paragraph (a) of this section, shall be allocated among classes in the order of the subparts of this subparagraph, as follows:

(i) Actual plant shrinkage classified as Class II milk shall be allocated pro rata among sources (1), (2) (ii), and (3).

(ii) Remaining Class II milk shall be first allocated to source (2) (ii).

(iii) Except as provided in (iv), in case a handler has milk from sources (1), (2), (4) and/or (6) and also has Class II milk remaining (inclusive of any plant shrinkage in Class II allocated to milk of source (3)) equal to 5 percent or more of the total quantity of milk from source (3), such Class II milk shall be first allocated to milk from source (3) up to and including, but not in excess of, 5 percent of the source (3) milk (inclusive of shrinkage allocated to source (3) milk), then remaining Class II milk shall be allocated to the milk from sources (1), (2), (4) and (6) pro rata, and any Class II milk remaining unallocated shall be considered to be from source (3) milk.

(iv) Milk from source (6) (i) received completely processed and packaged for distribution to consumers which is disposed of as Class I shall be allocated to Class I.

11. In § 947.6 (c) (1) and § 947.7 (b) (1) (vi) and (2) (vii), change the reference to "§ 947.9 (g)" to "§ 947.9 (h)"; in § 947.9 (a) (1) and (2), change the references "paragraph (g)" and "paragraph (f)" to "paragraph (h)" and "paragraph (g)", respectively; and in § 947.7 (c) (1) and (2) delete the present subpart (ii) and substitute therefor a new subpart (ii) as follows:

(ii) Add the amount of the differential applicable pursuant to § 947.9 (f).

12. In § 947.9 delete paragraphs (h) and (i), renumber paragraphs (f) and (g) to (g) and (h), respectively, and add a new paragraph (f) as follows:

(f) Country receiving plant and freight differentials. The payments to be made by handlers to producers pursuant to (a) of this section shall be subject to a differential as follows: (i) With respect to milk delivered by a producer to a handler at a receiving plant located more than 100 miles from the City Hall in Fall River, there shall be deducted a sum of 13 cents plus an amount per hundredweight equal to the lowest railroad tariff for transportation in carlots of milk in 40-quart cans, as published in the New England Joint Tariff M4 (including revisions and supplements thereto), for the distance from the railroad shipping point of such receiving plant to the handler's delivery plant for the marketing area.

13. Revise § 947.11 (a) to read as follows:

(a) Payments by handlers. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler, except as set forth in § 947.6 (f), shall, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, pay to the market administrator 5 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the market administrator shall determine to be sufficient, with respect to all milk produced and delivered by producers and milk received pursuant to § 947.6 (d) or from handlers subject to § 947.6 (e), and by such handler if he is also a producer during such delivery periods: Provided, That such handler, which is an association of producers, shall pay such pro rata share of expense of administration on such milk which it causes to be delivered by member producers to a handler's plant for the marketing area and for which milk such association of producers collects payment: And provided further, That any amounts paid on any of the milk specified herein by any handler for cost of administration of another Federal milk marketing agreement or order may be deducted from the amount due hereunder.

14. Add a new section as follows:

§ 947.15 Emergency milk committee. Handlers may select an "Emergency Milk Committee" for the purpose of supervising the purchase and allocation among handlers of emergency milk or assembly and disposition as Class II, milk in excess of Class I needs for all handlers desiring to perform these functions through a single agency. The market administrator may be a member of such committee and may act as chairman thereof. Notice of all meetings of the committee shall be given to the War Food Administrator and such person or persons as the War Food Administrator may designate shall be permitted to attend and take part in such meetings.

This report filed at Washington, D. C. this 15th day of March 1944.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[FDO 54, Amdt. 1]

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

DRIED SKIM MILK

Food Distribution Order No. 54, § 1401.25 (8 F.R. 7210), issued by the War Food Administrator on May 29, 1943, is amended as follows:

1. By deleting the provisions of (a) (2) and inserting in lieu thereof, the following:

(2) The term "dried skim milk" means all products containing 1½ percent or less, by weight, of butterfat, which are made by drying cows' milk, from which all or part of the milk fat has been separated and to which no other substance or ingredient has been added, and which are sold for human consumption or used in the manufacture of any other product which is sold for human consumption.

2. By deleting the provisions of (a) (11) and inserting in lieu thereof, the following:

(11) The term "designated agencies" means any of the following agencies: (i) the Armed Services of the United States (excluding, for the purpose of this order, the United States Army post exchanges, United States Navy Ships' Service Departments, and United States Marine Corps post exchanges); (ii) the Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, (including, but not restricted to, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation); (iii) the War Shipping Administration; (iv) the Veterans Administration; and (v) any other instrumentality or agency designated by the Director.

3. By adding to (a) the following:

(13) The term "Armed Services of the United States" means the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States.

4. By deleting the words "Food Distribution Administration" wherever said words appear in said order and inserting, in lieu thereof, the words "Office of Distribution."

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., March 1, 1944. With respect to violations of Food Distribution Order No. 54, rights accrued, or liabilities incurred prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, said Food Distribution Order No. 54 shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purposes of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right or liability.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS

Chapter III—Social Security Board, Federal Security Agency

[Regs. 3,[1] Amdt.]

PART 403—FEDERAL OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE

PROCEDURE BEFORE APPEALS COUNCIL

Sections 403.709 (g) and 403.710 (a) and (c) of Regulations No. 3, as amended (Part 403, Title 20, Code of Federal Regulations 1940 Supp.), are amended as follows:

[1] 5 F.R. 1849. For a chronological description of the statutory basis for the old-age and survivors insurance system under title II of the Social Security Act, as amended, and the regulations which have been issued thereunder, see § 403.1 of Regulations No. 3 of the Social Security Board. (20 CFR 403.1, Cum. Supp.)

1. The last undesignated paragraph of paragraph (g) of § 403.709 is amended to read:

(g) Conduct of hearing and evidence. * * *

A complete stenographic record of the proceedings at the hearing shall be made. When directed by the Appeals Council or the referee, the record shall be transcribed where the case is certified to or reviewed by the Appeals Council (see paragraph (k) of this section and § 403.710 (a) and (b)).

2. Paragraph (a) of § 403.710 is amended to read:

(a) Procedure before Appeals Council on certification by the referee. The Appeals Council of the Social Security Board shall, when a case has been certified to it by a referee without decision (see § 403.709 (k)), mail notice of such action to the parties at their last known addresses. A copy of the transcript of evidence adduced at the hearing or a condensed statement thereof or, where the hearing before the referee has been waived (see § 403.709 (i)), copies or a statement of the contents of the documents which are evidence in the case, shall be made available to any party upon request.

When a case has been certified to the Appeals Council for decision, the parties shall be given, upon their request, a reasonable opportunity to appear before the Appeals Council for the purpose of presenting oral argument. The parties shall also be given, upon their request, a reasonable opportunity to file briefs or other written statements of contentions. Where there is more than one party, copies of such a brief or written statement shall be filed in a sufficient number that they may be made available to any party requesting a copy or any other party designated by the Appeals Council.

Evidence in addition to the evidence introduced at the hearing before the referee, or the documents before the referee where the hearing is waived, may not be presented except where it appears to the Appeals Council that additional material evidence is available which may affect its decision. If it appears that such additional evidence is available, the Appeals Council shall receive such evidence or designate a referee or member of the Council before whom the evidence shall be introduced. Before additional evidence may be presented, as above provided, notice shall be mailed to the parties, unless such notice is waived, at their last known addresses, that evidence will be received with respect to certain matters, and the parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present evidence which is relevant and material to such matters. When the additional evidence is introduced before a referee or a member of the Appeals Council, a transcript or a condensed statement of such evidence shall be made available to any party upon request.

The decision of the Appeals Council, when a case has been certified to it by a referee, shall be made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section.

3. Paragraph (c) of § 403.710 is amended to read:

(c) Procedure before Appeals Council on review of referee's decision or Bureau's revised determination. Whenever the Appeals Council determines to review a referee's decision or the revised determination of the Bureau, the Council shall make available to any party upon request a copy of the transcript of evidence adduced at the hearing or a condensed statement thereof or, where the hearing before the referee was waived (see § 403.709 (i)), copies or a statement of the contents of the documents upon which the referee's decision was based. The parties shall be given, upon their request, a reasonable opportunity to file briefs or other written statements of contentions. Copies of such brief or other written statement, where there is more than one party, shall be filed in a sufficient number that they may be made available to any party requesting a copy and to any other party designated by the Appeals Council.

Evidence in addition to the evidence introduced at the hearing before the referee, or the documents before the referee where the hearing is waived, may not be presented except where it appears to the Appeals Council that additional material evidence is available which may affect its decision. If it appears that such additional evidence is available, the Appeals Council shall receive such evidence or designate a referee or member of the Council before whom the evidence shall be introduced. Before additional evidence may be presented, as above provided, notice shall be mailed to the parties, unless such notice is waived, at their last known addresses, that evidence will be received with respect to certain matters, and the parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present evidence which is relevant and material to such matters. When the additional evidence is introduced before a referee or a member of the Appeals Council, a transcript or a condensed statement of such evidence shall be made available to any party upon request.

In pursuance of sections 205 (a) and 1102 of the Social Security Act, as amended, the foregoing regulation adopted by the Board is hereby prescribed this 10th day of March 1944.

[SEAL] SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD,
A. J. ALTMEYER,
Chairman.

Approved: March 14, 1944.

PART 1226—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L-112 as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

INDUSTRIAL POWER TRUCKS

The fulfillment of the requirements of the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1226.117 General Limitation Order L-112—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Industrial power truck" means any self-power-propelled industrial truck or wheel tractor designed primarily for handling material (either by carrying or towing) on floors or paved surfaces in and around industrial plants, warehouses, docks, airports or depots. The term shall not include automotive tractors, trucks, or wheeltype industrial tractors designed for use on tax-built highways, or in such operations as construction, earth-moving, mining, logging, industrial yard work, or petroleum development.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures, fabricates or assembles new industrial power trucks, and includes any sales and distribution outlets of a manufacturer.

(4) "Parts producer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, who manufactures parts to be incorporated in industrial power trucks.

(5) "Standard model" as applied to a manufacturer, means one model only of each type and capacity of industrial power truck listed in List A attached hereto, described in such manufacturer's catalogue or bulletin on July 10, 1942.

(6) "Approved standard model" means a standard model listed hereafter and from time to time by supplementary order or orders, as provided in paragraph (d) (2).

(7) "New", when applied to any industrial power truck, means any truck which has never been sold to a person acquiring the same for use. "Used" means any such truck which has been sold to a person acquiring the same for use, whether or not such truck has subsequently been reconditioned or rebuilt.

(8) "Dealer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, engaged in the business of selling or distributing new or used industrial power trucks, whether at wholesale, retail, or otherwise.

(9) "Owner" means any person (including a manufacturer or dealer) who owns any industrial power truck, regardless of whether such truck was acquired for resale or for use by such person.

(b) Restrictions on orders and deliveries—(1) New trucks. (i) No manufacturer shall accept any order for a new industrial power truck unless such order is accompanied by the authorization of the War Production Board provided for in paragraph (b) (3) below. Orders so authorized shall be placed only with the supplier specified by the War Production Board.

(ii) No manufacturer shall hereafter deliver any new industrial power truck, except in fulfillment of an order (a) accepted before October 15, 1942, and rated A-9 or better on Form WPB-541 (formerly PD-1A) or WPB-542 (formerly PD-3A or on a form in the WPB-837 (formerly PD-408), or (b) accepted on or after October 15, 1942, and accompanied by the authorization of the War Production Board provided for in paragraph (b) (3) below.

(2) Used trucks. (i) On and after July 20, 1943 no manufacturer, dealer or owner shall accept any order for a used industrial power truck unless such order is accompanied by the authorization of the War Production Board provided for in paragraph (b) (3) below. Orders so authorized shall be placed only with the supplier specified by the War Production Board.

(ii) On and after July 20, 1943, no manufacturer, dealer or owner shall deliver any used industrial power truck, except in fulfillment of an order accompanied by the authorization of the War Production Board provided for in paragraph (b) (3) below.

(iii) Any manufacturer, dealer or owner specified as a supplier in the authorization for a used truck shall accept any order placed with him for such truck (if the order is accompanied by the authorization), as if such order bore a preference rating, unless he is permitted to, and does, reject the same under the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, § 944.2. However, nothing herein shall require the sale of any used industrial power truck by any person who acquired and holds such truck for his own use and not for resale.

(iv) The restrictions contained in (i), (ii), and (iii) of this paragraph (b) (2) shall not apply to deliveries of used industrial power trucks made by one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same enterprise under common ownership where no transfer of title or ownership of such trucks is involved, or to deliveries of any used industrial power trucks owned by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, from one department to another within any such agency, or from any of such agencies to any other of such agencies.

(3) Authorizations. Application for authorization of the War Production Board required by paragraph (b) (1) and (2) shall be made by the purchaser on Form WPB-1319 prepared in accordance with the instructions for such form. The War Production Board may grant such application unconditionally or upon specified conditions, including the requirement that the order be placed with a supplier named by the War Production Board, or that the order shall only cover such model, type or size of truck as may be designated by such Board.

(c) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(d) Standardization of models. (1) No manufacturer shall after July 10, 1942 begin the manufacture of any industrial power truck which is not a standard model. The design and structure of any standard model shall be only as specified or described in such manufacturer's catalogue or bulletin; except that electric fork trucks with capacities from 2,000 pounds to 6,000 pounds may be built in both center and end control types; and that alterations may be made in counter weights, die pullers (power winch), height of lift, voltage, battery capacity, explosion or fire prevention features, and the length or width or type of fork or ram.

(2) On and after August 15, 1942, no manufacturer shall begin the manufacture of any standard model which is not an approved standard model. Approved standard models for each manufacturer shall be only those industrial power trucks listed hereafter and from time to time by order or orders supplementary to this order. The provisions of paragraph (d) (1) hereof relative to changes in design and structure shall be applicable to approved standard models.

(3) On or before the 15th day of October and of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board a report on Form WPB-1262 (formerly PD-385), which shall include (i) such manufacturer's proposed production schedules so far as then planned, but in any event, for not less than the three calendar months following the filing of the report; and (ii) his proposed delivery schedules so far as then planned, but in any event for not less than the one calendar month following such filing. The production schedules for the three calendar months, and the delivery schedules for the one calendar month following the filing of the report shall be deemed to be approved by the War Production Board upon the receipt of the report by the War Production Board, unless the War Production Board shall otherwise direct. The War Production Board may, at any time, change any schedules; direct the cancellation of any order shown on any schedule; prescribe any other schedule for production or deliveries for any period, regardless of whether a schedule for such period, or any part thereof, has been reported by the manufacturer, or theretofore approved by the War Production Board; allocate any order listed on the report to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any industrial power truck so listed to any other person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall produce or deliver any industrial power truck except in accordance with schedules approved or prescribed by the War Production Board, as above provided; and no manufacturer shall alter any such approved or prescribed production or delivery schedules unless authorized or directed to do so by the War Production Board.

(e) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as issued and as amended from time to time.

(2) Existing contracts. Fulfillment of contracts in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts are entered into before or after July 10, 1942. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for default, under any contract or order, which shall result directly or indirectly from his compliance with the terms of this order.

(3) [Revoked July 10, 1943.]

(4) [Revoked July 10, 1943.]

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the War Production Board in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

(6) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. This letter must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plan or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(7) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C.; Ref.: L-112.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1293—BUILDING MATERIALS

[Limitation Order L-157, Schedule III, as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

MANUALLY-OPERATED WOOD AND SPECIAL PURPOSE SAWS

§ 1293.4 Schedule III to Limitation Order L-157—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, stamps or otherwise fabricates manually-operated wood and special purpose saws.

(2) "Manually-operated wood and special purpose saws" means the following saws:

(i) Handsaws, crosscut and rip.
(ii) Mitre, cabinet, and back saws.
(iii) Compass and keyhole saws and nests of saws.
(iv) Special purpose handsaws of the kinds listed in Table 4.
(v) Pruning saws.
(vi) Butcher saws.
(vii) Buck, cordwood and pulpwood saws.
(viii) Crosscut saws, two-man.
(x) Ice saws.

(3) "Lend Lease government" means the government of any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," (Lend-Lease Act).

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order L-157, the production and distribution of manually operated wood and special purpose saws shall be limited to the types, grades, sizes and number of models set forth in Appendix A of this schedule, except that in any calendar year a producer may manufacture saws, which saws shall not be subject to the limitations of types, grades, sizes and number of models of this schedule and Appendix A thereto for export and shipment to Canada, or for export under a license issued by the Foreign Economic Administration or to fill an order of a Lend Lease government, in a combined dollar sales volume not to exceed the amount of his total dollar sales export production of manually operated wood and special purpose saws for the calendar year 1941, or in a combined dollar sales volume not to exceed 6% of his total production of manually operated wood and special purpose saws during the calendar year 1941, whichever dollar sales value is the greater.

The provisions of this schedule shall not restrict in any way the manufacture of saws to fill orders for export received by a producer on or before the 31st day of December 1942.

(c) No producer shall produce during any calendar year any saws listed in:

(i) Table 2 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 2 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941;

(ii) Table 3 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 3 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941;

(iii) Table 4 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 4 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941; or

(iv) Table 5 of Appendix A of this schedule in excess of 20% of the dollar sales volume of the total annual production by him of all saws so listed in said Table 5 during the twelve months period ending December 31, 1941.

The percentage limitations on the total annual production as established in subparagraph (c) of this schedul shall not include saws produced for delivery for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration of the United States.

(d) Effective date of simplified practices. On and after October 19, 1942, no producer shall put in process any steel for the purpose of manufacturing a manually-operated wood or special purpose saw other than a manually-operated wood or special purpose saw conforming to the sizes, specifications and standards as established by paragraph (b) and Appendix A of this schedule. On and after December 18, 1942, no producer shall manufacture, assemble or fabricate any manually-operated wood or special purpose saw not conforming to the sizes, specifications and standards established in paragraph (b) and Appendix A of the schedule, except with the express permission of the War Production Board. All saws fabricated prior to December 18, 1942, may be shipped without special permission.

(e) Records covering material, work in process, etc. Each producer of manually-operated wood and special purpose saws shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

EXPLANATIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(1) "Model" as used in the following Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, and 10 shall designate one combination of saw details. Such details as are not specified may be selected by the manufacturer, provided that the different combinations of details for a given kind and grade of saw do not exceed the number of models to which such saw is limited.

(2) "Gages" as referred to in the following Tables are Birmingham or Stubs' wire gages, and are subject to commercial tolerances.

(3) "Length & Width of Blades" as referred to in the following Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7a, 8, 9, and 10 are subject to commercial tolerances, except where minima and maxima are specified.

(4) [Revoked Mar. 10, 1944]

GRADES OF HANDSAWS

A-Grade. Blades shall be of best quality selected saw steel, free from harmful dirt, segregation, and inclusions. The steel shall be either alloy steel or carbon steel, but both kinds may not be used. If carbon steel is selected, the steel shall be cross rolled and show a fine fracture grain; and the carbon content shall be not less than 0.80, or more than 0.95 per cent, phosphorus and sulphur not more than 0.035 per cent, and silicon not less than 0.15 per cent.

The blade shall be tempered to a Rockwell hardness of not less than 48 or more than 52 on the C scale.

The blade shall be true and full taper ground, i. e., uniform in thickness along the entire length of the cutting edge, tapered in thickness from the tooth edge to the back and along the back from the handle to the point. This taper is to be uniform and not less than 4 gages. The thickness of the cutting edge shall be not less than 0.032 in. or more than 0.042 in., and the thickness of the back at the handle not less than the cutting edge.

The teeth of cross cut saws shall be bevel filed, and the teeth of rip saws filed straight through. The teeth shall be set, but the set shall not extend more than one-half the depth of the tooth.

Handles shall be of suitable hardwood, properly seasoned, and free from cracks, checks, and other defects, and shall be given a protective coating to aid in preventing warping, swelling, or shrinkage. Handles shall be fastened to blades with not more than 5 steel screws.

The blade of each saw shall be permanently branded to permit its identification.

B-Grade. Blades shall be of standard quality steel free from harmful dirt and inclusions, and shall show a fine fracture grain. The carbon content shall be not less than 0.70, or more than 0.95 percent, phosphorus and sulphur not more than 0.040 percent, and silicon not less than 0.15 percent. The blade shall be tempered to a Rockwell hardness of not less than 46, or more than 48 on the C scale.

The blade shall be taper ground, uniform in thickness along the entire length of the cutting edge, tapered in thickness from the tooth edge to the back and along the back from the handle to the point. This taper is to be uniform and not less than 2 or more than 3 gages. The back at the handle shall not be thinner than the cutting edge.

The teeth of both cross cut and rip saws to be filed and set, but the set shall not extend more than one-half the depth of the tooth.

The handle shall be of seasoned hardwood, free from cracks, checks, or other defects, shall be given a protective coating to aid in preventing warping, swelling, and shrinkage, and shall be fastened to the blade with not more than 4 steel screws.

The blade of each saw shall be permanently branded to permit its identification.

C-Grade. No C-Grade handsaws shall be manufactured on and after the 28th day of December 1942 except to fill orders received by the manufacturers on or before the 21st day of December 1942, but no such C-Grade handsaws shall be manufactured on or after the 5th day of February 1943.

Private brands. The blades of all handsaws manufactured for distribution under private brands shall have the qualities specified above, and shall be permanently branded to permit their identification. The handles of such saws may vary in design from the manufacturers' standard: Provided, That no manufacturer shall make, for any saw distributed under private brands, more than 3 different designs of handles in addition to his standard handles.

[1] The figures in this column designate the maximum different combinations of characteristics in which a given class and length of saw may be made by a single manufacturer, subject to the limitations given below. The characteristics referred to are (1) grade, (2) type of teeth, (3) amount of taper (including flat ground as zero taper), (4) gage or width at cutting edge, and (5) length.

(a) Saws of classes 1, 2, and 3 are permitted to be made in any one of the above characteristics as between two saws of the same class and length would make them different saws. They might, of course, differ in all those characteristics.

(b) Saws of classes 4, 5, and 7 are permitted to be made in two types of teeth, but not more than two different saws in each length in the same class and length and type of tooth, but of different grade or gage, may vary slightly in width. If a manufacturer elects to make them in only one type of teeth, he may make more than two different grades.

(c) Saws of class 6 are permitted to be made in not more than two different grades, but not more than two different saws in each length in the same class and length and type of tooth, but of different grade or gage, may vary slightly in width.

(d) Saws of class 8 are permitted to be made in only one type of teeth, but not more than two different saws in each length in the same class and length and type of tooth, but of different grade or gage, may vary slightly in width.

PART 3102—NATIONAL EMERGENCY SPECIFICATIONS FOR STEEL PRODUCTS

[Limitation Order L-211, Schedule 3, Revocation]

BARBED WIRE, WIRE FENCE, WIRE NETTING AND WIRE FLOORING

Section 3102.4 Schedule 3 to Limitation Order L-211 is hereby revoked. This revocation does not affect any liabilities incurred under the schedule. The production and delivery of barbed wire, wire fence, wire netting and wire flooring remain subject to all other applicable regulations and orders of the War Production Board.

Note: Specific restrictions on ornamental fence and chain link fence are contained in Conservation Order M-126.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

PART 3133—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[General Limitation Order L-188 as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

LOOSE LEAF METAL PARTS AND UNITS

§ 3133.45 General Limitation Order L-188—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Binder" means a blank book, loose leaf book or cover.

(2) "Unit" means a complete device designed to hold together loose leaves, covers, paper products or other materials in a binder.

(3) "Part" means a component used in the construction of a unit.

(4) "To fabricate" means to change the shape or form of metal in any manner.

(5) "To assemble" means to combine parts into completed units. It does not mean to attach completed units to binders.

(b) Allotments. In any calendar quarter, it is the intention of the War Production Board to allot iron or steel to a fabractor of loose leaf metal parts and units in an amount equal to 18¾ percent by weight of metal fabricated by him into metal parts and units in the calendar year 1941.

(c) Order M-126. Conservation Order M-126 does not apply to binders.

(d) Restrictions on materials. No metal other than iron, steel, or zinc may be used in fabricating metal parts or units for binders. Zinc may be used only for the purpose of applying a protective coating or plating.

(e) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing Form WPB-1477 (PD-500), referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-188.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-64, as Amended March 16, 1944]

CASKETS, SHIPPING CASES AND BURIAL VAULTS

§ 3291.245 General Limitation Order L-64—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Casket" means a container in which it is intended to place a human corpse for interment.

(2) "Burial vault" means a container in which it is intended to place a casket containing a human corpse for interment, and shall include burial boxes.

(3) "Shipping case" means a container in which it is intended to place a casket containing a human corpse for shipment and to which handles have been been attached in accordance with railroad shipping regulations.

(4) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the production, upholstering, finishing or lining of caskets, shipping cases, burial vaults or parts made specifically for incorporation into those products.

(5) "Metal liner" means a metal container which is inserted into a wooden casket or burial box in order to provide hermetical sealing.

(6) "Metal" means metal or metallic substances in any form except metallic substances contained in powders, sprays, paints and pastes (see Conservation Orders M-1-g and M-9-c-3).

(7) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(8) "Handle hardware" means hardware attached to the outside of a casket or shipping case for carrying purposes.

(9) "Design" means the construction essentials of a casket which distinguish that casket from another casket. For the purposes of this order, two or more caskets identical in every respect other than species of wood, size, handle hardware, interior linings, upholstery, textile coverings or color of wood finishes shall be considered one design. Two or more caskets identical in every respect but containing different contours of moldings, pilasters or corners shall be considered two or more designs.

(10) "Preferred order" means any order, contract or subcontract placed by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(b) Restrictions on production of caskets. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of caskets, or process, fabricate, work on or assemble any caskets containing any metal, except

(i) Handle hardware for caskets consisting of

(a) Assemblies of bars, ears, arms or tips containing antimony, lead, aluminum or zinc which were completely fabricated and assembled prior to March 28, 1942; and

(b) Handle arms containing antimonial lead and steel fabricated on or after provisions of M–38–c as amended or any appeal granted under that order provided that not more than three pounds of antimonial lead, and 14 ounces of steel shall be used per casket.

(ii) Nameplates manufactured from secondary antimonial lead weighing not more than 14 ounces; and

(iii) Any metal parts which have been manufactured under an appeal from this order or any other order granted after June 30, 1942.

(iv) Not more than 10 pounds of iron and steel per casket of which not more than 7 pounds may be contained in handle hardware.

(2) On and after May 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall

(i) Cut a portion out of the body of the casket so as to make a dropside style;

(ii) Cut the ogee top so as to make a full couch style;

(iii) Cut panels on basic and half couch caskets except at center of panel or two inches or less off center of panel in length;

(iv) Use backing strips or filler strips on base moldings;

(v) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(vi) Use any interior fitting except what is known as basic or regular, half couch or hinged top fittings; or

(vii) Process or fabricate parts for elliptic end caskets.

(3) On and after May 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on, assemble, finish or upholster any caskets, or parts for caskets, which do not conform to the specifications contained in Schedule A attached to this order, except that

(i) Plastic caskets produced from molds or forms completed prior to March 3, 1943 need not conform to the specifications on size of caskets contained in Schedule A but shall conform to all other specifications contained in Schedule A, and

(ii) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(4) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble more designs of caskets than the following:

(i) Twelve designs of adult caskets (five feet six inches or more in inside bottom length);

(ii) One design of children's caskets (less than five feet six inches in inside bottom length);

(iii) One additional institution or hospital design (including both children and adults' sizes);

(iv) One design of still born containers; and

(v) Any other designs specifically authorized by the War Production Board pursuant to an application for permission to manufacture, fabricate or assemble substitute designs in place of designs produced on or after May 1, 1943.

(c) Restrictions on production of metal liners. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of metal liners or produce any metal liners containing any metal, except

(i) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(ii) Lead to be used for soldering purposes, provided that such lead shall not contain more than 21% of tin by weight;

(iii) Any iron or steel the manufacture or assembly of which has been specifically authorized by the granting of an appeal prior to March 3, 1943;

(iv) Not more than fifty pounds per metal liner of iron and steel or galvanized steel not exceeding 26 standard gauge in thickness, provided that any manufacturer who possessed in his inventory prior to March 28, 1942, iron and steel, galvanized steel, terne sheet, or copper bearing steel exceeding 26 standard gauge in thickness may use more than fifty pounds of such steel per metal liner.

(2) No person shall use a metal liner except when hermetical sealing is required

(i) To comply with federal, state or local government laws and regulations for the transportation or interment of a human corpse; or

(ii) In fulfillment of preferred orders.

(3) No manufacturer or jobber shall sell or otherwise dispose of a metal liner to any person unless such person furnishes the manufacturer or jobber with a certificate in substantially the following form, manually signed by that person or his authorized agent:

(d) Restriction on the production of shipping cases. (1) Except in fulfillment of preferred orders, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of shipping cases, or process, fabricate, work on or assemble any shipping cases containing any metal except not more than 7 pounds of iron and steel per shipping case of which not more than 5 pounds may be contained in handle hardware.

(i) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(ii) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(2) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(3) On and after May 1, 1943, except in fulfillment of preferred orders, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any shipping case, or parts for shipping cases, which do not conform to the specifications contained in Schedule A, attached to this order.

(e) Restrictions on production of burial vaults. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of burial vaults, or process, fabricate, work on or assemble any burial vaults containing any metal, except not more than two pounds of iron and steel per burial vault and not more than 15 pounds of iron and steel for reinforcing purposes for a concrete vault.

(i) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(ii) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(2) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(3) No manufacturer shall procure or acquire any iron and steel for use as reinforcing material in the production of concrete burial vaults except wire mesh of 10 gauge or heavier wire with openings of 16 square inches or larger, produced from iron or steel in the form of rerolled rail stock, "top cuts" or discarded steel. Such wire mesh shall not be procured or acquired in a greater amount than is necessary for 60 days' production of concrete vaults.

(4) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(5) On and after May 1, 1943, except in fulfillment of preferred orders, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any burial vaults or parts for burial vaults which do not conform to the specifications contained in Schedule A attached to this order.

(f) Restrictions on use and transfer of caskets which exceed the dimensions specified in Schedule A. On and after June 1, 1943, no manufacturer or jobber shall sell, deliver or otherwise dispose of a casket which exceeds the dimensions specified in Schedule A attached to this order to any person unless such person furnishes the manufacturer or jobber with a certification in substantially the following form, manually signed by that person or his authorized agent.

(1) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(2) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(j) Reports. (1) Each manufacturer of caskets shall file with the War Production Board a catalogue illustration, photograph, snap shot (post card size) or sketch of each design which he proposes to produce under paragraph (b) (4) showing the casket closed and no lining, except that head lid lining may be shown. Each design shall be identified by the factory catalogue number or other distinguishing identification which may be placed on the reverse side of each illustration submitted, together with the manufacturer's name and address.

(2) Each manufacturer who makes any metal liners for caskets shall file on or before the tenth of the month following the month in which he made them, Form WPB-1600 according to the instructions accompanying that form.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form WPB–1477 and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board of the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(m) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington, 25, D. C., Ref.: L–64.

(n) Applicability of regulations and other orders. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of caskets, metal liners, shipping cases or burial vaults to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

Restrictions on size	Maximum dimension (shown in inches)					Maximum inside dimensions of wood burial vaults and shipping cases used with caskets specified (shown in inches)			Net amount of lumber which may be contained in finished product (shown in board feet)
	Length		Width		Height
	Inside bottom edge	Overall outside length	Inside top edge	Overall outside width	Overall outside height	Length	Width	Depth	Casket specified	Burial box	Shipping case
Institution caskets	75	81	22	24¾	16	84	26½	17	46	66	69
Octagon and flaring square caskets without base and rail moldings	75	81	22	24¾	20	84	26½	21	55	71	75
Octagon and flaring square caskets with base and rail moldings	75	81	22	26½	20	84	28½	21	60	73	77
Vertical square caskets	75	81	22	26½	20	84	28¼	21	67	73	77

Burial boxes and shipping cases exceeding these dimensions may be produced for plastic or extra size caskets provided that such caskets are not produced in violation of any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board. No manufacturer shall produce or accumulate extra size caskets in excess of the minimum amount necessary to satisfy demands made pursuant to paragraph (i) of this order. Extra size caskets, burial vaults and shipping cases may contain an additional net amount of lumber of 2½ board feet for each three inches of additional length and three board feet for each two inches of additional width.

Extra size caskets may be made in only three designs in addition to an institution or hospital casket design and shall be produced in multiples of three inches additional length and two inches in additional width.

A tolerance of one-half inch in length and one-fourth inch in width is permitted from the specifications of caskets and burial boxes contained in this schedule.

	Caskets	Burial vaults and shipping cases
Restrictions on lumber, laminated lumber and plywood.	Not more than 1" thick before milling operations, except: (1) 1½" before milling operations for ogee molding provided no backing strip is used on ogee. (2) 2" before milling operations for combined side and base or rail molding.	Not more than 1" thick before milling operations. Not more than 1 thickness of wood on any part, except: (1) top battens not exceeding 3" in width and 1" in thickness. (2) corner cleats not exceeding 2½" in width and 1" in thickness, and (3) 2 skids not exceeding 1" in width and thickness respectively.
Finishing restrictions	Not more than: One coat of stain. One coat of wood filler, and One coat of sealing primer. Not more than: Two coats of varnish or similar coating material for transparent finishes or Two coats of varnish or similar coating material for artificial grain finishes or Two coats of enamel for opaque finishes. Not more than: Two different colors of transparent finishes for each species of wood used, and Two different colors of opaque finishes for each design. Two colors of artificial grain finishes may be used in place of transparent finishes, if desired.	Not more than 1 coat of varnish, paint or similar coating material. No nitro-cellulose lacquers.
Restrictions on linings, covering materials, pillows and foot rolls.	No materials in counter linings (upholstery) except cotton fabric. Maximum quantities of rayon lining materials per casket: 9 yards with hinged top fitting, 7 yards with half couch fitting and 5¼ yards with basic fitting. A manufacturer may increase the amount of yards used in the above fittings by 10% when used in extra size caskets (for the purpose of this schedule each yard contains 1296 square inches). No rayon lining material in the foot half of basic or half couch caskets. No rayon materials as a bed covering in any casket. No aprons on basic caskets. No plus effects on lids (panels) or ogees on any casket. No foot rolls in any casket nor more than 1 pillow in any casket.	Not applicable.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[General Limitation Order L–267, as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

PHOTOGRAPHIC AND PROJECTION EQUIPMENT, ACCESSORIES, AND PARTS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron, steel and other critical materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.145 General Limitation Order L–267—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted photographic equipment" includes any of the following, when containing any critical materials except in joining hardware: Still cameras (except aerial), motion picture cameras (except aerial gun sight aiming point), motion picture projectors (except 35 mm. motion picture projectors), still projectors and enlargers. It does not include: (i) any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–54–c (office machinery); (ii) Any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–206 (X-ray equipment); (iii) X-ray tanks, X-ray hangers, X-ray illuminators, X-ray driers and X-ray cabinets; (iv) Any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–226 (printing and publishing machinery, parts and supplies); (v) Any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–190 (scales, balances and weights).

(2) "Restricted photographic accessories" includes any of the following, when containing any critical materials except in joining hardware or fasteners: Camera accessories, 16 mm and 8 mm projection accessories, 35 mm reels and cans, darkroom and studio accessories, photographic lenses in mounts, photographic shutters for still cameras other than built-in shutters, and photographic carrying cases.

(3) "Critical materials" means iron, carbon steel, alloy steel, aluminum, zinc, copper and copper base alloy.

(4) "To put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material (whether raw, semi or fully fabricated material) from that form in which it is received by him, or the first assembly by a manufacturer of material which is not changed in form, when the change or assembly takes place in the production of restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories or parts for those products.

(5) "Preferred order" means any purchase order or contract for the Account of the Army, Aircraft Resources Control Office (ARCO), Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Maritime Commission, Office of Strategic Services, or armed forces of foreign governments allied to the United States, or any order stating on its face that the products ordered are for eventual delivery to one of those organizations.

(b) Production of certain cameras and projectors prohibited. No manufacturer shall make or assemble portable hand cameras of the amateur box or fixed focus type, amateur 8 mm cameras, 8 mm projectors or parts for such products.

(c) Restrictions on production and delivery for preferred orders. (1) No manufacturer shall produce or deliver any restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories, or parts for such equipment or accessories to fill preferred orders, except in accordance with quotas specifically approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–3038.

(2) Each manufacturer must file Form WPB–3038 with the War Production Board on or before the fifteenth of March, June, September and December, showing his proposed production and delivery for preferred orders.

(3) In passing on these forms it will be the general policy of the War Production Board to distribute preferred orders for restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories, and parts for such equipment and accessories throughout the industry, taking into consideration the productive capacities of the various plants, the needs of the preferred claimants, the adaptability of various plants to the production of the specific items ordered, and the nature of the labor market. The War Production Board will give notice to all manufacturers of the total estimated dollar value of preferred order shipments and the individual percentage of such total tentatively allocated to each manufacturer.

(d) Restrictions on production for other than preferred orders. (1) No manufacturer shall put into process in any calendar quarter to fill other than preferred orders more critical material than 12% of the average quarterly amount (by weight) of critical materials put into process by him in 1941.

(2) The restrictions on the use of critical materials in paragraph (d) (1) do not apply to critical materials put into process in the production of the following items to fill other than preferred orders: photographic lenses in mounts, photographic shutters, other than built-in shutters, film reels and cans, photo copy equipment, identification equipment, micro filming equipment. However, these items shall not be manufactured except according to a quota approved under paragraph (d) (3).

(3) No manufacturer shall produce any restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories or parts for such equipment or accessories for other than preferred orders, except according to quotas specifically approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–3038.

(4) Each manufacturer must file Form WPB–3038 with the War Production Board on or before the fifteenth of March, June, September and December, showing his proposed production and delivery for other than preferred orders.

(e) Restrictions on delivery for other than preferred orders. No manufacturer shall deliver any new restricted photographic equipment or new photographic accessories or new parts for those products for other than preferred orders except:

(1) To fill an order bearing a rating of AA–5 or higher.

(2) As authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–1319 in response to an application on that form filed with the nearest field office of the War Production Board.

(3) Any restricted photographic accessory or restricted photographic equipment which has a manufacturer's list price, including federal excise tax, of ten (10) dollars or less.

(4) Any part for restricted photographic accessories or restricted photographic equipment delivered to a manufacturer for use in the production of those products as permitted by this order.

(5) Any part for use as a repair or replacement part.

(f) Applicability of regulations and other orders. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories, or parts for such equipment and accessories to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(g) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–267, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating the grounds of the appeal.

NOTE: The application forms and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–267.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M–300 as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

CHEMICALS AND ALLIED PRODUCTS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of those chemicals and allied products subject to this order for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3293.1000 General Allocation Order M–300—(a) Purpose and effect. The purpose of this general allocation order is to provide a central framework for allocation of chemicals and allied products. Materials subject to this order are listed in Appendices A, B and C attached.

Three general systems of allocation are provided for in this order, following the outline of allocations now in general use for chemicals. Appendix A materials are allocated on customers' Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600) and suppliers' Form WPB–2946 (formerly PD–601). Appendix B materials are allocated on suppliers' Form WPB–2947 (formerly PD–602), on the basis of certified statements of proposed use from each customer. Appendix C materials are allocated on suppliers' Form WPB–2947 (formerly PD–602), on the basis of applications on customers' Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600) for large orders and certified statements of end use to the supplier from customers ordering intermediate quantities.

A separate schedule under this general order is issued for each subject material. The schedule details the information required for applications, and may contain special exemptions or additional requirements modifying the terms of the general order.

The appendices in this order outline the requirements for applying for each material and show the governing schedule numbers.

The general order will be amended and reprinted in its entirety from time to time, with all changes to date. New or amended schedules will be issued at the same time, or may be issued during the intervening period, in which case Appendices A, B and C will be amended and reprinted separately with all changes to date. Schedules remain in effect until individually amended and will not be reissued each time the general order is reissued or amended.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Material" means any chemical or allied product listed in Appendix A, B or C, as defined in the schedule governing that material.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Supplier" means any person who produces or imports a material or who purchases a material for resale as such.

(4) "Initial allocation date" means the date when a material first becomes subject to allocation under this order, or when it first became subject to allocation under another order prior to its transfer to this order, whichever date is earlier.

Appendix A Materials—General Requirements

(c) Delivery, acceptance of delivery, and use. On and after the initial allocation date, no supplier of an Appendix A material shall deliver it to any person, no person shall accept delivery of an Appendix A material from a supplier, and no person shall use an Appendix A material, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application under this order.

Appendix B Materials—General Requirements

(d) Delivery and use by suppliers. On and after the initial allocation date, no supplier of an Appendix B material shall use or deliver it to any person, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application under this order.

(e) Certified purchase orders. With respect to material ordered for delivery on and after the initial allocation date:

(1) Each person ordering an Appendix B material from a supplier shall furnish a certified statement of end use with his purchase order in accordance with Appendix D.

(2) Each person shall use material delivered on a certified purchase order only as certified, unless advised by his supplier that a particular specified use has been denied or limited by the War Production Board or unless otherwise specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. However, any person not a supplier may redeliver material to a supplier without restriction.

(3) Each supplier within a week after receipt of authorization to ship shall notify his customer of denial in whole or in part by the War Production Board of any item or items on a certified purchase order placed by the customer.

Appendix C Materials—General Requirements

(f) Delivery. On and after the initial allocation date, no supplier of an Appendix C material shall deliver it to any person, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application under this order.

(g) Acceptance of delivery. On and after the initial allocation date, no person shall accept delivery during any allocation period from all suppliers of an aggregate quantity of an Appendix C material in excess of the quantity specified in Column 3 of Appendix C, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application under this order.

(h) Use. On and after the initial allocation date, no person shall use an Appendix C material except as follows:

(1) As specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application on Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600); or

(2) For the purpose and in the quantity stated in the use certificate furnished with the purchase order against which the material was delivered, unless advised by the supplier that a particular specified use has been denied or limited by the War Production Board.

(i) Certified purchase orders. (1) Each person ordering an aggregate quantity of an Appendix C material within the limits specified in Column 4 of Appendix C from all suppliers for delivery during any allocation period, shall furnish each supplier with a use certificate in accordance with Appendix D.

(2) Each supplier within a week after receipt of authorization to ship shall notify his customers of denial in whole or in part by the War Production Board of any item or items on their certified purchase orders.

Additional Reports and Certificates—Special Requirements

(j) Past use and inventory report. Periodic or one-time reports on Form WPB–3442 covering past use and inventory may be required by the applicable schedule.

(k) Supplementary use certificates. Persons required to file statements of use with respect to materials subject to this order may be required by the applicable schedule to obtain supplementary statements of use from their customers.

Existing Stocks on Initial Allocation Date

(l) Suppliers' stocks. The restrictions on delivery and use of Appendix A, B, and C materials shall apply to all stocks of each supplied on the initial allocation date. Stocks of suppliers who resell exclusively on small orders are exempted by paragraph (o) (4).

(m) Exemption for stocks of suppliers who consume. If a supplier customarily maintains inventories of an Appendix A, B or C material for his own consumption separately, both physically and on his books, from his inventory of the material for sale, his stocks on the initial allocation date for his own consumption shall be subject to the provisions of the following paragraph (n) regarding consumers' stocks and not to the restrictions of paragraph (l) above regarding suppliers' stocks. Prior to the initial allocation date, no supplier shall transfer any more material to his inventory as a consumer than his rated orders for derivatives of the material compared with his rated orders for the material itself would permit under Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(n) Consumers' stocks. Any person not a supplier may freely use, deliver or accept delivery of any Appendix A, B or C material which he had in stock on the initial allocation date or which was in transit consigned to him prior to that date, unless otherwise expressly provided in the applicable Schedule (indicated by asterisk in Column 7 of Appendix A).

Small Order Exemption

(o) Small order deliveries by suppliers. A supplier may fill small orders without application or specific authorization, if he delivers not more than the small order exemption quantity specified in Appendix A, B or C to any customer in any allocation period, if he has received small order certificates when so required, and if the total amount delivered does not exceed the sum of the following:

(1) The amount which he has been specifically authorized, upon application on the applicable supplier's form (WPB-2946 or 2947) to deliver on small orders;

(2) The amount which he has received pursuant to specific authorization or certification for redelivery on small orders;

(3) The amount which he himself acquired on small orders and has not used for other purposes;

(4) The amount which he had on hand on the initial allocation date, if he sells exclusively on small orders.

(p) Acceptance of delivery and use of small order quantities. Any person during each allocation period may use and accept delivery of the small order exemption quantity provided in Appendices A, B and C for each material, provided that:

(1) The total accepted from all suppliers during each allocation period shall not exceed in the aggregate one small order exemption quantity;

(2) Quantities received under the small order exemption shall be used only for experimental purposes if additional quantities of the material are received during the same allocation period on specific allocation;

(3) Use of the material is subject to any special limitations on use contained in the applicable schedule (noted with a "u" in the small order exemption columns of Appendices A, B and C);

(4) Acceptance is subject to the filing of a special small order cerificate when required by the applicable schedule (noted with a "c" in the small order columns of Appendices A and C).

Territorial and Import-Export Provisions

(q) Territorial limitations. This order shall apply only to acts occurring within the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia, unless otherwise provided in the applicable schedule.

(r) Imports. Application and authorization under this order shall not be required for importation of an Appendix A, B and C material into the United States, acceptance of delivery of the material by the consignee and delivery by such consignee to, and acceptance by, any person who purchased or contracted to purchase the material prior to its importation. No person who acquires an Appendix A, B or C material under this exemption shall use it after the initial allocation date except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application under this order. Nothing contained in this order limits the requirements of General Imports Order M-63.

(s) Exports. (1) No supplier shall export or deliver for export on Appendix A, B or C material after the initial allocation date except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application under this order, or except to fill exempt small orders. A producer who is also an exporter shall treat the export part of his operations as a separate entity for the purpose of this order. An exporter applying on Form WPB-2945 (formerly PD-600) for allocation and to the Foreign Economic Administration for an export license for the same material subject to this order, shall file both sets of applications together with the Foreign Economic Administration.

(2) Authorized deliveries for export must be made within the authorized period, unless the exporter notifies the supplier and the War Production Board in writing that delivery must be postponed to a later specific period, in which case the limitation of duration of authorization in paragraph (t) is automatically waived, subject to any special directions from the War Production Board. After an exporter has accepted an authorized delivery for export he may export the material at any time to the destination for which allocation was made without further application or authorization under this order.

Duration of Authorizations

(t) Duration of authorization for delivery. If it is not practicable for a supplier to make all deliveries in the allocation period for which authorized, he may complete them as early as practicable in the next month. However, authorization shall terminate if the purchaser fails to place his order before the end of the allocation period or if the purchaser requires postponement of delivery beyond 10 days after the allocation period.

(u) Duration of authorization for acceptance of delivery. A purchaser may accept delivery after the allocation period but shall notify the War Production Board and hold the material intact subject to direction from the War Production Board if he knows or has reason to believe that the shipment was made after the authorization for delivery had expired.

(v) Duration of authorization for use. Authorization for use on Form WPB-2945 (formerly PD-600) shall be valid during the allocation period for which the authorization was issued and the following month. Any unused portion remaining thereafter shall not be used for any purpose until further authorized or directed by the War Production Board.

Action by War Production Board

(w) Individual actions. In addition to regular allocations under this order, the War Production Board may at any time issue special directions to any person with respect to:

(1) Use, delivery or acceptance of delivery of an Appendix A, B or C material; or

(2) Production or processing of an Appendix A, B or C material; or

(3) Preparation and filing of forms and certificates required by this order or by its schedules, subject to approval by the Bureau of the Budget when required by Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(x) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Toll arrangements. In the case of any toll arrangement where raw materials are converted into any Appendix A, B or C material by any person for the owner of the raw materials, the owner shall be considered the producer for the purpose of applications and authorizations under this order, and the Appendix A, B or C material may be delivered to him without restriction.

(2) Laboratories. This order is subject to the provisions of Supplementary Order P-135-a, which contains optional provisions for filing of small order and end use certificates by laboratories ordering reagent chemicals, and for acceptance by laboratories of small order deliveries of reagent chemicals.

(3) Equivalent quantities. The provisions of this order relate to quantities of material and not to the identity of any particular lot of material.

(4) Full container adjustments. A specifically authorized delivery (not including an exempt small order delivery) may be increased to the extent necessary to avoid shipping partly filled containers, if a container in the nearest practicable size is used. The person accepting overshipment shall hold the excess material as an advance shipment on subsequent allocations, and shall use it only for the purpose authorized for the subsequent allocation against which it is credited, or shall hold it in inventory subject to further directions from the War Production Board.

(5) Allocated inventory. Material which is allocated for inventory shall not be used or disposed of for any purpose, except as specifically directed by the War Production Board. Material which has not been used for the purpose for which it was allocated shall revert to inventory as if originally allocated for inventory. Pending receipt of material allocated for a particular purpose, stocks on hand may be used for that purpose. The quantity withdrawn from allocated inventory must be replaced upon receipt of the allocated material.

(6) Applicability of regulations. This order, its schedules, and all transactions affected thereby, are subject to all applicable War Production Board regulations, as amended from time to time.

(7) Approval of reporting requirements. Forms WPB-2945, 2946, 2947 and 3442, and the instructions in this order and in its Appendices and schedules for applications and reports regarding materials subject to this order, have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(8) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or of its schedules or who, in connection with such order or schedule, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priority assistance.

(9) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemical Bureau, Washington 25, D. C.; Ref: M-300—(specify applicable schedule number).

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

APPENDIX D—USE CERTIFICATE GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

(1) Each person required to file a use certificate with a purchase order for material subject to this order shall furnish the supplier with a certified statement of proposed use of the material in substantially the following form, either placed on or attached to the purchase order:

(Statement of quantity of listed material required for each specified product and end use—see instructions in the applicable schedule and the instructions in paragraphs (10) and (11) of Appendix E for description of proposed use.)

USE CERTIFIED—REF. M-300

Name of purchaser

By: _____
(Signature and title of duly authorized officer)

(2) In the event two or more end uses are involved in a single purchase order, the amount of the material required for each use shall be listed as a separate item. Each item shall bear an identifying number so that it will be possible for the supplier to advise his customer by purchase order number and item number as to the action taken in the supplier's application for authorization to make delivery.

(3) A written purchase order placed by any department or agency of the United States Government pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act) shall constitute a use certificate for the purpose of this order, if the purchase order specifies the Lend-Lease contract or requisition number.

(4) A certified statement on Form WPB-2945 (formerly PD-600), or on any equivalent form, of quantities of material ordered for each intended product and end use, shall constitute a use certificate for the purpose of this order.

(5) The special certificate specified in Supplementary Order P-135-a may be used by laboratories when applicable instead of the above certificate.

APPENDIX E—FORMS WPB-2945, 2946 AND 2947—GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

CUSTOMERS' FORMS

Customers' Form WPB-2945 (formerly PD-600). Each person requiring specific authorization to use or accept delivery of a material subject to this order shall file application on Form WPB-2945 in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following general instructions:

(1) Where to obtain copies. Copies may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(2) Special instructions in schedules. The applicable schedule may contain special instructions for applying for the particular material, supplementing or modifying the following general instructions.

(3) When application is required. Application for specific authorization is required for use or acceptance of delivery during any allocation period of a quantity exceeding the small order exemption in Column 5 of Appendix A, or of a quantity specified in Column 3 of Appendix C, or for use of an Appendix A, B or C material which has previously been allocated for a different purpose or for inventory.

(4) Time of filing. Application for regular allocation shall be filed or mailed in time to reach the War Production Board on or before the date specified in Column 3 of Appendix A or C.

(5) Number of copies and where to file. Prepare five copies, retain one, send one (reverse side blank) to the supplier, if any, and send three copies (original certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M-300-_____ (specify schedule number). Exporters, however, when applying to the Foreign Economic Administration for an export license for material for which War Production Board allocation is requested, shall send both sets of applications to the Foreign Economic Administration.

(6) Applications regarding suppliers and inventory. When applying only for use from inventory, specify "Inventory" as supplier in the heading. When applying for material from other companies as suppliers, file separate sets of applications for each supplying company. A combined application may be made to accept delivery and use material from another company as supplier, and to use an additional quantity from inventory. It will be presumed that applications which name another company in the heading as supplier relate only to acceptance of delivery and use of material from that supplier, unless it is clearly indicated that part of the application relates to use of an additional quantity from inventory. This may be indicated by specifying the requested quantity from inventory separately in Column 2 (quantities requested) and by specifying in Column 10 (Remarks) "From Inventory".

(7) Heading. Fill in as indicated, specifying as WPB Order No., "M-300-_____" (specify Schedule number).

(8) Table I. Specify in the heading the allocation period for which authorization for acceptance of delivery or use is sought.

(9) Columns 1 and 2. Fill in as indicated, subject to the instructions in the applicable Schedule.

(10) Column 3. Specify the proposed primary use of the material sought in terms of the proposed primary product to be made from the material (as indicated in the applicable Schedule), or specify the use as for resale, export or inventory of the requested material in original form.

(11) Column 4. Fill in as follows:

Opposite any primary product in Column 3 which is subject to allocation, specify in Column 4 only the allocation order number (and Schedule number, if allocated under General Allocation Order M-300).

Opposite any primary product in Column 3 which is not under allocation, specify in Column 4 the end use accurately and briefly, giving Army or Navy specification or contract numbers, or Lend-Lease requisition and contract numbers, when practicable.

Opposite "resale" in Column 3, suppliers shall write into Column 4 "upon further authorization" or "for exempt small orders". Suppliers who resell in both large and small quantities should specify "upon further authorization" for the total quantity ordered, and should apply on their suppliers' Form WPB-2946 or 2947 for authorization to deliver an aggregate quantity for small orders.

Opposite "export" in Column 3 specify in Column 4 the name of the individual company or governmental agency to whom, or for whose account, the material will be exported, the country of destination, and the governing export license or contract number, unless Lend-Lease, in which case merely specify the Lend-Lease contract and requisition number.

Opposite "inventory" in Column 3, write into Column 4, "subject to further authorization".

(12) Columns 9 and 10. Leave blank, except for remarks, if any, in Column 10.

(13) Tables II, III and IV. Fill in as indicated except as otherwise provided in the applicable schedule. In Columns 15 and 16, report entire physical inventory, whether or not subject to valid authorization or exemption on the dates specified. Suppliers who both sell and consume the material shall keep separate accounts of their sales and consumption inventories, reporting only the latter on customers' Form WPB-2945.

(14) Table V. Fill in only when and as required by the applicable schedule.

SUPPLIERS' FORMS

Suppliers' Forms WPB-2946 and 2947 (formerly PD-601 and 602). Each supplier requiring specific authorization to make delivery shall file application on Form WPB-2946 for an Appendix A material and on Form WPB-2947 for an Appendix B or C material, in the manner prescribed in these forms, subject to the following general instructions:

(15) Where to obtain copies. Copies may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(16) Special instructions in schedule. The applicable schedule may contain special instructions for applications to deliver the particular material, supplementing or modifying the following general instructions.

(17) When application to deliver is required. Application for specific authorization to deliver an Appendix A, B or C material is required for any delivery by a supplier after the initial allocation date which is not subject to small order exemption.

A supplier who wishes to divert to his own use any part of his own production shall list his own name on the applicable supplier's form as in the case of any other customer, in addition to applying on customer's Form WPB-2945 (formerly PD-600) when so required.

(18) Time of filing. Applications for regular allocation shall be filed or mailed in time to reach the War Production Board on or before the date specified in Column 4 of Appendix A or Column 3 of Appendix B or Column 6 of Appendix C.

(19) Number of copies and where to file. Prepare five copies, retain one, and send four copies (original certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M-300 ——— (specify schedule number).

(20) Number of sets. File a separate set of forms for each separately located plant or distributing point, unless otherwise expressly provided in the applicable schedule.

(21) Heading. Fill in as indicated, specifying as WPB Order No. "M-300 ———". (specify schedule number).

(22) Table I. Fill in as indicated on Form WPB-2946 (formerly PD-601). List customers alphabetically, as far as practicable. On Form WPB-2947 (formerly PD-602) group customers according to end use and list alphabetically within each group, as far as practicable. If the applicant supplier wishes to use any part of his own production, he should list his own name as a customer on his supplier's form as in the case of any other customer. An aggregate quantity may be requested for exempt small orders without listing individual customers' names. In the case of Appendix C materials specify "WPB-2945" without further use description in Column 1-a of Form WPB-2947 opposite the names of customers who have filed copies of Form WPB-2945 with the applicant supplier.

(23) Table II. Fill in as indicated. In Column 10 and 13 report stocks on physical inventory basis regardless of whether any part of the stock is subject to valid authorization to deliver on the date specified. In Column 16, specify a quantity no greater than what is estimated will be available for allocation during the requested allocation period, taking into account undelivered balances on still valid prior authorizations.

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[General Preference Order M-21-b-1, as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

GENERAL STEEL PRODUCT DISTRIBUTORS

Section 3294.81 General Preference Order M-21-b-1 is amended to read as follows, effective April 1, 1944. Up to that date, General Preference Order M-21-b-1 as amended January 13, 1944, will govern.

§ 3294.81 General Preference Order M-21-b-1—(a) Purpose and scope. This order tells how a distributor obtains deliveries of general steel products for his own stock or for direct delivery to his customers. The rules governing his purchases of merchant trade products are contained in General Preference Order M-21-b-2, and the rules governing his deliveries of all types of steel products to consumers are contained in CMP Regulation No. 4.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Steel" means carbon steel, alloy steel, and wrought iron, in the forms and shapes listed in Schedule I to CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Alloy steel" means alloy steel as defined in Order M-21-a.

(3) "Carbon steel" means any steel (including wrought iron) other than alloy steel.

(4) "General steel product" means any of the steel products listed in Schedule A of this order.

(5) "Product group" means any of the 17 numbered groups of general steel products listed in Schedule A of this order.

(6) "Type" means (i) carbon steel, or (ii) stainless steel, or (iii) other alloy steel.

(7) "Base tonnage" of a distributor for any product group and type at any location means the tonnage of that product group and type certified to that distributor for that location by the War Production Board on form GA-996. In general, the base tonnage of any product group and type will be the tonnage delivered by that distributor from stock at that location during the first three months of 1941. In no event will a base tonnage be established for a distributor at any location except for product groups and types which he was regularly receiving into stock from producers on or before August 9, 1941.

(8) "Distributor" means any person (including a warehouse, jobber, dealer, or retailer) who receives physical delivery of steel into his stock for sale or resale in the same form, or after performing such operations as cutting to length, shearing to size, torch cutting or burning to shape, sorting and grading, pipe threading, or corrugating or otherwise forming sheets for roofing and siding. A person who, in connection with any sale, bends, punches or fabricates steel for final use or assembly shall not be considered a distributor with respect to that sale.

(9) "Delivery" includes deliveries received on consignment.

(c) Purchases for stock—(1) From a producer; only replacement orders permitted. A distributor may not order general steel products for his stock from a producer except to replace general steel products delivered from his stock at one or more locations during the previous 90 days to consumers in accordance with CMP Regulation No. 4, or to other distributors in accordance with this order, plus scrap accumulated in the course of warehouse operations and actually sold to a scrap dealer or melter and reported to the War Production Board on Form WPB-2888, and which he has not previously replaced or ordered for replacement. Within these limits, a distributor may order any general steel product for his stock from any producer.

(2) From a producer; quantity limits on product groups. No distributor may order steel plates (product group No. 3), mechanical tubing (product group No. 8), pressure tubing (product group No. 9), or sheets and strip, hot rolled (product group No. 11) from producers for delivery to his stock, unless he has a base tonnage for the product group and type ordered. No distributor may order any of these product groups and types from producers for delivery to his stock during any calendar quarter in excess of 150% of his base tonnage for such product group and type.

(3) From nother distributor; replacement orders. A distributor may order general steel products for stock replacement from another distributor in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as when he purchases from a producer.

(4) From another distributor; salvaged and excess steel. In addition, a distributor may order for his stock from another distributor any general steel product items which the latter has purchased from a holder of idle or excess inventories in accordance with paragraph (c) (5) of this order, or has salvaged from material purchased as scrap. Such material does not have to be ordered on a replacement basis, and previous deliveries from stock are not needed to support such an order. However, the distributor making such a delivery may not use it to support his own stock replacement order with a producer or another distributor.

(5) From a holder of idle or excess inventories. In addition, a distributor may order any general steel products for his stock from a holder of idle or excess inventories on a "special sale" as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 13. Such material does not have to be ordered on a replacement basis, and previous deliveries from his stock are not needed to support such an order.

(6) How to place orders. Each order for general steel products for shipment to a distributor's stock must bear the words "For distributor's stock." On orders placed with producers for product groups for which the distributor has a base tonnage for the location where the material will be received into stock, he should also place the serial number assigned him on his GA-996 certificate; but this serial number must not be used on any other sort of order. In addition, an order placed under paragraph (c) (4) must bear the word "salvage" or "excess" to show that the order is for the sort of material described in that paragraph. This will constitute a representation to the seller and to the War Production Board that the purchase order complies in all respects with the requirements of this order. No other endorsement or form is required.

(7) Status of orders for delivery to stock. An order placed with a producer in acordance with this paragraph (c) and bearing the distributor's serial number, or an order placed with a holder of idle or excess inventories, will be considered an authorized controlled material order. Any other order placed in accordance with this paragraph (c) may, but need not, be accepted; any part of the order which is accepted will be considered an authorized controlled material order.

(d) Purchases for direct delivery to a customer—(1) Placing of orders. A distributor who receives from a customer an order which he is permitted to fill under CMP Regulation No. 4 or under paragraph (c) above, or an order which has been specifically authorized by the War Production Board, and who wishes to arrange for direct delivery from a supplier to the customer, must furnish with his own purchase order a copy of the endorsement received by him from the customer including the customer's name, or a copy of the specific permission granted by the War Production Board. The distributor may not specify delivery to his own warehouse unless the order is for less than a minimum carload; and in the latter case, the material must be promptly redelivered by him to his customer. A distributor may not use any such sale to support an order for stock replacement.

(2) Status of orders. An order placed in accordance with this paragraph (d) may, but need not, be accepted by the supplier. Any part of the order which is accepted shall be considered an authorized controlled material order. If a producer rejects such an order designating shipment to a consumer when he has open space available to fill it, he must immediately notify the distributor in writing that he is prepared to fill an authorized controlled material order direct from the consumer or through another person.

(e) Warehouse load directives. A distributor may replace orders in accordance with paragraph (c) for any general steel product with any producer. However, when necessary to secure an equitable distribution of any scarce general steel product, the War Production Board may direct producers to reserve each month a part of their production of such product to fill authorized controlled material orders bearing distributors' serial numbers. In order to take advantage of the tonnage reserved for any month, a distributor must submit his orders in accordance with paragraph (c) to a producer not later than the expiration date stated in the warehouse load directive. A producer may fill distributors' orders for that month received after the expiration date but may not reserve any space for them. A producer may not, until after the expiration date, schedule distributors' orders which do not bear a serial number.

(f) Earmarked warehouse stocks. The War Production Board may establish earmarked stocks of general steel products with any distributor. Deliveries to and from such stocks must be made in accordance with specific directions which will be issued to the distributor when the earmarked stock is established.

(g) Establishing an initial stock. This paragraph covers three groups: persons who have not previously been authorized to act as distributors of general steel products, distributors wishing to purchase for stock a product group which they have not previously handled, and distributors who have not previously purchased general steel products from producers but who now wish to do so.

(1) New distributors. A person who has not previously been a distributor of any general steel products from stock may purchase an initial inventory of general steel products from a holder of idle or excess inventories in accordance with paragraph (c) (5) of this order. Deliveries from such stock may be replaced in accordance with paragraph (c) of this order.

(2) New product lines or sources of supply. A distributor wishing to add a new general steel product group to his stock, or any distributor who wishes to place orders with producers for the first time may do so by placing orders in the manner authorized by paragraph (c) of this order.

(h) General provisions—(1) Reports. Each distributor must file a quarterly report on form WPB-2888 for each location at which his total base tonnage of general steel products, or his receipts of general steel products into stock from producers during the quarter, exceeds 150 tons. In addition, if his base tonnage of tool steel (product group No. 7) for any location, or his receipts of tool steel into stock at any location from producers during the quarter, exceed 25 tons, he must file this report. Each report must be filed in duplicate with the Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D. C., on or before the 15th day of January, April, July and October. Each distributor, even though he is not required to file this report, must maintain for at least two years a record of his shipments from stock, receipts into stock, and inventory of each product group on hand at the end of each calendar quarter. This record must be available for inspection at any time by authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from this order must be made by letter referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal. In emergency cases, appeal may be made by telegraph.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All appeals or other communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Warehouse Branch, Steel Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., References: M-21-b-1.

(4) Violations. Any distributor or other person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Special instructions. The War Production Board may from time to time issue instructions to distributors with respect to making, withholding, accepting or refusing deliveries.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[General Preference Order M-21-b-2, as Amended Mar. 16, 1944]

MERCHANT TRADE PRODUCTS DISTRIBUTORS

Section 3294.86 General Preference Order M-21-b-2 is amended to read as follows, effective April 1, 1944. Up to that date, General Preference Order M-21-b-2, as amended November 4, 1943, will govern.

§ 3294.86 General Preference Order M-21-b-2—(a) Purpose and scope. This order tells how a distributor obtains deliveries of merchant trade products for his own stock or for direct delivery to his customers. The rules governing his purchases of general steel products are contained in Order M-21-b-1, and the rules governing his deliveries of all types of steel products to consumers are contained in CMP Regulation No. 4.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Steel" means carbon steel, alloy steel, and wrought iron, in the forms and shapes listed in Schedule 1 to CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Merchant trade products" means any of the steel products listed in Schedule I of this order.

(3) "Product group" means any of the 12 numbered groups of merchant trade products listed in Schedule I of this order.

(4) "Base period" means

(i) For merchant trade products in product groups 20–23, inclusive, the calendar year 1940.

(ii) For merchant trade products in product groups 24–31, inclusive, the 12 months ending June 30, 1941.

(5) "Base tonnage" of a distributor for any product group at any location means the tonnage of that product group delivered by producers to his stock at that location during the base period, or such other tonnage as may be specifically established by the War Production Board. By the use of Form WPB-2889 a distributor can shift his base tonnage for any product group from one producer to another.

(6) "Distributor" means any person (including a warehouse, jobber, dealer, or retailer) who receives physical delivery of steel into his stock for sale or resale in the same form, or after performing such operations as cutting to length, shearing to size, torch cutting or burning to shape, sorting and grading, pipe threading, or corrugating or otherwise forming sheets for roofing and siding. A person who, in connection with any sale, bends, punches or fabricates steel for final use or assembly shall not be considered a distributor with respect to that sale.

(7) "Delivery" includes deliveries received on consignment.

(8) "Minimum carload" means a carload weighing not less than 40,000 lbs.

(c) Purchases for stock—(1) From a producer; only replacement orders permitted. A distributor may not order merchant trade products for his stock from a producer except to replace merchant trade products which he delivered from his stock at one or more locations during the previous 12 months to consumers in accordance with CMP Regulation No. 4, or to other distributors in accordance with this order, and which he has not previously replaced or ordered for replacement. Within these limits, a distributor may order any merchant trade product for his stock from any producer. When placing orders with producers a distributor should, so far as possible, specify deliveries in not less than minimum carload quantities in order to save transportation.

(2) From another distributor; replacement orders. A distributor may order merchant trade products for stock replacement from another distributor in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as when he purchases from a producer.

(3) From another distributor; salvaged and excess steel. In addition, a distributor may order for his stock from another distributor any merchant trade product items which the latter has purchased from a holder of idle or excess inventories in accordance with paragraph (c) (4) of this order, or has salvaged from material purchased as scrap. Such material does not have to be ordered on a replacement basis, and previous deliveries from stock are not needed to support such an order. However, the distributor making such a delivery may not use it to support his own stock replacement order with a producer or another distributor.

(4) From a holder of idle or excess inventories. In addition, a distributor may order any merchant trade products for his stock from a holder of idle or excess inventories on a "special sale" as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 13. Such material does not have to be ordered on a replacement basis, and previous deliveries from stock are not needed to support such an order.

(5) How to place orders. Each order for merchant trade products for shipment to a distributor's stock must bear the words "For distributor's stock." In addition, an order placed under paragraph (c) (3) must bear the word "salvage" or "excess" to show that the order is for the sort of material described in that paragraph. This will constitute a representation to the seller and to the War Production Board that the purchase order complies in all respects with the requirements of this order. No other endorsement or form is required.

(6) Status of orders for delivery to stock. An order placed with a producer in accordance with this paragraph (c) for delivery of a merchant trade product to stock at a location where the distributor has a base tonnage for that product group with that producer, or an order placed with a holder of idle or excess inventories, will be considered an authorized controlled material order. Any other order placed in accordance with this paragraph (c) may, but need not be accepted; any part of the order which is accepted will be considered an authorized controlled material order.

(d) Purchases for direct delivery to a customer—(1) Placing of orders. A distributor who receives from a customer an order which he is permitted to fill under CMP Regulation No. 4 or under paragraph (c) above, or an order which has been specifically authorized by the War Production Board, and who wishes to arrange for direct delivery from a supplier to the customer, must furnish with his own purchase order a copy of the endorsement received by him from the customer including the customer's name, or a copy of the specific permission granted by the War Production Board. The distributor may not specify delivery to his own warehouse unless the order is for less than a minimum carload; and in the latter case, the material must be promptly redelivered by him to his customer. A distributor may not use any such sale to support an order for stock replacement.

(2) Status of orders. An order placed in accordance with this paragraph (d) may, but need not, be accepted by the supplier. Any part of the order which is accepted shall be considered an authorized controlled material order. If a producer rejects such an order designating shipment to a consumer when he has open space available to fill it, he must immediately notify the distributor in writing that he is prepared to fill an authorized controlled material order direct from the consumer or through another person.

(e) Warehouse load directives. A distributor may place orders in accordance with paragraph (c) for any merchant trade product group with any producer. However, when necessary to secure an equitable distribution of any scarce merchant trade product, the War Production Board may direct producers to reserve each calendar quarter a part of their production of such product to fill authorized controlled material orders from distributors for whom they have a base tonnage covering a specific location or locations. In order to take advantage of any such reserved tonnage, a distributor must submit his orders in accordance with paragraph (c) to the producer then holding his base tonnage, not later than the expiration date stated in the warehouse load directive. A producer may fill distributors' orders for that quarter received after the expiration date, but may not reserve any space for them. A producer must consider the first orders for any product group received from any distributor for delivery in a particular calendar quarter as applicable to the tonnage of such product group reserved for that distributor during that quarter. In addition to the tonnage of any product group which a distributor may order against the amount reserved for him by a warehouse load directive, he may place other properly supported orders for that product group with the same or any other producer in accordance with paragraph (c). However, a producer may not schedule such orders for delivery until after his obligations under the warehouse load directive have been filled, or unless when the order is received he knows that he will have material for shipment to distributors over and above the tonnage required to satisfy his warehouse load directive.

(f) Earmarked warehouse stocks. The War Production Board may establish earmarked stocks of merchant trade products with any distributor. Deliveries to and from such stocks must be made in accordance with specific directions which will be issued to the distributor when the earmarked stock is established.

(g) Establishing an initial stock. This paragraph covers three groups: persons who have not previously been authorized to act as distributors of merchant trade products, distributors wishing to purchase for stock a product group which they did not handle during the base period, and distributors who did not purchase merchant trade products from producers during the base period but who now wish to do so.

(1) New distributors. A person who has not previously been a distributor of any merchant trade products from stock may purchase an initial inventory of merchant trade products from a holder of idle or excess inventories in accordance with paragraph (c) (4) of this order. Deliveries from such stock may be replaced in accordance with paragraph (c) of this order.

(2) New product lines or sources of supply. A distributor wishing to add a new merchant trade product group to his stock, or any distributor who wishes to place orders with producers for the first time may do so by placing orders in the manner authorized by paragraph (c) of this order.

(h) General provisions—(1) Reports. Each distributor who has a base tonnage for any of the following groups of merchant trade products at any one location in excess of that shown below must file with the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., a quarterly report for such location in duplicate on Form WPB-2892.

	Net tons
Pipe (product groups 20–21)	240
Tin and terne plate (product group 22)	240
Galvanized, lead coated, or painted sheets and strip, including roofing and siding, valley, ridge roll, and flashing (product group 23)	240
Wire products (product groups 24–31)	240

This report must also be filed by a distributor for any of his warehouses which during the quarter receives into stock from producers over 100 tons of merchant trade products. Each distributor, whether or not he is required to file this report, must maintain for a period of not less than two years a record of his shipments from stock, receipts into stock, and inventory of each product group on hand at the end of his fiscal year. This record must be available for inspection at any time by authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from this order must be made by letter referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal. In emergency cases, appeal may be made by telegraph.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All appeals or other communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Warehouse Branch, Steel Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M-21-b-2.

(4) Violations. Any distributor or other person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Special instructions. The War Production Board may from time to time issue instructions to distributors with respect to making, withholding, accepting or refusing deliveries.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

(b) List B. A certificate for a new tube may be granted for a commercial motor vehicle which meets the applicable requirements of sections 4.1 and 4.3 and is used for any important purpose not included in paragraph (a) of this section, subject to the following conditions:

(1) Certificates may be granted under this paragraph (b) only to equip commercial motor vehicles performing functions which the Board may find to be essential to the community and which are not provided for in List A of section 4.4 (a).

(2) No certificate shall be granted under this paragraph (b) if its issuance would exceed the quota applicable to new tubes or if there is pending an application for a new tube for a commercial motor vehicle eligible under section 4.4 (a) which has not been satisfied.

17. Section 5.2 (a) is amended by deleting the phrases, "or for recapping services with truck-type camelback" and "or recapped".

18. Section 5.7 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5.7 Action by suppliers. (a) If the applicant is required to turn in a tire or tube, a dealer shall not transfer any tire or tube pursuant to the certificate until he has acquired physical possession of the tire or tube being replaced.

(b) No dealer shall transfer tires or tubes until both he and the applicant have properly signed and executed the certificate in accordance with the instructions thereon.

(c) When the foregoing requirements have been fulfilled, the dealer to whom the certificate was surrendered shall deliver to the person indicated thereon, or to his agent, the exact number, type, grade and class of tires or tubes authorized by the certificate.

19. Section 6.3 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) No dealer may transfer to a consumer a tire that requires recapping or permanent repairs until such recapping or permanent repairs have been made. "Limited Service" tires may be transferred to consumers who hold a basic gasoline ration only, without certificate.

20. In the second sentence of section 6.4 (a), the words "recapping tires or" are deleted.

21. The last sentence of section 6.4 (b) is deleted.

22. In section 6.4 (d) (1), the text preceding subdivision (i), and subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii), are deleted

23. In sections 6.5 (a) (1) and (2), the phrase "or recapper" is deleted.

24. The first sentence of section 6.5 (b) is amended by deleting the phrase, "or the amount and type (based on the tables in section 6.4 (d)) of camelback" and the comma preceding it.

25. Section 6.7 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Transfers for recapping. A person may, without certificate, transfer a tire to a dealer or recapper to have it recapped and may reacquire the recapped tire.

26. Section 6.9 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) No person shall, without lawful authority, abuse, alter, damage or neglect any tire or tube in his possession or control. Failure to have a tire recapped and failure to make timely application for replacements shall constitute forms of abuse within the meaning of this paragraph.

27. In section 7.2 (b), the words "and recappers" are deleted.

This amendment shall become effective March 15, 1944.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED, AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[RMPR 239,[1] Incl. Amdt. 1-12]

LAMB AND MUTTON CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS*

Section 1364.177 (c) (3), (4), (5) and (6) are added by Amendment 12,† effective March 21, 1944, so that Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 issued by the President on October 3, 1942, to establish prices for mutton and to maintain as the maximum prices for lamb carcasses and cuts the general level of prices prevailing with respect thereto during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive. Prices determined for lamb as provided for in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation reflect the prices prevailing during such period. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of lamb and mutton prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this revised regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this revised regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act and Executive Order. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this revised regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodities from which lamb and mutton carcasses and cuts are produced a price for their products equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by the Executive Order of October 3, 1942.

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government Agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

[Above sentence added by Supplementary Order 63, 8 F.R. 12553, effective 9–11–43]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 is hereby issued.

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1364.151 Prohibition against selling lamb and mutton carcasses, lamb and mutton wholesale cuts and hotel supply cuts (fabricated meat cuts) at prices above the maximum. On and after December 23, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any lamb or mutton carcass, lamb or mutton wholesale cut, or hotel supply cut (fabricated meat cut), and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass, lamb or mutton wholesale cut, or hotel supply cut (fabricated meat cut) at prices higher than the maximum prices established pursuant to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, That on and after June 14, 1943, a war procurement agency, in addition to paying to the seller the maximum price for the commodity prescribed by the applicable provision of this regulation, may pay to Defense Supplies Corporation an amount equivalent to the meat production payments made by the Defense Supplies Corporation on account of the production of such meat.

[§ 1364.151 amended by Am. 4, 8 F. R. 7679, effective (1) as to sales or deliveries of all products other than pickled mutton, by other than wholesalers, hotel supply houses and peddler truck sellers, on June 14, 1943; (2) as to sales or deliveries of all products other than pickled mutton, by wholesalers, hotel supply houses and peddler truck sellers, on June 19, 1943; (3) as to sales or deliveries of pickled mutton by other than wholesalers, hotel supply houses and peddler truck sellers, on June 28, 1943; and (4) as to sales or deliveries of pickled mutton, by wholesalers, hotel supply houses and peddler truck sellers, on July 5, 1943. (Effective date provisions as amended by Am. 5, 8 F. R. 8677, effective 6–14–43). Amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3–1–44.

§ 1364.153 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 shall not apply to sales at retail as defined in § 1364.160 (a) (3) of this regulation or the following sales or deliveries:

[Above sentence as amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3–1–44]

(a) By a farmer of lamb or mutton from livestock bred or raised on his farm. However, this Revised Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to a sale or delivery by a farmers' cooperative and to a sale or delivery directly by a farmer of lamb or mutton if during the preceding calendar month the farmer's sales of all food products produced on his farm exceeded $75.

(b) By hotels, restaurants, soda fountains, bars, cafes, caterers, or other similar eating establishments, of meals or servings of food portions, customarily served separately or as part of a meal.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4–14–43]

(c) Deliveries made to any political subdivision or agency of any state or of the United States under contracts entered into prior to December 23, 1942: Provided, That this exemption shall not be construed to permit the upward revision of any prices fixed in such contracts.

(d) Sales in which delivery is made outside of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1364.154 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export any lamb and mutton carcass or lamb and mutton wholesale cut shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Export Price Regulation [4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[§ 1364.154 as amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3–1–44]

(b) Adjustment for transportation to critical areas. Upon a finding that a critical shortage of meat has occurred in a specific area because of the unavailability of customary sources of supply and because the established maximum prices do not contain a sufficient allowance to cover the cost of transporting meat to that area from other sources of supply, the Administrator may by order designate such area as a critical area for such period as he may prescribe. Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the order of the Administrator, the Regional Administrator for the area, or any District Manager designated by him, may in writing authorize named sellers to charge and receive for lamb and mutton carcasses and wholesale and hotel supply cuts sold to buyers in that area the added cost of transportation in addition to the applicable maximum price.

[4] 2d revision; 8 F.R. 4132, 5967, 7662, 9998, 15193.

§ 1364.156 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for suspension of licenses, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.157 Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[8] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[§ 1364.157 as amended by Supplementary Order No. 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43]

§ 1364.158 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1364.159 Records and reports. The reporting and recording provisions of this regulation are approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(a) Every person subject to this revised regulation shall, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in §§ 1364.165 and 1364.173 of this revised regulation as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

[§ 1364.159 as amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43]

(b) (1) Every separate selling establishment making sales to purveyors of meals pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183, inclusive, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is in effect customary records including a complete and accurate record of each such sale and/or delivery showing the date of sale, the name and address of the buyer, the weight and grade of each hotel supply cut (fabricated meat cut) sold to a purveyor of meals, the price charged and the total cost thereof. All sales of kosher meats are to be shown separately.

(2) On or before March 28, 1944, each separate selling establishment making sales to purveyors of meals pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183, inclusive, shall file a statement in duplicate with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration showing:

(i) The total volume by weight of all meats, (fresh, frozen, cured and/or corned, cooked, dried, canned or otherwise processed, including sausage and similar products thereof) and variety meats and edible byproducts (defined in § 1364.174 (a) (13) hereof) sold and/or delivered by such establishment from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, other than to war procurement agencies;

(ii) The total volume by weight of all meats (fresh, frozen, cured and/or corned, cooked, dried, canned or otherwise processed, including sausage, and similar products thereof) and variety meats and edible by-products (defined in § 1364.174 (a) (13) hereof) sold and/or delivered from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, to purveyors of meals other than to war procurement agencies;

(iii) The total volume by weight of all beef, veal, lamb and mutton, not including canned meats, variety meats and edible by-products (defined in § 1364.174 (a) (13) hereof), sausage and similar products thereof, sold and/or delivered from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, to purveyors of meals other than to war procurement agencies.

(3) Not later than the tenth day following each three months quota period ending August 31, November 30, February 28 or 29, or May 31, each separate selling establishment making sales to purveyors of meals pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183, inclusive, shall file with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, a statement showing for such three months quota period, the total volume by weight of fabricated meat cuts sold or delivered by such selling establishment to purveyors of meals, other than the War Shipping Administration and/or contract schools.

(4) Not later than the tenth day following each three months quota period ending August 31, November 30, February 28 or 29, or May 31, each hotel supply house making sales and/or deliveries to purveyors of meals pursuant to paragraph (c) of §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 in addition to sales of retail meat cuts and/or variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products to ultimate consumers, pursuant to § 1364.168a, shall file with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement showing for such three months quota period (i) the total volume by weight of all meats (fabricated, fresh, frozen, cured and/or corned, cooked, dried, canned or otherwise processed, including sausage and similar products thereof) and/or variety meats and edible by-products sold by such establishment other than to contract schools and/or the War Shipping Administration; (ii) the total volume by weight of all retail meat cuts and/or variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products sold by such establishment to ultimate consumers: Provided, however, That no such report need be filed under this paragraph (b) if the similar report required by § 1364.407 (e) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169[9] (Beef and Veal Carcasses and Wholesale Cuts) is filed in lieu thereof.

(1) "Person" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency therof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this revised regulation shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Seller" means any person who sells, supplies, disposes, barters, exchanges, transfers, or delivers, or contracts or offers to do any of the foregoing, including but not limited to a car route or packer's branch house. Where a person makes sales from more than one place of business, each separate place of business of such person shall be deemed to be a separate seller. Each distribution point from which a car route or car routes originate shall be deemed a separate seller.

(3) "Sales at retail" means sales to the ultimate consumer: Provided, That no wholesaler, processor, packer, slaughterer, branch house, hotel supply house, purchaser for resale, car route, commercial user, purveyor of meals, or government agency shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer, except that a sale to a purveyor of meals on usual retail terms by a retailer at least 80% of whose sales of meat during the preceding calendar month were made to ultimate consumers shall be deemed a sale at retail.

(4) "Retailer" means a seller regularly and generally engaged in making sales at retail.

(5) "Hotel supply house" means a separate selling establishment which is not physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment; which is engaged in the fabrication of meat cuts and the sale of fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals, including the sale of lamb and mutton carcasses and/or wholesale cuts, variety meats and edible by-products, and sausage to purveyors of meals, and in the sale of retail meat cuts, variety meats and edible by-products, and/or processed meat products to ultimate consumers pursuant to the provisions of § 1364.168a of this regulation; and which during the period of September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, sold and/or delivered to purveyors of meals, other than war procurement agencies, not less than 70 percent of the total volume by weight of all meats, variety meats and edible by-products, and/or sausage and similar products thereof, sold by it.

[Subparagraph (5) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43; Am. 7, 8 F.R. 10444, effective 7-29-43; Am. 8, 8 F.R. 11082, effective 8-7-43 and Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]

(6) "Kosher dealer" means a person who maintains a kosher selling establishment at or through which he regularly sells kosher meat as such.

(7) "Lamb" means the whole or any portion of the carcass of the young animal of the genus Ovis, approximately a year old or less, as ascertained by the objective tests commonly recognized in the meat packing industry and specifically by the "break joint" and by bone and flesh coloration. For the purposes of this revised regulation, the term "lamb" includes, except as otherwise provided, the whole or any portion of a yearling carcass which is a carcass from an animal of the ovine species that has passed the lamb age and lost to an appreciable extent the flesh characteristics which are peculiar to lamb, but has not reached, at time of slaughter, that state of maturity which characterizes mutton and which is in no event older than 24 months.

(8) "Mutton" means the whole or any portion of the carcass from a mature animal of the genus Ovis, approximately 20 to 24 months old or more, which has passed the lamb stage as ascertained by the objective tests commonly recognized in the meat packing industry and specifically by the "break joint" and by bone and flesh coloration.

[Former subparagraph (9) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43; revoked by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44. Former (10) and (11) redesignated (9) and (10) by Am. 11]

(9) "Kosher cuts" mean cuts derived from lamb or sheep slaughtered, approved and stamped under rabbinical supervision and sold under rabbinical supervision.

(10) "Purveyor of meals" means:

(i) Any restaurant, hotel, cafe, cafeteria or establishment which purchases meats and where meals, food portions or refreshments are served for a consideration;

(ii) The War Shipping Administration of the United States;

(iii) Any person operating an ocean going vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in foreign, coastwise or inter-coastal trade, to the extent that meat is delivered to him as ship's stores for consumption aboard such vessel;

(iv) Any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison or other similar institution, which is operated by any federal, state, or local government agency thereof.

(v) "Contract school" means and includes any person who is feeding, pursuant to a written contract with an agency of the United States, personnel of the armed services of the United States, fed under the command of a commissioned or non-commissioned officer or other authorized representative of the armed services of the United States.

[Subparagraph (11) added by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 10444, effective 7-29-43; (v) added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 11082, effective 8-7-43]

[Former subpart B (§ 1364.161 through § 1364.165) revoked by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44. Former Subpart C redesignated as B and title amended by Am. 11]

SUBPART B—PROVISIONS RELATING TO SALES OF MUTTON AND LAMB AT WHOLESALE

§ 1364.166 Maximum prices for lamb and mutton carcasses, lamb and mutton wholesale cuts, and hotel supply cuts (fabricated meat cuts). Subject to the maximum price instructions contained in § 1364.169, the seller's maximum prices for each grade of each lamb and mutton carcass and wholesale cut and/or hotel supply cut (fabricated meat cut) shall be the applicable zone price established for the applicable zone, as set forth in Appendix A hereof, inclusive, incorporated herein as §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in § 1364.170, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in § 1364.171. The applicable zone is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1364.169.

§ 1364.167 Duty to maintain grades and to determine maximum prices and to invoice accordingly. No person shall sell, offer to sell, ship, deliver or break and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass or wholesale cut unless it has been graded in accordance with the provisions of this section; and no person shall sell, offer for sale, or deliver and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass or wholesale cut at a price higher than that established for the grade in which such carcass or wholesale cut has been classified.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, it shall be the duty of each person to have all lambs, including yearlings, and all sheep slaughtered by or for him, or sold by him, classified by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture in accordance with the "Rules and Regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture Governing the Grading and Certification of Meats, etc.", as modified to the extent set forth in Appendix B of § 1364.527 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, and as required by § 4002.3 of OES Regulation 1,[7] Each carcass and each wholesale cut derived therefrom shall be classified into one of the grades set out below.

Lamb:
- Choice or better or AA
- Good or A
- Commercial or B
- Utility or C
- Cull or C

Yearling:
- Choice or better or A
- Good or B
- Commercial or C
- Utility or C
- Cull or C

Mutton:
- Choice or better or S
- Good or S
- Commercial or M
- Utility or R
- Cull or R

The "Specifications for Official U. S. Standards for Grades of Lamb Carcasses, Yearling Mutton Carcasses" set forth in Appendix J hereof, and incorporated herein as § 1364.185, determine the proper classifications of each carcass, except that no mutton buck may be graded higher than commercial.

(b) In any instance where any person is unable to procure the services of an official grader within 24 hours after he has made an application for grading, pursuant to section 3 of Regulation No. 4 (Grading Service) incorporated by reference, as modified, in paragraph (a) hereof, such person shall not be required to have the lamb or sheep slaughtered by, or for him, or sold by him, graded by an official grader of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture for so long a period as the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture certifies in writing that it is unable to provide him with the services of an official grader. During such period, such lamb or mutton carcasses shall be graded by such person in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) If the slaughterer is a farm slaughterer or if he is primarily the resident operator of a farm engaging only casually, and not as a business, in slaughtering sheep or lamb as a service for others, he shall not be required to have the lamb or sheep slaughtered by him graded by an official grader of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Such lamb or mutton as is sold by such slaughterer, or is slaughtered by him as a service for sale by others, shall be graded by him in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(d) Whenever any person having a financial interest in any lamb or mutton carcass which has been graded by an official grader pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof or otherwise, is dissatisfied with the determination of such official grader, such person may appeal the grading by making an application for appeal in the manner provided in Reg. No. 5 (Appeal grading) incorporated by reference, as modified, in paragraph (a) hereof, and shall thereafter give immediate notice in writing to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., of such appeal.

(e) Each invoice, sales slip or other memorandum of sale covering sales of lamb or mutton carcasses, wholesale cuts or hotel supply cuts, shall show the grade and age classification of each lamb or mutton carcass or cut sold.

[§ 1364.167 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3–27–43, Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, 5407, effective 4–14–43, Am. 9, 8 F.R. 11296, effective 7–16–43, and Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3–1–44]

§ 1364.168 Limitations on volume of sales to purveyors of meals. (a) Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no hotel supply house, packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other seller's establishment shall sell and/or deliver to purveyors of meals other than the War Shipping Administration and/or contract schools, during any three months quota period beginning June 1, September 1, December 1 or March 1, a total volume by weight of hotel supply cuts (fabricated meat cuts) in excess of 90 percent of the total volume by weight of beef, veal, lamb and mutton, not including canned meats of any kind, variety meats and edible by-products of any kind, and/or sausage and similar products thereof, sold or delivered by such selling establishment from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, to purveyors of meals other than to war procurement agencies, except that any selling establishment which was not engaged in sales of beef, veal, lamb and mutton to purveyors of meals from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, for the reason that the selling unit and all facilities thereof, were under the control of an agency of the United States Government, may determine its quota by reference to the three months quota period of 1942 immediately prior to such assumption of control: Provided, however, That any selling establishment may file an application in duplicate with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration or such other offices as may be authorized by the appropriate Regional Office, and request authorization to sell and/or deliver fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals. Such selling establishment shall allege and prove that the granting of such authorization will alleviate a critical shortage in supplies of such meat items available in the market area for purveyors of meals, which shortage has occurred because of (1) the issuance of a judicial or administrative suspension order against any person in the market area prohibiting the sale and/or delivery by any person of any meat item subject to a quota restriction under the provisions of this regulation, or (2) the voluntary or involuntary cessation or suspension of business by a person, lawfully authorized to make sales pursuant to paragraph (c) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183.

Upon proof of the foregoing, the Regional Administrator for the area or such office as may be designated by the Regional Administrator, may by order, authorize a quota for such period and subject to such terms and conditions as are deemed necessary, not in excess, however, of such portion of ascertainable quota or quotas which remain unused in the market area and which cause the critical shortage. Following the issuance to any selling establishment of such authorization the Regional Administrator for the area shall forward a copy of the application together with a copy of the authorization and such other data as were used in the determination to the Administrator at Washington, D. C., for review. After review, the Regional Administrator shall change, modify or revoke the order in such manner as the Administrator deems appropriate. However, the provisions of the Regional Administrator's order or the order of such office as may be authorized by the Regional Administrator, shall remain in full force and effect until such time as it is changed, modified or revoked.

(b) The appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration may by order, adjust the quota established by any selling establishment pursuant to paragraph (a) of this § 1364.168 in any case where it is shown that the quota so established is below an amount which represents normal seasonal demand during any three months quota period and is substantially below the quota which such selling establishment would have arrived at if determined by reference to the corresponding three months quota period of 1942. Upon proof of the foregoing, the Regional Administrator for the area may authorize such separate selling establishment by order, subject to such conditions as may be deemed appropriate, to sell or deliver a specified volume by weight of fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals during such three months quota period for which adjustment is sought: Provided, That the adjusted quota shall not be in excess of a quota determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this § 1364.168 through application of sales made during the corresponding three months quota period of 1942.

(c) Any person who violates any provision of this section may, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, be prohibited by administrative suspension order from receiving, selling, using or otherwise disposing of any fabricated meat cuts. Such suspension order shall be issued for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator or such person as he may designate for that purpose, is necessary and appropriate in the public interest or to promote the national security.

(d) This § 1364.168 and § 1364.168a are issued under the authority vested in the Administrator by Executive Order No. 9125, issued by the President on April 3, 1942; Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1–M of the War Production Board, issued on January 24, 1942, and September 12, 1942, respectively; Executive Order No. 9280, issued by the President on December 5, 1942; and Food Directives Nos. 1, 3, 5, 6 and 7 issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 1364.168a Limitation on volume of sales to ultimate consumers by hotel supply houses. (a) Any hotel supply house may sell and/or deliver to ultimate consumers during any three months quota period beginning June 1, September 1, December 1 or March 1, a volume by weight of retail meat cuts and/or variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products which are described and for which maximum prices are established in Maximum Price Regulation No. 355,[9] "Retail Ceiling Prices for Beef, Veal, Lamb and Mutton and All Variety Meats and Edible By-Products"; Maximum Price Regulation No. 336,[9] "Retail Ceiling Prices for Pork Cuts and Processed Meat Products," and Maximum Price Regulation No. 394," "Retail Ceiling Prices for Kosher Beef, Veal, Lamb and Mutton Cuts," not in excess of 20 percent of the actual sales or deliveries made by it pursuant to paragraph (a) of § 1364.168 during the same three months quota period. Such sales at retail must be made at prices not higher than those established for class 3 and 4 stores: Provided, That no hotel supply house shall make sales to ultimate consumers pursuant to this paragraph (a) until (1) such hotel supply house shall have filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement in affidavit form showing that from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, such establishment regularly and generally made sales of retail meat items to ultimate consumers from the same selling establishment in conjunction with its sales to purveyors of meals and (2) such hotel supply house has received written authorization from the appropriate Regional Office, approving such affidavit and authorizing the sale and/or delivery of fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals at maximum prices specified in paragraph (c) (1) (i) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183, inclusive, in addition to the sale to ultimate consumers of retail meat cuts and/or variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products which are described and for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 355, 336 and 394 for class 3 and 4 stores. Nothing contained in this paragraph (a) shall be construed so as to permit the sales and/or deliveries of fabricated lamb cuts and/or fabricated mutton cuts to purchasers other than purveyors of meals.

(b) Any hotel supply house whose sales or deliveries to ultimate consumers, during any three months quota period, exceed 20 percent of the actual sales or deliveries made by it pursuant to paragraph (a) of § 1364.168 during the same three months quota period, shall thereafter be required to use the maximum prices specified in paragraph (c) (1) (ii) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183, inclusive, on sales of fabricated lamb cuts and/or fabricated mutton cuts to purveyors of meals.

§ 1364.169 Maximum price instructions. The following maximum price instructions are applicable to the maximum prices set forth in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183, inclusive, (Appendices A to H inclusive).

(a) Determination of prices for sales involving fractions of a hundredweight. All prices, charges, additions and deductions are stated, except where otherwise indicated, on a per hundredweight basis. If a quantity smaller than a hundred pounds or not a multiple of one hundred pounds is sold, the charge must be adjusted accordingly. (For example, the seller is allowed to charge cost up to $0.50 per hundredweight for freezing. If only ten pounds is sold the maximum charge which may be made for freezing is $0.05; if 110 pounds, $0.55.)

(b) Determination of applicable zone prices. The applicable zone prices for all sales of lamb and mutton shall be determined as follows:

(1) Except on sales to a war procurement agency, the applicable zone price shall be the price specified in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 (Appendices A to H) for the zone in which is located the seller's distribution point. The schedule for each price zone contains a statement setting forth the states or counties in each state which are included within the price zone covered by that schedule. The distribution point is the packing or slaughtering plant, branch house, hotel supply house, warehouse, or car route unloading point:

(i) At which the buyer takes actual physical possession of the meat; or

(ii) From which delivery by the seller, otherwise than by rail, to the buyer's place of business begins; or

(iii) From which the meat, consigned to the buyer, (a) is delivered to a common carrier, other than a railroad, for shipment to the buyer, who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier, or (b) is delivered to a railroad for shipment at the carload rate to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(iv) In the case of a less than carload rail shipment, other than an express shipment to a purveyor of meals, the applicable zone price shall be the price for the zone in which is located the rail terminal point nearest to the buyer's place of business.

(v) On sales to purveyors of meals the distribution point may be, in addition to those listed, the point at which lamb or mutton consigned to the buyer is delivered to a railway express company for shipment by express to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(2) On sales to a war procurement agency the applicable zone price shall be at the option of the buyer the prices specified in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 (Appendices A to H) for, either

(i) The zone in which is located the seller's distribution point, plus all transportation charges to the point of delivery, or

(ii) The zone in which is located the point at which the buyer takes delivery.

(c) Applicable zone price of miscuts. (1) For any lamb or mutton wholesale cut which has been miscut or for any piece or portion of lamb or mutton which has been cut in a manner not authorized by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239, the applicable zone price, except on sales to a purveyor of meals by a hotel supply house, shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest priced wholesale cut. The zone price for a bracelet or chuck as defined in § 1364.174, except for a kosher bracelet or chuck when sold or offered for sale to a kosher dealer or purveyor of kosher meals, shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest priced wholesale cut.

(2) For any lamb or mutton sold to a purveyor of meals by a hotel supply house, other than a wholesale cut or a hotel supply cut as defined in § 1364.174, the zone price shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest price hotel supply cut.

(d) Sales of kosher meat limited to kosher dealers and purveyors of meals. (1) Lamb or mutton carcasses or wholesale cuts shall not be sold, offered for sale, or delivered as kosher and shall not be purchased or received in the course of trade or business as kosher by any purchaser other than a kosher dealer or a purveyor of kosher meals.

(2) If meat derived from lamb or sheep slaughtered and stamped under rabbinical supervision is sold or delivered to a purchaser other than a kosher dealer or a purveyor of kosher meals, no more can be charged or received for it than if such meat had not been derived from animals so slaughtered and stamped, and the stamp showing the meat to have been so derived must be removed from the meat prior to delivery, and such meat may not be received, offered for resale, or resold until such stamp has been removed.

§ 1364.170 Amount which may be added to applicable zone prices for lamb and mutton listed in Appendices A to H—(a) Wholesaler's selling addition. On sales of any lamb and/or mutton carcasses and cuts and/or any other meat item subject to this regulation, excluding therefrom sales made pursuant to paragraph (c) of §§ 1364.176 through 1364.183, a person who at the time of the sale is a wholesaler may add 75 cents per hundredweight to the applicable zone price: Provided, however, That no person shall charge the addition permitted by this § 1364.170 (a) unless such person shall have filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration a certified statement that the person (1) is engaged in the business of buying lamb and mutton carcasses and/or lamb and mutton wholesale cuts for resale other than at retail; (2) does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and is not owned or controlled in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities; and (3) is not a hotel supply house or peddler truck seller within the meaning of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239. The filing of such a statement shall not preclude investigation by the Office of Price Administration of the facts relating to the nature of the business carried on by the person filing the statement, or any action or proceeding arising from such investigation.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3–27–43; Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679; Am. 8, 8 F.R. 11082, effective 8–7–43; and Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3–1–44. For effective dates of Am. 4, see note following § 1364.151]

(b) Wrapping and dressing. (1) For wrapping lamb or mutton carcasses or wholesale cuts in one stockinette there may be added $0.10 per cwt.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4–14–43]

(2) For wrapping lamb or mutton carcasses or wholesale cuts in (i) an inner covering of 45-lb. or heavier natural kraft, crinkled paper, waxed, or a stockinette of a construction of yarn, 8/1; number of plies, 1; wales per inch 15; courses per inch, 14; and (ii) in an outer covering of unsized muslin, 40 inch, 48 to 44 construction, 3¾ yards to pound weight, securely sewed, as stipulated by Army or Navy specifications for export shipment, there may be added actual cost for direct material and labor not to exceed $1.00 per hudredweight.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4–14–43, and Am. 7, 8 F.R. 10444, effective 7–19–43]

(3) For dressing or wrapping lamb or mutton carcasses in two stockinettes, or in kraft paper or in other special wrapping not covered elsewhere in this regulation, involving an additional cost in excess of ten cents on sales to the war procurement agencies, or to persons operating ocean going vessels engaged in the transportation of cargo and passengers, as ship stores for consumption aboard such vessel, there may be added actual cost for direct material and labor not to exceed $0.25 per hundredweight.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 10444, effective 7–19–43]

(c) Packaging and boxing. (1) For boxing boneless lamb and boneless mutton for domestic shipment in hundred pound wood, fiber or corrugated boxes or barrels, $0.25 per cwt.

(2) For boxing for export shipment in kraft-paper-lined, weather-proof, telescoped style, solid fiber boxes bound with wire or iron bands in accordance with the specifications of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, $0.50 per hundredweight.

[Subparagraph (2) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 13117, effective 9–30–43]

(3) For packing lamb or mutton wholesale cuts in closed or sealed boxes or barrels delivered to the buyer's place of business and to be retained by the buyer on sales to a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, commercial user (not wholesaler, branch house or hotel supply house), or government agency other than a war procurement agency, there may be added $0.25 per cwt.: Provided, That this charge for packaging or boxing may not be made in addition to the charge for wrapping permitted by paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) of this section.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43, and Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]

(d) Freezing. (1) For freezing and storage by the seller, cost at published commercial rate for nearest commercial freezer not to exceed $0.50 per cwt.

(2) For freezing and storage by commercial freezer, cost at commercial rate for such freezing, plus transportation charges calculated at the lowest common carrier rate for a similar haul—both not to exceed $0.50 per cwt.

(3) If the seller is a wholesaler or hotel supply house who has paid a charge for freezing and storage under subparagraphs (1) and (2), he may upon the resale of the meat upon which the charge has been made add the amount of such charge if the meat is still in its frozen form.

[Paragraph (d) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43]

(e) Telescoped lamb and mutton. For all supplies and all operations, other than freezing, performed in trimming, preparing and wrapping telescoped style lamb and mutton, the following additions per hundredweight of the finished weight may be added to the applicable maximum prices for round-dressed carcass, pluck out, and for hindsaddle and foresaddle, respectively:

Grade	Carcass	Addition per hundredweight
		Hindsaddle	Foresaddle
AA Lamb	$0.80	$0.35	$0.45
A Lamb	.80	.95	.45
B Lamb	.80	.95	.45
C Lamb	.80	.95	.45
S Mutton	.75	1.25	.30
M Mutton	.70	1.10	.30
R Mutton	.65	.95	.30

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43; Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679; Am. 7, 8 F.R. 10444, effective 7-29-43; and Am. 10, 8 F.R. 13117, effective 9-30-43. For effective dates of Am. 4, see note following § 1364.151]

(f) Lamb or mutton kidneys. (1) For removing the outer protective membrane and cleaning of all particles and preparing lamb and mutton kidneys, $6.00 per cwt.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679]

(2) For packing lamb and mutton kidneys in one pound cartons and in shipping containers, $3.25 per cwt.

(g) Pickled mutton. For preparing pickled mutton and packaging in hardwood barrels the following addition based upon the finished weight may be added to the applicable maximum prices for round-dressed carcasses, plucks out, or cuts, $3.25 per cwt.

[Paragraph (g) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43 and Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679. For effective dates see note following § 1364.151]

(h) Melts. For removing the melts on sales to war procurement agencies:

	Per cwt.
Lamb or mutton carcasses	$0.07
Lamb or mutton hindsaddles	.15

[Paragraph (h) added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 11082, effective 8-7-43 and amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 13117, effective 9-30-43. Former (h) and (i) redesignated (i) and (j) by Am. 8]

(i) Transportation and delivery. Subject to the limitations in paragraph (i) (4) of this section the following may be added to the applicable zone prices for transporting lamb or mutton from the point of slaughter to the distribution point and for delivering from the distribution point to the buyer's place of business.

(1) For transportation from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the seller's distribution point. (i) If the distribution point from which the sale is made is not the slaughter plant where the meat was slaughtered or a slaughter or packing plant controlled by the slaughterer, and if both it and the point of slaughter are located in Price Zones 2, 3 or 4, the seller may make a charge equal to the cost of transporting the meat from the point of slaughter to the distribution point but not to exceed 75 cents per hundredweight.

[Subparagraph (i) amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 13117, effective 9-30-43]

(ii) If the distribution point from which the sale is made is not the slaughter plant where the meat was slaughtered or a slaughter or packing plant controlled by the slaughterer, and if the distribution point is located in Price Zones 1 or 5 to 10, inclusive, and the point of slaughter is located in the same price zone as the distribution point, the seller may make a charge equal to the cost of transporting the meat from the point of slaughter to the distribution point but not to exceed, $0.25 per cwt.

(2) For delivery from the distribution point to the buyer's place of business. (i) If meat is delivered by the seller to the place of business of a retailer, independent wholesaler, independent hotel supply house, purveyor of meals, or commercial user, or to the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency or other government agency, located within a radius of 25 miles from the distribution point the seller may charge, $0.25 per cwt.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43]

(ii) If meat is delivered by the seller to the place of business of a retailer, independent wholesaler, independent hotel supply house or commercial user, or to the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency or other government agency located more than 25 miles from the point of distribution, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation but not to exceed $0.50 per cwt. from a distribution point in Price Zones 1, 5 to 10, inclusive, and $0.75 from a distribution point in Price Zones 2, 3, or 4.

(iii) Where the distribution point and the buyer's place of business coincide as in the case of truck routes the seller may, at his option, treat the point of origin of the truck route as the distribution point.

(3) For delivery by a wholesaler, hotel supply house or other intermediate distributor. If the seller is a wholesaler or hotel supply house who has paid a charge under paragraph (i) of this section for delivery and/or transportation, he may upon the resale of the meat upon which the charge has been made add the amount of such charge up to $0.25 upon sales made from a distribution point located in Price Zones 1 and 5 to 10, inclusive, and up to $0.50, in Price Zones 2, 3 and 4.

[Subparagraph (3) as amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]

(4) Limitation on total charge for transportation and delivery. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraphs (i) (1) to (i) (3), inclusive, of this section, nothing therein contained shall be construed to permit a total charge for transportation and for delivery from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the place of business or receiving point of a retail seller, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, other government agency or commercial user of more than $0.50 per hundredweight in Price Zones 1, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10; or $1.00 per hundredweight in Price Zones 2, 3, and 4. The additions specified in this paragraph (i) for transportation and for local delivery may be charged: Provided, That the seller shall itemize separately on an invoice to the buyer the amount charged the buyer for transportation and/or local delivery, except that if such separate statement of transportation charges is prohibited by local law, the seller shall maintain in his own record of the transaction a separate statement of any addition for transportation or local delivery which is included in the maximum price charged.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43 and Am. 10, 8 F.R. 13117, effective 9-30-43]

(5) How to compute cost. The cost of transportation or delivery is to be computed on the basis of the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation employed.

(6) Railway express shipments. Where lamb or mutton is shipped by express to a purveyor of meals by a hotel supply house no charge may be made by the seller for transportation or delivery. The buyer pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(j) Peddler-truck selling addition. Where the seller makes a peddler-truck sale involving delivery of not more than 50 pounds of lamb and/or mutton in a total delivery of not more than 150 pounds of meat and meat products in any one day from such peddler-truck to any buyer's store door, he may add $1.25 per cwt. in lieu of the additions permitted under paragraph (i) of this section for delivery and/or transportation.

[Paragraph (j), formerly (l), added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43]

§ 1364.171 Amounts which must be deducted from the zone lamb and mutton prices listed in Appendices A to H. The following shall be deducted from the applicable zone prices:

(a) For all lamb and/or mutton carcasses and/or lamb or mutton wholesale cuts and/or other meat items subject to this § 1364.171 delivered in a straight or mixed carload shipment or sold as a part of a straight or mixed carload sale, the seller shall deduct $0.25 per hundredweight from the applicable maximum price.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679; Am. 6, 8 F.R. 9066, effective 6-30-43; and Am. 8, 8 F.R. 11082, effective 8-7-43]

(b) For lamb and mutton carcasses and wholesale cuts not graded by an official grader. For all lamb or mutton carcasses or wholesale cuts sold bone-in which do not bear the grade mark and identification of an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture at the time of sale, the seller shall deduct 12½ cents per cwt.

[Paragraph (b), formerly (c), added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43. Heading amended by Am. 11, effective 3-1-44. Former paragraph (b) revoked and former (c) redesignated (b) by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679]
[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 9066, effective 6-30-43; revoked by Am. 8]

§ 1364.172 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 239 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to lamb or mutton or in conjunction with any other commodity or services, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege or by tying agreement, combination sale or other trade understanding: Provided, That a payment by a buyer to a seller for any services performed by a buyer to a seller for icing services performed by a seller after April 14, 1943, and before delivery of lamb or mutton to a railroad whose charges are paid directly to such railroad by the buyer shall not be construed as an evasion of such price limitations if the charge for such icing services is no higher than the cost actually incurred by the seller in performing such services and no higher than the charge which could lawfully have been made by the railroad if such services had been performed by the railroad.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43]

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Unnecessarily routing lamb or mutton through any distribution point in order to obtain a higher zone price or for the purpose of making a higher delivery charge.

(2) Making or receiving a charge for delivery on the basis of a route different from that actually followed and in excess of that permitted for the route by which the lamb or mutton is actually delivered.

(3) Falsely or wrongly grading or invoicing lamb or mutton.

(4) Selling or invoicing lamb or mutton at kosher prices to other than kosher dealers or kosher purveyors of meals.

(5) Selling or invoicing lamb or mutton by hotel supply houses to persons other than purveyors of meals at the prices allowed on sales to purveyors of meals.

(6) Requiring as a condition of selling one or more commodities included within this Maximum Price Regulation that any purchaser or prospective purchaser purchase or agree to purchase any other commodity or commodities whether or not such other commodity or commodities are included within this or any maximum price regulation.

§ 1364.173 [Revoked]

[§ 1364.173 amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43; revoked by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]

§ 1364.174 Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239, the terms:

(1) "Price Zone Numbers 1 to 10, inclusive" means the geographical districts defined in §§ 1364.176 to 1364.183 (Appendices A to H).

(2) "Three months quota period" means and is limited to the following quarterly periods: June 1 to August 31, inclusive, September 1 to November 30, inclusive, December 1 to February 28 or 29, inclusive, and/or March 1 to May 31, inclusive.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43 and Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]

(3) A "wholesaler" means a wholesaler who does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and who is not owned or controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

[Subparagraph (3) as amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]
[Former subparagraph (4) revoked, and former (5) through (13) redesignated (4) through (12) by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 11082, effective 8-7-43]

(4) "Lower price zone" means a price zone having a lower zone price. "Higher price zone" means a zone having a higher zone price.

(5) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, or any agency of the foregoing.

(6) "Carload" means:

(i) A shipment by rail of fresh or frozen meat to a single delivery point, of at least the minimum weight upon which the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the delivery point, as evidenced by the tariffs of carriers, is based: Provided, That where the transportation charge for shipment of a lesser weight at the railroad carload rate will be lower than the transportation charge for such a shipment at the railroad less-than-carload rate, such lesser weight shall be considered a carload.

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks, to a single delivery point of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh and/or frozen meat, as a single transaction; and

(iii) Any single transaction wherein the buyer takes delivery at the seller's place of business of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh and/or frozen meat.

(7) "Pluck" means the lungs, liver and heart.

(8) "Round dressing" means the type of dressing in which the pelt, head, front and hind trotters, and all internal organs except kidneys and melts are removed. The pluck may be left in or out.

(9) "Wholesale cut" means, and is limited to, the following cuts meeting the following minimum specifications, derived from the carcass of the lamb or mutton, excluding the offal and other items covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation:

(i) "Hindsaddle" and "hindquarter" means the double and single hindquarters, respectively, including the 13th rib. The hindsaddle is made by cutting between the 12th and 13th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 12th rib to the point where the 12th rib turns. The cut is completed by following a line through the flank at a right angle to the chine bone. This cut is split in half through the center of the chine bone to make the hindquarter.

(ii) "Foresaddle" and "forequarter" means the double and single forequarters, respectively, and includes 12 ribs. It is the anterior portion of the carcass remaining after the removal of the hindsaddle. The foresaddle is made by cutting between the 12th and 13th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 12th rib to the point where the 12th rib turns. The cut is completed by following a line through the flank at a right angle to the chine bone. This cut is split in half through the center of the chine bone to make the forequarter.

(iii) "Legs" and "leg" mean a pair of legs and one leg, respectively. The legs are separated from the loin by cutting squarely in a line at a right angle to the chine bone, just exposing the end or point of the hip bone and leaving all of the hip bone in the leg. The cut shall be made in a straight line which is perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the hindsaddle. The pair of legs may then be split through the center to make the single leg.

(iv) "Loin" and "half loin" means the double and single loin, respectively, and is the part of the hindsaddle which remains after the legs have been removed. The loin is separated from the hindsaddle by cutting squarely in a line at a right angle to the chine bone, just exposing the end or point of the hip bone, leaving none of the hip bone in the loin.

The cut shall be made in a straight line which is perpendicular to the outside or skin surface of the hindsaddle. The loin includes the 13th rib and is not trimmed, i. e., it includes the flank, kidney and fat. The half loin is made by splitting the loin in half through the center of the chine bone.

(v) "Hotel rack" may be either the double or single rib sections from the 5th to the 12th ribs, inclusive, minus the breast. It is made by cutting the foresaddle or forequarter, starting at a point on the 12th rib not more than four inches down from the point of the eye, cutting in a straight line to a point on the 5th rib which is not more than four inches from the hollow of the chine bone on the inside, in the lamb carcass, and not more than four and one-half inches from the hollow of the chine bone on the inside in the mutton carcass. It is then separated from the yoke by cutting between the 4th and 5th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 4th rib. It may be split through the center of the chine bone to make two single rib sections.

(vi) "Yoke" means the foresaddle minus the hotel rack. It consists of the neck, brisket, breast, shanks, and shoulders. The half yoke is made by splitting the yoke in half through the chine bone and neck bone.

(vii) "Bracelet" means a subdivision of the foresaddle consisting of the ribs and breast from the 5th to the 12th ribs, inclusive. The bracelet is made by cutting the foresaddle or forequarter between the 4th and 5th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 4th rib until this rib turns to join the breast bone at which point the cut is completed by following a line through the breast at a right angle to the chine bone. It may be split through the center of the chine bone.

(viii) "Chuck" means the subdivision of the foresaddle left after cutting a bracelet and consists of the neck, shoulders, shank, and brisket. It includes the 1st to the 4th ribs. It is separated from the foresaddle or forequarter by cutting between the 4th and 5th ribs following the curvature of the ribs close to the 4th rib until this rib turns to join the breast bone at which point the cut is completed by following a line through the breast at a right angle to the chine bone. It may be split through the center of the chine bone.

[Subparagraph (viii) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43]

(ix) "4-rib shoulder" means a cut made from the yoke or chuck by cutting in a straight line starting at a point on the 4th rib not more than four inches from the hollow of the chine bone on the inside in the lamb carcass passing through a point at the forward end of the first segment of the sternum or breast bone. This cut will separate the shoulder from the brisket and shank. When the shoulder has been separated from the brisket and shank the only bone to show on the side of the shoulder other than the ribs is the arm bone. It may be split through the center of the chine bone. This cut may be made as a wholesale cut only for the purpose of preparing a boneless lamb roll.

[Subparagraph (ix) as amended by Am. 1]

(x) "Breast or shank" means either the part which remains after the 4-rib shoulder has been removed from the yoke, in which case it includes the breast, brisket and shank, or the part which remains after the 4-rib shoulder has been removed from the chuck, in which case it includes the brisket and shank.

[Subparagraph (x) as amended by Am. 1]

(xi) "Boneless lamb roll" means the boneless meat derived from a 4-rib shoulder with the neck on. This meat is entirely boned, rolled into a cylindrical shape, trimmed of loose or irregular portions at the ends, and tied, and may be wrapped in lamb or beef caul fat. This caul fat shall not exceed ½ inch in thickness at any point and shall not exceed 12 percent in weight of the finished roll.

(xii) "Lean boneless lamb or mutton" means boneless lamb or mutton meat respectively from any part of the carcass. In preparing this meat, the pluck and all cords, sinews, neck straps, kidneys, and melts are to be removed. No trimmable fat in excess of 8 percent in weight is to be left on the meat.

(xiii) "Regular boneless mutton" means boneless mutton meat from all, or any part of the carcass. In preparing this meat, the pluck and all cords, sinews, neck straps, kidneys, and melts are to be removed. No trimmable fat in excess of 30 percent in weight is to be left on the meat.

(xiv) "Kidneys, bulk" means lamb or sheep kidneys with the kidney fat removed.

(xv) "Telescoped style lamb" or "telescoped style mutton" means a lamb or mutton carcass prepared in accordance with the specifications set forth in Schedule FSCC-10, Revised February 8, 1943, Meat Products Purchase Specifications, of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture; or lamb or mutton hindsaddles, or foresaddles, prepared in accordance with the specifications set forth in Amendment 9 to that schedule.

[Subparagraph (xv) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 13117, effective 9-30-43]

(xvi) "Pickled mutton" is mutton prepared in the following manner: The kidney, melts and excessive internal fat is removed; the meat is then cut into pieces weighing two to four pounds each, from which all surface fat in excess of ¾ inch in thickness is removed, and which are free of blood clots; these pieces of meat are cured from 20 to 25 days in 100 degree pickle containing approximately one ounce of nitrate of soda per gallon, and are overhauled at five and ten days of age. After curing, the mutton is packed in hardwood barrels, 200 pound cured net weight to the barrel. The meat is topped off with 60 pounds of fine salt per barrel and sufficient new pickle of the same kind and strength as used in curing is added to fill the barrel.

[Subparagraph (xvii) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679. For effective dates see note following § 1364.151]

(10) "Hotel supply cuts" means the following cuts derived from the permitted wholesale cuts:

(i) "Leg, oven-prepared" means the leg cut as described in paragraph 9 (iii) of this section with all bones except the leg bone (femur) removed and tied. The leg bone means the bone between the stifle joint and the rump bone.

(ii) "Leg, boned, rolled, and tied" means the leg cut as described in paragraph (9) (iii) of this section prepared in the following manner: All bones are removed, the fell is pulled off the shank meat up to the stifle joint, the shank meat is either cut off and placed lengthwise in the pocket left by the aitch and leg bones, or folded back, and the meat is then rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(iii) "Loin, flank on, kidneys and suet out" means the loin cut as described in paragraph (9) (iv) of this section with the kidney and all surrounding suet and the melt removed. The fat in the loin shall be trimmed smooth and trimming by a knife shall be apparent.

(iv) "Loin, flank off, kidney and suet out" means the loin prepared as described in the preceding paragraph with the flank removed. The flank shall be removed by starting at a point on the 13th rib not more than four inches down from the point of the eye and then cutting in a straight line to a point at the other end not more than four-and-a-half inches from the chine bone.

(v) "Loin chops" means chops cut from the loin, prepared as described in the preceding paragraph with the flank off and the kidney and suet out, from which the 13th rib has been removed. To make chops, the fell is removed and the loin is then split into two parts along the center of the chine bone. Each half is further separated by making cuts straight down on lines at right angles to the chine bone. Each half loin must be cut in this manner into at least four individual chops which may be of any desired size or weight.

(vi) "Loin, boned, rolled, and tied" means the loin prepared flank on, kidney and suet out, as described in paragraph (10) (iii) of this section, from which is removed one inch of the flank containing the gristle and sinews. The 13th rib and the entire chine bone are also removed. The loin meat is then rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(vii) "Rib chops, regular" mean chops cut from the hotel rack in the following manner: The fell is removed together with all excess fat and the rack is then divided in the center of the chine bone. The single hotel rack is then divided into rib chops by splitting between the ribs into at least four rib sections which may be of any desired size or weight.

(viii) "Rib chops, 5th to 7th rib inclusive" mean chops made from the forward end of the hotel rack as described in the preceding paragraph, which include the 5th, 6th, and 7th ribs and which contain segments of shoulder-blade bone or cartilage.

(ix) "Rib chops, 8th to 12th rib, inclusive" mean chops made from the back end of the hotel rack as described in paragraph (10) (vii) of this section which include the 8th to 12th ribs and which do not contain any segments of shoulder-blade bone or cartilage.

(x) "Yoke boned, rolled and tied" means the yoke cut from a mutton carcass as described in paragraph (9) (vi) of this section with all bones removed, rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(xi) "Yoke, boneless stew" means small cubes of boneless meat derived from the yoke, none of which is more than two cubic inches in size or contains more than one-fourth inch of fat or consists of more than 25 percent fat.

(xii) "Shoulder, boneless stew" means small cubes of boneless meat derived from the shoulder, none of which is more than two cubic inches in size or contains more than one-fourth inch of fat or consists of more than 25 percent fat.

(xiii) "Shoulder, boned, rolled, and tied" means the 4-rib shoulder cut as described in paragraph (9) (ix) of this section with all bones removed, rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with at least four loops.

(xiv) "Shoulder, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the 4-rib shoulder none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size.

(xv) "Breast and shank, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the breast and shank cut as described in paragraph (9) (x) none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size.

(xvi) "Shank, braising" means a shank separated from the breast and shank cut as described in paragraph (9) (x) in the following manner: The shank is separated from the breast at the shank knuckle bones. The cut should start at the same point as that which separates the breast and shank from the shoulder. The lower fore shank bone is cut off at the knee joint.

(xvii) "Shank, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the shank cut as described in the preceding paragraph none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size.

(xviii) "Breast, regular stew, bone in" means small cubes of meat derived from the breast none of which is larger than two cubic inches in size. The breast is the part of the breast and shank which is left after the shank is severed as described in paragraph (10) (xvi) of this section. It includes the brisket.

(xix) "Hotel rack, chine removed, blade bone out" means the single hotel rack as described in paragraph (9) (v) of this section with the chine bone (backbone), including the feather bones, and the shoulder blade and shoulder blade cartilage completely removed. The chine bone is removed by cutting along the line where the ribs join the backbone.

[Subparagraph (10), formerly (11), amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43]

(11) "Peddler-truck sale" means a sale of lamb and/or mutton from a truck by a person who purchases meat at or below the ceiling price from a seller with whom he has no other financial affiliations or relationship, who takes delivery at the seller's place of business, and who does not sell or deal in meat in any manner other than sales out of stock carried in a truck, owned and driven by him: Provided, That the first record of the transaction is made by the salesman concurrently with the delivery of the product sold.

(12) "Farm slaughterer" means a person chiefly engaged in producing agricultural products as the resident operator of a farm who did not deliver meat in 1941 from the slaughter of livestock with a live weight of more than 10,000 pounds and whose current slaughter is not in excess of that permitted such slaughterers under Food Distribution Order No. 27 [11] or any superseding order.

[Subparagraphs (11) and (12), formerly (12) and (13), added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4786, effective 4-14-43]

(13) "Variety meats and edible by-products" include and are limited to those items only which are defined and for which maximum selling prices are established in Maximum Price Regulation No. 398, "Variety Meats and Edible By-Products at Wholesale" and/or Maximum Price Regulation No. 355, "Retail Ceiling Prices for Beef, Veal, Lamb and Mutton Cuts and All Variety Meats and Edible By-Products".

(14) "Fabricated meats cuts" as used in this regulation means and is limited to those hotel supply cuts which are described and for which maximum prices are established in this regulation and those fabricated beef and fabricated veal cuts which are described and for which maximum prices are established in Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, "Beef and Veal Carcasses and Wholesale Cuts".

[Subparagraphs (13) and (14) added by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 2651, effective 3-1-44]

All sales under this subparagraph are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.169 (c) and for the purposes of this subparagraph (4) the term "fabricated lamb or mutton carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications)" shall be substituted for the term "wholesale cut" in § 1364.169 (c).

For purposes of this subparagraph (4), a sale of fabricated lamb or mutton carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications) to any person authorized to make such purchase subject to the direction and control of the War Shipping Administration or to a licensed ship supplier for resale as ship stores, shall be deemed a sale to a purveyor of meals.

(5) "Fabricated lamb or mutton carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications)" means carcasses satisfying the specifications and requirements contained in War Shipping Administration Food Control Regulation No. 2. Fabricated lamb or mutton carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications), shall be graded in accordance with § 1364.167 of this regulation, and no fabricated lamb or mutton carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications) so graded shall be packed for sale and/or delivery to the War Shipping Administration or to any person authorized to make such purchase under the direction and control of the War Shipping Administration, or to a ship operator, except in the presence of official United States inspectors designated by the Food Distribution Administration, or other United States government agency regularly performing grading and/or inspection service who shall certify that the cutting, boning, trimming and other fabrication, the grade, the weight and the other specifications of the War Shipping Administration and/or the Office of Price Administration have been complied with and that the legends affixed to the package by the seller are correct. Certification by the official United States inspector shall be made by affixing a stamp or sticker to the container, which stamp or sticker shall attest the accuracy of all representations appearing upon the container.

(6) For purposes of subparagraphs (4) and (5) hereof, (i) a licensed ship supplier means any person who has been licensed by the War Food Administration under the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation No. 3, as amended, (issued October 8, 1943), to sell and/or deliver meats and other food products to ship operators and (ii) a "ship operator" means any person as defined in Food Distribution Regulation No. 3, who conducts "the business of vessels for the account of the United States under a general agency form of service agreement approved by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; or operating, as the owner or owner's agent, a vessel time chartered to the United States, represented by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; or operating a vessel, the services of which are employed by the United States, represented by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; which is owned, chartered, or operated by any allied or neutral country," or any other person conducting the business of vessels who is designated as a ship operator by the War Shipping Administration.

(a) The maximum prices set forth in paragraph (b) of this section are subject to the maximum price instructions provided in § 1364.169. To these maximum prices may be added the permitted additions, if any, specified in § 1364.170, and from them must be subtracted the required deductions, if any, specified in § 1364.171.

(b) The Zone 10 prices for carcasses and wholesale cuts are the prices specified in § 1364.177 (b), plus $1.75 per hundredweight.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679. For effective dates see note following § 1364.151]

(c) (1) The Zone 10 prices for hotel supply cuts sold to hotels, restaurants and other purveyors of meals are the maximum prices established in § 1364.177 (c) (1) plus $1.75 per hundredweight, subject to the special price instructions in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Special price instruction. (i) For hotel supply cuts derived from the foresaddle cuts of kosher lamb or mutton and sold to purveyors of kosher meals, $0.75 per hundredweight may be added to the Zone 10 prices.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 3589, effective 3-27-43, and Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7679]

§ 1364.184 Appendix I: Formula for meat marking fluid. The following formula has been approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, Meat Inspection Laboratory, to be used for marking meats under the provisions of meat inspection law:

Water	gallons	45
Pure grain alcohol, 95 per cent	gallons	38
Granulated cane sugar	pounds	100
Methyl violet	pounds	10

The methyl violet is dissolved in the alcohol and a portion of the water; the sugar is dissolved in the remaining portion of the water and added to the methyl violet solution. Thorough stirring facilitates solution of the methyl violet.

It is not necessary that the above-mentioned formula be adhered to in every detail, but the proportions indicated should not be subjected to any considerable variation; otherwise the marking qualities of the fluid may be impaired. Instead of the pure grain alcohol specified in the formula, there may be employed pure grain alcohol, denatured according to Formula 33 of the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue. When such denatured alcohol is used, it should be employed in the proportion indicated above. No additional methyl violet should be added. Instead of granulated cane sugar, pure granulated glucose may be added in the same proportion, or heavy corn sirup, if of suitable purity, may be used: Provided, Due allowance is made for the water introduced in that way. All the ingredients used in preparing the marking fluid must be free from poisonous and harmful substances.

§ 1364.185 Appendix J: Specifications for Official United States Standards for Grades of Lamb Carcasses, Yearling Mutton, and Mutton Carcasses—(a) Lamb carcasses. (1) Choice or No. 1 grade lamb carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality, but are usually slightly deficient in one or more respects as compared with Prime grade carcasses.

Choice grade carcasses are relatively short and compact, have short plump legs, broad thick backs, thick full loins, ribs, and chucks, short plump necks, and well-proportioned flanks and breasts. The general outlines resemble closely those of Prime grade carcasses. All fats are of good quality, white or slightly creamy. The outer covering of fat is smooth and usually well distributed, but may be deficient in this respect as compared with that on Prime grade carcasses. Loins and ribs are well covered with fat, which recedes to a moderately thin covering over hind legs and shoulders. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of pink flesh over the sides and a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breast and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch and over the kidneys but not excessive. The flesh is fine-grained, firm, and has a light pink color. Bones are relatively small, soft, and tinged with blood. The break joint of the forelegs shows four smooth, moist, well-defined red ridges.

(2) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade lamb carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality, but are deficient in one or more respects as compared with Choice grade carcasses.

Carcasses of this grade are well proportioned and reasonably plump but may be slightly deficient in breadth or depth across the hips, backs, or shoulders. Legs, although short and moderately plump, are more tapering than in carcasses of the higher grades. Loins, ribs, and chucks are thick and full, and necks are short and plump. There may be slight indications of paunchiness or a slight tendency toward the rangy type which is indicated by long tapering shanks and somewhat longer body. Bones are soft and tinged with red, both indicating a young animal. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined relatively soft red ridges.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and even over the back and hips, diminishing sharply toward the shanks and flanks. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of lean flesh under the fell, but these are not usually so pronounced as in Choice and Prime grade carcasses. Interior fats are plentiful, but they are unevenly distributed, being in greatest quantity in the regions of kidneys and crotch. All fats are of good quality and white or slightly creamy in color. The flesh is moderately firm, fine-grained, and light pink in color.

(3) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 lamb carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality.

Carcasses of this grade are usually somewhat angular or rangy in conformation, with moderately long, thin necks and shanks and relatively narrow hips, back, and shoulders. They have moderately long, tapering legs, and they lack the plumpness of the better grades. Ribs and loins are lacking somewhat in depth of flesh. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined soft ridges, but these lack redness to a marked degree.

Carcasses of this grade usually have a moderately thin outer covering of fat, but it is not evenly distributed. There are also some carcasses in this grade that have excessive quantities of fat which disqualify them for a higher grade. Interior fats are relatively scarce, the kidneys being only partially covered. Small quantities are also found in the crotch. The thin strips of lean under the fell are not nearly so prominent as in the better grades. Heavier carcasses of this grade or those approaching the yearling mutton stage have proportionately greater quantities of fat than have lighter carcasses. The flesh is usually inclined to be soft, spongy, and moderately fine-grained, or may be firm in carcasses from heavier and older animals. Its color varies from light to dark pink.

(4) Utility or No. 4. Utility or No. 4 grade lamb carcasses are angular and have poor conformation, finish, and quality.

All bones are prominent. Such carcasses are disproportionately long and narrow. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from neck to tail. Sides are thin, and flanks are thin and flabby. There is little or no exterior or interior fat, slight traces being sometimes found around the kidneys and in the crotch. The heavier and older carcasses frequently have small patches of fat in the regions of the kidneys. This fat usually has a bluish tinge. Bones are usually soft, but they lack the redness of those in better grade carcasses. The break joints of the forelegs have knuckle ends removed and show four well-defined relatively soft ridges. Because of lack of finish the flesh is soft, spongy, and inclined to be watery. It appears coarse and fibrous. Its color may be dark pink or it may have a brownish tinge.

(5) Cull or No. 5. Cull or No. 5 grade lamb carcasses are not offered regularly for retail trade and are found in the markets only occasionally. Such carcasses are almost entirely devoid of visible fat and are of the most inferior conformation and quality. Proportion of bone to meat is very high. The flesh is dark, soft, coarse-grained, and owing to lack of nourishment or other causes, appears fibrous to a marked degree.

(b) Yearling mutton carcasses—(1) Choice or No. 1. Choice or No. 1 grade yearling mutton carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality. They have relatively short and plump legs, thick loins and ribs, full-fleshed shoulders, thick breasts, and a length of body commensurate with depth and breadth of carcass. Choice grade carcasses have good breadth in proportion to length, but are relatively heavier in the fore quarters than lamb carcasses of the same grade. They resemble Choice grade lamb carcasses in many respects, but have proportionately longer bodies, legs, and necks, larger abdominal cavities, and more distended ribs. Compared with lamb, the bones are harder and whiter. Where the foot is removed from the foreleg the end of the bone shows a rough, dry, and comparatively hard surface.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and well distributed over loins, ribs, and shoulders. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of dark-pink flesh under the fell extending over the sides and has a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breasts and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, and the kidneys are well and evenly covered. All fats are of good quality, white or creamy, and inclined to be brittle. The flesh is moderately fine-grained, firm, and medium to dark pink in color.

(2) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade yearling mutton carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality. Such carcasses, although reasonably plump, may be slightly deficient in breadth across the hips, back, and shoulders. Yearling mutton carcasses of this grade resemble Good grade lamb carcasses in many respects, but have proportionately longer bodies and legs, larger abdominal cavities, more distended ribs, and harder bones. The break joints of the forelegs are rough and dry and show little redness.

The outer covering of fat may be fairly even over the back, loin, and rumps, or it may be slightly rough. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, and the kidneys are usually well covered. The flesh is firm, moderately fine-grained, and has a deep pink to light red color.

(3) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 grade yearling mutton carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality. To some extent they lack the fullness or plumpness in legs, loins, and ribs found in Good grade carcasses. Shoulders are usually thinly fleshed and inclined to be rough, necks are long, and legs long and tapering. There is usually a thin covering of fat over the shoulders, a moderate quantity on the loins, ribs, and breasts, and practically none elsewhere on the exterior surface. Except for small quantities around the kidneys and in the crotch, interior fats are scant. Although the flesh is moderately fine-grained, it usually has a relatively high percentage of moisture and varies in color from deep pink to light red.

(c) Mutton carcasses—(1) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade mutton carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality. Good grade carcasses, although well-proportioned and moderately plump, may be slightly deficient in breadth or depth across the hips, backs, and shoulders as compared with Choice carcasses. Legs are relatively short and thickly fleshed. Good grade carcasses generally have wider barrels and more distended ribs than Choice carcasses. The grade admits a higher percentage of ewes, and the bones may be slightly harder and more flinty.

The outer covering of fat, although fairly even, varies to some extent and may be slightly excessive on the rumps or deficient on the shoulders, breasts, and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful, but may be slightly deficient or excessive as compared with Choice grade carcasses, although not to a marked degree. The strips of lean under the fell on the sides are less prominent than on Choice grade carcasses, but these are well defined. The flesh is firm, slightly coarse-grained, and light to medium red in color.

(2) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 grade mutton carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality.

Carcasses of this grade lack the fullness or plumpness in legs, loins, and ribs found in carcasses of the better grades. Shoulders are only moderately well fleshed. Carcasses of this grade are relatively narrow through the hips and across the back, and the bones of the spinal column are prominent. Because of these deficiencies such carcasses appear somewhat longer and angular. The abdominal cavity is relatively wide, and the curvature of the ribs is very marked, especially in ewe mutton carcasses.

The thin strips of flesh under the fell, which are so prominent on well-finished carcasses, are only slightly in evidence on Commercial grade carcasses. There is usually a thin covering of fat over the back, loins, and rumps, but practically none on the legs. The flanks are inclined to be thin. There are moderate quantities of interior fats around the kidneys but not sufficient to cover them, and there are only traces elsewhere. The flesh is moderately firm, but somewhat coarse-grained and medium to dark red in color.

(3) Utility or No. 4. Utility or No. 4 grade mutton carcasses are the lowest grade offered regularly for retail purposes. They are angular in conformation, thinly fleshed, and lacking in finish. Such carcasses are narrow across the hips, loins, back, and shoulders. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from end to end, and other bones are prominent. The grade consists principally of carcasses from old, thin-fleshed ewes. The bones are therefore usually hard, white, and flinty. Small and uneven patches of exterior fat are occasionally found on loins, back, or shoulders. There are usually traces of fat around the kidneys, but practically no other interior fats. That which is found is of poor quality. The flesh is coarse-grained, inclined to be soft and flabby, and dark red in color.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 5C,[1] Amdt. 113]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.7551 (a) (58) is amended to read as follows:

(58) "Area A" means the States of Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, and Washington.

2. Section 1394.7551 (a) (59) is amended to read as follows:

(59) "Area B" means the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Ohio, Oklahoma, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Wisconsin and Wyoming, the portion of the State of Florida which lies west of the counties of Gadsden, Liberty and Franklin, the portion of the State of West Virginia, which lies west of the counties of Grant and Pendleton, the portions of the State of Georgia which lie within the corporate limits of the Cities of Rossville and West Point, the portions of the State of Pennsylvania which lie within the corporate limits of the Cities of Farrell, Sharon, Sharpsville and Wheatland, and the portions of the State of Virginia which lie within the corporate limits of the Cities of Bluefield and Bristol.

3. In § 1394.7652 the portion of the table of valid periods relating to Class A coupons numbered 11 and 12 is amended to read as follows:

11	March 22, 1944, to June 21, 1944, inclusive, outside the gasoline shortage area, and from August 9, 1944, to November 8, 1944, inclusive, in the gasoline shortage area.
12	June 22, 1944, to September 21, 1944, inclusive, outside the gasoline shortage area.

4. Section 1394.7653 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Pursuant to such application, the Board shall issue a Basic ration. Before issuing a Class A or Basic Class B ration book the Board shall remove coupons from the book according to the following formula:

(1) From a Class A book: All expired coupons and one currently valid coupon for each full twelve days which have elapsed in the "valid period" during which such book is issued.

(2) From a Basic Class D book issued after March 16, 1944, twenty-four coupons and, in addition, one coupon for each full ten days which have elapsed between March 16, 1944, and the date of issuance.

5. In the text of § 1394.7653 (f) the table of periods appearing at the end of the third sentence is amended to read as follows:

Class A rations outside the gasoline shortage area	July 22, 1943 to September 21, 1944, inclusive.
Class A rations within the gasoline shortage area	November 9, 1943, to December 30, 1944, inclusive.
Basic Class D rations	July 22, 1943, to November 11, 1944, inclusive.

6. Section 1394.7701 (c) is amended by substituting for the first two sentences the following sentence:

An applicant for a supplemental ration for use with a motorcycle is deemed to have available sixty miles per month of occupational driving by using the basic ration issued for use with the motorcycle.

7. In § 1394.7704 (b) the proviso at the end of the third sentence is amended to read as follows:

Provided, That except in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.7707, no Board in Area A may allow an average of more than 400 miles per month, no Board in Area B may allow an average of more than 475 miles per month, and no Board in the gasoline shortage area may allow an average of more than 325 miles per month, for any occupational mileage other than preferred mileage as defined in § 1394.7706. The Board may allow an average mileage in excess of such maximum only if the excess consists of such preferred mileage or additional mileage allowed pursuant to § 1394.7707.

8. Section 1394.7704 (d) is revoked.

9. Section 1394.7705 (a) (1) (i) is amended by substituting the figures "400" for the figures "460".

10. Section 1394.7705 (a) (1) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to § 1394.7704 (b) or § 1394.7707 exceeds 400 miles per month: Class C coupons in the number specified in Table II for the mileage allowed.

11. Section 1394.7705 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) In the case of a passenger automobile for which application for a supplemental ration is made in Area B, the Board shall issue:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 475 miles per month or less: Class B coupons in the number specified in Table IB for the mileage allowed.

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to § 1394.7704 (b) or § 1394.7707 exceeds 475 miles per month: Class C coupons in the number specified in Table IIB for the mileage allowed.

12. In § 1394.7705 (a) (4) "Table I" is amended to read as follows:

15. Section 1394.7706 (x) (8) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) No mileage in excess of the general limitation of an average of 400 miles per month in Area A for non-preferred occupational mileage (475 miles per month in Area B and 325 miles per month in the gasoline shortage area) shall be allowed under this subparagraph (8) unless such excess mileage is for travel on which the applicant is exclusively engaged in the performance of his duties as such member, and such excess mileage for such purpose shall not exceed an average of 360 miles per month for any one vehicle or for any such member.

16. Section 1394.7707 (a) (1) is amended by deleting the words "or in Area B" and by substituting the figures "400" for the figures "460."

17. Section 1394.7707 (a) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) Where application is made in Area B and such person requires more than 475 miles per month for driving between home and a fixed place or places of work, or between fixed places of work, in connection with his principal occupation.

18. Section 1394.7754 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the Board is in Area A the maximum average mileage is 400 miles per month.

19. Section 1394.7754 (b) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) If the Board is in Area B the maximum average mileage is 475 miles per month.

20. Section 1394.7755 (a) (1) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 400 miles per month or less: Class B coupons in the number specified in Table I in § 1394.7705 (a) (4) for the mileage allowed.

21. Section 1394.7755 (a) (1) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to § 1394.7754 (b) exceeds 400 miles per month: Class C coupons in the number specified in Table II in § 1394.7705 (a) (4) for the mileage allowed.

22. Section 1394.7755 (a) (3) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 475 miles or less: Class B coupons in the number specified in Table IB in § 1394.7705 (a) (4) for the mileage allowed.

23. Section 1394.7755 (a) (3) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to § 1394.7754 (b) exceeds 475 miles per month: Class C coupons in the number specified in Table IIB in § 1394.7705 (a) (4) for the mileage allowed.

24. In § 1394.7755 (a) (4) Table III and Table IV are revoked.

25. Section 1394.7856 (b) (1) is revoked.

26. Section 1394.8051 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, no Board shall allow mileage in respect to any renewal of a supplemental, fleet or official ration, or any ration issued pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.7757 or § 1394.7758 which will in any way compensate for any loss in mileage caused by any reduction in the unit value of Class A, B or C coupons or by any extension of the valid period of the Class A coupon made on or after October 1, 1943, unless such restoration is made pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.8052.

27. Section 1394.8053 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Such application shall be made in the same manner as the application for the current ration. It may be granted only if such current ration is a supplemental ration based on an allowed mileage in excess of 400 miles per month in Area A, 475 miles per month in Area B, or 325 miles per month in the gasoline shortage area.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., March 22, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 5C,[1] Amdt. 2 to Rev. Supp. 1]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

Revised Supplement No. 1 to Ration Order No. 5C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.8401 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Three (3) gallons of gasoline with respect to Class A coupons.

Five (5) gallons of gasoline with respect to Class B and C coupons which bear the numeral "2" or a higher numeral on the face of the coupon.

Three (3) gallons of gasoline with respect to Class B and C coupons, which do not bear the numeral "2" or a higher numeral on the face of the coupon, in Area A and in the States of Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Wyoming.

Two (2) gallons of gasoline with respect to Class B and C coupons, which do not bear the numeral "2" or a higher numeral on the face of the coupon, in Area B except the States of Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Wyoming.

2. In § 1394.8401 (b) the definition of Area A is amended to read as follows:

"Area A" means the States of Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington.

3. In § 1394.8401 (b) the definition of Area B is amended to read as follows:

"Area B" means the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Wisconsin and Wyoming, the portion of the State of Florida which lies west of the counties of Gadsden, Liberty and Franklin, the portion of the State of West Virginia which lies outside of and west of the counties of Mineral, Grant and Pendleton, the portions of the State of Georgia which lie within the corporate limits of the Cities of Rossville and West Point, the portions of the State of Pennsylvania which lie within the corporate limits of the Cities of Farrell, Sharon, Sharpsville and Wheatland, and the portions of the State of Virginia which lie within the corporate limits of the Cities of Bluefield and Bristol.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m. on March 22, 1944.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE REGULATION AND GENERAL DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Explanation of the regulation. (a) The purpose of this regulation is to establish maximum prices for pitted and macerated domestic dates and domestic date products of the 1943 crop and after, in sales by persons other than wholesalers and retailers. The products covered by this regulation and processors' maximum prices for sales of each product are set forth in Article II.

(b) This regulation supersedes Maximum Price Regulation No. 243[1] with respect to sales and deliveries of pitted domestic dates, macerated domestic dates, and domestic date products of the 1943 crop and after.

(c) Maximum prices for sales by wholesalers and retailers are governed by Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 421,[2] 422[3] and 423.[4] "Wholesaler" and "retailer" means the persons respectively referred to as "wholesalers" and "retailers" in those regulations.

(d) This regulation applies only to the forty-eight states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

(e) Prices established by this regulation are in effect from March 18, 1944.

SEC. 2. General Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, and their legal successors or representatives. The term includes the United States, its agencies, other governments, their political subdivisions, and their agencies.

(2) "Processor" means a person who pits, macerates or grinds domestic dates.

(3) "Pitted domestic dates" means domestic dates from which the pits have been removed, but which otherwise remain whole.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[2] 8 F.R. 9388, 10569, 10987, 13293, 15250, 15607, 17368, 17367.

(4) "Macerated domestic dates" means domestic dates from which the pits have been removed and which have been cut into two or more pieces or have been chopped, sliced or ground. The addition of other ingredients and further processing does not change the classification of macerated domestic dates unless such additional ingredients and further processing result in a complete confection ready for sale to ultimate consumers without further processing in such form as to come within the definition of "domestic date products".

(5) "Domestic date products" means any completed confection containing ninety per cent or more by weight of macerated domestic dates combined with other ingredients, prepared for sale to ultimate consumers without further processing.

(6) "Net delivered cost" means the amount the purchaser pays for the item (in a purchase which is customary, for him, in quantity, type of supplier, receiving point and means of transportation), less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. However, the expense of local trucking or unloading is not included.

(7) "Delivered to the customary receiving point" means delivered to the place where the particular buyer has customarily received the goods. In cases where the seller is dealing with the buyer for the first time after the effective date of this regulation, "delivered to the customary receiving point" means delivered to the buyer's place of business.

(8) "Records" includes books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, apply to other terms used in this regulation.

ARTICLE II—PROCESSORS' MAXIMUM PRICES

SEC. 3. Maximum prices of processors for pitted domestic dates, macerated domestic dates and domestic date products. (a) The processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, of pitted domestic dates in bulk or in packages containing more than one pound shall be 28 cents per pound. The processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, of pitted domestic dates packaged in containers of one pound or less shall be 28 cents per pound, plus 7 cents per package (packaging allowance).

(b) The processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, of macerated domestic dates shall be 21 cents per pound.

(c) The processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, of domestic date products shall be 35½ cents per pound when sold in bulk or in packages containing more than one pound and 38 cents per pound when sold in packages containing one pound or less.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for government sales. The processor's maximum prices, f. o. b. factory, for sales of pitted domestic dates, macerated dates and domestic date products to government procurement agencies shall be 96 percent of his maximum prices, f. o. b. factory, for sales to other than government procurement agencies.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for distributors other than wholesalers and retailers. "Distributor" means a person, other than a wholesaler or retailer, who purchases all he sells (for his own account) of the kind and brand of the product being priced and resells it without processing or packing any part of it.

(a) Pricing method No. 1. A distributor may use the pricing method of this paragraph (a) only (1) if he sold pitted domestic dates, macerated domestic dates or domestic date products prior to April 28, 1942, (2) when he is selling those products which he actually refrigerates and warehouses in a warehouse or other receiving station not owned or controlled by any of his customers, and (3) when he is selling to wholesalers, or to institutional or commercial users.

The maximum price of a distributor who meets the requirement of pricing method No. 1 shall be his net delivered cost, plus 7% of such cost.

(b) Pricing method No. 2. The maximum price of a distributor, who does not meet the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section shall be the maximum price of his supplier, f. o. b. factory, plus incoming freight paid by him.

ARTICLE IV—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY

SEC. 6. Units of sale and fractions of a cent. (a) Maximum prices shall be stated in terms of the same general units (like pounds, dozens, etc.) in which the seller has customarily quoted prices for the product.

(b) Amounts computed in the process of figuring a maximum price (other than the maximum price itself) shall be carried to four decimal places (hundredths of a cent). On sales to government procurement agencies, the maximum price itself shall be carried to four decimal places. If any figured maximum price (other than on sales to government procurement agencies) include a fraction of a cent, the seller shall adjust the price to the nearest fractional unit of a cent (like 1¢, ½¢, etc.) in which he has customarily quoted prices for the product.

SEC. 7. Maintenance of customary discounts and allowances. For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, no person shall change any customary allowance, discount or other prices differential to a purchaser or class of purchasers, if the change results in a higher net price to that purchaser or class.

SEC. 8. Export and import sales. The maximum price at which a person may export any item covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[8] and amendments. Sales of products which have been processed or packed outside of the geographical area to which this regulation applies are not covered by the regulation except in cases where the goods being priced are located within the area at the time of sale.

SEC. 9. Payment of brokers. In accordance with existing trade custom, every broker shall be considered as the agent of the seller and not the agent of the buyer. In each case, the amount paid by the buyer to the seller plus any amount paid by the buyer to the broker shall not exceed the seller's maximum price plus allowable transportation actually paid by the seller or by the broker. The term "broker" includes a "finder."

SEC. 10. Notification of new maximum price. With the first delivery of an item after the effective date of this regulation, or any amendment to it in any case where the seller's new maximum price is different from the maximum price he previously had for the same item, he shall:

(a) Supply each wholesaler and retailer who purchases from him with written notice as set forth below:

(Insert date)

NOTICE TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our OPA ceiling price for (describe item by kind, variety, grade, brand, style of pack and container type and size) has been changed by the Office of Price Administration. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you from your customary type of supplier containing this notification after (insert effective date of this regulation or amendment authorizing or directing change in maximum price). You must refigure your ceiling price following the rules in section 6 of Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423, whichever is applicable to you.

For a period of 60 days after determining the new maximum price for the item, and with the first shipment after the 60-day period to each person who has not made a purchase within that time, each seller shall include in each case, carton, or other receptacle containing the item, the written notice set forth above, or securely attach it to the outside. However, for sales direct to any retailer, the seller may supply the notice by attaching it to, or stating it on, the invoice covering the shipment, instead of providing it with the goods.

(b) Notify each purchaser of the item who is a distributor other than a wholesaler and retailer of the establishment of the new maximum price by written notice attached to, or stated on, the invoice issued in connection with the first transaction with such purchaser after the effective date of this regulation or amendment, as follows:

(Insert date)

NOTICE TO DISTRIBUTORS OTHER THAN WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our OPA ceiling price for (describe item by kind, variety, grade, brand, style of pack and container type and size) has been changed from $____ to $____ under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 521. You are required to notify all wholesalers and retailers from whom you are the customary type of supplier, purchasing the item from you after (insert effective date of this regulation or amendment authorizing or directing change in maximum price), of any allowable change in your maximum price. This notice must be made in the manner prescribed in section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 521.

SEC. 11. Records which must be kept. Every person who makes sales covered by this regulation shall:

(a) Make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged in those sales; and

(b) Preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for the same period, all his existing records which were the basis of figuring his maximum prices in the manner directed by this regulation, showing the method used in figuring the maximum prices.

SEC. 12. Sales slips and receipts. Any seller who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt, or similar evidence of purchase, shall continue to do so. Upon request, any seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the name of each item sold, and the price received for it.

SEC. 13. Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of a seller subject to this regulation are sold or otherwise transferred on and after April 28, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of food product, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligations to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 14. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon a pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization. The authorization will be given by order.

SEC. 15. Compliance with this regulation—(a) No selling or buying above maximum prices. Regardless of any contract or obligation no person shall sell or deliver, or buy or receive in the course of trade, any item at a price higher than the maximum price established for the sale by this regulation. However, prices lower than the maximum price may be charged and paid.

However, the prohibition of this paragraph does not apply to (1) any war procurement agency of the United States, or its contracting or paying finance officers, or (2) the government (or its agencies) of any country the defense of which the President of the United States deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States". No such purchaser or person shall be subject to the libabilities otherwise imposed by this section or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, and the following subsidiaries of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation; the Defense Plant Corporation, the Rubber Reserve Corporation, the Metals Reserve Corporation and the Defense Supplies Corporation, or any of their agencies. (This exception is derived from, and for the purpose of this regulation supersedes, Supplementary Order No. 7,[7] issued by the Office of Price Administration).

(b) Evasion. Nor shall any person evade a maximum price, directly or indirectly, whether by commission, service, transportation; or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege; by tying-agreement or other trade understanding; by any change of style of pack; by a business practice relating to grading, labeling, or packaging, or in any other way.

(c) Enforcement. Any person violating a provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension provision, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(d) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[8] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to the regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 16. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a general modification of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[9] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective March 18, 1944.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

ARTICLE I—PROHIBITIONS AND SCOPE OF REGULATION

SECTION 1. Prohibition against dealing in West Coast cooperage and cooperage stock at price above the maximum. On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive West Coast cooperage and cooperage stock covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices established herein, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

Prices lower than the maximum prices herein established may, of course, be charged and paid.

SEC. 2. Transactions and products covered—(a) Transactions covered. This regulation covers all sales and purchases, within the continental limits of the United States, of the products covered by this regulation, no matter who the seller is.

(b) Products covered—(1) West Coast cooperage stock—(i) staves. As used in this regulation, the term "West Coast Staves" means all staves produced in the States of Washington, Oregon or California from West Coast softwood logs by sawing on a parallel sided drum saw, and jointed for use in a bilge barrel or keg.

(ii) Headings. Under the term heading, this regulation covers all heading and heading blanks to circle 12 inches or more in diameter produced in the states of Washington, Oregon or California from West Coast softwood logs.

(2) West Coast cooperage. The term cooperage as used in this regulation includes all barrels and kegs produced either entirely of stock covered by this regulation or having a single bung stave covered by any other regulation.

(b) West Coast cooperage. (1) The maximum prices, f. o. b. producing mill or railhead, for West Coast cooperage produced in the states of Washington, Oregon and California shall be the sum of the following:

(i) Maximum f. o. b. mill price of staves and heads; and

(ii) Maximum prices for hoops and extra materials or services priced under this regulation; (see table below)

(iii) Mark-ups as follow:

SEC. 4. Items not specifically priced. Any person desiring to sell on the domestic market any item covered but not specifically priced by the regulation and for which he cannot determine a price under the regulation, shall make application to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for a price. The application must contain a complete description of the item to be priced, the applicant's March 1942 selling price of the item if he sold such item at that time, his requested selling price and his method of arriving at this price. The requested selling price may be used pending approval of a price by this office subject, however, to adjustment to the price finally approved. Prices not disapproved within 20 days from the receipt of application are approved until specifically revoked.

SEC. 5. Delivered prices. If delivery is by common carrier the actual transportation costs paid or incurred by the seller may be added to the maximum f. o. b. mill prices. If shipment is by truck, owned or controlled by the seller, actual transportation costs may be added to the basic maximum prices. Such transportation cost may not exceed 80% of the common carrier charge for the same shipment.

SEC. 6. Prohibited practices. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to changes in discount practices, devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings, changes in discount practices and the like.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 7. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 8. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6 [1] for adjustments on certain government contracts and sub-contracts.

[1] 7 F.R. 5087, 5664; 8 F.R. 6173, 6174, 12024.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provisions of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 9. Records. All persons making sales covered by this regulation must keep records for each sale amounting to $15.00 or more which will show a complete description of the products sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the transaction, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for two years for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 10. Licenses. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1 [3] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more Maximum Price Regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 11. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 12. Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[4] Any sale or delivery covered by this regulation is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5] The maximum prices for export sales products covered by this regulation are governed by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

This regulation shall become effective March 22, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[2d RMPR 19,[1] Amdt. 2]

SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 2, at the end of paragraph (a), the following sentences are added:

Moreover, sales of shortleaf Southern pine boards, dimension, and timbers up to 8 x 8 inches, sold by sawmills which do not have planing mills or which customarily sell their lumber in rough green form, and which cut 4,000,000 feet or less of Southern pine lumber in 1943, are not subject to this regulation, but are subject to Maximum Price Regulation 19A, Log-Run Southern Pine Lumber. Any sawmill subject to this Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 may on special application to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., be granted permission to price all his sales of Southern pine lumber under the log-run prices in Maximum Price Regulation 19A.

1A. Section 5, paragraph (a), is amended by the addition of the following sentence:

"F. o. b. mill" means loaded on cars if any part of delivery is by rail, or loaded on trucks if delivery is entirely by truck.

2. Section 5 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Shortleaf Southern pine lumber produced in Virginia. For shortleaf Southern pine lumber produced in the State of Virginia add $2.50 per M'BM to the f. o. b. mill prices set forth in Article 4, except that no addition may be made to the prices in Tables 3A, 9, 9A, 9B, 10, 11, 12 and 13. This addition shall not be made, however, for the purpose of computing maximum prices under Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215, Distribution Yard Sales of Softwood, except by yards located in Virginia.

3. Section 5 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Combination grades. (1) Lumber sold in a combination of grades may not be sold above the maximum price for the lowest priced grade actually named in the combination except as noted below in subparagraph (2) for the grade "No. 2 Common and better." For example, the maximum price for lumber sold as No. 1 Common and better is the maximum price fixed for No. 1 Common lumber. But it is permissible to sell a combination of grades where the exact quantity of each grade shipped is separately shown on the invoice and segregated in the car by strips (except timbers) or otherwise made easily identifiable to the purchaser and separately tallied (tally card to be included in car), in which case the appropriate ceiling price for the quantity of each grade shipped may be charged.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Any mill may sell dressed dry Southern pine lumber on a combination grade of No. 2 Common and better containing up to 15% of No. 3 Common at not more than the prices established in Tables 1 and 2 for No. 2 Common. This combination grade must contain all of the upper grades which are the product of the log and no mill electing to sell on this combination grade may sell any lumber at prices in excess of the No. 2 Common prices specified in Tables 1 and 2 during the period for which it is authorized to sell on the combination grade. It may, however, during this period sell grades lower than No. 2 Common at the grade prices specified in the Tables 1 and 2.

Any mill electing to sell on the combination grade No. 2 Common and better must apply for authorization to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. before May 1, 1944 to obtain an authorization number which must thereafter appear on all of its invoices for all its sales of Southern pine lumber. Any mill granted authorization to sell on this combination grade of No. 2 Common and better must give notice of at least ninety days to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, before it may return to the practice of selling on the regular grades.

The Lumber Branch shall deny the privilege of returning to the practice of selling upon the regular grades unless evidence is presented (1) that the mill has inspectors who are qualified to grade, (2) that the operation is so set up that a good grading job can be done, and (3) that the return to the practice of selling on grade is not for the purpose of selling an accumulation of upper grades withheld from combination grade sales in the past.

4. Section 5 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Inspection certificates required on sales of certain grades. Any shipment of Southern pine lumber priced in Tables 1, 2, 3A, 7, 14, 15, 16A and 21 which does not bear the grade mark of a qualified inspection agency as provided in Federal Specification MM–L–751c (May 20, 1942), must either be accompanied by a certificate of inspection by inspection agency, which has been accepted as satisfactory by any Federal purchasing organization, or be inspected by an inspector from the Federal organization making the purchase, if the shipment contains either (1) 30% No. 1 common and higher grades, or (2) 15% C and higher grades, or (3) 10% B and better. The certificate of inspection must cover all lumber in the shipment. In the absence of such a certificate, where the lumber is not grade marked as specified above, lumber invoiced as No. 1 Common and higher grades in any such shipment may not be sold at prices higher than the prices provided in such tables for No. 2 Common.

Federal Standard Stock Catalog, section IV, (Part 5) "Federal Specification For Lumber and Timber; Softwood", MM–L–751c, reads in part as follows:

E. Detail requirements.

E–1. Softwood lumber shall conform to the grading rules of the various lumber associations in effect at the date of invitation for bids where such grading rules are approved by the Central Committee on Lumber Standards as in conformance with "American Lumber Standards" * * *

F. Method of inspection.

F–1. A Federal organization buying softwood lumber shall either require the firm or individual furnishing the lumber to meet the provisions of one of the following three methods of inspection procedure or may leave to the firm or individual furnishing the lumber the choice of any one of the three methods:

(1) The order may specify that each piece of lumber in the shipment must be grade-marked and also marked with the registered trade-mark of either the association or bureau of the association under whose rules it is graded or of another inspection agency satisfactory to the Federal organization making the purchase.

(2) The order may specify that the shipment must be accompanied by a certificate of inspection issued either by the association or bureau of the association under whose rules it is graded or by another inspection agency satisfactory to the Federal organization making the purchase.

(3) The order may specify that inspection will be made by an inspector from the Federal organization making the purchase.

5. Section 6 is amended by the insertion of the following parenthetical paragraph immediately after the heading "Distributors' direct-mill sales," and immediately before the heading "(a) Prices":

(From March 16 to June 30, 1944, the mark-ups in section 6 are limited to the two following classes of sales:

(1) As to lumber produced by producers subject to Conservation Order M–361, the mark-ups apply to all sales complying with that order.

(2) As to lumber produced by producers not subject to Conservation Order M–361, the mark-ups apply only on direct allocations from the Central Procuring Agency, or direct sales to the U. S. Army, U. S. Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Defense Plant Corporation, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Treasury Procurement for Lend-Lease, and Veterans' Administration.)

5A. In section 6, paragraph (a), the last sentence in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) is amended to read as follows: "This mark-up applies only to carload quantities if shipped by rail, or to quantities of 5 M'BM or more if shipped by truck or water."

6. Section 6 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Registration. Any person qualifying as a "direct-mill distributor" under subparagraphs (b) (i) and (ii) of this section 6 must file a letter with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., before March 1, 1944, stating that he meets such requirements. On and after April 1, 1944, no person may make the additions permitted in this section 6 unless he has received a registration number from the Office of Price Administration. This registration number must, after April 1, 1944, be shown on all invoices covering distributors' direct-mill sales carrying the direct-mill distributors' addition.

7. In section 7 (b), a subparagraph (4) is added to read as follows:

(4) Where the addition of $3.50 per M'BM is applied on sales under this paragraph the additions for direct-mill distributor's sales provided for in section 6 are not applicable.

8. In section 9, the caption is changed to read "Grade Marking and Anti-stain", and the following is substituted in place of paragraph (a):

(a) Additions for grade marking. An addition of $1.00 per M'BM may be charged for lumber that bears the grade mark of an inspection agency qualified in accordance with "Federal Specification For Lumber And Timber; Softwood", MM–L–751c (May 20, 1942), except lumber priced in Tables 10 and 23 (Standard Plastering Lath and Fence Lath); Table 11 (Byrkit Lath); Tables 12 and 24 (Bed Slats); and Tables 13 and 25 (O. G. Batts).

9. In section 14 (b), subparagraph (3) is deleted.

10. Section 22 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) In all cases where special prices have been approved by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration under § 1381.212, paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) of Maximum Price Regulation 19, or section 20 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, these special prices shall no longer apply if specific prices for the items are established by this regulation; but if no specific prices are established in the price tables, the price approved under the earlier regulation shall continue in effect. However, within ninety days after the issuance of this regulation, the Lumber Branch will assign authorization numbers for each special price previously approved and thereafter such authorization numbers must appear on all invoices covering shipments at such special prices. In all cases where a special price authorization has already been assigned a number by the Lumber Branch, no new number will be issued. Special prices are subject to cancellation by letter or telegram at any time.

11. In Article IV, Appendix A, Tables 1 and 2 are amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE IV—APPENDIX A: SHORTLEAF YELLOW PINE LUMBER

The maximum prices for Shortleaf Yellow Pine lumber, in straight or mixed carloads f. o. b. mill, per one thousand feet board measure, shall be as follows:

[1] Edge widths are random widths including odd, even or fractioned widths. Measurement shall be according to Paragraph 136, S. P. I. B. Rules.

[2] Restricted random widths are 4" to 12" inclusive, and must not contain over 20% of 4" widths, and not less than 20% of 10' and wider.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure: [See section 14 (b) (10)].

For working:

1. Rough, deduct $4.50.
2. End-matching, add $2.00.
3. For any other matcher dressing not otherwise provided for (Except V-Joint, ECB1S or ECB2S), add $2.00. Patterns requiring moulder work, add $6.50.
4. Ripping, add $1.00 for each cut; resawing, add $2.00 for each cut, both applicable only where machine run product is shipped.

For grade:

5. No. 1 Common 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, add $8.00; 85% Heart Cubical Content, add $6.00.
6. For grade marking in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a), add $1.00 per M'BM.
7. For Combination Grade No. 2 Common and Better as defined in section 5 (d), use No. 2 Common prices.

For condition:

8. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
9. Green, deduct $3.50.

For length:

10. Random lengths must average at least 12' (with a tolerance of 3"), and must take the 12' price.

For length—Continued.

11. Restricted random lengths, 10' to 16', or longer, all grades, and 8' to 16', or longer, No. 2 or lower grades, charge the specified length price for the lengths actually shipped.
12. For any average length, charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped.
13. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ⅛" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
14. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as next longer even length.
15. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M'BM for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in foot note 13 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M'BM. If length breaks on even one-half foot compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.

For size:

16. Stock thinner than ¾", deduct $1.00 from the ¾" price for each 1/32" thinner than ¾", except when dressed both sides use ¾" price. However, sizes that can be resawn from boards or strips 1" in nominal thickness shall take the 1" price, plus the resawing addition permitted.
17. 13" and wider, add $2.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" price and compute footage on nominal size.
18. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 1 and No. 2 Common, add $3.00.
19. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 3 Common, add $2.00.
20. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 4 Common and Dunnage, add $1.00.
21. Extra Standard Thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00 where stock is dressed clean, or will permit slight skip as defined in paragraph 40, 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine lumber.
22. For any average width, charge the price which would have been charged had the buyer ordered the various widths which were shipped.
23. Random widths (other than restricted random widths), each width shall be priced at the specified width price.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure [See section 14 (b) (10)]:

For working:

1. Rough, deduct $4.50.
2. Shiplap, Center Matched, Dressed and Matched, Grooved, or any other matched dressing, not otherwise provided for, add $1.00. Patterns requiring Moulder work, add $6.50.
3. Ripping or resawing, add $1.00 for each cut, both applicable only when machine run product is shipped.
4. End-matched and center-matched, add $4.00.

For grade:

5. For grade marking in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a), add $1.00 per M'BM.
6. For Combination Grade No. 2 Common and better as defined in section 5 (d), use No. 2 Common prices.
7. No. 1 Common 85% Heart Facial Area, Add $12.00; No. 1 Common 85% Heart Cubical Content, add $8.00.

For condition:

8. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
9. Green, deduct $3.50.

For Size:

10. Extra Standard thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00 where stock is dressed clean or will permit slight skips as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber.
11. Odd or fractional widths not listed, add $3.00 to nearest greater listed width and compute footage on nominal size.

For Length:

12. Random lengths must average at least 14' (with tolerance of 3") and must take the 14' price.
13. For any average length, except 9', charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped. When a 9' average is required charge the 8' price.
14. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
15. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as the next longer even length.
16. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price for the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M'BM. for each necessary cross cut, but the addition permitted in footnote 14 for precision cutting may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M'BM. If length breaks on even one-half foot compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.
17. Lengths longer than 24', add to 24' price as follows (for all grades):

	2 x 10 and smaller	2 x 11 and larger
Length:
26'	$1	$1
28'	2	2
30'	3	5
32'	5	7
34'	7	9
36'	9	12
38'	12	15
40'	15	20

12. In article IV, appendix A, table 3, footnote 1 is amended to read as follows:

1. S1S, S2S, S3S, S4S, Shiplap or T & G, add $3.00.

13. In articles IV and V, appendices A & B, the following footnote is added under certain tables as indicated:

For grade marking in accordance with § 9A add $1.00 per M'BM.

10. For any average length, charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped.
11. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.

For condition:

12. Kiln dried, add $4.50.
13. Air Dried, add $3.50.

For size:

14. Odd or fractional widths, not listed, add $3.00 to nearest greater listed width and compute footage on actual size.
15. Extra standard thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00 where stock is dressed clean or will permit slight skips as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber.

[1] Restricted random widths are 4" to 12" inclusive, and must not contain over 20% of 4", and not less than 20% of 10" and wider.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure. [See section 14 (b) (10)]:

For working:

1. Rough, deduct $4.50.
2. End-Matching, add $2.00.
3. For any other matcher dressing not otherwise provided for (except V-Joint, ECB1S, ECB2S), add $2.00. Patterns requiring moulder work, add $6.50.
4. Ripping, add $1.00 for each cut; resawing, add $2.00 for each cut, both applicable only when machine run product is shipped.

For grade:

5. For grade marking in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a), add $1.00 per M'BM.
6. No. 1 Common 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, add $20.00.
7. No. 2 Common 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, add $12.00.

For condition:

8. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
9. Green, deduct $3.50.

For length:

10. Random lengths must average at least 12' (with a tolerance of 3") and must take the 12' price.

For length—Continued.

11. Restricted Random lengths, 10' to 16' or longer all grades, and 8' to 16', or longer, No. 2 or lower grades, charge the specified length price for the lengths actually shipped.
12. For any average length, charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped.
13. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
14. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as the next longer even length.
15. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M'BM. for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in footnote 13 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M'BM. If length breaks on even one-half foot compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.

For size:

16. Stock thinner than ¾", deduct $1.00 from the ¾" price for each 1/32" thinner than ¾", except when dressed both sides use ¾" price. However, sizes that can be resawn from boards or strips 1" in nominal thickness shall take the 1" price, plus the resawing addition permitted.
17. 13" and wider, add $2.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" price and compute footage on nominal size.
18. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 1 and No. 2 Common, add $3.00.
19. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 3 Common, add $2.00.
20. 5/4 and 6/4 No. 4 Common and Dunnage, add $1.00.
21. Extra Standard Thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00 where stock is dressed clean or will permit slight skips as defined in Paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber.
22. For an average width, charge the price that would have been charged had the buyer ordered the various widths which were shipped.
23. Random widths (other than restricted random widths), each width shall be priced at the specified width price.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure [See section 14 (b) (10)].

For working:

1. Rough, deduct $4.50.
2. Shiplap, center matched, dressed and matched, grooved, or any other matcher dressing not otherwise provided for, add $1.00. Patterns requiring moulder work, add $6.50.
3. Ripping or resawing, add $1.00 for each cut, both applicable only when machine run product is shipped.
4. End-matched and center matched, add $1.00.

For grade:

5. No. 2, 1050 F, Par. 333, add $2.50 to No. 2 Common prices.
6. No. 1 Common and No. 2 Common, 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, sizes 2 x 2 to 2 x 8, add $15.00.
7. No. 1 Common and No. 2 Common, 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, sizes 2 x 10 and 2 x 12, add $20.00.
8. For grade marking in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a), add $1.00 per M'BM.

For condition:

9. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
10. Green, deduct $3.50.

For size:

11. Extra standard thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00 where stock is dressed clean, or will permit slight skips as defined in Par. 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber.
12. Odd or fractional widths, not listed, add $3.00 to nearest greater listed width and compute footage on nominal size.

For length:

13. Random lengths must average at least 14' (with tolerance of 3") and must take the 14' price.
14. For any average length, except 9', charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped. Where a 9' average is required charge the 8' price.
15. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
16. Odd or fractional lengths over 4', not listed, shall be counted and priced as the next longer even length.

17. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge the 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M' BM. for each necessary cross cut, but the addition permitted in footnote 15 for precision cutting may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M' BM. If length breaks on even one-half foot, compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.
18. Lengths longer than 24', add to 24' price as follows (for all grades):

Length:
26'	$2.00
28'	4.00
30'	6.00
32'	10.00
34'	14.00
36'	18.00
38'	24.00
40'	30.00

18. In Article V, Appendix B, Table 16, footnote 1 is amended to read:

1. S1S, S2S, S3S, S4S, Shiplap or T & G, add $3.00.

19. In Article V, Appendix B, Table 16A is added, and Tables 17, 18, 19, and 20 (exclusive of footnotes) are amended, to read as follows:

Table 16-A—2" PLANK AND JOISTS, No. 1 STRUCTURAL AND '05 MERCHANTABLE

Additions and deductions per 1,000 feet board measure: [See section 14 (b) (10)].

For working:

1. S1S, S2S, S3S, S4S, Shiplap, T & G, or Grooved two edges, add $4.50.
2. Ripping or Resawing, add $1.00 for each cut.
3. Beveling and/or outgauging, add $4.00.

For grade:

4. Structural Square edge and sound, add $3.00.
5. Merchantable Structural, add $5.00.
6. '05 Prime, 8" and over, add $8.00.
7. '05 Prime, under 8", add $10.00.
8. Prime Structural, add as follows:

24' and under	$13.00
25' to 30'	17.00
31' to 40'	23.00

9. Select Structural, add as follows:

24' and under	$30.00
25' to 30'	35.00
31' to 40'	40.00

10. For grade marking in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a), add $1.00 per M'BM.

For length:

11. 25' to 30', add $1.00 per lineal foot to 24' price.
12. 31' to 36', add $2.00 per lineal foot to 30' price.
13. 37' to 42', add $3.00 per lineal foot to 36' price.
14. Odd or fractional lengths over 8' shall be counted and priced at next longer even length.
15. For any average length, charge the price for the specified length corresponding to the average length required and shipped.
16. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.

For condition:

17. Kiln dried, add $4.50.
18. Air dried, add $3.50.

For size:

19. Odd or fractional widths, not listed, add $3.00 to nearest greater listed width and compute footage on actual size.
20. Extra Standard Thickness, thicker than American Lumber Standards (for yard stock), add $1.00 where stock is dressed clean, or will permit slight skips as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber.

[MPR 19A]

LOG-RUN SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328. Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the industry. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

§ 1381.104 Maximum prices for log-run Southern pine lumber. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, Maximum Price Regulation No. 19A (Log-run Southern Pine Lumber), which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: § 1381.104, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION 19A—LOG-RUN SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER

CONTENTS

Sec.
1. Maximum prices.
2. What are "small mills."
3. What lumber is covered.
4. Delivery.
5. Special permission to price on grade.
6. Special permission for other mills to sell log-run.
7. Prohibitions and enforcement.
8. Records.
9. Prohibited practices.

SECTION 1. Maximum prices. The maximum price for rough shortleaf Southern pine lumber sold by "small mills" is $32 per M'BM for boards, $29 for dimension, and $28 for small timbers. This includes delivery for 30 miles or less.

SEC. 2. What are "small mills." By "small mills" is meant sawmills which have no planing mills or which usually sell their lumber rough, and which cut 4,000,000 feet or less of Southern pine lumber in 1943.

SEC. 3. What lumber is covered. These prices are for log-run lumber, green or dry. Log-run must include the full range of grades, widths and lengths (of the log-run sizes) as they come from the log, with culls out. If you take out any of the better grades or larger sizes, the maximum price is $20 per M'BM.

"Boards" means lumber cut to dry 4/4, 5/4 and 6/4.

"Dimensions" means lumber cut to dry 7/4 and 8/4, including structural.

"Small timbers" means lumber cut to dry over 2 inches in thickness, and up to 8 x 8".

SEC. 4. Delivery. If you make delivery over 30 miles, you can add 10 cents per M for each mile over 30 and up to 100 miles, with no addition for the return trip. For example, if you deliver 50 miles, you can add $2.00 per M. If you make delivery over 100 miles, you can add only the carload rail freight for the whole distance from the nearest rail loading-out point to destination.

If the buyer makes the pick-up at the sawmill, the regular log-run price must be reduced $2.50 per M.

SEC. 5. Special permission to price on grade. If you want to price on grade (under Second RMPR 19), you may apply to the Lumber Branch, O. P. A., Washington, D. C., for special permission; but you must show that you have priced on standard grades in the past, that you have inspectors of your own who are qualified to grade, that your operation is so set up that you have the time and the equipment to do a good grading job on a piece-by-piece basis, and that it is necessary for you to sell graded lumber to meet your buyers' requirements.

If you get permission to price on grade, however, you must sell all your lumber on grade.

SEC. 6. Special permission for other mills to sell log-run. Mills not under this Log-Run Regulation can get special permission to price on the log-run basis by writing to the Lumber Branch, O. P. A., Washington, D. C. Thereafter they may not price any lumber in the log-run sizes on graded lumber prices.

SEC. 7. Prohibitions and enforcement. It is unlawful to sell, deliver, buy or receive lumber at prices above the maximum, or to offer to do any of these things. Of course, prices under the ceiling may be charged and paid.

Violators are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and suspension of licenses. For example, if you take out some higher grades from a log-run assortment, you would be subject to treble damages of $24 per M' or more.

SEC. 8. Records. You must keep either invoices or tally and settlement sheets, for two years.

SEC. 9. Prohibited practices. Any practice which is a way of getting more than ceiling without actually raising the price is as much a violation as an over-ceiling price.

This regulation shall become effective March 16, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 7001—PETROLEUM COMPENSATORY ADJUSTMENTS

Revised Regulation Number 1 of Petroleum Compensatory Adjustments, issued by Defense Supplies Corporation on March 20, 1943, is amended as follows:

No. 55——7

In section 7001.5 Extra transportation and compensable product costs, paragraph (b) (1) Value at the actual origin, is amended by changing the proviso clause thereof to read as set forth below:

Provided, That the value of compensable products at the actual origin, excepting compensable products transported through the War Emergency Pipeline System and purchased from Defense Supplies Corporation, shall not exceed the lower of the prices determined as follows:

a. If the actual origin is in District Three, the value of similar compensable products at the normal origin as determined under the provisions of paragraph (b) (ii) of this section.

b. The applicable ceiling price for such compensation products in effect on date of shipment.

c. The prevailing market price. Upon the request of Defense Supplies Corporation the applicant shall obtain and submit to Defense Supplies Corporation such evidence as may be requested in support of the prevailing market price.

This amendment No. 4 to this Revised Regulation Number 1 shall become effective as of February 1, 1944.

Issued this 24th day of February, 1944.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—General Land Office

[Circ. 1569]

PART 160—GRAZING LEASES

LANDS REQUIRED BY AGENCIES OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The regulations authorizing the issuance of grazing leases contained in Part 160 are amended as follows:

(a) Section 160.22 is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "Any agency of the Federal Government which needs lands embraced in a grazing lease for governmental use other than one described in paragraph (c) (2) of the lease (§ 160.30) and requests a permit, withdrawal, reservation, lease or patent shall be considered an applicant within the meaning of this section."

(b) The attached form of grazing lease, 4–722a, is approved and substituted for the form contained in § 160.30.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner.

Approved: March 8, 1944.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
GENERAL LAND OFFICE

LEASE OF LANDS FOR GRAZING LIVESTOCK

Serial_____

This indenture of lease, entered into as of _____ by and between the United States of America, hereinafter called the lessor, by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and_____ of (Name of Applicant)
_____, hereinafter called the (Post-office Address)
lessee, pursuant and subject to the terms and provisions of section 15 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269, 1275), as amended June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976, 1978, 43 U. S. C. sec. 315m).

Witnesseth:

That the lessor, in consideration of the rents to be paid and the covenants to be observed, does hereby grant and lease to the lessee the exclusive right and privilege of using for grazing purposes the following-described land_____ containing approximately _____ acres, for a period of _____ years.

Section 1. In consideration of the foregoing, the lessee hereby agrees to:

(a) Pay the lessor as annual rental the sum of $_____. The rental may be adjusted at the end of the third year of the lease and at three-year intervals thereafter. If at the date of any adjustment of the rental, the lease will expire within less than three years, such adjustment shall be effective for the unexpired term of the lease. When the annual rental amounts to $10 or more, the lessee may elect to make payment in two equal installments. One-half of the first year's rental must be paid prior to the execution of the lease and the remaining one-half must be paid within six months after the date of execution. For the second and each succeeding year of the lease one-half of the rental must be paid on or before each anniversary of the lease and the unpaid balance must be paid within six months from said anniversary. When the annual rental is less than $10, the first year's rental must be paid in full prior to the execution of the lease and annually thereafter on or before each anniversary of the lease.

(b) Use the lands in a manner that will not cause overgrazing or soil erosion, or be detrimental to the lands or the livestock industry.

(c) Observe the laws and regulations for the protection of game animals, game birds, and non-game birds, and not unnecessarily disturb such animals or birds.

(d) Comply with the provisions of the laws of the State in which the leased lands are situated with respect to the cost and maintenance of partition fences.

(e) Allow authorized representatives of the Department of the Interior at any time to enter the leased premises for the purpose of inspection, and allow Federal agents, including game wardens, at all times to enter the leased area on official business.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(f) Take all reasonable precaution to prevent and suppress forest, brush, and grass fires.

(g) Comply with all Federal and local laws regarding sanitation and take such other sanitary measures as may be necessary.

(h) Use no part of the leased premises for any purpose foreign to grazing.

(i) Retain ownership or control of any lands that have been recognized as the basis for a preference right.

Section 2. The lessor expressly reserves the right to:

(a) Permit prospecting, locating, developing, mining, entering, leasing, or patenting the mineral resources, the disposition of such resources under any laws applicable thereto, and permit the use and disposition of timber on the lands embraced in this lease, under existing laws and regulations.

(b) Close portions of the leased area to grazing whenever, because of drought, epidemic or disease, incorrect handling of the stock, overgrazing, fire, or other cause, such action is deemed necessary to restore the range to its normal condition. However, such temporary closing of any area shall not operate to exclude such area from the boundaries of the lease.

(c) Reduce the leased area if it is excessive for the number of stock owned by the lessee, or if it is determined that such area is required for the protection of camping places, sources of water supply to communities, stock driveways, roads and trails, town sites, mining claims, and for feeding grounds near villages for the use of draft animals or near the slaughtering or shipping points for use of stock to be marketed. However, a proportionate reduction will be made in the annual rental charges.

(d) Classify and permit entry, selection, or location under the provisions of section 7 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269, 1272) as amended June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976, 43 U.S.C. sec. 315f), of any part or all of the leased lands, provided that before the allowances of any application therefor the applicant shall agree, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to compensate the lessee in accordance with the regulations, 43 CFR 160.22. Any agency of the Federal Government which needs any part or all of the leased lands for a governmental use other than one described in subsection 2 (c) and requests a permit, withdrawal, reservation, lease or patent shall be considered an applicant within the meaning of this subsection.

Section 3. It is further understood and agreed that:

(a) This lease is granted subject to valid existing rights and to all present and future rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior. Nothing herein contained shall restrict the acquisition, granting, or use of permits or rights-of-way under existing law.

(b) The lessee shall not sell or remove for use elsewhere any timber growing on the leased land but may take such timber thereon as may be necessary for the erection and maintenance of improvements required in the operation of this lease. Before taking timber, the lessee must obtain a permit in accordance with the regulations, 43 CFR 284.41.

(c) The lessee may construct, or maintain and utilize any fence, building, corral, reservoir, well, or other improvements needed for the exercise of the grazing privileges of this lease, but any such fence shall be so constructed as to permit ingress and egress for miners, prospectors for minerals, and other persons entitled to enter such area for lawful purposes.

(d) Upon cancellation of this lease for any reason or upon termination thereof, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may, in his discretion and upon a written petition filed by the lessee within 30 days from date of the cancellation or termination, require a subsequent lessee, prior to the execution of a new lease, to reimburse the former lessee a reasonable amount for any grazing improvements of a permanent nature that may have been placed upon the leased lands during the period of the lease. The decision of the Commissioner will be subject to the right of appeal to the Secretary of the Interior. As to any improvements not disposed of in the manner set forth above, the lessee will be allowed three months from the date of cancellation or termination of the lease within which to remove such improvements, but, if not removed or other disposition made within the said period, such improvements shall become the property of the United States.

(e) If the lessee shall default in the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, and stipulations hereof or of the general regulations now or hereafter in force, and such default shall continue 60 days after service of written notice thereof by the lessor, then the lessor may terminate and cancel this lease.

(f) The lessee shall not assign this lease or any interest therein, nor sublet any portion of the leased premises without the written consent of the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

(g) The leased lands shall be subject to entry for hunting and fishing by any person under applicable State or Federal hunting and fishing laws and regulations, but in any event the Commissioner may prohibit or restrict or he may authorize the lessee to prohibit or restrict hunting or fishing on such parts of the leasehold and for such periods as he may determine to be necessary in order to prevent any substantial interference with the purpose for which the lands are leased, that is, grazing.

(h) The lessee may, on consent of the Commissioner of the General Land Office first had and obtained, surrender and terminate this lease or any legal subdivision of the area included within the lease provided all rental payments due have been made.

(i) No Member of or Delegate to Congress, or Resident Commissioner, after his election or appointment, or either before or after he has qualified, and during his continuance in office, and no officer, agent or employee of the Department of the Interior, other than members of the district advisory boards, appointed in accordance with section 18 of the Taylor Grazing Act, which was added by the act of July 14, 1939 (53 Stat. 1002, 43 U.S.C. sec. 315,-1) shall be admitted to any share or part in this lease, or derive any benefit that may arise therefrom, and that the provisions of section 3741 of the Revised Statutes and sections 114, 115, and 116 of the Criminal Code, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat. 1109, 18 U.S.C. sec. 204), relating to contracts, enter into and form a part of this lease so far as the same may be applicable.

It is further covenanted and agreed that each obligation hereunder shall extend to and be binding upon, and every benefit hereof shall inure to, the heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Special Order ODT LB-13A]

COMMON CARRIER BY BUS

AKRON, OHIO

Pursuant to Executive Orders 8989, as amended, 9156 and 9294, and the act of May 31, 1941, as amended by Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942 (56 Stat. 176), and in order to assure the orderly and expeditious movement of necessary passenger traffic and to conserve and providently utilize manpower and existing transportation facilities and service, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, and after being satisfied that the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of rubber-borne transportation equipment and facilities for defense and for private account, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. Akron Transportation Company, Akron, Ohio (hereinafter called "carrier"), in the transportation of passengers as a common carrier by bus in the city and suburbs of Akron, Ohio, shall not operate buses over:

(a) Those sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto[1] and designated as route 4 "York-Tallmadge" from the intersection of Howard Street and Main Street, over Main Street to York Street, over York Street to Dayton Street, and over Dayton Street to Glenwood Avenue, from the intersection of Fouse Avenue and Damon Street, over Damon Street to Evans Avenue, over Evans Avenue to Nevin Street, and over Nevin Street to Glenwood Avenue, and from the intersection of Patterson Avenue and Tallmadge Avenue, over Tallmadge Avenue to Main Street, and over Main Street to York Street;

(b) That section of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 6 "Goodyear Heights" from the intersection of Malasia Road and Sumatra Avenue, over Sumatra Avenue to Hampton Road, over Hampton Road to Brittain Road, and over Brittain Road to Malasia Road;

(c) Those sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto[1] and designated as route 11 "Inman" from the intersection of South Main Street and Mill Street, over Mill Street to Broadway, over Broadway to Center Street, over Center Street to Buchtel Avenue, over Buchtel Avenue to Spicer Street, over Spicer Street to Carroll Street, over Carroll Street to Brown Street, over Brown Street to Exchange Street, and from the intersection of Lovers Lane and Merton Avenue, over Lovers Lane to Talbot Street;

(d) Those sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 12 "Brown" from the intersection of Buchtel Avenue and Ellwood Street, over Buchtel Avenue to Spicer Street, over Spicer Street to Carroll Street and over Carroll Street to Ellwood Street, and from the intersection of Greenlawn Avenue and Catawba Street, over Catawba Street to South Firestone Boulevard, over South Firestone Boulevard between Dresden Avenue and Aster Avenue, over Aster Avenue to Reed Street, and over Reed Street to Brown Street;

(e) Those sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 14 "Waterloo" from the intersection of Firestone Parkway and Emerling Avenue, over Emerling Avenue to Main Street, over Main Street to Cole Avenue, and from the intersection of Miller Avenue and Main Street, over Main Street to Buchtel Avenue, over Buchtel Avenue to High Street, over High Street to Center Street, and over Center Street to Main Street;

(f) That section of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 16 "Wooster-East" from the intersection of Battles Avenue and East Avenue, over East Avenue to California Avenue;

(g) Its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 17 "Long";

(h) That section of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 18 "Thornton" from the intersection of Manchester Road and Clearview Avenue, over Manchester Road to Rothrock Avenue;

(i) That section of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 19 "Euclid" from the intersection of Diagonal Road and Courtland Avenue, over Diagonal Road to Wooster Avenue, and over Wooster Avenue to a terminal east of Diana Avenue; and

(j) That section of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 24 "Cuyahoga" from the intersection of Howard Street and North Street, over North Street to Stuber Street, over Stuber Street to Elizabeth Park Boulevard, over Elizabeth Park Boulevard to Lods Street, over Lods Street to Turner Street, over Turner Street to Charles Street, over Charles Street to Howard Street, over Howard Street to Lods Street, and over Lods Street to Cuyahoga Street.

2. The carrier shall:

(a) Consolidate the remaining sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 4 "York-Tallmadge" by operating buses from the intersection of Howard Street and Main Street, over Howard Street to Glenwood Avenue and over Glenwood Avenue to Dayton Street, from the intersection of Fouse Avenue and Damon Street, over Fouse Avenue to Iredell Street, over Iredell Street to Glenwood Avenue and over Glenwood Avenue to Tallmadge Avenue, and over Patterson Avenue between Glenwood Avenue and Tallmadge Avenue;

(b) Operate not more than 25 per cent of the buses in service on its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 6 "Goodyear Heights" from the intersection of Malasia Road and Goodyear Boulevard, over Goodyear Boulevard to Tonawanda Avenue, over Tonawanda Avenue to Sumatra Avenue, over Sumatra Avenue to Malasia Road and over Malasia Road to Goodyear Boulevard, and terminate the trips of not less than 75 per cent of such buses at a point on Goodyear Boulevard no further north than Newton Street and operate them therefrom over Newton Street to Sumatra Avenue, over Sumatra Avenue to Malasia Road and over Malasia Road to Goodyear Boulevard;

(c) Operate buses in service on its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 11 "Inman" from the intersection of South Main Street and Mill Street, over South Main Street to Exchange Street, over Exchange Street to Brown Street, over Brown Street to South Street, over South Street to Johnston Street, over Johnston Street to Inman Street, over Inman Street to Lovers Lane, over Lovers Lane to Merton Street, and consolidate the operation of such buses with buses operated over its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 12 "Brown";

(d) Consolidate the remaining sections of its route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 12 "Brown" by operating buses from the intersection of Buchtel Avenue and Ellwood Street, over Ellwood Street to Carroll Street, and operate buses in service on such route from the intersection of Catawba Street and Greenlawn Avenue, over Greenlawn Avenue to Mission Drive, and over Mission Drive to Brown Street, and consolidate the operation of such buses with buses operated over its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated route 11 "Inman";

(e) Consolidate the remaining sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 14 "Waterloo" by operating buses from the intersection of Firestone Parkway and Emerling Avenue, over Firestone Parkway to Cole Street and over Cole Street to Main Street and operate buses in service on such route from the intersection of Main Street, Miller Avenue and High Street, over High Street to Long Street, over Long Street to Princeton Street, over Princeton Street to Thornton Street, over Thornton Street to Bowery Street, over Bowery Street to Rhodes Avenue, over Rhodes Avenue to Thornton Street and over Thornton Street to Bowery Street;

(f) Operate not more than 55 percent of the buses in service on its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 16 "Wooster-East" from the intersection of East Avenue and Clearview Avenue, over Clearview Avenue to 13th Street, over 13th Street to Polk Avenue, over Polk Avenue to 16th Street, over 16th Street to Battles Avenue, and over Battles Avenue to East Avenue, and terminate the trips of not less than 45 percent of such buses at a point no further south than Sheridan Avenue operating them from the intersection of East Avenue and Sheridan Avenue over Sheridan Avenue to Sunrise Drive, over Sunrise Drive to Longview Avenue, and over Longview Avenue to East Avenue; and

(g) Consolidate the remaining sections of its bus route described in the appendix hereto and designated as route 24 "Cuyahoga" by operating buses and from the intersection of Howard Street and North Street over Howard Street to Cuyahoga Street, and over Cuyahoga Street to Lods Street.

3. As used herein the term "bus" means any rubber-tired vehicle used on the streets, highways, or other thoroughfares in the transportation of passengers.

4. The carrier forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and shall likewise file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs and supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

5. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special permit issued by the Director, Division of Local Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances.

6. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Local Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Cleveland, Ohio, and should refer to "Special Order ODT LB-13A."

This order shall become effective April 3, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Special Order ODT LB-13, as amended, (8 F.R. 10454 and 11000) is hereby revoked as of the effective date of this Special Order ODT LB-13A.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN POINTS IN PENNSYLVANIA AND NEW YORK

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended, (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have aplied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective March 22, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

TAXICABS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS IN JOPLIN, MO., AREA

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof (hereinafter called "operators") pursuant to General Order ODT 20A (8 F.R. 9231), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and it appearing that the operators propose, by the plan, to coordinate their taxicab operations within the area of Joplin, Missouri, so as to assure maximum utilization of their facilities, services and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials and supplies, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved, and the operators are directed to place the plan into operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. No supervisor, checker or other person employed by the operators shall use coercive methods in effectuating compliance with the plan, and each such person shall report to the Office of Defense Transportation all violations of orders issued by the Office of Defense Transportation applicable to taxicab operations and all failures to comply with the plan that may be observed by them. No operator participating in the plan shall be denied or refused further participation without the prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation.

3. Section 4 (d) (9) of the plan of joint action is approved only in so far as it is administered in accordance with § 501.85 (d) of General Order ODT 20A.

4. Each of the operators shall forthwith file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order.

5. The provisions of this order shall not be construed or applied as to permit any operator named herein to alter his legal liability to any passenger. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing operating authority of any operator named herein, such operator forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the operators possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

6. All records of the operators pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination with inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

7. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the operators to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

8. Any operator duly authorized or permitted to operate taxicabs within the area herein described, and having suitable equipment and facilities therefor, may make application in writing to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Springfield, Missouri, for authorization to participate in the plan. A copy of each such application shall be served upon each of the operators named in this order. Upon receiving authorization to participate in the plan, each such operator shall become subject to this order and shall thereupon be entitled and required to participate in the plan in accordance with all of the provisions and conditions of this order, in the same manner and degree as the operators named herein.

9. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 20A-81" and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Springfield, Missouri.

10. This order shall become effective March 21, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 59-53, 54-88]

CITIES SERVICE CO., ET AL.

ORDER DIRECTING SIMPLIFICATION OF CORPORATE STRUCTURE AND APPROVING PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 14th day of March, 1944.

In the matter of Cities Service Company, Cities Service Power & Light Company, Federal Light & Traction Company, Central Arkansas Public Service Corporation, Public Service Company of Colorado, The Ohio Public Service Company, The Toledo Edison Company, and The Empire District Electric Company, respondents, File No. 59-53; Cities Service Power & Light Company, File No. 54-88.

The Commission having instituted proceedings pursuant to section 11(b)(2) and other sections of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to Cities Service Company, a registered holding company, Cities Service Power & Light Company, a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Cities Service Company, and certain subsidiary companies of Cities Service Company and Cities Service Power & Light Company, by its notice of and order for hearing dated August 29, 1942, to determine, among other things, whether the corporate structure of Cities Service Power & Light Company unduly or unnecessarily complicates the structure of the holding company system of Cities Service Company and/or Cities Service Power & Light Company, and if so, what action shall be required to be taken pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) with respect thereto; and Cities Service Power & Light Company having filed with the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e), a plan and amendments thereto which, among other things, proposes to eliminate all the debentures and preferred stock of Cities Service Power & Light Company from its corporate structure, and Cities Service Company having filed its joinder in said Plan in relation to all transactions between it and Cities Service Power & Light Company provided in said plan as amended; and

The Commission having issued its notice of and order for hearing on said plan and having issued its notice and order reconvening the hearings in said proceeding under section 11 (b) (2) and other sections of the act and consolidating said proceeding with the proceeding on said plan; and

Notice having been duly given to all interested persons, all such persons having been given an opportunity to be heard with respect to all matters pertaining to said proceedings, hearings having been held and the Commission having this day issued and filed its findings and opinion herein; now therefore,

I. It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and in accordance with said findings and opinion, that Cities Service Power & Light Company shall change its present capital structure, consisting of debentures, preferred stock and common stock, into a capital structure consisting of one class of stock, namely common stock.

II. It is further ordered, That the plan dated and filed herein on December 20, 1943, by Cities Service Power & Light Company for the simplification of its corporate structure, as amended, be and it is hereby in all respects approved as necessary and appropriate to carry out and effectuate the provisions of subdivision I of this order, as necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act, and as fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, and that Cities Service Power & Light Company be and it is hereby directed to carry out and consummate said plan in accordance with its terms.

III. It is further ordered, Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this order,

(a) That the applications and declarations of Cities Service Power & Light Company and Cities Service Company with respect to the following transactions, to wit:

(1) The sale and transfer by Cities Service Power & Light Company, and the acquisition by Cities Service Company, of $4,700,000 principal amount of 6% Demand Notes of The Gas Service Company, $838,220 par value of Cumulative First Preferred Stock and $12,832 par value of non-Cumulative Second Preferred Stock of Kansas City Gas Company, and $200,000 par value of Cumulative First Preferred Stock of The Wyandotte County Gas Company in exchange for the sale and transfer by Cities Service Company and the acquisition and retirement by Cities Service Power & Light Company of $1,914,000 principal amount of 5½% Debentures due 1949 and $2,289,000 principal amount of 5½% Debentures due 1952 of Cities Service Power & Light Company and 9,242 shares of $7 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock of Cities Service Power & Light Company, and for the sale and transfer by Cities Service Company and the acquisition by Cities Service Power & Light Company of $150,000 par value of the Common Stock and $874,921 principal amount 6% Demand Note of Ozark Utilities Company,

(2) The sale and transfer by Cities Service Power & Light Company, and the acquisition by Cities Service Company, of the following securities of The Community Traction Company, to wit: $4,724,000 aggregate principal amount of First Mortgage 6% Bonds due 1946, with all matured and unmatured coupons appertaining thereto, $406,125.04 principal amount 6% Note due serially to March 1, 1951, $327,230 principal amount of 6% Demand Notes, and $1,458,950 par value of 8% Cumulative Preferred Stock, in exchange for the sale and transfer by Cities Service Company and the acquisition and retirement by Cities Service Power & Light Company of 40,000 shares of the $5 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock of Cities Service Power & Light Company,

(3) The donation by Cities Service Company and the acquisition and retirement by Cities Service Power & Light Company of 9,352 shares of the $5 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock, 38,791 shares of the $6 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock and 24,469 shares of $7 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock of Cities Service Power & Light Company.

(4) The acquisition and retirement by Cities Service Power & Light Company of $12,922,000 principal amount of its debentures due 1949, $28,647,000 principal amount of its debentures due 1952, 648 shares of its $5 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock, 31,657 shares of its $6 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock, and 21,679 shares of its $7 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Stock, for cash, as set forth hereinafter, and

(5) The issuance and sale by Cities Service Power & Light Company of $20,000,000 principal amount of notes to a group of banks, as provided in the Loan Agreement dated January 5, 1944, between Cities Service Power & Light Company and said banks filed herein, and the pledge as security for said notes of assets of Cities Service Power & Light Company as specified in said Loan Agreement under a Custodian Agreement with The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, in the form or substantially the form attached as Exhibit C to said Loan Agreement.

All as provided by said plan as amended, be and they are hereby granted and permitted to become effective respectively, subject, however, to the following terms and conditions:

(i) That the application of Cities Service Power & Light Company for approval of its acquisition of securities of Ozark Utilities Company is granted subject to the condition that Cities Service Power & Light Company shall, within one year from the date hereof, dispose of its interests in Ozark Utilities Company so to be acquired.

(ii) That jurisdiction be and it is hereby reserved with respect to the retainability by Cities Service Company of the interests to be acquired by it from Cities Service Power & Light Company, and

(iii) That Cities Service Company and Cities Service Power & Light Company shall make appropriate provision to ensure that the debentures and shares of preferred stock of Cities Service Power & Light Company which were held directly or indirectly on March 13, 1944, by or for any officer or director of Cities Service Company or of Cities Service Power & Light Company, and which had been acquired since February 24, 1938, shall be surrendered by such officers and directors under the plan as amended, that the cash paid in respect of such debentures and shares of preferred stock shall be held in a special fund by Cities Service Power & Light Company, that such cash may be invested in United States Government securities, and that such cash, such investments and any increment thereto shall be subject to such disposition as may be determined by the Commission to be appropriate.

(b) That all outstanding debentures of Cities Service Power & Light Company due respectively 1949 and 1952 referred to in subdivision III (a) (4) of this order shall become due and payable at the office of Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company on April 15, 1944, at their principal amount plus accrued interest thereon to April 15, 1944, that Cities Service Power & Light Company shall apply the net proceeds of $20,453,125 heretofore received by it from the sale of its holdings in Public Service Company of Colorado and such portion of the net proceeds of sale of said notes as is required, to the payment of said debentures and of all outstanding matured interest coupons by deposit with Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company on March 15, 1944, or as soon thereafter as possible and in any event prior to April 15, 1944, of cash in an amount equal to the principal amount of said debentures then outstanding plus accrued interest to April 15, 1944, and that in the event of such deposit all interest on said debentures shall cease to accrue on and after April 15, 1944, and all rights of the holders of said debentures except the right to receive out of said cash so deposited the principal amount of their debentures plus interest thereon to April 15, 1944, shall forthwith cease and determine, and Cities Service Power & Light Company shall be released and fully discharged from all liability with respect to said debentures and the coupons appertaining thereto, whether for principal or interest or otherwise, and with respect to the indentures under which said debentures were issued, all as provided by said plan as amended;

(c) That Cities Service Power & Light Company shall, out of the remaining proceeds of sale of said notes, together with any available cash, on March 15, 1944, or as soon thereafter as possible and in any event prior to April 15, 1944, deposit with Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company cash in an amount equivalent to the involuntary liquidating value ($100 per share) of all the outstanding preferred stock of Cities Service Power & Light Company referred to in subdivision III (a) (4) of this order plus accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon to April 15, 1944, that in the event of such deposit, the respective holders of shares of said preferred stock of the Company shall, on and after the date of such deposit, cease to be entitled to any dividends except accumulated and unpaid dividends to April 15, 1944, and shall cease to be stockholders of, or to have any right or interest in, Cities Service Power & Light Company or its assets, or any rights or interest whatsoever, except to receive payment for their shares of said stock all as provided by said plan as amended; and

(d) That Cities Service Power & Light Company shall publish and mail an appropriate notice, as provided by said plan as amended, of said deposits and of the rights of its debenture holders and preferred stockholders to receive payment against surrender of their debentures and preferred stock as aforesaid.

IV. It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and it is hereby reserved with respect to the following matters:

(a) All issues involved in Cities Service Company et al. (File No. 59-53), except those disposed of herein,

(b) The accounting entries to be made by Cities Service Power & Light Company and by Cities Service Company in recording the transactions to be consummated hereunder, and

(c) The disposition of cash to be paid upon the surrender by officers and directors of Cities Service Power & Light Company and Cities Service Company of debentures and shares of preferred stock held directly or indirectly by or for any of them on March 13, 1944, and acquired since February 24, 1938, and the disposition of any securities in which such cash may have been invested and of any increment thereto; and Cities Service Power & Light Company having requested that the Commission include appropriate recitals herein pursuant to the provisions of sections 371 and 1808 of the Internal Revenue Code,

V. It is hereby further ordered, And recited that the use and expenditure by Cities Service Power & Light Company of the net proceeds received by it upon the sale of its holdings in Public Service Company of Colorado in the retirement of its outstanding debentures, the issuance and delivery by Cities Service Power & Light Company of notes in the aggregate principal amount of $20,000,000, the exchange of securities between Cities Service Company and Cities Service Power & Light Company, and the donation by Cities Service Company to Cities Service Power & Light Company of 72,612 shares of preferred stock, all as hereinbefore in this order provided and directed, is necessary or appropriate to the integration and simplification of the holding company system of which Cities Service Power & Light Company is a member, and is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

ILLINOIS POWER CO.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 14th day of March, 1944.

On January 5, 1944 we entered an order[1] in the above proceeding permitting an amended declaration of Illinois Power Company (the Company) to become effective under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding (a) the issue and sale to institutional investors[2] of $65,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds, —% Series due November 1, 1973, and (b) the issue and sale to commercial banks of 2¾% Serial Notes in the principal amount of not less than $4,000,000 and not more than $5,000,000, maturing serially in not more than five years from date. The order provided that the issue and sale of the proposed bonds and notes should not be consummated until we had been advised as to the price and terms of the new bonds and had entered a further order in these proceedings. We also directed the Company to furnish a revised estimate of the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed refunding and reserved jurisdiction with respect to the payment thereof.

On February 28, 1944 the Company filed an amendment in compliance with our previous order. A public hearing was held and the Commission, having considered the record, makes the following findings:

The Company has entered into contracts with institutional investors for the sale to them of an aggregate of $63,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds, 4% Series due November 1, 1973, dated November 1, 1943, at a price of 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date of delivery. The bonds are redeemable, otherwise than for sinking fund purposes, in whole or in part at the option of the Company upon payment of the principal amount plus accrued interest and a premium amounting to 5% of the principal amount thereof to and including November 1, 1944; thereafter, the premium decreases 1/29 of 5% each year to and including November 1, 1972. The Company has also entered into contracts with three commercial banks for the sale to them of 2¾% Serial Notes in the aggregate amount of $5,000,000 maturing serially in not more than five years from date. The record indicates that the reduction from $65,000,000 to $63,000,000 in the principal amount of new bonds is occasioned by the sale of the maximum amount of notes and by the use of cash available as a result of recent improvement in the cash position of the Company.

The amendment discloses that the Mortgage and Deed of Trust and Supplemental Indenture securing the new bonds contain provisions differing somewhat from those contemplated in the original filing and summarized on pages 16 and 17 of our findings and opinion in this matter.[1] The only substantial changes, however, relate to the sinking and property additions funds. The sinking fund has been increased so as to retire a minimum of $28,600,000 principal amount of the new bonds, instead of $26,000,000 thereof, prior to maturity. This is effected by an annual increase of $200,000 beginning in 1960, in the sinking fund payments. The property additions fund has been increased from $1,800,000 to $2,000,000 annually so as to require the application of a minimum of $58,000,000 during the period 1944 to 1972, inclusive, for the construction or acquisition of property additions, as compared with $52,200,000 as originally proposed. As initially drawn, the mortgage provided that the Company could not obtain the release of part, as distinguished from all, of the pledged securities of its subsidiary, Illinois Terminal Railroad Company. This restriction has been broadened to include Central Terminal Company, the Company's only other active subsidiary. The Supplemental Indenture also provides that upon maturity or default the interest rate shall be increased to 5% per annum; the Supplemental Indenture originally provided that in such event the interest would continue at the same rate at which the bonds were sold.

The Purchase Agreement provides that concurrently with the delivery of the new bonds, the proceeds from the sale thereof shall be deposited with the trustee under the indenture securing the outstanding bonds. The Series C, 5% First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, due December 1, 1956, in the principal amount of $39,175,100 will be called for redemption on June 1, 1944, and the Series A, 6% First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, due April 1, 1953, in the principal amount of $30,681,500 will be called for redemption on October 1, 1944.

The purchasers represent that they are purchasing the new bonds for their respective accounts for investment and with no present intention of reselling or distributing them.

The issue and sale of the new bonds at the price and on the terms set forth in [1] Illinois Power Company, — S.E.C. —, Holding Company Act Release No. 4815.

[2] The order granted the Company an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.

[1] Illinois Power Company, supra.

the amendment has been authorized by an order of the Illinois Commerce Commission dated March 7, 1944.

The sale of the new 4% bonds at a price of 101 represents a net cost of money to the Company of 3.945% and will result in an annual interest savings before taxes of $1,142,000. The record discloses that the price and terms of the new bonds were determined after extensive negotiations at arm's-length. We see no necessity for adverse findings with respect thereto.

The total revised estimate of the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the refunding program is $372,950.[1] We will reserve jurisdiction over all legal fees and expenses and over the fees payable to The First Boston Corporation as the record is not complete with respect thereto. The other fees and expenses do not appear to be unreasonable and jurisdiction over their payment will be released.

It is therefore ordered, That the declaration of Illinois Power Company, as amended on February 28, 1944, be and the same is hereby permitted to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24, and subject to the further condition that jurisdiction is hereby reserved over the payment of all legal fees and expenses and the fees of The First Boston Corporation incident to these proceedings and for the entrance of further orders with respect thereto.

By the Commission.

Office of Distribution.

ADMINISTRATOR OR ALTERNATE ADMINISTRATOR OF FOOD DISTRIBUTION ORDER 75-2

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Food Distribution Order No. 75 (8 F.R. 11119), and to effectuate the purposes thereof and of Food Distribution Order No. 75-2, as amended (9 F.R. 2200), the Administrator or Alternate Administrator of Food Distribution Order No. 75-2 is hereby authorized:

(a) To grant exemptions, in whole or part, from the provisions of said order, upon a showing that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship. In granting exemptions, the Order Administrator or Alternate Order Administrator shall be guided by:

(1) Findings or determinations of the interested procurement agency with respect to transportation or delivery, or with respect to current needs for particular types, grades or quantities; or

(2) Abnormal civilian requirements in defense areas in combination with a seasonal shortage of livestock in such areas; or

(3) Lack of facilities within the trade area in which the petitioner is located, together with any unreasonable hardship which would result from a requirement that such facilities be obtained; or

(4) Other factors involving facilities, transportation, delivery, economy of operation, population, civilian requirements, or fluctuations in the supply of livestock, which would operate in such a manner as to bring about an exceptional and unreasonable hardship.

(b) To allocate set aside meat to or among governmental agencies, authorized purchasers, or persons entitled to purchase set aside meat under a Food Distribution regulation.

(c) Upon written application, to revise any conversion weight factor upon a showing that such factor will result in undue hardship in the preparation of certain products.

Any exemption, allocation, revision, or exception hereunder shall be by written notice to the individual slaughterer concerned. All authority herein conferred shall be exercised subject to the supervision of the Chief of the Livestock and Meats Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, and in accordance with such general instructions concerning policy and procedure as may from time to time be issued by the Director of Food Distribution.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting any power or authority vested in the Director of Food Distribution.

This delegation supersedes the delegation of authority of August 25, 1943 (8 F.R. 11864).

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter I—Farm Credit Administration

[FCA Order 400]

PART 3—FUNCTIONS OF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

OFFICERS OF THE REVOLVING FUND

Sections 3.60 and 3.61, Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.60 Functions and duties of Director of the Revolving Fund. The Director of the Revolving Fund is authorized and empowered: (a) To accept or reject applications for loans from the Revolving Fund authorized by the Agricultural Marketing Act (46 Stat. 11; 12 U.S.C. 1141–1141j; and Sup.), in whole or in part, and to make commitments therefor; to designate such officers of the Revolving Fund Section as he may deem necessary and to prescribe their authority and duties; to execute, either in person or through such officer as he may authorize, instruments for the release, modification, renewal, or revival of real and chattel mortgages, pledges, and other lien instruments, and such other documents as may be necessary to carry out the functions of his office, and all such documents and instruments heretofore executed are ratified and confirmed; and to perform any and all functions and duties, in accordance with law, which the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration is authorized to perform with respect to the administration of the Revolving Fund Section and of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended, except the signing of vouchers for the disbursement of money from the Revolving Fund; and (b) to perform any and all functions and duties, in accordance with law, which the Governor of Farm Credit Administration is authorized to perform with respect to the administration of the act of March 3, 1932 (47 Stat. 60; 12 U.S.C. 1401–1404), relating to loans to individuals for the purpose of assisting in forming or increasing the capital stock of agricultural credit corporations, livestock loan companies, or like organizations. (E. O. 6084, Mar. 27, 1933, 6 CFR 1.1; Memorandum No. 846 of the Secretary of Agriculture, dated January 6, 1940; Memorandum No. 1086, of the Secretary of Agriculture, dated April 26, 1943)

§ 3.61 Official acts of Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer of the Revolving Fund ratified. The office of "Treasurer and Disbursing Officer for the Revolving Fund of the Federal Farm Board," created by a resolution of the Federal Farm Board, adopted November 12, 1929, and the office of "Assistant Treasurer and Deputy Disbursing Officer for the Revolving Fund of the Federal Farm Board", created by a resolution of the Federal Farm Board, adopted March 17, 1930, are hereby discontinued. All official acts of said officers (also entitled Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer of the Agricultural Marketing Revolving Fund and Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer of the Revolving Fund) and in particular all instruments executed by the persons occupying said offices, for the release, modification, renewal, or revival of real or chattel mortgages, pledges, or other lien instruments, are hereby ratified and confirmed. (E.O. 6084, Mar. 27, 1933, 6 CFR 1.1; Memorandum No. 846 of the Secretary of Agriculture, dated January 6, 1940; Memorandum No. 1086 of the Secretary of Agriculture, dated April 26, 1943)

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—War Food Administration (Sugar Regulations)

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

WAGE RATES FOR 1944 CROP OF SUGAR BEETS

Determination of fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1944 crop of sugar beets.

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, issued April 19, 1943, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.14j Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1944 crop of sugar beets. The requirements of section 301 (b) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, shall be deemed to have been met with respect to the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1944 crop of sugar beets if all persons employed on a farm, or part of a farm covered by a separate labor agreement, in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1944 crop of sugar beets shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages at rates not less than the following:

(a) The wage rates agreed upon, but no less than the wage rates specified in paragraph (a) of the "Determination of Fair and Reasonable Wage Rates for Persons Employed in the Production, Cultivation, or Harvesting of the 1943 Crop of Sugar Beets", of April 7, 1943.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (b) of the aforementioned determination of April 7, 1943, shall apply to the 1944 crop, except that subparagraph (3) shall read as follows:

(3) That in an instance where the planting of segmented seed reduces the amount of labor required in thinning as compared with whole seed the piece rate for blocking and thinning shall be the rate agreed upon between the laborer and the producer but not less than 75 percent of the piece rate for blocking and thinning prescribed under paragraph (a) of this determination.

(c) For purposes of this determination, a farm, or part of a farm covered by a separate labor agreement, shall be deemed to be located in the wage district in which the factory where the beets are contracted to be delivered is located.

(Sec. 301, 50 Stat. 909; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 1131; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

PRICES FOR 1944 CROP OF VIRGIN ISLANDS SUGARCANE

Determination of fair and reasonable prices for the 1944 crop of Virgin Islands sugarcane.

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection (d) of section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order 9334, issued April 19, 1943, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.53b Fair and reasonable prices for the 1944 crop of Virgin Islands sugarcane. Processors who, as producers, apply for payment under the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of section 301 (d) of said act, if the requirements specified below have been met:

(a) Purchased sugarcane is paid for at the rate of not less than the f. o. b. mill value of 6 pounds of 96° raw sugar per hundredweight of such sugarcane. The average New York price of 96° raw sugar, for the week (or such other period as may be agreed upon) in which sugarcane was delivered, less all costs involved in the marketing of such sugar (other than bags and bagging, storage in company warehouses, war risk insurance, or any item of expense incurred in the marketing of such sugar which is reimbursed in whole or in part by the federal government or any agency thereof) shall be deemed as the f. o. b. mill value of such sugar.

(b) There is paid, per hundredweight of purchased sugarcane, an amount equal to one-half of the excess, if any, of the net proceeds derived from the sale of blackstrap molasses produced from a hundredweight of sugarcane of the 1944 crop over the net proceeds from the sale of blackstrap molasses produced from a hundredweight of sugarcane from the 1941 crop.

(Sec. 301, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C. 1131; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter VI—Solid Fuels Administration for War

[Reg. 10, Amdt. 3]

PART 602—GENERAL ORDERS AND DIRECTIVES

BITUMINOUS COAL

Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 10 was issued in November 1943 in order to assure that consumers with relatively large stockpiles would during the winter months draw substantially upon such stockpiles so that (1) consumers with relatively small stockpiles, including particularly those consumers whose facilities had prevented them from building protective stockpiles, would be permitted to obtain sufficient currently produced bituminous coal to meet their immediate consumption requirements and to maintain stockpiles adequate to meet emergencies, and (2) a reasonable supply of bituminous coal would be available to retail dealers and household consumers who were dependent upon them for their fuel supply.

In planning the bituminous coal distribution program for the year April 1, 1944 to April 1, 1945, it appears necessary after careful survey of the estimated coal supply and requirements, and after full consultation with representatives of producers, wholesalers, retailers and consumers of bituminous coal to revise Regulation No. 10.

Unless it is arranged so that bituminous coal mines throughout the Nation enjoy full running time during the entire year, a reliable statistical forecast of the supply of and requirements for bituminous coal, as well as the opinions of representatives of producers and industrial consumers, indicates that serious shortages will result. Maximum coal production is imperative and such production cannot be obtained unless industrial consumers, retail dealers and household consumers build up reasonable stocks during the spring and summer months. The failure to do this may result in hardship or suffering next winter.

Because maldistribution would be the result, it is not practicable to suspend entirely the provisions of Regulation No. 10. Variations in the supply of and requirements for bituminous coal produced in different districts necessitate a variance in the revision of Regulation No. 10 for different groups of producing districts.

The amendment makes no change in the Stock Limitation Table applicable to bituminous coal produced in Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 13. There is pending for crystallization during the month of March a Solid Fuels Administration for War distribution program involving the allocation of coals produced in these districts for by-product use or for movement to those receiving coal shipped via the Great Lakes. The definite formulation of this program is dependent upon statistics which are in the process of being analyzed. Until the by-product and lake program has progressed further, it does not appear appropriate to modify the existing Stock Limitation Table for these districts. However, in the formulation of the lake and by-product program there will be taken into account the necessity of permitting and encouraging to the maximum extent practicable industrial consumers to build up during the spring and summer reasonable and protective stockpiles of coals from these districts. Indeed, it is anticipated that during the month of April bituminous coal will be available in some of these districts (1, 3, 4, 6 and 13) beyond that which may be normally shipped under the Stock Limitation Table. It is expected that every industrial consumer who can do so will place orders for such additional available coal in accordance with this amendment and § 602.178 of the regulation. It is expected that effective as of May 1, Regulation No. 10 will again be revised so as to relax the Stock Limitation Table applicable to some or all of these districts.

The amendment virtually suspends the Stock Limitation Table in respect to bituminous coal produced in Districts 9, 10 and 11. These districts will shortly experience losses in running time as a result of insufficient orders upon which to ship potential production unless industrial consumers promptly proceed to build up stockpiles of coal produced in these districts. In order to prevent maldistribution, the amendment prohibits the building up of stockpiles of coals from these districts in excess of 120 days, except upon written permission from the Solid Fuels Administration for War. To the extent that stockpiles are built up beyond 90 days, the amendment gives no assurance that the excess stockpile above 90 days' supply will not have to be drawn upon later in the year at a very rapid rate. The amendment does give assurance, however, that so long as the industrial consumer's stockpile of coals from these districts remains within the range of 40 days' supply to 90 days' supply, the same monthly rate of draw down will apply when it becomes necessary to reinstate a specific Stock Limitation Table. The amendment makes it clear that the industrial consumer who fails to utilize his facilities and opportunities to build up a reasonable stockpile of these coals may experience considerable difficulty in obtaining an adequate fuel supply later in the year.

In respect to Districts 5, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22 and 23, the Stock Limitation Table of the regulation has heretofore not been applicable. The amendment makes no change in this regard.

In respect to special purpose coal, the Stock Limitation Table of the regulation has heretofore not been applicable. The amendment makes no change in this regard.

It is to be expected that industrial consumers who purchase bituminous coal in any district will be ready and willing to receive such coal wherever and whenever that becomes necessary in order to avoid the curtailment of production. It is imperative that industrial consumers cooperate with producers in this respect if the prosecution of the war is not to be hampered by a curtailment of production and the failure of industrial consumers to order and receive every ton of bituminous coal that can be produced over and above what is permitted to be shipped under the Stock Limitation Table of Regulation No. 10.

Accordingly, pursuant to the powers conferred by Executive Order No. 9332 (8 F.R. 5355), Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 10 (8 F.R. 15773; 8 F.R. 16718; 9 F.R. 720) is amended as follows:

(1) That portion of paragraph (a) of § 602.172 Limitations based on bituminous coal stocks of industrial consumers preceding the Stock Limitation Table and applicable footnotes is amended to read as follows:

Except as provided by paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this section and by §§ 602.178 and 602.182 of this regulation, no industrial consumer shall place an order for delivery, or receive, during any calendar month, bituminous coal produced in Districts 1 to 4, inclusive, 6, 7, 8 and 13, in amounts exceeding the maximum percentage (to the nearest carload or barge lot) of his monthly consumption requirements as specified in the following Stock Limitation Table:

STOCK LIMITATION TABLE

Maximum percentage of monthly consumption requirements that may be ordered (subject to provisions of §§ 602.172, 602.178 and 602.182) from Districts 1 to 4, inclusive, 6, 7, 8 and 13 for delivery and received during any calendar month by an industrial consumer, from all sources combined, for a plant (or railroad system) based upon the days' supply of coal at such plant (or railroad system):

Paragraph (b) of § 602.172 is amended to read as follows:

(b) No restrictions upon the basis of days' supply are imposed by this regulation upon orders for bituminous coal for vessel fuel or bunker fuel, or upon orders for special purpose coals, or upon orders for bituminous coals produced in Districts Nos. 5, 12, 14 to 20, inclusive, 22 and 23.

Paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 602.172 are redesignated paragraphs (d) and (e) respectively and a new paragraph (c) is added to § 602.172, reading as follows:

(c) (i) The Stock Limitation Table provided in paragraph (a) of this section is not applicable to orders of coal produced in Districts Nos. 9, 10 and 11. No industrial consumer having 120 days' supply or more of bituminous coal shall order or receive from Districts Nos. 9, 10 and 11 more than 100% of his monthly consumption requirements unless he first obtains written permission so to do from the Solid Fuels Administration for War.

(ii) In order to encourage the building of stockpiles of Districts Nos. 9, 10 and 11 coals up to 90 days' supply, assurance is given that when it becomes necessary to reinstate a specific Stock Limitation Table for these coals so long as any industrial consumer has a stockpile containing not less than 40 nor more than 90 days' supply he will not be required to draw down at a greater rate than any other industrial consumer having a stockpile containing 40-90 days' supply; and that any industrial consumer who has less than 40 days' supply, or who has reduced his stockpile to less than 40 days' supply, may be required to draw down his stockpile at a different rate than those who continue to have in excess of a 40 days' supply.

When the specific Stock Limitation Table is reinstated, the rate of draw down on industrial consumers' stocks above 90 days may be and is likely to be considerably greater than the rate of draw down on stocks within the range of 40 to 90 days' supply.

Those industrial consumers who fail to utilize to the full existing facilities and opportunities to stock coal from these districts are likely to experience difficulty in obtaining an adequate fuel supply after the Stock Limitation Tables are reinstated.

(2) Section 602.173 Voluntary efforts to level industrial consumers' stocks; information concerning noncooperative consumers is hereby suspended until further action by the Solid Fuels Administration for War.

(3) Paragraph (c) of § 602.174 Restrictions on shipments to industrial consumers unless orders comply with § 602.172 and are submitted on time and contain certain information is amended to read as follows:

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or of § 602.172, industrial consumers should make every reasonable effort to make known to producers and wholesalers that they are ready, willing and able to accept coal in addition to the amount ordered to the extent that such coal is available and offered in accordance with the provisions of § 602.178.

(4) Section 602.178 Production in no event to be curtailed is amended to read as follows:

§ 602.178 Joint responsibility of industrial consumer and producer to assure that production is in no event curtailed. Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation, no producer is required to curtail his production by reason of this regulation. In the event a producer does not have adequate orders on which shipments may be made consistent with this regulation during any calendar week, he shall arrange to the extent necessary in order to permit operation of the mine without curtailment, for the distribution of surplus coal during that calendar week; and it is the joint responsibility of industrial consumers and producers to take all steps necessary to assure that the operation of no mine is curtailed for the lack of adequate orders. If a producer expects to have surplus coal which he cannot dispose of under voluntary arrangements with purchasers in accordance with this section, he shall forthwith notify the Area Distribution Manager for his district concerning the situation.

(5) Paragraph (b) of § 602.185 Revocation of Solid Fuels Administration for War Order No. 5, and partial revocation of Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 4, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 4, as amended (§§ 602.41 to 602.58, inclusive), is hereby revoked as of December 1, 1943. Section 602.42 of that regulation is hereby revoked as of April 1, 1944.

(6) This amendment becomes effective forthwith.

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Solid Fuels Administrator for War.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1, as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-49, as Amended March 16, 1944]

BEDS, BED SPRINGS, MATTRESSES AND DUAL SLEEPING EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel, wood and textiles for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

Section 3291.70 Limitation Order L-49 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3291.70 Limitation Order L-49—(a) What this order does. This order regulates the production of bedding products. It assigns maximum manufacturing quotas for such products regardless of the materials from which they are made. It also limits the amount of iron and steel which may be incorporated in any item.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) The term "bedding products" includes metal beds; metal bed frames; metal cots, metal bunks and metal roll-away cots (including springs). It also includes the following products whether or not containing metal: innerspring mattresses, pads, pillows; coil, flat or fabric bedsprings; box springs; mattress foundations; crib springs; and dual sleeping equipment (studio couches, sofa beds, lounges, and chair beds designed for dual seating and sleeping purposes).

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufacturers or assembles bedding products, but does not include a person who repairs or reassembles a bedding product.

(3) "Base period" means the twelve month period ending June 30, 1941.

(4) "Preferred order" means any purchase order, contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Aircraft Resources Control Office, or Federal Public Housing Authority, or for delivery outside the United States, its territories and possessions.

(c) Restrictions on production for other than preferred orders. (1) During each calendar quarter beginning January 1, 1944, no manufacturer shall produce more bedding products, for other than preferred orders, than the percentage as shown in Schedule A of his unit production of such products during the base period. If in any calendar quarter a manufacturer produces less than his permitted production, he may produce the unused portion of his quota in the following quarter.

(2) No manufacturer shall produce any bedding product containing more iron and steel for other than preferred orders than the amount shown for that product in Schedule A.

(d) Manufacturers of bed springs may not increase production in critical labor plants without special authorization—(1) What a "critical labor plant" is. A "critical labor plant" is a plant in a Group I or Group II labor area, as classifiled by the War Manpower Commission, in which a manufacturer was authorized to produce during the fourth quarter of 1943 more than 1,000 box springs or more than 5,000 coil, flat or fabric bed springs.

[1] Administrative regulations of the War Department pertaining to discharge of enlisted men.

(2) Rules governing critical labor plants. No manufacturer shall produce during any quarter in any plant which was a critical labor plant on the first day of that quarter, more box springs or more coil, flat or fabric bed springs, including preferred orders, than he produced in that plant during the fourth quarter of 1943, unless he obtains specific authorization from the War Production Board. Authorization for additional production will not be given if such production would interfere with war production in that plant or elsewhere. Additional production will be authorized in such a way as to avoid increasing requirements for labor in labor shortage areas. Any manufacturer seeking specific authorization under this paragraph should file a written statement in triplicate with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which the plant is located. This statement should include the following:

(i) The number of production workers in the plant for the last pay roll period for which data are available.

(ii) A full explanation of how labor requirements for the requested production will be met.

(iii) Any other facts pertinent to a decision on whether or not the proposed increased production will interfere with war work.

(e) Reports. Each manufacturer producing bedding products must file with the War Production Board quarterly reports on Form WPB–1600 (formerly PD–655) on or before the 15th day of April, July, October and January, according to the instructions for filing that form.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from this order must be made on Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–500) and must be filed with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(h) Applicability of regulations and other orders. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of bedding products to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–49.

NOTE: The applications and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

Metal beds (except hospital type) and metal bed frames	No production.
Metal beds, hospital type (including fabric spring or adjustable type spring).	Unlimited.
Metal cots, metal bunks, and metal rollaway cots (including springs)	12½%.
Cots and rollaway cots—maximum weight	42 lbs.
Bunks—maximum weight	101 lbs.
Innerspring mattresses, pads and pillows	No production.
Hospital innerspring mattresses only on specific order of or contract with hospitals or sanitariums.	Unlimited.
Coil, flat or fabric bedsprings (except hospital adjustable type spring)	12½%.
Double deck coil spring (not more than 30% of production)—maximum weight	68 lbs.
Single deck coil spring—maximum weight	87 lbs.
Flat or fabric spring—maximum weight	43 lbs.
Crib springs	28%.
—maximum weight	16 lbs.
Box springs	12½%.
—maximum weight	25 lbs.
Dual sleeping equipment (studio couches, sofa beds, lounges and chair beds designed for dual seating and sleeping purposes).	9%.
Studio couches—maximum weight	60 lbs.
Sofa beds, lounges and chair beds—maximum weight	35 lbs.

Exceptions. (1) Any manufacturer whose permitted production of any bedding product is restricted by this schedule to less than 250 units in any calendar quarter, may nevertheless, produce during any calendar quarter 25% of his base period production of such product, or 250 units, whichever is the smaller.

(2) Innerspring mattresses may be produced using innerspring constructions contained in inventory prior to September 1, 1942, upon specific authorization of the War Production Board. To secure such authorization, a manufacturer should address a letter to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–49, stating the number of innerspring constructions he has in inventory, the number of innerspring mattresses he wishes to produce and the person to whom they will be sold.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–49, Interpretations 1 and 2, Revocation]

BEDS, BED SPRINGS, MATTRESSES, AND DUAL SLEEPING EQUIPMENT

Interpretations 1 and 2 of Order L–49 are superseded by subparagraph (b) (2) of the order as amended March 16, 1944.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[General Limitation Order L–49, Interpretation 3]

BEDS, BED SPRINGS, MATTRESSES AND DUAL SLEEPING EQUIPMENT

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the War Production Board with respect to § 3291.70 General Limitation Order L–49:

This interpretation is to explain the effect of L–49 upon the repairing or reassembling of bedding products. Paragraph (b) (2) of L–49 defines a manufacturer as "any person who manufactures or assembles bedding products, but does not include a person who repairs or reassembles a bedding product." Certain examples may help to clarify this definition.

A person who buys a number of used or second-hand coil, flat and fabric bedsprings, tears them down and reassembles the usable parts into bed springs is not a manufacturer any more than is a person who adds a piece to a single bed spring to put it into usable condition. However, a person who buys used automobile seat springs and assembles them into a bedding product is engaged in manufacture and not in making repairs or reassembling, as the material with which he works was never a bedding product.

A person who acquires a new innerspring construction and assembles it into an innerspring mattress is obviously a manufacturer of that mattress. Conversely, a person who acquires a used innerspring mattress, or an innerspring construction which has previously been incorporated into an innerspring mattress, and remakes these items is not engaged in manufacture, but in repair or reassembly.

The essential thing to bear in mind in construing paragraph (b) (2) is that for an operation to be classified as repairing or reassembling, the article or articles with which a person is working must have at one time been a bedding product or part of a bedding product.

PART 1157[1]—CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L–217, Schedule VI, as Amended Mar. 17, 1944]

TRUCK MIXER-AGITATORS

§ 1157.26[1] Schedule VI to Limitation Order L–217—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Schedule VI:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of truck mixer-agitators.

(3) "Truck mixer-agitator" means any mixer body suitable for truck mounting ordinarily used for mixing or agitating concrete in transit, where the batched materials are or may be loaded by gravity into the mixer drum.

(4) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of truck mixer-agitators.

(b) Limitation on production. (1) On and after March 15, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of truck mixer-agitators which do not conform to the sizes and types established in paragraph (c) hereof. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on that date.

(2) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation on sizes and types. Producers are limited to the following sizes of truck mixer-agitators, and no more than one type (either the inclined axis rotating drum or open body type) is permitted for each such size:

(1) 2 cubic yard mixer (3 cubic yard agitator).

(2) 4 cubic yard mixer (6 cubic yard agitator).

(d) Limitation on painting. On and after March 15, 1943, no producer shall use striping or trimming on truck mixer-agitators, nor, except for sign lettering, use more than one color finish coat paint on any one truck mixer-agitator and its repair parts if painted. Nothing in this paragraph (d) shall be deemed to require the repainting of any truck mixer-agitators or repair parts in any such producer's inventory on March 15, 1943.

(e) [Deleted Mar. 17, 1944]

(f) Restrictions on producers. No person, unless actively engaged in the current production of truck mixer-agitators (as indicated by his January, 1943, filing of production and shipment schedules on Form PD–697, pursuant to Limitation Order L–192) shall thereafter enter into the production thereof.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 5, Direction 18]

HOW TO APPLY FOR AN INCREASE OF QUOTA

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 5:

(a) A person applying for an increase in his quota under paragraph (f) (8) of CMP Regulation No. 5 should show in his letter of application the following information:

(1) Name of product(s) manufactured or description of services rendered;

(2) Show what quarterly quota you were authorized under paragraph (f) in 1943. (If operating on a seasonal basis, show for each quarter of 1943). If you received a special authorization for any quarter, show that for each such quarter in addition to the "base" quota;

(3) Statement of total dollar value of deliveries of your product in 1942, and first and subsequent quarters of 1943, by quarters. Show deliveries for each quarter by principal Claimant Agencies;

(4) Statement of total amount of MRO requested to be authorized per quarter. This should include the base quota already permitted by paragraph (f) (1), (2), or (3) plus the increase requested;

(5) Statement of total amount expended during 1943 for minor capital additions under paragraph (b) (3) of the regulation;

(6) Statement of deliveries of your product scheduled for quarters for which MRO increase is requested;

(7) Any additional information which may be pertinent to proper evaluation of the application.

(b) If any of these questions do not apply to your operations, substitute equivalent information describing the circumstances.

(c) The application should be filed with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: CMP Regulation No. 5.

Issued this 17th day of March 1944.

PART 3207—INDUSTRIAL TYPE INSTRUMENTS, CONTROL VALVES AND REGULATORS: SIMPLIFICATION

[Limitation Order L–272, Schedule VII, as Amended Mar. 17, 1944]

INDUSTRIAL THERMOMETERS

Schedule VII to Limitation Order L–272 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3207.8 Schedule VII to Limitation Order L–272—(a) Definition. This schedule applies only to "industrial thermometers," which are those generally known as such by the trade. Such thermometers as the 5-inch scale Navy type are included. An industrial thermometer has a case with glass front; a mercury or liquid filled glass tube; fixed thread, flanged, union, separable socket or long stem connection; and a separate scale graduated in degrees. This schedule does not apply to general purpose thermometers or to such special types as cup-case, japanned tin case, etched in armor, or shiphold thermometers; nor does it apply to dairy thermometers manufactured to conform to Federal, State or Municipal regulations applying to the handling of milk.

(b) Specifications. (1) Protective finishes, for case or front, if supplied, shall be paint, lacquer or enamel only.

(2) Industrial thermometer cases shall be made only in the 5-inch, 7-inch and 9-inch sizes; and only one type of case (the manufacturer's standard type) shall be furnished in each size; but the omission of glass or front from the case shall not constitute a difference in type. The provisions of this paragraph (b) (2) do not apply to fume-tight cases; nor to ring or handle-topped thermometers not designed for rigid attachment to apparatus.

(3) Thermometers shall be manufactured in 90, 135, 180 and 225 degree angles only. The angle is that measured between the center line of the stem and the center line of the case, and is measured either in a plane normal to the face backwards from the face, or in a plane parallel to the face either to the right or left of the face. Offset angles are in no way restricted by this provision.

(4) Thermometer scales shall not have any special markings or legends, such as service markings, special markings, or colorings or graduations, operating zones, or trade names, or trade marks other than those of the producer. If special markings or legends are necessary they should be placed on tags made of noncritical materials.

(5) Separable sockets shall not be supplied with caps and chains except when they are required by Navy specifications on orders for the Navy.

(6) Cases and case fronts may be made of copper base alloy only if the copper content is not greater than seventy-four (74%) percent and the tin content not greater than one and one-half (1½%) percent.

Issued this 17th day of March 1944.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[General Preference Order M-166 as Amended Mar. 17, 1944]

FLAGS

§ 3290.84 General Preference Order M-166—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except as otherwise provided herein.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Flag" means a piece of cloth used as an emblem, whether it be in the form of a banner, bunting, burgee, color, guidon, valance, half-fan, net banner, pennant, pull-down, rosette (or full-fan), standard, or in any other form.

(2) "Flag manufacturer" means any person manufacturing flags on a commercial scale, whether or not he also manufactures some other product or products.

(3) "Converter" means any person who purchases greige goods for conversion into fabrics meeting the requirements of any flag manufacturer.

(4) "Military order" means an order placed by the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Shipping Administration, the Veterans Administration or the American Red Cross.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture. (1) After October 1, 1943, no flag manufacturer shall put into process any woven fabric for the manufacture of any flag (as defined above) except the following:

(i) Official flags. Flags of any country, flags of any department or agency of the Federal Government (including the military services and all subdivisions) or flags the use of which is authorized by any of them, flags of any State or municipal government, and flags to be delivered under a military order, as defined above.

(ii) Religious flags. The officially adopted flag of any religious denomination or sect.

(iii) Signal flags. Code flags, semaphore flags, or flags indicating danger or distress.

(iv) Service flags. Flags showing that a person or persons are serving in the armed forces of the United States.

(2) After October 1, 1943, no flag manufacturer shall put into process any material for the manufacture of any flag having an area of more than 150 square feet, except as required by a military order or as permitted under paragraph (g) below.

(d) Assignment of preference rating. (1) A preference rating of AA-6 is hereby assigned to purchase orders by flag manufacturers for the following materials (either gray, bleached, dyed or printed) to be incorporated into the types of flags permitted under paragraph (c) (1) above:

(i) Cotton mercerized bunting manufactured in accordance with the then current issue of Federal Specification CCC-B-791 type A and B;

(ii) Class A sheeting, Class B sheeting;

(iii) Print cloth of less than 80 sley;

(iv) Single filling flat duck;

(v) Broadcloth 36" 80 x 60 single ply;

(vi) Rayon fabric: 39" wide. 110 x 60 construction plain weave made with 150 denier viscose or acetate bright rayon yarn in the warp and filling.

(vii) Rayon fabric: 40" wide. 120 x 68 construction plain weave made with 120 denier warp and 150 denier filling acetate bright rayon yarn.

(viii) Rayon fabric: 48" in the reed. 100 ends in the reed, 72 picks, plain weave. 75 denier viscose or cuprammonium rayon warp crepe with 55/57 turns warped 2 ends S twist, 2 ends Z twist. 75 denier viscose or cuprammonium rayon filling with natural twist.

(ix) Rayon fabric: 52" wide. 225 x 76 or 80 construction plain weave made with 2 thread 40 denier cuprammonium 14/16 turns warp. 100 denier cuprammonium 12 turns filling.

(x) Rayon fabric: 39" wide. 140 x 64 construction satin standard finish made with 100 denier bright viscose warp. 150 denier bright viscose filling.

(xi) Pro rata widths to the above-mentioned weights and constructions.

(xii) Cotton sewing thread.

(2) Such preference rating shall be applied and extended in accordance with Priorities Regulation 3 and General Conservation Order M-328, except that converters may extend ratings only to obtain material which is required to fill a specific order on their books and may not extend ratings to replace inventories.

(3) The preference rating heretofore assigned to converters by this order is hereby revoked. Any materials obtained by converters through the use of such rating may be sold only on orders carrying an AA-5 or higher rating placed by flag manufacturers.

(e) Quantity restrictions. No flag manufacturer shall in any 12 months' period beginning July 1 of any year use in the manufacture of flags a greater quantity of fabrics than he used during the period July 1, 1942 to July 1, 1943.

(f) Inventory restrictions. No flag manufacturer or converter shall accept delivery of any materials for flag production, or cause any materials to be accepted on his behalf, if his inventory of raw materials and materials in process will then exceed the quantity to be used by him within 60 days. For this purpose greige goods delivered to flag manufacturers who do their own converting may be considered separately from finished goods, and greige goods may be accepted by such flag manufacturers if they will be converted into finished goods within 60 days.

This inventory restriction is in addition to that contained in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(h) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M-166.

(i) Reports. Each flag manufacturer shall file one copy of Form WPB-3171 as specified in said form.

All reporting requirements in this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 17th day of March 1944.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS[1]

[General Limitation Order L-264 as Amended Mar. 17, 1944]

RECTIFIER TUBES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rectifier tubes and of materials used in the manufacture of such tubes for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.140[1] General Limitation Order L-264—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Rectifier tube" means any argon-filled, hermetically sealed bulb using a hot cathode, and designed to transform alternating into direct current, but limited to tungar, rectigon and similar types.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of producing or assembling any rectifier tube or part therefor.

(3) "Military exemption order" means a purchase order, contract or subcontract for rectifier tubes, or parts for such tubes (whether or not physically incorporated into rectifier tubes) to be purchased by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or the Armed Forces of any country eligible for Lend-Lease assistance pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(b) General restrictions.

(1) [Deleted Mar. 17, 1944]

(2) On or before the 15th day of June, 1943, and on or before the 15th day of each third succeeding calendar month thereafter, each manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board, Form PD-880 which shall include:

(i) Such manufacturer's proposed production schedules for rectifier tubes so far as then planned, but in any event for not less than the three calendar months following the filing of the report; and

(ii) His proposed delivery schedules of rectifier tubes so far as then planned, but in any event for not less than the three calendar months following such filing. The War Production Board shall notify manufacturers of their approval or disapproval of the production and delivery schedules for the calendar quarter or more covered in the report. The War Production Board may, at any time, change any schedules, direct the cancellation of any order shown on any schedule; prescribe any other schedule for production or deliveries for any period, regardless of whether a schedule for such period, or any part thereof, has been reported by the manufacturer or theretofore approved by the War Production Board; allocate any order listed on the report to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any rectifier tubes so listed to any other person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall produce or deliver any rectifier tubes except in accordance with schedules approved or prescribed by the War Production Board as above provided; and no manufacturer shall alter any such approved or prescribed production or delivery schedules unless authorized or directed to do so by the War Production Board.

(iii) If the schedule for production or deliveries approved under the provisions of this order do not correspond to the authorized production schedule approved for the same quarter under the Controlled Materials Plan (on Form CMP-4B, or any other designated form) then the schedule approved under this order shall constitute the authorized production schedule of the manufacturer.

(c) Applicability of other orders. In so far as any other order heretofore or hereafter issued by the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of rectifier tubes to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions in such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(d) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(e) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No manufacturer shall accumulate for use in the manufacture of rectifier tubes or parts therefor, including inventories of raw materials, semi-processed materials or finished parts in quantities in excess of the minimum amount necessary to maintain production as permitted by this order.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(g) Audit and inspection. All reports required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(i) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-264.

Issued this 17th day of March 1944.

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[MPR 359,[1] Amdt. 4]

CERTAIN CONVERTED PAPER PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 359 is amended in the following respects:

Section 1347.557 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1347.557 Petitions for amendment and applications for adjustment. (a) Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Under the following conditions a manufacturer of any of the commodities covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 359 may apply for adjustment of his maximum prices where the maximum price causes him substantial hardship and where the War Production Board certifies by letter to the Office of Price Administration that the commodity involved is necessary, in the quantity actually to be supplied by the applicant, to meet a military or essential civilian need. The amount of adjustment which may be granted will be determined by the Office of Price Administration and will in no case exceed an amount deemed reasonably necessary to insure the applicant's production of the commodity in question, in the light of the applicant's costs of production and his over-all financial condition.

(1) Form of application for adjustment. Applications for adjustment shall be filed in accordance with subpart B of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. In addition the applicant shall set forth the following data:

(i) Statement of the applicant's maximum price, the section of Maximum Price Regulation No. 359 under which such price is determined, the proposed adjusted maximum price, and the complete specifications of the commodity.

(ii) Statement as to the length of time the applicant has been producing the commodity, and the actual production in cases per month for the last six months, preceding the date of filing of the application.

(iii) A record of the applicant's actual costs involved in the manufacture and sale of the commodity for the last two accounting periods is to be given in full detail.

(iv) Statement of the seller's over-all financial condition, including the information required by OPA Form A (Annual Financial Report) for the fiscal year next preceding the filing of the application, and the information required by OPA Form B (Interim Financial Report) for each quarterly period subsequent to the period covered by the A report: Provided, That for cause shown this latter requirement may be waived in whole or in part at the discretion of the Administrator.

(v) A complete statement of the reasons why the applicant believes that he will be unable to maintain his production of the commodity at his established maximum price.

This Amendment No. 4 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 359 shall become effective March 22, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

KNIFE-CUT SLACK STAVES, SLACK HEADING AND SLACK COOPERAGE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

[1] 8 F.R. 14312, 16790.

Maximum Price Regulation 481 is amended in the following respects:

1. The title of the regulation is amended to read "Slack Staves, Heading and Cooperage".

2. In § 1377.303 the word "knife-cut" is deleted from the heading and text.

3. The word "knife-cut" is deleted from the heading and items 1 and 4 of the table of contents.

4. In section 1 the word "knife-cut" is deleted from the heading and text.

5. In section 3 the first subparagraph of paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Products covered. The term "slack staves" as used in this regulation includes all hardwood knife-cut and jointed staves and all pine and hardwood staves sawed on a parallel sided drum saw and produced in any of the following states: Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia or West Virginia.

6. In section 4 the heading and first sentence of paragraph (a) are amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for slack staves and heading—(a) Factory or mill sales. In direct factory sales of more than 6,000 pounds, that is, sales made by the producing factory, the maximum prices, f. o. b. mill or railhead, for slack staves and slack heading are those contained in Tables I, II and III below:

7. In section 4 Table II is redesignated Table III and a new Table II is added to read as follows:

TABLE II—SLACK STAVES, SAWED ON PARALLEL SIDED DRUM SAW, AIR DRIED, JOINTED, NOT CROZED, PER M 4" AVERAGE BILGE WIDTH, ¾" THICK

[F. O. B. mill or railhead]

Length of staves	Pine	Hardwood
28½"	$16.00	$17.00
Over 28½" through 30"	17.00	18.00
Over 30" through 32"	18.00	19.00

8. In section 4 the word "knife-cut" is deleted from the first sub-paragraphs of paragraphs (b) and (c).

This amendment shall become effective March 22, 1944.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 17,[1] Amdt. 54]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respects:

Section 2.11 (i) is added to read as follows:

(i) Children's shoe release. Any establishment may mark and transfer as non-rationed, children's shoes in the following sizes, which were manufactured in the United States before March 16, 1944, or imported before March 16, 1944, and which will not sell for ration currency, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Retailers. During the period from May 1 to May 20, 1944, inclusive, any establishment whose transfers of shoes are made principally to consumers, other than one whose transfers are made principally on mail orders, may transfer to consumers ration-free, children's shoes of sizes 8½ to 12, inclusive, little boys' shoes of sizes 12½ to 3, inclusive, and misses' shoes of sizes 12½ to 3, inclusive, if the price charged to the consumer does not exceed $1.60 a pair. Shoes so transferred shall be marked with the date of the transfer and the word "Released". The mark shall be written or stamped on one shoe of each pair with ink, indelible stamp or indelible pencil after the sale to the consumer but before they are removed from the establishment.

(2) Mail order houses. During the period from May 1 to May 20, 1944, inclusive, any establishment whose transfers are made principally on mail orders may transfer to consumers ration-free, children's shoes in the sizes specified in subparagraph (1) above, if the price charged for them does not exceed $1.60 a pair. Such shoes may be transferred ration-free to other establishments during the period from March 20 to April 29, 1944, inclusive, if the price charged for them does not exceed $1.10 a pair. One shoe of each pair transferred to consumers shall be marked or stamped with the date of transfer and the word "Released". The mark shall be made with ink, indelible stamp or indelible pencil, after the sale to the consumer but before they are removed from the establishment. If the shoes are being transferred to other establishments, they shall not be marked.

(3) Wholesalers and manufacturers. During the period from March 20 to April 29, 1944, inclusive, any other eligible establishment may transfer ration-free to other establishments, children's shoes in the sizes specified in subparagraph (1) above, if the price charged for them does not exceed $1.10 a pair.

(4) Advertisement. When such shoes are offered for sale to consumers in any notice or advertisement, they shall be referred to as "OPA Release—Children's low priced shoes. Ration-free from May 1 through May 20, 1944."

(5) "Price charged" explained. For the purpose of this section "price charged to an establishment" means the invoice price less any separable transportation expense (a charge for freight or postage which is stated separately on the invoice but which is part of the invoice price). In determining the price charged, a cash or trade discount may not be deducted from the invoice price.

(6) Records to be kept. Each establishment shall keep a record, in the manner required by section 2.13 (b) (9), showing the number of pairs of shoes transferred ration-free under this paragraph; and the number of pairs of shoes acquired by the establishment ration-free under this paragraph.

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1944.

PART 1425—LUMBER DISTRIBUTION

[2d Rev. MPR 215,[1] Amdt. 3]

DISTRIBUTION YARD SALES OF SOFTWOOD

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 215 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for wholesale and CPA yards and "wholesale-type" sales by retail yards. (a) The maximum prices for all sales out of the stock of wholesale or CPA distribution yards or "wholesale-type" sales and sales of lower grades of lumber out of the stock of retail yards, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and section 6, are the sum of the following: (See section 16 for definitions of "sales out of distribution yard stock", "wholesale-type sales" and "lower grades of lumber".)

(1) F. o. b. mill maximum price at the time of delivery by the distribution yard in the mill regulation for the particular species, plus

(2) Inbound transportation charges to the distribution yard, figured under the rules in section 7; plus

(3) $5.00 per thousand board feet "handling charge" (or 30 cents per square for shingles, and 60 cents per M pieces for lath); plus

(4) 10 percent of the total of (1), (2) and (3).

In computing the maximum price under this paragraph, the f. o. b. mill maximum price may be increased by 4 percent (maximum $2.00 per MBM) in those cases in which the applicable mill regulation permits an addition to the f. o. b. mill price by a wholesaler or commission merchant.

In computing the maximum price each of the above items must be adjusted to the nearest quarter of a dollar per thousand board feet of lumber or the nearest five cents per unit of sale on other items.

(b) The maximum prices for truck shipments or less than carload shipments by rail of lower bracket items of southern pine lumber by yards located in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee or Virginia which during the last six months of 1943, processed by ripping, resawing, edging, planing or other comparable operations, 25 percent or more of their total volume of lower bracket items of southern pine or which, during any succeeding three months' period, process 25 percent or more of their lower bracket items of southern pine, are the sum of:

(1) F. o. b. mill maximum price at the time of delivery by the distribution yard in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 19,[2] Southern Pine Lumber plus

(2) $5.00 per thousand board feet; plus

(3) 5 percent of the total of (1) and (2).

In computing the maximum price under this paragraph, the f. o. b. mill maximum price may be increased by 4 percent (maximum $2.00 per MBM) in those cases in which the applicable mill regulation permits an addition to the f. o. b. mill price by a wholesaler or commission merchant.

In computing the maximum price each of the above items must be adjusted to the nearest quarter of a dollar per thousand board feet of lumber or the nearest five cents per unit of sale on other items.

(c) All sales of southern pine, both upper and lower bracket items, by yards described in paragraph (b) for carload rail shipment are subject to Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, Southern Pine Lumber.

2. Paragraph (a) in section 5 is amended to read as follows:

(a) General. The maximum prices on sales out of retail yard stock other than "wholesale-type" sales, sales of lower grades of lumber, sales of pressure-treated lumber and sales of southern pine as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, are the sum of the following:

3. Section 5 is amended by adding a new paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) All sales of southern pine, both upper and lower bracket items, by yards described in section 4 (b) for carload rail shipment are subject to the direct-mill prices in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, Southern Pine Lumber, with no mark-up or basing point.

This amendment shall become effective March 16, 1944.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

[S. O. 187]

TRANSPORTATION OF CERTAIN POTATOES IN REFRIGERATOR CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of March, A. D. 1944.

It appearing, that the War Food Administration has advised this Commission that due to its program to divert to the manufacture of feed, starch, alcohol, or other processed products, potatoes, other than sweet, (1) below U.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

S. Commercial or below eighty percent (80%) U. S. No. 1 quality or (2) below U. S. No. 2 grade 1⅞" minimum it is unnecessary to transport such potatoes in refrigerator cars; that transporting traffic not needing protection from heat or cold diminishes the use and supply of refrigerator cars for commodities requiring such protection; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action: It is ordered, That:

§ 95.335 (a) Use of refrigerator cars prohibited for transporting potatoes, other than sweet, below prescribed grade. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall accept for transportation or move any refrigerator car loaded with potatoes, other than sweet, grading below U. S. Commercial or below eighty percent (80%) U. S. No. 1 quality from any point in the States of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, or Wisconsin, nor shall accept for transportation or move any refrigerator car loaded with potatoes, other than sweet, grading below U. S. No. 2 grade 1⅞" minimum, from any point in the States of California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, or Wyoming.

(b) Use of refrigerator cars for transporting potatoes, other than sweet, of the prescribed minimum grade or above the prescribed minimum grade. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall accept for transportation or move any refrigerator car loaded with potatoes, other than sweet, of the minimum grade or above the minimum grade prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section unless or until the shipper or consignor thereof surrenders with the bill of lading to the carrier's agent a Federal State Inspection Certificate or, in the event a Federal State Shipping Point Inspection Certificate is not procurable, a written assurance that such shipment of potatoes is of the minimum grade or above the minimum grade prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Exemption. The provisions of this order shall not be construed to prohibit the acceptance for transportation or movement of any refrigerator car loaded with potatoes, other than sweet, of any grade for seed purposes: Provided, The sacks containing the potatoes, are tagged with the respective state certified or war approved seed tags, And provided further, That the state certified seed certificate or war approved seed certificate is surrendered with the bill of lading to the carrier's agent.

(d) Application. (1) The provisions of this order shall apply to intrastate as well as interstate traffic.

(2) The provisions of this order shall not apply to refrigerator cars completely loaded, or accepted for transportation or moving prior to the effective date of this order.

(e) Tariff provisions suspended. The operation of all tariff rules and regulations insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended.

(f) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of any of the provisions therein.

(g) Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Director of the Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U. S.C. 1 (10)–(17)).

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., March 20, 1944; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon each State Commission enumerated in the first ordering paragraph of this order; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

Bureau of Reclamation.

SHOSHONE PROJECT, WYO.

PARTIAL REVOCATION OF FIRST FORM WITHDRAWAL

JANUARY 1, 1944.

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

SIR: From recent investigations in connection with the Shoshone project, the withdrawal of the hereinafter described land, withdrawn in the first form prescribed by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), by Departmental order of April 20, 1928, no longer appears necessary to the interests of the project.

It is therefore recommended that so much of said order as withdrew the land hereinafter listed be revoked: Provided, That such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other land by said order or affect any other order withdrawing or reserving the land hereinafter listed.

SHOSHONE PROJECT

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN WYOMING

T. 57 N., R. 99 W.,
Sec. 34, S½NE¼.

Respectfully.

H. W. BASHORE, Commissioner.

I concur: March 2, 1944.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The foregoing recommendation regarding the Shoshone project is hereby approved, and it is so ordered. The jurisdiction over and use of such lands by the Bureau of Reclamation shall cease upon the date of the signing of this order.

This order, however, shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 o'clock a. m. of the sixty-third day from the date on which it is signed, whereupon the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection as may be authorized by the public-land laws in accordance with the provisions of 43 CFR 295.8 (Circ. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254) and 43 CFR Part 296, to the extent that these regulations are applicable.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby authorized and directed to cause the records of his office and of the local land office to be noted accordingly.

MICHAEL W. STRAUS, First Assistant Secretary.

CROW INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, MONT.

CONSTRUCTION CHARGES ON WILLOW CREEK STORAGE WORKS

Temporary public notice fixing construction charges on the Willow Creek Storage Works, Crow Indian Irrigation Project, Montana.

Section 8 of the act of June 4, 1920 (41 Stat. 763–764), as amended by the act of May 26, 1926 (44 Stat. 658), among other things provides:

The expenditures for irrigation work on the Crow Reservation, Montana, heretofore or hereafter made, as hereinbefore provided, are hereby declared to be reimbursable under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe and shall constitute a lien against the land benefited, regardless of ownership, including all lands which have heretofore been sold or patented.

The act of March 7, 1928 (45 Stat. 210) as supplemented requires that

The cost of irrigation projects and of operating and maintaining such projects where reimbursement thereof is required by law shall be apportioned on a per-acre basis against the lands under the respective projects and shall be collected by the Secretary as required by such law,

Appropriations for the construction of the Willow Creek Dam as authorized by the act of May 10, 1939 (53 Stat. 702–703) and subsequent appropriation acts for this project made the funds so expended reimbursable.

The cost tentatively of the Willow Creek Storage Works, subject to subsequent adjustment, is fixed at $850,000.00. This sum is tentatively prorated against all project irrigable acreage under Lodge Grass No. 1, Lodge Grass No. 2, Reno, and Agency Ditches of the Crow Indian Irrigation Project, and against such other irrigable acreages as may hereafter be designated thereunder by supplemental order or contract.

Until such time as the final irrigable acreage benefited has been fixed definitely and per acre assessment determined definitely, a partial assessment is hereby levied for the calendar year of 1944, and for each year thereafter until further order, of $1.00 per acre against all irrigable lands under the ditches heretofore named for which water for irrigation purposes can be delivered. This annual partial assessment shall be due and payable on or before November 15, 1944, and on the same date each year thereafter. All payments made by the landowner under this order for Willow Creek Storage benefits shall be credited on his proportionate per acre share of the total costs of the storage works when finally determined.

The operation of the Willow Creek Storage Works shall in no way affect the pro rata distribution of normal flow waters of the Crow Indian Irrigation project delivered to irrigable lands of the project within the watershed by the Court Water Commissioner, acting under the direction of the United States District Court for the District of Montana in the case of United States v. Powers, et al., Civil No. 75.

Crow Indian Irrigation Project water users under Upper Little Horn No. 2, Bozeman Trail, and Forty Mile Ditches, and all so-called private water users in the Little Big Horn watershed may participate in Willow Creek Storage benefits, either by direct flow or by use of substituted waters from the Little Big Horn River, to the extent the Crow Indian Irrigation Project Engineer determines there is a surplus of Willow Creek storage water available over and above that required by project lands under Lodge Grass No. 1, Lodge Grass No. 2, Reno, and Agency Ditches. Participation shall be made by filing an application therefor and upon payment of the per acre charge herein fixed or as may be hereafter determined and fixed.

No storage, operation and maintenance charges shall be assessed during the 1944 calendar year for the operation of the Willow Creek Storage Works.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN, Assistant Secretary.

[Vesting Order 3251]

LUDWIG B. BERMANN

In re: Estate of Ludwig B. Bermann, deceased; File D-28-1873; E. T. sec. 1497.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Robert J. Fulton, Administrator, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Paula Bermann, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Paula Bermann, in and to the Estate of Ludwig B. Bermann, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: March 7, 1944.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Major H. R. Tremaine, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Willy Otto or surviving heirs, Germany.
Erma Bahr or surviving heirs, Germany.
Artur Otto or surviving heirs, Germany.
Erich Otto or surviving heirs, Germany.
Frida Kardel or surviving heirs, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Willy Otto or surviving heirs, Erma Bahr or surviving heirs, Artur Otto or surviving heirs, Erich Otto or surviving heirs, Frida Kardel or surviving heirs, and each of them, in and to the Estate of Otto Bock, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

GUSTAVE NEUMANN

In re: Estate of Gustave Neumann, also known as Gustave Newmann, deceased; File D–6–994; E. T. sec. 7489.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Mrs. Mary Korosszegi, (Austria) Germany.
Children, names unknown, of Mrs. Mary Korosszegi, (Austria) Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Mrs. Mary Korosszegi, and children, names unknown, of Mrs. Mary Korosszegi, and each of them, in and to the Estate of Gustave Neumann, also known as Gustave Newmann, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

In re: Guardianship estate of Grace Rokumoto, a minor; File: F–39–2264; E. T. sec. 3855.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, Guardian, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by a national of a designated enemy country, Japan; namely,

National and Last Known Address

Grace Rokumoto, Japan.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Japan; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Grace Rokumoto, in and to the Guardianship Estate of Grace Rokumoto, a minor, in the possession of the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, Guardian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

SARA M. FRANK

In re: Estate of Sara M. Frank, deceased; File D–28–1500; E. T. sec. 239.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Alfred Rathheim, as Administrator c. t. a. and Successor Trustee, and Edgar A. Samuel, as Administrator, c. t. a., acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Henrich Monheimer, and his issue, Germany.

Elsa Monheimer Ronsheimer, and her issue, Germany.

Frieda Monheimer Bels, and her issue, Germany.

Franziska Neubronner, and her issue, Germany.

Dr. Gustav Friedrich Neubronner, Germany.

Henny Monheimer Sternberg, and her issue, France.

Lilo Sternberg, France.

Johanna Wertheimer, Germany.

Bertha Wertheimer, Germany.

Thekla Wertheimer, Germany.

Elise Wertheimer, Germany.

Asta Ortenberger, Germany.

Adolph Rivert, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) Henny Monheimer Sternberg, and her issue and Lilo Sternberg, citizens or subjects of a designated enemy country, Germany, and within an enemy-occupied country, France, are nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany;

(4) To the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Heinrich Monheimer, and his issue, Elsa Monheimer Ronsheimer, and her issue, Frieda Monheimer Bels, and her issue, Franziska Neubronner, and her issue, Dr. Gustav Friedrich Neubronner, Henny Monheimer Sternberg, and her issue, and Lilo Sternberg, and each of them, in and to the trust created under paragraph Ninth of the will of Sara M. And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of the personal representatives, heirs, next-of-kin and distributees, whose names are unknown, of Lucy Gardiner, deceased, in and to the trust created under the Last Will and Testament of Minna Godwin Goddard, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: March 8, 1944.

[Vesting Order 3280]

ABRAHAM L. JACOBS

In re: Estate of Abraham L. Jacobs, deceased; File No. D–66–620; E.T. sec. 5136.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the New York Trust Company, as successor executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, State of New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national, of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely, Pauline Cecil Gottscho, formerly known as Pauline Cecil Jacobs, whose last known address is Germany (Austria);

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Pauline Cecil Gottscho, formerly known as Pauline Cecil Jacobs, in and to the estate of Abraham L. Jacobs, deceased, including the right to receive the annual sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) in accordance with the terms and provisions of a certain separation agreement, dated March 1, 1907, between Abraham L. Jacobs, Pauline Cecil Jacobs and The Colonial Trust Company of the City of New York, as modified by an agreement dated June 16, 1909, and as ratified by Paragraph Fifth of the will of Abraham L. Jacobs, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: March 8, 1944.

ANTON KOLLEGGER

In re: Estate of Anton Kollegger, deceased; File D–28–8270; E.T. sec. 9433.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Central Trust Company, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court of Blair County, Pennsylvania

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Anna Kollegger, Germany.

Elisabeth Kollegger, Germany.

Johann Kollegger, Germany.

Josef Kollegger, Germany.

Maria Kollegger, Germany.

Rosa Kollegger, Germany.

Theresia Kollegger, Germany.

Wilhelm Kollegger, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Anna Kollegger, Elisabeth Kollegger, Johann Kollegger, Josef Kollegger, Maria Kollegger, Rosa Kollegger, Theresia Kollegger and Wilhelm Kollegger, and each of them, in and to the estate of Anton Kollegger, deceased,

to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Anna Kollegger, Elisabeth Kollegger, Johann Kollegger, Josef Kollegger, Maria Kollegger, Rosa Kollegger, Theresia Kollegger and Wilhelm Kollegger, and each of them, in and to the estate of Anna Kollegger, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of

Nationals and Last Known Address

Marie Kroepfl, Germany.
Julia Siegel, Germany.
Louisa Bauer, Germany.
Johanna Hassenburger, Germany.
Joham Kollegger, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Marie Kroepfl, Julia Siegel, Louisa Bauer, Johanna Hassenburger and Joham Kollegger, and each of them, in and to the Estate of Anton Kollegger, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: March 8, 1944.

SALLY PERRY PECK

In re: Estate of Sally Perry Peck, deceased; File D–39–2056; E.T. sec. 7939.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Alvertus J. Morse, Esq., as Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Probate Court, County of Hampshire, Massachusetts;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Japan, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Mrs Maki Fugita Sonobe, Japan.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Japan; and,

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Mrs. Maki Fugita Sonobe in and to the Estate of Sally Perry Peck, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Chase National Bank of New York, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court of New York County, State of New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely:

Nationals and Last Known Address

Mary Schunemann, and her children, whose names are unknown, Germany.
Paul Schaefer, and his children, whose names are unknown, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Mary Schunemann, and her children, whose names are unknown and Paul Schaefer, and his children, whose names are unknown, and each of them, in and to the estate of Paul Schaefer, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by E. M. Moore, Sr., 1113 Main Street, Higginsville, Missouri, Administrator, acting under the judicial supervision of the Probate Court of the State of Missouri, in and for the County of Lafayette;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Carl Wendland, Germany.
August Wendland, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Carl Wendland and August Wendland, and each of them, in and to the estate of Edward Wendland, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

[Supplemental Vesting Order 3300]

E. LEITZ, INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Having found in Vesting Order Number 107, dated August 24, 1942, that E. Leitz, Inc., organized on April 22, 1916 and hereinafter referred to as the 1916 corporation, is a business enterprise within the United States which is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. Having found in Vesting Order Number 108, dated August 24, 1942, that E. Leitz, Inc., organized on March 29, 1941 and hereinafter referred to as the 1941 corporation, is a business enterprise within the United States which is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

3. Having found in the said vesting orders Number 107 and Number 108 that E. Leitz, G. m. b. H., is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

4. Finding that E. Leitz, G. m. b. H., has a claim against E. Leitz, Inc., 1916 corporation, or E. Leitz, Inc., 1941 corporation, in an amount which aggregated $31,868.85 as of November 11, 1943 and is represented on the books and records of said companies as an account payable, subject, however, to any accruals or deductions subsequent thereto, and represents an interest in said business enterprise;

and determining:

5. That to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the interests of E. Leitz, G. m. b. H., in E. Leitz, Inc., 1916 corporation and/or E. Leitz, Inc., 1941 corporation, represented on the books and records of said companies as an account payable, hereinbefore more fully described, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national," "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 10, 1944.

NORTH AMERICAN MERCANTILE CO.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Having found in Vesting Order Number 175, dated September 28, 1942, that North American Mercantile Company is a business enterprise within the United States and a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. Finding that the following persons have claims against North American Mercantile Company in the amounts appearing opposite each name, which claims, as of September 28, 1942, aggregated $3,501.60, subject, however, to any accruals or deductions subsequent thereto, and represent interests in North American Mercantile Company:

Name:	Amount
Takaji Domoto	$208.01
I. Goto	2,247.57
Katotoku Shoten	440.02
Suzuki Shoten	606.00
Total	$3,501.60

3. Finding that Takaji Domoto and I. Goto, whose last known addresses are Japan, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

4. Finding that Katotoku Shoten, whose principal place of business is located at Osaka, Japan, and Suzuki Shoten, whose principal place of business is located at Tokyo, Japan, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

and determining:

5. That to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

and having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the interests of Takaji Domoto, I. Goto, Katotoku Shoten and Suzuki Shoten in North American Mercantile Company aggregating $3,501.60 and represented on the books and records of North American Mercantile Company as accounts payable, hereinbefore more fully described, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 10, 1944.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 190]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN POINTS IN MICHIGAN

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective March 22, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

C. D. YOUNG,
Deputy Director,
Office of Defense Transportation.

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN KANSAS CITY, MO., AND MANHATTAN, KANS.

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for point action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN BIRMINGHAM AND MOBILE, ALA.

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective March 22, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

C. D. YOUNG,
Deputy Director,
Office of Defense Transportation.

TAXICABS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS IN CINCINNATI, OHIO, AREA

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof (hereinafter called "operators") pursuant to General Order ODT 20A (8 F.R. 9231), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and it appearing that the operators propose, by the plan, to coordinate their taxicab operations within the area of Cincinnati, Ohio, so as to assure maximum utilization of their facilities, services and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials and supplies, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved, and the operators are directed to place the plan into operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the operators shall forthwith file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order.

3. The provisions of this order shall not be construed or applied as to permit any operator named herein to alter his legal liability to any passenger. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing operating authority of any operator named herein, such operator forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the operators possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

4. All records of the operators pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination with inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

5. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the operators to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

6. Any operator duly authorized or permitted to operate taxicabs within the area herein described, and having suitable equipment and facilities therefor, may make application in writing to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Cincinnati, Ohio, for authorization to participate in the plan. A copy of each such application shall be served upon each of the operators named in this order. Upon receiving authorization to participate in the plan, each such operator shall become subject to this order and shall thereupon be entitled and required to participate in the plan in accordance with all of the provisions and conditions of this order, in the same manner and degree as the operators named herein.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 20A-78" and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Cincinnati, Ohio.

8. This order shall become effective March 22, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

TAXICABS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS IN SACRAMENTO, CALIF. AREA

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof (hereinafter called "operators") pursuant to General Order ODT 20A (8 F.R. 9231), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and it appearing that the operators propose, by the plan, to coordinate their taxicab operations within the area of Sacramento, California, so as to assure maximum utilization of their facilities, services and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials and supplies, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved, and the operators are directed to place the plan into operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the operators shall forthwith file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order.

3. The provisions of this order shall not be construed or applied as to permit any operator named herein to alter his legal liability to any passenger. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing operating authority of any operator named herein, such operator forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the operators possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

4. All records of the operators pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination with inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

5. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the operators to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

6. Any operator duly authorized or permitted to operate taxicabs within the area herein described, and having suitable equipment and facilities therefor, may make application in writing to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Sacramento, California, for authorization to participate in the plan. A copy of each such application shall be served upon each of the operators named in this order. Upon receiving authorization to participate in the plan, each such operator shall become subject to this order and shall thereupon be entitled and required to participate in the plan in accordance with all of the provisions and conditions of this order, in the same manner and degree as the operators named herein.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 20A-80" and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Sacramento, California.

8. This order shall become effective March 22, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

LOCAL CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

RECOMMENDATION FOR JOINT ACTION PLANS

In order to conserve and providently utilize vital transportation equipment, materials and supplies, assure maximum utilization of such equipment, materials and supplies, and provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, the Office of Defense Transportation, by General Order ODT

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

6A, as amended (8 F.R. 8757, 14582, 9 F. R. 2794), authorizes any two or more local carriers of property by commercial motor vehicle to formulate and submit for consideration plans for joint action and requests and authorizes persons having property for collection or delivery to participate with those carriers in the formulation and submission of such plans, which are designed to accomplish any of the above-stated purposes by one or more of the following methods:

(1) Alternate, stagger, or coordinate schedules or services between two or more points or within any area;

(2) Suspend schedules or service between two or more points or within any area, provided one or more of the participating carriers provides service between those points or within that area;

(3) Reciprocally exchange shipments of property for transportation between two or more points or within any area;

(4) Pool traffic, revenues, or both, between two or more points or within any area;

(5) Jointly load for transportation or operate a motor truck or trucks between two or more points or within any area;

(6) Divert traffic or establish arrangements with other carriers for the interchange of equipment;

(7) Operate joint terminals;

(8) Appoint one of their own number or any other person or carrier to act as its or their individual, common or joint agent, to concentrate, receive, load, forward, unload, distribute, and deliver property; receive, account for, and distribute gross or net revenues therefrom;

(9) Pool or exchange manpower when by so doing the collection or delivery of property is facilitated;

(10) Jointly establish or operate a dispatching office or offices, the function of which shall be to obtain and receive information as to the availability of equipment and traffic and to route traffic and dispatch equipment when so doing will accomplish any of the purposes of General Order ODT 6A, as amended;

(11) Adopt operating rules or practices by which:

(i) A time will be established earlier than 3:00 p. m. during any calendar day after which no collection or delivery, the order for which is received after that time, will be made during such day;

(ii) A time will be established during any calendar day before or after which, during such day, property will not be accepted, collected or delivered;

(iii) The collection or delivery of property, which is once afforded and refused after advance notice, will be restricted;

(iv) Before attempting collection or delivery, definite arangements will be made to assure the prompt completion thereof upon arrival of a motor truck for that purpose;

(v) Limitations on the frequency of collections or deliveries will be established;

(vi) Limitations will be established in respect of the marking, tagging, packing or unpacking, consolidation, separation, stacking or checking by the carriers of property which is the subject of collection or delivery;

(vii) Zones will be established for the purpose of utilizing any one or more of such operating rules or practices: Provided, however, That each such rule or practice adopted shall be administered fairly and without discrimination.

Provided, That General Order ODT 6A, as amended, shall not be construed to authorize any local carrier or carriers to utilize any of the methods described above unless directed so to do by the Office of Defense Transportation or unless pursuant to a contract, agreement or combination approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission or other authorized regulatory body.

No provision in this recommendation shall be construed to approve or imply approval of any program, agreement, act or discussion relating (but not limited) to: (1) The fixing of prices or of the terms and conditions for the payment of compensation for the performance of any transportation service, except for the adjustment of accounts between the participants in respect of the permissible action under this recommendation; (2) the use of any coercion, direct or indirect, by any local carrier or shipper to secure participation of any individual, company or group in the permissible action under this recommendation; or (3) boycott by two or more persons of any local carrier or person.

Each joint action plan shall be in writing, signed by each participant, and should state: (1) the full legal name, address and operating authority, if any, of each participant; (2) the territory or routes involved; (3) the specific method or methods of joint action to be used; (4) the practical application of these methods to the particular operation of the participants; (5) an estimate and explanation of the conservation to be accomplished; (6) the effect, if any, of the proposed joint action on the maintenance of adequate transportation service; and (7) the name and address of a person to whom communications in respect of the plan may be sent.

If the Office of Defense Transportation determines that any such plan will contribute substantially to the accomplishment of the purposes above-stated, the local carriers submitting the plan will be ordered by the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation to place that plan into operation.

The order will be confined to one or more of the specific methods above enumerated, and will expressly provide that all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the joint action plan shall not extend beyond the effective period of the order.

It is recommended that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12, Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. L. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with any such order is requisite to the prosecution of the war.[1]

NOTE: The recording and reporting requirements of this recommendation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

[Docket No. AO 160-A 2-RO 1]

PHILADELPHIA, PA., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING ON HANDLING OF MILK

Proposed amendments to tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area.

Notice is hereby given that the hearing which was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on September 23 and 24 and October 5, 1943, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area, will be reopened at 10 a. m., e. w. t., March 29, 1944, in the Washington Room, Benjamin Franklin Hotel, 19th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The reopened hearing will be held jointly with the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission.

This notice is given pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure thereunder (7 CFR, 1941 Supp. 900.1-900.17; 7 F.R. 3350, 8 F.R. 2813).

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence, in addition to that given in the hearings held January 21 to 23, September 23 and 24, and October 5, 1943, with respect to the economic and marketing conditions and current supply and demand conditions which relate to the amendments hereinafter set forth. The amendments under consideration are set forth below.

PROPOSED BY THE INTERSTATE MILK PRODUCERS' ASSOCIATION, INC.

1. Adjust upward the Class II formula to bring price in line with cream and manufacturing milk values.

2. Adjust upward the Class I price which, combined with the Class II price, will return farmers in this area their full cost of production.

3. Eliminate the 3-cent additional deduction now permitted at receiving stations.

4. Change producers' butterfat differential from 4 cents to 5 cents.

5. Add a provision to encourage the transfer and use in the marketing area of direct shipped milk.

PROPOSED BY THE WAWA DAIRY FARMS, INC.

1. Reconsider § 961.4 (c), § 961.8 (d), and § 961.8 (e).

PROPOSED BY THE DAIRY AND POULTRY BRANCH, OFFICE OF DISTRIBUTION

1. Change § 961.0 to § 961.1, renumber each following section in consecutive order, and make corresponding changes in the references to each section number.

2. Delete § 961.1 (a) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) The term "War Food Administrator" means the War Food Administrator of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties, pursuant to the act, of the War Food Administrator of the United States.

3. Substitute the term "War Food Administrator" for the term "Secretary" wherever appearing in the order.

4. In § 961.1 (a) (5) substitute the word "was" for the word "is" in line 5, and insert the words "during August 1943" immediately after the word "handler" in line 6.

5. In § 961.1 (a) (5), 3rd and 4th lines from the end of the first paragraph, delete the words "during any one of the months of October, November, December, and January" and substitute therefor the words "during any month, except April, May, and June."

6. At the end of § 961.1 (a) (6) add the words "or who receive milk from producers regardless of where disposed."

7. Reconsider § 961.3 (c) (5).

8. Delete § 961.3 (c) (1), (2), and (3) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 961.3 (c) Transfers of milk. (1) Milk or skim milk received at a plant from another plant shall be allocated to Class I: Provided, That such milk may be allocated to Class II up to the total amount of Class II milk used by the receiving handler in all of his plants at which milk is received from producers if the receiving handler and the selling handler submit to the market administrator a written statement requesting such an allocation, after deduction of any milk pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Milk or skim milk received at a plant at which milk is received from producers from a plant at which no milk is received from producers shall be allocated to each class in proportion to the class utilization of all milk received from producers and from plants at which no milk is received from producers by the respective handler at all of his plants at which milk is received from producers during the month: Provided, That the receiving handler may allocate more than a prorata share of such milk received to Class II.

9. In § 961.3 (c) (4) change the figure "400 miles" to "125 miles."

10. In lieu of the provisions in § 961.4 (c) (1), suspended on June 15, 1943, insert the following:

For purposes of this subparagraph the Class I milk disposed of from any plant located less than 31 miles from the City Hall in Philadelphia shall be considered to have been first, that milk received direct from producers' farms; second, that milk received from plants within 31 miles of the City Hall in Philadelphia; and then that milk which was shipped from the nearest plant 31 miles and farther from the City Hall in Philadelphia: And provided, That Class I milk moved directly from a plant at which milk is received from producers to a plant at which no milk is received from producers, both of which are outside the marketing area, and Class I milk distributed for fluid consumption from a plant at which milk is received from producers shall be allocated to the plant at which it is received from producers.

11. Delete § 961.4 (d).

12. Delete § 961.8 (f).

13. Add the following new sections:

§ 961.14 Emergency milk committee. Handlers and producers may select an "Emergency Milk Committee" for the purpose of supervising the purchase and allocation among handlers of emergency milk for all handlers desiring to purchase their emergency milk through a single importing agency. The market administrator may be a member of such committee and may act as chairman thereof. Notice of all meetings of the committee shall be given to the War Food Administrator and such representative or representatives as the War Food Administrator may designate shall be permitted to attend and take part in such meetings.

§ 961.15 Agents. The War Food Administrator may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

§ 961.16 Liability. The liability of handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handlers.

Copies of this notice of hearing, of the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and of the order, as amended, now in effect, may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, in Room 1331 South Building, Washington, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: March 17, 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

CHICAGO NOVELTY COMPANY, INC.

CONSENT ORDER

The Chicago Novelty Company, Inc., is engaged in the mail order business at 1314 Newport Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Among other things, it sells tubes and repair parts for radios and coin operated amusement machines, and also repairs and rebuilds coin operated amusement devices. During August and September of 1943, it sold considerable quantities of radio tubes, and in about one-half of these cases the sales were not to fill preferred orders, nor orders bearing a preference rating, neither did it receive suppliers' certificates or worn out tubes. The sales were therefore in violation of General Limitation Order L-265. The Chicago Novelty Company, Inc., admits these violations and that it was aware of the fact that there were restrictions on the purchase and sale of electronic equipment, and it does not elect to interpose any defense to the violations. It has consented to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of Chicago Novelty Company, Inc., the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner: It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Chicago Novelty Company, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not sell, assign, transfer or deliver, during any calendar month, more than one-sixth the electronic tubes sold by it during the entire fourth calendar quarter of 1943.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Chicago Novelty Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect as of March 16, 1944, and shall expire on May 31, 1944.

Issued this 16th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LOCAL CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

APPROVAL OF RECOMMENDATION FOR JOINT ACTION PLANS

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL:

I submit a recommendation of the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation concerning the formulation of certain joint action plans by local carriers of property by commercial motor vehicle.[1]

For the purposes of section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), I approve the recommendation; and after consultation with you, I hereby find and so certify to you that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with such recommendation or any order or direction issued by the Office of Defense Transportation pursuant thereto requiring any of the joint actions specified therein is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

DONALD M. NELSON,
Chairman.

PROCLAMATION 2609

CHILD HEALTH DAY—1944

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Congress by joint resolution of May 18, 1928 (45 Stat. 617), has authorized and requested the President of the United States to issue annually a proclamation setting apart May 1 as Child Health Day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, in recognition of the importance to every child and young person of a healthy body and a sturdy spirit, do hereby designate the first day of May of this year as Child Health Day.

And I invite our boys and girls to use this occasion as a time to gather with parents, teachers, and other citizens, or by themselves, in schools, churches, and community centers, and to consider how we can make our home and community life contribute in full measure to the building of bouyant health and valiant spirit in all our boys and girls.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 17th day of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] forty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:
CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[FDO 22-5, Amdt. 2]

PART 1425—CANNED AND PROCESSED FOODS

CANNED CITRUS FRUIT AND CANNED CITRUS FRUIT JUICES

Food Distribution Order No. 22-5, issued by the Director of Food Distribution on November 26, 1943, as amended (8 F.R. 16097, 9 F.R. 2322), is further amended as follows:

1. By deleting from § 1425.7 (b) (3) the provisions thereof and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(3) In lieu of setting aside a quantity of canned grapefruit juice equal to 41 percent of the total of grapefruit juice packed by a canner during the base period, any canner will be deemed to have met the set-aside requirements of this order with regard to canned grapefruit juice if he sets aside all grapefruit juice packed by him and which is in his possession on March 17, 1944, and all grapefruit juice packed by him subsequent to such date, and if the aggregate of such amount is not less than 32 percent of the total quantity of grapefruit juice packed by such person during the base period.

2. By adding to § 1425.7 (b), at the end thereof, the following:

(4) In lieu of setting aside a quantity of canned orange juice equal to 48 percent of the total of orange juice packed by a canner during the base period, any canner will be deemed to have met the set-aside requirements of this order with regard to canned orange juice if he sets aside all orange juice packed by him and which is in his possession on March 17, 1944, and all orange juice packed by him subsequent to such date, and if the aggregate of such amount is not less than 42 percent of the total quantity of orange juice packed by such person during the base period.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE

Food Distribution Order No. 42, as amended (8 F.R. 13970, 9 F.R. 1687), § 1460.1, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1460.1 Use of fats and oils—(a) Definitions. (1) "Fats and oils" means all the raw, crude, refined, and pressed fats and oils, whether vegetable, animal, fish, or other marine animal, their by-products and derivatives, including foots, grease (lard) oil, sulfonated and similarly processed fats and oils, fatty acids, lard and rendered pork fat, and the fat and oil content of any other product, but not including cocoa butter, butter, wool (grease) fat, essential oils, tall oil, mineral oils, and vitamin bearing oils derived from fish or other marine animal livers or viscera.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who uses any fats or oils in the manufacture of any "finished product", and shall include all other persons directly controlling or controlled by such person and all persons under direct or indirect common control with such person. The term shall also include a "soap converter", but shall not include any crusher, renderer, refiner, or other processor except as and to the extent that his operations result in the production of a finished product, or any person who uses fats and oils in the home in the preparation of food for household consumption. A person who merely blends fats and oils shall not be deemed a manufacturer.

(4) "Soap converter" means any person who uses soap made by others as a raw material, and by the addition of other materials, including, but not limited to, silicates, phosphates, abrasives, borax, corn meal, and soda ash, makes a finished product which is sold for detergent uses. The term shall not include those persons who merely add small amounts of color or perfume to the original soap, or persons who merely dissolve paste or other soaps in water to make liquid soaps without adding other non-soap detergent materials.

(5) "Finished product" means any product produced by a manufacturer for sale as his finished product and carried on his books as his finished product; or any product listed under Schedule A hereof produced by a manufacturer for his own consumption, except an intermediate product used by him in the manufacture of another product listed under said Schedule A. However, the term shall not include:

(i) Lard or rendered pork fat;

(ii) Any fat or oil product intended for sale to another manufacturer for further processing in the manufacture of, or for inclusion in, any product listed under Schedule A hereof (excepting an edible product of which fats and oils are not the principal ingredient);

(iii) Any edible product of which fats and oils are not the principal ingredient;

(iv) Any edible product produced by any hotel or restaurant for consumption on the premises;

(v) Any medicinal preparation, other than medicinal soap, or any product used in the manufacture of such a medicinal preparation;

(vi) Any vitamin preparation or any product used in the manufacture of a vitamin preparation;

(vii) Olive oil;

(viii) Poultry fat; or

(ix) Soap intended for sale to soap converters for further processing.

(6) "Crusher" means any person who presses, expels, or extracts oils from any seed, bean, nut, or corn or other oil-bearing materials.

(7) "Principal ingredient" means the largest single ingredient by weight, subject to the qualification that mayonnaise and salad dressing are to be considered products of which fats and oils are not the principal ingredient regardless of the composition thereof.

(8) "Soap" means the water soluble product formed by the saponification or neutralization of fats, oils, rosins, or their fatty acids with organic, sodium or potassium bases; or any detergent composition containing such products, including all types of shaving soap and shaving cream. The term does not include, however, soap used for non-detergent purposes or for the processing of textiles.

(9) "Non-detergent purposes" means uses in which the function of the soap is not to clean, wash, scour, or remove dirt, grit, grease, or any other foreign material from any surface, material, assembly, part or product.

(10) "Package and bar soap" means all bar soap, and all other soap, except abrasive hand soaps, originally packed in unit packages containing less than 25 pounds net.

(11) "Bulk package soap" means any soap except bar soap, and abrasive hand soaps, which is originally packaged in unit packages containing 25 pounds net, or more.

(12) "Abrasive hand soap" means paste and powdered soap products sold regularly for the removal of soil from the human skin and which contain, by weight, on a moisture free basis, not less than 10% or more than 40% anhydrous soap, and not less than 25% abrasive material of an organic or inorganic nature, to facilitate soil removal.

(13) "Foots" means the by-product residue obtained in the refining of any fat or oil, except linseed oil, where such refining is accomplished by treatment of such fat or oil with any alkaline material.

(14) "Washed, recovered linseed oil" means the by-product residue obtained in the refining of linseed oil where such refining is accomplished by treatment of linseed oil with any alkaline material.

(15) "Can" means a can as defined in Conservation Order M–81, as amended (9 F.R. 82).

(16) "Base period" means the calendar years 1940 and 1941.

(17) "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, War Food Administration.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture. (1) No manufacturer, except as hereinafter provided, shall, in any calendar quarter, use or consume fats and oils in any class of use listed in Schedule A below, in a quantity in excess of a quota equal to the percentage specified for such calendar quarter in said Schedule A of his average quarterly use or consumption of fats and oils in such class of use during the corresponding calendar quarters of the base period: Provided, however, That any person who manufactured paste water paint, dry casein paint, or dry protein paint, as such in the base period, may, in any calendar quarter, for the sole purpose of manufacturing paint containing not more than one pound of fats and oils per gallon of paint, use a quantity of fats and oils equal to the percentage specified for such calendar quarter in said Schedule A of an amount of fats and oils computed on the basis of one pound of fats and oils for each gallon of his average quarterly production of paste water paint during the corresponding calendar quarters of the base period, and one pound of fats and oils for each eight pounds of his average quarterly production of dry casein or dry protein paint during the corresponding calendar quarters of the base period.

SCHEDULE A

Class of use:	Permitted percentage
Manufacture of margarine in any calendar quarter	167
Manufacture of other edible finished products, including shortening, in any calendar quarter	88
Manufacture of package and bar soap in any calendar quarter	90
Manufacture of bulk package soap in any calendar quarter	110
Manufacture of abrasive hand soap in any calendar quarter	150
Manufacture of paints, varnishes, lacquers, and other protective coatings in any calendar quarter except the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	60
Manufacture of paints, varnishes, lacquers, and other protective coatings in the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	70
Manufacture of linoleum, oilcloth (for floor coverings), and felt base floor coverings in any calendar quarter except the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	60
Manufacture of linoleum, oilcloth (for floor coverings), and felt base floor coverings in the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	70
Manufacture of oilcloth (for all purposes other than floor coverings) and all other coated fabrics in any calendar quarter except the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	60
Manufacture of oilcloth (for all purposes other than floor coverings) and all other coated fabrics in the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	70
Manufacture of paint containing not more than one pound of fats and oils per gallon of paint (by a manufacturer of paste water paint, dry casein paint, or dry protein paint, as such, in the base period), in any calendar quarter except the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	80
Manufacture of paint containing not more than one pound of fats and oils per gallon of paint (by a manufacturer of paste water paint, dry casein paint, or dry protein paint, as such, in the base period), in the calendar quarter beginning on January 1, 1944	70

(2) If any manufacturer does not, in any calendar quarter, use or consume the quantity of fats and oils permitted by paragraph (b) (1) hereof when computed in accordance with the provisions of this order, the unused part of his quota for such quarter (beginning with the second quarter of 1943) may, for the purposes of paragraph (b) (1), be carried forward and used only in the succeeding calendar quarter and then only after the regular quota for such quarter has been used.

(3) For the purpose of determining the quantity of raw "foots" or "washed, recovered linseed oil" which may be used or consumed, use or consumption shall be calculated on the basis of total fatty acid content.

(4) The restrictions on the use or consumption of fats and oils imposed hereby are imposed with respect to the use or consumption of fats and oils in the aggregate, and such restrictions are not to be construed to limit a manufacturer to the use or consumption of the same fat or oil used or consumed by him in the base period.

(5) Nothing in paragraph (b) (1) hereof shall restrict:

(i) The use or consumption of fats and oils, in any calendar quarter, by any manufacturer, who was using fats or oils prior to July 1, 1943, and whose total use or consumption of fats and oils in such calendar quarter in classes of use listed under Schedule A hereof is not more than 10,000 pounds, exclusive of fats and oils used or consumed pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs (b) (5) (ii), (iii), (iv), or (v) hereof; or the use or consumption of fats and oils in any calendar quarter by any manufacturer, whose use of fats and oils did not commence until on or after July 1, 1943, and whose total use or consumption of fats and oils in such calendar quarter in classes of use listed under Schedule A hereof is not more than 1000 pounds, exclusive of fats and oils used or consumed pursuant to paragraphs (b) (5) (ii), (iii), (iv), or (v) hereof.

(ii) The use or consumption of fats and oils in the manufacture of the following products, delivered, or contracted for delivery, to the persons, or agencies, and for the specific purposes, if any, listed below:

(a) Any edible product or soap to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States; the Office of Distribution, War Food Administration (including, but not restricted to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation); the War Shipping Administration; or the Veterans' Administration;

(b) Any edible product or soap to a contract school in accordance with the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation 2, as amended (8 F.R. 13879), or a ship supplier in accordance with the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation 3 (8 F.R. 13880);

(c) Any soap to any person for the purpose of using such soap in laundering under contract with the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, the War Shipping Administration, the United States Maritime Commission, a ship operator as defined in said Food Distribution Regulation 3, or a contract school as defined in said Food Distribution Regulation 2, as amended; or,

(d) Any finished product to any person for use in the manufacture of any edible product delivered or to be delivered to any of the agencies or persons named in (a) or (b) of this paragraph (b) (5) (ii):

Provided, however, That although delivery of a product pursuant to this paragraph (b) (5) (ii) may be made to the persons or agencies heretofore named in this paragraph through intermediate distributors, any delivery so made through intermediate distributors; or any delivery, direct or otherwise, made to the persons named in (c) or (d) of this paragraph (b) (5) (ii), will not cause the use or consumption of fats and oils in the manufacture of the product so delivered, to be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, unless and until a certificate, or certified copy thereof, is issued, endorsed, and delivered to the person claiming such exemption, in connection with such delivery, as follows: The certificate shall state the name of the person making delivery, or to make delivery, of the final product, the name of the manufacturer of the final product, the amount and kind of final product delivered, or to be delivered, and that the person or agency to which delivery has been, or is to be, made has either received the amount of final product covered by the certificate, or has contracted for such delivery. If delivery has been made, or is to be made, to a person pursuant to (c) of this paragraph (b) (5) (ii), the certificate shall also state the purpose for which the final product covered thereby is to be used. The foregoing certificate shall be signed by an authorized officer, or official, of the agency receiving, or to receive, the final product, or if the final product has been received, or is to be received, by a private person, the certificate shall be signed by such person or his authorized agent. The certificate shall be delivered to the person who made, or is to make, delivery, and such person, if he did not, or will not, manufacture the product covered by the certificate, shall deliver it promptly by mail, or otherwise, to the manufacturer of the final product named thereon. Promptly upon receipt of the certificate the manufacturer of the final product named thereon shall execute and sign an endorsement thereon showing the amount of fats and oils used, or to be used, in the manufacture of the amount of final product covered by the certificate. In addition thereto, if such person used, or is to use, any finished product delivered, or to be delivered, to him pursuant to (d) of this paragraph (b) (5) (ii), in the manufacture of the final product covered by the certificate, he shall set forth in the endorsement the name of the person so supplying, or to supply, him with such finished product and the amount and kind of the finished product delivered, or to be delivered, by such supplier for such purpose. The manufacturer of the final product shall then make a copy of the certificate and endorsement thereon, certified by him to be true and correct, and deliver such copy promptly, by mail, or otherwise, to such supplier. However, the manufacturer of the final product may, in making the copy for any particular supplier, delete the data concerning suppliers other than the supplier to whom the copy is to be delivered, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Data concerning other suppliers has been deleted." It is further provided, That the use or consumption of fats and oils in the manufacture of a finished product to be delivered directly to any agency or person named in (a) or (b), of this paragraph (b) (5) (ii), shall not be exempt from the provisions of (b) (1) hereof, unless and until the person claiming such exemption shall have entered into a contract with such agency or person to deliver such finished product.

(iii) The use or consumption of fats and oils in the manufacture of all protective coatings, coated fabrics, linoleum, oilcloth, and felt base floor coverings, delivered or to be delivered to, or used on or incorporated in material and equipment delivered or to be delivered to, the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or to the War Shipping Administration, or delivered, or to be delivered, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act), or to be used on a vessel operating under a warrant issued by the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, pursuant to the Act of July 14, 1941 (55 Stat. 591): Provided, however, That no fats or oils used or consumed pursuant to the terms of this paragraph (b) (5) (iii) by any manufacturer shall be exempt from such manufacturer's quota under the terms of this order unless, on or before the 15th day of the month succeeding the month in which the fats and oils were so used, he shall mail to the Director a report of such use on Form PDA–523, as amended, or such other forms as the Director may prescribe.

(iv) The use or consumption of fats and oils in the manufacture of edible finished products and soaps to be exported to the Dominion of Canada where such Dominion has granted a license for the importation of such products, or to any other country pursuant to an export license issued by the Foreign Economic Administration.

(v) The use or consumption of fats and oils in the manufacture of protective coatings which are:

(a) Applied to any item of new farm machinery or equipment which is listed in Schedule A of Limitation Order L–257, as amended (8 F.R. 15568), if such protective coatings are applied by the manufacturer of such machinery or equipment, or,

(b) Used as, or in the manufacture of, cans, container closures, closure liners, or linings and liners for cans, if such cans, container closures, closure liners, or linings and liners for cans are used only for the packaging of food, drugs, pharmaceuticals and beverages.

(6) A manufacturer's use or consumption of fats and oils in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (b) (5) (ii), (iii), (iv), or (v), hereof, shall not be charged against his quota under paragraph (b) (1) hereof, and any fats or oils used or consumed by a manufacturer in the base period for any purpose set forth in paragraphs (b) (5) (ii), (iii), or (v) hereof, or, in the manufacture of edible finished products or soap for exportation to a foreign country shall be excluded in determining his quota under paragraph (b) (1) hereof.

(7) A person who acquires all the manufacturing facilities of another person in a particular class of use shall thereby become entitled to the quota of such other person in such class of use, whether or not he continues to operate such facilities in whole or in part: Provided, however, That he shall within 30 days following such acquisition inform the Director of the facilities acquired, their location, whether or not operation will be continued in the same or another location, and the amount of quota which he claims to have acquired in each class of use.

(8) Fats and oils owned by one person, which are processed by another person, shall be charged against the quota of the owner and not the processor: Provided, however, That the title to the product resulting from the processing shall remain in the owner of the fats and oils and such owner shall market the product and shall invoice and collect for such product through his own organization, and the processor shall not buy directly or indirectly any product so produced. Otherwise, such fats and oils shall be chargeable against the quota of the processor.

(9) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this order, any manufacturer may, for the purpose of determining his permissible use of fats and oils in the manufacture, during any calendar quarter, of a particular class of soap set forth in Schedule A hereof, divert a quantity of fats and oils from the average quarterly amount of fats and oils used by him in the corresponding calendar quarters of the base period in the manufacture of another class of soap listed in said Schedule A, to the average quarterly amount of fats and oils used by him in the corresponding quarters of the base period in the manufacture of the class of soap with respect to which the determination is being made: Provided, That the total amount so diverted from all classes of soap to other classes of soap, for the purpose of determining the quotas applicable to a particular calendar quarter, shall not exceed 250,000 pounds, and his total permitted use of fats and oils for all classes of soap manufacture in any calendar quarter computed after such diversion or diversions shall not exceed (but may be less than) his total permitted use of fats and oils in the manufacture of soap of all classes when computed prior to such diversion or diversions.

(10) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this order, only 50% of the washed, recovered linseed oil used or consumed by a manufacturer in any calendar quarter in a class of use listed in Schedule A hereof, shall be charged against his quota hereunder for such class of use in such quarter, and only 50% of the washed, recovered linseed oil used or consumed by a manufacturer, in any calendar quarter, in classes of use listed in Schedule A hereof, shall be counted in determining whether the provisions of paragraph (b) (5) (i) hereof, are applicable to such manufacturer in such quarter.

(c) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(d) Records and reports. (1) Each manufacturer, other than a soap converter, who, in any calendar quarter, uses or consumes more than a total of 6000 pounds of fats and oils, shall properly fill out and file with the Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D. C., each of the following reports at the time set forth below:

(i) Bureau of the Census Form BM–1, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, for each month of such calendar quarter, on or before the fifteenth day of the month succeeding such month; and

(ii) Bureau of the Census Form BM–2 or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, for such calendar quarter, on or before the fifteenth day of the second month of the succeeding calendar quarter.

In filling out the foregoing forms the specific instructions contained in any other Food Distribution Order with respect to a particular fat and oil shall be followed. Nothing in this paragraph (d) (1) shall be construed as requiring any person to file more than one form BM–1 for any month, or more than one form BM–2 for any calendar quarter.

(2) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such information from, and require such reports and keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(3) Every person subject to this order, shall for at least two years (or for such period of time as the Director may designate), maintain an accurate record of his transactions in fats and oils and keep all certificates and endorsements or copies thereof required by this order to support any claim for quota exemption made by him, including all certificates received by him pursuant to the provisions of said Food Distribution Regulation 2, as amended, and said Food Distribution Regulation 3. All statements contained in such certificates or endorsements shall be deemed representations to an agency of the United States.

(4) The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent record-keeping or reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Audits and inspection. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or stocks of fats and oils of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(f) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him, may file a petition for relief in writing with the Director, addressed as follows: Director of Food Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. FDO 42. Such petition shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Administrator of this order shall then act upon the petition. In the event that the petitioner is dissatisfied with the action taken by the Administrator of this order, he may request a review of such action by the Director whose decision with respect to the relief sought shall be final.

(g) Violations. The War Food Administrator may, by suspension order, prohibit any person who violates any provision of this order from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using fats and oils, or any other material subject to priority or allocation control by the War Food Administrator, and may recommend that any such person be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using materials subject to the priority or allocation control of other governmental agencies. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Director, or otherwise provided herein, be addressed to the Director of Food Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. FDO 42.

(i) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate any or all of the authority vested in him by this order to any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(j) Territorial extent. This order shall apply only in the forty-eight States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(k) Effect of other orders. Insofar as any other order of the Secretary of Agriculture, the War Food Administrator, or the Director, heretofore or hereafter issued, limits or curtails to a greater extent than herein provided the use, acquisition, or disposition of any fat or oil, the limitations of such other order shall control.

(l) Effective date. This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., March 17, 1944. However, with respect to violations of Food Distribution Order No. 42, as amended, or rights accrued, or liabilities incurred thereunder, prior to said date, said Food Distribution Order No. 42, as amended, shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

GENERAL PURCHASE POLICIES

In § 81.232 paragraph (e) is amended to set forth procedure and policy in converting existing cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed-price basis.

§ 81.232 Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. * * *

(e) Existing contracts. (1) Whenever feasible, existing cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts will be amended to convert them or provide for converting them to a fixed price basis as soon as practicable. Special effort to obtain such conversions will be made because the change offers an opportunity to obtain more efficient production or appears otherwise to be of special advantage to the Government. Ordinarily, such conversion will take place by supplemental agreement substituting for the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract a fixed price contract covering the whole performance of the contract, effective retroactively to the beginning of the performance. Such a retroactive conversion will assist in avoiding complicated and time consuming allocations of costs, inventory and preparatory expense. However, in appropriate cases conversions may be made effective from some stated point in the performance of the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract.

(2) One purpose of the War Department in converting cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis is to develop lower prices and costs and greater efficiency in the utilization of manpower and capacity, not only under the contract which is being converted but also under future contracts for similar products. The policy of pressing for conversions is based upon the premise that a fixed price contract gives the contractor maximum incentive to achieve more efficient operations during the balance of the contract. Consequently, such conversions will be made only where a substantial portion of the contract remains to be performed, unless the prior approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, has been obtained in the particular case.

(3) The circumstances of such conversions will obviously vary and accordingly the considerations to be taken into account in determining a fixed price at which the contract is to be performed cannot be prescribed in specific terms applicable to each case. Essentially, however, the problem of converting the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract to a fixed price basis is no different from the original fixing of price and terms under any fixed price contract and Government representatives, in determining a fixed price, will be expected to give weight to the general factors relating to pricing ordinarily employed in connection with a fixed price contract as discussed in Army Service Forces Manual M–601, "Pricing in War Contracts."

(4) Although the probability is that a fixed price, properly determined, will result in lower expenditure by the Government than on the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis, in some instances it may be to the interest of the Government, to press for the conversion of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts for various reasons other than expected monetary saving. Indeed, in view of the present shortages of manpower and of some materials, in some cases the amount of the proposed fixed price may not be the principal factor to be taken into account.

(5) Among the considerations that obviously must be given weight in determining the fixed price arrangement in connection with a conversion are the following:

(i) In cases where the supplemental agreement provides one fixed price for all the deliveries under the contract, retroactive to the beginning of the contract, the analysis of the fixed price, should include a consideration (together with all other relevant factors) of the estimated average costs over the life of the contract, giving due weight to past costs and to estimated future costs. In determining estimated average costs full weight will be given to the decline in costs normally to be expected as production experience is gained (see subdivision (vi) of this subparagraph).

(ii) In cases where the supplemental agreement provides a schedule of different prices for various sections or periods of deliveries, the objective should be to include in the price set for any past period an amount not in excess of a reasonable estimate of the allowable costs and fee properly to be allocated to the units completed or services rendered in that past period. It is recognized that a precise allocation of costs and fee in this connection may not be practicable without an unreasonable amount of accounting auditing which is not necessary in view of the conversion to a fixed price basis. Accordingly, the objective above mentioned must be attained in many cases on the basis of reasonable approximations and estimates and no physical inventory or audit need be made for the purpose of achieving a precise allocation.

(iii) Any schedule contained in the supplemental agreement providing for different fixed prices for various sections or periods of deliveries should give due consideration to the variations in cost which are expected to take place during the life of the contract. Such schedules should also reflect the decline in costs normally to be anticipated as experience in production is gained. If, in fixing such a schedule of prices, starting and learning costs are allocated to the earlier periods of the contract, such costs obviously should not be taken into account in fixing the prices which the schedule provides will be paid for later periods of production.

(iv) The prices set under any supplemental agreement for converting to a fixed price basis should be fair and reasonable in the light of all the circumstances. It must be borne in mind that prior to the conversion the contractor's costs in substance have been guaranteed by the Government and that under the fixed price contract the contractor assumes additional risks which may properly be given consideration in fixing the price under the converted contract. Any weight giver to such additional risks should not be greater than is warranted by the additional risks in fact assumed by the contractor. Also, full recognition should be given to the probability that operations on a fixed price basis will be conducted on a more efficient basis, with consequent lower costs to the contractor. For example, most manufacturers recognize that their labor may become more efficient under a fixed price contract than when operating under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract.

(v) Various contract provisions, frequently included in fixed price contracts, tend to reduce the additional risks assumed by the contractor upon converting to a fixed price basis as, for example, where a periodic pricing article or other price adjustment provision is used. In determining the fixed price, due consideration will be given to the effect of any such contract provisions, if included in the converted contract, as well as to the various pricing factors mentioned at page 7 of Army Service Forces Manual 601, "Pricing in War Contracts."

(vi) Assistance should be obtained from such evidence as may be available as to the historical costs on the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract prior to the date of the proposed conversion. However, such costs are frequently misleading (a) because of distortion by high starting and learning expenses and, in any event, are difficult to translate into unit costs without careful analysis, and (b) in view of the general tendency of costs to decline sharply with the greater efficiency obtained in the later stages of a contract. On this account greater weight should be given to the historical cost experience, most recent at the time of the conversion, than to the costs for earlier periods of the contract. In any instance, historical costs should be regarded only as a starting point in predicting the future costs under the contract and in the problem of price analysis.

(vii) In all cases where such data can be obtained, consideration should be given to prices paid to the same contractor and to others for comparable supplies under other fixed price contracts. Such data frequently provide a safer basis for price analysis than the historical costs of the particular contractor.

(viii) Where conversions are to be effective only with respect to deliveries after a stated date, care should be taken to fix the price on deliveries after that date on a basis which will not tend to duplicate payments for work in process the cost of which has been or will be reimbursed on the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis. Attention is directed to the fact that this type of conversion will ordinarily require fixing of a price upon materials on hand at the time of the conversion for transfer to the contractor.

(6) To ensure adequate analysis of such conversions the procedure set out in § 81.306 (e) will be followed.

(7) Where a conversion takes place by an agreement fixing a price retroactive to the beginning of the performance, action taken by the contractor in conformity with the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract as in force prior to the conversion (and proper when taken) need not be revised in the supplemental agreement to make it consistent with the fixed price basis; as, for example, purchases and dispositions of property for Government account, shipments of property on Government bill of lading, etc. All such actions, however, will be given consideration in determining the appropriate fixed prices to be set.

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

CONTRACTS

In § 81.304 paragraph (a) is amended by the addition of a contract form for Office of Chief Signal Officer.

§ 81.304 Definitions—(a) Standard forms of contract. • • •

Office of the Chief Signal Officer: • • •
Contract for Maintenance in Connection with Army-Owned Teletypewriter Equipment

• • • • •

In § 81.306 paragraph (c) is amended and paragraph (e) is added as follows:

§ 81.306 Making and approval of contracts, supplemental agreements and change orders. • • •

(c) Authority of technical services to make supplemental agreements and change orders. Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section and in §§ 81.308a and 81.308g a supplemental agreement to change order modifying a contract (other than an Architect-Engineer, Management or similar contract) may be made or issued by the technical services concerned without approval of higher authority (provided that approval of the award has been obtained if such approval is required under the provisions of § 81.305 (b) and the supplemental agreement, or change order substantially embodies the award as approved), if:

(1) The technical service had authority to make the original contract pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, or the technical service did not have such authority but obtained approval pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section; and

(2) The provisions and features of the supplemental agreement or change order are themselves such that the technical service would have authority to include them in an original contract pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

Changes in Architect-Engineer, Management or similar contracts may also be made by the technical service concerned: Provided, That the requirements of subparagraphs (1) and (2) above are satisfied: And provided, That the change being currently made in the construction contract to which the Architect-Engineer, Management or similar contract relates does not necessitate approval. Supplemental agreements converting cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis will be governed by the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

• • • • • •

(e) Supplemental agreements converting cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis. (1) In all cases, supplemental agreements converting cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis will be made subject to the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. In the negotiation of all such supplemental agreements the general policies discussed in § 81.232 (e) should be considered so far as relevant. In submitting such supplemental agreements for the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, in addition to any information required by § 81.305 (b) or other instructions as to contract clearance, a written statement should be presented (i) analyzing the price data and other similar information, if any, submitted by the contractor, (ii) describing the investigations of these data and other relevant facts which have been made by the War Department representatives, and (iii) setting forth the principal considerations relevant to the conversion of the particular contract to a fixed price basis on the terms recommended. In the case of a partial conversion (not retroactive to the beginning of performance), the statement will indicate what steps have been taken to exclude from the proposed fixed price starting load costs for which the contractor has already been reimbursed under the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract. The records of the cost analyses and other investigations made in connection with the conversion will be preserved in the procurement office charged with the conversion negotiations or in the office of the chief of the technical service concerned.

(2) Each supplemental agreement providing for such a conversion will be made only after the contracting officer has satisfied himself that the facts warrant substantially the following recitals which will be included with appropriate modifications to meet the needs of each particular case in each supplemental agreement:

Whereas it is the policy of the War Department to convert cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis to the greatest extent feasible, and

Whereas the conversion of this contract from a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract to a fixed price basis is designed to develop greater efficiency in the use of manpower, materials and capacity by providing the contractor with an incentive to improve its operations, and

Whereas such improvements in operating efficiency tend to develop lower prices and costs, and

Whereas such conversion will tend to reduce the expense and manpower necessary for administrative work, both for the Government and for the contractor, and

Whereas after consideration of all factors deemed relevant and after a reasonable price analysis the fixed price herein provided has been found to be reasonable under all the circumstances, and

Whereas it has been determined administratively that it is to the advantage of the Government and that it will facilitate the prosecution of the war to convert this contract to a fixed price basis by this supplemental agreement entered into pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001.

(3) The supplemental agreement covering the conversion will be distributed as provided in §§ 81.303 (e) and 81.315 et seq. The statements and other data referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph need not be submitted with the supplemental agreement to the General Accounting Office or to the finance officer, but will be retained as provided in subparagraph (1) available for inspection.

(4) It has been determined that the execution of supplemental agreements effecting such conversions of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis will facilitate the prosecution of the war, when the contracting officer has satisfied himself as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and when the supplemental agreement has been approved as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

In § 81.308b (a) subparagraphs (2) and (3) are redesignated (3) and (4) and a new subparagraph (2) is added as follows:

§ 81.308b Correction of mistakes. (a) • • •

(2) At any time prior to the making of final payment under a termination settlement agreement, the chief of the technical service concerned may correct mistakes, errors and ambiguities in such termination settlement agreement when such correction will result in benefit to the Government or when the change involved does not result in an adjustment in excess of $50,000. The authority conferred by this subparagraph (2) is not subject to any of the limitations created by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph or by § 81.308f.

(3) In any other case where the chief of a technical service determines that it will facilitate the prosecution of the war to execute a supplemental agreement to correct a mistake, he will first obtain approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

(4) Approval of the Director, Purchases Division, will not be required in the case of any supplemental agreement correcting a mistake, under which the Government receives adequate new legal consideration, regardless of whether the supplemental agreement involves an adjustment amounting to $50,000 or more, and regardless of the time of execution of such supplemental agreement.

• • • • •

Section 81.308f is amended as follows:

§ 81.308f Amendment of contracts after final administrative determination of amount due. The authority granted to the chiefs of the technical services pursuant to §§ 81.308b (a) (1), 81.308e (a), 81.379 and 81.380 will not be exercised after the contracting officer has administratively determined the final amount due under the contract by communicating his determination to the contractor or by the approval of a final voucher therefor, except that if the contracting officer's determination is, by the terms of the contract, subject to review by the Secretary of War, or his duly authorized representative, such authority may be exercised at any time prior to final action on such review if the contractor perfects his right to such review. Attention is directed to the provisions of § 81.308g.

In § 81.318b (e) subparagraph (1) (ii) is amended to include a symbol for Army Specialized Training Branch.

§ 81.318b Contract procedure. • • •
(e) Numbering of service command contracts.
(1) • • •
(ii) • • •

AST—Army Specialized Training Branch.

• • • • •

In § 81.324 paragraph (f) is deleted.

§ 81.324 Termination for convenience of the Government. • • •
(f) [Deleted]

Section 81.325 is amended as follows:

§ 81.325 Anti-discrimination clause. (a) Every contract, regardless of subject matter or amount, will contain (except as may be otherwise specifically permitted in Interpretations of Executive Order No. 9346, hereinafter referred to) the following clause without deviation:

Anti-discrimination. (a) The Contractor, in performing the work required by this contract, shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

(b) The Contractor agrees that the provision of paragraph (a) above will also be inserted in all of its subcontracts. For the purpose of this article, a subcontract is defined as any contract entered into by the contractor with any individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity, for a specific part of the work to be performed in connection with the supplies or services furnished under this contract; Provided, however, That a contract for the furnishing of standard or commercial articles or raw material shall not be considered as a contract.

(b) The contract clause set fourth in paragraph (a) above is required under the provision of Executive Order No. 9346 issued under date of 27 May 1943. Such Executive Order is set forth in § 81.994. Interpretations of Executive Order No. 9346 are found in § 81.994a.

(c) The contract clause set forth in paragraph (a) above is required, under the provisions of Executive Order No. 9346, to be included "in all contracts hereafter negotiated or renegotiated • • •". The inclusion of the word "renegotiated" has been interpreted as imposing the requirements set forth in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Whenever the terms of a contract or contracts are to be modified by the execution of a supplemental agreement, and the contract or contracts to be modified do not contain a clause identical in wording with that set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, such supplemental agreement will provide that the contract or contracts are modified to include such a clause.

(e) Normally the provisions of paragraph (c) above will not be applicable to renegotiation agreements executed pursuant to the Renegotiation Act referred to in Procurement Regulation No. 12. If, however, the renegotiation agreement expressly purports to modify the terms of specified existing contracts with respect to future deliveries, the provisions of paragraph (c) will be applicable. Likewise, if the renegotiation agreement is to be followed by a supplemental agreement or agreements, modifying, with respect to future deliveries, the terms of existing contracts, such supplemental agreement or agreements will provide for the inclusion, in the contracts modified thereby, of the clause set forth in paragraph (a) of this section.

(f) When a prime contract is amended in accordance with paragraphs (c) or (d) above, it is not necessary that the existing subcontracts be correspondingly modified. However, if the subcontracts are subsequently amended for any other reason the anti-discrimination clause contained therein should be amended to conform to the wording of paragraph (a) of the clause set forth in paragraph (a) of this section. To make this clear, there may be inserted in the supplemental agreement which amends the prime contract a statement substantially as follows:

The amendment made by this section ——, shall be effective as of the date of approval of this supplemental agreement and shall not be deemed to require amendment of the anti-discrimination provisions contained in any subcontract theretofore entered into unless such subcontract is subsequently modified in some other respect.

Section 81.332 is amended as follows:

§ 81.332 Government-owned facilities clause. The following article is prescribed for inclusion in fixed or unit price contracts under which the contractor is to acquire or manufacture facilities for the account of the Government, or the Government is to furnish facilities to the contractor, for use in connection with the contractor's work under the contract:

Government-owned facilities. (A) In connection with its work under this contract, the contractor shall, within the shortest practicable time, acquire or manufacture for the Government's account the facilities listed in Schedule "A" attached hereto, the estimated costs of which are therein stated. (With the prior written approval of the contracting officer as to their character and estimated costs, the contractor may substitute facilities similar to those listed in Schedule "A", in which event said Schedule will be modified accordingly.) Such facilities shall be installed by the contractor in its plant or plants, or, if approved in writing by the contracting officer, in the plants of subcontractors. The contractor shall insert provisions in all subcontracts under which such facilities are furnished to the subcontractors whereby there will be made applicable to the Government and the subcontractors substantially the same rights and obligations in respect to such facilities as are made applicable to the Government and the contractor under this Article.

(B) Upon inspection and acceptance of the facilities by the contracting officer, and upon the contractor's furnishing satisfactory evidence that it has made payment or incurred the costs as the case may be, the Government shall reimburse the contractor for the actual costs of Schedule "A" facilities, approved by the contracting officer. The term "actual costs", as used in this Article, means the following:

(1) For facilities procured by the contractor from sources other than its own manufacture:

(a) The net invoice price to it of the facilities;

(b) The costs of transportation, Provided, That no costs of transportation shall be separately reimbursed when the invoice price reimbursed under (1) (a) hereof includes the costs of transportation;

(2) For facilities manufactured by the contractor:

(a) The net invoice price to it of all direct materials required in manufacture;

(b) The costs of transportation, Provided, That no costs of transportation shall be separately reimbursed when the invoice price reimbursed under (2) (a) hereof includes the costs of transportation;

(c) The costs to it of all direct labor required in manufacture;

(d) An amount equal to ____[1] per cent of item (2) (c) hereof as an allowance for all overhead and administrative expenses. The contractor represents, based on experience, that this amount does not include any element of profit, and represents no more than actual costs allocable to manufacture. The contractor shall install all Schedule "A" facilities at no expense to the Government in addition to the contract price.[3]

[1] Insert a number or the word "no".

(C) In the event the contracting officer shall determine, at time prior to installation of any item of Schedule "A" facilities, that such item is not reasonably necessary for the performance of this contract, or any other contract for the performance of which the use of that item has been authorized pursuant to paragraph (E) (2), within the time allowed for such performance, he may by written order exercise one of the following options with respect to that item:

(1) If the contractor has made no binding commitment and incurred no expense therefor of a kind reimbursable hereunder as an actual cost: The contracting officer may eliminate the item from Schedule "A" and the Government shall be relieved of any liability therefor.

(2) If the contractor has made a binding commitment or incurred expense therefor of a kind reimbursable hereunder as an actual cost: The contracting officer may direct the contractor to stop all further work and the making of all further commitments thereon and eliminate the item for Schedule "A". In that event the contractor and the contracting officer will attempt to agree on an amount which will reasonably compensate the contractor for the actual cost incurred by him with regard to such eliminated item. If no such agreement is reached within thirty (30) days after the date of elimination (or within such longer period as may at any time be mutually agreed upon), the contractor will be paid an amount, if any, which together with all sums previously paid by the Government on account of the item, shall be sufficient to reimburse the contractor for expenses paid and the settlement of any obligation incurred by the contractor thereon. In lieu of reimbursing the contractor for the settlement of obligations, the Government, in the discretion of the contracting officer, may assume such obligations or any of them. In no event shall the aggregate of reimbursement on account of the item (and of all payments previously made) together with the amount of any obligations assumed, exceed the actual costs, as herein defined, expended or incurred thereon up to the time of such elimination. The contracting officer may permit the contractor to sell or retain at prices or on terms agreed to by the Government any materials, supplies, or work in process, and the proceeds of such sale, or such agreed prices, shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the contracting officer may direct. Upon payment to the contractor pursuant to this subparagraph (2), title to all materials, supplies, work in process and other things for which payment is made (except such property as may be sold or retained as above provided) will vest in the Government (if title thereto has not already vested in the Government). The Government will also become entitled to any rights under any commitment which it may assume, or for the settlement of which it shall have reimbursed the contractor.

(3) The contracting officer may direct the diversion of the item, when it shall have been acquired or its manufacture shall have been completed, to the Government or to any person designated by the contracting officer. In that event the Government shall reimburse the contractor for the actual costs of the item in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (B) hereof, with appropriate adjustment in the amount of reimbursable transportation costs. Upon diversion, the item will be eliminated from Schedule "A". The determination of the contracting officer that an item of Schedule "A" facilities is not reasonably necessary for the performance of this contract, or any other contract for the performance of which the use of that item has been authorized pursuant to paragraph (E) (2), within the time authorized for such performance, is subject to written appeal by the contractor within ten (10) days to ---------- or his duly authorized representative, whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive upon the parties hereto. Pending this decision, the contracting officer shall not exercise any of the above options.

(D) Except with the prior written approval of the contracting officer for each such purchase, the contractor will not purchase any Schedule "A" facilities in which it had any property interest at any time after the commencement of negotiations for this contract.

(E) (1) Title to each item of Schedule "A" facilities shall vest in the Government immediately upon inspection and acceptance thereof by the contracting officer, or at such earlier time as the contracting officer may designate in writing. Such facilities shall be deemed personal property although they may be affixed to realty.

(2) The Government hereby grants to the contractor the right to use Schedule "A" facilities, without the payment of rental therefor, in connection with its work under this contract, and, subject to the written approval of the contracting officer and upon such terms as he may prescribe, in connection with any other work for which the Government and the contractor may herstofore have contracted, or may hereafter contract. (Where the Government, pursuant to this paragraph (B) (2), has granted to the contractor the right to use Schedule "A" facilities in connection with its work on any contract other than the contract of which this Article is a part, the contractor shall at any time, upon the request of the contracting officer, enter into suitable amendments of this Article or suitable separate agreements of lease of the facilities evidencing the terms upon which the facilities are then held.)

(F) (1) The contractor shall not be liable for loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities title to which has vested in the Government (a) caused by any peril while the facilities are in transit off the contractor's premises, or (b) caused by any of the following perils while the facilities are on the contractor's or subcontractor's or other premises or by removal therefrom because of any of the following perils:

Fire; lightning; windstorm, cyclone, tornado, hail; explosion, riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion; vandalism and malicious mischief; aircraft or objects falling therefrom; vehicles running on land or tracks, excluding vehicles owned or operated by the contractor or any agent or employee of the contractor; smoke; sprinkler leakage; earthquake or volcanic eruption; flood, meaning thereby rising of rivers or streams; enemy attack or any action taken by the military, naval or air forces of the United States in resisting enemy attack.

The perils as set forth in (a) and (b) above are hereinafter called "excepted perils".

(2) The contractor represents that it is not maintaining and agrees that it will not hereafter maintain insurance (including self-insurance funds or reserves) covering loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities caused by any excepted peril, and represents that it is not including and agrees that it will not hereafter include in any price to the Government any charge or reserve for such insurance.

(3) Upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities caused by an excepted peril, the contractor shall communicate with the contracting officer and with the Loss and Salvage Organization now or hereafter designated by the contracting officer and, with the assistance of that organization employed by the contractor to perform services in accordance with instructions or regulations of the Government (unless the contracting officer directs that no such organization be employed), shall take all reasonable steps to protect the facilities from further damage, separate the damaged and undamaged facilities, put all the facilities in the best possible order, and furnish to the contracting officer a statement of: (a) the lost, destroyed and damaged facilities, (b) the time and origin of the loss, destruction or damage, (c) all known interests in commingled property of which the facilities are a part, and (d) the insurance, if any, covering any part of an interest in such commingled property. If and as directed by the contracting officer, the contractor shall make repairs and renovations of the damaged facilities.[4] The contractor shall be reimbursed the expenditures made by it in performing its obligations under this subparagraph (3) (including charges made to the contractor by the Loss and Salvage Organization, except any of such charges the payment of which the Government has, at its option, assumed direct), as approved by the contracting officer and set forth in a Supplemental Agreement.

(4) With the approval of the contracting officer after loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities, and subject to such conditions and limitations as may be imposed by the contracting officer, the contractor may, in order to minimize the loss to the Government or in order to permit resumption of business or the like, sell for the account of the Government any item of facilities which has been damaged beyond practicable repair, or which is so commingled or combined with property of others, including the contractor, that separation is impracticable.

(5) Except to the extent of any loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities for which the contractor is relieved of liability under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (F), and except for reasonable wear and tear or depreciation, the facilities (other than facilities permitted to be sold) shall be returned by the contractor to the Government, or delivered by the contractor to any designee of the Government (at the time elsewhere in this Article provided) in as good condition as when received by the contractor in connection with this contract. In aid of its obligation so to return the facilities, the contractor shall, at its own expense, maintain a program for the proper use, care and maintenance of the facilities, as well as a property control and accounting system consistent with good business practice, and make repairs and replacements.

(6) In the event the contractor is indemnified, reinbursed or compensated for any loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities caused by an excepted peril, it shall equitably reimburse the Government. The contractor shall do nothing to prejudice the Government's rights to recover against third parties for any such loss, destruction or damage and, upon the request of the contracting officer, shall at the Government's expense, furnish to the Government all reasonable assistance and cooperation (including the prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment in favor of the Government) in obtaining recovery.

(7) Whenever any item of Schedule "A" facilities has become unserviceable (whether under circumstances which do or which do not render the contractor liable hereunder), the contractor shall notify the contracting officer, and it may then be required by the contracting officer to dismantle and prepare the item for shipment at no expense to the Government in addition to the contract price, whereupon the item shall be removed promptly by the Government at the Government's expense.

(G) Each item of Schedule "A" facilities shall be suitably marked with an identifying mark or symbol, indicating that such item is the property of the Government. Upon completion of the installation of such facilities, the contractor shall submit to the contracting officer a detailed inventory list including a description of the identifying mark or symbol on each item.

(H) The Government shall not be responsible for damages to property of the contractor or for personal injuries to the contractor's officers, agents, servants or employees, or other persons on the premises as invitees or licensees of the contractor, arising from or incident to the use of Schedule "A" facilities, and the contractor shall save the Government harmless from any and all such claims: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to affect any liability of the Government to its own employees.

(I) The Government shall at all times have access to the premises wherein any Schedule "A" facilities are located.

(J) Except as otherwise in this Article specifically provided, the contractor shall not remove or otherwise part with the possession of any Schedule "A" facilities. The contractor shall not pledge or assign, or transfer or purport to transfer title to any of such facilities in any manner to any third person, either directly or indirectly, nor do or suffer anything to be done whereby any of such facilities shall or may be seized, taken in execution, attached, destroyed or injured. Any violation of the provisions of this paragraph or of paragraph (F) hereof shall entitle the Government forthwith to enter upon the premises wherein such facilities are found and remove the same.

(K) In the event the contracting officer shall determine, at any time after installation of any item of Schedule "A" facilities, that the item is not reasonably necessary for the performance of this contract or any other contract for the performance of which the use of such facilities has been authorized, he may serve on the contractor a written notice of his intention to remove such item. This determination is subject to written appeal by the contractor within ten (10) days to ---------- or his duly authorized representative, whose decision shall be final and conclusive upon the parties hereto. Pending this decision, the facilities shall remain in the contractor's plant available for use. At any time within one year after completion or termination in whole or in part of such contracts, the contracting officer may serve on the contractor a written notice of his intention to remove all the Schedule "A" facilities or any portion thereof. Within the shortest practicable time after service of a notice under this paragraph (K), and in no event later than fifteen days thereafter (unless a longer time is allowed by the contracting officer), the contractor, at no expense to the Government in addition to the contract price, will have dismantled and prepared for shipment the items affected. Upon notification from the contractor that the items are ready for shipment, the Government shall remove them at the Government's expense.

(L) If, upon the completion or termination of this contract or any other contract entered into between the Government and the contractor for the performance of which the use of Schedule "A" facilities has been authorized, no notice pursuant to paragraph (K) of intention to remove an item has been received, the contractor shall, at no expense to the Government in addition to the contract price, place the item in stand-by condition, and thereafter maintain it in such condition in its own plant for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of such completion or termination (unless a notice pursuant to paragraph (K) is received in the meantime). In lieu of placing the item in stand-by condition and maintaining it in its own plant, the contractor may store the same elsewhere at its own expense provided that the item can be quickly and readily reinstalled in the production line and production resumed within a reasonable time if necessary in the interest of the Government.

(M) Unless a notice pursuant to paragraph (K) is sooner received, the contractor shall, for a period of nine (9) months after completion of the stand-by period, store the items affected as follows:

(1) In the plant where the items are then located, or in the contractor's other plants in the same locality, if space is available thereat and storage will not materially impair the use of the plant or plants for the contractor's Government or commercial work; or

(2) If space is not available at such plant or plants or storage thereat will materially impair their use by the contractor, then at any other place or places in the vicinity selected by the contractor which are considered satisfactory by the contracting officer. However, the contractor's obligation to store under this subparagraph (2) shall cease if such other place or places cannot be obtained by the contractor, unless the Government shall itself find and designate a place or places of storage.

At the time the items are placed in storage, whether in the contractor's plant or elsewhere, the parties shall attempt to negotiate a Supplemental Agreement to this contract providing for payment to the contractor of a sum or sums agreed upon as representing the reasonable expenses of placing and maintaining the items in storage. In the absence of such agreement, the contractor shall be entitled to receive payment, under this contract, of such reasonable expenses. The contractor's obligation in respect to storage shall be contingent upon the availability of appropriated funds for payment of such reasonable expenses, and if appropriated funds are not available, the contractor shall be under no such obligation. The items affected shall have been dismantled and prepared for shipment, at no expense to the Government in addition to the contract price, within fifteen days after the expiration of the storage period, or, if no storage obligation arises, then within fifteen days after the expiration of the stand-by period (unless a longer time is allowed by the contracting officer). Upon notification from the contractor that the items are ready for shipment, the Government shall remove them at the Government's expense.

(N) The ninety (90) day stand-by period, and the nine (9) month storage period, may be eliminated, shortened or lengthened by agreement of the parties on mutually agreeable terms.

'(O) The Government reserves the right to furnish to the contractor f. o. b. the contractor's plant any or all the items of Schedule "A" facilities upon written notice by the contracting officer to the contractor at any time prior to the installation of such items. In such event the contracting officer shall exercise the option described in paragraph (C) (1) or (C) (2) with respect to the item, eliminate it from Schedule "A", and place it on the list of Schedule "B" facilities hereinafter provided for.

'(P) The Government shall furnish to the contractor f. o. b. the contractor's plant, the Government-owned facilities listed in Schedule "B" attached hereto, not later than the dates shown thereon. Subject to the right of the contractor to inspect and reject Schedule "B" facilities for good and sufficient reason prior to shipment, the contractor shall receive the same in their then condition, without warranty express or implied on the part of the Government as to serviceability or fitness for use. The contractor shall bear the costs of installation of such facilities.[5] Schedule "B" facilities shall be held by the contractor and considered and treated in the same manner as Schedule "A" facilities under and pursuant to[6] paragraphs (E) (2) and (F) to (N) inclusive of this article.

'(Q) The contractor has in its possession, installed and ready for use under this contract, the facilities listed in Schedule "C", title to which is in the Government. Such facilities shall be held by the contractor and considered and treated in the same manner as Schedule "A" facilities under and pursuant to paragraphs (E) (2) and (F) to (N) inclusive of this article. Any previous agreement to the contrary is hereby modified accordingly.

NOTE 1: Cross-references: See §§ 81.365a, 81.451 (a), 81.498, 83.723 and Procurement Regulation No. 10 (§ 81.1001 et seq.).

NOTE 2: Where it is determined that a rental should be charged (see § 81.1002) paragraph (E) (2) of the article should be appropriately modified.

NOTE 3: Attention is invited to the fact that Government bills of lading (or commercial bills of lading to be converted into Government bills of lading at destination) may be availed of to secure the benefits of land grant freight rates where title to the facilities or parts thereof is in the Government at point of origin (see paragraph (E) (1) and (B)).

NOTE 4: In cases where facilities are hereafter to be acquired or manufactured by, or furnished by the Government to, a contractor, a clause may be included granting an option to the contractor to purchase the facilities, provided the chief of the technical service finds that such action will be in the interest of the Government. (The power to make this finding is not subject to delegation by the chief of the technical service, unless the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, specifically authorizes a delegation.) In such cases, unless otherwise authorized by the Director, Pur-

[3] If costs of installation are to be reimbursed to the contractor, delete this sentence and substitute the following:

(3) For the installation of facilities acquired or manufactured hereunder, when effected by the servants, agents or employees of the contractor:

(a) The net invoice price to it of all direct materials required for installation;

(b) The costs of transportation, Provided, That no costs of transportation shall be separately reimbursed when the invoice price reimbursed under (3) (a) hereof includes the costs of transportation;

(c) The costs to it of all direct labor required for installation;

(d) An amount equal to ---- [insert a number or the word "no"] per cent of item (3) (c) hereof as an allowance for overhead and administrative expenses. The contractor represents, based on experiance, that this amount does not include any element of profit, and represents no more than actual costs allocable to installation.

(4) For the installation of facilities acquired or manufactured hereunder, when effected by persons other than the servants, agents or employees of the contractor:

(a) The net invoice price to it of the installation.

[4] Italicized language may be omitted in appropriate cases.

[5] Delete if inapplicable.

[6] If such costs are to be reimbursed to the contractor, make appropriate changes (see paragraphs (B) (3) (a) (c) (d) and (B) (4) (a) above).

[7] Insert "subparagraphs (1) and (3) of paragraph (C) and" if contractor is to be reimbursed the costs of installation of Schedule "B" facilities.

chasee Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, the option will contain the following features:

(i) The option will come into effect only upon the date of expiration of the standby-plus-storage period, and will cover all, but not part of, the facilities as to which a standby obligation arose and as to which no notice under paragraph (K) of intention to remove has been served upon the contractor during the standby-plus-storage standby period.

(ii) The option period will extend for not more than fifteen days after the date specified in Note 4 (i).

(iii) The option price will be the full cost of the facilities to the Government (including transportation and installation charges) less specified rates of depreciation, plus storage charges incurred under paragraph (M).

NOTE 5: Amendments may be made of existing contracts, substituting the article above set forth (or pertinent portions thereof) for provisions regarding Government-owned facilities now appearing in such contracts, subject to the following:

(i) Uniformity of treatment is considered essential. Accordingly, authority to make these amendments will not be exercised until the technical service concerned apprises all its contractors holding Government-owned facilities of the promulgation of the article above set forth and specifically informs them that they may negotiate with the Government for amendment of their contracts.

(ii) Government negotiators must recognize that contractors will typically derive substantial benefits from these amendments. For example, under the article above set forth the standby period is ninety days and storage is at Government expense, while under the article previously authorized the standby period was one year, and storage expenses were not chargeable to the Government. In general, the article above set forth facilitates the conversion of plants. Accordingly, amendments of existing contracts will be permitted only where the Government receives material and adequate consideration, measured by any difference in value to the contractor between the superseded article and the article inserted by amendment.

(iii) Except with the approval of the chief of the technical service concerned, no amendment will be permitted of an existing Government-owned facilities article which includes a purchase option, unless, as part of the amendment, the purchase option is modified to include the features mentioned in Note 4 (i), (ii) and (iii) above. (The power to give such approval is not subject to delegation by the chief of the technical service, unless the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, specifically authorizes a delegation.) The approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will be obtained before any existing Government-owned facilities article which does not include a purchase option, is amended to grant such option.

(iv) The technical services will maintain close supervision of all amendments under this Note 5 will require adequate records to be prepared and preserved of the negotiations leading to the amendments.

NOTE 6: In the event that the facilities are located in an area outside the United States, where the services of the Loss and Salvage Organizations are not available, the following clause will be used in lieu of paragraph (F) (3) above:

Upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Schedule "A" facilities ofused by an excepted peril, the contractor shall communicate with the contracting officer, shall take all reasonable steps to protect the facilities from further damage, separate the damaged and undamaged facilities, put all the facilities in the best possible order, and furnish to the contracting officer a statement of: (a) the lost, destroyed and damaged facilities, (b) the time and origin of the loss, destruction or damage, (c) all known interests in commingled property of which the facilities are a part, and (d) the insurance, if any, covering any part of or interest in such commingled property. If and as directed by the contracting officer, the contractor shall make repairs and renovations of the damaged facilities. [Italicised words may be omitted in appropriate cases.] The contractor shall be reimbursed the expenditures made by it in performing its obligations under this subparagraph (3) as approved by the contracting officer and set forth in a Supplemental Agreement.

Section 81.362 is amended as follows:

§ 81.362 Accident prevention. Every lump sum construction contract, regardless of subject matter or amount, except contracts for the construction and/or repair of vessels and other floating equipment, will contain a clause substantially as follows:

Accident prevention. In order to protect the life and health of employees in the performance of this contract, the contractor will comply with all pertinent provisions of the "Safety Requirements for Excavation—Building—Construction" approved by the Chief of Engineers, December 16, 1941, as revised 15 March 1943 (a copy of which is on file in the office of the contracting officer) and as may be amended, and will take or cause to be taken such additional measures as the contracting officer may determine to be reasonably necessary for this purpose. The contractor will maintain an accurate record of and will report to the contracting officer in the manner and on the forms prescribed by the contracting officer, all cases of death, occupational disease and traumatic injury arising out of or in the course of employment on work under this contract. The contracting officer will notify the contractor of any non-compliance with the foregoing provisions and the action to be taken. The contractor shall, after receipt of such notice, immediately correct the conditions to which attention has been directed. Such notice, when served on the contractor or his representative at the site of the work, shall be deemed sufficient for the purpose aforesaid. If the contractor fails or refuses to comply promptly, the contracting officer may issue an order stopping all or any part of the work. When satisfactory corrective action is taken, a start order will be issued. No part of the time lost due to any such stop order shall be made the subject of claim for extension of time or for excess costs or damages by the contractor.

Every fixed-fee construction contract, regardless of subject matter or amount, will contain a clause substantially similar to the foregoing except that the last sentence will be omitted.

Section 81.363 is amended as follows:

§ 81.363 Disposition of Government-owned property by contractors—(a) Articles. (1) An article substantially as follows may be inserted in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts when authorized by the provisions of § 83.727:

It is recognized that property (including without limitation machine tool and processing equipment, manufacturing aids, raw, manufactured, scrap and waste materials), title to which is or may hereafter become vested in the Government, will be used by or will be in the care, custody or possession of the Contractor in connection with the performance of this contract. With the approval in writing of the Contracting Officer (whether such approval is given prior to or after the giving of a notice of the termination of this contract for the convenience of the Government), the Contractor may transfer or otherwise dispose of such Government-owned property to such parties and upon such terms and conditions as the Contracting Officer may approve or ratify, or, with like approval by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor may itself acquire title to such property or any of it at a price mutually agreeable. The proceeds of any such transfer or disposition of the agreed price of any property, title to which is so acquired by the Contractor, shall be applied in reduction of any payments to be made by the Government to the Contractor under this contract, or shall otherwise be paid in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(2) If desired, the article authorized in subparagraph (1) may be designated as subparagraph (a) and there may be added thereto provisions substantially as follows:

(b) The Contractor is authorized to insert in any subcontract made by the Contractor on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis under this contract substantially the following provision:

Article ____.—Sale of Government Property.—It is recognized that property (including without limitation machine tools and processing equipment, manufacturing aids, raw, manufactured, scrap and waste materials, title to which is or may hereafter become vested in the Government, will be used by or will be in the care, custody or possession of _____ (Subcontractor) in connection with the performance of this subcontract. With the approval in writing of the Contracting Officer for the plant of _____ (Subcontractor) (whether such approval is given prior to or after the giving of a notice of the termination of this subcontract), _____ (Subcontractor) may transfer or otherwise dispose of such Government-owned property to such parties and upon such terms and conditions as such Contracting Officer may approve or ratify, or, with like approval by, and at a price agreeable to, such Contracting Officer, _____ (Subcontractor) may itself acquire title to such property or any of it. The proceeds of any such transfer or disposal or the agreed price of any property, title to which is so acquired by _____ (Subcontractor) shall, at the direction of such Contracting Officer, be applied by _____ (Subcontractor) in reduction of any payments to be made by _____ (Prime Contractor) under this subcontract, or shall be paid to the Treasurer of the United States, or to _____ (Prime Contractor) for the account of the United States, in such manner as such Contracting Officer may direct.

(c) Upon approval of any transfer or other disposition of Government-owned property as provided in paragraph (b) above, which transfer or disposition is made to a transferee other than the Contractor, the Contractor shall be and hereby is released and discharged from liability for such property, if any, except that the Contractor shall be obligated to account to the Government for the proceeds of any such transfer or disposal of such property paid or credited to the Contractor pursuant to the direction of the Contracting Officer for the plant of any such subcontractor.

(3) Any existing cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract may be amended to include an article substantially similar to that authorized by subparagraph (1) above or that authorized by subparagraphs (1) and (2) above.

(4) If a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract contains an article authorized by subparagraph (1) above and it is desired, without amending such contract, to confer upon subcontractors authority to dispose of Government-owned property, the subcontracts may be amended to insert therein the article contemplated by clause (b) contained in subparagraph (2) above.

In § 81.365 paragraph (a) is amended, paragraph (d) is redesignated (e) and amended, paragraphs (b), (c), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) are redesignated (c), (d), (f), (g), (h), (i) and (j), respectively, and a new paragraph (b) is added as follows:

§ 81.365 Contract clauses in connection with bonds and insurance. (a) In compliance with the policy expressed in § 81.434, the following article is prescribed for inclusion in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract (see Note 2 below).

Liability for Government-owned property. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided, the contractor shall not be liable for loss or destruction of or damage to property of the Government in the possession or control of the contractor in connection with this contract (hereinafter called "Government property") unless such loss, destruction or damage results from wilful misconduct or failure to exercise good faith on the part of the contractor's corporate officers or other representatives having supervision or direction of the operation of the whole of the contractor's business or of the whole of any plant operated by the contractor in the performance of this contract.

(b) The contractor represents that it is not maintaining and agrees that it will not hereafter maintain insurance (including self-insurance funds or reserves) covering loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, and represents that it is not including and agrees that it will not hereafter include in any price to the Government any charge or reserve for such insurance.

(c) Upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Government property caused by:

Fire; lightning; windstorm, cyclone, tornado, hail; explosion; riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion; vandalism and malicious mischief; aircraft or objects falling therefrom; vehicles running on land or tracks, excluding vehicles owned or operated by the contractor or any agent or employee of the contractor; smoke; sprinkler leakage; earthquake, or volcanic eruption; flood, meaning thereby rising of rivers or streams; enemy attack or any action taken by the military, naval or air forces of the United States in resisting enemy attack, the contractor shall communicate with the contracting officer and with the Loss and Salvage Organization now or hereafter designated by the contracting officer and, with the assistance of that organization employed by the contractor to perform services in accordance with instructions or regulations of the Government (unless the contracting officer directs that no such organization be employed), shall take all reasonable steps to protect the Government property from further damage, separate the damaged and undamaged Government property, put all the Government property in the best possible order, and furnish to the contracting officer a statement of: (1), the lost, destroyed and damaged Government property, (2) the time and origin of the loss, destruction or damage, (3) all known interests in commingled property of which the Government property is a part, and (4) the insurance, if any, covering any part of or interest in such commingled property. If and as directed by the contracting officer, the contractor shall make repairs and renovations of the damaged Government property.[1] The contractor shall be reimbursed the expenditures made by it and approved by the contracting officer in performing its obligations under this paragraph (c) (including charges made to the contractor by the Loss and Salvage Organization, except any of such charges, the payment of which the Government has, at its option, assumed direct).

(d) In the event the contractor is indemnified, reimbursed or compensated for any loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, it shall equitably reimburse the Government. The contractor shall do nothing to prejudice the Government's rights to recover against third parties for any such loss, destruction or damage and, upon the request of the contracting officer, shall, at the Government's expense, furnish to the Government all reasonable assistance and cooperation (including the prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment in favor of the Government) in obtaining recovery.

(e) The Government shall at all times have access to the premises wherein any Government property is located.

(f) The contractor shall insert in all cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts under this contract provisions which will make applicable to the Government and the subcontractors substantially the same rights and obligations in respect to the Government property as are made applicable to the Government and the contractor under this Article.

NOTE 1: Where facilities, such as machinery, are furnished by the Government or acquired for Government account under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, appropriate additional provisions, dealing with such subjects as standby, storage and removal, may be included.

NOTE 2: (a) The Article set forth above will be included in all cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts executed on or after 15 March 1944.

(b) Whenever the terms of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract are to be modified by the execution, on or after 15 March 1944, of a supplemental agreement, and the contract to be modified does not contain an Article identical in wording with that set forth above, the supplemental agreement will provide that the contract is modified to include the Article.

(c) In order that the services of the Loss and Salvage Organizations may be made available, widely and promptly, it is desired, in addition, that existing contracts be amended whenever practicable to incorporate the Article even when occasion does not arise to write a supplemental agreement for other reasons.

NOTE 3: See §§ 81.434 (a) and 81.498 in regard to Loss and Salvage Organizations.

NOTE 4: In the event that the Government property is located in an area outside of the United States, where the services of the Loss and Salvage Organizations are not available, the following clause will be used in lieu of paragraph (c) of the clause prescribed above:

Upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, the contractor shall communicate with the contracting officer, shall take all reasonable steps to protect the Government property from further damage, separate the damaged and undamaged Government property, put all the Government property in the best possible order, and furnish to the contracting officer a statement of: (1) the lost, destroyed and damaged Government property, (2) the time and origin of the loss, destruction or damage, (3) all known interests in commingled property of which the Government property is a part, and (4) the insurance, if any, covering any part of or interest in such commingled property. If and as directed by the contracting officer, the contractor shall make repairs and renovations of the damaged Government property.[1] The contractor shall be reimbursed the expenditures made by it and approved by the contracting officer in performing its obligations under this paragraph (c).

(b) Except in the special cases discussed in § 81.451, the following article is prescribed for inclusion in fixed or unit price contracts under which Government-owned property is furnished to the contractor. (See Note 1 below.) When deemed desirable by a technical service, because of the amount of Government property involved or for other reasons in the best interests of the United States, the substance of the following article may also be approved for inclusion in fixed or unit price subcontracts under either cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or fixed or unit price prime contracts. This article is not intended to cover Government-owned facilities furnished under fixed or unit price contracts or subcontracts, as to which see § 81.332.

Liability for Government-owned property. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided, the contractor shall not be liable for loss or destruction of or damage to property of the Government in the possession or control of the contractor in connection with this contract (hereinafter called "Government property") (1) caused by any peril while the property is in transit off the contractor's premises, or (2) caused by any of the following perils while the property is on the contractor's or subcontractor's or other premises or by removal therefrom because of any of the following perils:

Fire; lightning; windstorm, cyclone, tornado, hail; explosion; riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion; vandalism and malicious mischief; aircraft or objects falling therefrom; vehicles running on land or tracks, excluding vehicles owned or operated by the contractor or any agent or employee of the contractor; smoke; sprinkler leakage; earthquake or volcanic eruption; flood, meaning thereby rising of rivers or streams; enemy attack or any action taken by the military, naval or air forces of the United States in resisting enemy attack.

The perils as set forth in (1) and (2) above are hereinafter called "excepted perils."

(b) The contractor represents that it is not maintaining and agrees that it will not hereafter maintain insurance (including self-insurance funds or reserves) covering loss or destruction of or damage to Government property caused by any excepted peril, and represents that it is not including and agrees that it will not hereafter include in any price to the Government any charge or reserve for such insurance.

(c) Upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Government property caused by an excepted peril, the contractor shall communicate with the contracting officer and with the Loss and Salvage Organization now or hereafter designated by the contracting officer and, with the assistance of that organization employed by the contractor to perform services in accordance with instructions or regulations of the Government (unless the contracting officer directs that no such organization be employed), shall take all reasonable steps to protect the Government property from further damage, separate the damaged and undamaged Government property, put all the Government property in the best possible order, and furnish to the contracting officer a statement of: (1) the lost, destroyed and damaged Government property, (2) the time and origin of the loss, destruction or damage, (3) all known interests in commingled property of which the Government property is a part, and (4) the insurance, if any, covering any part of or interest in such commingled property. If and as directed by the contracting officer the contractor shall make repairs and renovations of the damaged Government property.[1] The contractor shall be reimbursed the expenditures made by it in performing its obligations under this paragraph (c) (including charges made to the contractor by the Loss and Salvage Organization, except any of such charges the payment of which the Government has, at its option, assumed direct), as approved by the contracting officer and set forth in a Supplemental Agreement.

[1] Italicised language may be omitted in appropriate cases.

(d) With the approval of the contracting officer after loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, and subject to such conditions and limitations as may be imposed by the contracting officer, the contractor may, in order to minimize the loss to the Government or in order to permit resumption of business or the like, sell for the account of the Government any item of Government property which has been damaged beyond practicable repair, or which is so commingled or combined with property of others, including the contractor, that separation is impracticable.

(e) Except to the extent of any loss or destruction of or damage to Government property for which the contractor is relieved of liability under the foregoing provisions of this Article, and except for reasonable wear and tear or depreciation, or the utilization of the Government property in accordance with the provisions of this contract, the Government property (other than property permitted to be sold) shall be returned to the Government in as good condition as when received by the contractor in connection with this contract. In aid of its obligation so to return the Government property, the contractor shall maintain a property control, accounting and maintenance system consistent with good business practice.

(f) In the event the contractor is indemnified, reimbursed or compensated for any loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, caused by an excepted peril, it shall equitably reimburse the Government. The contractor shall do nothing to prejudice the Government's rights to recover against third parties for any such loss, destruction or damage and, upon the request of the contracting officer, shall at the Government's expense, furnish to the Government all reasonable assistance and cooperation (including the prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment in favor of the Government) in obtaining recovery.

(g) The Government shall at all times have access to the premises wherein any Government property is located.

NOTE 1: (a) The article set forth above will be included in all fixed or unit price contracts under which Government-owned property is furnished to the contractor, executed on or after 15 March 1944.

(b) Whenever the terms of such a fixed or unit price contract are to be modified by the execution, on or after 15 March 1944, of a supplemental agreement, and the contract to be modified does not contain an article identical in wording with that set forth above, the supplemental agreement will provide that the contract is modified to include the article.

(c) In order that the services of the Loss and Salvage Organizations may be made available, widely and promptly, it is desired, in addition, that such existing contracts be amended whenever practicable to incorporate the article even when occasion does not arise to write a supplemental agreement for other reasons.

NOTE 2: See §§ 81.451 (a) and 81.498 in regard to Loss and Salvage Organizations.

NOTE 3: In the event that the Government property is located in an area outside of the United States, where the services of the Loss and Salvage Organizations are not available, the following clause will be used in lieu of paragraph (c) of the clause prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section.

Upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Government property caused by an excepted peril, the contractor shall communicate with the contracting officer, shall take all reasonable steps to protect the Government property from further damage, separate the damaged and undamaged Government property, put all the Government property in the best possible order, and furnish to the contracting officer a statement of: (1) the lost, destroyed and damaged Government property, (2) the time and origin of the loss, destruction or damage, (3) all known interests in commingled property of which the Government property is a part, and (4) the insurance, if any, covering any part of or interests in such commingled property. If and as directed by the contracting officer, the contractor shall make repairs and renovations of the damaged Government property.[1] The contractor shall be reimbursed the expenditures made by it in performing its obligations under this paragraph (c) as approved by the contracting officer and set forth in a Supplemental Agreement.

(c) Every cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract will contain the following clause without deviation:

* * * * *

(d) Every cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract will contain the following clause without deviation:

* * * * *

(e) Every cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract, the terms of which do not require the incorporation by reference in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts, of all of the terms and conditions of the prime contract in regard to insurance and liability, will contain the following clause without deviation:

(1) The Contractor will, if so requested by the Contracting Officer, include in any particular cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontract, a provision as follows:

The Subcontractor shall procure and thereafter maintain the following insurance: ---------- (here shall be inserted the types, amounts and limits of insurance, as specified in writing by the Contracting Officer). The cost of such insurance and losses or expenses (including settlements made with the written consent of the Contracting Officer who executed the principal contract or his duly authorized successor or representative) not compensated by insurance or otherwise and found and certified by the Contractor and said Contracting Officer or his duly authorized successor or representative to be just and reasonable, actually sustained by the Subcontractor in the defense and/or discharged of such claims of others on account of death or bodily injury of persons or loss or destruction of or damage to property as may arise out of or in connection with the performance of the work under this subcontract shall be allowable items of cost hereunder: Provided, That such reimbursement shall not include any amount for which the Subcontractor would have been indemnified or compensated except for the failure of the Subcontractor to procure or maintain insurance in accordance with the requirements of this subcontract. The Subcontractor shall give the Contractor immediate notice in writing of any suit or action filed against the Subcontractor, arising out of the performance of this subcontract and of any claims against the Subcontractor, the cost and expense of which is reimbursable under the provisions of this subcontract pertinent to allowable items of cost, and the risk of which is then uninsured or in which the amount claimed exceeds the amount of insurance coverage. The Subcontractor shall furnish immediately to the Contractor copies of all pertinent papers received by the Subcontractor. Insofar as the following shall not conflict with any policy or contract, the Subcontractor shall do any and all things to effect an assignment and subrogation in favor of the Contractor or its nominee of all Subcontractor's rights and claims, except rights and claims of the Subcontractor against the Contractor or such nominee, arising from or growing out of such asserted claim, and, if required by the Contractor, shall authorize representatives of the Contractor or of its nominee to settle and/or defend any such claim and to represent the Subcontractor in or take charge of any such litigation. Every policy for the insurance referred to in this paragraph shall contain an indorsement or other recital excluding by appropriate language any claim on the part of the insurer or obligor to be subrogated on payment of a loss or otherwise to any claim against the Contractor or the Government.

(2) Whenever a provision as set forth in paragraph (1) of this article is inserted in any subcontract, then the contractor will forthwith transmit to the Contracting Officer all notices and copies of papers received by it from the subcontractor, will make the Government its nominee for all assignments and subrogations received by it from the subcontractor thereunder and, if required by the Contracting Officer, will do everything in its power to have representatives of the Government authorized to settle and/or defend the claims therein referred to and to represent the subcontractor in or to take charge of the litigation therein referred to.

(f) In accordance with the instructions contained in paragraph (g) to (j), inclusive, there will be inserted without deviation in Architect-Engineer-Construction-Management Service Contracts and all contracts (except supply contracts), executed under or in connection with such contracts, the appropriate clause or clauses set forth in said paragraphs.

(g) In the Architect-Engineer-Construction-Management-Service-contract the following clause:

* * * * *

(h) In cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts, executed under Architect-Engineer-Construction-Management Service Contracts, there will be inserted without deviation the following clause:

All necessary insurance protection required under the terms of this contract will be provided by the policies maintained by the Architect-Engineer-Manager Contractor.

(i) In lump-sum subcontracts, executed under Architect-Engineer-Construction-Management Service Contracts, there will be inserted without deviation the following clause:

* * * * *

(j) In prime lump sum or unit price contracts, collateral to Architect-Engineer-Construction-Management Service Contracts, there will be inserted without deviation the following clause:

* * * * *

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

BONDS AND INSURANCE

Section 81.407 is amended by the addition of two undesignated paragraphs at the end of paragraph (b) (5).

§ 81.407 Filing and examination of bonds and consents of surety. * * *

(b) * * *

(5) * * *

There are a variety of discounts which may be applied to blanket fidelity insurance under certain circumstances. A 30% class discount may be applicable to the class A employee premium charge, depending on the nature of the assured's contracts on hand when the bond is written or renewed. A 10% general discount may be applicable to the combined class A and class B employee premium charge for a Primary Commercial Blanket Bond, depending on the number of employees involved and the amount of the bond. An experience discount ranging as high as 25% may be applicable to the final premium, depending on the size of the premium and the amount of claims or losses incurred. Therefore, when blanket fidelity insurance is purchased, carriers should be cautioned to apply all appropriate discounts.

When, pursuant to § 81.409 (c) hereof, a duplicate of the fidelity bond or policy is forwarded to the Contract Insurance Branch, Special Financial Services Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, it will be accompanied by (i) a statement showing what percentage of the named assured's total volume of contracts for all departments and agencies of the Government is cost-plus-a-fixed-fee, (ii) a classification of the employees showing the number placed in A, B, and C classes, and (iii) if available a complete computation of the premium charge or proposed premium charge. Upon receipt of this data the Contract Insurance Branch will advise the service concerned if the premium has not been correctly computed.

In § 81.408 paragraph (b) is added as follows:

§ 81.408 General policy as to rates. * * *

(b) Bond premium computation on terminated contracts. (1) Premium on the bonds described in § 81.406 (b) and (c) (except in certain instances mentioned in such paragraphs where the rate is applied to the penalty of the bond or bonds) is determined by multiplying the appropriate rate of premium by the final contract price, that is, the total remuneration received by the contractor after final settlement. The rule followed by the surety industry generally is as follows:

> The "contract price" on which premium is computed means the whole sum of money or other reimbursement which has passed from the owner to the contractor when final settlement between the two has been made, excluding any bonus for "time". If this sum is different from the original estimate, premium must be adjusted accordingly, either by a refund of part of the original premium by the surety if the original estimate was larger than the actual contract price, or by payment of additional premium by the contractor if the original estimate was smaller than the actual contract price. (Towner Rating Bureau bond manual, page 47.)

Accordingly, when a contract is terminated short of original estimate, the decrease in contract price requires that an adjustment in bond premium be taken into account when final settlement is made. Such adjustment (or return premium) on a contract decrease is ascertained by subtracting from the original premium the amount of premium developed in multiplying the appropriate rate by the terminated contract price. By "appropriate" rate is meant the rate that would have been used for a contract in the amount of the terminated contract price at the time the original contract was awarded. Care should be observed in connection with construction contracts in excess of $2,500,000 in amount for the reason that prior to 28 August 1942 such contracts were accorded special rates of a graduated nature, depending on the size of the contract and the performance time involved. Subsequent to 28 August 1942 special rates have been promulgated for construction contracts where performance time required more than twelve months. In any case where doubt exists or special circumstances are believed involved, full details together with the recommendation of the chief of the technical service will be forwarded to the Contract Insurance Branch, Special Financial Services Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces for review and advices.

(2) Premium on bonds required in support of War Department contracts other than those described in § 81.406 (b) and (c) is determined by various methods, depending on the nature of the bond or contract involved. As a general rule, adjustment of bond premium is in order where a contract is terminated short of completion. Especially is this true where the bond premium is included in the contract price as an item of cost. In any case where doubt exists or special circumstances are believed involved, full details together with the recommendation of the chief of the technical service will be forwarded to the Contract Insurance Branch, Special Financial Services Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for review and advices.

(3) Premium on fidelity and forgery bonds furnished in connection with cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts is paid for a certain period of time, which is generally one year. There is attached to each such bond a rider providing for pro rata refund of premium on a calendar day basis when the bond is canceled upon contract termination.

Paragraph (a) of § 81.410 is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.410 Bonds executed by receivers, trustees, administrators, guardians, or executors as principal obligors. (a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, guardians or executors are officers of the court which appointed them. Their powers are limited to those specified in the court order appointing them. Accordingly, when a bond is executed by such an officer of a court, a duly authenticated copy of the court order showing his authority to execute the bond should be obtained.

Section 81.434 is amended as follows:

§ 81.434 Insurance on Government-owned property—(a) Approval required. (1) No insurance covering loss or destruction of or damage to property, legal title to which is in the United States and which is to be used in connection with a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract, will be required or authorized without the prior approval of the Contract Insurance Branch, Special Financial Services Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. To implement this policy of self-insurance on government-owned property, there shall be included in the contract, the clause set forth in § 81.365 (a). The policy of self-insurance rests to a large degree upon savings to the Government obtained by eliminating the cost of insurance which otherwise would be added to the contract price.

(2) Where it is considered advisable to impose specific standards of care such as an obligation to keep the facilities in good operating condition and repair and to make all necessary repairs and replacements, a clause to this effect may be included in the contract.

(b) Procedure to be followed in the event of loss or destruction of or damage to property of the Government in the possession or control of contractors (or subcontractors). (1) In the event of loss or destruction of or damage to property of the Government in the possession or control of contractors (or subcontractors), it is of the utmost importance that immediate action be taken so that the property will be conserved and production will suffer the least interruption. Contractors are generally not in a position to handle losses with maximum efficiency and War Department personnel may not be available or equipped to give all the required attention to such a problem.

(2) Accordingly, upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to Government property, the prescribed contract article (§ 81.365 (a)) requires the contractor (or subcontractor) to give notice to and employ the services of a Loss and Salvage Organization designated by the contracting officer (unless the contracting officer directs that no such organization be employed).

(3) The Loss and Salvage Organizations referred to are the Fire Companies Adjustment Bureau, Inc., The Western Inspection and Adjustment Company, or the Underwriters Adjustment Company

(hereinafter or elsewhere designated as Loss and Salvage Organization). A list of the offices of these organizations with telephone numbers, is set forth in § 81.498. Their services will be rendered to contractors (or subcontractors) under a schedule of rates filed with the War Department and intended to cover costs without allowance for profit.

(4) Each office has been instructed to respond immediately to requests of contractors in connection with loss or destruction of or damage to Government property while at fixed locations or in courses of transit, and thereafter investigate the damage or loss, prevent the accrual of further damage or deterioration, eliminate hazards to life or other property, clear debris, locate and remove property to appropriate places of storage or erect suitable shelter therefor and otherwise conserve and protect all possible salvage. In the event of catastrophic loss, the Loss and Salvage Organizations may procure the services of others and temporarily augment their own staffs so that the loss may be handled with the utmost dispatch and efficiency. The organization so employed will report as may be appropriate to the contracting officer or to the contractor, and generally will operate under the regulations and the specific instructions of the contracting officer.

(5) The prevention of further and progressive loss to damaged property, its repair or disposal, are steps which are related and which are, in commercial practice, generally combined into one series of operations performed or directed by one organization. Where, under the prescribed contract article (§ 81.365 (a)), the contractor (or subcontractor) has undertaken, if and as directed by the contracting officer, to make repairs and renovations, it may be to the advantage of the Government to request the contractor to employ the Loss and Salvage Organization to assist in repair and renovation. Similarly, under the contract clause set forth in § 81.363, assistance may be sought from the Loss and Salvage Organization in respect to disposal of damaged Government property.

(6) In the event that the Government property is located in an area outside of the United States, where none of the above organizations has resident representatives reasonably accessible, there will be included in the contract the clause set forth in Note 4, § 81.365 (a) and in the event of loss, the contracting officer will supervise and enforce the discharge of the contractor's obligations.

Section 81.451 is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.451 Insurance on Government-owned property. The same general policy exists with respect to Government-owned property in the possession, care, custody or control of the lump sum contractor as exists with respect to property in the possession, care, custody or control of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors (see § 81.434). To implement this policy of self-insurance on Government-owned property, there shall be inserted in the contract the article set forth in § 81.365 (b), or in the case of facilities the article set forth in § 81.332. The policy to a large degree rests upon the savings to the Government obtained by elimination of insurance which savings are reflected in the contract price. Where, by reason of special circumstances, such savings are not practicable, are trivial in amount, are difficult of ascertainment or there is a commingling of values and interests, the chief of the technical service may in his discretion permit insurance. (This will ordinarily be done in the case of service contracts of the type of laundry and shoe repair contracts, and contracts with motor carriers for the transportation of Government-owned property.) In such cases there will be omitted from the contract the article set forth in § 81.365 (b) or § 81.332.

(a) Procedure to be followed in the event of loss or destruction of or damage to property of the Government in the possession or control of contractors (or subcontractors). (1) Except when insurance is permitted, upon the happening of loss or destruction of or damage to property in the possession or control of contractors (or subcontractors) caused by an "excepted peril" (see §§ 81.365 (b) and 81.332) the procedure to be followed is the same as that described in § 81.434 (b).

(2) In connection with the disposal of damaged Government property, attention is invited to paragraph (d) of contract articles in § 81.365 (b) and paragraph (F) (4) of contract article in § 81.332, which are comparable with § 81.363.

Section 81.498 is added:

§ 81.498 List of offices of Loss and Salvage Organizations (see § 81.434 (b)).

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

LABOR

Section 81.916 is amended as follows:

§ 81.916 Basic law; Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act. Act of 30 June 1936 (49 Stat. 2036), as amended by the act of 13 May 1942 (56 Stat. 277); 41 U.S.C. 35-45; M. L., 1939, sec 747. The act of 30 June 1936 is quoted in "Rulings and Interpretations, September 29, 1939, Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act," and the effect of the amendment of 13 May 1942 is explained in the Supplement to that publication (see §§ 81.917 (a) and 81.918 (a)).

Section 81.922 is amended as follows:

§ 81.922 Men's hat and cap industry. Manufacture or supply of men's hats and caps, including men's white sailor and other stitched cloth hats, men's furfelt hats, men's uniform caps, and women's hats, men's uniform caps, and women's hats and caps of similar design and construction.

Date effective: 2 March 1944.

Wage: 67.5 cents an hour or $27.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece-work basis.

(a) Variation from minimum wage determination. A tolerance of not more than 20 percent of the employee in any one factory, whose activities at any given time are subject to the provisions of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act is granted for auxiliary workers in the Men's Hat and Cap Industry except that there shall be no limitation on the number or proportion of auxiliary workers employed in the uniform cap and stitched hat branches of the Industry, provided that any auxiliary workers in the Industry shall be paid not less than 40 cents an hour or $16 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piecework basis.

(b) Definition of "auxiliary workers". The term "auxiliary workers" as applied to the employees in the uniform cap and stitched hat branches of the Industry shall include only those employees engaged in auxiliary occupations enumerated and defined as follows:

(1) Hand clipping. The operation of separating component parts of the article after they have been sewn.

(2) Hand cleaning. The operation of removing excess threads from the article or removing stains or dust.

(3) Size stamping. The operating of stamping the head size mark on the article.

(4) Floor boys (girls). One who carries items of work to and from the various departments.

(5) Examining. The operation of inspecting the article for imperfections during any stage of manufacture.

(6) Sweat band, braid, and strap cutter and measuring. The operation of measuring and cutting bands, straps and ribbons.

(7) Turning. The operation of turning the article inside out or outside in.

(8) Packing. The operation of packing the finished caps into shipping containers, spraying larvex or moth flakes; if necessary, inserting tissue paper in caps and inserting a cardboard ring stiffener to support crown of cap.

(9) Shipping and receiving. The operation of unloading and checking stock and preparing containers for shipment.

(10) Waste material sorting. The operation of separating paper from the rags whether performed in the cutting room or elsewhere.

(11) Hand stapling. The operation by hand pressure of a wire stapling machine to join together parts of the article, to attach labels, bowls or cloth to the article or part of the article, or to join ends of a cardboard strip to foum a packing ring.

(12) Drawstring pulling. The operation of slipping a cord or drawstring through part of a cap, hood or helmet.

(13) Basting pulling. The operation of pulling out basting threads.

(14) Porter. The operation of cleaning floors or carrying boxes.

(16) Wire stiffener inserting. The operation of slipping a wire ring into the cap.

(17) Hand buckling. The operation of slipping a buckle on a strap.

(18) Visor inserting. The operation of inserting a canvas stiffener into a cloth pocket before the visor is attached.

(19) Pasting. The operation of attaching a label or ticket to a part of hat with paste or glue.

(20) Hand button inserting. The operation of inserting, by hand, into a prepared hole a button and bending overclips to hold the button in place, or inserting a button with a threaded neck, and screwing a nut on neck to hold button firm.

(21) Hand hole punching. The operation of punching a hole into material by use of an ice pick or similar pointed hand instrument.

(22) Wire cutting and ring forming. The operation of cutting a wire to length and joining the ends to form a stiffener ring.

(23) Hand eyeletting. The operation by hand pressure of a machine to attach an eyelet to the article.

(24) Hand snap fastening. The operation by hand pressure of a machine to attach a snap fastener to the article.

Section 81.961b is added as follows:

§ 81.961b Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938—(a) Basic law. (1) The act establishes minimum wages and maximum hours for employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, and restricts the use of child labor. Only those provisions of the act relating to minimum wages and maximum hours as they effect cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors are dealt with in this procurement regulation.

(2) Section 6 (a) requires every employer to pay to each of his employees (except home-workers in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands) "who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce" not less than 30 cents per hour or, if the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor in accordance with the act shall have prescribed some other rate, not less than the rate (not in excess of 40 cents per hour) so prescribed by the Administrator.

(3) Section 7 (a) prohibits every employer from employing any of his employees "who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce" for a workweek longer than 40 hours, unless such employee receives compensation for his employment in excess of such 40-hour workweek at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed. Employment pursuant to bona fide collective bargaining agreements providing for employment for not more than 1000 hours during any period of 26 consecutive weeks or for not more than 2080 hours during any period of 52 consecutive weeks, and employment for a period or periods of not more than 14 workweeks in the aggregate in any calendar year in an industry found by the Administrator to be of a seasonal nature will not constitute a violation of section 7 (a), if employees receive compensation for employment in excess of 12 hours in any workday or in excess of 56 hours in any workweek at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which they are employed. Neither does section 7 (a) apply, under stated circumstances, to employees engaged in processing certain perishable products. (Act of June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1060, 29 U.S.C., sec. 201-219 (Supp. 1939); as amended by 53 Stat. 1266; 54 Stat. 615; and Act of October 29, 1941 (77th Cong. 1st sess.).)

(b) Exceptions. The provisions of sections 6 and 7 do not apply with respect to:

(1) Any employee employed in a bona fide executive, administrative, professional, or local retailing capacity, or in the capacity of outside salesman (as such terms are defined and delimited by regulations of the Administrator); or

(2) Any employee engaged in any retail or service establishment the greater part of whose selling or servicing is in intrastate commerce; or

(3) Any employee employed as a seaman; or

(4) Any employee of a carrier by air subject to the provisions of title II of the Railway Labor Act; or

(5) Any employee employed in the catching, taking, harvesting, cultivating, or farming of any kind of fish, shellfish, crustacea, sponges, seaweeds, or other aquatic forms of animal and vegetable life, including the going to and returning from work and including employment in the loading, unloading, or packing of such products for shipment or in propagating, processing, marketing, freezing, canning, curing, storing, or distributing the above products or by-products thereof; or

(6) Any employee employed in agriculture; or

(7) Any employee to the extent that such employee is exempted by regulations or orders of the Administrator issued under section 14 (which permits the issue of regulations and certificates allowing learners, apprentices, messengers and individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age, physical or mental deficiency, or injury to be employed for lower wages than those prescribed by section 6); or

(8) Any employee employed in connection with the publication of any weekly or semiweekly newspaper with a circulation of less than three thousand the major part of which circulation is within the county where printed and published; or

(9) Any employee of a street, suburban, or interurban electric railway, or local trolley or motor bus carrier; or

(10) To any individual employed within the area of production (as dein the wages or salaries of their em-employment in industries engaged in war investigations and hearings as may be necesfined by the Administrator), engaged in handling, packing, storing, ginning, compressing, pasteurizing, drying, preparing in their raw or natural state, or canning of agricultural or horticultural commodities for market, or in making cheese or butter or other dairy products; or

(11) Any switchboard operator employed in a public telephone exchange which has less than five hundred stations.

(c) Regulations of the Administrator. The act provides that the Administrator shall by regulation define certain terms used in the act and may grant certain exemptions from its provisions. Regulations issued by the Administrator, as revised from time to time, should be consulted in these respects.

(d) Liability of employer. Any employer who violates the provisions of section 6 or 7 of the act is liable to the employee or employees affected in the amount of their unpaid minimum wages, or their unpaid overtime compensation, and in an additional equal amount as liquidated damages; and, in the event the employee institutes suit therefor, the costs of the action and a reasonable attorney's fee as allowed by the court. Violations also may be restrained by injunction and may subject the employer to criminal penalties.

(e) Reimbursement of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors for payments in accordance with the act. Minimum wages and overtime payments paid currently in accordance with the act are reimbursable to cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors as labor costs. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors also may be reimbursed, in proper cases, amounts paid in settlement of claims for overtime subsequently asserted by his employees. (See paragraph (g) of this section for the administrative procedure to be followed in respect of such of said subsequently asserted claims as are made the subject of an investigation by the Administrator and § 81.1120 (c) of this chapter for the administrative procedure to be followed to determine the position of the Government in suits for such claimed overtime brought against cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors.) Attention is called to the Comptroller General's opinion to the Secretary of War of 15 December 1943 (B–38642) to the effect that amounts paid in settlement of such claims may be reimbursed even though the settlements necessitated a compromise of disputed questions of law or fact, Provided, That such settlements are in amounts less than the total amounts (including liquidated damages, court costs and attorneys fees) which would be required to be paid in the event the employee sued and obtained judgment and that it is administratively determined that the settlement in each instance was fully warranted as being in the best interest of the Government. Vouchers covering such payments should be supported by evidence setting forth the basis for such administrative determination and any questions of law with respect to the application of the act should be determined by the contracting officer only after thorough consideration has been given the matter by competent Government attorneys or by private attorneys engaged to represent the contractors if the former are not available, and a showing to that effect should also be made a part of the evidence submitted with the vouchers.

(f) Investigations and inspections of records by the Administrator. Employers subject to the act or any order issued thereunder must make and preserve such records of the persons employed by him and of the wages, hours and other conditions and practices of employment maintained by him, and make such reports therefrom, as the Administrator shall prescribe by regulation or order as necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of the act or his regulations or orders thereunder. The act provides that the Administrator or his designated representatives may investigate and gather data regarding the wages, hours and other conditions and practices of employment in any industry subject to the act and may enter and inspect such places and such records, question such employees and investigate such facts, conditions, practices or matters as he may deem necessary or appropriate to determine whether any person has violated any provision of the act, or which may aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the act.

(g) Investigations of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors. (1) The Under Secretary of War, by memorandum dated 15 December 1943 to the Commanding Generals of the Army Air Forces and the Army Service Forces, has directed, with respect to investigations of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors of the War Department, that: To the extent consistent with the security and other regulations governing admission of visitors to plants and projects, representatives of the Administrator should be accorded access to the facilities and records of War Department contractors for the purpose of making investigations to determine applicability of a compliance with the act. Investigations will be conducted at such time and in such manner as to interrupt or interfere least with operations. They should be confined wherever possible to the inspection of records in the office of the contractor. Inspections of the areas in the facility where construction or production is in progress will be held to a minimum. Necessary interviewing of employees should, wherever possible, be conducted outside work hours or at such other times as will interfere least with construction or production operations.

(2) The Administrator has stated that his investigators will advise cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors approximately one week before they plan to arrive at the project to make an investigation under the act. The War Department representative at the plant will see that the investigation is conducted in accordance with such directive of the Under Secretary of War.

(3) If the Administrator is of the opinion that any such investigation discloses violation of sections 6 or 7 of the act, he will transmit a report of the investigation to the Director, Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, who will transmit it to the appropriate technical service. The technical service will cause the matter to be examined into and, if such examination confirms such violation, will advise the contractor to take appropriate steps to comply with the law. The technical service promptly will report to the Director, Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, as to its examination into the matter and as to the action taken. If the question as to whether a violation exists depends upon a construction of a provision of the act which has not been construed by the courts or under the procedure provided in the agreement referred to in paragraph (c) of § 81.1120 of these procurement regulations, the Judge Advocate General will be consulted as to the construction to be followed.

In § 81.979 (a) (1) Regions VI and VII are amended as follows:

§ 81.979 Jurisdiction and procedure of Regional War Labor Boards. * * *

(a) Constitution of regions and regional War Labor Boards. (1) A regional war labor board has been established in each of the following regions:

* * * * * *

Region VI: Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, 222 W. Adams Street, Room 533, Chicago, Ill.

Region VII: Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, 11th Floor, Fidelity Building, 911 Walnut Street, Kansas City, Mo.

* * * * * *

The regulations formerly contained in paragraph (b) of § 81.980p are now contained in § 81.980bb. A new paragraph (b) is added as follows:

§ 81.980p General Order No. 16. * * *

(b) Interpretation No. 1 to General Order No. 16. Wage adjustments required by State statutes which prohibit wage discrimination between the sexes are "adjustments which equalize the wage or salary rates paid to females with the rates paid to males for comparable quality and quantity of work on the same or similar operations" within the meaning of General Order No. 16, and may be made without approval of the National War Labor Board.

* * * * * *

Section 81.980z is amended as follows:

§ 81.980z General Order No. 26. (a) Organizations established as nonprofit community chest funds, foundations or cemetery companies, and organizations operated without profit and exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, which have been exempted from the payment of incomes and social security taxes (including nonprofit organizations which maintain and operate hospitals), shall be exempt from the necessity of filing applications for approval of wage and salary adjustments of their employees within the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board.

(b) Such organizations will, nevertheless, be expected to observe and abide by the national wage and salary stabilization policy in making any adjustments in the wages or salaries of their employees.

(c) The Regional War Labor Boards may recommend to the National War Labor Board such exceptions to the provisions of this order as are necessary to effectuate the wage and salary stabilization policies of the National War Labor Board, which exceptions, if approved by the National War Labor Board, shall, unless otherwise specified, apply only within the territorial jurisdiction of the Regional Board making the recommendation.

Section 81.980bb is redesignated § 81.980cc and a new § 81.980bb is added. (This was formerly § 81.980p (b)).

§ 81.980bb General Order No. 30. In accordance with the provisions of section 4 of Title II of Executive Order 9250, increases in wage or salary rates which do not bring such rates above 40¢ per hour may be made without the approval of the National War Labor Board.

§ 81.980cc General Order No. 31. * * *

In § 81.990 paragraph (b) is redesignated (c) and a new paragraph (b) is added:

§ 81.990 Joint statement on employment of aliens. * * *

(b) Anti-discrimination contract clause. The anti-discrimination clause (see paragraph 325) required in contracts under the provisions of Executive Order No. 9346 issued under date of 27 May 1943 (see this Procurement Regulation No. 9, § 81.990) prohibits discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of "national origin". This is construed as prohibiting discrimination based on noncitizenship as well as discrimination based on country of origin.

FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE

Sections 81.994 and 81.994a are added as follows:

§ 81.994 Executive Order No. 9346. The following is the full text of Executive Order No. 9346, issued under date of 27 May 1943:

EXECUTIVE ORDER FURTHER AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 8802 BY ESTABLISHING A NEW COMMITTEE ON FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE AND DEFINING ITS POWERS AND DUTIES

In order to establish a new Committee on Fair Employment Practice, to promote the fullest utilization of all available manpower, and to eliminate discriminatory employment practices, Executive Order No. 8802 of June 25, 1941, as amended by Executive Order No. 8823, of July 18, 1941, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

WHEREAS the successful prosecution of the war demands the maximum employment of all available workers regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin; and

WHEREAS it is the policy of the United States to encourage full participation in the war effort by all persons in the United States regardless of race, creed, color, or national origin, in the firm belief that the democratic way of life within the nation can be defended successfully only with the help and support of all groups within its borders; and

WHEREAS there is evidence that available and needed workers have been barred from employment in industries engaged in war production solely by reason of their race, creed, color, or national origin, to the detriment of the prosecution of the war, the workers' morale, and national unity:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes, and as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, I do hereby reaffirm the policy of the United States that there shall be no discrimination in the employment of any person in war industries or in Government by reason of race, creed, color, or national origin, and I do hereby declare that it is the duty of all employers, including the several Federal departments and agencies, and all labor organizations, in furtherance of this policy and of this Order, to eliminate discrimination in regard to hire, tenure, terms or conditions of employment, or union membership because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

It is hereby ordered as follows:

1. All contracting agencies of the Government of the United States shall include in all contracts hereafter negotiated or renegotiated by them a provision obligating the contractor not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color, or national origin and requiring him to include a similar provision in all subcontracts. [See § 81.325.]

2. All departments and agencies of the Government of the United States concerned with vocational and training programs for war production shall take all measures appropriate to assure that such programs are administered without discrimination because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

3. There is hereby established in the Office for Emergency Management of the Executive Office of the President a Committee on Fair Employment Practice, hereinafter referred to as the Committee, which shall consist of a Chairman and not more than six other members to be appointed by the President. The Chairman shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the President not exceeding $10,000 per year. The other members of the Committee shall receive necessary traveling expenses and, unless their compensation is otherwise prescribed by the President, a per diem allowance not exceeding twenty-five dollars per day and subsistence expenses on such days as they are actually engaged in the performance of duties pursuant to this Order.

4. The Committee shall formulate policies to achieve the purposes of this Order and shall make recommendations to the Order and shall make recommendations to the various Federal departments and agencies and to the President which it deems necessary and proper to make effective the provisions of this Order. The Committee shall also recommend to the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission appropriate measures for bringing about the full utilization and training of manpower in and for war production without discrimination because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

5. The Committee shall receive and investigate complaints of discrimination forbidden by this Order. It may conduct hearings, make findings of fact, and take appropriate steps to obtain elimination of such discrimination.

6. Upon the appointment of the Committee and the designation of its Chairman, the Fair Employment Practice Committee established by Executive Order No. 8802 of June 25, 1941, hereinafter referred to as the old Committee, shall cease to exist. All records and property of the old Committee and such unexpended balances of allocations or other funds available for its use as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine shall be transferred to the Committee. The Committee shall assume jurisdiction over all complaints and matters pending before the old Committee and shall conduct such investigations and hearings as may be necessary in the performance of its duties under this Order.

7. Within the limits of the funds which may be made available for that purpose, the Chairman shall appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel and make provision for such supplies, facilities, and services as may be necessary to carry out this Order. The Committee may utilize the services and facilities of other Federal departments and agencies and such voluntary and uncompensated services as may from time to time be needed. The Committee may accept the services of State and local authorities and officials, and may perform the functions and duties and exercise the powers conferred upon it by this Order through such officials and agencies and in such manner as it may determine.

8. The Committee shall have the power to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be appropriate or necessary to carry out the provisions of this Order.

9. The provisions of any other pertinent Executive order inconsistent with this Order are hereby superseded.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
May 27, 1943.

§ 81.994a Interpretations of Executive Order 9346. Pursuant to the authority vested in it by Executive Order No. 9346, the Committee on Fair Employment Practice, in order to effectuate the purposes of the order, has issued certain interpretations under the order. Such interpretations are set forth in succeeding paragraphs.

(a) Contracts. (1) The words "all contracts hereafter negotiated or renegotiated" include all contracts made, amended or modified.

(2) A non-discrimination provision is required in leases, grants or easements, right of way, etc., to the same extent that it is required in other contracts.

(3) The obligation to include the non-discrimination clause exists even though the contract involves non-war activity.

(4) The obligation to include the non-discrimination clause exists even though the contract is required to be awarded to the lowest bidder.

(5) The obligation to include the non-discrimination clause exists even though the contract is between a Federal Government agency and a state agency or subdivision of a state.

(6) The obligation to include the non-discrimination clause does not depend on the amount of money or other consideration involved in the performance of the contract.

(7) The non-discrimination provision required does not refer to, extend to or cover the activities or business of the contractor which are not related to or involved in the performance of the contract entered into.

(8) Inclusion of a non-discrimination provision is not required in contracts the performance of which does not involve the employment of persons.

(9) Inclusion of a non-discrimination provision is not required in contracts with foreign contractors for work to be performed outside the continental or territorial limits of the United States where no recruitment of workers within the said limits of the United States is involved.

(b) Employment of aliens. See § 81.990 of this Procurement Regulation No. 9, relating to employment of aliens, particularly paragraph (b).

[Procurement Reg. 11]

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

MISCELLANEOUS PURCHASE INSTRUCTIONS

Paragraph (c) is added to § 81.1120, as follows:

§ 81.1120 Procedure for handling litigation involving cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors. * * *

(c) Procedure to determine legal position to be taken in suits based upon Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938. (1) In order that any differences of opinion between the War or Navy Departments and the Department of Labor as to the legal position which should be taken by the Government in suits against cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors based upon the Fair Labor Standards Act may, be resolved, the War Department, the Navy Department, the Department of Labor and the Department of Justice have entered into the following agreement as to the administrative procedures to be followed to determine the position to be taken by the Government in such suits:

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT ON UNIFORM ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

1. Purposes: The procedures herein outlined are provided in order to:

(a) Secure in the disposition of litigated claims settled and uniform application of the Fair Labor Standards Act to the types of work performed by cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors.

(b) Obtain either an effective and economical defense by the Department of Justice against claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act, or the quick payment of such claims, depending upon whether such claims are determined pursuant to these procedures to be valid or invalid; and

(c) Establish a method for handling claims which is fair and equitable in protection of the claimant, the United States, and the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor.

2. Definitions: For purposes of this agreement, the term—

(a) "Contracting Agency" means the War Department, or the Navy Department, as the case may be.

(b) "Cost - Plus-a-Fixed - Fee Contractor" means a contractor who has entered into a contract with a contracting agency, acting in its own behalf, or in behalf of the United States, pursuant to which the contracting agency, or the United States, is obligated to pay the labor costs of the work performed under the contract.

(c) "Claim" means a suit based upon the Fair Labor Standards Act for additional payments for work performed for a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor; and the term "claimant" means a person by whom or on whose behalf such suit is instituted.

3. Prompt Investigation, Determination, and Payment of a Valid Claim: Claims will be immediately investigated by the contracting agency. If in the judgment of the contracting agency the claim should be paid, the United States Attorney will be promptly notified and he will effect settlement of the claim and disposition of the suit. If such is not the judgment of the contracting agency, the claim, together with the contracting agency's recommendation and report of the investigation, will be referred to the appropriate regional office of the Wage and Hour Division for such further and prompt investigation as may be necessary, and for determination. Contemporary or joint investigations will be held by both agencies when found feasible.

4. Review of Determination of the Regional Office of the Wage and Hour Division: Within ten days after notice of the determination of the regional office of the Wage and Hour Division, the contracting agency may, if dissatisfied with, and unwilling to settle on the basis of the determination of the regional Office of the Wage and Hour Division, appeal to the Wage and Hour Administrator for his final determination of the claim. If part or the whole of the claim is found valid by the Administrator, the United States Attorney will effect settlement of the claim and disposition of the suit accordingly, except that if the contracting agency should conclude that the determination of the Administrator is in its view so clearly unsound as to render assent thereto improper, such agency may elect not to be bound by such determination and to proceed as provided in Paragraph 5.

5. Participation of the Department of Justice in Discussions: At the instance of either contracting agency or of the Administrator, the Department of Justice will, if the case appears sufficiently important and the legal issues sufficiently doubtful, join in any discussion among the parties preceding the determination of the Administrator and will informally accord to the parties the benefits of its views on the legal issues. It is understood that the Department of Justice is not intended to act as an appellate tribunal and that requests for its participation in discussions will be limited to the few important and doubtful cases. Each case in which a contracting agency has elected, pursuant to Paragraph 4, not to be bound by a determination of the Administrator shall be made the subject of discussion with the Department of Justice. Whenever any such case is the subject of discussion with the Department of Justice that Department may determine the Government's litigation position. If the Department of Justice makes such determination the action of all parties hereto with respect to the disposition of the particular case shall be in accord with the determination of the issues so made. In the event the Department of Justice declines in such cases to make such determination of the issues, the Department may decide not to provide further legal representation in any litigation of such case, in which event the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor shall be represented by private counsel and neither the Administrator nor the contracting agency nor any of their representatives shall appear or participate in the litigation.

6. Suits on Claims Against Cost-Plus-a-Fixed-Fee Contractors To Be Handled by the Department of Justice: The Department of Justice will have its United States Attorneys appear for cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors in all suits on claims filed against them, and will seek extensions of time sufficient to permit the foregoing procedures to operate. Subject to the Attorney General's usual discretion to avoid untenable positions in court, the conduct of such litigation will be in conformity with the administrative determinations made pursuant to such procedures.

7. Duration: The procedures provided in this agreement are recognized as experimental in nature, and any signatory hereto shall be free to withdraw from this agreement. In the absence of such withdrawal, the procedures shall endure until the purposes set forth in Paragraph 1 are accomplished.

(2) The Under Secretary of War by memorandum dated 15 December 1943, to the Commanding Generals of the Army Air Forces and the Army Service Forces, with reference to the above agreement, directed that:

To carry out the purposes of the agreement the procedure set forth below will be followed:

(a) The Judge Advocate General will be notified, as provided in AR 410–5 and other applicable regulations, promptly upon receipt of notice that suit based upon the Fair Labor Standards Act has been filed against a War Department cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor. He will request the Attorney General to direct the United States District Attorney to appear in the suit on behalf of the contractor and to obtain the extension of time contemplated by Paragraph 5 of the agreement.

(b) The Judge Advocate General will determine the position of the War Department in respect of such suits, to the same extent as in other cases referred to him under AR 410–5, and will further determine which cases should be appealed by the War Department to the Wage & Hour Administrator or the Attorney General, pursuant to the provisions of the attached agreement. He will also represent the War Department in all such appeals.

(3) In conformity with the above agreement and directive, upon notification of the institution of a suit based upon the Fair Labor Standards Act against a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the Judge Advocate General will request the Attorney General to direct the United States District Attorney to appear in the suit on behalf of the contractor and to obtain the extension of time contemplated by paragraph 5 of the agreement. The technical service promptly will make or cause to be made such investigation as may be necessary to ascertain the precise nature of the work performed by the complaining employee during the period for which he seeks additional compensation, and promptly will report such information and such other information as the Judge Advocate General may request to the Judge Advocate General with the technical service's recommendation as to the position to be taken by the War Department in respect of the suit. Such investigation as to the nature of the employee's employment during the period may be made in collaboration with an investigator of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor in any case in which the technical service deems this appropriate.

(4) The Judge Advocate General will determine which claims in litigation shall be referred to the Department of Labor for the further investigation and for determination as permitted by paragraphs 3 and 4 of the agreement and which claims shall be referred by the War Department to the Department of Justice as permitted by paragraph 5 of the agreement, and will represent the War Department in connection therewith.

(5) In those cases in which the Department of Justice determines the legal position to be taken by the Government and decides that the claim should be litigated, it will conduct the litigation in accordance with the course of action determined upon as provided in the agreement. Should the Department of Justice refuse to determine the legal position to be taken by the Government and should the Judge Advocate General decide that the claim should be litigated, he will so advise the technical service in order that private counsel may be engaged to represent the contractor. Attention is called to 22 Comp. Gen. 993 to the effect that cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors in proper cases may be reimbursed the reasonable and necessary costs, including attorneys' fees, incurred in the defense of such suits. (See also the Comptroller General's opinion to the Secretary of War of 15 December 1943 (B–38642) affirming such position.)

(6) The Judge Advocate General will advise the technical services as to claims which it has been determined should be compromised rather than litigated. Attention is called to the Comptroller General's opinion to the Secretary of War of 15 December 1943 (B–38642) to the effect that the War Department properly may, upon proper administrative determination as therein indicated that the settlement in each instance was fully warranted as being in the best interest of the Government, reimburse contractors for payments to employees in settlement of claims for overtime asserted in section 7 of the Fair Labor Standards Act, in amounts less than the total amounts which would be required to be paid in the event adverse judgments were obtained, even if the consummation of the settlement necessitated adjustment of disputed questions as to the amounts of overtime involved as well as questions pertaining to the application of the act.

In § 81.1187 the final paragraph is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.1187 Restrictions on purchases of selected items for the duration of the war. * * *

The purchase of the items referred to in the circular set forth in this section, is prohibited for the duration of the war except for essential war needs. No such item will be purchased without the prior approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. Requests for such approval will be forwarded through channels and must be accompanied by a complete statement of facts showing that the proposed purchase is for an essential war need.

RENEGOTIATION AND PRICE ADJUSTMENT

NOTE: The Revenue Act of 1943, enacted 25 February 1944, completely revises the statutory provisions governing renegotiation (see Revenue Act of 1943, Title VII). This enactment will require substantial changes in the related procurement regulations: §§ 81.342, 81.1201 to 81.1214, and 81.1290 to 81.1292, inclusive. Amended regulations will be issued at an early date.

In § 81.1243 paragraph (h) is amended as follows:

§ 81.1243 Use of articles. * * *

(h) Form I or Form II will be used only with the permission of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. Each request for such permission (1) will show that the principles set forth in the foregoing paragraphs of this § 81.1243 were applied by the contracting officer, (2) will be sufficiently full and detailed to enable the Director to determine whether the proposed use of the article conforms to these principles, and (3) will show specifically, the effect of the proposed use of the article on the prices and profits of the contractor under the contract.

[Procurement Reg. 13]

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

FORMS OF CONTRACTS

In § 81.1316 Article III–E of the contract form is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.1316 W. D. Contract Form No. 16. * * *

ART. III–E. Changes. 1. The Contracting Officer may at any time, by a written order, and without notice to the sureties, make any changes in this contract which may either increase or decrease the services hereunder. If such changes cause an increase or decrease in the services required under this contract, or in the time required for its performance, an equitable adjustment shall be made and the contract shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim for adjustment under this article must be asserted within 10 days from the date the change is ordered: Provided, however, That the Contracting Officer, if he determines that the facts justify such action, may receive and consider, and with the approval of the Secretary of War or his duly authorized representative, adjust any such claim asserted at any time prior to the date of final settlement of the contract. If the parties fail to agree upon the adjustment to be made, the dispute shall be determined as provided in Article III–D, but nothing provided in this article shall excuse the Architect-Engineer from proceeding with the prosecution of the work so changed.

[Procurement Reg. 16]

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

PRIORITIES

In § 81.1641 paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 81.1641 Other construction. * * *

(b) Construction other than that included in the above, may be assigned preference ratings only by the War Production Board. Applications for preference ratings should be submitted on Form WPB–617. If the application covers a project of less than $25,000 it may be rated by a War Production Board field office.

* * * * *

Section 81.1648 is amended, the headnote being changed, as follows:

§ 81.1648 MRO procurement by the Army. (a) Maintenance, repair, and operating supply items, referred to as MRO, including capital additions not exceeding $500 in value, may be assigned preference ratings by following a simplified procedure which is based on CMP Regulations 5 and 7. A preference rating may be assigned by placing on the purchase order or contract for maintenance, repair, and operating supply items, the preference rating, identification symbol, and certification statement, as follows:

AA–1–W–MRO. The use of the preference rating or symbol on this order by the undersigned as a procuring Claimant Agency is authorized under applicable CMP Regulations.

This method of rating purchases may not be used in connection with regularly programmed MRO items which are those included in the Army Supply Program and which are rated by the PD–3A procedure.

(b) The quantity limitations of paragraph f of CMP Regulation 5 are not applicable to purchases of MRO by the Army.

(c) Priorities Regulation No. 3 of the War Production Board includes a list of items to which preference ratings may not be assigned by use of the certification statement of CMP Regulation No. 5 shown above. If it is necessary to assign a rating to an item on List B of Priorities Regulation No. 3, a PD–3A certificate and an AA–1 rating as specified in the ANMB Priorities Directive may be used.

Section 81.1650 is rescinded.

§ 81.1650 MRO procurement of services. [Rescinded]

[Procurement Reg. 7]

PART 83—DISPOSITION OF SURPLUS AND UNSERVICEABLE PROPERTY

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

In § 83.706 the final clause is amended by deleting the words "through channels", so as to read as follows:

§ 83.706 Written contracts of sale, numbering and distribution thereof. * * * ; and (b) the original signed number of each unnumbered contract of sale will be forwarded to the General Accounting Office instead of being sent to the disbursing officer, as in the case of unnumbered contracts of purchase.

[Procurement Reg. 15]

PART 88—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

Section 88.15–310 is amended as follows:

§ 88.15–310 Amendments to insert provisions for negotiated settlement. (a) Whenever it is proposed or contemplated that a lump sum supply contract which contains a termination article be wholly or partially terminated, the contract will be scrutinized by the contracting officer to determine whether it contains the uniform termination article for use in lump sum supply contracts (§ 81.324) which provides for a negotiated settlement of the amount due with respect to the termination and certain other important provisions not in some earlier forms of the termination article (see § 88.15–901a and note to that section).

(b) Where the termination article does not conform to the uniform article set out in § 81.324 the contracting officer, prior to serving the notice of termination, will attempt to amend such contract to include the uniform article by supplemental agreement. The assent of all sureties and guarantors, if any, to each such supplemental agreement should be obtained. The consent of any assigned should also be obtained if possible. A form of appropriate supplemental agreement is set out in § 88.15–926. Such amendments are permitted at the times and under the conditions set forth in § 88.15–107. However, emphasis is placed upon the fact that such amendments wherever reasonably possible should be completed prior to the giving of a formal notice of termination.

(c) If such an amendment can be effected, termination will take place pursuant to the uniform termination article (§ 81.324).

(d) If no such amendment can be effected, settlement will be made pursuant to the termination article in fact in the contract.

(e) If at any stage of the settlement procedure, the contracting officer and the contractor reach an agreement as to a negotiated settlement of the amount payable on account of a contract which does not then contain a uniform termination article, an amendment may then be made to embody the uniform termination article in the contract by supplemental agreement. Thereafter and by separate supplemental agreement the settlement which has been reached may be concluded.

Section 88.15–322 is amended as follows:

§ 88.15–322 Commencement of negotiations; initial conference with the contractor at the time of the service of the termination notice.[1] (a) In the case of each termination of a substantial contract, at the time of service of the termination notice, or as promptly as possible thereafter, a conference should be held with the contractor to negotiate the general outlines to be followed in making settlement and to develop a definite program to be followed by all parties participating in the work of settlement. Negotiations should be carried out at this conference sufficiently completely so that the basic terms on which settlement is to be effected are at least tentatively determined and so that there is a clear understanding as to what information is to be furnished by the contractor, what methods are to be pursued in disposing of property, what the general principles of settlements are to be and what accounting or other investigation is to be undertaken.

[1] The furnishing of advice (in the ordinary routine of operations) on the procedures and methods to be employed by the contractor and subcontractors in connection with the termination and its settlement and in determining and presenting statements of termination charges is a part of the official duty of Government personnel performing functions in connection with termination settlements and is not regarded as in any way in conflict with Criminal Code, sec. 109; 18 U.S.C. 198.

(b) The importance of this initial conference is emphasized by the memorandum of the Under Secretary of War dated 10 February 1944 reprinted at § 88.15–422. Special attention is directed to paragraph 2 of that memorandum. This conference should be regarded as an important step in the negotiation of a settlement and every effort should be made at that time to dispose of as many questions as possible by agreement.

(c) It is important that all interested groups in the office of the contracting officer should be represented at the initial conference. This will normally include the principal representative of the contracting officer, hereinafter mentioned, and also appropriate negotiating, technical, engineering, legal and accounting personnel. At or before the initial conference some one person will be designated by the contracting officer as his principal representative in connection with the particular termination, but it should be made wholly clear to the contractor that such representative is not authorized to agree finally upon a supplemental agreement making settlement of the amount, if any, due by reason of the termination. The contracting officer's representative should be given authority, either general or limited,

(1) To approve dispositions of property,

(2) To approve settlements with subcontractors up to some stated amount,

(3) To pass upon the miscellaneous minor questions which inevitably arise in connection with a termination settlement,

(4) To negotiate a settlement subject to any required approval.

(d) It is good practice, although not always necessary, to have a statement of the scope of the authority of the contracting officer's principal representative reduced to writing. In appropriate cases, to avoid misunderstandings, a copy should be furnished to the contractor.

(e) At this conference, if no conference prior to termination has been held, the various matters mentioned in § 88.15–312 should be covered thoroughly. In addition the contracting officer's representative should be certain that the contractor understands fully his obligations as outlined in § 88.15–321.[1] Particular emphasis should be placed on the following matters:

(1) Termination of subcontracts and purchase orders.

(2) Settlement of claims of subcontractor and the methods of review thereof to be employed by the prime contractor.

(3) A program for the disposition of property acquired for the terminated contract:

(i) By the contractor.

(ii) By or for his subcontractors.

(4) The responsibilities to the War Manpower Commission and to employees mentioned in § 88.15–324.

(f) In some cases, the contracting officer may wish to examine the physical inventory at once and to check it against book inventory.

In § 88.15–350 paragraphs (a) and (d) are amended as follows:

§ 88.15–350 Sale of property.—(a) Contract provision. The uniform termination article for use in lump sum supply contracts (§§ 81.324; 88.15–901) provides in part as follows:

(b) After receipt of a Notice of Termination and except as otherwise directed by the contracting officer the contractor shall * * *: (6) transfer title and deliver to the Government in the manner, to the extent and at the times directed by the contracting officer (i) the fabricated or unfabricated parts, work in process, completed work, supplies and other material produced as a part of, or acquired in respect of the performance of, the work terminated in the Notice of Termination, and (ii) the plans, drawings, information and other property which, if the contract had been completed, would be required to be furnished to the Government; (7) use his best efforts to sell in the manner, to the extent, at the time, and at the price or prices directed or authorized by the contracting officer, any property of the types referred to in subdivision (6) of this paragraph, Provided, however, That the contractor (i) shall not be required to extend credit to any purchaser and (ii) may retain any such property at a price or prices approved by the contracting officer;

Attention is invited also to the last two sentences of paragraph (a) of the standard termination article formerly authorized for use in lump sum supply contracts which is reprinted for the convenience of Government personnel in § 88.15–901a.

* * * * * *

(d) Protection of rights of assignee. (1) If the amounts payable under the contract have been assigned by the contractor, the contracting officer should take appropriate steps in each case to see that the proceeds of any sale or retention of property are dealt with in a manner to protect the proper interests of the assignee. If the amounts of property to be sold are to be substantial, or if a series of sales is likely, normally the written consent of the assignee should be obtained to the method of disposition proposed.

(2) The assignee of a contract which contains, prior to the assignment, the uniform termination article (§ 81.324) or the standard article formerly authorized for use (see § 88.15–901a) takes his assignment subject to the provisions of such article (quoted or referred to in paragraph (a) of this section) but even in such cases the contracting officer should make reasonable efforts to protect the proper interests of the assignee.

(3) Where the Government has made advance payments or participated in guaranteed loans related to a contract in process of termination, the interest of the Government in the proceeds of property which is to be sold or retained by the contractor should be protected by proper coordination, in advance, with the officers or branch charged with the administration of the advance payment or loans.

Section 88.15–400 is amended as follows:

§ 88.15–400 Summary of action to be taken with respect to presentation of contractor's statements and proposals for settlement. The following principal steps will be taken to bring about the settlement and payment of amounts, if any, due to the contractor and his subcontractors and suppliers in connection with the termination settlement:

(a) An initial conference will be held with the contractor at or about the time that the termination notice is sent (see § 88.15–322). At this conference the general outlines to be followed in making the settlement will be negotiated and a definite program for its completion will be worked out in detail.

(b) The contractor will file (see § 88.15–402) a statement relating to the amount due to the contractor in connection with the termination. This will be prepared in accordance with instructions given at the initial conference and with applicable regulations and shall constitute a proposal for a negotiated settlement of the amount due in connection with the termination.

(c) The various subcontractors will file with the prime contractor similar proposals for settlement. In any instance where the settlement of the subcontract is likely to be complicated, the preparation of these proposals should usually be the subject of a conference between the prime contractor and the subcontractor.

(d) The contractor will review, through his own personnel, the statements presented by his subcontractors and negotiate settlements with them respectively, subject, however, to the approval of the contracting officer (see § 88.15–430). He will present the subcontractors' statements and proposals for settlement, either separately or as a group, to the contracting officer for approval in connection with his own settlement, with his recommendation and certificate (see § 88.15–440).

(e) The contracting officer will utilize the services of the Government accounting personnel in connection with the settlement to the extent that he deems desirable in the particular case. In this connection special attention is invited to the fourth paragraph of the memorandum of the Under Secretary of War dated 10 February 1944 set forth in § 88.15–422.

(f) Any report requested of Government accounting personnel (see §88.15–424), and the comments and recommendations therein contained, will be regarded as advisory only and will not bind or control the discretion of the contracting officer.

§ 88.15–401 Negotiated settlement compared with a formula settlement. The preparation of accounting data and proposal for settlement are designed to facilitate the negotiation of a settlement of the amount due in connection with the termination. Such a negotiated settlement is authorized by paragraph (c) of the new uniform termination article §§ 81.324 and 88.15–901 and of the old standard termination article formerly authorized for use in lump sum supply contracts (§ 88.15–901a). If such a settlement cannot be negotiated between the contracting officer and the contractor, then, under the termination article, settlement will be made in accordance with the formula contained in paragraph (d) of the applicable article. A negotiated settlement can be made more expeditiously than a formula settlement and results in more prompt payment of the amounts owing to contractors and subcontractors. The method of settlement by negotiation, therefore, is to be regarded as the primary and more satisfactory method of settlement. Settlement by formula will be a secondary method and will be resorted to only where a negotiated settlement proves to be impossible. If a settlement by negotiation is not made, the contractor's accounting statement will serve as a basis for determining what further investigation is necessary to permit of settlement by formula.

In § 88.15–421 a cross reference is added to paragraph (c), as follows:

§ 88.15–421 The Termination Accounting Manual. * * *

(c) Examination of subcontractors' claims. The Termination Accounting Manual (see T. A. M., par. 1114) is prescribed as a guide in making an accounting examination of claims of subcontractors when such examinations are to be made by Government accounting personnel (see § 88.15–437). It is also suitable for use by contractors in the examination by them of subcontractors' charges.

* * * * * *

Section 88.15–422 is amended as follows:

§ 88.15–422 Function of the contracting officer in reviewing statements and proposals of contractors. The contracting officer has the responsibility for passing upon the contractor's proposal and arriving at an agreement with the contractor. In carrying out these functions, the contracting officer must decide the extent to which he requires independent review and verification of the contractor's statement by personnel qualified to deal with accounting matters (see T. A. M. 1104). In this connection, the accounting personnel operate to assist the contracting officer in an advisory capacity when such technical assistance is requested by him. Contracting officers will pursue a policy of reducing auditing to a minimum consistent with protecting the interests of the Government. Whenever possible, reliance should be placed on intelligent reviews of contractors' data rather than on detailed audits. In those cases where audits do appear to be necessary, it is also expected that they will be carried out in accordance with the principles of selective auditing (see T. A. M. 1106).

Attention is invited to the following memorandum of the Under Secretary of War which indicates the nature of the responsibility of the contracting officer to expedite negotiations and the proper method of utilizing the services of accounting personnel:

MEMORANDUM FOR THE COMMANDING GENERAL, ARMY SERVICE FORCES, THE COMMANDING GENERAL, ARMY AIR FORCES

10 FEBRUARY 1944.

Subject: Approval of Contractors' Statements of Charges in Contract Termination Settlements.

1. Termination procedures established in the contracting offices of the Army Service Forces and the Army Air Forces have not produced expected results. The reluctance of Contracting Officers to execute courageously their responsibilities as outlined in Procurement Regulation 15 continues to delay unnecessarily contract termination settlements. This reluctance is evidenced by the number of settlements awaiting Contracting Officers approval as to disposition of contractor-owned property or as to contractors' statements of charges. My position regarding disposition of contractor-owned property was discussed in memoranda dated 30 June and 30 December, 1943. It is important that the principles stated in those memoranda be applied.

2. Statistics available indicate that contractors' statements of charges are often substantially in excess of amounts included in negotiated settlement agreements. This condition arises in most cases because contractors are not completely familiar with the proper method of presenting a statement of charges. It is a primary duty of Contracting Officers to instruct contractors in the general principles stated in Procurement Regulation 15 and the Termination Accounting Manual in order that they may be able to prepare statements of charges which can be included properly in the negotiated settlement agreements. At the time of the first conference with the contractor, the Contracting Officer should develop the general outlines on which settlement will be made. The problems of the particular case should be analyzed and wherever possible an agreement should be reached as to the general basis for the preparation of the contractor's statement. If properly done, this will reduce the amount of accounting review necessary and result in fewer differences between contractors' settlement proposals and the sum finally agreed upon.

3. It is the policy of the War Department, definitely stated in Procurement Regulation 15, that the contractor receive fair and reasonable compensation for the work performed and for the supplies and articles furnished under the terminated contract. In this respect the work of Contracting Officers will be evaluated not by the extent to which they succeed in reducing the settlements proposed by contractors, but by the extent to which prompt settlements, which are fair both to the contractor and to the Government, are made.

4. The delay in approving contractors' statements of charges results not only from improper preparation of statements but also from the unreasonable utilization of detailed auditing. Reluctance to make use of the office review procedure and an insistence on field audits have delayed settlements for extended periods. It is important that office reviews of the scope outlined in Procurement Regulation 15 be utilized to the fullest extent and that field audits be the exception rather than the rule. Contracting Officers should bear in mind that in submitting statements to the Government the contractor represents that the facts stated are true and he is subject to penalty for any false certificate. (See 18 U.S.C. 80). Both Procurement Regulation 15 and the Termination Accounting Manual place responsibility on the Contracting Officer for deciding the extent to which he requires verification of the contractor's statement. While the Contracting Officer should have adequate accounting information available in making his decisions, it is his responsibility to make prompt and final decisions after having obtained the reports prepared by accounting personnel.

5. It is suggested that Contracting Officers be instructed in accordance with the foregoing.

[S] ROBERT P. PATTERSON,
Under Secretary of War.

Section 88.15–487 is added:

§ 88.15–487 Bond premium computation. See § 81.408 (b) for bond premium computation on terminated contracts.

In § 88.15–501 (d) subparagraph (3) is added as follows:

§ 88.15–501 Partial payments to prime contractors. * * *

(d) Conditions which may be imposed in connection with partial payments. * * *

(3) To accomplish partial payments, an agreement supplemental to the prime contract in substantially the form set forth in § 88.15–922 will be entered into between Government and the prime contractor.

In § 88.15–651 paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) are amended as follows:

§ 88.15–651 Steps in the termination of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. * * *

(c) Settlement of fixed price (lump sum) subcontracts, purchase orders and obligations. (1) Numerous cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts now in effect contain a provision for termination for the convenience of the Government substantially in the form set forth in § 81.350 of this chapter. In terminating such contracts, effort will be made to obtain the full cooperation of the prime contractor in connection with the termination and settlement of his obligations and commitments. The contractor clearly remains liable upon his subcontracts and commitments. He is also plainly under obligation to obtain from his subcontractors, vendors and suppliers their statements of amounts due on account of the termination or cancellation of their subcontracts, purchase orders and other commitments and to lend all reasonable assistance in their settlement.

(2) Reimbursement will be made to a prime contractor (whose cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract is in process of termination) of any amount paid by the prime contractor to a subcontractor or other obligee under a fixed price (lump sum) subcontract, purchase order or obligation pursuant to a termination settlement agreement with the subcontractor.

(i) If the prime contractor negotiates such settlement in good faith with the subcontractor or other obligee for the purpose of agreeing upon an amount which the subcontractor or other obligee will accept in satisfaction of his claim;

(ii) If the amount thus agreed upon is embodied in a settlment agreement between the prime contractor and subcontractor or other obligee releasing the prime contractor and Government from any further liability; and

(iii) If the settlement in question is approved by the contracting officer as being a reasonable and proper settlement and in the best interest of the Government.

The foregoing principles are applicable regardless of whether or not the subcontract, purchase order or other obligation includes a termination article and, if it includes a termination article, regardless of whether such article includes a settlement formula or provides expressly that upon termination, settlement of the subcontract, purchase order or other obligation may be made by negotiation.

(3) In determining the fair amount of the adjustment to be made in the fixed fee of a contractor, whose cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract has been the subject of a notice of termination for the convenience of the Government pursuant to an article like that set out in § 81.350 of this chapter (see especially subparagraph 3 (e)) or in § 88.15–905 (see especially subparagraph (2) (d) of such article), the extent of the work and cooperation of the contractor in effecting settlement of the prime contract and of subcontracts may be given consideration. Ordinarily, assignments to the Government of subcontract rights will not be made by the contractor unless the contracting officer is of the opinion that some pecuniary or administrative advantage to the Government will result from such assignment and specifically directs that it be made.

(4) In some cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts[1] there has been included a termination article (hitherto principally used by the Ordnance Department) providing expressly that it is the duty of the prime contractor to settle the amount due to subcontractors, vendors and suppliers on account of termination. Under contracts containing an article of this type, subcontract settlements will be made by the prime contractor in accordance with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (2) above. It is expected that shortly an approved uniform termination article for use in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee supply contracts will be prescribed which in general will be of the type described in this subparagraph.

(5) It is the general policy of the War Department to encourage, to the greatest extent possible, the settlement by the prime contractor of all obligations arising out of the termination of subcontracts, purchase orders or other commitments as the result of the termination of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract, as such settlement tends to expedite payments to subcontractors.

(d) Settlement of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts, purchase orders and other obligations of the prime contractor. Ordinarily, it will be feasible to settle cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts, purchase orders and other commitments of a prime contractor under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee prime contract in accordance with the terms of the instrument containing such cost-plus-a-fixed-fee obligation. If this is done, audit and payment of the unreimbursed costs of such obligation will be made in a manner consistent with the applicable instructions set forth in the appropriate War Department Manual for Administrative Audits of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts.[2] However, in the interest of expeditious settlement of such claims, the prime contractor and the subcontractor may settle by negotiation in the manner set forth in paragraph (c) (2) of this section, all amounts due with respect to the subcontract, the amount of any adjustment of any fixed fee payable under the subcontract, and the costs and expenses incurred by the subcontractor in connection with the termination and settlement of such cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontract; and the amount of any such settlement, when approved by the contracting officer as made in good faith and with protection of the interests of the Government, shall be reimbursable to the prime contractor.

(e) Authorization of direct payment of subcontractors in certain cases. (1) The procedure set forth in this paragraph (e) is authorized in connection with the termination of any prime contract containing (i) a termination article in substantially the form set forth in §§ 81.350, 88.15–903 or 88.15–905 under which it is provided the Government "shall assume and become liable for" certain obligations of the contractor, or (ii) a provision (which may be inserted by amendment) permitting the direct payment by the Government of obligations of the prime contractor related to the prime contract and the release of the Government, by virtue of such direct payment, of all liability with respect to such obligations so paid.

(2) By any supplemental agreement between the prime contractor under a contract of the type mentioned in subparagraph (1) and a subcontractor, entered into pursuant to paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, fixing the amount owed by the prime contractor to the subcontractor, the parties thereto may agree (i) that payment of such amount when approved by the contracting officer, will be made by the Government directly to the subcontractor and (ii) that, upon the making of such direct payment the Government will thereby be discharged of all liability to the prime contractor and to the subcontractor with respect to the obligation settled by such supplemental agreement. Direct payment to the subcontractor of the amount agreed upon in such supplemental agreement may be made by the Government upon the approval of the supplemental agreement by the contracting officer.

(3) Such direct payments under prime contracts of the type referred to in subparagraph (1) will frequently expedite termination settlement of such prime contracts and will facilitate the prosecution of the war. Accordingly, the chief of each technical service may authorize the amendment of any such prime contract pursuant to the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001, either before or after the giving of a notice of termination of such prime contract, to provide for such direct payment.

[1] The nature of this article is such that it has not been regarded as appropriate for use in connection with cost-plus-a-fixed-fee construction contracts.

(4) In determining whether the procedure under this paragraph (e), permitting direct payments to subcontractors will be approved, the contracting officer should proceed only after adequate consideration of any possible legal problems in any case where the prime contractor or any intermediate subcontractor is believed to be in financial difficulties. This procedure should not be used in any case.

Section 88.15–901a is added as follows:

§ 88.15–901a Old standard article formerly used in lump sum supply contracts. The following article was prescribed for use in lump sum supply contracts from December 1942 until 20 February 1944.[1] It is no longer authorized for use but is here reprinted merely for the convenience of Government personnel because of its inclusion in so many outstanding contracts:

Article * * * Termination for the convenience of the Government. (a) The Government may, at any time, terminate this contract in whole or in part by a notice in writing from the Contracting Officer to the Contractor that the contract is terminated under this Article. Such termination shall be effective in the manner and upon the date specified in said notice and shall be without prejudice to any claims which the Government may have against the Contractor, or any claims which the Contractor may have against the Government. Upon receipt of such notice the Contractor shall, except as the Contracting Officer directs otherwise, (1) discontinue all work and the placing of all orders for materials and facilities in connection with performance of this contract, cancel all existing orders chargeable to this contract, and terminate all subcontracts chargeable to this contract; (2) transfer to the Government, by delivery f. o. b. _____ or by such other means as the Contracting Officer may direct, title to all completed supplies (including spare parts, drawings, information and other things) called for herein, not previously delivered, and partially completed supplies, work in process, materials, fabricated parts, plans, drawings, and information acquired or produced by the Contractor for the performance of this contract; and (3) take such action as may be necessary to secure to the Government the benefits of any rights remaining in the Contractor under orders or subcontracts wholly or partially chargeable to this contract to the extent that such orders or subcontracts are so chargeable. If and as the Contracting Officer so directs or authorizes, the Contractor shall sell at a price approved by the Contracting Officer, or retain at a price mutually agreeable, any such supplies, partially completed supplies, work in process, materials, fabricated parts or other things. The proceeds of such sale or the agreed price shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct so as to reduce the amount payable by the Government under this Article.

(b) The Government shall, upon such termination of this contract, pay to the Contractor the contract price of all supplies (including spare parts, drawings, information and other things) called for herein which have been completed in accordance with the provisions of this contract and to which title has been received by the Government under the provisions of Paragraph (a) (2) of this Article and for which payment has not previously been made.

(c) In addition to, and without duplication of, the payments provided for in paragraph (b), or of payments made prior to the termination of this contract, the Government shall pay to the Contractor such sum as the Contracting Officer and the Contractor may agree by Supplemental Agreement is reasonably necessary to compensate the Contractor for his costs, expenditures, liabilities, commitments, and work in respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract so far as terminated by the notice referred to in paragraph (a). The Contracting Officer shall include in such sum such allowance for anticipated profit with respect to such uncompleted portion of the contract as is reasonable under all the circumstances.

(d) If the Contracting Officer and the Contractor, within 90 days from the effective date of the notice of termination referred to in paragraph (a) or within such extended period as may be agreed upon between them, cannot agree upon the sum payable under the provisions of paragraph (c), the Government, without duplication of any payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) or prior to the termination of this contract, shall in the above events compensate the Contractor for the uncompleted portion of the contract as follows:

(1) By reimbursing the Contractor for all actual expenditures and costs certified by the Contracting Officer as having been made or incurred with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract;

(2) By reimbursing, or providing for the payment or reimbursement of, the Contractor for all expenditures made and costs incurred with the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer in settling or discharging that portion of the outstanding obligations or commitments of the Contractor which had been incurred or entered into with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract; and

(3) By paying the Contractor, as a profit on the uncompleted portion of the contract insofar as a profit is realized hereunder, a sum to be computed by the Contracting Officer in the following manner:

(A) The Contracting Officer shall estimate the profit which would have been realized on the uncompleted portion of the contract if the contract had been completed and labor and material costs prevailing at the date of termination had remained in effect.

(B) Estimate, from a consideration of all relevant factors, the percentage of completion of the uncompleted portion of the contract.

(C) Multiply the anticipated profit determined under (A) by the percentage determined under (B). The result is the amount to be paid to the Contractor as a proportionate share of profit, if any, as above provided.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, no compensation shall be paid under this Paragraph (d) by way of reimbursement for expenditure, including expenditures made in settling or discharging obligations or commitments, or by way of profit on account of supplies and other things which are undeliverable because of destruction or damage, whether or not because of the fault of the contractor.

(e) The Government shall pay to the Contractor such sum as the Contracting Officer and the Contractor may agree upon for expenditures made and costs incurred with the approval of the Contracting Officer (a) after the date of termination for the protection of Government property, and (b) for such other expenditures and costs as may be necessary in connection with the settlement of this contract, and in the absence of such agreement as to the amount of such expenditures and costs shall reimburse the Contractor for the same.

(f) The obligation of the Government to make any of the payments required by this Article shall be subject to any unsettled claim for labor or material and to any claim which the Government may have against the Contractor under or in connection with this contract, and payments under this Article shall be subject to reasonable deductions by the Contracting Officer on account of defects in the materials or workmanship of completed or partially completed supplies delivered hereunder.

(g) The sum of all amounts payable under this Article, plus the sum of all amounts previously paid under this contract, shall not exceed the total contract price, adjusted in the event that this contract contains an article providing for price adjustment, on the basis of the estimate of the Contracting Officer, to the extent which would have been required by such article if this contract had been completed and labor and materials costs prevailing at the date of termination had remained in effect.

(h) Should the above provisions of this Article not result in payment to the Contractor of at least $100, then that amount shall be paid to the Contractor in lieu of

[1] This contract article, as from time to time revised, originally appeared as Article 14 of Supply Contract Form No. 1 (approved Sept. 1941). From 1 July 1942 until 21 January 1944 it appeared at all times in paragraph 324 of Procurement Regulations. On 21 January 1944 it was supplanted by the uniform termination article prescribed by the Office of War Mobilization (§ 81.324). The contract article set forth above is in the form appearing after revisions made late in 1942. Such revisions were principally as follows:

(1) A provision explicitly permitting a negotiated settlement of the amount due with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract by reason of the termination was inserted (see par. (c) of the termination article).

(2) Sales of property, title to which the Government might require to be transferred to it upon the termination, were expressly permitted. This involved the addition of the last two sentences of paragraph (a) of the termination article as presently printed above.

(3) A negotiated settlement of the amount due (a) for protecting Government property after the date of the termination and (b) for other settlement expenses was expressly permitted by an amendment of paragraph (c) of the termination article.

(4) Partial payments on account of amounts due under the termination article were permitted by the addition of paragraph (i).

(5) Termination under the provisions of the termination article (rather than for default) was made mandatory in the case of certain terminations at the end of hostilities. This provision is found in paragraph (1) of the article.

At the same time similar changes were made in the standard termination article for lum sum construction contracts (§ 81.324 (b)).

any and all payments hereinbefore provided for in this Article.

(i) The Government shall promptly make partial payments to the Contractor.

(1) on account of the amounts due under paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this Article to the extent that, in the judgment of the Contracting Officer, such payments are clearly within the amounts due under such paragraphs, and

(2) of such amounts as the Contracting Officer may direct, on account of proposed settlements of outstanding obligations or commitments, to be made by the Contractor pursuant to paragraph (d) (2) of this Article, if such settlements shall have been approved by the Contracting Officer and subject to such provisions for escrow or direct payment to the persons entitled to receive such settlement payments as the Contracting Officer may require.

(j) Any disputes arising out of termination under this Article shall be decided in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Article 12 of this contract.

(k) Upon the making of the payments called for by this Article, all obligations of the Government to make further payments or to carry out other undertakings hereunder shall cease forthwith and forever, except that all rights and obligations of the respective parties under the Articles, if any, of this contract applicable to patent infringements and reproduction rights shall remain in full force and effect.

(l) The Government shall terminate this contract only in accordance with this Article, except as otherwise provided by law or by Article _____ (Delays-Damages). Notwithstanding Article _____ (Delays-Damages) and any defaults of the Contractor, the Government shall terminate this contract only in accordance with this Article if such termination is simultaneous with or part of or in connection with a general termination of war contracts at, about the time of, or following the cessation of the present hostilities or the end of the present war, unless the Contracting Officer finds that the defaults of the Contractor (1) have been gross or willful and (2) have caused substantial damage to the Government.

Section 88.15-922 is added as follows:

§ 88.15-922 Form of supplemental agreement for partial payments pending final determination of amount payable by Government in connection with termination.

(1) Supplemental agreement entered into this _____ day of _____, 194.., by the United States of America, hereinafter called "the Government," represented by the contracting officer executing this agreement, and _____, hereinafter called "the Contractor,"

Witnesseth that: Whereas, on _____ day of _____, 194.., the parties hereto entered into Contract No. ____, and

Whereas, notice of termination of said contract has been given pursuant to Article ____ thereof, and

Whereas, said Article provides that the Government shall make partial payments of the amounts to which the contractor shall be entitled thereunder, as may be determined by agreement or otherwise, whenever in the opinion of the contracting officer the aggregate of such payments shall be within the amount to which the contractor will be entitled by reason of such termination, and [1]

Whereas, the contractor hereby represents to the Government that at least the sum of $_____ is clearly due the contractor by reason of the termination of said contract and the Government desires to make a payment to the contractor pending the final determinator of the amount payable of such termination, and [1]

Whereas, this agreement is entered into pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001 and it has been determined that the execution of this agreement will facilitate the prosecution of the war:

ARTICLE I. Upon the execution of this supplemental agreement by the parties hereto, and upon the contractor's submission of a proper voucher therefor, the Government will pay to the contractor the sum of $_____

ART. II. Said sum shall be applied against the amount finally determined to be payable by the Government to the contractor in connection with such termination. If such payments exceed the amount finally determined to be payable to the contractor in connection with such termination, the contractor agrees to repay the excess to the Government on demand together with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of receipt of such excess payment by the contractor to the date of the repayment of such excess.

ART. III The payment provided for herein, together with any prior payments received by the contractor in connection with such termination, shall be without prejudice to the right to receive any additional amounts to which the contractor may be entitled as a result of such termination.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have executed this agreement as of the day and year first above written.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs

[T. D. 5102.]

PART 22—DRAWBACK

DRAWBACK ENTRY AND CERTIFICATE OF MANUFACTURE

MARCH 16, 1944.

Section 22.16 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943 (CFR 22.16 (a)), is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) A drawback entry and certificate of manufacture shall be filed in duplicate within 2 years after the date the articles are exported. Such entry and certificate shall be filed on customs Form 7575 except in cases covered by paragraph (c) or (e) of this section. One entry may cover several shipments. All documents necessary to the liquidation of the entry, including those issued by one customs officer to another, shall be filed or applied for, as the case may require, within the 2-year period prescribed above, except that any required landing certificate shall be filed within the time prescribed in § 22.21 (c). The Commissioner of Customs may specifically authorize an extension of the 2-year period for compliance with any of the foregoing requirements.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[T. D. 5349]

PART 101—TAXES ON ADMISSIONS, CABARETS, DUES, AND INITIATION FEES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In order to conform Regulations 43 (1941 edition) [Part 101, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Sup.], relating to taxes on admissions, dues, and initiation fees under Chapter 10 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, to sections 301 and 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), enacted February 25, 1944, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. The words following "Part 101" in the heading immediately preceding "Subpart A—Introductory", as amended by Treasury Decision 5192, approved December 3, 1942, are further amended to read as follows:

Regulations Relating to the Taxes on Admissions, Cabarets, Dues, and Initiation Fees (Chapter 10 of the Internal Revenue Code as Amended by the Revenue Acts of 1941 and 1942; and Chapter 9A of the Internal Revenue Code as Amended by the Revenue Act of 1943)

PAR. 2. The first sentence of the first paragraph of § 101.0, as amended by Treasury Decision 5192, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 101.0 Scope of regulations. These regulations deal with the excise taxes imposed on admissions, cabarets, dues, and initiation fees by Chapter 10 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 521, Part II, and sections 541, 542, 543, and 550, Part IV, of Title V, of the Revenue Act of 1941, and section 622, Title VI, of the Revenue Act of 1942, and as modified by Chapter 9A of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 302, Title III, of the Revenue Act of 1943.

PAR. 3. Immediately following the quotation of section 3797 under "Definitions" in "Subpart B—General Provisions" there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

* * * * * * *

SEC. 1655. DEFINITION.

For the purposes of this chapter the term "date of the termination of hostilities in the present war" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of such termination, or the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of such termination, whichever is the earlier.

PAR. 4. Immediately preceding § 101.1 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 301. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS TITLE. (Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944, Title III)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.)

* * * * * * *

(b) Effective date or period of Certain Increases. Notwithstanding section 301 of this Act:

(1) Cabaret tax. The increase made by subsection (a) of this section in the tax imposed by section 1700 (e) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable only with respect to the period beginning at 10:00 a. m. on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

* * * * * * *

PAR. 5. Section 101.1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5192, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 101.1 Effective period. The taxes on admissions, cabarets, dues, and initiation fees were effective under Title V of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended. The applicable provisions of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended, were superseded, effective March 1, 1939, by provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Revenue Act of 1940 made amendments of the Code, effective during a limited period only, with respect to the taxes covered by these regulations. These amendments were superseded by amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1941, effective October 1, 1941. The amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1941, and all subsequent amendments relative to these taxes, prior to the amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1943, apply indefinitely except as affected by the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1943.

The effective date of the amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1943, and of the amendments of these regulations pursuant to the Revenue Act of 1943, is April 1, 1944, and such amendments remain in effect until the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war. In the case of the cabaret tax, the amendments become effective at 10 a. m. on April 1, 1944.

PAR. 6. Immediately preceding § 101.2 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
1700 (a)	Admissions	1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof.	1 cent for each 5 cents or major fraction thereof.

* * * * * * *

PAR. 7. Section 101.4 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing "1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof" in the first sentence of the first paragraph to "1 cent for each 5 cents or major fraction thereof".

(B) By changing the fourth and fifth sentences of the fourth paragraph to read as follows:

Thus, if a combination ticket is issued entitling the holder to admission and to the use of a reserved seat for $1.50, the tax is 30 cents, and the same amount of tax would be due if separate tickets of admission and for a reserved seat were sold for 75 cents each. In the latter case the tax on the first admission charge of 75 cents is 15 cents and the tax on the additional charge of 75 cents for a reserved seat is 15 cents.

(C) By inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:

The following table sets forth the amounts of taxes applicable to certain admission charges:

Admission charges (inclusive)	Tax
$0.01 to $0.02	$0.00
$0.03 to $0.07	.01
$0.08 to $0.12	.02
$0.13 to $0.17	.03
$0.18 to $0.22	$0.04
$0.23 to $0.27	.05
$0.28 to $0.32	.06
$0.33 to $0.37	.07
$0.38 to $0.42	.08
$0.43 to $0.47	.09
$0.48 to $0.52	.10

The tax on all other admission charges is likewise to be computed at the rate of 1 cent for each 5 cents or major fraction thereof.

PAR. 8. Section 101.6 is stricken out.

PAR. 9. Immediately preceding § 101.7 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943. Title III.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
1700 (b)	Permanent use or lease of boxes or seats	11 per centum	20 per centum.

* * * * * * *

PAR. 10. Section 101.8 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing "11 per cent" wherever appearing therein to "20 per cent".

(B) By changing "1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof," in the fifth sentence of the first paragraph to "1 cent for each 5 cents or major fraction thereof,".

(C) By changing "$77" in the fourth sentence of example (1) to "$140", "$3.85" in the third sentence of example (2) to "$7", and "$660" in the fifth sentence of example (3) to "$1,200".

PAR. 11. Immediately preceding § 101.9 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
1700 (c)	Sales of tickets outside box office	11 per centum	20 per centum.

PAR. 12. Section 101.11 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing "11 per cent" in the second sentence of the first paragraph to "20 per cent".

(B) By changing the second, third and fourth sentences of the second paragraph to read as follows:

The remainder represents the excess charge, and the 20 per cent tax applies to that amount. Thus, by way of illustration, if a ticket broker sells for $4.50 a ticket or card of admission the regular or established price of which is $3.50, plus 70 cents tax, the excess charge is not $1, but 30 cents. This is determined in the following manner:

Established price	$3.50
Admission tax thereon	.70
Total	4.20
Sale price	4.50
Difference, representing taxable excess charge	.30
Tax due at 20 per cent	.06

(C) By changing the second sentence of example (1) to read as follows:

The taxes to be collected and paid by the theater and broker in this case are as follows:

Theater		Disposition
Receives from broker:		which it retains.
Established price	$3.50	which it must pay to collector	$0.70
Admission tax	.70
Total	4.20	Total	.70

Broker		Disposition
Receives from customer:		which he retains.
Established price	$3.50	which he retains as reimbursement of admission tax paid to theater.
Additional charge	.70
Excess charge	.80	on which he must pay as tax to collector	$0.16
Total	5.00	Total	.16

(D) By changing "1⅑ cents" in the third sentence of example (2) to "2 cents".

PAR. 13. Section 101.12, paragraph 3, "Example" is amended by changing "20 cents" to "40 cents", "5½ cents" to "10 cents", and "11 per cent" to "20 per cent".

PAR. 14. Immediately preceding § 101.13 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
1700 (c)	Cabarets, roof gardens, etc	5 per centum	30 per centum.

PAR. 15. The first paragraph of § 101.13, as amended by Treasury Decision 5192, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 101.13 Basis, rate, and computation of tax. The tax imposed by section 1700 (c), as amended, applies to all amounts paid for admission, refreshment, service, and merchandise, at any roof garden, cabaret, or other similar place furnishing a public performance for profit, by or for any patron or guest who is entitled to be present during any portion of such performance. The tax is at the rate of 30 per cent of the total amounts so paid.

PAR. 16. Section 101.14, as amended by Treasury Decision 5192, is further amended by changing "25 cents" in the third sentence of example (3) to "$1.50".

PAR. 17. Section 101.18, as amended by Treasury Decision 5170, approved September 25, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the period at the end of the first sentence of subparagraph (2) to a comma and adding thereafter the following:

but only one place of admission shall be named on a ticket and such ticket shall be used only for the purpose of admission at the place so named.

(B) By changing ".10" to "0.20" and "1.10" to "1.20" in the second sentence of the first paragraph of example (1), ".10" to "0.20" and "1.60" to "1.70" in the second sentence of the second paragraph of example (1), and ".10" to "0.20" and "2.10" to "2.20" in the second sentence of example (2).

PAR. 18. Section 101.21 is amended by changing the example to read as follows:

Example. The following is an example of such a sign:

	Admission	Tax	Total
Box Seats	$4.00	$0.80	$4.80
Orchestra	3.50	.70	4.20
Mezzanine	2.50	.50	3.00
Balcony	2.00	.40	2.40
Gallery	1.00	.20	1.20

In the case of free or reduced rate admissions which are subject to tax based on the established prices (see § 101.5) a sign similar to the following should be used:

Admission	Tax	Total	Free or reduced rate admissions valued at—	Tax to be collected
$4.00	$0.80	$4.80	$4.00	$0.80
3.50	.70	4.20	3.50	.70
2.50	.50	3.00	2.50	.50
2.00	.40	2.40	2.00	.40
1.00	.20	1.20	1.00	.20

PAR. 19. Immediately preceding § 101.22 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

[SEAL] JOSEPH D. NUNAN, JR.,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved March 17, 1944.

HERBERT E. GASTON,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

[F. R. Doc. 44-3843; Filed, March 18, 1944; 11:32 a. m.]

For the purposes of this chapter the term "date of the termination of hostilities in the present war" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of such termination, or the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of such termination, whichever is the earlier.

PAR. 3. Section 130.1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

(c) War period. The term "war period", when applied in respect of any tax, covered by these regulations, the rate of which is increased by section 1650 as amended by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, means the period beginning with the day on which the increased rate becomes effective and running to the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war as proclaimed by the President or as specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, whichever is earlier.

PAR. 4. Immediately preceding § 130.30 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
3465 (a) (1) (A) 3465 (a) (1) (B) (in so far as it relates to domestic telegraph, cable, and radio dispatches)	Telephone, long distance Domestic telegraph, cable, or radio dispatches	20 per centum 15 per centum	25 per centum. 25 per centum.

(b) Effective date or period of certain increases. [Reserved]

(3) Telegraph, telephone, radio, and cable facilities. The increases made by subsection (a) of this section in the taxes imposed by section 3465 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to amounts paid for services rendered on or after the effective date of this title.

PAR. 5. Section 130.30, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:

The increases in rates made by section 1650 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, are effective as of April 1, 1944, and apply to amounts paid on and after that date for services specified in section 3465 (a) (1) (A) and (B) which were rendered on and after that date. The increased rates will remain in effect during the war period.

PAR. 6. Section 130.33, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting at the end of the first paragraph of paragraph (a) the following:

For the war period the rate of tax is 25 per cent of the amount paid.

(B) By inserting at the end of the first paragraph of paragraph (b) the following:

For the war period the rate of tax on each domestic telegraph, cable, or radio dispatch or message is 25 per cent of the amount paid.

PAR. 7. Immediately preceding § 130.36 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

(3) Telegraph, telephone, radio, and cable facilities. • • • The increases made by subsection (a) in the taxes imposed by section 3465 (a) (2) • • • of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on or after the first day of the first month beginning after the effective date of this title for services for which no previous bill was rendered. Where bills rendered on or after such first day include charges for services previously rendered, such increased rates shall not apply to such services as were rendered more than two months before such first day, and the provisions of section 3465 in effect at the time such prior services were rendered shall be applicable to the amounts paid for such services.

PAR. 8. Section 130.36 as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:

The increases in rates made by section 1650 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, apply to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on or after May 1, 1944, for services furnished on or after March 1, 1944, for which no previous bill was rendered. The increased rates will remain in effect during the war period.

PAR. 9. Section 130.38, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting at the end of the first paragraph of paragraph (a) the following:

For the war period the rate of tax is 25 per cent of the amount paid.

(B) By inserting at the end of the first paragraph of paragraph (b) the following:

For the war period the rate of tax is 8 per cent of the amount paid.

PAR. 10. Immediately preceding § 130.39 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

(3) Telegraph, telephone, radio, and cable facilities. • • • The increases made by subsection (a) in the taxes imposed by section 3465 (a) • • • (3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on or after the first day of the first month beginning after the effective date of this title for services for which no previous bill was rendered. Where bills rendered on or after such first day include charges for services previously rendered, such increased rates shall not apply to such services as were rendered more than two months before such first day, and the provisions of section 3465 in effect at the time such prior services were rendered shall be applicable to the amounts paid for such services.

PAR. 11. Section 130.39, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:

The increase in the rate made by section 1650 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, applies to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on and after May 1, 1944, for services furnished on or after March 1, 1944, for which no previous bill was rendered. The increased rate will remain in effect during the war period.

PAR. 12. The first paragraph of § 130.41, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 130.41 Rate and application of tax. The tax is imposed at the rate of 10 per cent of the amount paid by any subscriber for local telephone service or any other telephone service which is not subject to the provisions of section 3465 (a) (1) or (2) of the Code, as amended. (See §§ 130.30 to 130.38.) In the case of service taxable under section 3465 (a) (3) prior to amendment by section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1942, the tax was at the rate of 6 per cent of the amount paid. For the war period the rate of tax is 15 per cent of the amount paid.

PAR. 13. Immediately preceding § 130.44 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944, Title III.)

(a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

• • • • • •

(7) Section 3466 (a) (relating to exemption from tax on telegraph, telephone, radio, and cable facilities) is amended to read as follows:

(a) No tax shall be imposed under section 3465 upon any payment received for services or facilities furnished to any State, Territory of the United States, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any corporation created by Act of Congress to act in matters of relief under the treaty of Geneva of August 22, 1864.

• • • • • •

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. • • • the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

• • • • • •

(4) The amendment of section 3466 of the Internal Revenue Code, insofar as it relates to the taxes imposed by section 3465 (a) (1), shall be applicable only with respect to messages and dispatches originating on or after the first day of the first month which begins three months or more after the date of the enactment of this Act. Insofar as such amendment relates to the taxes imposed under section 3465 (a) (2) and (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be applicable only to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on or after the first day of the first month which begins three months or more after the date of the enactment of this Act for service for which no previous bill was rendered.

• • • • • •

PAR. 14. Section 130.44 is amended as follows:

(A) By substituting the following new paragraphs for the first paragraph thereof:

§ 130.44 Services furnished to the United States, States, or political subdivisions thereof. Under the provisions of section 3466 (a), as amended, prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (7) of the Revenue Act of 1943, amounts paid for services or facilities furnished to officers or employees of the United States or any State or Territory or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia are exempt from tax under section 3465, as amended, if such amounts are paid from government funds.

By virtue of the amendment made by section 307 (a) (7) of the Revenue Act of 1943 to section 3466 (a), as amended, and the application of section 307 (b) (4) of the Revenue Act of 1943 to such amendment, amounts paid by the United States for messages, etc., within the scope of section 3465 (a) (1) originating on or after June 1, 1944, are subject to the taxes thereby imposed. Amounts paid by the United States pursuant to bills rendered on or after June 1, 1944, for services specified in section 3465 (a) (2) and (3) for which no previous bill was rendered are subject to the taxes thereby imposed.

The taxes imposed by section 3465, as amended, do not apply to amounts paid for services or facilities furnished to any corporation created by Act of Congress to act in matters of relief under the treaty of Geneva of August 22, 1864 (The American National Red Cross), irrespective of when such amounts are paid or the services or facilities are furnished.

(B) By changing the first sentence of the second paragraph to read as follows:

No exemption certificate is required where the payment for the services or facilities furnished is made by an agency of the government of a State, a Territory of the United States, or political subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, or The American National Red Cross, direct to the person furnishing the services or facilities.

(C) By striking out the word "Federal" wherever appearing in the exemption certificate.

PAR. 15. Immediately preceding § 130.50 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

• • •	• • •	• • •	•

SEC. 301. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS TITLE. (Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944, Title III.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 16. Section 130.50, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

The tax rate was further increased by the amendment of section 1650 of the Internal Revenue Code by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943. Under this amendment the increased tax rate is effective April 1, 1944, and will remain in effect during the war period.

PAR. 17. The first paragraph of § 130.52, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
• • •	• • •	• • •	•
3469 (e)	Seats, berths, etc.	10 per centum	15 per centum.

SEC. 301. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS TITLE. (Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944, Title III.)

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 19. Section 130.55, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

The tax rate was further increased by the amendment of section 1650 of the Internal Revenue Code by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943. Under this amendment the increased tax rate is effective April 1, 1944, and will remain in effect during the war period.

PAR. 20. The first paragraph of § 130.57, as amended by Treasury Decision 5190, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

For the war period the rate of tax is 15 per cent of the amount of the taxable payment for the seating or sleeping accommodations.

PAR. 21. Immediately preceding § 130.61 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944, Title III.)

(a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

• • • • • •

(8) Section 3469 (f) (1) (relating to governmental exemption from tax with respect to transportation of persons) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Governmental exemption. The tax imposed by this section shall not apply to the payment for transportation or facilities furnished to any State, Territory of the United States, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any corporation created by Act of Congress to act in matters of relief under the treaty of Geneva of August 22, 1864.

• • • • • •

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. • • • the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

• • • • • •

(5) The amendments of sections 3469 (f) (1) • • • of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable only with respect to amounts paid on or after the first day of the first month which begins three months or more after the date of the enactment of this Act • • •.

• • • • • •

PAR. 22. Section 130.61 is amended as follows:

(A) By substituting the following new paragraphs for the first paragraph thereof:

§ 130.61 Transportation and facilities furnished to the United States, to States, or political subdivisions thereof. Under the provisions of section 3469 (f) (1) prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (8) of the Revenue Act of 1943, amounts paid by the United States, a State or Territory, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for the transportation of persons or accommodations furnished in connection therewith, are exempt from tax under section 3469, as amended.

By virtue of the amendment made by section 307 (a) (8) of the Revenue Act of 1943, to section 3469 (f) (1), and the application of section 307 (b) (5) to such amendment, amounts paid by the United States on or after June 1, 1944, for the transportation of persons or accommodations furnished in connection therewith are subject to tax under section 3469, as amended.

The taxes imposed by section 3469, as amended, do not apply to amounts paid for transportation or facilities furnished to any corporation created by Act of Congress to act in matters of relief under the treaty of Geneva of August 22, 1864 (The American National Red Cross), irrespective of when such amounts are paid or the transportation or facilities are furnished.

(B) By changing "a Government agency" and "the Government agency" in the second paragraph to "an exempt agency".

PAR. 23. Section 130.62 is amended by changing "a Government agency" in the third and fourth sentences to "an exempt agency".

PAR. 24. Section 130.72 is amended by striking out the third paragraph of paragraph (c).

(Secs. 301, 302 and 307 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.) and 3472 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 423 and 467; 26 U.S.C., 3472 and 3791))

PART 316—EXCISE TAXES ON SALES BY THE MANUFACTURER

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In order to conform Regulations 46 [Part 316, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Supp.], relating to the excise taxes on sales by the manufacturer under the Internal Revenue Code, to sections 301, 302, 304, 306, 307, and 311 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Cong.), enacted February 25, 1944; such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding § 316.2, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 301. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS TITLE. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944).

This title shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than 10 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 2. Section 316.2 as amended by Treasury Decision 5189, approved November 30, 1942, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraph:

The provision of section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, relating to the increase in the rate of tax on electric light bulbs and tubes; the provision of section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, affecting section 3441 (c) which relates to leases, conditional sales, existing contracts, etc.; the amendment by section 304 of the Revenue Act of 1943 of section 3406 (a) (2) suspending the manufacturers' excise tax on luggage; the amendment by section 306 of the Revenue Act of 1943 of section 3400 defining the term "rubber"; and the amendment by section 311 of the Revenue Act of 1943 of section 3406 (a) (3) repealing the tax on household type electric vacuum cleaners, become effective in each case on April 1, 1944. The amendments made by section 307 of the Revenue Act of 1943 relating to the termination of the tax exemption with respect to articles sold for the exclusive use of the United States, become effective as to certain articles on June 1, 1944, and as to other articles on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war.

PAR. 3. Immediately preceding § 316.3, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

* * * * * *

SEC. 1652. LEASES, CONDITIONAL SALES, EXISTING CONTRACTS, ETC.

* * * * * *

(c) Existing contracts—(1) Tax payable by vendee. If (A) any person has, prior to the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943, made a bona fide contract for the sale on or after such date, of any article with respect to the sale of which a tax is imposed by that Act or an existing rate of tax is increased by that Act, and (B) such contract does not permit the adding to the amount to be paid under such contract of the whole of such tax or increased rate of tax, then (unless the contract prohibits such addition) the vendee shall, in lieu of the vendor, pay so much of the tax as is not so permitted to be added to the contract price.

(2) Tax paid to vendor. Taxes payable by the vendee shall be paid to the vendor at the time the sale is consummated, and shall be collected and paid to the United States by the vendor in the same manner as provided in section 3467. In case of failure or refusal by the vendee to pay such taxes to the vendor, the vendor shall report the facts to the Commissioner who shall cause collection of such taxes to be made from the vendee.

* * * * * *

PAR. 4. Section 316.3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5099, approved November 28, 1941, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraph:

Under section 1652 (c), added by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, the increase in the existing rate of tax with respect to electric light bulbs and tubes, may, under certain conditions be shifted from the manufacturer to the vendee. The conditions outlined above with respect to the increase in rates which became effective October 1, 1941, are applicable to the increased rate of tax on electric light bulbs and tubes effective April 1, 1944.

PAR. 5. Immediately preceding § 316.8, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 303. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

* * * * * *

SEC. 1652. LEASES, CONDITIONAL SALES, EXISTING CONTRACTS, ETC.

(a) Cases where rate of tax increased. In the application of section * * * 3441 (c) to the articles with respect to which the rate of tax is increased by this chapter, where the lease, contract of sale, conditional sale, or chattel mortgage was made, delivery thereunder was made, and a part of the consideration was paid, before the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943, the total tax referred to in such section shall be the tax at the rate in force on the day before such effective date.

(b) Cases where new tax imposed. In the case of (1) a lease, (2) a contract for the sale of an article wherein it is provided that the price shall be paid by installments and title to the article sold does not pass until a future date notwithstanding partial payment by installments, (3) a conditional sale, or (4) a chattel mortgage arrangement wherein it is provided that the sales price shall be paid in installments, no tax shall be imposed under section 1651 on the sale of any article if with respect to such article the lease, contract for sale, conditional sale, or chattel mortgage arrangement was made, delivery thereunder was made, and a part of the consideration was paid, before the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943.

* * * * * *

PAR. 6. Section 316.9, as amended by Treasury Decision 5189, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraph:

In the case of electric light bulbs and tubes with respect to which the rate of tax is increased by the Revenue Act of 1943, if the lease, contract of sale, conditional sale, or chattel mortgage was made, delivery thereunder was made, and a part of the consideration was paid, before April 1, 1944, the total tax is payable at the rate in force on March 31, 1944.

PAR. 7. Immediately preceding § 316.24, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.)

(a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * * *

(5) Section 3442 (3) (relating to tax-free sales under Chapter 29) is amended to read as follows:

(3) for the exclusive use of any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia.

* * * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. * * * the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

(1) The amendments of sections * * *, and 3442 (3) (except as such section relates to the articles enumerated in section 3404) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to sales made on or after the first day of the first month which begins three months or more after the date of the enactment of this Act. Such amendments shall not apply to deny an exemption otherwise applicable with respect to any article sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of the amendments, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

(2) The amendments of sections * * *, and 3442 (3) (in so far as such section relates to the articles enumerated in section 3404) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be applicable to sales made on or after the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war. Such amendments shall not apply to deny an exemption otherwise applicable with respect to any article sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of the amendments, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

(6) For the purposes of this subsection the term "date of the termination of hostilities in the present war" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of such termination, or the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of such termination, whichever is the earlier.

* * * * * *

PAR. 8. Section 316.24 is amended as follows:

(A) The first paragraph is eliminated and the following new paragraphs substituted in lieu thereof:

Under the provisions of section 3442 (3) prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1943, no tax attaches to articles sold by the manufacturer direct to the United States, any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia, for its exclusive use, provided the exempt character of the sale is established as required by these regulations.

By virtue of the provisions of section 307 (a) (5) and (b) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1943 as they affect section 3442 (3), all taxable articles (except firearms, shells, and cartridges, with respect to which see § 316.81 and except articles subject to the tax imposed under section 3404), sold on or after June 1, 1944, by the manufacturer to the United States for its exclusive use are subject to tax except articles sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to June 1, 1944, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

By virtue of the provisions of section 307 (a) (5) and (b) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1943 as they affect section 3442 (3), the exemption with respect to sales of articles subject to the tax imposed under section 3404, to the United States for its exclusive use, is inapplicable on and after the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war.

(B) The last sentence of the second paragraph is amended to read as follows:

However, where any dealer resells a tax-paid article to any of the governmental units named above, for its exclusive use, the manufacturer who paid the tax to the United States on his sale of the article may in certain cases secure a refund or credit as provided in § 316.204.

PAR. 9. Immediately preceding § 316.30, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 306. TECHNICAL AMENDMENT OF MANUFACTURERS' EXCISE TAX ON TIRES AND INNER TUBES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

Section 3400 (relating to the tax on tires and inner tubes) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

(c) Definition. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "rubber" includes synthetic and substitute rubber.

PAR. 10. The first paragraph of § 316.30 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:

The term "rubber" includes synthetic and substitute rubber.

PAR. 11. Immediately preceding § 316.60, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.)

(a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * * *

(3) The second sentence of the first paragraph of section 3407 (relating to exemption from tax on firearms, shells, and cartridges) is amended to read as follows: "The tax imposed by this section shall not apply (1) to articles sold for the use of any State, Territory of the United States, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or (2) to pistols and revolvers."

* * * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. * * * the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

* * * * * *

(2) The amendments of sections * * * 3407, * * * of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be applicable to sales made on or after the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war. Such amendments shall not apply to deny an exemption otherwise applicable with respect to any article sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of the amendments, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

* * * * * *

(6) For the purposes of this subsection the term "date of the termination of hostilities in the present war" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of such termination, or the date specified in a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress as the date of such termination, whichever is the earlier.

* * * * * *

PAR. 12. The first paragraph of § 316.81 is eliminated and the following new paragraphs substituted in lieu thereof:

Under the provisions of section 3407, prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (3) of the Revenue Act of 1943, no tax attaches to firearms, shells, and cartridges sold by the manufacturer for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; Provided, That exempt character of the sale is established as required by these regulations.

By virtue of the amendment made by section 307 (a) (3) of the Revenue Act of 1943 of section 3407, and the application of section 307 (b) (2) to such amendment, the exemption with respect to sales of firearms, shells, and cartridges by the manufacturer for the use of the United States, or possession of the United States is inapplicable on and after the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war, unless the sale is made pursuant to a contract entered into prior to such date, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

To be exempt from the tax the articles must be sold for the use of a Government or governmental agency. Firearms, shells, and cartridges sold to officers of a State or municipality in their private capacity or for their private use are not exempt from the tax.

PAR. 13. Immediately preceding § 316.100, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 304. SUSPENSION OF MANUFACTURERS' EXCISE TAX ON LUGGAGE. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

Section 3406 (a) (2) (relating to the tax on luggage) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following: "The tax imposed by this paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to any period for which a tax is imposed under section 1651."

PAR. 14. Immediately following § 316.102, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, there is inserted the following new section:

§ 316.103 Suspension of tax. Effective April 1, 1944, and for the period during which the retailers' excise tax imposed on luggage, etc., by section 1651 as added by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943 is in effect, no tax is imposed on the sale of such luggage, etc., by the manufacturer.

PAR. 15. Immediately preceeding § 316.110, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 311. REPEAL OF MANUFACTURERS' EXCISE TAX ON VACUUM CLEANERS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

Section 3406 (a) (3) (relating to the tax with respect to electric, gas, and oil appliances) is amended (a) by inserting "and" before "electric mixers, whippers, and juicers" and (b) by striking out "and household type electric vacuum cleaners".

PAR. 16. Section 316.110, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended by adding a new paragraph at the end thereof, as follows:

The tax does not apply to household type electric vacuum cleaners sold on and after April 1, 1944.

PAR. 17. Immediately preceding § 316.180, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

SEC. 1650. WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES.

In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 and ending on the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of Tax	Old Rate	War Tax Rate
3406(a) (10)	Electric Light Bulbs and Tubes	5 per centum	20 per centum.

PAR. 18. Section 316.181, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended by adding thereto a sentence as follows:

For the period beginning with April 1, 1944, and continuing until the first day of the first month which begins six months or more after the date of the termination of hostilities in the present war the rate is 20 per cent of the sale price.

PAR. 19. Immediately preceding § 316.193, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.)

(a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * *

(4) The first sentence of section 3411 (c) (relating to exemption from tax on electrical energy) is amended to read as follows: "No tax shall be imposed under this section upon electrical energy sold to any State, Territory of the United States, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia."

* * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. * * * the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

(1) The amendments of sections * * * 3411 (c) * * * of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to sales made on or after the first day of the first month which begins three months or more after the date of the enactment of this Act. Such amendments shall not apply to deny an exemption otherwise applicable with respect to any article sold pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of the amendments, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

* * * * *

PAR. 20. The first paragraph of § 316.193, as added by Treasury Decision 5099, is amended to read as follows:

Under the provision of section 3411 (c) prior to the amendment thereof by section 307 (a) (4) of the Revenue Act of 1943, no tax attaches to electrical energy sold direct to the United States, any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia, for its exclusive use, provided the exempt character of the sale is established as required by these regulations. By virtue of the provisions of section 307 (a) (4) and (b) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1943, sales of electrical energy to the United States on or after June 1, 1944, are not exempt from tax, unless the sale is made pursuant to a contract entered into prior to such date, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

PAR. 21. Immediately preceding § 316.204 (as renumbered by Treasury Decision 5099), there is inserted the following:

SEC. 307. TERMINATION OF CERTAIN GOVERNMENTAL EXCISE TAX EXEMPTIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III.)

(a) The several sections of the Internal Revenue Code hereinafter enumerated are amended as follows:

* * * * *

(6) Section 3443 (a) (3) (A) (i) (relating to credits and refunds of excise taxes imposed by Chapter 29) is amended to read as follows:

(i) resold for the exclusive use of any State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or the District of Columbia;

* * * * *

(b) Period with respect to which applicable. * * * the amendments made by this section shall apply as follows:

* * * * *

(3) The amendment of section 3443 (a) (3) (A) (i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to deny the allowance of a credit or refund, otherwise allowable, with respect to the sale of any article by any person to the United States (A) prior to the date on which sales of such articles to the United States become taxable, or (B) pursuant to a contract entered into prior to such date, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

* * * * *

PAR. 22. Section 316.204 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraph:

No credit or refund is allowable for tax paid with respect to the sale of any article on or after June 1, 1944, to the United States, except in those cases where tax has been paid on sales made pursuant to a contract entered into prior to June 1, 1944, or to any agreement or change order supplemental to such contract bearing the same Government contract number.

(Secs. 301, 302, 304, 308, 307, and 311 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.) and secs. 3450 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 418, 467; 26 U.S.C., 3450, 3791))

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter III—Bureau of Mines

PART 301—CONTROL OF EXPLOSIVES AND THEIR INGREDIENTS IN TIME OF WAR OR NATIONAL EMERGENCY

STORAGE OF EXPLOSIVES

Pursuant to the authority conferred by section 18 of the act of December 26, 1941 (55 Stat. 863), as amended, the regulations under the Federal Explosives Act heretofore promulgated [1] are hereby amended as follows:

The last two sentences of § 301.14 (c) and all of § 301.17, being superseded by the following sections numbered 301.24 to 301.30, inclusive, are hereby revoked, without affecting any liabilities incurred or proceedings instituted for violation of the superseded regulations committed prior to the effective date of these amendments.

Sections 301.24 to 301.30, inclusive, are hereby added to the regulations as follows:

Sec.
301.24 General requirements for storage and handling.
301.25 Storage of high explosives.
301.26 Storage of low explosives.
301.27 Storage of detonators.
301.28 Storage of fuse.
301.29 Storage of explosives ingredients.
301.30 Modification of storage and handling requirements.

§ 301.24 General requirements for storage and handling—(a) Applicability of regulations. Sections 301.24 to 301.30, inclusive, are applicable only to those explosives specifically enumerated in § 301.2 (b), beginning with "Amatol" and ending with "Trinitroxylene", and to those ingredients of explosives specifically enumerated in § 301.2 (c) beginning with "Chlorates" and ending with "Phosphorus."

For convenience in setting forth applicable storage requirements in §§ 301.25–301.29, the explosives enumerated in § 301.2 (b) are here classified into (1) high explosives, including dynamites, permissible explosives and nitroglycerin, (2) low explosives, including blasting powder (black and pellet powder) and gunpowder, (3) detonators, including blasting, detonating and percussion caps and electric blasting caps, and (4) fuse of all varieties. Standards are also prescribed for the storage of explosives ingredients and blasting device heaters containing explosives ingredients.

(b) Protection required. All explosives and ingredients of explosives must at all times be safely stored and handled and adequately protected against theft. The standards set forth in §§ 301.24–301.29, inclusive, are minimum requirements only. Compliance with these standards does not relieve persons storing or handling explosives or ingredients of explosives, whether on the surface or underground, from the duty to take such additional measures as a reasonable man, acting with ordinary prudence, would take in the same or similar circumstances to safeguard and protect such explosives or ingredients, or from the duty to comply with other Federal, State or local laws or regulations.

(c) Storage. All explosives and ingredients of explosives must be kept in appropriate storage facilities unless:

(1) They are in the process of manufacture; or

(2) They are being physically transferred from one person to another or are being otherwise physically handled on the operating premises of a licensee; or

(3) They are being transported; or

(4) They are in an amount not in excess of a daily supply and are being used in the operations of a licensee.

Whether storage facilities are appropriate depends upon such factors as the type and amount of the explosives or ingredients stored and the location of the storage facilities.

All storage magazines must be properly constructed, safely located and securely locked. Magazines shall be kept locked at all times except when explosives or ingredients are being deposited, removed or inspected by an authorized person. Except when weather conditions prohibit, magazines in which explosives are stored shall be opened and inspected at intervals not greater than three days to determine if the explosives are intact or whether there is evidence of improper or unauthorized entry or attempted entry into the magazine, or removal of the magazine or its contents.

(d) Handling, use and transportation—(1) General requirements. Whenever explosives or ingredients of explosives are in the process of manufacture, or whenever explosives or ingredients of explosives in use in the operations of a licensee, not in excess of a daily supply, are not stored in accordance with the requirements for storage in these regulations, or whenever explosives or ingredients of explosives are being physically transferred from one person to another or are being otherwise physically handled on the operating premises of a licensee, they must be continuously and effectively guarded to protect them against theft. Any person guarding explosives or ingredients of explosives shall be a licensee or an employee of a licensee to whom the explosives or ingredients have been distributed by a licensed foreman. This paragraph is applicable to the transportation of explosives and ingredients of explosives by vehicle on private premises or along private roads and to underground transportation, but is not applicable to transportation of explosives or ingredients within the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(2) Provision for emergency storage. Every person who holds a manufacturer's, vendor's or purchaser's license and who engages in an occupation in which explosives are regularly handled or used (even though the licensee does not contemplate that the amount of explosives in his possession on any one day will exceed his requirements for that day) shall, in order to guard against emergencies requiring the immediate or overnight storage of explosives, provide or have readily available at or near the place where such operations are carried on, a magazine complying with the standards set forth in these regulations.

(e) Access to magazines—(1) General requirements. Except as hereinafter provided:

(i) No person, as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise, shall enter a permanent magazine or open a box-type magazine in which explosives are stored unless such person is individually licensed under the act or is accompanied by a person so licensed;

(ii) No licensee shall permit any person, whether as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise, to enter a permanent magazine or open a box-type magazine in which the licensee's explosives are stored unless such person is individually licensed under the act or is accompanied by a person so licensed;

(iii) No person, as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise, shall have in his possession a key or a copy of the combination to a lock on a magazine in which explosives are stored unless such person is individually licensed under the act;

(iv) No licensee shall permit any person, whether as employee, agent, independent contractor or otherwise, to have a key or knowledge of the combination to a lock on a magazine in which explosives are stored unless such person is individually licensed under the act.

(2) Exceptions. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply:

(i) To containers which hold only the daily supply of explosives issued by a properly licensed person,

(ii) To magazines located at explosives manufacturing plants where the premises on which the magazines are located are fenced or otherwise effectively guarded, or

(iii) To Explosives Investigators and other designated officers of the Bureau of Mines or Federal, State or local law enforcement officers or investigators, who are authorized to inspect places where explosives or explosives ingredients are stored.

§ 301.25 Storage of high explosives—(a) High explosives in amounts exceeding 125 pounds. All high explosives in amounts exceeding 125 pounds shall be stored in permanent magazines which are theft-resistant, fire-resistant and bullet-resistant.

(1) Construction of permanent magazines. Permanent magazines shall be of a building type, an igloo or army type, a portable type, or a tunnel or dugout type, whether located on or exposed to the surface or underground. Walls of building-type magazines shall be substantially constructed of theft- and bullet-resistant materials. Walls shall meet the following standards or be constructed of other materials in a manner which will make them at least equally theft- and bullet-resistant:

(i) Solid construction, not less than 6 inches in thickness of materials such as concrete, masonry, medium soft brick or wood; or

(ii) Filled construction, such as concrete blocks with the cells filled with screened sand, weak concrete, cement mortar or other effective bullet-resistant filler; or exterior and interior wooden walls not less than 6 inches apart with the space between filled with screened sand, weak concrete, cement mortar or other effective bullet-resistant filler, and the exterior walls covered with sheet iron not lighter than No. 26 gauge, or other fire-resistant material; or

(iii) Lined construction, such as steel plate not lighter than No. 14 gauge, lined with weak concrete, cement mortar, brick, or screened sand not less than 6 inches in thickness, or with hard wood not less than 2 inches in thickness, or with soft wood not less than 3 inches in thickness.

The same standards shall govern the construction of any artificial enclosing wall for tunnel- or dugout-type magazines on or exposed to the surface of the ground. Any artificial enclosing wall for permanent underground magazines shall be substantially constructed of wood not less than 2 inches in thickness or of other material of equivalent or greater strength.

Foundations of building-type magazines shall be substantially constructed, and any space between the floor and the ground shall be enclosed in such a manner as to prevent the entrance of persons, animals, sparks and firebrands.

Roofs of building-type magazines shall be fire-resistant and substantially constructed to resist theft, as for example, by ¾-inch sheathing covered with sheet iron or slate. Roofs not constructed of fireproof material shall be covered with sheet iron not lighter than No. 26 gauge or other fire-resistant material. The roofs of magazines so located that it is possible to fire bullets directly through the roof into the explosives shall be made bullet-resistant by material of construction, or by a ceiling that forms a tray containing not less than a 4-inch thickness of sand or other equally effective bullet-resistant filler erected in the interior of the magazine, or by other methods.

Doors of magazines on or exposed to the surface of the ground shall be constructed of ⅜-inch steel plate lined with a 2-inch thickness of wood; or of a thinner steel plate with a greater thickness of wood, at the rate of one additional inch of wood for each ⅛-inch decrease in the thickness of the steel plate; or of wooden walls at least 4 inches apart and filled with screened sand or other effective bullet-resistant filler, the exterior being covered with sheet iron not lighter than No. 26 gauge, or other fire-resistant material; or of wood not less than 6 inches in thickness; or of reinforced concrete not less than 4 inches in thickness. Doors of magazines located underground shall be substantially constructed of wood not less than 2 inches in thickness or of other material of equivalent or greater strength.

Doors of all permanent magazines shall be equipped with two mortise locks; or with two padlocks fastened in separate hasps and staples; or with a combination of a mortise lock and a padlock; or with a mortise lock that requires two keys to open; or with a 3-point lock. Padlocks and mortise locks shall be the equivalent of 5-tumbler jarproof locks. Doors shall be provided with strong hinges, hasps and staples attached by welds, rivets, or by bolts fitted with lockwashers and nuts on the inside of the magazine and installed in such a manner that the fastening cannot be removed when the magazine is locked.

Magazines shall have no openings except for entrance and ventilation. Foundation vents shall be of an offset type construction, and all vents shall be effectively protected with metal screening or otherwise constructed to prevent the entrance of persons, animals, sparks, firebrands or the direct penetration of bullets which can detonate the explosives.

(2) Marking of premises. The premises on which a permanent magazine is located shall be conspicuously marked by signs containing the words "Explosives—Keep Off." Such signs shall adequately warn any person approaching the magazine of the presence of explosives but the signs shall not be so placed as to direct general public attention to the location of the magazine. No signs shall be placed on surface magazines or barricades or be so located that a bullet passing directly through the face of a sign will strike the magazine.

(b) High explosives in amounts not exceeding 125 pounds. High explosives in amounts of 125 pounds or less may be stored in permanent magazines complying with the standards set forth in § 301.25 (a), including subparagraphs (1) and (2). If not so stored, such high explosives shall be stored in box-type magazines which are theft-resistant.

(1) Construction of box-type magazines. Box-type magazines shall be strongly constructed of 2-inch hard wood or of 3-inch soft wood or other equally theft-resistant material. Any metal magazine shall be lined with a non-sparking material. Doors or lids shall be provided with strong hinges, hasps and staples attached by welds, rivets, or by bolts fitted with lockwashers and nuts on the interior of the magazine and installed in such a manner that the fastening cannot be removed when the magazine is locked. Box-type magazines shall be equipped with at least one lock equivalent to a 5-tumbler jarproof lock.

(2) Location of box-type magazines. Box-type magazines, when located outside a building, shall be securely anchored. No magazine shall be placed in a building containing oil, grease, gasoline, waste paper or other highly inflammable materials nor shall a magazine be placed less than 20 feet from a stove or furnace or open fire or flame, or less than 5 feet from other sources of external heat.

(3) Marking of magazines. Box-type magazines shall be painted red or another distinctive color and clearly and conspicuously marked "Explosives."

§ 301.26 Storage of low explosives—(a) Low explosives in amounts exceeding 125 pounds. All low explosives in amounts exceeding 125 pounds shall be stored in permanent magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (a) including subparagraphs (1) and (2), except that permanent magazines for the storage of low explosives need not be bullet-resistant. Any metal magazine shall be lined with a non-sparking material.

(b) Low explosives in amounts not exceeding 125 pounds. All low explosives in amounts of 125 pounds or less may be stored in permanent magazines complying with the standards set forth in § 301.25 (a) or § 301.26 (a). If not so stored, such low explosives shall be stored in box-type magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (b) including subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3).

§ 301.27 Storage of detonators—(a) Deonators in numbers of 1,000,000 or more. All detonators in numbers of 1,000,000 or more shall be stored in permanent magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (a), including subparagraphs (1) and (2).

(b) Detonators in numbers of more than 5,000 and less than 1,000,000. All detonators in numbers of more than 5,000 but less than 1,000,000 shall be stored in permanent magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (a), including subparagraphs (1) and (2), except that permanent magazines for the storage of detonators need not be bullet-resistant. Any metal magazine shall be lined with a non-sparking material.

(c) Detonators in numbers of 5,000 or less. All detonators in numbers of 5,000 or less may be stored in permanent magazines as above indicated. If not so stored, such detonators shall be stored in box-type magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (b), including subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3).

(d) Storage with other explosives. No detonator shall be stored in any magazine containing high or low explosives or blasting device heaters.

§ 301.28 Storage of fuse. Fuse may be stored in permanent magazines or in box-type magazines together with high or low explosives or detonators. If not so stored, fuse shall be stored in locked containers, locked rooms, or otherwise adequately protected against theft.

§ 302.29 Storage of explosives ingredients—(a) Explosives ingredients generally. Except as provided in paragraph (b), explosives ingredients shall be stored in permanent magazines, box-type magazines, locked containers, locked rooms, or locked buildings, or shall be otherwise adequately protected against theft.

(b) Blasting device heaters—(1) Blasting device heaters in total weights exceeding 125 pounds. All blasting device heaters containing ingredients of explosives, when the total weight of such heaters exceeds 125 pounds, shall be stored in permanent magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (a), including subparagraphs (1) and (2), except that permanent magazines for the storage of blasting device heaters need not be bullet-resistent. Any metal magazine shall be lined with a non-sparking material.

(2) Blasting device heaters in total weights not exceeding 125 pounds. All blasting device heaters containing ingredients of explosives, when the total weight of such heaters is 125 pounds or less, may be stored in permanent magazines, as above indicated. When not so stored, such blasting device heaters shall be stored in box-type magazines complying with all of the standards set forth in § 301.25 (b), including subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3).

(3) Storage with explosives. No blasting device heaters shall be stored in any magazine containing high or low explosives or detonators.

§ 301.30 Modification of storage and handling requirements—(a) Grounds for modification. In unusual circumstances when compliance with any requirement of §§ 301.24–301.29 is physically impractical, prohibitively expensive or for any reason not feasible, the requirement may be suspended or modified by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b):

(1) When the method of storing or handling explosives or explosives ingredients affords a measure of safety and protection to explosives or explosives ingredients equivalent to that provided by the standards described in these regulations; or

(2) When the method of storing or handling explosives or explosives ingredients, in the particular circumstances, affords the greatest feasible measure of safety and protection to such explosives or explosives ingredients; or

(3) When, in the judgment of the Director, other good and sufficient reasons justify relaxation of any requirement and the safety or security of persons or of buildings, railroads, highways, underground workings, or other property is not thereby unduly threatened or impaired.

(b) Procedure for modification. Any licensee may request suspension or modification of any requirement of §§ 301.24–301.29. Such request should be made in writing, and should clearly indicate, in the light of the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the nature of the request and the reasons therefor. The request should be addressed to the Explosives Control Division, Bureau of Mines, Washington 25, D. C. The licensee will be notified in writing if the request is granted in whole or in part. If any licensee, after having possession of a copy of §§ 301.24–301.29 or notice of their provisions, fails to request suspension or modification of any requirement of such regulations, or fails to make such a request within five days after being informed by a representative of the Bureau of Mines of his noncompliance with any requirement of §§ 301.24–301.29, he shall be subject to all of the penalties for the violation of these regulations.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–499]

BERORN COMPANY

Louis Berman and Samuel M. Ornsteen, co-partners doing business as Berorn Company, at 341 Middlesex Street, Lowell, Massachusetts, have been engaged in the manufacture of jungle hammocks, coveralls and other products. On or about March 16, 1943, Berorn Company received delivery of certain textile processing machinery for which it paid the City of Lowell $1025. No application was made to the War Production Board for authorization to accept delivery of such machinery, as was required by General Limitation Order L–215, before delivery thereof was actually received, although both Louis Berman and Samuel M. Ornsteen knew about General Limitation Order L–215 and were aware that authorization was required. Subsequent to an investigation by the War Production Board, Berorn Company filed on or about April 21, 1943, an application on Form PD–744 signed by Samuel M. Ornsteen, for retroactive authorization to accept delivery of such machinery. The application contained several material, wilful, false and misleading statements, among which was the representation that all twelve of said machines were required in the performance of a Government contract, whereas the partners knew that only three machines were suitable for such work. These misrepresentations constituted violations of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

These actions constituted wilful violations of General Limitation Order L–215 and Priorities Regulation No. 1, and have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.499 Suspension Order No. S–499. (a) Deliveries of material and products, directly or indirectly, to Louis Berman and Samuel M. Ornsteen, individually or as partners doing business as Berorn Company or otherwise, their or its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference ratings shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Louis Berman and Samuel M. Ornsteen, individually or as partners doing business as Berorn Company or otherwise, their or its successors or assigns, directly or indirectly, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Louis Berman or Samuel M. Ornsteen, individually or as partners doing business as Berorn Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on March 17, 1944, and shall expire on July 17, 1944.

Issued this 10th day of March 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–500]

LOWELL SHOE COMPANY, INC.

Lowell Shoe Company, Inc., 341 Middlesex Street, Lowell, Massachusetts, is a manufacturer of women's shoes. It manufactured 34,162 more pairs of women's shoes during the period between March 1, 1943, and August 31, 1943, within certain of its higher priced lines than was permitted by Conservation Order M–217. The responsible officers of Lowell Shoe Company, Inc., had knowledge of Conservation Order M–217 and the violation was therefore wilful. On March 15, 1943, it placed a bid with the City of Lowell for certain textile processing machinery at a price of $1025. This order was accepted and the machinery was later delivered to and paid for by the Berorn Company, one of whose partners was an officer and principal stockholder of the Lowell Shoe Company, Inc. No application was made to the War Production Board for authorization to order such machinery, as was required by General Limitation Order L–215, although the responsible officials of Lowell Shoe Company, Inc., had knowledge of the Limitation Order prior to the date it placed such order. Lowell Shoe Company, Inc., wilfully violated General Limitation Order L–215 by ordering such machinery without authorization of the War Production Board.

These wilful violations of Conservation Order M–217 and General Limitation Order L–215 have diverted scarce material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.500 Suspension Order No. S–500. (a) Lowell Shoe Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, shall not complete the manufacture of more than thirty-five thousand (35,000) pairs of civilian footwear during the effective period of this order. Such footwear shall be limited to Lowell Shoe Company's existing price lines, but may be divided among such lines as the company may determine under paragraph (i) (iv) of Conservation Order M–217 as amended January 12, 1944.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Lowell Shoe Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on March 17, 1944, and shall expire on July 17, 1944.

Issued this 10th day of March 1944.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 1, as Amended Mar. 18, 1944]

§ 944.1 Purpose and scope of this regulation; definitions. This regulation states the basic rules of the War Production Board which apply to all business transactions unless they are covered by more specific regulations or orders of the War Production Board which are inconsistent with this regulation. It includes transactions which are not subject to priority control in any other way than by this regulation. The following definitions apply for purposes of this regulation and any other regulation or order of the War Production Board, unless otherwise indicated.

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) "Defense order" means:

(1) Any contract or purchase order for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Selective Service System, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company.

(For status of Panama Canal and Coast Guard in general see Interpretation 1 c.)

(2) Any contract or purchase order placed by any agency of the United States Government for material or equipment to be delivered under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(c) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

§ 944.1a Certain defense orders rated AA–5. Every defense order placed after March 18, 1944, for any material which has not been specifically assigned a higher preference rating is hereby assigned a rating of AA–5.

§ 944.2 Rules for acceptance and rejection of rated orders. Every order bearing a preference rating must be accepted and filled regardless of existing contracts and orders except in the following cases:

(a) A person must not accept a rated order for delivery on a date which would interfere with delivery on equal or higher rated orders which he has already accepted, or if delivery of the material ordered would interfere with delivery on an order which the War Production Board has directed him to fill for that material or for a product which he makes out of it.

(b) A person must not accept a rated order (except an AAA) for delivery on a date which can be met only by using material which was specifically produced for delivery on another rated order, and which is completed or is in production and scheduled for completion within 15 days.

(c) If a person, when receiving a rated order bearing a specific delivery date, does not expect to be able to fill it by the time requested, he must not accept it for delivery at that time. He must either (1) reject the order, stating when he could fill it, or (2) accept it for delivery on the earliest date he expects to be able to deliver, informing the customer of that date. He may adopt either of these two courses, depending on his understanding of which his customer would prefer. He may not reject a low rated order just because he expects to receive conflicting higher rated orders in the future, nor because he would for any reason prefer to have higher ratings.

(d) If a person receives a rated order which is not required by § 944.8 to bear a specific delivery date and which he cannot fill promptly, he must accept it as long as he expects to be able to fill it within a reasonable time, unless he makes a consistent practice of not carrying a backlog and rejecting orders which cannot be promptly filled. He may treat different classes of customers differently in this respect, but only if there is a reasonable basis for the distinction. For example, he may make a regular practice of rejecting unfillable orders from all retailers but holding for backlog orders from all industrial customers.

(e) A rated order need not be (but may be) accepted in the following cases, but there must be no discrimination in such case against rated orders, or between rated orders of different customers:

(1) If the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment. (When a person who has a rating asks a supplier to quote his regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment, the supplier must do so, except that if this would require detailed engineering or accounting work, he may give his best estimate without such work and state that it is not binding. However, the supplier need not quote if he is not required to accept the rated order and knows that he will not do so if he receives it.)

(For status of OPA ceiling prices under this section see Interpretation 2. For rule covering types of sales and types of purchasers see Interpretation 3.)

(2) If the order is for the manufacture of a product or the performance of a service of a kind which the person to whom the order is offered has not usually made or performed, and in addition if either (i) he cannot fill the order without substantially altering or adding to his facilities or (ii) the order can readily be performed by someone else who has usually accepted and performed such orders.

(3) If the order is for material which the person to whom the order is offered produces or acquires for his own use only, and he has not filled any orders for that material within the past two years. If he has, but the rated order would take more than the excess over his own needs, he may not reject the rated order unless filling it would interfere with equal or higher rated orders already on hand, or orders which the War Production Board has directed him to fill, for the material or for a product which he makes out of it.

(4) If filling the order would stop or interrupt his production or operations during the next 40 days in a way which would cause a substantial loss of total production or a substantial delay in operations.

(f) Any person who fails or refuses to accept an order bearing a preference rating shall, upon written request of the person placing the order, promptly give his reasons in writing for his failure or refusal.

(For types of contracts which must be deferred see Interpretation 1b. For rule as to use of facilities of controlled materials producers see Interpretation 4.)

(g) Some orders of the War Production Board provide special rules as to the acceptance and rejection of orders for particular materials. In such cases, the rules stated above in this section are inapplicable to the extent that they are inconsistent with the applicable order of the War Production Board. In addition, the War Production Board may specifically direct a person in writing to fill a particular purchase order or orders. In such cases he must do so without regard to any of the above rules in this § 944.2, except that he may insist upon compliance with regularly established prices and terms of payment.

§ 944.3 Report to War Production Board of improperly rejected orders. When a rated order is rejected in violation of this regulation, the person who wants to place it may file a report of the relevant facts with the War Production Board, which will take such action as it considers appropriate after requiring an explanation from the person rejecting the order.

§ 944.4 Assignment of preference ratings. Preference ratings may be assigned to contracts, orders or deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, or by rules, regulations or orders of the War Production Board assigning ratings to particular orders or deliveries or to specified classes of orders or deliveries. Such ratings may be assigned to accepted contracts or orders, and also to orders which have not been placed or accepted at the time the rating is applied for. Ratings are also assigned by certain governmental agencies, authorized by the War Production Board, to their own purchase orders or contracts. In some cases the War Production Board will raise or lower ratings already assigned and in that event the rules of Priorities Regulation 12 (§ 944.33) apply. Specific orders may also be issued as to particular deliveries or as to the use of particular facilities, without assigning ratings thereto.

§ 944.4a Cancellation of preference ratings. If a preference rating which has been assigned to a named individual is revoked, he must immediately, in the case of each order to which he has applied the rating, either cancel the order or inform his supplier that it is no longer to be treated as rated. If a regulation or order of the War Production Board which assigns a rating to a class or group of persons without naming them individually is revoked after March 18, 1944, they may not apply the rating to orders placed after the revocation. Orders to which they have already applied the rating for delivery within three months after the revocation remain validly rated, but, in the case of each order which they have placed for delivery after three months from that date, they must either cancel the order or withdraw the rating. If any person receives notice from his customer that the customer's order is no longer rated or that the customer's order is cancelled, he must immediately withdraw any extensions of the rating which he has made to orders placed by him. The War Production Board may specify different rules for the treatment of outstanding ratings at the time it revokes them.

(For the rules about transferring preference ratings when contracts are assigned, see Interpretation 8.)

§ 944.5 Sequence of preference ratings. Preference ratings in order of precedence are: AAA, AA–1, AA–2, AA–2X, AA–3, etc.; A–1–a, A–1–b, etc.; A–2, A–3, etc.; B–1, B–2, etc. The letter "X" after a numeral indicates that such rating is inferior to the rating of the same numeral and superior to the rating of the next numeral. (For example, AA–2X is inferior to AA–2 and superior to AA–3.) The War Production Board, after March 18, 1944, will not assign ratings below AA–5 but any such ratings which were assigned before that date may be applied or extended.

§ 944.6 Doubtful cases. Whenever there is doubt as to the preference rating applicable to any order, or as to whether a particular order is a defense order, the matter is to be referred to the War Production Board for determination, with a statement of all pertinent facts.

§ 944.7 Sequence of filling rated orders. (a) Every person who has rated orders on hand must schedule his operations, if possible, so as to fill each rated order by the required delivery or performance date (determined as explained in § 944.8). If this is not possible for any reason, he must give precedence to higher over lower rated orders and to all rated over unrated orders. However, material specifically produced for a rated order may not be used to fill a higher rater order (except AAA) subsequently received if the material is completed or is in production and scheduled for completion within 15 days. A low rated order bearing an earlier delivery or performance date must be filled before a higher rated order bearing a later delivery or performance date if it is possible to fill both of them on the required dates.

(b) As between conflicting orders which bear the same preference rating, precedence must be given to the order which was received first with the rating. As between conflicting orders received with the same preference rating on the same date, precedence must be given to the order which has the earlier required delivery or performance date.

(See Interpretation 1 c.)

§ 944.8 Delivery or performance dates. (a) Every rated order placed after March 18, 1944, must specify delivery or performance on a particular date or dates or within specified periods of not more than 31 days each, which in no case may be earlier than required by the person placing the order. Any order which fails to comply with this rule must be treated as an unrated order. The words "immediately" or "as soon as possible", or other words to that effect, are not sufficient for this purpose. There are four exceptions to this rule, where a rated order need not bear a required delivery or performance date as long as it is understood that delivery or performance is required as soon as practicable or customary: (1) Orders for maintenance, repair or operating supplies as identified by the symbol MRO or otherwise; (2) orders placed with or by persons who normally take physical delivery of the item ordered to hold it in stock for resale; (3) orders for not more than $100; (4) orders rated AAA.

(b) The required delivery or performance date, for purposes of determining the sequence of deliveries or performance pursuant to § 944.7, shall be the date on which delivery or performance is actually required. The person with whom the order is placed may assume that the required delivery or performance date is the date specified in the order or contract unless he knows either (1) that the date so specified was earlier than required at the time the order was placed, or (2) that delivery or performance by the date originally specified is no longer required by reason of any change of circumstances. A delay in the scheduled receipt of any other material which the person placing the order requires prior to or concurrently with the material ordered, shall be deemed a change of circumstances within the meaning of the foregoing sentence.

(c) If, after accepting a rated order which specifies the time of delivery, the person with whom it is placed finds that he cannot fill it on time or within 15 days following the specified time, owing to the receipt of higher rated orders or for other reasons, he must promptly notify the customer, telling him approximately when he expects to be able to fill the order.

§ 944.9 Report to War Production Board of improper delay. When delivery or performance of a rated order is unreasonably or improperly delayed, the customer may file a report of the relevant facts with the War Production Board, which will take such action as it considers appropriate after requiring an explanation from the person with whom the order is placed.

§ 944.10 Effect of other regulations and orders. Specific allocations or other directions of the War Production Board for delivery of material or the use of facilities must be complied with regardless of ratings, unless otherwise specified. If restrictions under two or more regulations or orders of the War Production Board apply to the same subject matter, the most restrictive controls unless otherwise expressly provided. Defense orders or other rated orders are not exempt from restrictions on the amount of materials that may be made or delivered unless expressly so stated.

§ 944.11 Material to be used for purposes for which priorities assistance granted. (a) Any person who obtains material with priorities assistance must, if possible, use or dispose of it (or of the product into which it has been incorporated) for the purpose for which the assistance was given. This restriction applies to material obtained by means of a preference rating, allocation, specific direction, CMP allotment, or any other action of the War Production Board. Physical segregation is not required as long as the restrictions applicable to any specific lot of material or product are observed with respect to an equivalent amount of the same material or product. The foregoing restriction does not apply to scrap normally generated in the fabrication of material, but the use and disposition of certain forms of scrap are restricted by certain other regulations and orders of the War Production Board.

(b) When a material, or a product into which it has been incorporated, can no longer be used for the purpose for which the priorities assistance was given (for example, when the priorities assistance was given to fill a particular contract or purchase order and the material or product does not meet the customer's specifications or the contract or purchase order is cancelled), its use or disposition shall be restricted as follows:

(1) If the holder does not regularly sell similar materials or products in the course of his business, he may sell or transfer it only as provided in Priorities Regulation 13 (§ 944.34). Also, he may use it for any purpose for which he has the necessary preference rating and if he satisfies any other conditions which would be necessary in order to buy it for use by him from someone else under that regulation;

(2) The holder may use or dispose of the material or product to fill, in accordance with this regulation, a contract or purchase order bearing a preference rating of AA–5 or higher (or a rating as high as that with which the material was obtained, if it was obtained with a rating lower than AA–5), unless either the filling of the contract or purchase order or the fabrication of the material or product to fill that type of contract or purchase order is prohibited by an order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(3) The holder may use it to fill his own needs (such as meeting his requirements for maintenance, repair or operating supplies) if he has been authorized to obtain similar materials or products for that purpose by applying or extending a preference rating of AA–5 or higher (or a rating as high as that with which the material was obtained if he obtained it with a rating lower than AA–5), Provided, That use of the same for that purpose is not prohibited by an order or regulation of the War Production Board;

(4) It may be redelivered to the person from whom it was obtained, if he is willing to accept redelivery; or it may be delivered to the manufacturer, if he is willing to accept it;

(5) It may be used or disposed of as scrap, unless the use or disposition is prohibited by other regulations or orders of the War Production Board; or

(6) It may be used or disposed of in any other manner specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. Field offices of the Board will advise persons making inquiry of the method of obtaining authorization.

(c) In any event, if a material or product is a controlled material or a Class A product obtained pursuant to an allotment under CMP Regulation 1, the holder may use it in accordance with paragraph (u) of that regulation.

§ 944.12 Intra-company deliveries. When any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board prohibits or restricts deliveries of any material by any person, such prohibition or restriction shall, in the absence of a contrary direction, apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(For rule as to effect of inventory and small order provisions on separate operating units of same company see Interpretation 8.)

§ 944.13 Scope of regulations and orders. All regulations and orders of the War Production Board (including directions, directives and other instructions) apply to all subsequent transactions even though they are covered by previous contracts. Regulations and orders apply to transactions in the territories or insular possessions of the United States unless the regulation or order specifically states that it is limited to the continental United States or to the 48 states and the District of Columbia. However, military and naval establishments located outside the 48 states and the District of Columbia are not subject to any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board unless it specifically states that they are.

(For application of WPB regulations and orders to liquidation sales see Interpretation 1d.)

§ 944.13a Defense against claims for damages. No persons shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board, notwithstanding that any such rule, regulation or order shall thereafter be declared by judicial or other competent authority to be invalid.

§ 944.14 Inventory restriction. Unless specifically authorized by the War Production Board, no person shall knowingly make delivery of any material whatever, and no person shall accept delivery thereof if the inventory of such material of the person accepting delivery, in the same or other forms, is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, in excess of the practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet deliveries of the products of the person accepting delivery, on the basis of his current method and rate of operation. Unless specifically authorized by the War Production Board, no person shall process, fabricate, alloy or otherwise alter the shape or form of any material if his inventory of such material in its processed, fabricated, alloyed or otherwise altered shape or form is, or will by virtue of such operation become, in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory thereof. The term "practicable minimum working inventory" is to be strictly construed. The mere fact that the rate of turnover has increased or that materials are difficult to obtain does not justify maintaining inventories above the minimum with which operations can be continued. In the calculation of the practicable minimum working inventory of any person who imports material, either directly or through an agent, deliveries of such imported material to such person may be excluded.

(For application of this section to seasonal industries see Interpretation 1a, and to minimum sale quantities and production runs see Interpretation 7.)

§ 944.15 Records. Each person participating in any transaction to which any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board applies shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of his inventories of the material to which such rule, regulation or order relates and of the details of all transactions in such materials. Such records shall include the dates of all contracts or purchase orders accepted, the delivery dates specified in such contracts or purchase orders, and in any preference rating certificates accompanying them, the dates of actual deliveries thereunder, description of the material covered by such contracts or purchase orders, description of deliveries by classes, types, quantities, weights and values, the parties involved in each transaction, the preference ratings, if any, assigned to deliveries under such contracts or purchase orders, details of defense orders and all other rated orders either accepted or offered and rejected, and other pertinent information. Records kept by any person pursuant to this section shall be kept either separately from the other records of such person and chronologically according to daily deliveries by such person, or in such form that such a separate chronological record can be promptly compiled therefrom. Whenever a regulation or order requires a person to restrict his operations in proportion to his operations in a base period (for example, an order may forbid him to use more of a certain kind of material than he used in the fourth quarter of 1942) he must make a written record of the base period operations and preserve it, together with any figures and worksheets showing his calculations, for inspection by WPB officials as long as the regulation or order remains in force and for two years after that. Whenever a person is restricted as to the quantity of material he may use in production or the amount he may produce, under quota restrictions, limitation orders, authorized production schedules, special directions or similar provisions, he must keep reasonably adequate records of the material consumed and of production to show whether he is complying with the restrictions. This record-keeping requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(Photographic copies of records may be kept. See Interpretation 6.)

§ 944.16 Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this regulation or by any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by its duly authorized representatives.

§ 944.17 Reports. Every person shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as it shall from time to time request, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 944.18 Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this regulation or any other rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board, or who, by any statement or omission, wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep, or who otherwise wilfully furnishes false or misleading information to the War Production Board, and any person who obtains a delivery, an allocation of material or facilities, or a preference rating by means of a material and wilful, false or misleading statement, may be prohibited by the War Production Board from making or obtaining further deliveries of material or using facilities under priority or allocation control and may be deprived of further priorities assistance. The War Production Board may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. Sec. 80), or under the Second War Powers Act (Public No. 507, 77th Congress, March 27, 1942).

§ 944.19 Appeals for relief in exceptional cases. Any person who considers that compliance with a rule or regulation or order of the War Production Board would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may appeal for relief. The rules for the filing and handling of appeals are given in Priorities Regulation 16.

§ 944.20 Notification of customers. Any person who is prohibited from or restricted in making deliveries of any material by the provisions of any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of his regular customers of the requirements of such rule, regulation or order, but the failure to give notice shall not excuse any customer from the obligation of complying with any requirements applicable to him.

Issued this 18th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

INTERPRETATION 5

EFFECT OF ASSIGNMENT OF A RATED ORDER OR CONTRACT ON SEQUENCE OF DELIVERY

When a rated contract is assigned, the rating remains applicable to the contract as assigned if, but only if, the assignee uses the material covered by the contract for substantially the same purpose for which the rated contract was placed.

Examples. (1) The Navy places a rated order with A and A extends the rating to B. Later the Navy and A cancel the contract and the Navy enters into a new contract with C for delivery of the same product at the same time and applies the same rating to it. A assigns to C his contract with B. The rating which A had extended to B remains valid as of the time it was extended by A, and B must honor it in making delivery to C.

(2) A steel mill places an order for a repair part rated AA–1 under CMP Regulation No. 5. The steel mill finds that it does not need the part but another steel mill needs the same and asks the first mill to assign its contract for the part. The second mill could also apply a AA–1 rating to the delivery. However, it prefers to use the first mill's rating so as to come ahead of the orders which have been placed since the first mill placed its order. The second mill may not make this use of the rating, since the rated order was placed for the repair of the first mill's facilities and the purpose of the order has thus been changed.

(3) The War Production Board assigns a rating on a PD–1A certificate to a textile manufacturer to buy some textile machinery. He places an order with a machinery manufacturer and applies the rating to the order. He decides he does not need the machinery but finds another textile producer who does need the machinery and is willing to purchase the same from him. He therefore assigns the contract for the machinery to the second textile producer. The rating does not apply to the delivery to the second producer since it was assigned by the War Production Board only for the purpose of filling a specific need shown by the first textile producer. (Issued July 24, 1943.)

INTERPRETATION 6

MICROFILM RECORDS

Records required to be kept by § 944.15 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 or by any other order or regulation of the War Production Board may be kept in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals. (Issued Aug. 14, 1943.)

INTERPRETATION 7

MINIMUM SALE QUANTITIES AND PRODUCTION RUNS

(a) Applicable provisions of the regulations. Section 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 forbids the making or acceptance of a delivery which will give the customer more than the "practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary" for him to make his own deliveries. A similar provision in paragraph (b) (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 3 says that a customer who is applying a rating for which no specific quantities have been authorized may use it only to get the "minimum required amounts".

(b) Factors to be considered in determining how much can be ordered and delivered. In determining a customer's minimum inventory "reasonably necessary" under Priorities Regulation No. 1 or his "minimum required amounts" under Priorities Regulation No. 3, it is proper in some cases to consider not only the immediate needs of the customer's plant but also whether the amount which he orders will be a minimum production run for his supplier. The customer may order and receive (and the supplier may deliver) the customer's requirements for a longer period in advance than he actually needs at the time of delivery if, but only if, it is not practicable for him to get the item from any supplier in the smaller quantities which he presently needs. The supplier may reject his customer's order if it is less than the minimum which he regularly sells, as explained in Interpretation 3 of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This means that if he regularly sells not less than a certain minimum production run, he does not have to accept orders which either total less than the run or which call for individual deliveries of less than the run.

(c) Relief in exceptional cases. If the conditions stated in paragraph (b) above cannot be satisfied but the customer wants to order or accept delivery of more than his actual needs at the time of delivery, he should apply to the Redistribution Division of the War Production Board for permission, stating the facts and why it is not practicable to satisfy the conditions of paragraph (b).

(d) Special provisions for controlled materials and Class A products. This interpretation does not apply to deliveries of controlled materials or Class A products under the Controlled Materials Plan. Rules regarding deliveries of controlled materials are given in CMP Regulation No. 2, and those for Class A products are explained in Interpretation 9 to CMP Regulation No. 1.

(e) Specific limits on ratings may not be exceeded. This interpretation does not apply to the use of a rating where a specific quantity is stated in the instrument assigning the rating. If a person is assigned a rating for a specific amount of material, he may not use it to get more. If he finds that he can only get the material in larger quantities, he should apply for a modification of the rating. (Issued Nov. 3, 1943.)

INTERPRETATION 8

EFFECT OF INVENTORY AND SMALL ORDER PROVISIONS ON SEPARATE OPERATING UNITS OF THE SAME COMPANY

(a) If an individual plant, branch store, division or other operating unit normally keeps separate inventory from the rest of the corporation or firm, inventory restrictions in WPB orders and regulations apply to it separately. Thus, although another unit may have exceeded an inventory limit, this does not prevent a unit which has not exceeded it from acquiring additional inventory within the limit.

(b) Likewise, if an order of the War Production Board provides an exemption for small purchases, an operating unit which normally buys separately need not consider purchases made by other units in determining whether it comes within the exemption.

(c) It may happen that the same operating unit will be treated separately for purposes of inventory restrictions but not for purposes of small order exemptions. For example, if a distributor purchases centrally for direct shipment to several outlets which keep separate inventories, the outlets are treated separately for purposes of inventory restrictions but the central purchasing agency must include all its purchases in determining whether a transaction comes within a small order exemption.

(d) This interpretation applies only in cases where a contrary rule is not expressly stated in the applicable War Production Board order or regulation. Also it only applies where the regular business practice of the unit in question is to keep a separate inventory or to buy separately. It does not apply if the regular practice has been changed just for the purpose of coming within this interpretation. (Issued Nov. 22, 1944)

[Priorities Reg. 1, Interpretation 1a]

INVENTORIES IN SEASONAL INDUSTRIES

The following interpretation is issued with respect to § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1:

The question has been raised, in connection with various seasonal industries, whether a company which is engaged in such an industry and which normally stocks up inventory in advance of the season, is forbidden by the foregoing regulation from doing so.

The prohibition against accepting delivery of inventory "in excess of the practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet deliveries of the products of the person accepting delivery, on the basis of his current method and rate of operation," does not prevent the acceptance of delivery by such person of his requirements of the inventory in question provided, (a) that such person is not guilty of hoarding, and (b) that the deliveries accepted are no greater and no further in advance than those which he would normally accept in the ordinary course of his business to meet reasonably anticipated requirements.

[Priorities Reg. 1, Interpretation 1b]

TYPES OF EXISTING CONTRACTS WHICH MUST BE DEFERRED

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 1:

Section 944.2 of Priorities Regulation 1, as amended, makes compulsory the acceptance and filling of rated orders for any material "regardless of existing contracts and orders". The "existing contracts" referred to include not only ordinary purchase contracts but other arrangements achieving substantially the same results, though in form they may concern the use of production facilities rather than the material produced. Preference ratings are applicable to facilities as well as materials.

Examples of such "existing contracts" which must be subordinated to higher rated orders are (1) arrangements whereby a producer, regularly engaged in producing a given product for sale to others, leases a portion of his plant, or the whole of it for a relatively short period, as a going concern to one of his customers and operation is continued under the producer's management and with the producer's regular personnel; and (2) arrangements whereby such a producer, in lieu of buying raw materials and selling the product, accepts raw materials belonging to a customer for processing pursuant to a toll agreement or similar undertaking. If the deliveries to be made to such customer carry a preference rating, the sequence of deliveries as compared with deliveries to other persons placing orders with the producer is to be determined as provided in § 944.7 of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

SEQUENCE OF DELIVERIES AND PRODUCTION FOR RATED ORDERS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 1:

The provisions of § 944.7 (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended, with respect to the sequence of deliveries bearing the same preference rating, are applicable only in cases where different deliveries bearing the same preference rating cannot be made on schedule. If material supply and available facilities permit deliveries bearing the same rating to be made on schedule, Regulation No. 1 does not have any particular effect on the sequence of production for such deliveries. Where it is necessary to choose between deliveries bearing the same preference ratings, delivery to the customer from whom the order was first received with the rating is to be preferred and production schedules must be adjusted accordingly. For example, suppose a rated order is received from one customer in January for August delivery and another order bearing the same rating is received from a second customer in June calling for July delivery. If both deliveries cannot be made on schedule, the second customer is not permitted to get the material away from the first customer. The producer must defer production on the second order to the extent necessary to make delivery on the first order on the August delivery date. If, on the other hand, both deliveries can be made on schedule, it is not necessary to produce or make delivery on the first customer's order ahead of that of the second.

[Priorities Reg. 1, Interpretation 1d]

APPLICATION OF ORDERS AND REGULATIONS TO SALES BY AUCTIONEERS, RECEIVERS, TRUSTEES, ETC.

The following interpretation is issued with respect to § 944.18 of Priorities Regulation 1:

The impression has arisen that orders and regulations of the War Production Board which restrict the sale, transfer or delivery of materials, products or equipment, need not be observed in the case of sales made by auctioneers, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, and other cases where the assets of a business are being liquidated. This impression is erroneous.

All orders and regulations of the War Production Board which control the sale, transfer or delivery of any material, product or equipment, apply to sales made by any person, whether for his own account or for the account of others, and all restrictions upon accepting delivery apply to acceptance of delivery at any type of sale, except as otherwise provided in Priorities Regulation No. 13 with respect to "special sales" or as otherwise provided in any other applicable regulation or order. Any sale made in violation of any order or regulation or any delivery accepted in violation of any order or regulation, subjects parties to all penalties provided by law, including liability for prosecution under Title III of the Second War Powers Act, which specifies penalties up to $10,000 or imprisonment for one year or both.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 1, Interpretation 1e]

ARMY INCLUDES PANAMA CANAL—NAVY INCLUDES COAST GUARD

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 1:

(a) Section 944.1 (b) defines "defense order" to mean, among other things, any contract or purchase order for material or equipment to be delivered to or for the accounts of the Army or Navy of the United States, the Panama Canal or the Coast Guard. At the present time the Panama Canal is part of the Army and the Coast Guard is part of the Navy. Some question has arisen as to whether the specific enumeration in Priorities Regulation No. 1 of the Panama Canal and the Coast Guard means that they do not fall within general references to the Army and Navy in other regulations and orders of the War Production Board. In particular, inquiries have been made as to whether exemptive provisions in limitation and conservation orders in favor of the Army and Navy also provide exemptions for the Panama Canal and the Coast Guard when the latter are not specifically mentioned.

An exemptive or other provision applicable to the Army also applies to the Panama Canal, and a provision applicable to the Navy to the Coast Guard, unless the provision expressly states otherwise.

(b) Question has also been raised as to the status of the Office of Strategic Services under § 944.1 (b) and similar general references to the Army and Navy in other regulations and orders of the War Production Board.

The operations of the Office of Strategic Services are under the direction and supervision of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Therefore, any provision in a regulation or order of the War Production Board which applies to both the Army and the Navy (but not a provision which applies to the Army alone or to the Navy alone) also covers the Office of Strategic Services.

REGULARLY ESTABLISHED PRICES AND OPA CEILING PRICES

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 1:

An order bearing a preference rating may not be rejected on the ground that the price is below the regularly established price, if the purchaser offers the OPA ceiling price.

Section 944.2 of Priorities Regulation 1 makes the acceptance of rated orders mandatory except in the several situations specified in the section. The only exception dealing with price is contained in paragraph (e) (1) which states that a rated order need not be accepted "if the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment".

"Regularly established prices" cannot be higher than OPA ceiling prices. They may, however, be lower.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 1, Interpretation 3]

REJECTION OF RATED ORDERS FOR FAILURE TO MEET ESTABLISHED PRICES AND TERMS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 1:

(a) Section 944.2 of Priorities Regulation 1 states that every order bearing a preference rating must be accepted and filled with certain exceptions listed in the section. One exception is where a buyer does not "meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment". This exception applies to a seller who receives a rated order for quantities which are less than the minimum which he regularly sells. For example, a manufacturer who has been selling only in carload lots may reject a rated order for a less than carload lot.

(b) The exception also applies to the seller who regularly sells only to certain types of trade purchasers, such as wholesalers, jobbers or retailers. He may reject orders from other types of purchasers but only if it is practicable to obtain the merchandise in the required quantity through regular trade channels.

(c) It should be noted that paragraph (e) of § 944.2 in which the above exception appears includes the requirement that "there must be no discrimination in such case against rated orders, or between rated orders of different customers". This means, for example, that a seller who sells principally at wholesale but also at retail to one or more customers may not reject rated retail orders from other customers. However, if a manufacturer or wholesaler has an exclusive distributor, either for all sales or for a particular territory, he may reject orders from other purchasers provided the exclusive distributor is in a position to fill the orders promptly.

ACCEPTANCE OF RATED ORDERS FOR USE OF FACILITIES BY CONTROLLED MATERIALS PRODUCERS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 1:

Section 944.2 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 provides for the compulsory acceptance of defense and other preference rated orders for the use of facilities, and § 944.7 provides for the sequence of deliveries on such orders. With respect to all such orders placed with a producer of controlled materials, the provisions of these sections are applicable only to the extent that they do not interfere with the acceptance, production, and delivery of orders which he is permitted to fill under paragraph (t) (3) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

PART 1041—PRODUCTION, TRANSPORTATION, REFINING AND MARKETING OF PETROLEUM

[Preference Rating Order P-98-b, as Amended Mar. 18, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of critical materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1041.2 Preference Rating Order P-98-b—(a) Purpose. This order tells how persons engaged in the petroleum industry may obtain priorities assistance to secure material for their operations.

This order will not be used by foreign operators who will continue to use Priorities Regulation No. 9 and forms provided for in that regulation. Nor will the order be used to secure material to be used in the Territory of Hawaii. Such material may be obtained through the procedure established by the War Production Board Regional Office for Region X rather than through this order. Furthermore, this order will not be used by Canadian operators. All other operators must use the procedures of this order.

In general, this order provides priorities assistance to obtain material for three different purposes, and a separate procedure will be followed for each. They are as follows:

(1) Material for maintenance and repair purposes, operating supplies and laboratory equipment is secured under the MRO procedure, set out in the second major portion of this order (paragraphs (d), (e) and (f)). Preference ratings and an allotment symbol for controlled material are indicated and may be used in accordance with the procedure specified in that section.

(2) Material for most production activities, which include exploratory work and well drilling, is secured through the procedure described in the third major portion of this order headed, "Material for Use in Production" (paragraphs (g), (h), (i) and (j)). The preference rating and allotment symbol for controlled material are indicated in paragraph (h) and may be used only in accordance with the specified delivery order filing procedure, similar to that of the MRO provisions.

(3) A fourth major portion of this order (paragraphs (k), (l), (m) and (n)), describes how materials are secured for use in certain special production operations, natural gasoline recovery, transportation, refining and marketing. Here, application must be made for both a preference rating covering specific materials and an allotment of controlled materials. Any rating and allotment number assigned pursuant to such an application may be used without submitting delivery orders to the Petroleum Administration for War, unless the operator receives special instructions to the contrary.

The materials which are obtained under this order may be used only in accordance with the provisions of applicable Petroleum Administrative orders. A general description of the scope of these orders is given in the appropriate sections of this order.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Operator" means any person to the extent that he is engaged in the petroleum industry.

(2) "Petroleum" means crude oil, petroleum products and associated hydrocarbons, including but not limited to natural gas.

(3) "Petroleum industry" includes any of the following activities and any operation directly incident to these activities:

(i) The discovery, development or depletion of petroleum pools (production);

(ii) The extraction or recovery of natural gasoline and associated hydrocarbons (natural gasoline recovery);

(iii) The transportation, movement, loading or unloading of petroleum other than natural gas (transportation);

(iv) The processing, reprocessing or alteration of petroleum, including but not limited to compounding or blending (refining);

(v) The distribution or dispensing of petroleum products (other than natural gas) and the storing of petroleum products incident thereto (marketing); and shall include for each of the above listed branches of the industry, to the extent applicable, the control of, or the investigation into more effective methods of conducting, petroleum industry operations by means of research, technical or control laboratories.

(4) "Maintenance and repair" means (without regard to accounting practice):

(i) The upkeep of any structure, equipment, or material in a sound working condition or the restoration or fixing of any structure, equipment, or material which has broken down or is worn out, damaged or destroyed;

(ii) Any other use of material not exceeding in material cost $500 for any one complete operation which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition.

Maintenance and repair shall not include (a) the drilling, redrilling, deepening, plugging back, or multiple completion of any well or the initial installation on any well of pumping or other artificial lifting equipment, or (b) the extension or the initial construction or installation of a field gas gathering line, or (c) any use of material in connection with a service station or retail outlet other than for upkeep or restoration purposes, or (d) the installation or replacement in marketing of any "equipment" defined as such in Petroleum Administrative Order No. 12.

(5) "Operating supplies" means any material other than material used for maintenance and repair which is essential to and consumed in the petroleum industry and which is normally carried by an operator as operating supplies or which is normally chargeable to operating expense, including among other items, chemicals, additives and blending agents.

(6) "Laboratory equipment" means material or equipment used exclusively for the purpose of controlling, or investigating more effective methods of conducting, petroleum industry operations by means of research, technical or control laboratories. This material or equipment shall not, however, include material for use in the construction of laboratory buildings or other structures.

(7) "Controlled material," "Class A product" and "Class B product" shall have the same meanings, respectively, as in CMP Regulation No. 1 of the War Production Board.

(8) "Delivery order" means any purchase order, contract, release or shipping instruction which constitutes a definite and complete instruction from a purchaser to a seller calling for delivery of any material or product. The term does not include any contract, purchase order, or other arrangement which, although specifying the total amount to be delivered, contemplates that further instructions are to be given before delivery is made.

(9) "Authorized controlled material order" means any delivery order for any controlled material as such (as distinct from a product containing controlled material) which is placed pursuant to an allotment as provided in this order or which is specifically designated to be such by any regulation or order of the Petroleum Administration for War or the War Production Board.

(c) Priorities assistance for services and particular materials. (1) An MRO rating assigned by this order may be used to secure services to the extent consistent with Priorities Regulation 3.

(2) No operator may apply a preference rating to obtain any material listed on Schedule A of this order.

(3) No operator may apply a preference rating to obtain any material listed on Schedule B except in accordance with the procedure described in that schedule.

(4) Priorities assistance for the materials covered by Schedule C of this order may also be obtained under this order but only by filing the forms specified on that schedule in accordance with the instructions contained in that schedule. Schedule C includes all items on List B of Priorities Regulation 3 with the exception of those listed in Schedule B of this order.

(5) Priorities assistance may not be obtained under this order for material or equipment to be used by consumer accounts for or in the storage or dispensing of petroleum, including liquefied petroleum gas. Maintenance and repair for this type of equipment is covered under Preference Rating Order P–98–e.

(6) Priorities assistance may not be obtained under this order for tank trucks and trailers, railroad rolling stock, marine equipment or parts for any of these, unless the priorities assistance is used to secure the following:

(i) Material to be actually attached to a tank truck or trailer and necessary for containing, dispensing, measuring the movement of, or distributing petroleum;

(ii) Parts for railroad rolling stock, which rolling stock is owned or leased by the operator, is used on his premises and in the petroleum industry, and is not under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission;

(iii) Parts for marine equipment, which marine equipment is used or chartered by the operator, is used on or in the vicinity of his premises and in the petroleum industry, and for which no other method of securing priorities assistance exists.

Special methods for securing priorities assistance for the above equipment or equipment parts which may not be obtained under this order have been established by the Office of Defense Transportation, the Maritime Commision, and the War Production Board.

(7) Priorities assistance may not be obtained under this order for "residential construction" or "multiple residential construction", as defined in Order L–41 where the construction is in connection with natural gasoline recovery, transportation, refining or marketing. Priorities assistance may, on the other hand, be obtained under this order for material to be used as "lease equipment", as that term is defined in Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11.

MRO Material—Maintenance and Repair, Operating Supplies, and Laboratory Equipment

(d) Allotment symbol and preference ratings. To secure material fof maintenance and repair, operating supplies or laboratory equipment (all known as MRO material) for use in any branch of the petroleum industry other than retail marketing an operator may use allotment symbol MRO–P–3 and preference rating AA–1. To secure MRO material for use in retail marketing an operator may use allotment symbol MRO–P–3 and preference rating AA–5.

(e) How to use allotment symbol and preference rating. To use the MRO allotment symbol and ratings, an operator must:

(1) Place the allotment symbol on delivery orders for controlled materials and the allotment symbol and preference rating on delivery orders for other MRO materials, certifying each delivery order in accordance with paragraph (r).

(2) Endorse on each delivery order of more than $100 (or accompany it by) a statement telling the specific use to which the material is to be put, the branch of the petroleum industry and the PAW District in which it is to be used, the approximate price, quantity and description of the material (including weight if it is a controlled material) and the month in which delivery of the material is required.

(3) Prior to placing each delivery order with a supplier, submit copies of the order to the District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War for the District in which the material will be used (or, if so desired by an operator in any branch of the industry other than production, for the District in which the purchasing office of the operator is located), Ref: Materials Division, as follows:

(i) If the delivery order is for $100 or less, no copy need be submitted.

(ii) If the delivery order is for controlled materials (other than aluminum) and has a total cost of more than $100 but not more than $2,500 and has no item of more than $500, one copy must be submitted for information purposes.

(iii) If the delivery order is for controlled materials (other than aluminum) and has a total cost of more than $2,500, or has any item of more than $500, the original and two copies must be submitted for approval, and an operator may not place such an order with a supplier until approval of the order has been returned to him.

(iv) If the delivery order is for other than controlled materials or for aluminum, and has a total cost of more than $100, one copy must be submitted for information purposes.

In the case of delivery orders for the special materials listed on Schedule B, the filing instructions set out in that schedule apply.

(4) An operator requiring aluminum as a controlled material need only comply with the previous subparagraphs of this paragraph (e) to obtain 500 pounds or less from all sources during a calendar quarter. If the quantity required is more than 500 pounds, he must apply by letter for permission to purchase the excess amount (furnishing the applicable information called for by paragraph (d) of Supplementary Order M–1–i) to the Aluminum and Magnesium Division, War Production Board, Ref: M–1–i. If approved the operator must then place his delivery orders in accordance with the previous subparagraphs of this paragraph (e).

(5) To use a preference rating obtained for MRO material pursuant to a Form WPB–541 (PD–1A) application, an operator must place on the delivery order the rating and allotment symbol P–3.

(f) Emergency MRO materials. Where there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations, and where the methods specified above will not get the material on the date and in the quantity required, an operator may request authority to secure emergency MRO material by letter, telegram or telephone to the District Office (in the case of production), or to the Washington Office (in all other cases), Ref: P–98–b, supplying the following information:

(1) Date of actual breakdown or suspension of operations and exact explanation as to what extent operations are affected.

(2) Description of equipment to be repaired and its function in maintaining continuous operation.

(3) Quantity, approximate price and detailed description of necessary material (including weight if a controlled material) and number and date of delivery order(s) thereof.

If information is supplied by telephone, it must be confirmed within three days by letter or telegram. No delivery order for emergency MRO material need be submitted to the Petroleum Administration for War but an operator shall not place a delivery order with a supplier for the emergency MRO material until approval has been received and the delivery order has been certified in accordance with paragraph (r).

Material for Use in Production

(g) Scope of paragraphs (g), (h), (i), (j). The following paragraphs under this general heading of "Material for Use in Production" set forth the methods to be used by a production operator in securing and using priorities assistance to get the material he will need for most of his operations. However, these paragraphs do not cover methods for obtaining priorities assistance for MRO material or material for use in the following special production operations:

Gas cycling operations for condensate recovery (including gathering and injection lines in connection therewith),
Gas desulphurization operations,
Gas dehydration operations,
Pressure maintenance operations, or
A gas lift compression plant or a field gas booster plant where the material to be installed or added increases the rated capacity of the plant more than 500 h. p.

Methods for securing MRO material have been set forth in paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) above, while methods for securing material for special production operations are set forth in paragraphs (k), (l) and (m) which follow.

References made in paragraphs (h), (i) and (j) immediately below, to production allotment symbols and ratings or to materials for use in production, apply only to the acquisition and use of material for the production operations covered by these paragraphs. Such references do not apply to MRO material or to material for use in the special production operations listed above.

(h) Allotment symbol and preference rating. To secure material for use in production, an operator may use allotment symbol P–1 and preference rating AA–2X.

(i) How to use allotment symbol and preference rating. To use his allotment symbol and preference rating, a production operator must:

(1) Indicate on each delivery order for controlled materials the allotment symbol; and indicate on each delivery order for other materials the preference rating and allotment symbol; certifying each delivery order in accordance with paragraph (r).

(2) Endorse on each delivery order of more than $100 (or accompany it by) a statement telling the specific use to which the material is to be put, the branch of the petroleum industry and the PAW District in which it is to be used, and the approximate price, quantity and description of the material (including weight, if it is a controlled material), and the month in which delivery of the material is required.

(3) Prior to placing each delivery order with a supplier, submit copies of the order to the District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War for the District in which the material is to be used, Ref: Materials Division, as follows:

(i) If the delivery order is for $100 or less, no copy need be submitted.

(ii) If the delivery order is for controlled materials, and has a total cost of more than $100 but not more than $2,500, and has no item of more than $500, one copy must be submitted for information purposes.

(iii) If the delivery order is for controlled materials, and has a total cost of more than $2,500, or has any item of more than $500, the original and two copies must be submitted for approval, and an operator may not place such an order with a supplier until approval of the order has been returned to him.

(iv) If the delivery order is for other than controlled materials, and has a total cost of more than $100, one copy must be submitted for information purposes.

In the case of delivery orders for the special materials listed on Schedule B, the filing instructions set out in that schedule apply.

(j) How to obtain authority to use materials. Use of material in production is controlled by Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended and supplemented from time to time. Unless authority is granted by PAO–11 or an amendment or supplement to that order, to use material in the particular production operation, the operator must obtain an exception under PAO–11.

Material for Use in Special Production Operations, Natural Gasoline Recovery, Transportation, Refining and Marketing

(k) Scope of paragraphs (k), (l), (m), (n). The following paragraphs under this general heading of "Material for Use in Special Production Operations, Natural Gasoline Recovery, Transportation, Refining and Marketing" set forth the methods to be used by an operator engaged in any one of those industry branches or operations in securing and using priorities assistance to get the material he will need for his operations. The special production operations for which priorities assistance is made available by this major section are:

Gas cycling operations for condensate recovery (including gathering and injection lines in connection therewith),
Gas desulphurization operations,
Gas dehydration operations,
Pressure maintenance operations, or
A gas lift compression plant or a field gas booster plant where the material to be installed or added increases the rated capacity of the plant more than 500 h. p.

Methods for securing MRO material have been set forth in paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) above. References made in paragraphs (l), (m) and (n) immediately below to allotment numbers and ratings and to the use of material, apply only to the acquisition and use of material for the operations covered by these paragraphs. Such references do not apply to MRO material.

(l) Allotment number and preference rating. To secure equipment or material requiring an allotment number or preference rating for use in any special production operations, natural gasoline recovery, transportation, refining or marketing, an operator must file PAW Form 30 in accordance with the instructions set out on that form.

Form WPB–541 (PD–1A) may be used instead of PAW Form 30 to request a preference rating for machinery or equipment, if the machinery or equipment will be installed with the use of no more than $500 worth of material obtained through the MRO procedure of this order and if the machinery or equipment will be installed as part of a complete operation having a total material cost of no more than $5,000.

Form WPB–541 (PD–1A) may also be used instead of PAW Form 30 to request a preference rating for any material, regardless of cost, which will not be incorporated into a plant or other facility (for example, an item of construction machinery or equipment), unless a War Production Board order requires the use of some other form.

Form WPB–541 applications will be filed with the nearest War Production Board Field Office.

(m) How to use allotment number or symbol and preference rating. To use the allotment number and preference rating granted through a PAW Form 30 application an operator must place the allotment number on delivery orders for controlled materials and the allotment number and preference rating on delivery orders for other materials. On each delivery order for material rated after a Form WPB–541 application an operator must place the rating and either allotment symbol F–5 (in refining) or P–1 (in any other branch of the industry). Each delivery order must bear the standard certification of paragraph (r).

An operator may place authorized controlled materials orders only for the controlled materials specified for use in the operations designated on the PAW Form 30 application and may apply or extend the preference rating only to secure material requiring a rating and approved in connection with the PAW Form 30 or Form WPB–541 application.

Any rating or allotment number assigned pursuant to an application on either of such forms may be used without submitting delivery orders to the Petroleum Administration for War, unless the operator receives special instructions to the contrary.

(n) How to obtain authority to use material. (1) Use of material in transportation or refining, is governed by Petroleum Administrative Order No. 15 as amended and supplemented from time to time. Use of material in special production operations described above and in natural gasoline recovery is governed by Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11 as amended and supplemented from time to time. Since PAW Form 30 when filed as an application to secure material for use in connection with special production operations, natural gasoline recovery, transportation or refining, is also considered an application to use materials in connection with such operations, the authorization obtained by an operator by this form shall be considered authority to use the materials specified on the form in accordance with the provisions of such orders.

(2) Use of material (other than liquefied petroleum gas equipment) in marketing is governed by Petroleum Administrative Order No. 12 as amended and supplemented from time to time. If use of the material (other than liquefied petroleum gas equipment) is not authorized by PAO–12 or an amendment or supplement to that order, the operator must secure an exception under that order.

(3) Installation of liquefied petroleum gas equipment is governed by Order L–86 as amended and supplemented from time to time. If the material to be used in marketing is liquefied petroleum gas equipment and installation of such is not permitted by Order L–86 or an amendment or supplement to that order, the operator must secure an exception under that order.

(4) Exceptions under PAO–12 or L–86 do not afford priorities assistance to secure material. Such priorities assistance should be applied for under paragraph (1). MRO material will, of course, be obtained through the MRO procedures of this order, or, where applicable, through Preference Rating Order P–98–e.

General Provisions

(o) Allotments by operators. An operator who has obtained an allotment of controlled materials may require the manufacture and installation of certain Class A products or may undertake the operation through a construction contractor. In either case it may be necessary for the operator to allot a portion of his allotment to the Class A product manufacturer or to the contractor (each of whom then becomes a "secondary consumer" under CMP Regulations) for reallotment or the placement of authorized controlled material orders. Any operator making such an allotment must follow the procedures in CMP Regulation No. 1, except as modified by this order.

(p) Placement of delivery orders. (1) In preparing or placing a delivery order an operator shall not alter the customary designation of any item or items for the purpose of making it appear that an item costs $500 or less or that the total cost of all items on the delivery order is $100 or less or $2,500 or less as the case may be.

(2) Any delivery order for controlled materials placed pursuant to this order and bearing the certification provided for in this order is an authorized controlled material order if the delivery order is in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and is received by the controlled materials producer at such time in advance as is specified in Schedule III of CMP Regulation No. 1, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same. Attention is called to paragraph (t) of CMP Regulation No. 1 relating to rejection of orders by a controlled materials producer, including instances where less than minimum mill quantities, as specified in Schedule IV of the regulation, are requested by an operator.

(3) Where an allotment of controlled materials has been made and an allotment number authorized in connection with it, the allotment number endorsed upon any delivery order bearing the certification provided for in this order shall be an abbreviated allotment number consisting of a major program identification and the quarterly identification. In the event that no allotment number has been authorized, the appropriate allotment symbol stated in this order should be used. The allotment symbol MRO–P–3, authorized in connection with MRO material and allotment symbol P–1, in connection with production, shall constitute allotment symbols, for the purpose of all CMP regulations. In using these symbols no reference to a program or quarterly identification need be made.

(q) Use, cancellation and reduction of allotment. (1) [Revoked Mar. 18, 1944]

(2) An operator who receives an allotment of controlled materials pursuant to application on PAW Form 30 must use it only for the purpose for which it was authorized. If such an allotment is not used in placing authorized controlled material orders or in making reallotments, the operator must promptly notify the Washington Office of such facts.

(3) An operator who has made an allotment may cancel or reduce the same by notice in writing to the person to whom it was made. Where an allotment received by an operator is cancelled, he must cancel all allotments which he has placed on the basis of the allotment. Where an allotment received by an operator is reduced, he must cancel or reduce allotments which he has made, or authorized controlled material orders which he has placed, to the extent that the same exceeds his allotment as reduced. In the event this course of action is impracticable, the operator shall immediately request instructions of the District Office (in the case of production) or of the Washington Office (in all other cases).

(r) Certification. An operator may use an allotment number or symbol or preference rating authorized pursuant to this order by endorsing upon his delivery order a certification in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered, and to use any preference rating or allotment number or symbol which the undersigned has placed on this order.

This certification may be used as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. It may also be used instead of any other certification required by any regulation or order of the War Production Board, to the extent permitted by Priorities Regulation No. 7. The certification must be signed manually or by the use of a facsimile signature as provided in that regulation.

(s) Restoration of inventories. An operator may use an allotment number or symbol or preference rating authorized under this order to restore his inventory to a practicable working minimum. However, an operator may not secure replacements which would result in surplus material as defined in Preference Rating Order P–98–c as amended.

(t) Restrictions. An operator may not use the allotment number or symbol or the preference ratings authorized under this order to obtain material:

(1) For any purpose other than a purpose authorized under this order or in greater amounts or on earlier dates than required for any authorized purpose.

(2) Which can be secured without the use of an allotment number or symbol or preference rating.

(3) The use of which could be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of less scarce material, or by change of design.

(4) In such amounts or on such dates that receipt of such amounts on the requested dates would result in surplus material as defined in Preference Rating Order P–98–c, as amended.

(5) Unless such operator is a participant in the PAW Materials Redistribution Program No. 2, if participation by the operator in this program is required.

(u) Applicability of other orders and regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected hereby, except as herein otherwise provided, are subject to all orders and regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) None of the provisions of CMP Regulation Nos. 2, 5, or 6 (or the limitations incorporated in any CMP Regulation which otherwise would subject an operator to the provisions of CMP Regulation Nos. 2, 5, or 6) shall apply to an operator and no operator shall obtain any material under or be limited by the provisions of such regulations or limitations. The provisions of paragraphs (i), (s), (s–1) and (u) of CMP Regulation No. 1 shall not apply to an operator who secures material in accordance with the provisions of this order. Other than as set forth in paragraph (c) (7) hereof, the provisions of Limitation Order L–41, as amended from time to time, shall not apply to an operator as such operator is limited by the provisions of that order.

(3) Any preference rating, other than a rating for MRO material, assigned pursuant to the provisions of this order is assigned in lieu of a preference rating under an order in the P–19 series. Any reference in any order of the War Production Board to an order in the P–19 series shall constitute a reference to a preference rating assigned pursuant to this order.

(4) Privileges granted by other orders and regulations of the War Production Board to persons on Schedule I of CMP Regulation 5 shall be considered as applicable to petroleum operators, other than operators to the extent that they are engaged in retail marketing, operating under this order. For example, Order E–5–a on gauges and precision measuring hand tools classifies a person on Schedule I or II of CMP Regulation 5 as an "approved user". With the stated exception, an operator covered by P–98–b is in identically the same position, Provided, That certification clauses in and all other provisions of such other orders are complied with.

(5) Where a preference rating or allotment symbol, or both, is permitted or is required to be used by any other "E", "L", "M", "P", or "U" order or any regulation of the War Production Board to obtain a specific item of material, it will not also be necessary to follow any procedure of this order to obtain that item of material.

(v) Further limitations on use of priorities assistance. The Petroleum Administration for War may issue in its own name further restrictions or limitations on the use of priorities assistance by operators in the petroleum industry.

(w) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order should, unless other directions are given, be addressed to the Petroleum Administration for War, Interior Building, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: P–98–b.

The addresses of the Petroleum Administration for War District Offices are set forth in Schedule D.

(x) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who willfully furnishes false information to the Petroleum Administration for War or the War Production Board in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 18th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

The items listed on this schedule may be delivered to operators without regard to preference ratings. No operator shall apply or extend any rating to get any of these items and no person selling any such item shall require a rating as a condition of sale.

Items on List A of Priorities Regulation 3:
Rock bits and core bits (rotary bits).
Tool joints.

SCHEDULE B

The procedure established by this schedule must be followed in order to request a rating for any item listed on it. Certain of these items are on List B of Priorities Regulation 3, and any rating secured under this procedure for such an item is not a blanket MRO rating and may be used to secure such item.

In order to request a rating under this procedure two copies of each delivery order (regardless of amount) must be submitted to the District Office of the PAW of the District in which the material will be used (or, if so desired by an operator in any branch of the industry other than production, for the District in which the operator's purchasing office is located). For each such delivery order, in addition to the statement which must regularly accompany an MRO delivery order submitted to PAW concerning the specific use to which the material will be put, the operator should include a detailed explanation of why he requires the particular item requested. An operator may not place a delivery order with a supplier covering these items until approval of such order has been returned to him. For convenience this will be referred to as the "special MRO procedure."

The following materials are covered by this schedule:

(a) Those items currently identified on (and more completely described in) List B of Priorities Regulation 3 as follows, and any equivalent items replacing them on revisions of that List B, when required as MRO material:

DESCRIPTION

Civilian defense devices.
Filing cabinets, wooden.
Fire protective equipment.
Furniture for use in offices, factories, industrial establishments and institutions, except furniture specifically designed for schools.
Medical, surgical and dental equipment and supplies (except parts for the maintenance or repair of existing equipment.)
Medical, surgical and dental instruments.
Slide rules, precision engineering, having a list price of $7.50 or more.
Venetian blinds.

(b) Construction machinery and equipment (on Schedule B of Order L–192) costing in excess of $500, when required as MRO material or as material for use in production.

SCHEDULE C

The special MRO procedure of Schedule B may be used to request a rating for only those items on List B of Priorities Regulation 3 as MRO material which are listed on that schedule. Many of the other items on List B of Priorities Regulation 3 may be secured without a preference rating and every attempt should be made to do so. If a rating is required for any of these remaining items or for any other item which cannot be secured with a blanket MRO rating, it should be applied for on Form WPB–541 (PD–1A), filed with the nearest WPB Field Office.

There are two general exceptions to this rule. In the first place, laboratory instruments and equipment may be obtained under the regular MRO procedure of this order. And secondly, the forms indicated below will be used for the items there listed.

Item	Preference rating form	Release or scheduling form	Filing instructions
(a) Cellophane	WPB–541		File with nearest WPB Field Office.
(b) Gas cylinders (as defined in M–293).	WPB–541		File with nearest WPB Field Office.
(c) Liquefied petroleum gas storage tanks.	WPB–541		File with nearest WPB Field Office.
(d) Steel shipping drums (as defined in L–197).	WPB–3233	WPB–3233	File with PAW, Washington, Ref: P–98–b.
(e) Wooden shipping containers (as defined in L–222, P–140).	WPB–2408		File WPB–2408 with PAW, Washington, Ref: P–98–b. File this form only if the preference ratings of P–140 are not sufficiently high to obtain delivery at the time the material is needed.
(f) Machine tools (as defined in E–1–b).	WPB–541		File with nearest WPB Field Office.

SCHEDULE D—INSTRUCTIONS FOR DIRECTING COMMUNICATIONS TO DISTRICT OFFICES

District 1: (Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, District of Columbia). Direct communications to Petroleum Administration for War, 1104 Chanin Building, 122 East 42nd Street, New York 17, New York. Ref: P–98–b.

District 2: (Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota). Direct communications to Petroleum Administration for War, 1200 Blum Building, 624 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago 5, Illinois (or) 410 Beacon Building, 406 South Boulder Avenue, Tulsa 3, Oklahoma. Ref: P–98–b.

District 3: (Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, New Mexico). Direct communications to Petroleum Administration for War, 245 Mellie Esperson Building, Houston 1, Texas. Ref: P–98–b.

District 4: (Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Idaho). Direct communications to Petroleum Administration for War, 320 First National Bank Building, Denver 2, Colorado. Ref: P–98–b.

District 5: (Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Territory of Alaska). Direct communications to Petroleum Administration for War, 855 Subway Terminal Building, Los Angeles 13, California. Ref: P–98–b.

PART 3114—SIMPLIFICATION AND STANDARDIZATION OF PORTABLE TOOLS, CHUCKING EQUIPMENT, MECHANIC'S HAND SERVICE TOOLS, FILES, HACK AND BAND-SAWS, VISES, AND MACHINE TOOL ACCESSORIES

[Limitation Order L–216, Schedule VI as Amended Mar. 18, 1944]

VISES

§ 3114.7 Schedule VI of Limitation Order L–216—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule and the table attached hereto:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) Names of various types of vises shall have the same meaning as in Federal Specifications GGG–V–436–a, and the illustrations in such specifications shall be deemed the graphic descriptions of the vises referred to; provided, however, that none of the other provisions of such specifications shall be controlling.

(3) "Jaw cap" means the cap designed to be placed across the face of the jaw of a vise to cover the surface of the jaws.

(b) Manufacture of jaw caps. No person shall perform any manufacturing operation upon or sell any jaw caps made of any metal other than lead or lead base alloy.

(c) Limitation on manufacture of vises. (1) No person shall use in the manufacture of vises any metals other than carbon or alloy steel or cast or malleable iron.

(2) No person shall manufacture any vise of any of the types listed in Table 1, except in the jaw sizes there specified.

(d) Exceptions. Nothing contained in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this schedule shall be deemed to prohibit the sale of jaw caps or vises which on January 4, 1944, were completely fabricated, nor to prohibit the manufacture and sale of jaw caps or vises which on January 4, 1944, had been so fabricated that completion in compliance with the provisions of this schedule would be impracticable. Each person who shall manufacture or sell any jaw cap or vise under the terms of this exception, shall keep and maintain, subject to inspection by the War Production Board, accurate records with respect to each such transaction.

(e) Manufacture of repair parts. Nothing contained in paragraph (c) of this schedule shall be deemed to prevent the manufacture of repair parts for vises, notwithstanding the fact that the vises for which such parts are made do not conform to the limitations set forth in this schedule. No person shall assemble repair parts so produced into a complete vise, but shall use them only for the purpose of replacing parts of vises which are broken or so badly worn that they are no longer serviceable.

Issued this 18th day of March 1944.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 2, Interpretation 2]

PROMPT CANCELLATION AND SPECIAL ITEMS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 2:

(a) CMP Regulation No. 2 requires a user of controlled material to promptly cancel, postpone, or reduce delivery when his requirements of controlled materials are reduced. Such cancellations must be made as rapidly after he discovers that his requirements are reduced as is practicable.

(b) Paragraph (c) (4) of the regulation permits the receipt of a special item of controlled material in greater amounts than presently needed under the following circumstances: (1) if the user has promptly instructed the producer to reduce or postpone the delivery of the item and (2) if the user has received from the producer a statement that the item is a special item on which production has been begun and that the producer must complete a minimum amount in order to prevent undue loss in production. This exception applies only to special items the user will need and does not permit acceptance of items which will not be needed at all.

(c) Before a producer may deliver such special items he must notify his customer in writing that the item is a special item stating the amount which is the minimum amount he must complete without undue loss of production. The customer is entitled to rely on this notice and need make no further inquiries. A special item, as the term is used in the regulation, means one that the producer does not usually make, stock or sell, and which he cannot readily dispose of in the course of his business. An item which is a special item to one producer may not be a special item to another producer.

(d) The producer, on receipt of a notice from his customer to reduce or postpone delivery, must be diligent in taking the special item out of his schedule or in stopping production if it has already been started.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 3, Direction 5, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 3:

(a) Since "automotive replacement parts" (as defined under Code 105 CMP Products List appearing in "Products and Priorities") are classified as B products, they are subject to the general rule that no person may make an allotment to a producer for their production, as explained in paragraph (g) (3) of CMP Regulation No. 1. However, as an exception to this rule, they may be treated as A products if each of the following conditions is satisfied: (1) The manufacturer of the part specifically asks his customer to treat it as an A product instead of a B product; (2) the product is of a type which is not used exclusively or primarily as an automotive part; and (3) the product is not separately listed as a B product in the official CMP Product List, but is only included under the general heading of "automotive replacement parts". For example, a nut may not be treated as Class A, because "nuts" are separately listed in the CMP Products List. A spark plug may not be treated as Class A, because it is used principally in the automotive industry. On the other hand, a spring may be treated as Class A, since springs are used for many other purposes, even if the particular spring is designed for use only in automotive vehicles.

(b) Paragraph (b) (1) of CMP Regulation 3 permits preference ratings for production materials to be used within certain limits to get items which are purchased to round out a line. This does not apply to any automotive replacement parts except those which are treated as A products as permitted by paragraph (a) above.

(c) The same product may be a Class A product or an automotive replacement part depending on whether it is sold for use in production or as a repair part. This direction has no application to automotive parts which are sold for use in making new vehicles or new subassemblies of vehicles.

(d) Interpretation 7 of CMP Regulation No. 1, regarding Class A repair parts, does not apply to automotive replacement parts.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 5, Interpretation 11]

PURCHASER'S COST OF LABOR FOR MINOR CAPITAL ADDITIONS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 5:

Paragraph (b) (3) permits the use of the MRO symbol and rating to get minor capital additions which cost not more than $500 "excluding the purchaser's cost of labor". The labor costs which may be disregarded in this connection are the services of the purchaser's own regular employees, additional employees hired for installing new equipment or doing construction, and fees paid to independent contractors who install equipment or do construction where, under normal business practices, the fee is paid primarily for services as distinct from materials. For example, if a purchaser of a piece of machinery costing $500 pays the seller an additional installation fee of $50 which is normally a separate charge, if he hires an independent contractor to install the machinery for $50, the $50 payment may be disregarded even though the seller or independent contractor furnishes a few minor material additions such as wiring or pipe connections, bracing, etc. On the other hand, if the purchaser hires a building contractor to construct an addition to his plant, under circumstances where the contractor would normally charge a single fee including building materials, labor and the contractor's profit, the total fee must be included in the cost and the contractor's labor may not be deducted, since the contractor is paid primarily for the completed addition rather than for the labor of installing property separately purchased. Likewise, if the seller normally makes a single charge including installation, this cost of installation must be included.

Direction 15 explains the rules for buying $500 worth of materials needed for installation or relocation of equipment which is not bought by use of the MRO rating or symbol. In that case, the same principles apply in determining what labor costs are to be included.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Limitation Order L-103, Schedule C, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION; GLASS CONTAINERS FOR CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS

§ 3270.49 Schedule C to Limitation Order L-103—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this schedule:

"Standard glass container" means any container constructed in accordance with the specifications and design prescribed by any exhibit set forth in Drawings 1 to 15, inclusive, annexed to Order L-103, which possesses the finish prescribed for such exhibit or, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) hereof, any other finish which is interchanged therewith in accordance with paragraph (g) of Limitation Order L-103.

(Note that in accordance with the footnotes to Drawings 7, 8, 9 and 13 glass containers conforming to the specifications of the following exhibits constitute "standard glass containers" for the purposes of this schedule only if they are manufactured before December 20, 1943—16-80, 16-81, 17-09, 17-11, 17-22, 17-76, 18-08, 18-14, 51-87, 51-89, 51-93, 51-95, 51-97, 51-99.)

(b) Restrictions on use. (1) With the exceptions set forth in paragraph (c) of this schedule, on and after July 4, 1943, no person shall use a glass container for the packing for sale of any product listed in the annexed table, except a standard glass container, having a capacity equal to or greater than that specified for such product in column II of said table.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (g) of Order L-103, no person shall use for the packing for sale of any product listed in the table annexed to this schedule any glass container with a "deep screw cap" finish, except as specifically permitted by an exhibit authorized for such product.

(c) Exceptions. (1) Nothing in this schedule shall prevent the use, for the packing of any product listed in the annexed table, of any glass containers which were completely manufactured before the 4th day of July 1943.

(2) Nothing in this schedule shall restrict the sale, delivery, use or manufacture of glass containers with a capacity larger than 140 fluid ounces, of designs that existed on May 11, 1942.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall prohibit any person who packed less than a total of 5,000 containers with all of the products listed in the annexed table during the calendar year 1942 from purchasing, accepting delivery of, or using without restriction, during any subsequent calendar year, a maximum of 5,000 glass containers for packing such products.

(4) Except as specifically permitted by the drawings and exhibits annexed to Order L-103 molded lettering or decoration on standard glass containers for the respective products listed in said table shall be limited to the manufacturers' identification (which may include trademark, name, symbol), place of manufacture, date of manufacture by year, design number, and mold or cavity number.

(d) Manufacture. (1) No person shall manufacture, sell, or deliver any glass container which he knows, or has reason to believe, will be used in violation of any provision of this schedule.

(2) On and after the 5th day of April 1943, no molds may be manufactured for a container for any of the products listed in the annexed table which does not conform to the specifications of a standard glass container usable for such product, nor may any mold for a container for a product listed in the annexed table be replaced—whether because of wear or for any other reason—except by a mold which conforms to said specifications.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3281—PULP AND PAPER

[General Conservation Order M-294, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

WASTE MANILA ROPE AND MANILA FIBRE OF THE T-2, T-3, O, Y AND EQUIVALENT GRADES

§ 3281.71 General Conservation Order M-294—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Waste manila rope" means used manila rope, which is acquired for any purpose whatsoever excepting only that which is acquired for reuse as rope. The material resulting from any shredding, parting or other type of separation of the strands or fibres of used manila rope shall be deemed to be "waste manila rope".

(2) "Manila fibre" means fibre grades of T-2, T-3, O, Y or equivalent as established by the Insular Government of the Philippine Islands.

(3) "Permitted use" means with respect to each grade or type of paper designated on List A, the uses described for such paper on List A.

(4) "No. 1 large waste manila rope" means solid, clean, dry, sound manila rope not less than ¾" in diameter, free from any inferior or objectionable materials, such as tarred and transmission ropes; dirty, black, painted, greasy, oily, oil smeared, and latex treated rope or coal dust; rope wholly or partly composed of fibers other than manila and such materials as tender fiber, knots, nets, yarns, strands, shakings, cord, string, or other unsound fibers.

(5) "No. 1 small waste manila rope" means the same rope as defined in paragraph (a) (3), except that the rope may be less than ¾" in diameter.

(6) "Uncut manila fenders" means uncut manila fenders obtained from boats and docks, packed separately and free of mats, iron, grease, rubber, tender and other foreign materials.

(b) Limitations on sale or use of waste manila rope and manila fibre. (1) No person shall use waste manila rope or manila fibre as a raw material in the manufacture of any product or products other than in the manufacture of rope or in the manufacture of paper.

(2) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of any grade or type of paper other than the grades and types of paper shown on List A.

(3) No person shall sell waste manila rope or manila fibre if he knows or has reason to believe such raw material will be used in the manufacture of any product or products other than in the manufacture of rope or in the manufacture of paper.

(4) No person shall sell waste manila rope if he knows or has reason to believe such materials will be used in the manufacture of any grade or type of paper other than the grades or types of paper shown on List A.

(5) No person shall use manila fibre in the manufacture of any grade or type of paper other than the grades and types of paper shown on List B.

(6) No person shall sell manila fibre if he knows or has reason to believe such material will be used in the manufacture of any grade or type of paper other than the grades or types of paper shown on List B.

(c) Limitation on use of grades and types of paper shown on List A or List B. No person who accepts delivery of any grade or type of paper shown on List A or List B in which waste manila rope or manila fibre is used as a raw material shall use the same for any purpose or use other than the permitted uses for such grade or type of paper shown on List A or List B, except that this restriction shall not apply to any grade or type of paper containing waste manila rope, manufactured prior to March 19, 1943.

(d) Limitations on use of waste manila rope in the manufacture of flour and cereal sack papers. (1) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of paper for flour or cereal products sacks to an extent in excess of 45% of the total fibre content of such paper; Provided, however, That the amount of waste manila rope used by him in the manufacture of such paper during any one month shall not exceed 45% of the amount used by him in the manufacture of such paper during the month of December 1942.

(2) No person shall use No. 1 large waste manila rope (as defined in paragraph (a) (4)) or No. 1 small waste manila rope (as defined in paragraph (a) (5)) or uncut manila fenders (as defined in paragraph (a) (6) of this order), to an extent in excess of 35% of the total fibre content of such paper; Provided, however, That the amount of No. 1 large waste manila rope, No. 1 small waste manila rope or uncut manila fenders used by him in the manufacture of such paper during any one month shall not exceed 35% of the amount used by him in the manufacture of such paper during the month of December 1942.

(3) [Deleted Mar. 20, 1944]

(e) Limitation on use of waste manila rope in the manufacture of abrasive paper. (1) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of abrasive paper to an extent in excess of 25% of the total fibre content of such paper, and none of the waste manila rope so used shall be of the grades known as No. 1 large old manila rope or No. 1 small old manila rope or uncut manila fenders.

NOTE: Former subparagraph (1) deleted; former subparagraph (2) redesignated (1) Mar. 20, 1944.

(f) Obligation to examine and refuse certain orders. (1) No person using waste manila rope in the manufacture of the grades and types of paper shown on List A shall sell or deliver any such paper which he knows or has reason to know will be used for any other purpose or use other than a permitted use.

(2) No person using manila fibre in the manufacture of grades and types of paper shown on List B shall sell or deliver any such paper which he knows or has reason to know will be used for any other purpose other than a permitted use.

(g) Exceptions. Specific authorization may be granted by the War Production Board for use of waste manila rope in the manufacture of any product or products for delivery to the Armed Forces or for use in the manufacture of any material or equipment for delivery to the Armed Forces when such product or products, material or equipment cannot be satisfactorily produced from other available fibres. Applications for such authorization shall be made by filing a letter with the War Production Board, Pulp Allocation Office, Ref: M-294, stating fully the reasons for requesting such authorization.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds for appeal.

(j) Communication. All reports required to be filed hereunder, or communications concerning this order or any schedule issued supplementary hereto shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Pulp Allocation Office, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. M-294.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS [1]

[Limitation Order L-290, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

DELIVERIES OF WESTERN LUMBER FROM SAWMILL STOCK

Section 3285.16 [1] Limitation Order L-290 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3285.16 [1] Limitation Order L-290—(a) What this order does. This order regulates the transfer or delivery of certain kinds of western lumber from sawmill stock by lumber producers. It confines deliveries to those made for certain classes of essential uses and for uses which may be expressly authorized by the War Production Board.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted western lumber" means any sawed lumber of any size or grade, including round edge, rough, dressed on one or more sides or edges, dressed and matched, shiplapped, worked to pattern, or grooved for splines of the following species produced in Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, or South Dakota: Ponderosa pine, Idaho white pine, sugar pine, lodgepole pine, white fir (except white fir produced west of the crest of the Cascade mountain range in the States of Oregon and Washington), Western white spruce, and Engelmann spruce. However, the term does not include:

(i) Shingles, lath, slabs, railroad cross ties or switch ties, mine ties;

(ii) Edgings, trims and off-fall less than three inches wide or less than four feet long unless produced for the purposes of evading this order; and

(iii) Used lumber.

(2) "Producer" means:

(i) Any sawmill which produces currently over 10,000 feet, board measure, of any one or more species of lumber (whether lumber restricted by this order or not) per average day of eight hours of continuous operation, or which produced an average of over 10,000 feet of such lumber per day during the days when it was in operation from June 3, 1943, to December 3, 1943. A sawmill producing a smaller amount of lumber per day may at its election also be classed as a "producer".

(ii) "Producer" does not include any establishment known in the trade as a distribution yard engaged either in the retail or wholesale business, even though such a yard may process more than 25 percent of the volume of lumber it receives for the servicing of special orders from customers.

(3) "Sawmill stock" means any restricted western lumber in the possession of a "producer". Restricted western lumber which the producer has delivered to others or transferred to his own use is no longer part of "sawmill stock" if the delivery or transfer is permitted by the WPB under this order or otherwise.

(4) "War agency" means the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, Veterans Administration, and any agency of the United States Government placing orders for material or equipment to be delivered to or for the account of any other country under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(c) General restrictions. No person shall sell, ship, deliver, or dispose of, and no person shall accept delivery of, any restricted western lumber out of the "sawmill stock" of a "producer" unless authorized or permitted in one of the ways stated below. This restriction applies to any transfer from a person's "sawmill stock" to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, box factory, or other plant where fabricated products made from lumber, rather than lumber products, are produced.

(1) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any person for whom the Central Procuring Agency, Procurement Division, of the United States Corps of Engineers, has issued a notification on a purchase inquiry known as a "purchase allocation". The delivery may be made on the basis of such a "purchase allocation" or on the basis of a certificate as prescribed in paragraph (d) (1) indicating that the person certifying has received a purchase allocation.

(2) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any War Agency as defined in paragraph (b) (4), or to, or for the account of any contractor or sub-contractor for a War Agency, if the lumber is required to fill an outstanding contract or purchase order of a War Agency for direct delivery to the War Agency, or for construction of a building, wharf, or other structure for a War Agency, or for incorporation into any material already ordered by or for a War Agency, or for packing, boxing, crating, or storing of any material already ordered by or for a War Agency. However, the delivery may not be made unless there is endorsed on the purchase order or contract a certificate as explained in paragraph (d) (2).

(3) Western lumber actually in transit on March 27, 1944, which was unrestricted before March 27, 1944, may be delivered to its ultimate destination.

(4) Delivery of "sawmill stock" between "producers" may be made freely.

(5) Delivery may be made as authorized on Form WPB 2720. See paragraph (e) for instructions as to the use of this form.

(6) Delivery may be made as authorized or directed by the War Production Board in a specific directive or in a direction, as explained in paragraph (h).

(d) Certificates that may be used to get restricted western lumber. Unless a directive or direction issued by the War Production Board says that it must be done in some other way, one of the following forms of certificate must be endorsed on or attached to the purchase order whenever, under this order, a certificate is required. The certificate prescribed in Priorities Regulations 3 and 7 may not be used instead.

(1) Certificates to be used by purchaser who has received a "purchase allocation."

The purchaser of this lumber certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that this lumber is required for Purchase Allocation Number ____ issued by the Central Procuring Agency, in compliance with paragraph (c) (1) of Limitation Order L-290, with which I am familiar and that the use of any rating shown on this purchase order is authorized.

(2) Certificate for requirements of War agency.

The purchaser of this lumber certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that this lumber is required for prime contract (or purchase order) Number ____ entered into by ____ War Agency

for use by ____ War Agency, Contractor or Sub-contractor

in compliance with paragraph (c) (2) of Limitation Order L-290 with which I am familiar and that the use of any rating shown on this purchase order is authorized.

Certificates must be retained in the seller's files for inspection by government representatives, and are legally made to the War Production Board as well as to the seller. Any false statement is punishable by fine and imprisonment. No person, who gets lumber delivered from a producer on a certificate, may use the lumber for any purpose except the purpose indicated on the certificate.

If for any reason a purchaser is unable to use lumber for the purposes stated in the certificate, he must apply on Form WPB 2720 for permission to use the lumber for other purposes. A seller may rely on the statements made to him in a certificate only if he does not know or have reason to believe that they are false. The above provisions apply also to any form of certificate which may be prescribed in a directive or direction under this order.

(e) Use of Form WPB 2720 for permission to get delivery. (1) Persons, including distributors, not entitled to use one of the certificates provided for in this order or in a direction issued pursuant to this order who wish to have permission from the War Production Board to get lumber either directly or indirectly from a "producer" may apply for such permission on Form WPB 2720. Before applying to the War Production Board the person should first place a purchase order with a "producer."

(2) As soon as the "producer" has indicated that he can or will deliver the lumber, the person wishing to get it should then file Form WPB 2720 with the War Production Board. The name and address of the "producer" should be indicated in the space provided for "producer" and all information called for on the form should be fully supplied. If the War Production Board approves the application, it will be noted on the form and copies will be returned to the applicant and the "producer."

(3) Whenever a person wishes to dispose of restricted western lumber out of his own "sawmill stock" at retail or transfer any such lumber to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, mill work plant, box factory or other plant where fabricated products rather than lumber are made, permission must first be obtained from the War Production Board by applying on Form WPB 2720. The form should be filled out as if the person were a receiver, and "Special Instructions for Producers" on the top of the reverse side of the form should be disregarded. Persons having "sawmill stocks" may apply on Form WPB 2720 quarterly or at more frequent intervals for permission to sell lumber at retail or transfer it to their distribution yards or other plants. After permission has been granted the person may dispose of or transfer only the quantities permitted on the approved form. Except in cases of emergency, producers should not apply on Form WPB 2720 for any other purpose.

(4) In approving any application on Form WPB 2720, the War Production Board may write on the form conditions restricting the delivery, resale, or use of the lumber, and such restrictions shall be binding not only on the applicant but also on all persons who know or have reason to believe that the restrictions exist.

(f) Limitation on purchase for construction. In addition to the above restrictions, no person shall purchase from a producer any of the following grades of restricted western lumber for use in the erection, construction, reconstruction, restoration or remodeling of any building, structure or project (including lumber for additions or extensions and maintenance or repair, and including lumber for production of fabricated articles used in construction such as doors, windows, sashes and the like, except as may be specifically authorized under paragraph (c) (5) of this order, or upon the direction of the War Production Board pursuant to paragraph (h), of this order; No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, No. 4, No. 5 common; inch shop, 5/4 and thicker No. 2 shop and 5/4 and thicker No. 3 shop; No. 1 box, No. 2 box; No. 1 dimension, No. 2 dimension.

(g) Inventory restrictions. No person may accept delivery of restricted western lumber if his inventory is, or by reason of such acceptance, would become in excess of a 90-day supply, except that a 90-day supply may be exceeded to the extent necessary to receive delivery under existing minimum carloading regulations, and he may accept any amount he is authorized to accept on Form WPB 2720, or any other applicable form, or under the provisions of any directive or direction under this order.

(h) Directives and directions. The term "directive" as used in this order means written instructions to a specific firm or individual on the delivery or use of western lumber. The term "direction" means published instructions to a group or class. The War Production Board may issue directions or directives allocating specific quantities or percentages of production or shipments to specified persons or classes or for specified uses. It may also direct how and in what quantity delivery to specified persons or classes or uses may be made. It may direct distribution to particular areas and may direct or prohibit the production by any persons of particular items of restricted western lumber. Directions and directives may supersede any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contractors. Directions and directives will be issued in accordance with approved programs for the satisfaction of war and essential civilian requirements, and in order to carry out more fully the purposes of this order.

(i) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time except where otherwise stated.

(j) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by mailing a letter to the War Production Board referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed as follows: Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–290.

This order shall take effect on March 27, 1944.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

Recording Secretary.

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Conservation Order M-361, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

DELIVERIES OF SOUTHERN YELLOW PINE LUMBER FROM SAWMILL STOCK

Section 3285.101 Conservation Order M–361 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3285.101 Conservation Order M–361—(a) What this order does. This order regulates the transfer or delivery of certain kinds of southern yellow pine lumber from sawmill stock by lumber producers and by wholesalers who get lumber from producers under this order. It confines deliveries to those made for certain classes of essential uses and for uses which may be expressly authorized by the War Production Board.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted southern yellow pine lumber" means any sawed southern yellow pine lumber of any size or grade, including round edge, rough, dressed on one or more sides or edges, dressed and matched, shiplapped, worked to pattern, or grooved for splines. However, the term does not include:

(i) Shingles, lath, slabs, railroad cross ties or switch ties, mine ties;

(ii) Edgings, trims and off-fall less than three inches wide or less than four feet long unless produced for the purposes of evading this order; and

(iii) Used lumber.

(2) "Producer" means:

(i) Any sawmill which produces currently over five thousand feet, board measure, of any one or more species of lumber (whether lumber restricted by this order or not) per average day of eight hours of continuous operation, or which produced an average of over five thousand feet of such lumber per day during the days when it was in operation from June 3, 1943, to December 3, 1943. A sawmill producing a smaller amount of lumber per day may at its election also be classed as a "producer."

(ii) "Producer" also includes any concentration yard or plant other than a sawmill, however large or small its output may be, if it is located in an area where restricted southern yellow pine lumber is produced, and processes by drying, sawing, edging, planing, or other comparable method 25 percent or more of the total volume of logs and lumber received by it, and if it sells or otherwise disposes of the product of such processing as lumber.

(iii) "Producer" does not include any establishment known in the trade as a distribution yard engaged either in the retail or wholesale business, even though such a yard may process more than 25 percent of the volume of lumber it receives for the servicing of special orders from customers.

(3) "Sawmill stock" means any restricted southern yellow pine lumber in the possession of a "producer". Restricted southern yellow pine lumber which the producer has delivered to others or transferred to his own use is no longer part of "sawmill stock" if the delivery or transfer is permitted by the War Production Board under this order or otherwise.

(4) "War agency" means the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, Veterans Administration, and any agency of the United States Government placing orders for material or equipment to be delivered to or for the account of any other country under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(c) General restrictions. No person shall sell, ship, deliver, or dispose of, and no person shall accept delivery of, any restricted southern yellow pine lumber out of the "sawmill stock" of a "producer" unless authorized or permitted in one of the ways stated below. This restriction applies to any transfer from a person's "sawmill stock" to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, box factory, or other plant where fabricated products made from lumber, rather than lumber products, are produced for his own use or for resale.

(1) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any person for whom the Central Procuring Agency, Procurement Division of the United States Corps of Engineers, has issued a notification on a purchase inquiry known as a "purchase allocation." The delivery may be made on the basis of such a "purchase allocation" or on the basis of a certificate as prescribed in paragraph (d) (1) indicating that the person certifying has received a purchase allocation.

(2) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any War agency as defined in paragraph (b) (4), or to, or for the account of any contractor or sub-contractor for a War agency, if the lumber is required to fill an outstanding contract or purchase order of a War agency for direct delivery to the War agency, or for construction of a building, wharf, or other structure for a War agency, or for incorporation into any material already ordered by or for a War agency, or for packing, boxing, crating, or stowing of any material already ordered by or for a War agency. However, the delivery may not be made unless there is endorsed on the purchase order or contract a certificate as explained in paragraph (d) (2).

(3) Southern yellow pine lumber actually in transit on March 27, 1944, which was unrestricted before March 27, 1944, may be delivered to its ultimate destination.

(4) Delivery of "sawmill stock" between "producers" may be made freely.

(5) Delivery may be made as authorized on Form WPB 2720. See paragraph (e) for instructions as to the use of this form.

(6) Delivery may be made as authorized or directed by the War Production Board in a specific directive or in a direction, as explained in paragraph (g).

(d) Certificates that may be used to get restricted Southern yellow pine. Unless a directive or direction issued by the War Production Board says that it must be done in some other way, one of the following forms of certificate must be endorsed on or attached to the purchase order whenever, under this order, a certificate is required. The certificate prescribed in Priorities Regulations 3 and 7 may not be used instead.

(1) Certificates to be used by purchaser who has received a "purchase allocation."

Certificates must be retained in the sellers files for inspection by government representatives, and are legally made to the War Production Board as well as to the seller. Any false statement is punishable by fine and imprisonment. No person, whether or not he was the person who purchased the lumber, may use the lumber for any purpose except the purpose indicated on the certificate. If for any reason a purchaser is unable to use lumber for the purposes stated in the certificate, he must apply on Form WPB 2720 for permission to use the lumber for other purposes. A seller may rely on the statements made to him in a certificate only if he does not know or have reason to believe that they are false. The above provisions apply also to any form of certificate which may be prescribed in a directive or direction under this order.

(e) Use of Form WPB 2720 for permission to get delivery. (1) Persons including distributors, not entitled to use one of the certificates provided for in this order or in a direction issued pursuant to this order who wish to have permission from the War Production Board to get lumber either directly or indirectly from a "producer" may apply for such permission on Form WPB 2720. Before applying to the War Production Board the person should first place a purchase order with the supplier who may be either a "producer" or a wholesaler, or agent.

(2) As soon as the supplier has indicated that he can or will deliver the lumber, the person wishing to get it should then file Form WPB 2720 with the War Production Board. The name and address of the supplier should be indicated in the space provided for "producer" and all information called for on the form should be fully supplied. If the War Production Board approves the application, it will be noted on the form and copies will be returned to the applicant and the supplier.

(3) If a wholesaler or agent wants to get restricted southern yellow pine lumber from a "producer" for delivery to a specific customer, as distinct from putting it in his own inventory, he must get his customer to make an application to the War Production Board on Form 2720. The application should be made out the same way as explained in paragraph (e) (2). The War Production Board, if it grants the authorization, will send it both to the customer and to the wholesaler or agent, and he may get lumber from any producer, using the form of certification prescribed in paragraph (d) (3). This provision takes the place of Direction 2 to this order.

(4) Whenever a person wishes to dispose of restricted southern yellow pine lumber out of his own "sawmill stock" at retail or transfer any such lumber to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, mill work plant, box factory or other plant where fabricated products rather than lumber are made, permission must first be obtained from the War Production Board by applying on Form WPB 2720. The form should be filled out as if the person were a receiver, and "Special Instructions for Producers" on the top of the reverse side of the form should be disregarded. Persons having "sawmill stocks" may apply on Form WPB 2720 quarterly or at more frequent intervals for permission to sell lumber at retail or transfer it to their distribution yards or other plants. After permission has been granted the person may dispose of or transfer only the quantities permitted on the approved form. Except in cases of emergency, producers should not apply on Form WPB 2720 for any other purpose.

(5) In approving any application on Form WPB 2720, the War Production Board may write on the form conditions restricting the delivery, resale, or use of the lumber, and such restrictions shall be binding not only on the applicant but also on all persons who know or have reason to believe that the restrictions exist.

(f) Inventory restrictions. No person may accept delivery of restricted southern yellow pine lumber if his inventory is, or by reason of such acceptance, would become in excess of a 90-day supply, except that a 90-day supply may be exceeded to the extent necessary to receive delivery under existing minimum carloading regulations, and he may accept any amount he is authorized to accept on Form WPB 2720, or any other applicable form, or under the provisions of any directive or direction under this order.

(g) Directives and directions. The term "directive" as used in this order means written instructions to a specific firm or individual on the delivery or use of southern yellow pine lumber. The term "direction" means published instructions to a group or class; for example, Direction 1 to this order applying to all farm machinery manufacturers. The War Production Board may issue directions or directives allocating specific quantities or percentages of production or shipments to specified persons or classes or for specified uses. It may also direct how and in what quantity delivery to specified persons or classes or uses may be made. It may direct distribution to particular areas and may direct or prohibit the production by any persons of particular items of restricted southern yellow pine lumber. Directions and directives may supersede any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contractors. Directions and directives will be issued in accordance with approved programs for the satisfaction of war and essential civilian requirements, and in order to carry out more fully the purposes of this order.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time except where otherwise stated.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by mailing a letter to the War Production Board referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed as follows: Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–290.

This order shall take effect on March 27, 1944.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3288—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Conservation Order M-364, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

DELIVERIES OF SOUTHERN YELLOW PINE LUMBER FROM SAWMILL STOCK

Section 3288.101 Conservation Order M–364 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3288.101 Conservation Order M–364—(a) What this order does. This order regulates the transfer or delivery of certain kinds of southern yellow pine lumber from sawmill stock by lumber producers and by wholesalers who get lumber from producers under this order. It confines deliveries to those made for certain classes of essential uses and for uses which may be expressly authorized by the War Production Board.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted southern yellow pine lumber" means any sawed southern yellow pine lumber of any size or grade, including round edge, rough, dressed on one or more sides or edges, dressed and matched, shiplapped, worked to pattern, or grooved for splines. However, the term does not include:

(i) Shingles, lath, slabs, railroad cross ties or switch ties, mine ties;

(ii) Edgings, trims and off-fall less than three inches wide or less than four feet long unless produced for the purposes of evading this order; and

(iii) Used lumber.

(2) "Producer" means:

(i) Any sawmill which produces currently over five thousand feet, board measure, of any one or more species of lumber (whether lumber restricted by this order or not) per average day of eight hours of continuous operation, or which produced an average of over five thousand feet of such lumber per day during the days when it was in operation from June 3, 1943, to December 3, 1943. A sawmill producing a smaller amount of lumber per day may at its election also be classed as a "producer."

(ii) "Producer" also includes any concentration yard or plant other than a sawmill, however large or small its output may be, if it is located in an area where restricted southern yellow pine lumber is produced, and processes by drying, sawing, edging, planing, or other comparable method 25 percent or more of the total volume of logs and lumber received by it, and if it sells or otherwise disposes of the product of such processing as lumber.

(iii) "Producer" does not include any establishment known in the trade as a distribution yard engaged either in the retail or wholesale business, even though such a yard may process more than 25 percent of the volume of lumber it receives for the servicing of special orders from customers.

(3) "Sawmill stock" means any restricted southern yellow pine lumber in the possession of a "producer". Restricted southern yellow pine lumber which the producer has delivered to others or transferred to his own use is no longer part of "sawmill stock" if the delivery or transfer is permitted by the War Production Board under this order or otherwise.

(4) "War agency" means the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, Veterans Administration, and any agency of the United States Government placing orders for material or equipment to be delivered to or for the account of any other country under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(c) General restrictions. No person shall sell, ship, deliver, or dispose of, and no person shall accept delivery of, any restricted southern yellow pine lumber out of the "sawmill stock" of a "producer" unless authorized or permitted in one of the ways stated below. This restriction applies to any transfer from a person's "sawmill stock" to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, box factory, or other plant where fabricated products made from lumber, rather than lumber products, are produced for his own use or for resale.

(1) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any person for whom the Central Procuring Agency, Procurement Division of the United States Corps of Engineers, has issued a notification on a purchase inquiry known as a "purchase allocation." The delivery may be made on the basis of such a "purchase allocation" or on the basis of a certificate as prescribed in paragraph (d) (1) indicating that the person certifying has received a purchase allocation.

(2) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any War agency as defined in paragraph (b) (4), or to, or for the account of any contractor or sub-contractor for a War agency, if the lumber is required to fill an outstanding contract or purchase order of a War agency for direct delivery to the War agency, or for construction of a building, wharf, or other structure for a War agency, or for incorporation into any material already ordered by or for a War agency, or for packing, boxing, crating, or stowing of any material already ordered by or for a War agency. However, the delivery may not be made unless there is endorsed on the purchase order or contract a certificate as explained in paragraph (d) (2).

(3) Southern yellow pine lumber actually in transit on March 27, 1944, which was unrestricted before March 27, 1944, may be delivered to its ultimate destination.

(4) Delivery of "sawmill stock" between "producers" may be made freely.

(5) Delivery may be made as authorized on Form WPB 2720. See paragraph (e) for instructions as to the use of this form.

(6) Delivery may be made as authorized or directed by the War Production Board in a specific directive or in a direction, as explained in paragraph (g).

(d) Certificates that may be used to get restricted Southern yellow pine. Unless a directive or direction issued by the War Production Board says that it must be done in some other way, one of the following forms of certificate must be endorsed on or attached to the purchase order whenever, under this order, a certificate is required. The certificate prescribed in Priorities Regulations 3 and 7 may not be used instead.

(1) Certificates to be used by purchaser who has received a "purchase allocation."

The purchaser of this lumber certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that t is lumber is required for Purchase Allocation Number ____ issued by the Central Procuring Agency, in compliance with paragraph (c) (1) of Conservation Order M-364, with which I am familiar and that the use of any rating shown on this purchase order is authorized.

Certificates must be retained in the sellers files for inspection by government representatives, and are legally made to the War Production Board as well as to the seller. Any false statement is punishable by fine and imprisonment. No person, whether or not he was the person who purchased the lumber, may use the lumber for any purpose except the purpose indicated on the certificate. If for any reason a purchaser is unable to use lumber for the purposes stated in the certificate, he must apply on Form WPB 2720 for permission to use the lumber for other purposes. A seller may rely on the statements made to him in a certificate only if he does not know or have reason to believe that they are false. The above provisions apply also to any form of certificate which may be prescribed in a directive or direction under this order.

(e) Use of Form WPB 2720 for permission to get delivery. (1) Persons including distributors, not entitled to use one of the certificates provided for in this order or in a direction issued pursuant to this order who wish to have permission from the War Production Board to get lumber either directly or indirectly from a "producer" may apply for such permission on Form WPB 2720. Before applying to the War Production Board the person should first place a purchase order with the supplier who may be either a "producer" or a wholesaler, or agent.

(2) As soon as the supplier has indicated that he can or will deliver the lumber, the person wishing to get it should then file Form WPB 2720 with the War Production Board. The name and address of the supplier should be indicated in the space provided for "producer" and all information called for on the form should be fully supplied. If the War Production Board approves the application, it will be noted on the form and copies will be returned to the applicant and the supplier.

(3) If a wholesaler or agent wants to get restricted southern yellow pine lumber from a "producer" for delivery to a specific customer, as distinct from putting it in his own inventory, he must get his customer to make an application to the War Production Board on Form 2720. The application should be made out the same way as explained in paragraph (e) (2). The War Production Board, if it grants the authorization, will send it both to the customer and to the wholesaler or agent, and he may get lumber from any producer, using the form of certification prescribed in paragraph (d) (3). This provision takes the place of Direction 2 to this order.

(4) Whenever a person wishes to dispose of restricted southern yellow pine lumber out of his own "sawmill stock" at retail or transfer any such lumber to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, mill work plant, box factory or other plant where fabricated products rather than lumber are made, permission must first be obtained from the War Production Board by applying on Form WPB 2720. The form should be filled out as if the person were a receiver, and "Special Instructions for Producers" on the top of the reverse side of the form should be disregarded. Persons having "sawmill stocks" may apply on Form WPB 2720 quarterly or at more frequent intervals for permission to sell lumber at retail or transfer it to their distribution yards or other plants. After permission has been granted the person may dispose of or transfer only the quantities permitted on the approved form. Except in cases of emergency, producers should not apply on Form WPB 2720 for any other purpose.

(5) In approving any application on Form WPB 2720, the War Production Board may write on the form conditions restricting the delivery, resale, or use of the lumber, and such restrictions shall be binding not only on the applicant but also on all persons who know or have reason to believe that the restrictions exist.

(f) Inventory restrictions. No person may accept delivery of restricted southern yellow pine lumber if his inventory is, or by reason of such acceptance, would become in excess of a 90-day supply, except that a 90-day supply may be exceeded to the extent necessary to receive delivery under existing minimum carloading regulations, and he may accept any amount he is authorized to accept on Form WPB 2720, or any other applicable form, or under the provisions of any directive or direction under this order.

(g) Directives and directions. The term "directive" as used in this order means written instructions to a specific firm or individual on the delivery or use of southern yellow pine lumber. The term "direction" means published instructions to a group or class; for example, Direction 1 to this order applying to all farm machinery manufacturers. The War Production Board may issue directions or directives allocating specific quantities or percentages of production or shipments to specified persons or classes or for specified uses. It may also direct how and in what quantity delivery to specified persons or classes or uses may be made. It may direct distribution to particular areas and may direct or prohibit the production by any persons of particular items of restricted southern yellow pine lumber. Directions and directives may supersede any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contractors. Directions and directives will be issued in accordance with approved programs for the satisfaction of war and essential civilian requirements, and in order to carry out more fully the purposes of this order.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time except where otherwise stated.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by mailing a letter to the War Production Board referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed as follows: Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: M-361.

This order shall take effect on March 27, 1944.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Conservation Order M-364, as Amended Mar. 20, 1944]

DELIVERIES OF HARDWOOD LUMBER FROM SAWMILL STOCK

Section 3285.106 Conservation Order M-364 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3285.106 Conservation Order M-364—(a) What this order does. This order regulates the transfer or delivery of certain kinds of hardwood lumber from sawmill stock by lumber producers and by wholesalers who get lumber from producers under this order. It confines deliveries to those made for certain classes of essential uses and for uses which may be expressly authorized by the War Production Board.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted hardwood lumber" means any sawed hardwood lumber of any size or grade including round edge, rough, dressed on one or more sides or edges, dressed and matched, shiplapped, worked to pattern, or grooved for splines, of the following species: oak, ash, hickory and pecan, birch (except white birch produced in New England), hard maple, rock elm, and beech. However, the term does not include:

(i) Shingles, lath, slabs, railroad cross ties or switch ties, mine ties;

(ii) Edgings, trims and off-fall less than three inches wide or less than four feet long unless produced for the purposes of evading this order; and

(iii) Used lumber.

(2) "Producer" means:

(i) Any sawmill which produces currently over five thousand feet, board measure, of any one or more species of lumber (whether lumber restricted by this order or not) per average day of eight hours of continuous operation, or which produced an average of over five thousand feet of such lumber per day during the days when it was in operation from June 3, 1943, to December 3, 1943. A sawmill producing a smaller amount of lumber per day may at its election also be classed as a "producer."

(ii) "Producer" also includes any concentration yard or plant other than a sawmill, however large or small its output may be, if it is located in an area where restricted hardwood lumber is produced, and processes by drying, sawing, edging, planing, or other comparable method 25 percent or more of the total volume of logs and lumber received by it, and if it sells or otherwise disposes of the product of such processing as lumber.

(iii) "Producer" does not include any establishment known in the trade as a distribution yard engaged either in the retail or wholesale business, even though such a yard may process more than 25 percent of the volume of lumber it receives for the servicing of special orders from customers.

(3) "Sawmill stock" means any restricted hardwood lumber in the possession of a "producer". Restricted hardwood lumber which the producer has delivered to others or transferred to his own use is no longer part of "sawmill stock" if the delivery or transfer is permitted by the War Production Board under this order or otherwise.

(4) "War agency" means the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, Veterans Administration, and any agency of the United States Government placing orders for material or equipment to be delivered to or for the account of any other country under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(c) General restrictions. No person shall sell, ship, deliver, or dispose of, and no person shall accept delivery of, any restricted hardwood lumber out of the "sawmill stock" of a "producer" unless authorized or permitted in one of the ways stated below. This restriction applies to any transfer from a person's "sawmill stock" to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, box factory, or other plant where fabricated products made from lumber, rather than lumber products, are produced for his own use or for resale.

(1) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any person for whom the Central Procuring Agency, Procurement Division of the United States Corps of Engineers, has issued a notification on a purchase inquiry known as a "purchase allocation." The delivery may be made on the basis of such a "purchase allocation" or on the basis of a certificate as prescribed in paragraph (d) (1) indicating that the person certifying has received a purchase allocation.

(2) Delivery may be made (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to or for the account of any War agency as defined in paragraph (b) (4), or to, or for the account of any contractor or sub-contractor for a War agency, if the lumber is required to fill an outstanding contract or purchase order of a War agency for direct delivery to the War agency, or for construction of a building, wharf, or other structure for a War agency, or for incorporation into any material already ordered by or for a War agency, or for packing, boxing, crating, or stowing of any material already ordered by or for a War agency. However, the delivery may not be made unless there is endorsed on the purchase order or contract a certificate as explained in paragraph (d) (2).

(3) Hardwood lumber actually in transit on March 27, 1944, which was unrestricted before March 27, 1944 may be delivered to its ultimate destination.

(4) Delivery of "sawmill stock" between "producers" may be made freely.

(5) Delivery may be made as authorized on Form WPB 2720. See paragraph (e) for instructions as to the use of this form.

(6) Delivery may be made as authorized or directed by the War Production Board in a specific directive or in a direction, as explained in paragraph (g).

(d) Certificates that may be used to get restricted hardwood lumber. Unless a directive or direction issued by the War Production Board says that it must be done in some other way, one of the following forms of certificate must be endorsed on or attached to the purchase order whenever, under this order, a certificate is required. The certificate prescribed in Priorities Regulations 3 and 7 may not be used instead.

(1) Certificates to be used by purchaser who has received a "purchase allocation."

The purchaser of this lumber certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that this lumber is required for Purchase Allocation Number ____ issued by the Central Procuring Agency, in compliance with paragraph (c) (1) of Conservation Order M-364, with which I am familiar and that the use of any rating shown on this purchase order is authorized.

Certificates must be retained in the seller's files for inspection by government representatives, and are legally made to the War Production Board as well as to the seller. Any false statement is punishable by fine and imprisonment. No person, whether or not he was the person who purchased the lumber, may use the lumber for any purpose except the purpose indicated on the certificate. If for any reason a purchaser is unable to use lumber for the purposes stated in the certificate, he must apply on Form WPB 2720 for permission to use the lumber for other purposes. A seller may rely on the statements made to him in a certificate only if he does not know or have reason to believe that they are false. The above provisions apply also to any form of certificate which may be prescribed in a directive or direction under this order.

(e) Use of Form WPB 2720 for permission to get delivery. (1) Persons, including distributors, not entitled to use one of the certificates provided for in this order or in a direction issued pursuant to this order who wish to have permission from the War Production Board to get lumber either directly or indirectly from a "producer" may apply for such permission on Form WPB 2720. Before applying to the War Production Board the person should first place a purchase order with the supplier who may be either a "producer" or a wholesaler, or agent.

(2) As soon as the supplier has indicated that he can or will deliver the lumber, the person wishing to get it should then file Form WPB 2720 with the War Production Board. The name and address of the supplier should be indicated in the space provided for "producer" and all information called for on the form should be fully supplied. If the War Production Board approves the application, it will be noted on the form and copies will be returned to the applicant and the supplier.

(3) If a wholesaler or agent wants to get restricted hardwood lumber from a "producer" for delivery to a specific customer, as distinct from putting it in his own inventory, he must get his customer to make an application to the War Production Board on Form 2720. The application should be made out the same way as explained in paragraph (e) (2). The War Production Board, if it grants the authorization, will send it both to the customer and to the wholesaler or agent, and he may get lumber from any producer, using the form of certification prescribed in paragraph (d) (3). This provision takes the place of Direction 2 to this order.

(4) Whenever a person wishes to dispose of restricted hardwood lumber out of his own "sawmill stock" at retail or transfer any such lumber to his own or affiliated distribution yard, retail sales department, cut-up plant, mill work plant, box factory or other plant where fabricated products rather than lumber are made, permission must first be obtained from the War Production Board by applying on Form WPB 2720. The form should be filled out as if the person were a receiver, and "Special Instructions for Producers" on the top of the reverse side of the form should be disregarded. Persons having "sawmill stocks" may apply on Form WPB 2720 quarterly or at more frequent intervals for permission to sell lumber at retail or transfer it to their distribution yards or other plants. After permission has been granted the person may dispose of or transfer only the quantities permitted on the approved form. Except in cases of emergency, producers should not apply on Form WPB 2720 for any other purpose.

(5) In approving any application on Form WPB 2720, the War Production Board may write on the form conditions restricting the delivery, resale, or use of the lumber, and such restrictions shall be binding not only on the applicant but also on all persons who know or have reason to believe that the restrictions exist.

(f) Inventory restrictions. No person may accept delivery of restricted hardwood lumber if his inventory is, or by reason of such acceptance, would become in excess of a 90-day supply, except that a 90-day supply may be exceeded to the extent necessary to receive delivery under existing minimum carloading regulations, and he may accept any amount he is authorized to accept on Form WPB 2720, or any other applicable form, or under the provisions of any directive or direction under this order.

(g) Directives and directions. The term "directive" as used in this order means written instructions to a specific firm or individual on the delivery or use of hardwood lumber. The term "direction" means published instructions to a group or class; for example, Direction 1 to this order applying to all farm machinery manufacturers. The War Production Board may issue directions or directives allocating specific quantities or percentages of production or shipments to specified persons or classes or for specified uses. It may also direct how and in what quantity delivery to specified persons or classes or uses may be made. It may direct distribution to particular areas and may direct or prohibit the production by any persons of particular items of restricted hardwood lumber. Directions and directives may supersede any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contractors. Directions and directives will be issued in accordance with approved programs for the satisfaction of war and essential civilian requirements, and in order to carry out more fully the purposes of this order.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time except where otherwise stated.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by mailing a letter to the War Production Board referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed as follows: Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Ref.: M-364.

(l) Effective date. This order shall take effect on March 27, 1944.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

Basanite, lydian stone, or touchstone.
Jasper quartz.

(2) "Blank" means any semi-fabricated piece of quartz crystal which is of such size, shape, and physical characteristics as to be suitable for the fabrication of radio oscillators or filters or other products for use in implements of war, of telephone resonators, or of optical parts. The term includes wafers, bars, sections, and other semi-fabricated forms. The term does not include scrap.

(3) "Scrap" means that part of any quartz crystal, other than a blank or a semi-fabricated or fabricated form, remaining after a piece or pieces have been cut therefrom, if such remnant, because of size, shape, or physical characteristics, is not suitable for the fabrication of radio oscillators or filters or other products for use in implements of war, of telephone resonators, or of optical or electrical parts.

(4) "Supplier" means any person who imports or produces from domestic sources quartz crystals for the purpose either of his own fabrication or of sale to others, or who sells quartz crystals to others.

(5) "Fabricator" means any person who fabricates blanks or other semi-fabricated or fabricated forms from quartz crystals.

(6) "Put into fabrication" means the first change by the fabricator in the form of quartz crystals from that form in which such crystals were received by him.

(7) "Fabricate" means cut, saw, file, grind, polish, or otherwise change the form, shape, or characteristics. The term includes mounting or installing in holders.

(8) "Implements of war" means:

(i) Combat end products complete for tactical operations, including, but not limited to, aircraft, ammunition, armament and weapons, ships, tanks, and vehicles;

(ii) Parts, assemblies, and materials to be physically incorporated in any of the foregoing items;

(iii) Facilities or equipment used to manufacture any of the foregoing items, produced for the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, or for any foreign country, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(b) Restrictions on fabrications. (1) On and after March 20, 1944, no person shall fabricate quartz crystals or blanks except in the manufacture of:

(i) Radio oscillators and filters or other products for use in implements of war, or in Governmental activities directly connected with defense, public health, welfare, or security.

(ii) Radio oscillators and filters for use in radio systems to be owned, used, and operated by Federal agencies, by commercial broadcasting stations, or by commercial air lines, or for use in commercial communication systems.

(iii) Telephone resonators,

(iv) Optical or electrical parts for use in implements of war, or for use in research or production instruments manufactured to fill orders bearing a preference rating of AA-2X or higher.

(v) Radio oscillators and filters and optical parts to be used in the replacement of parts which are defective, cracked, or broken, provided the equipment or instruments requiring such parts are implements of war or are needed solely in activities directly connected with defense, public health, welfare, or security, or

(vi) Radio oscillators and filters to be exported to any foreign country for use in radio systems owned, used, and operated by a governmental department or agency of such foreign country or for use by a commercial airline operating in such foreign country.

(2) On and after March 8, 1943 no person shall fabricate radio oscillators, radio filters, or optical parts from scrap except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. Application for such authorization shall be made by letter in triplicate.

(c) Restrictions on purchase, receipt, and use. On and after March 8, 1943, no person shall purchase or receive (unless for the purpose of selling or delivering to others), and no person shall use

(1) Quartz crystals or blanks, except for fabrication as permitted under the provisions of paragraph (b), or

(2) Fabricated forms of quartz crystals, except for purposes for which fabrication of quartz crystals is permitted under the provisions of paragraph (b): Provided, however, That the restrictions of this paragraph (c) (2) shall not apply to fabricated forms of quartz crystals which were already mounted or installed in holders on May 18, 1942, or to fabricated forms of quartz crystals, the purchase, receipt, or use of which has been specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(d) Special directions. The War Production Board at its discretion may at any time issue special directions to any person with respect to the use, fabrication to final product, delivery, acceptance of delivery, or placing of orders by such person of or for quartz crystals, blanks, or semi-fabricated or fabricated forms thereof, or special directions to any fabricator with respect to the types and sizes of semi-fabricated and fabricated forms of quartz crystals which he may or must fabricate, and the grades and types of quartz crystals which he may or must use in the fabrication of such blanks or fabricated forms of quartz crystals.

(e) Reports—(1) Stocks and inventories. Every person who, on the 18th day of May, 1942, or on the last day of any calendar month thereafter has title to or is in possession or control of twenty-five (25) pounds or more of quartz crystals, or more than ten (10) pieces in the form of blanks or in other semi-fabricated or fabricated forms thereof, which have not been mounted or installed in holders, shall, on or before the close of business on the 5th day of the succeeding month, report to the War Production Board, in duplicate, on Form PD-484.

(2) Fabrication. Every person who fabricates quartz crystals or blanks during any calendar month shall report to the War Production Board in duplicate on Form PD-484 on or before the 5th day of the succeeding calendar month.

(3) Other reports. All persons affected by this order shall file such other reports as may be requested from time to time by the War Production Board.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Division, Washington, D. C. Ref: M-146.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-30-a, Direction 2]

SUPPLEMENTARY QUOTAS FOR SECOND QUARTER OF 1944

The following direction is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L-30-a:

This direction gives each manufacturer under Order L-30-a a supplementary quota of iron and steel for the second quarter of 1944 for use in making the following restricted articles: pails and buckets, wash tubs, wash boilers, funnels, fire shovels and storage cans for petroleum products. In addition to his quota under paragraph (d) (3), (d) (4), (e) (2), (f) (2) or (f) (3) of Order L-30-a, he may put into process in that quarter in the production of each of the articles listed above not more than three times 42½ % of the average monthly amount of iron and steel put into process by him during the base period in the production of that restricted article. All articles made under this direction must be produced in accordance with all provisions of Order L-30-a other than the quota provisions mentioned above.

Issued this 20th day of March 1944.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Allocation Order M-340, Direction 1]

METHYL BROMIDE FOR FUMIGATION

The following direction is issued pursuant to Allocation Order M-340:

(a) Authorization for deliveries by producers of methyl bromide for fumigation will be issued by allocating a lump sum each month for this purpose, and producers need not list the names of their customers on Form WPB-2947 where the end use is fumigation.

(b) A distributor who purchases methyl bromide upon certification that it will be resold for fumigation purposes may resell and deliver it for that purpose without specific authorization upon application on Form WPB-2947.

(c) For the purpose of this direction fumigation means the fumigation of articles to meet the requirements of federal or state quarantine, and fumigation to control pests in households and storage or to meet regulations for control of these pests.

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 4501—COMMUNICATIONS

[Utilities Order U-8]

ORDER LIMITING THE MANUFACTURE OF TELEPHONES

Order L-204[1] is given a new title U-8, and is amended to read as follows:

[1] Formerly Subchapter B, Part 1095, §1095.-20.

The purpose of this order is to conserve materials and manufacturing capacity required for the prosecution of the war by restricting the manufacture of telephones. However, because of the prime necessity for maintaining telephone service, this order is not intended to prevent the maintenance, repair or conversion of telephone sets, nor is it intended to prevent the manufacture of parts to maintain, repair or convert telephone sets.

§ 4501.26[1] Utilities Order U-8—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, receiver or any form of enterprise whatsoever, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Standard telephone set" means any telephone instrument except those on List B attached. It does not include any of the apparatus or wiring set forth on List A attached.

(3) "Wire intercommunicating telephone set" means any telephone set for use in a wire intercommunicating system which is not owned by a public telephone system and does not involve the use of substantial amounts of outside plant. Thus, it includes any telephone set for use in connection with a system contained within a building or within a group of buildings located nearby one another. It does not include a telephone set for use in a system employing large amounts of outside plant such as are required by the telephone lines of railroad or pipe line companies. Nor does it include a wire intercommunicating set which employs electronic tubes as an essential part of such set.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall produce any standard telephone sets except:

(i) To fill orders of the kind shown on List C, or

(ii) To maintain an inventory specifically permitted by the War Production Board.

However, any person may maintain, repair or convert existing standard telephone sets.

(2) No person shall produce parts of standard telephone sets, except:

(i) For the maintenance, repair or conversion of existing telephone sets, or

(ii) For non-telephone use, or

(iii) For another person who regularly produces or assembles telephones for sale.

Any person producing telephone parts may produce any part in a minimum production run whenever his inventory contains less than a 60 days supply.

(3) No person shall sell parts of standard telephone sets manufactured after November 15, 1942 unless the buyer certifies in writing to the seller and the War Production Board that the parts are to be used:

(i) For maintenance, repair or conversion of existing telephone sets, or

(ii) For non-telephone use, or

(iii) To assemble telephone sets permitted by Order U-8, or

(iv) To assemble standard telephone sets permitted by a specific grant of relief from the restrictions of Order U-8 by the War Production Board.

However, parts manufactured and sold under a specific WPB permission to produce or assemble a complete telephone(s), may be resold without a certification as to use.

The requirement of this paragraph (b) (3) will be satisfied for all future purchase orders for telephone parts if the buyer makes a single written certification to his supplier and the War Production Board that all telephone parts ordered by him will be used only in ways described in this paragraph.

(4) No person shall produce or assemble any wire intercommunicating telephone sets except:

(i) To fill an order bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher for a maintenance replacement of an existing set or for additional stations within the designed capacity of an existing system.

(ii) To fill an order bearing a preference rating specifically assigned by the War Production Board on Form WPB-2774, for telephones in connection with a new wire intercommunicating system or with an addition beyond the designed capacity of an existing wire intercommunicating system.

(iii) To fill orders of the kinds shown on List C.

(iv) To maintain an inventory specifically permitted by the War Production Board.

(c) Records. All persons who produce or assemble telephone sets or parts shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production and sale of telephone sets and parts.

(d) Reports. All persons who produce or assemble telephone sets or parts shall make such reports as shall be required from time to time by the War Production Board; subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from process or use of, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this order may apply for relief by letter, specifying the particular provision involved and stating all the facts on which he relies.

(g) Communications. All reports required and all communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities, War Production Board, Washington (25), D. C., Reference: U-8.

Issued this 18th day of March 1944.

LIST A—ITEMS NOT AFFECTED BY THIS ORDER

1. Jacks and plugs.
2. Switching keys.
3. Extension bells.
4. Loud-ringing bells.
5. Connecting blocks.
6. Protectors.
7. Station, drop and line wiring and cabling.
8. Battery boxes.
9. Dials or equivalent calling devices.

LIST B—TELEPHONES WHICH MAY BE MANUFACTURED

1. Head and chest telephone sets.
2. Telephone test sets for use in connection with the construction and maintenance of wire communication plant.
3. Any telephone set assembled in connection with a coin collecting device for use as a public pay station.
4. Outdoor and mine type telephone sets which are so designed as to employ a minimum of critical materials consistent with the essential service requirements.
5. Explosion proof sets for use in mines, and in locations in munitions plants and other essential industries where the use of a standard telephone set would give rise to danger of explosion.
6. Telephone sets, of special design, required for use on shipboard or in connection with underwater and flying operations and for gas masks.
7. Portable telephone sets (outdoor type) and sound powered telephone sets for use by railroads, pipe line companies, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Forest Service and the Alaska Highway.
8. Telephone sets for railroad train dispatching service or for railroad traffic control service, or for service with Railway Electric switch locks, ordered by, or for the account of, or for resale to railroad companies.
9. Push-to-talk handsets, that is, handsets having a selector device which permits the use of either the transmitter or the receiver or both, for use by the armed services.

LIST C—PERSONS FOR WHOM TELEPHONES MAY BE MANUFACTURED

1. Any telephone set or part ordered by, or for the account of, or for resale to, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, and the Civil Aeronautics Administration.
2. Any telephone set or part for use in combat or for combat equipment, ordered by, or for the account of, or for resale to, the government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its dominions, crown colonies and protectorates, and Yugoslavia, or any other country, including those of the Western Hemisphere, now or hereafter designated, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[MPR 461,[1] Amdt. 2]

BOOK PAPER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 461 is amended in the following respect:

Section 14 (a) (9) is amended to read as follows:

(9) "Grade", when used in paragraph (a) of Appendix A, refers to any group of brands of book paper which prior to the issuance of the regulation were recognized and accepted in the trade under the designation of the particular grade name. While each "grade" in this sense embraces book paper considered in the trade as having various common characteristics or as being of equivalent value, this regulation does not attempt to determine whether a particular brand of book paper has been properly grouped by the trade on the basis of such characteristics or value, but merely whether or not the brand involved was in fact treated by buyers and sellers of bookpaper as falling within the group denoted by the particular grade name. When used without reference to any group of brands, the term "grade" means one particular quality within a kind of book paper, such grade having the essential properties peculiar to such kind of paper and common to all grades within such kind, but distinguished from other such grades by a difference in the degree to which one or several of those common properties are emphasized. However, a difference in the degree to which any such property is emphasized, due only to a difference in ash content, in sizing, in the quantity of adhesive in the coating formula, or in the dyes used in the paper and/or coating shall not be considered as resulting in a different grade. Where there are such differences, the differentials and charges provided for in Appendices A and B of this regulation may, of course, be applied in appropriate cases.

This amendment shall become effective March 17, 1944.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[Gen. RO 5,[1] Amdt. 52]

FOOD RATIONING FOR EMPLOYEES ON BOARD SHIPS, TUGS AND BARGES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

General Ration Order No. 5 is amended in the following respects:

1. A new section 7.9 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 7.9 Allotments for Group IV users who feed employees on board ships, boats, tugs and barges. (a) Beginning with the March-April 1944 allotment period, Group IV establishments on board ships, boats, tugs and barges will be granted allotments of rationed food for those establishments on the basis of the number of persons to be fed there and the number of days the vessel will be in operation during the allotment period.

(b) A Group IV institutional user who operates more than one establishment must reregister separately each establishment or combination of establishments which qualifies under this section (so that the allotment can be used only for feeding the persons for whose benefit it is granted). Upon reregistration, any remaining excess inventory may be apportioned among those establishments, as he chooses.

(c) Such users are not required to furnish the information called for by OPA Form R-1307 Supplement. Application for allotments for those establishments shall be made to the Board on OPA Form R-315 (instead of on OPA Form R-1309 (Revised)). The application must state:

(1) The name and address of the applicant and the name of the vessel where the persons covered by the application will be fed;

(2) The number of days he expects to operate the establishment during the allotment period (partial days of operation shall not be counted as full days, but one-quarter of a day shall be counted for each six hours or fraction thereof of operation);

(3) The number of persons he expects to feed on each day of operation, counting each person fed only once per day; and

(4) The percentage (by number) of bread, rolls, doughnuts and crullers, pies, cakes and pastries to be served during the period that the applicant himself will bake;

(5) On his application for allotments for the May–June 1944 Allotment period and subsequent periods, the application must also state the number of days he operated the establishment and the number of persons he fed each day during the preceding allotment period.

NOTE: A Group IV institutional user who qualifies for allotments under this section, may, if he also qualifies under the isolation provisions of section 27.1 or 27.2, apply for special allotments under those sections. He is not required to file a separate application but may include the information required for those special allotments when applying for allotments under this section, on OPA Form R-315.

(d) The allotment of each rationed food shall be computed in the following way:

(1) Take the total number of meals to be served during the allotment period (that number is to be figured on the basis of four meals per person for each day he is fed; for partial days of operation, one meal is to be figured for each six hours or fraction thereof of operation);

(2) Multiply that total by the allowance per person for that food as fixed in the supplement (using the regular or the baking allowance, depending on the applicant's baking percentage);

(3) The result is the allotment for the period.

(e) If the applicant finds that he has to feed more persons, during the period, than he estimated in his original application, he may apply to the Board for permission to correct his estimate, and for an additional allotment computed on the basis of his corrected estimate, for the balance of the period. (Therefore he may not get supplemental allotments under Article XI.)

(f) When he next applies for allotments the Board shall determine the allotment he would have been entitled to receive for the preceding period, based on his actual figures. If the allotment he would have received is less than the allotment he actually received for that period, the difference shall be deducted from his next allotment.

2. Section 18.2 (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) A Group IV user operating an establishment on board a ship, boat, tug or barge is not required to keep, for that establishment, the records described in paragraph (c) of this section.

This amendment shall become effective March 23, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

MILEAGE RATIONING: TIRE REGULATIONS FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 1E is amended in the following respect:

1. A new subdivision (ii) is added to section 4.2 (c) (1) to read as follows:

(ii) Each month the Director shall submit a list to the Boards specifying thereon the size of Grade III tires that are unavailable in the Territory as revealed by the latest monthly inventory. The Director may authorize the Boards to issue a certificate for a Grade I tire to an applicant who is engaged in preferred mileage purposes under section 5.6 of Ration Order 5F and who applies for the size of tire specified as being unavailable. Certificates may be issued pursuant to this provision even though the applicant's total allowed mileage does not exceed 600 miles per month, and all certificates so issued must be deducted from the Board's quota for Grade I tires.

This amendment shall become effective March 20, 1944.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 5]

HOME CANNING SUGAR

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1407.21 (c) (30) is amended to read as follows:

(30) "Coupon" means a "sugar allowance coupon" (OPA Form Nos. R-324, R-325, R-326, or R-327) or a "ration coupon" (OPA Form R-325 (Revised)).

2. Section 1407.71 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1407.71 Home processing and preserving for use—(a) Who may apply. A person registered as a consumer may obtain "ration coupons" (OPA Form R-325, Revised) with which to get sugar for doing home preserving of fruits, fruit juices, or vegetables for use, and for producing processed foods from fruits, fruit juices, or vegetables (for use) in accordance with sections 26.2, 26.4, 26.4a, 26.5 and 26.6 of Revised Ration Order 13 (or for making the gifts permitted by those sections). However, for the period from March 1, 1944, to February 28, 1945, a consumer may not obtain coupons under this section for more than 20 pounds of sugar.

(b) How application is made. A consumer may apply, in person or by mail, on OPA Form R-323, for the sugar he needs for the purposes covered by this section. Application shall be made to the Board for the place where the applicant lives. One application may be made covering more than one consumer, if they all live at the same address, but the name of each shall be listed on the application. (The consumer signing the application must, however, be authorized to apply for each person he lists.) The applicant shall give the information required by OPA Form R-323 and shall attach to his application Spare Stamp No. 37 from the War Ration Book Four of each consumer on whose behalf the application is made. (Since each "ration coupon" authorizes the delivery of five pounds of sugar, application for each consumer must be made for either 5, 10, 15 or 20 pounds of sugar.) If the Board finds that the facts stated in the application are true and that a Spare Stamp No. 37 for each person for whom application is made is attached thereto, it shall grant the application in the amount needed for the purpose specified in paragraph (a), but not to exceed twenty pounds per person. It shall issue "ration coupons" for the amount of sugar granted.

(c) How additional applications may be made. A consumer who, for the period from March 1, 1944, to February 28, 1945, inclusive, has obtained "ration coupons" for less than twenty pounds of sugar and who needs more sugar for the purposes covered by this section may file another application on OPA Form R-323 at the same Board, and obtain "ration coupons" for the additional amount of sugar he needs up to the twenty pound total permitted by paragraph (a). The consumer's Spare Stamp No. 37 need not be attached to such application. If the Board finds that the facts stated in the application are true, it shall grant the application and issue "ration coupons" for the amount of sugar needed, subject to that twenty pound maximum.

(d) How sugar obtained under this section may be used. Sugar obtained under this section may be used only for the purposes for which it was granted. Processed foods produced with it may be used only as permitted by sections 26.2, 26.4, 26.4a, 26.5 and 26.6 of Revised Ration Order 13.

(e) Board may issue certificates instead of ration coupons and a consumer may exchange them for "ration coupons".

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 9 F.R. 1433, 1594, 2288.

For the period from March 1, 1944, to April 20, 1944, inclusive, a Board may issue a certificate or certificates instead of "ration coupons". A consumer who receives such certificates may at any time from April 20, 1944, to May 10, 1944, inclusive, exchange them, at the Board, for "ration coupons" of equal value.

3. Section 1407.71a is amended to read as follows:

§ 1407.71a Home processing for sale—(a) Who may apply. A person registered as a consumer may obtain from the Board certificates with which to get sugar to produce, from fresh fruits and fruit juices, "home processed foods" (as defined in section 26.1 of Revised Ration Order 13), other than those having a zero point value, which he intends to transfer for points in accordance with section 26.3 or 26.4a of Revised Ration Order 13.

(b) How application is made. Applications under this section shall be made to the Board, on OPA Form R–315, personally by the consumer applying for the family unit. The applicant shall state:

(1) The number of pounds of "home processed foods" (other than jams, jellies, preserves, marmalades or fruit butters) he intends to produce from fruits and fruit juices.

(2) The number of pounds of prepared fruit he intends to use in making jams, preserves and marmalades.

(3) The number of pounds of prepared fruit (or pints of fruit juices) he intends to use in making jellies.

(4) The number of pounds of prepared fruit (pulp) he intends to use in making fruit butter.

(5) The address at which the processing will be done.

(6) The type of facilities to be used.

(7) The number of pounds of sugar applied for.

(8) If any member of his family unit has obtained sugar under this section before March 1, 1944. If so, he must account for the "home processed" foods produced with such sugar, before the application may be granted. (Thus the family unit must either have an inventory of such foods, or have made the reports and surrendered the points required by Revised Ration Order 13 for their transfer.)

(9) If any member of his family unit has received an allowance under this section after March 1, 1944; if so (i) the name of the member who applied; (ii) the address of the Board at which the application was filed; and (iii) the number of pounds of sugar so obtained.

The applicant, in answering (1), (2), (3), and (4) shall not include any products which, at the time of application, have a zero point value.

(c) The amounts that may be obtained. Sugar may be obtained and used at the rate of not more than:

(1) One pound per four quarts (or 8 pounds) of finished home processed foods (other than jams, jellies, preserves, marmalades or fruit butters) produced from fruits or fruit juices;

(2) One pound per pound of prepared fruit used for making jams, preserves and marmalades;

(3) One pound per two pounds of prepared fruit (or one pint fruit juice) used for making jelly;

(4) One pound per two pounds of prepared fruit (pulp) used for making fruit butter.

However, the total amount of sugar which may be obtained by a family unit for all these purposes for the period from March 1, 1944, to February 28, 1945, inclusive, shall not exceed 250 pounds, and no sugar shall be granted for the production of a product having a zero point value at the time of application.

(d) When application may be made. Applications under this section may be made at any time from March 1, 1944, to February 28, 1945, inclusive.

(e) The Board may issue certificates. If the Board finds that the facts stated in the application are true (and if all sugar granted to the applicant or to a member of his family unit under this section before March 1, 1944, has been accounted for as provided in paragraph (b) (8)) it shall grant the application to the extent permitted under the provisions of this section and shall issue a certificate for the amount of sugar allowed.

(f) The applicant must make reports and keep records. The applicant shall make the reports and keep the records required of him by Revised Ration Order 13.

(g) How sugar may be used and home processed foods transferred. Sugar obtained under this section may be used only for the purposes for which it was granted and at a rate no higher than that permitted by paragraph (c). Home processed foods produced with such sugar shall be delivered, sold or transferred only in accordance with the provisions of Revised Ration Order 13.

4. Section 1407.72 is amended by deleting the words "producing processed foods from fresh fruits for use, in accordance with sections 26.2, 26.5 and 26.6" and inserting in place thereof the following: "doing home preserving of fruits, fruit juices or vegetables for use, and for producing processed foods from fruits, fruit juices, or vegetables (for use) in accordance with sections 26.2, 26.4, 26.4a, 26.5, and 26.6".

5. Section 1407.142a (a) is amended by deleting from the first sentence the words "and bearing the serial number of the consumer's book" and by deleting the second sentence thereof.

6. Section 1407.142a (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) (1) A "sugar allowance coupon" (OPA Form Nos. R–324, R–325, R–326, or R–327) received, in accordance with this order, by a registering unit which is neither a depositor nor required to be one, authorizes the registering unit to take delivery of sugar, in an amount equal to the weight value of the "coupon", until March 31, 1944. If surrendered to a depositor, it shall be valid for deposit in his account until April 10, 1944.

(2) A "ration coupon" (OPA Form R–328 (Revised)) may be used by a consumer at any time to get five pounds of sugar. A "ration coupon" received, in accordance with this order, by a registering unit which is neither a depositor nor required to be one authorizes the registering unit to take delivery of five pounds of sugar at any time. A "ration coupon" surrendered to a depositor is valid for deposit in his account at any time.

This amendment shall become effective March 23, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 13,[1] Amdt. 17]

PROCESSED FOODS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 13 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 26.1 (a) (1) is amended by inserting before the colon the words ", or a member of his 'family unit' ".

2. Section 26.2 (b) is amended by substituting for the words "fifty (50)" the words "one hundred (100)" and by substituting for the words "one hundred (100)" the words "two hundred (200)".

3. Section 26.3 (b) is amended by substituting for the words "as a 'processor' or make reports" in the first sentence, the words ", or make reports, as a 'processor' "; and by adding at the end thereof the following:

If he transfers home processed foods produced with sugar obtained under § 1407.71a of Revised Ration Order 3, he must, at the same time, report in writing to his board the kinds and amounts of such foods transferred by him for points during the preceding month.

4. The first two sentences of section 26.4a (a) are deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

A person who produces frozen foods in a place other than a "kitchen" may consume the foods so produced and may let the members of his family unit and others who eat at his table or on a farm he operates consume them without giving up points only if he produces them primarily for consumption in his household or on a farm he operates. A person is considered to produce frozen foods for the purposes of this section only if he, or a member of his family unit, supplies all the ingredients, prepares the food for freezing and subjects that food to the freezing operation. In such case he and the members of his family unit may give (but not sell) such foods to any other person without receiving points, but no more than one hundred (100) quarts or two hundred (200) pounds of such foods per member may be given away point free by the family unit in any calendar year.

5. Section 26.5 (a) is amended by inserting before the period at the end of the first sentence the words ", but only if that processor regularly produced processed foods in the past for consumers from ingredients wholly supplied by them".

6. The headnote of section 26.5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) He may consume such foods or give them away.

7. The second sentence of section 26.5 (b) is amended to read as follows: "He and the members of his family unit may give (but not sell) such foods to any other person without receiving points."

8. Section 26.5 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) He may sell only for points, and must surrender points he gets to the board. He may not sell any of such foods unless he gets points equal to the point value of the foods sold. Such foods are not home processed foods and they may be sold only at their regular point value, as fixed in a supplement to this order, rather than at the point value of home processed foods. For this purpose, he need not register or make reports but must keep a record of any sale he makes, showing the amount and date of the sale, and the name and address of the person to whom the sale is made. If he makes any sales during any month, he must give up the points received for that sale to his board on or before the tenth day of the next month.

9. Section 26.6 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 26.6. Consumers may acquire and use processed foods they produce in commercial scale processing facilities. (a) A member of a group of persons which produces processed foods in commercial scale processing facilities primarily for consumption in their households or on farms they operate, may acquire his share of the processed foods so produced point free only if:

(1) The facilities used have not been operated commercially since January 1, 1943, or are not customarily operated commercially during the periods when the processing will be done by the group; and

(2) He, or a member of his family unit, takes an active part in the processing of such foods, or grew the fruits or vegetables being processed.

(b) Any member of a group which wishes so to produce processed foods may make application to his board in writing, on behalf of the group, stating:

(1) The name and address of each member of the group;

(2) The facts which bring the group under paragraph (a);

(3) The total amount of processed foods to be produced; and

(4) The disposition to be made of the foods produced.

(c) If the board finds that the group and its members meet all the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, it shall approve the application. If the facilities to be used were operated commercially after January 1, 1943, but are no longer so operated, the board may still approve the application if it finds that commercial operations were not ended solely or partly for the purpose of enabling the members of the group to produce processed foods there for their own use.

(d) If the board approves the application, each member of the group covered by the application may acquire his share of the processed foods so produced point free, and may consume it and let the members of his family unit and others who eat at his table or on a farm he operates consume it without giving up points.

(e) Not more than one hundred (100) quarts of such processed foods per member may be acquired point free by or for any family unit under this section in any calendar year unless the board finds:

(1) That the use of the facilities is supervised or sponsored by a federal, state or local government or government agency; or

(2) That the facilities are part of a bona fide community processing project which is open for use by all members of the community.

(f) Any person who acquires processed foods under this section without giving up points may give (but not sell), his share to any other person, but not more than one hundred (100) quarts of such foods per member may be given away point free by a family unit in any calendar year.

(g) Processed foods produced pursuant to this section are not home processed foods. A person who sells or transfers any such foods except for the amount he is permitted to give away point free by paragraph (f), is considered a processor as to that part. He must register and file the reports required by section 3.2 of this order. He may make such transfers only in exchange for points equal to the regular point value of the processed foods transferred, as fixed in a supplement to this order, rather than at the point value of home processed foods.

10. Section 26.8 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 26.8 Institutional users (other than Group I institutional users) may use and transfer processed foods they produce as provided in General Ration Order 5. (a) This article does not apply to the production of processed foods for use in, or to the use of processed foods in, "institutional user establishments" other than Group I institutional user establishments. The production, use, and transfer by such "institutional users" of home processed foods and of other processed foods they produce, are governed by General Ration Order 5.

This amendment shall become effective March 23, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PRE-PACKAGED CHEESE

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The definition of "Pre-packaged cheese" in section 24.1 is deleted, and the following definition substituted therefor:

"Pre-packaged cheese item" means "rationed cheese" in an original package of a primary distributor or wholesaler. If one such package is contained within another, it means the smaller of such packages. (For example, a cardboard package containing several small individually wrapped pieces of cheese is not a single "pre-packaged cheese item". Rather, each individually wrapped piece is a separate "pre-packaged cheese item".)

MEAT

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. The seventh sentence of section 1.1 (a) is amended to read as follows:

Meat does not include rendering fats and bones (produced in disassembling a carcass, or in cutting a carcass or primal cut into smaller cuts, or in boning a carcass or cut) and lean trimmings commingled with these rendering fats and bones, if these parts of the carcass are acquired by a person to be used by him for animal feed, for rendering into inedible products or for other inedible purposes, or by a primary distributor to be used by him for rendering into rationed fats or oils, or for transfer to such a person for one of these purposes; however, rendering fats do not include fat backs, fat back pork, clear plates and jowls (including jowl squares).

2. The sixth sentence of the definition of "meat" in section 24.1 (a) is amended to read as follows:

Meat does not include rendering fats and bones (produced in disassembling a carcass, or in cutting a carcass or primal cut into smaller cuts, or in boning a carcass or cut) and lean trimmings commingled with these rendering fats and bones, if these parts of the carcass are acquired by a person to be used by him for animal feed, for rendering into inedible products or for other inedible purposes, or by a primary distributor to be used by him for rendering into rationed fats or oils, or for transfer to such a person for one of these purposes; however, rendering fats do not include fat backs, fat back pork, clear plates and jowls (including jowl squares).

[RMPR 487,[2] Amdt. 1]

WHEAT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 487 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 (16) is amended to read as follows:

(16) "Area A" includes the District of Columbia of the United States and the following states: Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, Kentucky, Wyoming, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Washington (except Whatcom, Clallam, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason, Grays Harbor, Pacific, Wahkiakum counties), Tennessee (except the area east of the western boundaries of Campbell, Anderson, Roane, Rhea and Hamilton Counties), Oregon (except west of the western boundaries of Wasco, Jefferson, and Lake Counties and west of the eastern boundary of Deschutes County), California, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Arkansas, Louisiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Maryland (except the Eastern Shore south of a line drawn east and west through Chesapeake City), Colorado east of the western boundaries of Larimer, Boulder, Gilpin, Clear Creek, Park, Fremont, Custer, Huerfano and Las Animas counties and the counties of Quay, Debaca, Curry, Roosevelt, Chaves, Lea, Eddy, Guadalupe, Lincoln and Otero in New Mexico.

2. Section 3 (17) is amended to read as follows:

(17) "Missouri River Markets"* includes Kansas City, Missouri; Kansas City, Kansas; Atchison, Kansas; Leavenworth, Kansas; St. Joseph, Missouri; Omaha, Nebraska; Council Bluffs, Iowa; Sioux City, Iowa.

3. The formula price of "$1.90½" for Atlanta, Georgia, in the left hand column of prices in Table I in Appendix A is amended to read "$1.88¼".

4. Paragraph (b) (5) is added to Appendix A 3 to read as follows:

(5) In Oregon west of the western boundaries of Wasco, Jefferson, and Lake counties and west of the eastern boundary of Deschutes county and in Washington in the counties of Whatcom, Clallam, Kitsap, Mason, Jefferson, Grays Harbor, Pacific and Wahkiakum the formula price at Portland, Oregon, or Seattle, Washington, less 18½ cents per bushel and plus the lowest flat carload rail transportation charges from Spokane, Washington, to the interior rail point in question.

5. Appendix A 5 is amended to read as follows:

5. Formula prices for mixed wheat. The formula price per bushel, bulk, for mixed wheat at any terminal city or interior point shall be the appropriate maximum price for the class and grade of wheat predominating in the mixture at such terminal city or interior point adjusted for the moisture and protein content in the mixture in accordance with the tables in Appendix A less (unless the mixture consists wholly of hard red winter and hard red spring wheats or wholly of soft red winter and white wheats or is of the subclasses of Amber Mixed Durum or Mixed Durum) 2 cents per bushel: Provided, That the formula price per bushel for mixed wheat containing in excess of 15% red durum shall be the appropriate maximum price for red durum.

6. Appendix A 6 is amended to read as follows:

6. Formula prices for mixed grain. The formula price per bushel, bulk, for mixed grain (as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States) containing wheat at any point shall be determined by multiplying the percentage of each such grain in the mixture by the appropriate maximum price thereof at such point, or, if there is no such maximum price for the particular grain by the reasonable value thereof at such point, and adding the results and deducting 5 cents per bushel.

This amendment shall become effective March 24, 1944.

[1] Each of these max. prices for mine index Nos. 7051 and 605 shall be reduced by 50 cents 180 days after Feb. 18, 1944.

(ii) Maximum price in cents per net ton for all railroad fuel uses. (a) The maximum prices for coals in Size Groups 1 to 10, inclusive, for all railroad fuel uses shall be the maximum price for the grade and size shipped as set forth in subparagraph (1) (i) above, or $3.10 per ton, whichever is higher; and the maximum prices for coals in Size Groups 15 to 23, inclusive, for all railroad fuel uses shall be the maximum prices for the grade and size shipped as set forth in subparagraph (1) (i) above.

(b) Mines within Freight Origin Groups 61, 63, 64, 123, 124, 128, 150 may ship coal to the C & O Railway Company, screened to order, for use for all on-line railroad fuel uses at the maximum price for run of mine coals: Provided, That within a period of time, previously specified in a single purchase order or contract, but not in excess of 12 months, the shipments of any size of coal which will pass through a 2¾" round hole screen shall not exceed the amount specified in the single purchase order or contract which shall be based upon the previously determined screening percentages of the mine or mines involved. The Solid Fuels Branch of the Office of Price Administration shall be notified of the screening percentage determination in effect as of March 24, 1944, for all mines and as redetermined or established from time to time.

The maximum price for the excess coal over the determined percentage passing through a 2¾" round hole screen shall be the maximum price for the actual size and grade shipped.

Purchase orders or contracts shall apply to a specific producer and to one mine in order that percentages of plus and minus 2¾ inch coal supplied on the order or contract will be related to the percentages of such sizes actually being produced. Provided, however, That any producer with two or more mines may fulfill a single purchase order or contract from any or all of his mines where the screening percentages are the same and where the mines maximum prices are the same or the purchase price is based on the mine with the lowest maximum price.

Each producer or his agent and each distributor selling coal at prices computed under this subparagraph shall state on all his invoices that the price charged has been computed under § 1340.219 (b) (1) (ii) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120.

(iii) Specific description of size group numbers referred to in subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph (b).

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 285,[1] Amdt. 7]

IMPORTED FRESH BANANAS, SALES EXCEPT AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 285 is amended in the following respects:

1. A new, undesignated paragraph is added to § 1351.1254 (b) to read as follows:

The wholesaler, when selling bananas imported from Mexico, shall state, on his invoice or other written evidence of the sale, the state of production in Mexico in which the bananas were grown.

2. A new paragraph (c) is added to § 1351.1254 to read as follows:

(c) (1) If an importer sells bananas which have been delivered to him by rail or truck from Mexico, and the importer has failed to meet the notification requirements set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the maximum price per cwt., f. o. b. port of entry for the bananas so sold shall be $3.25.

(i) If any importer imports bananas from Mexico, he shall make the following disposition of the copies of the Mexican "Certificate of Origin" ("Certificado De Exportacion"—issued under the authority contained in the Order of the Department of Finance & Public Credit published in the "Diario Officiel" on February 2, 1943) which are furnished him by the Mexican Government, or which he must make himself, if necessary.

(a) One copy shall be retained by the importer in his possession for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(b) Another copy shall be furnished by the importer to each of his purchasers, at the time of sale, which copy the purchaser shall retain in his possession for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If, for any reason, the importer fails to furnish his purchaser with a copy, as required by this subdivision (b), the maximum price, per cwt., f. o. b. port of entry, for the bananas so sold shall be $3.25.

3. In § 1351.1254 (a) the text is amended by adding the words "or to the premises of retail stores or of institutional users", immediately following the words "to another such point".

This amendment shall become effective March 25, 1944.

* NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

LEARNERS EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATES

ISSUANCE TO VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

Notice of issuance of special certificates for the employment of learners under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Notice is hereby given that special certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wages lower than the minimum rate applicable under section 6 of the act are issued under section 14 thereof and § 522.5 (b) of the regulations issued thereunder (August 16, 1940, 5 F.R. 2862) to the employers listed below effective as of the date specified in each listed item below.

The employment of learners under these certificates is limited to the terms and conditions as designated opposite the employer's name. These certificates are issued upon the employers' representations that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available for employment and that they are actually in need of learners at subminimum rates in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. The certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided for in the regulations and as indicated on the certificate. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of the certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof.

FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY.

Food and Drug Administration.

[Docket No. FDC-39 (b)]

DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR CREAM CHEESE

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of a proposal to amend the definition and standard of identity for cream cheese.

Notice is hereby given that the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, upon the application of a substantial portion of the interested industry stating reasonable grounds therefor and in accordance with the provisions of sections 401 and 701 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. secs. 341 and 371 (Supp. V. 1939); the Reorganization Act of 1939, 53 Stat. 561, 5 U.S.C. sec. 133 (Supp. V. 1939) and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423, 4 F.R. 2727) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234, 5 F.R. 2421), will hold a public hearing, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning of April 26, 1944, in Room 3106, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets SW., Washington, D. C., upon a proposal to amend § 19.515 (a) of the regulation which prescribes a definition and standard of identity for cream cheese (7 F.R. 10758) by increasing the maximum amount of moisture that may be contained therein from 55 percent to 59 percent.

Mr. Bernard D. Levinson hereby is designated as presiding officer to conduct the hearing, in the place of the Administrator, with full authority to administer oaths and affirmations and to do all other things appropriate to the conduct of the hearing.

The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the rules of practice provided therefor (See 5 F.R. 2379–2381).

In lieu of oral testimony, interested persons may submit affidavits to the presiding officer at Room 4148, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, S. W., Washington, D. C., at any time prior to the hearing. Such affidavits should be submitted in quintuplicate and, if relevant and material, will be received and made a part of the record of the hearing, but the Administrator will consider the lack of opportunity for cross-examination in determining the weight to be given to statements contained therein. Every interested person will be permitted, in accordance with the above-mentioned rules of practice, to examine all affidavits submitted and to file counter-affidavits with the presiding officer.

At the hearing evidence will be restricted to testimony and exhibits that are relevant and material to the issue contained in the proposal.

The proposal is subject to adoption, rejection, amendment, or modification by the Administrator, in whole or in part, as the evidence adduced at the hearing may require.

WATSON B. MILLER,
Acting Administrator.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 191]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN POINTS IN KANSAS AND MISSOURI

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended, (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 947), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective March 22, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of March 1944.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

[MPR 136, Rev. Order 158]

CHEVROLET MOTOR DIVISION, GENERAL MOTORS CORP.

AUTHORIZATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 158, under Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended, machines and parts and machinery services, is redesignated Revised Order No. 158, under that regulation, and is amended and revised to read as follows:

Revised Order No. 158, under Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended. Machines and parts and machinery services. Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors Corporation; Docket No. 3136-389.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to and under the authority of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, and § 1390.25a of Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended: It is hereby ordered:

(a) Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors Corporation, General Motors Building, Detroit 2, Michigan, is authorized to sell to resellers each of the truck models listed in subparagraph (1) at a price not to exceed the "Net wholesale price" listed in that subparagraph, subject to the discounts in effect on March 31, 1942, to the applicable class of reseller, plus the applicable allowances in subparagraph (2):

(1) Model, description and "net wholesale price."

4103; Ucab-134½" Utility Chassis and Cab; $680.20.
4403; Ulcab-160" Utility Chassis and Cab; $695.40.
4409; Ulstk-160" Utility Chassis, Cab and Stake Body; $817.00.

(2) Allowances. (i) Allowance for extra, special, and optional equipment.

The allowance for parts covered by Maximum Price Regulation 452 shall not exceed applicable list prices in effect under that regulation, to which shall be applied the seller's regular wholesale discount in effect on March 31, 1942, to the applicable class of purchaser, for these parts when sold in connection with the applicable truck model described in subparagraph (1). The allowance for all other extra, special, or optional equipment, including oversize tires, shall not exceed the allowance for such equipment in effect on March 31, 1942, to the applicable class of purchaser.

(ii) Allowance to include federal excise tax and tire weight tax computed in accordance with the seller's method in effect on March 31, 1942.

(iii) Allowance for freight based on freight rates from Flint, Michigan, to place of delivery.

(iv) Allowance to cover seller's expense for unloading, handling, delivery, gas and oil, not to exceed $5.00, where the model is shipped to a company owned zone sales location.

(v) Allowance to cover seller's expense during January, February and March 1944, for storage in non-company owned storage locations, not to exceed $7.50 for the first month's storage or $5.00 for each other month's storage during this three months period.

(b) A reseller of Chevrolet motor trucks may sell, f. o. b. place of business, each Chevrolet motor truck of a model described in subparagraph (1) below, at a price not to exceed the applicable "Retail list price" in that subparagraph plus the applicable allowances in subparagraph (2) below, subject to the discounts in effect on March 31, 1942, for the applicable class of purchaser:

(1) Model, description and "retail list price."

4103; Ucab—134½" Utility Chassis and Cab; $895.00.
4403; Ulcab—160" Utility Chassis and Cab; $915.00.
4409; Ulstk—160" Utility Chassis, Cab and Stake Body; $1,075.00.

(2) Allowances. (i) An allowance for extra, special and optional equipment. The allowance for parts covered by Maximum Price Regulation 453, shall not exceed applicable maximum prices under that regulation. Allowance for all other equipment, including oversize tires, shall not exceed the allowance the reseller had in effect on March 31, 1942, for such equipment, to the applicable class of purchaser.

(ii) Actual freight-in expense.

(iii) The reseller's charge for handling and delivery in effect on March 31, 1942, and in addition, the storage charges he has to pay under subdivision (v) of paragraph (a) (2).

(iv) Allowance to include federal, state, and local taxes on his purchase, and sale, or delivery, of the applicable truck model, computed in accordance with the reseller's method in effect on March 31, 1942.

(v) The dollar amount of all other charges or allowances which the reseller had in effect on March 31, 1942, to the applicable class of purchaser.

(c) All requests in the application not granted in this revised order are denied.

(d) This revised order may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

This revised order shall be effective as of March 2, 1944.

Issued this 17th day of March 1944.

SHALE AND CLAY BUILDING BRICK IN OHIO

MODIFICATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Amendment No. 30 to Order No. A-1 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel.

An opinion accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Subparagraph (a) (26) is added to Order No. A-1 to read as set forth below:

(a) Modification of maximum prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. The provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 as applied to certain commodities subject thereto, are modified in accordance with § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 as hereinafter provided.

* * * * *

(26) Modification of maximum prices for shale and clay building brick produced in the State of Ohio, except Cuyahoga County. (i) On and after March 20, 1944, any manufacturer located in the State of Ohio, except Cuyahoga County, producing shale and clay building brick (smooth, sanded, or wire cut) may increase his maximum prices, established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 and in effect on June 14, 1943, by an amount not in excess of $3.00 per thousand on sales f. o. b. plant or delivered to destination.

(ii) On and after March 20, 1944, any person who purchases shale and clay building brick for the purpose of resale from any manufacturer located in the State of Ohio, except Cuyahoga County, whose maximum price has been adjusted pursuant to subdivision (i), may increase his maximum prices, f. o. b. yard or delivered, established by the General Maximum Price Regulation and in effect on June 14, 1943, by an amount not in excess of the dollars-and-cents increase in cost to him resulting from the adjustment permitted herein to producers.

(iii) The maximum prices fixed herein shall be subject to at least the same extension of cash, quantity, and other

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-873]

CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 16th day of March, A. D., 1944.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company.

All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Consolidated proposes to sell to Scott, Horner and Mason, Incorporated, an investment banking firm of Lynchburg, Virginia, all of the capital stock of Roanoke Gas Company ("Roanoke"), a subsidiary of Consolidated engaged in the gas utility business in and around Roanoke, Virginia. Said stock, consisting of 47,900 shares without par value, is proposed to be sold for $831,271, subject to adjustments for dividends and net earnings after January 1, 1944.

In connection with the sale by Consolidated of the stock of Roanoke, Consolidated proposes to sell to the same purchaser, $144,000 principal amount of First Mortgage 5½% Gold Bonds, due February 1, 1951, of Roanoke owned by Consolidated for 101% of the principal amount thereof and accrued interest.

Consolidated states that the Roanoke stock is presently pledged under the indenture securing the Collateral Trust Gold Bonds of Consolidated ("Consolidated Bonds") and that the Roanoke bonds owned by Consolidated are pledged under instruments securing certain bonds assumed by Consolidated and known as Federated Utilities, Inc. First Lien Collateral Trust 5½% Gold Bonds, due March 1, 1957 ("Federated Bonds"), but that said Roanoke bonds are also subject to a second lien under the indenture securing the above mentioned Consolidated Bonds. Consolidated further states that sufficient funds have been deposited with the trustee under the indenture securing the Federated Bonds for the retirement of all such Federated Bonds. It is proposed that the proceeds of the sale of the Roanoke stock shall, in effect, be applied in the retirement of Consolidated Bonds, such retirement to be effected by purchase of such bonds by Consolidated in the open market to the amount of such proceeds, the surrender of the bonds so purchased to the trustee under the indenture securing the same, and reimbursement of Consolidated from the proceeds of said sale for the amounts so expended by it. The moneys to be received from the sale of the Roanoke bonds are to be expended in like manner in the retirement of Consolidated Bonds when the proceeds of the sale thereof shall have been released from the lien of the Federated Bond indenture.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said application or declaration (or both) shall not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission.

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matters under the applicable provisions of said act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on March 28, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day, the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which the hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing copies of this order to Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, Roanoke Gas Company, the State Corporation Commission of Virginia, and the Mayor of Roanoke, Virginia; and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings, or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before March 24, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application or declaration (or both), particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the consideration to be received for the bonds and stock of Roanoke proposed to be sold is reasonable;

(2) Whether the proposed use of the proceeds of the sale of said securities in the retirement of the above mentioned Consolidated Bonds through purchases of such bonds in the open market is in conformity with the applicable provisions of the act;

(3) Generally, whether in any respect, the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers or will tend to circumvent any provisions of the Act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder

(4) Whether, if the proposed transactions are authorized, the imposition of terms and conditions is necessary and appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers and, if so, what terms and conditions should be imposed.

By the Commission.
